COVER: Christmas Tree of 1984 in Heritage Museum Grand Parlour

Ornaments were all hand made by the Museum Guild. Ideas are copied from the book The Gift of Christmas Past, a Return to Victorian Traditions, by Sunny O'Neil. Members crafted the decorations from paper lace, copies of antique post cards, blown out eggs, fabrics, tiny baskets, colored and metallic papers and card boards, satin braids and trims, and netting.
The Headquarters staff members threaded popcorn during lunch breaks and the little candle holders and candles were a loan from Lee McDonald Cassier, P<sup>a</sup>.
Ohio Wesleyan. The horn-a-plentys were a gift from Frances Winter Utley, TII-Alabama.

Every Christmas, former Fraternity president Sally Moore Nitschke, BN-Ohio State, loans the Museum her collection of toys and dolls (some of which belonged to Clara O. Pierce, BN-Ohio State). Katharine Wade Pen-nell, former executive secretary, BN, made the little cloth angel that graces the top of the tree, and Edith Mae Hamilton Herrel, also BN, loaned the doll's sleigh.

If Everyone Lit Just One Little Candle...

Julie Schilling Secrest BN-Ohio State, is a highly motivated Kappa who is totally committed to spreading peace. Her philosophy on the subject stresses peace being a conscious decision of the individual which can permeate the whole world. Her ideas were made real with a "Peace-o-Gram" sent out to the world with the help of 1,200 Delaware, Ohio students who formed an outline of the world with candles. The demonstration of peace was recognized by the National Education Association when Julie received the prestigious Irvanae Applegate Award for International Understanding. Julie was awarded a trip to Washington, D.C. and through her encouragement funds were raised to allow 29 of her students to travel with her to the nation's Capitol. Julie is presently working on a master's degree in Peace Education at Ohio State University and hoping to coordinate a curriculum which will synthesize life skill studies with traditional academics. Her warmth and enthusiasm radiate hope that peace is indeed a possibility and that possibility begins with us!

*... What A Bright World
This Would Be!*

This issue of The Key is filled with gifts for you. The gift of friendship ... something that you give yourself!
The gift of giving ... for it is through giving that we truly receive! The gift of heritage
... a proud past for a progressive future! The gift of membership ... belonging—being needed—being able to serve others—to grow in knowledge, truth and wisdom—to stretch the horizons of the mind to reach beyond and attain excellence. If there could be one single message for 1986 perhaps it would be the importance of YOU ... one person does make a difference—a world of difference. Be an active member of Kappa and enjoy the friendships around you.

Extend yourself—be all that you can be!

CALL TO CONVENTION

4/color file of Separations

A symbolic bell in historic Philadelphia is sounding the call for all Kappas to attend the 56th Biennial Conventional of the Fraternity. From June 19-25, the days will be filled with educational and inspirational activities geared to meet the needs and interests of today's membership.

The site of the Convention will be the Adam's Mark Hotel which offers ideal facilities for meetings, workshops, and special events. The location of the hotel is within short driving distance of the area of Philadelphia which was so rich in historic significance during the formative years of the United States.

"Heritage - Keystone of Excellence" is an appropriate and timely theme. We will reflect on those past accomplishments and time honored traditions which have given us permanence, strength, and stability over these 116 years. The progress of today's challenges and issues will be analyzed . . . tomorrow's future becomes a welcomed opportunity we look to with renewed confidence and enthusiasm.

The purpose of the Convention is to elect your Fraternity officers, to transact the business of the Fraternity, and to provide every delegate and visitor with an opportunity to grow and share in that wonderful experience which is Kappa.

Plan now to join your Kappa sisters at this important event in Philadelphia in 1986. I look forward to seeing you there!

Loyally,

MARIAN KLINGBEIL WILLIAMS
Θ-MISSOURI
FRATERNITY PRESIDENT

PHILADELPHIA BECKONS KAPPAS TO CITY OF FUN AND "BROTHERLY LOVE"

BY RUTH BRANNING MOLLOY
BA-PENNSYLVANIA

Today, on paper, we are taking a tour of Philadelphia guided by Ruth Branning Molloy, BA-Pennsylvania, so you can know what special treats are in store for you when you attend Kappa's biennial convention in June 1986.

We shall see: the site that made national headlines in 1985 and another that caused panic in 1976 . . . exciting murals painted both by professionals and the rankest of amateurs . . . carved objects that New York once owned . . . where Rocky ran, where George Washington prayed . . . where Dolley Madison lived and Jeannette MacDonald went to high school . . . where the mother of Princess Grace taught physical education . . . see the sites of some of the pies Benjamin Franklin had his finger in . . . where William Penn towers over (almost) all . . . the Parkway where the Beach Boys banner in July 1985 proclaimed "From Sea To Shining Sea."

You must know that the Adam's Mark Hotel is a big, well-equipped, comfortable hotel, with great convention facilities, but it is not what I think of when I think of Philadelphia . . . What do you think of? The Liberty Bell . . . Yes! I will tell you that since 1976 the Bell has been living in its own structure on Independence Mall, across from Independence Hall, its former address.

As we tour the city we see that many of our West Philadelphia houses were built during the last half of the 19th century. (I live over to the right a bit, a few blocks from Woodlands mansion and Woodlands Cemetery where every year I hold my Adopt-A-Grave picnic and walkabout as a program of the University City Historical Society . . .)

We're now on the University of Pennsylvania campus . . . Penn is always proud to announce that it was founded by Benjamin Franklin, our renowned citizen—actually we must share him with Boston and the rest of the world . . . He had his finger in every historical institutional pie in the city, as well as on his kite string . . . I once asked a new acquaintance if he knew much about Philadelphia. He said, "Oh, yes . . . the home of Benjamin Franklin and Grace Kelly!" The Princess's mother taught physical education to the girls at Penn before she was married, and her sister was Beta Alpha Chapter president—Lizanne Kelly LeVine . . . I'm pretty sure Franklin has no Kappa connection . . . but who knows?

For 87 years a Kappa chapter, Beta Alpha, helped shape women's history at the University of Pennsylvania. Beta Alpha made a valuable contribution . . . we can pass by our last chapter house, an attractive small 75-year-old house in which our alumnae took much pride. Did you realize that five women who can truly be called Pennsylvanians became Kappa's Fraternity or Grand Presidents? They were Tade Hartsuff Huhns, M-Butler; Mary Dechert Griffith Canby, BA-Pennsylvania; Florence Burton Roth, BA-Michigan; Helena Flinn Ege, I'E-Pittsburgh; and Rheva Ott Shryock, BA-Pennsylvania, the last of the "Grand" Presidents.

As we cross the bridge over the Schuylkill River, the dividing line between West Philadelphia and Center City, I want you to notice the eagles at the four corners. They were a gift from New York, taken from the demolished Penn Station . . . and if you look up the river you'll see the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Standing at the top of the inside main staircase is the statue of Diana, goddess of the hunt, which came from New York's old Madison Square Garden. In 1985 our Art Museum housed the marvelous Chagall exhibition . . . at almost the same time our famous Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, the country's first such school, held a retrospective Red Grooms exhibition. Broad Street, which this building faces, is the longest straight street in the world. We have other Firsts and Longest too but what does that matter unless excellence is also part of the picture? The first zoo, in Fairmount Park, the largest municipal park in the country, is also a first class zoo and students from all around the world come to it for study and observation . . . Fairmount Park is a beautiful and much-enjoyed park . . . Music centers, Robin Hood Dell east and west are there, the Schuylkill River runs through it and there oarsmen can be seen any day almost, racing or rehearsing or re-creating themselves! The fabulous Exposition of 1876 was celebrated in Fairmount Park. On the east bank of the Schuylkill the group of Victorian buildings known as Boat House Row can be seen at night with little lights dotting the outlines of these houses. Next to the houses stands the complex known as The Water Works which is an amazing mechanism! . . . later the main building became an aquarium . . . more recently it has been taken over as a project by the Junior League . . . A restaurant serves lunches and teas both publicly and privately as part of the project.

As our tour goes southeast on the Parkway you can see other museums—the Rodin, the Museum of Natural History, the Franklin Institute, and I hope you notice the little Victorian guard house that was left over from 1876 ... If you look back you'll see again the famous front steps of the Art Museum ... do you remember also a fine little film called "David and Lisa" in which two disturbed young people found some comfort in the same place where Rocky found renewed strength?

City Hall is the pivotal point of Broad Street. It is the building which says "I am Philadelphia" just as Independence Hall says "I belong to the country." The City Hall tower is topped by the William Penn statue ... In the center of the courtyard a painted compass points in all the recognizable directions and houses and streets are theoretically numbered from this juncture. An unwritten law dictated the height of Philadelphia buildings "no higher than Billy Penn's hat" ... but like all laws it was subject to discussion and in 1984-85 traditionalists lost out, so plans were soon underway to build a taller building!

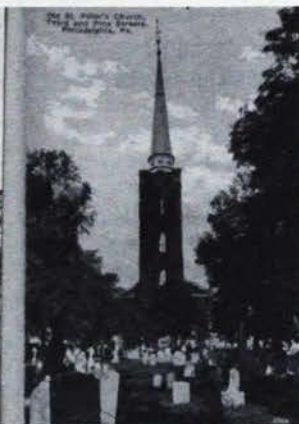

You will want to see Germantown and Chestnut Hill ... full of delightful buildings and historic sites ... the great northeast, the stadium, the beautiful Philadelphia suburbs where most of our alumnae live, or even the airport. There are wonderful old roads like Lancaster Pike where covered wagons left for the west and points between, where taverns sprang up, and inns, and towns along the way ... Old streets like Second Street, full of commerce, which, going north, turned into York Road to let you know you were really on your way to New York, across New Jersey, a two nights' journey ... Second Street further south is called Two Street and is the area the Mummies call home. If you were here on New Year's Day you could watch the Mummies do their famous strut up Broad Street.

Two blocks south on Broad Street is the famous Belle-

Although City Hall seems dwarfed by these nearby buildings, note that none of them is taller than William Penn's hat, an unwritten law of Philadelphia architecture, never broken till 1985 when permission was given to build higher. Above—two antique postcards depicting Christ Church, where Washington worshipped when he got into town; and St. Peter's Church which has three pulpits, one above the other.

From time to time a lively gentleman dresses up like Benjamin Franklin and cavorts in the Old City. His background here is the I.M. Pei designed Society Hill Towers complex.

vue-Stratford Hotel which was completely cleaned out and restored and its name changed to the Fairmont after the 1976 Legionnaires Disease and panic ... In a few years the name became Bellevue-Stratford again. Just down the street is the Old Lady of Locust Street, the Academy of Music, which has perfect acoustics, and is home to the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Your tour will give you a sense of the flavor of Colonial history—you can choose where you want to go and what a choice! ... The imaginative restoration on the site of the Franklin house ... the portrait gallery ... the Atwater Kent Museum of Philadelphia History ... the Maritime Museum ... the Balch Institute ... the Bourse ... the Toy Museum ... the reproduction of the house where Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence, Carpenters Hall, Independence Hall, the famous old churches ... Old Pine ... St. Peter's ... Christ Church where Washington worshipped ... The Friend's Meeting House ... St. Joseph's in Willing's Alley, St. Mary's where Captain John Barry, the "Father of the Navy" is buried ... the Mikveh Israel graveyard where Rebecca Gratz lies ... known as the prototype of Rebecca in Scott's Ivanhoe ... Elfreth's Alley, the oldest continuously residential street in the country ... the old hospitals ... Jefferson Hospital and Thomas Jefferson University ... Pennsylvania Hospital, the nation's first ... the Delaware River waterfront, with its museums, its marinas, its restaurants ... I've left out many wonderful things, I know ... How could I have forgotten the Mint and Betsy Ross?

But Kappas, why don't you discover Philadelphia treasures for yourselves? When we all meet you can tell me what you found, and Philadelphia will be a city for you to remember and cherish!

THE SILENT EPIDEMIC

BY LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN
BE-ADELPHI

There is no rash. No lumps appear. You don't feel weak or sick. It's invisible and insidious, but you may be part of the silent epidemic, one of the 20 million Americans who suffer from a major health problem.

You may have, or be at risk for osteoporosis.

Although it is termed a silent epidemic and most of us know very little about osteoporosis, we have been hearing more about it recently in magazines and on television. Osteoporosis literally means "porous bones". It is a painful, crippling and disfiguring disease that is eight times more common in women than in men, one which contributes to approximately one and one half million fractures annually, one which may cause a loss in height and the unsightly condition known as "dowager's hump". When loss of bone density has advanced to the point where 30 to 40% of the bone mass has been lost, the vertebrae start to collapse, eventually leading to the stooped posture called "dowager's hump". Loss of height can be as much as five or eight inches. One out of every four American women is now, or will be, a victim of osteoporosis.

We usually think of bone as a lifeless, solid mass. Wrong! Healthy bone is more like swiss cheese, or a honeycomb, and is in a constant state of change—always under construction. Old bone is broken down and removed through a process known as resorption, while new bone is added. Each year, between 10 and 30% of our entire skeleton is remodeled in this way. If we think of our bone structure as resembling swiss cheese, then osteoporosis is a degenerative condition in which the holes become larger than normal, causing the bones to become brittle and weak. This lack of bone mass or density allows fractures to occur from such simple movements as bending, lifting, or getting up from a chair or bed. We sometimes hear that, "Great-aunt Susie fell and broke her hip." However, the actual fact may be that her hip fractured spontaneously, causing her to fall.

What causes osteoporosis?

There is no specific cause . . . no bacteria or virus which can be isolated and attacked with a new wonder drug. We cannot go to a doctor or laboratory to discover if we have a mild case of osteoporosis. Before it can show on a conventional x-ray, there will have been a 25% loss of bone mass, a major loss that is not reversible. Rather than talk of causes, we must think in terms of "risk factors" of two types: those we can control and those over which we have no control. To get some idea of your own risk factor . . . your chances for developing osteoporosis . . . try answering the following questions:

1. Do you have a family history of osteoporosis?
2. Are your ancestors from the British Isles, northern Europe, China or Japan?
3. Are you very fair-skinned?
4. Are you small-boned?
5. Are you over 35?
6. Have you had your ovaries removed?
7. Did you breast-feed your baby?
8. Are you allergic to milk and milk products?
9. Is your daily routine stressful?
10. Do you smoke?
11. Do you drink alcohol?
12. Do you avoid milk and cheese in your diet?
13. Do you get very little exercise?
14. Do you drink a lot of soft drinks?
15. Is your diet high in protein?

The higher number of "yes" answers to these questions, the greater the risk of developing osteoporosis in the future. However, risk need not become reality. While there is no magic cure, there are preventive measures to avoid or retard the development of osteoporosis.

By what means do we control our risk factors? Let's go back to the basic picture of bone . . . good bone is dense bone; bone which has finer honeycombs, smaller holes in the swiss cheese. How does that happen? . . . through adequate intake and proper absorption of calcium in our daily diet. Bones serve as a calcium bank. A diet with an adequate daily intake of calcium enables our bones to store it and release it into the bloodstream as needed for various parts of the body. Calcium is also stored for later years when our bodies are no longer able to absorb calcium from our food as efficiently even though it is still needed for bone strength and density. As children and teenagers we absorb calcium and build our bone density to its maximum. Age 25 is generally regarded as the time of full bone growth and strength for most people. For about 15 years after that we maintain status quo. From age 35 on we absorb calcium somewhat less efficiently. From age 50 on (or at menopause) when estrogen production declines, our bones begin to weaken and become thinner as our bodies draw on the calcium in the bone bank for other needs. Since women generally live longer than men and have about 30% less bone mass to begin with, the drain on their stored calcium and consequent risk for osteoporosis is much greater.

Does the thought occur to you now that osteoporosis is not an "old folks disease" as it may have seemed to be? Is it a little scary to think that by the time you graduate from college your bone density is the best it will ever be? Your bones are going to get thinner and you're not even "over the hill" yet! Before we face that sobering thought, let's review those 15 questions and examine our risk factors.

Questions 1 through 8 are factors you cannot control. Skin color, bone structure, family history, allergies, early menopause are all genetic or medical situations for which we are not responsible. Questions 9 through 15 relate to diet and personal habits which we can control or modify. For example, a high protein diet (perhaps to lose weight) increases the excretion of calcium from the body. Stress means that less calcium is absorbed by the body. Lack of exercise, caffeine, alcohol and cigarettes are definite factors in the possible development of osteoporosis. While those of us who are fair-skinned and small-boned cannot do anything to change that, we can try to eliminate or cut down on cigarettes, alcohol, caffeine and stress and be sure we get the proper amount and kind of exercise and food.

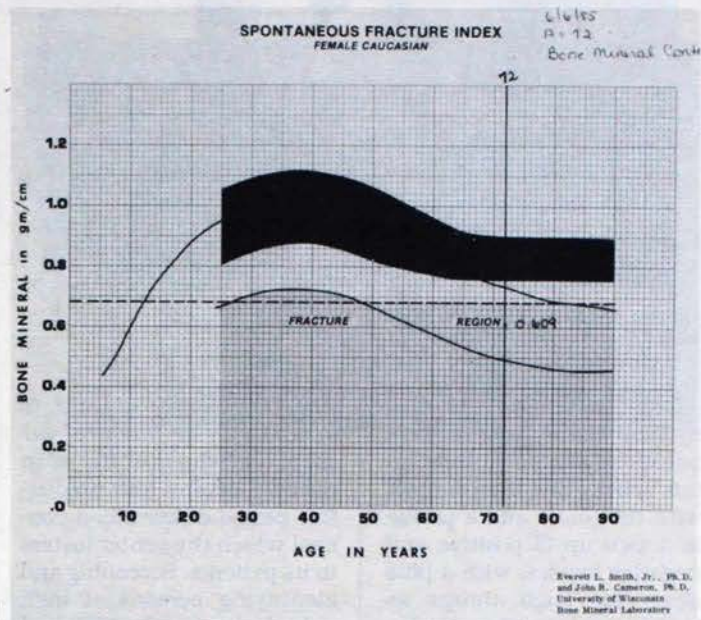

Probably the major factor in taking measures to prevent the development of osteoporosis, or to retard its progress, is to include sufficient calcium in your daily diet. We never "outgrow" our need for calcium and it has been found that two out of every three women over the age of 17 don't get enough. The RDA (Recommended Daily Allowance) was set at 800 milligrams generally; 1,000 to 1500 for post-menopausal or osteoporotic women. Low calcium intake is common, especially among the elderly in the United States, with the usual daily intake at only 450 to 550 mg. Dairy foods are the best source of calcium, but many adults declare they don't like them or are wary of the added calories. However, an eight ounce glass of skimmed milk contains 296 mg of calcium and 88 calories, as opposed to whole milk with twice the calories but only 8 mg more of calcium! Low-fat yogurt is another excellent source of calcium, as are canned sardines and salmon (eaten with the bones); oysters, fresh or canned; and leafy green vegetables such as dandelion, turnip, collard and mustard greens, kale, and that delicious munchy, broccoli.

Proper exercise is a must for many aspects of good health and it is a definite factor in osteoporosis prevention or control. Even light to moderate exercise is beneficial, but it must be "weight-bearing" exercise such as jogging, walking, biking, aerobics or jumping rope. Swimming, although good for other health problems, does not qualify here, since the water provides buoyancy and it is not, therefore, a weight-bearing exercise. NASA physicians found evidence of measurable bone loss in the first astronauts after just a short time in space due to weightlessness.

WARNING TO YOUNG WOMEN!

Excessive exercise can be harmful. Strenuous and continuing exercise such as long stints of running or practice for ballet dancing can contribute to the condition known as athletic amenorrhea in which the body ceases to produce estrogen due to the temporary cessation of menstrual periods. Since estrogen helps keep bones from dissolving and aids calcium absorption, a lack of estrogen contributes markedly to the loss of bone density and the tendency toward bone fractures. Medical records also show that young women with eating disorders such as anorexia nervosa who are also subject to amenorrhea, show larger than average incidences of bone fracture, from hairline fractures appearing on an x-ray, to actual breakage. The anorexic and the overly zealous athlete are both at high risk for developing osteoporosis later in life. Teenagers need more calcium than adult women—1200 to 1500 mg daily during this peak bone-building time. Recent studies show many younger women, especially those engaged in vigorous exercise, get only 200 mg daily. Young women and their mothers are strongly encouraged to follow good nutrition guidelines for their calcium intake.

In addition, if maximum bone density is not obtained during a woman's younger years; if, in fact, she is drawing on the calcium in her bone bank because of poor eating habits and/or excessive exercise, she is adding significantly to her risk of developing osteoporosis. Rather than contributing to bankruptcy in later years, make daily deposits in your bone bank account through proper diet and a good health regimen in your teens and twenties. Like every savings account, you'll be glad of the benefits later.

One of the reasons for this article is the interest generated in osteoporosis among members of the Philadelphia Alumnae Association. One of their members has extremely brittle bones and is at great risk of spontaneous fracture. Through her, the members became more aware of the threats of the disease and also of a testing process by which they might be more informed about their own risks. Yes, we did say earlier that there are no laboratory or blood tests to detect osteoporosis itself, but there are tests to determine bone density. A CAT scan, or single or dual photon absorptiometry test can show the relation of your bone density to that of the average for women of your age (single photon testing is cheapest and best for screening osteoporosis risk). Repeated tests may show if you are losing bone density and how fast, but these are not tests for diagnosing the disease, merely means of showing your relationship to the average. They cost upwards of $100 and are available only in major medical centers and teaching hospitals.

One such place is The Center for the Mature Woman, a part of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology of The Medical College of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Although devoted to a comprehensive health care program for women, a major focus of the center is osteoporosis. Dorothy M. Barbo, M.D. F.A.C.O.G., the director of the center, discussed numerous aspects of osteoporosis with me and explained the work being done at the center, including the test administered to a number of Philadelphia Kappas.

The patient gives her medical history and answers questions similar to those in this article. She then confers with the nurse and a profile is drawn up of positive and negative factors, with a plus given for such things as being a non-smoker, and a minus for lack of dairy products in the daily diet. Exercise, medications taken regularly, and other factors are taken into consideration. The patient then undergoes a single photon absorptiometry test; single being the test applied to the forearm, dual to the vertebrae. It is easy, brief and safe. The machine, as shown in the photo, takes a scan of the bone on the arm opposite to your preferred hand usage. A print-out is produced, which is then interpreted by Dr. Barbo and transposed to a chart which shows the patient's bone mineral content and the correlating spontaneous fracture index for her age. A report is then sent to the patient's doctor. Any woman may obtain such testing by asking her own physician where there is a medical center or teaching hospital nearby that offers such testing.

A brochure describing the services and background of The Center for The Mature Woman would seem somewhat familiar to any Kappa since it features a picture of a rose similar to that used with information about our own Rose McGill Fund, our Kappa-to-Kappa philanthropy. Dr. Barbo points out that the center pictures a mature rose, fully open and fragrant. It was chosen to symbolize the mature woman, one who is at the most positive, happy and productive period of her life, a concept which the center fosters in its patients. Screening and identifying persons at high risk of osteoporosis is one of the center's concerns; concerns which change yearly as more is learned about the disease. She stressed the need for prevention, since osteoporosis is not curable and the only thing that can be done for it, once begun, is to arrest its progress.

Since prevention is the best medicine, Dr. Barbo also stressed the need for young women to become aware of their need for calcium and their need to ensure that excessive exercise or poor eating habits do not deprive them of the opportunity to build strong bones in their early years.

Dorothy Barbo, M.D. director of The Center for the Mature Woman

Kappas of all ages will be able to learn more about osteoporosis from Dr. Barbo at our convention in Philadelphia in June, 1986. She will speak at the Philanthropy Dinner on Sunday night and with her assistant Florence Crawford, R.N., will offer a workshop for convention-goers. Kappa's philanthropy is all forms of rehabilitation, but Dr. Barbo hopes to stress prevention, thus eliminating the need for rehabilitation, in dealing with osteoporosis.

Whether we are in that magical 20-or-under age bracket, in the holding pattern of 20 to 35 or at an age when loss of bone density is already occurring, the only magic word we can say to negate the effects of osteoporosis is calcium. A conference conducted by the National Institutes of Health in April 1984 determined that the RDA as previously established was too low. Young women should have a daily intake of 1,000 to 1500 mg of calcium as a preventive measure. Post-menopausal women should take in 1500 mg unless they are on estrogen therapy, in which case 1,000 mg is adequate. There is little risk of absorbing too much calcium unless you exceed 2500 mg daily. However, those who show a tendency toward kidney stones should consult a doctor about adding more calcium to their daily intake.

Since the basic dietary intake of calcium is too low in most women, calcium supplements may be used, and there are many tablets on the market from which to choose. But be sure to read the label carefully. Some forms of calcium are absorbed much more readily than others and the calcium combinations vary greatly in the percentage of calcium included. Calcium carbonate contains a higher percentage of calcium (40%) than calcium lactate (13%) or calcium gluconate (9%). Calcium phosphate, new on the market, is also good. "Chelated" calcium tablets provide no added advantage and are more costly. Consumer Reports, October 1984, published a chart of calcium supplements rated on a cost-wise basis which compared calcium content per tablet with cost per tablet. The best source, with 200 mg per tablet and a cost of 12¢ per 1,000 mg was Tums Antacid! The best ratings among the various calcium supplements were Lederle's Caltrate 600, Miles' Biocal, Lilly's Cal-Carbonate, and Os-cal. Os-cal was the first marketed calcium supplement and remains a strong standard.

At this point in my research into osteoporosis, I began to do a little personal calculating. I am fair-skinned, small-boned, of British Isles ancestry. I don't like any form of exercise, do drink some alcohol, and am 55 years old. My diet contains a fair to good supply of dairy products; I love broccoli and don't lead a very stressful life. But since American women generally don't take in enough calcium, I am probably "Annie Average". I figured I should probably take a calcium supplement of about 600 mg daily to bring the total to 1,000 mg.

Off I went to my local drug-store, where I found that label reading and comparison was time consuming but very educational. After eliminating everything on the shelf... and there were many... that were not calcium carbonate combinations, I checked the number of milligrams per tablet, number of tablets per bottle, and bottle cost of each brand. I found that the store's own brand sold at $2.99 for a bottle of 60 tablets, each containing 600 mg of calcium carbonate. Based on one tablet per day, this worked out to a daily cost of only 5¢ for a two month supply. (I even discovered a special... two bottles for the price of one that week!) Not much to pay for a straight back and a continuing height of 5'4".

Philadelphia Alumnae Association will award a $3,000 graduate study grant at the 1986 Convention. Open to women, members and non-members, preparing for a career in health care for mature women, preference will be given to Kappas attending school in Beta Province. Contact Rehab. Chrm. Burns, BX-Kentucky, enjoy First Flight Supper.

Pennel Townsend, ΔΥ-Georgia; Melissa Ford, EN-Vanderbilt; Nan Chambers, ΓΔ-Purdue; Kim Perrone McLaughlin, BΘ-Tulane; and Ann

Marie Deer, also EN, model some of the items at the Kappa Klothes Kloset.

Colorful hot-air balloons graced the Nashville skies during the 1985 EAR for Music Balloon Classic while other colorful balloon decorations were the result of the artistic efforts of Melissa Ford, EN-Vanderbilt; Mary Eleanor Grote, ΓΠ-Alabama; Barbara Lau Burns, BX-Kentucky; and Mary Wiecke, a non-Kappa who is helping her friends.

UP, UP AND AWAY GOES NASHVILLE!

It wasn't just the beautiful hot-air balloons, but creative programming and enthusiastic participation in philanthropy efforts that made it such an "up" year for some Nashville alumnae. But balloons and a clothing bazaar provided fun with their philanthropy efforts for EAR.

"First Flight", an elegant supper, was part of a three-day balloon classic fund raiser for the Education and Auditory Research (EAR) Foundation. Mary Eleanor Grote, ΓΠ-Alabama, was chairman of the supper and hostesses for the evening were Kappa alumnae.

More than 20 hot-air balloons, French and American flags, and the 129th Army Band of the Tennessee National Guard set the pace for the party which commemorated the first hot-air balloon ride in 1783 in Versailles, France.

Nashville Kappas turned out to support the event, planned by Ann Rodgers Whetsell, BΘ-Oklahoma, who works for the foundation. They presented a contribution from their philanthropic fund to the EAR Foundation. They also enthusiastically supported the first annual Kappa Klothes Kloset, a used clothing bazaar co-chaired by Pennel Townsend, ΔΥ-Georgia, and Nan Chambers, ΓΔ-Purdue, with proceeds going to EAR. Among the services offered by EAR are public and medical education and support of research on hearing problems and related disorders, co-sponsorship of the Hearing Ear Dog Program and courses in basic sign language.

Celebrating the end of a year of successful and satisfying activities, Nashville alumnae and their favorite men enjoyed "La Nuit de la Fleur-de-lis", a French picnic supper.

Bubbles and hot-air balloons are light and frivolous, but the sisterhood and philanthropic work of the Kappas in Nashville are deep and lasting.

ALUMNAE ACTIVITY ...

NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE social event of the boating season in New Hampshire was the christening of The Golden Key, a new boat belonging to Bill and Bobbi Smith Arnold, ΔN-Massachusetts. The New Hampshire Club includes Kappas from all over the state and many of their activities take place in the summer.

A cruise of Portsmouth

Harbor was followed by dinner at a member's home and a special visitor for the occasion was Director of Alumnae Wilma Winberg Johnson, also ΔN. Elford and Joan McLellan Nash, ΔP-Mississippi; Martha Spurgeon Fisher, ΓΔ-Purdue; Bobbi Arnold, and Aldie Johnson paused for a picture before presentation of the "christening gift" from Martha Fisher and the N.H. alumnae club... a golden key, of course!

PALO ALTO

Welcome to spring Kappa-style was enjoyed by Palo Alto alumnae with a visit to Maryott's Irish Garden in San Jose. Betty Major Emory, ΓM-Oregon State; Virginia Benfer Ott, BZ-Iowa; Kathryn Rich Shumway, ΔA-

Penn State; Carolyn Currie Liniak, ΔB-Duke; Karla Kraft Taylor, ΓA-Kansas State; Jeanne Kurtzon Rudiger, T-Northwestern; Diane Oravec McGrillis, Φ-Boston; Rean Cannon, ΔΨ-Texas Tech; Jean Trinklein Wolfgram-Hull, ΔΓ-Michigan State, admired the blue iris, of course!

GLENDALE-BURBANK

Norma Dow Patten, BK-Idaho, was honored with a Gracious Living Award given in her name by the Glendale-Burbank alumnae, and presented for the first time at Kappa Province Meeting. The award, a silver tray, recognizes the chapter which has best exemplified gracious living during the biennium, and was presented to EII-University of California-Riverside.

Norma was a charter member of BK and has received her 50 and 65-year pins. She and her sister-in-law, Helen Patten Miller, also a charter member of BK, helped re-establish Rho Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan in 1925.

An active volunteer during World War II, Norma gave 2000 hours of volunteer service with the Regular Army Warning System in Los Angeles and was personally recognized for her work by both General Marshall and General Doolittle.

At 89, Norma is still active, serving as secretary of the Los Angeles Society of Ophthalmology and of Otolaryngology (Eye and ENT sections of the Los Angeles County Medical Association), having held these positions since 1960.

The award was presented by Becky Kummerfeld Paden, ΓO-Wyoming, past president of the alumnae group where Norma has served as secretary and treasurer. Norma's daughter, Mary Diane Endicott, also a BK, is also a member of the alumnae group.

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

Kappas and food go together and Northern New Jersey Kappas ended their year with a luncheon at the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY. An exquisitely served five course meal was too much even for Kappa appetites and their "doggy bags" turned out to be foil packages twisted into the shapes of birds and animals.

Peeking into the kitchen with a student chef are Mary Elizabeth Campbell Smith, EH-Auburn; Marcia Noyes Archibald, Ψ-Cornell; Randy Pearson Van Dam, ΓK-William & Mary; Stephanie Spain Coppola, BX-Kentucky; Martha Knoll Winters, BN-Ohio State.

KAPPA IS FOREVER

In June 1985 Kappas of the Washington, DC-Suburban Maryland area celebrated the 50th anniversary of their bridge club. Starting in 1935 with 16 members, their numbers are now down to 12, of whom three could not make it for the group picture. One member notes that "After 12 meetings a year for 50 years . . . that comes to 600 meetings . . . a few absences are forgiven!"

Wash. DC-Sub MD Alumnae ✓
X-Minnesota; Vivian Andrews Schebley, Ω-Kansas; Perla Beckham Lareson, BZ-Texas; Catherine Brand Grove, BA-Illinois. "Excused absentees" are Jeannette Rogers Mason, BZ-Iowa; Helen Heenly Schutz, BT-Syracuse; Maude Loveless Collings, ΓA-Purdue.

Although Beta Iota (Swarthmore) is no longer an organized alumnae group, having surrendered their charter several years ago, some members are able to continue meeting and very much enjoy their gatherings and sharing of sisterhood. The group boasts four 75-year members: Elsie Cadwallader Wood, Rachel Shoemaker Matthews, Marguerite Reeves Raymond, Victoria Lesley Steigelman, all BI-Swarthmore.

SISTERHOOD IN SEOUL

Insignia rings were the key to sisterhood in Seoul, Korea. Four Kappas were brought together by chance, each noticing the KKG insignia ring worn by the other. To celebrate the coming of spring to the capital city of the Land of the Morning Calm, the group met for luncheon at the elegant Ninth Gate Restaurant in the Westin Chosun Hotel in downtown Seoul.

All of the ladies are very involved with local women's charitable organizations, scout troops, etc. and are enjoying the opportunity to experience the culture of Korea as their husbands pursue their careers there.

Barbara Weeks Phinney, ΓΘ-Drake, whose husband is with the Bank of Boston; Jane Welder Robb, BZ-Texas, (seated) married to the general manager of Bechtel International; Andrea Schultz Baxter, ΓH-Washington State, whose husband is an attorney with an international law firm; Bonnie Lanman Tinker, BII-Washington, whose husband is resident manager of the Westin Chosun Hotel, are pictured during their "charter meeting".

LITTLE EGYPT

There has never been an alumnae group in southern Illinois . . . that is, not until Ellen Schoenberg Moore, BA-Illinois, moved to Carbondale and got one started. After her move two years ago she discovered that there was no Kappa group within 100 miles in any direction. After many phone calls and letters to Epsilon Province Director of Alumnae Nancy Voorhees Laitner, ΓA-Purdue, a group of 18 Kappas met and formed the new club. Their short-term goal is to get to know each other better.

Members of this enthusiastic group are (seated) Linda

SAME TIME NEXT YEAR

Alumnae of the early and mid-sixties of ΔX-San Jose State met for a reunion at the home of Connie Loveday

Lurie in Atherton. Since Delta Chi Chapter surrendered its charter in the late sixties, it has been difficult to keep in touch but it is hoped that missing friends will join in another reunion in the summer of 1986. ΔX members of the sixties are asked to write to Judy Woodward Simkin, 1888 Green Valley Road, Danville, CA 94526.

Johnston Pankake, Δ-Indiana, treasurer; Dorothy Royse Bailey, ΓI-Washington University; Ellen Schoenberg Moore, BA-Illinois, president; Jessie Daniel Wolff, also BA; Jessie Wall Daniel, T-Northwestern; Janet Mackabee Fryman, ΔΔ-Miami, secretary; (standing) Pat Corley Rausenberger, E-Illinois Wesleyan; Emilee Buenett Robertson, Θ-Missouri; Patricia Watson Shaw, also T; Maurine Gray Springer, Ω-Kansas; Millicent Simonds McElheny, I-DePauw, reference chairman; Katherine Forester Derbak, BZ-Iowa; Gladys Schloeffel Harrison, also E.

Little Egypt Alumnae
The group was especially happy to present both a 50 and a 65-year pin to Jessie Daniel, Daughter Jessie Wolff "pinned" her mother in her hospital bed.

BALTIMORE

An old-fashioned crab feast and a dip in the pool brought out Baltimore alumnae and their families for some summer fun. Kappa swimmers are (front) Alice Dabney Bernstein, BZ-Iowa; Joyce Price McCausland, Theresa Suarez-Marias and Karen Ross Kipnes, all ΓΨ-Maryland; (rear) Lynn Harbold, ZA-Babson; Lee Ann Robinson, ΓK-William & Mary; Jean Rockhill Pluchar, ΓΔ-Purdue; Kitty Dennis Thomson, also ΓΨ; Ann Halberstadt McDowell, ΔΔ-Penn State.

CINCINNATI

Profits from the KKT Paper Caper Express fulfilled the commitment of the Cincinnati alumnae to contribute $55,000 to the Community Limited Care Dialysis Center. Contributions have been made since 1977 from the fund raising project which involves more than 100 area alumnae. (See The Key, Fall 1981 cover story.)

A self-supporting corporation, the CLCDC does not charge a fee to patients. Since it receives no other donations, the center greatly appreciates Kappa's contributions and help in purchasing dialysis machines. A bouquet of iris was sent to alumnae president, Jayne Clark Aglamesis, BPΔ-Cincinnati, in celebration of the fulfillment of their donation commitment.

Joy Guyle, CLCDC administrator, Joyce Payne McDermott, ΓX-George Washington; Frances Ahlering Browne and Cynthia Browne, both BPΔ; Gay Thurston Koetzle, ΔΔ-Miami; and Jane Aglamesis attended the presentation of the most recent donation of $8200 for two machines.

LEE COUNTY

A Heart-to-Heart Silent Auction raised funds which Lee County, FL alumnae gave to ΕΦ-Florida for use in their chapter house. Checking the merchandise are Betty Copeland Coffman, ΔΔ-Miami; Mary Lou Wakefield Huber, BT-Syracuse; Dorothy Frazier Stuart, ΓΩ-Denison; Dorothy Jenkins Kline, BA-Michigan; Christy Horry Roberts, Ω-Kansas.

The third annual College Sorority Preview sponsored by the Lee County Panhellenic for college-bound high school seniors and their mothers had Missie Eshbaugh, ΕΦ-Florida; Christy Horry Roberts, Ω-Kansas; and King Montgomery Kouns, BX-Kentucky, on hand at the Kappa table.

HOUSTON

"We've always done it that way" and "That won't work here" are self-limiting notions that can effectively stifle any attempt at progress. But Houston alumnae never thought in these terms. Instead they invited anyone who was interested to attend a brainstorming session to spark their alumnae programming, and the result was some highly successful ideas.

With three million people in an area the size of Rhode Island, it is very easy to lose touch with Kappa friends. The decision was made to "Reach out and touch someone", and the board called each Kappa in the area, encouraging her to join Kappa activities, verifying names and addresses, finding out how each Kappa was doing and how the alumnae group might help.

It was Peggy Emmons Geddie, ΔP-Mississippi, who originated the idea and at the May board meeting she was "crowned" by Mary Alice Gray Dunscombe, Θ-Missouri, with a straw hat decorated with directory pages, silk fleur-de-lis, and an owl perched on a telephone! Members of the board who had completed their calling lists were each given an "Owl be calling you Award" certificate and a pair of telephone-shaped earrings. Peggy has followed up the calls by using her computer to develop a "Meet Your Kappa Neighbor" Plan for ten area luncheons.

Mary Alice ("M.A.") and Johnette Foster Dodson, ΔI-Louisiana State, also evolved plans for an "All New Christmas Pilgrimage 1986". Previous proceeds have gone to The Shoulder, a residential treatment and rehabilitation center for those suffering from alcohol and drug addiction, to furnish a new bedroom in the women's facility; to the Houston Child Guidance Center which provides counseling and therapy for emotionally troubled young people; and to the Brookwood Community, a training and employment opportunity center for functionally disabled adults. Funds went to their Horticultural Center for the continued expansion of their program which provides high quality plants and trees for sale to wholesale nurseries and landscapers, with the proceeds being reinvested in the program. Linda Bowman Gillman, ΓΦ-Southern Methodist, philanthropy chairman; Acia Elliott Cagle, BZ-Texas, and Sabra Stratton Steed, ΔZ-Colorado College, ways and means co-chairmen, are pictured outside one of the greenhouses.

Other local philanthropies share in Houston's giving and the members anticipate continuing forward momentum in their enthusiasm for Kappa caring and sharing.

NORTHERN VIRGINIA

The EnDependence Center of Northern Virginia received $1600 from Kappa alumnae for its independent living skills program. The money was raised by the raffle of their needlework group's dark red and blue Storm at Sea quilt, and included a portion of the Fraternity philanthropy grant at Lambda Province meeting.

Sara Mae Peterson Eckstein, BII-Washington, and Sally Wagner Seinwill, H-Wisconsin, displayed the quilt before the raffle.

Northern Virginia alumnae have a group of young members, most of them recent graduates, who meet monthly as the "Night Owls". In a large metropolitan area such as this, the group has a better opportunity to become acquainted and enjoy each other's com-

SACRAMENTO VALLEY

A gala celebration honored the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Sacramento Valley Alumnae Association. A $500 scholarship was given in the name of their charter members. Phyllis Brinton Pryor, BM-Colorado was the honored guest. She presented Mildred Mekeel McDuffee, X-Minnesota, first president of the group, with her 65-year pin.

Charter members Grace Burgett Dean, IT-Whitman, and Marjorie Hubbell Matthew, E-Nebraska, are pictured with Phyllis and Mildred.

FROM MY KAPPA MAILBOX...

The president's letter from Juin Whipple Foresman, BA-Illinois, of the Saddleback-Capistrano Valley group says, in part...

"Ours is a small, pleasant, UNdemanding group; a welcome haven of pure friendship in today's over-committed society. You are already a member, you know, because in the great wisdom of youth you chose KKT... You're being RUSHED again, right now, by your alumnae club. We like you and want you to join us."

The Directory is enclosed, and with it a "coupon book" which is actually a group of R.S.V.P. slips for their couples' party, dues, Founders' Day and holiday greens sale. Each is a different color and attractively decorated with sketches. All a member needs to do is send in the appropriate "coupon" according to the printed instructions and she is all set... a clever idea that any group could use.

Sandra Schmeising Haggerty, FE-UCLA, president of the Glendale-Burbank alumnae, reminds us in her president's letter...

"You are all very involved and busy women of many ages; you have rewarding careers; you are mothers of legacies and future fraternity men; you are members of your church, your PTA, professional organizations, charity groups; you pursue exciting hobbies and craft projects. You are always a KAPPA!"

"When you are pulled in all directions trying to really be that 'Super Woman', remember that Kappa can be a comfort and a stabilizing force, a treasure of strength and support."

"Kappa is a lifetime commitment. Become an active Kappa again."

OWL'S EYE GLIMPSES...

■ Caroline Cole Tolle, ΔΔ-Miami, was selected as Sustainer of the Year by the Junior League of Sarasota, FL. Previous winners include Ruth Hess, BA-Illinois, and Judy Fowler Quealy, also ΔΔ. Employed as executive director of the Volunteer Talent Pool, Caroline was also elected president of the Agency Executive Council, composed of the 25 directors of the United Way Agencies in Sarasota, and as vice president of the Florida Association of Volunteer Centers.

■ Sandra Schreib, TP-Allegheny, is a senior trainer of "Chuckles", a dolphin who lives in a tank at the Pittsburgh Zoo. He responds to hand signals and can demonstrate 13 different trained behaviors. Sandi enjoys Chuckles' training while studying for her master's degree in professional writing at Carnegie-Mellon.

■ Carol Hyde Buchan, BII-Washington, unites designing with sailing. An accomplished sailor and artist, her business, Carol Buchan Design operates out of her home and has resulted in about 600 names painted on boats in the Puget Sound area. She juggles her business to fit in with her competitive sailing and with her family, two young children and husband Carl, a gold medal sailor in the Olympic Games.

■ Suzanne Young Allen, T-Northwestern, is a director of the Association of Junior Leagues. Past president of the Fort Lauderdale, FL group, she has also been an Area III Council chairman and is active in several Broward County civic organizations.

■ Georgeann Davis Scott, ΔΨ-Texas Tech, is the broker/owner of Georgeann Scott Real Estate, Vernon, TX. She features videotaping of homes listed for sale, offers a newcomer's assistance program, and has student coordinators who help the children of new families through their first days at intermediate or high schools.

■ Louise A. Meyer, BP<sup>A</sup>-Cincinnati, was appointed branch loan and operations officer, retail banking, by Union Trust Company, Greenwich, CT.

■ Priscilla Partridge-Rankin de Garcia, ΔT-Southern California, is Women's Re-entry counselor at Ventura College, and is a marriage, family and child counselor in private practice in Westlake and Ventura. She was recently married to Dr. Pedro de Garcia, director of special projects in the Garden Grove Schools.

■ Lois Haight Herrington, ΔX-San Jose State, Assistant Attorney General for Justice Assistance, Research and Statistics, U.S. Department of Justice (see The Key, Spring '84), was a member of the U.S. delegation to the U.N. conference on the Decade for Woman where she was involved with the key issue of family violence.

■ Joan Isaacs Litman, ΔT-Georgia, received the 1985 Excellence in Teaching Award of the Westminster Choir College of Princeton, NJ, following a statewide competition among elementary music educators.

A member of the faculty of the Mustard Seed School in Hoboken, NJ, Joan received a Graduate Fellowship Award from Kappa in 1982 to continue her studies in music education in Hungary.

NAMES IN THE NEWS...

■ Jane Railton Wheaton, II<sup>A</sup>-U. California-Berkeley, is the Consular Agent of France in Sacramento, CA. An appointed and unsalaried position, Jane's work consists of being a "facilitator" for French students, businessmen and tourists who need help.

Never knowing what the problem will be when she answers the phone adds to the fascination of her work. The bulk of it deals with documentation: visas, passport renewals, translation certification, etc. but Jane also helps with transfers of funds, heraldry, marriages, divorce, custody, pensions, and more. A teacher of French and English in St. Michael's Episcopal Day School in Carmichael, Jane most enjoys assisting foreign students intending to travel to France and helping French citizens and businessmen who come to Sacramento.

Along with her salaried and "honorary" positions, Jane is also working on her masters in French and International Affairs at California State-Sacramento. She manages to find time to serve on the board of the Sacramento Theatre Company, teach exercise classes twice weekly, and has served in the Junior League and the Windemere Park Board.

Her own strong international orientation leads Jane to hope that her service as a French Consular Agent may in some small way help to bring people together and show that people can be friends and learn from each other, regardless of diverse national backgrounds.

■ Tracey Stoll, IO-Wyoming, was named director of communications for Sigma Alpha Epsilon National Fraternity in Evanston, IL. She is the first woman in the history of the fraternity to be appointed to a department directorship. In this position, she is responsible for editing and publishing a quarterly magazine with a circulation of 67,000, conducting fraternity public relations programs, producing newsletters and other publications, and managing photographic collections.

Tracey previously served a Chicago advertising agency as an account executive and earlier worked in advertising and public relations in Cheyenne, WY, where she served as secretary, vice president and president of the alumnae association.

Judy Crowell

■ Judy Crowell, EZ-Florida State, is the PM Magazine co-host on WZZM-TV, Grand Rapids, MI. In the five years since receiving her degree in media communications, she has worked for the top rated PM Magazine in Madison, WI.

Frequently a guest speaker for private organizations, Rotary Clubs, university journalism classes, etc. she has also been an active community worker with United Cerebral Palsy, March of Dimes, and local theatre guilds.

■ Barbara Holcomb Lange, FK-William & Mary, has opened her own firm, Barbara Lange & Associates, a full-service public relations/marketing agency, in Fort Lauderdale, FL. Included in the firm's client roster are Ocean World, Junior Achievement of South Florida, Legal Awareness for Women in Florida, and Associates for Psychological Services. A division of her company is a creative services bureau which represents free-lance artists, writers and photographers in the south Florida area.

With 20 years of experience in public relations and advertising, Barbara has also written, produced, and hosted her own television show, "From a Woman's Point of View" and created "AIM—Art Institute Magazine", a TV program showcasing the talents of Art Institute students and faculty.

Active in civic affairs, Barbara serves on the boards of

Jane Wheaton

Women in Distress of Broward County, Women in Communications, Inc., Broward Art Guild, Sexual Assault Treatment Center, and other community organizations.

■ Lucretia Leonard Romey, Δ-Indiana, won first prize in the American Quilters Society Show with her quilted wall hanging "Cityscape". She used a thimble which originally belonged to her great-great-grandmother and did some of the needlework during meetings of the St. Lawrence Alumnae Association.

The 50 x 64 inch piece is in shades of lavender, grey and silver against a brilliant mauve and orange sky. Along with operating a shop, "The Gallery", in Canton, NY, Lucretia has taken part in many exhibitions in the eastern part of the country.

Her daughter, Gretchen Romey-Tanzer, who works in fiber art, joined with Lucretia's paintings and sketches in an exhibit of "Seaforms" inspired by the family's knowledge of sea creatures in Cape Cod and in Florida.

■ Deborah Ullrich Johnson,  $\Gamma\text{B}$ -New Mexico, is senior vice president and co-owner of Rick Johnson & Company, New Mexico's largest advertising, marketing and public relations agency. She shares management responsibilities with her husband and two other senior vice presidents in supervising 60 accounts.

A member of the American Association of Advertising Agencies and the New Mexico Advertising Federation, Debbie also serves on the board of directors of the Albuquerque Little Theatre, Healthquest and the Better Business Bureau. A frequent speaker for executive women's groups, she is a National Forensic League speech tournament judge and teaches communications or writing classes for the Department of Continuing Education at the University of New Mexico.

Adding advisory and house board service for Gamma Beta to her list of activities, Debbie still manages to be a regular columnist and editor for a businesswomen's section that she originated for the state's largest daily newspaper. An award-winning journalist, she is working on her first book about a historical New Mexican personality.

■ Theresa Maiuri Dean,  $\Delta\text{I}$ -Louisiana State, has been named advertising manager for Business Management Systems (BMS), a division of Informatics General Corporation. She will also continue as creative director for BMS, a position she assumed in 1984.

Prior to her affiliation with Informatics, she was a graphic artist with Equifax, Inc. of Atlanta and the Westinghouse Corporation in Pittsburgh.

Informatics BMS Division, based in Atlanta, produces computer software for the public accounting, property management, construction and legal markets.

■ Allison Allen Holland,  $\Gamma\Phi$ -SMU, is past-president of the Hawaii chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) and designed and decorated the living room for Showhouse '85, a fund-raising project of ASID and the Honolulu Symphony Association.

Like the shoemaker's family who always have holes in their shoes, Allison stated in an interview in the April 1985 issue of Honolulu Magazine that her own house is "constantly in motion... revolving and changing all the time. By the time I finish one end, the other end is ready to be redone."

An interior decorator for 23 years, she shops constantly for herself and her clients, which average about 15 at any one time. Widely travelled in Europe and the Orient, Allison continued her studies four years ago at Parson's School of Design in Paris.

Active in the community, Allison has worked with the YMCA, the Hawaiian Humane Society, the Academy of Arts, Junior League, and the Hawaiian Alumnae Association, where Kappa sisters are proud of their talented member.

KAPPAS ABROAD

■ "Boots" Alexe Stockton Beran,  $\Delta\text{Z}$ -Colorado College, spent three years in West Germany during her husband's tour of duty as an army helicopter pilot. She really wished for a friend during the first year but did not know that Jane Benham Frank,  $\Delta$ -Indiana, lived just 30 minutes from her until she read about Jane in "Hello, Out There!" in the fall '84 Key. Now back in the U.S. in Golden, CO, Boots looks forward to a reunion when Jane visits relatives in California. Jane also wrote that a long lost roommate from college days got in touch with her after reading the item in The Key.

Eva McBeth, Mme. Galbraith, Brad Parks

■ Eva Mecluskay Beth,  $\text{BA}$ -Pennsylvania, was chairman of planning and liaison for the First World Wheelchair Tennis Open in Antony, France. She arranged a reception by the American Embassy as well as corporate sponsorship from IBM and TWA. (See The Key, Winter '83, "Hello, Out There!" for Eva's experiences living abroad.) She is pictured with

"IN THE HONORS OF ONE..."

Ann Elder

■ Ann Elder, I-DePauw, received an alumni citation from Dr. Richard F. Rosser, president of her alma mater for her achievements in the field of television comedy writing. As a writer, consultant or actress she has worked for each of the three major networks and has received two Emmy Awards for her work. She was a 1976 recipient of Kappa's Alumnae Achievement Award.

■ Carrie Case Worcester, TM-Oregon State, is Dr. Worcester, director of neonatal intensive care at Children's Hospital, Orange County, CA. It was she you saw on television in May when she reported on the status of the Frustaci septuplets.

As one of a team of six, Carrie happened to take the first baby, "Baby A". A dedicated pediatrician, Carrie says her husband is her strongest supporter. Dr. Howard (Les) Worcester is an internist in private practice and the couple has three young children.

■ Letha Yurko Hunter, BN-Ohio State, practices orthopedic medicine in Atlanta, GA (and happens to be one of the partners of Dr. Robert Wells, husband of former Fraternity President Jean Hess Wells, ΔT-Georgia). She likes working with her hands and the feel of making plaster casts as well as the immediacy of results with something like a fractured arm. Dr. Hunter enjoys sports medicine and places emphasis on teaching how to prevent injuries from happening.

Eleanor Donaldson

■ Eleanor Carlock Donaldson, ΔE-Carnegie Mellon, was honored as 1985 Volunteer of the Year by the Greater Pittsburgh Guild for the Blind. A volunteer librarian for the guild since 1979, she reorganized their resource materials and has maintained the library organization. A.D. Fulton, chairman of the board of directors of the guild, presented the award.

■ Gretchen Bence, BB<sup>A</sup>-St. Lawrence, received an honorary doctor of music degree from St. Lawrence in recognition of her career achievements as a singer. She toured for several years with the Robert Shaw Chorale before going to Stuttgart, Germany, for further study under a Fullbright Scholarship. She sang for sixteen years as a member of the State Opera there and since 1976 has been a member of the Vienna State Opera and a professor of voice at the Vienna Conservatory of Music.

Kathy Williams

■ Kathy Huckabay Williams, ΔQ-Fresno, was crowned Queen of the Sea of Cortez Race Week in La Paz, Mexico. About 200 boats from the United States and Canada competed in the second annual race. Kathy and her husband Rich went on to Hawaii after the race and in September returned to their San Francisco Bay Area home after two years of sailing on their boat "Horizons".

■ Lisa Schmidt, BΘ-Okla-homa, was recognized as an outstanding alumna for her contributions to the Oklahoma University Greek community. Chapter president, traveling consultant, chapter consultant and alumnae officer for Kappa, Lisa is director of pre-admission activities at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and is president of the Great Plains Association of College Admissions Counselors.

Marjorie Garretson

■ Marjorie Davis Garretson, BA-Illinois, is a 50-year Kappa, twice president of the Tucson Alumnae Association, and an enthusiastic and talented ballroom dancer. She has competed in national contests in Las Vegas, New York and Miami and has won gold medals for International Foxtrot, Tango-Eastern Swing, Rhumba-Cha cha, and Waltz-Foxtrot. Slim, trim and enjoying herself, she is shown dancing the "Theatre Arts Waltz" at the 1984 Fred Astaire competition, for which she won a gold medal.

■ Joy Cole Hill, P<sup>A</sup>-Ohio Wesleyan, was the 1985 recipient of the Agnes Henebry Roll of Honor Award given by the Newspaper Division of the Special Libraries Association. She is photo librarian with USA Today and is responsible for the selection, storage and retrieval of photos and graphics. Her colleagues applaud her professional excellence and Joy urges other Kappas to consider newspaper library work, a second career that has given her great personal satisfaction.

■ Elizabeth Barbee Bender, BX-Kentucky, received the Food Management Gold Plate Award from the International Restaurant Association. The first woman to receive the award, Betty is food supervisor for the Dayton, OH Public Schools. (See The Key, Fall '82.)

KAPPA ABCs BEGIN WITH AAI

Anyone who is really involved in Kappa knows that we have our own alphabet. We have PDCs and PDAs . . . our province directors of chapters and alumnae. There is TC for traveling consultant and CC for chapter consultant (or chapter council). We have ABs (advisory boards) and OT (officer training), and of course everything must be done ASAP!

But our Kappa alphabet really begins with AAI—Active Alumnae Interaction . . . the communication that makes the alphabet meaningful. Like the tree illustrated in the last issue, we Keep Kappa Growing through AAI. The pledges and actives who are the roots and trunk and the alumnae who are the branches and leaves exchange their strengths as the tree draws from all its parts to grow.

And the best things about AAI is that it's fun! Founders' Day, a tea, working for philanthropy, the Key Girl program in rush, making a banner or initiation robes, sharing career information . . . the possibilities are endless. Call your local chapter, write to the distant chapter you have "adopted", ask what help they need, offer your suggestions. You're sure to find your own ways . . . from A to Z . . . to add to your Kappa alphabet.

Arcadia alumnae made new initiation robes for ZH-U. of California-Irvine. Among the five ladies who used their sewing skills were Sandra Imhoff Killian, ΔT, and Mary Jane Beachler Lightcap, ΓE-Pittsburgh.

Kappa involvement is a family affair for the Saylers. Jodi, ΔA-Miami, is rush chairman this fall; Julie, also ΔA, is pledge chairman; Kelly Saylor Krah, Ω-Kansas, alumnae rush adviser to BΘ-Oklahoma; mom Janet Stanzel Saylor, BZ-Iowa, co-chairman of the Kansas City, MO Kappa Holiday House Tour.

The Delta Sigma chapter at Oklahoma State has recently taken a new turn in its philanthropy goals, writes Sharon Brannan, ΔΣ-Oklahoma State, philanthropy chairman. "While major fundraising projects have in the past proven to be a worthwhile source of income for social agencies and organizations, they have failed to promote individual philanthropic participation. Such fundraisers as candy or raffle sales, for example, only ensure that a girl will turn in a set amount of money, and because fulltime students seldom have the time required to solicit funding, the money often comes mostly from the members themselves. Therefore, the girls not only do not devote individual time for helping people, but they also do not develop positive feelings toward philanthropy itself. . . . Our chapter has thus begun to stress member participation in activities which require only minimal amounts of time or in which individual members hold an interest." Some of these activities have been participation in a fun run and in a walk-a-thon, a can drive initiated by a fraternity, and a can drive initiated by Delta Sigma. Also, several Delta Sigma Kappas provided food and shelter last semester to victims of a sorority house fire which had been caused by lightning. The girls had been barred from reentering their home by fire officials. "None of the forementioned activities were required, yet house member participation in the past was neither more easily tapped nor given with such positive attitudes." Delta Sigma also has two major projects—Eight years ago, the chapter adopted Esta Koeller, who is now 99 years old. In the first years, she was not living in a nursing home and the members took her shopping, to church, or brought her to the house for Monday night formal dinner. Now that she lives in a nursing home, the members visit her weekly by committees. "She feels very special that we chose her to be our 'grandma' and greatly appreciates the visits. She is a joy to us also."

The second major project of Delta Sigma has just started and is with the Campus Area and Resident Escort Service (C.A.R.E.). Each Kappa will fill one two-hour time slot serving either as a dispatcher or as an escort to walk with another person across campus. "Although the time requirement is minimal, only two hours during a semester, the effects should prove to be very substantial. First, the girls will become familiar with the escort service and will come to trust the system; therefore, they will be more likely to use its services. Members will then pass on the importance and trustworthiness of the system to friends and acquaintances on campus, thereby adding others to the number of escort system users." Sharon writes that they have been successful in providing several small philanthropy projects of varied interest—"True philanthropic desire seems to lie in most members when we are given the opportunity to serve in our own unique way."

The words and phrases which Kappas use may be as different as the activities which they choose for philanthropic service, but the underlying feelings remain the same—For this issue, several chapters have submitted descriptions of their philanthropy programs so that Campus Composite can present

PHILANTHROPY FEELINGS!

An escort service of a different nature has involved the Kappas at Ohio Wesleyan, where Rho Deuteron chapter joined with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity to sponsor a Halloween escort service for families of the local Delaware community. They provided families with chaperones to accompany their children trick-or-treating.

they also raise funds for philanthropy.

Some Kappas at the University of Pittsburgh found themselves as escorts through their participation in Pitt's Annual Hand-in-Hand Festival. Others donned clown outfits and gave out balloons or volunteered by serving food, setting up tables and cleaning up afterward. Each "escort"

" . . . Our philanthropy programs are most definitely growing stronger, and the women are discovering the fun and fulfillment they gain from helping others."

It was the Kappas and Lambda Chi Alphas at Oklahoma University who "escorted" disabled children to the Oklahoma City Zoo last spring. The students as well as the children had a big day.

Both the children of the alumnae and Delta Iota chapter benefit from their annual Zoo Day. The actives at Louisiana State take the children of the alumnae to the Baton Rouge Zoo each year for a small fee. Thus, not only do they have a great time and provide a wonderful experience for others, was assigned a specific child for the entire day to take to various activity booths and stage presentations. A campus committee designed the festival to be a special fun-filled day for the hundreds of mentally and physically handicapped children in the Pittsburgh area. Michelle Moser, ΓE-Pittsburgh, relates that Gamma Epsilon acted very much in keeping with their motto of "Reach out and touch someone" by reaching out and touching the lives of these children through the Festival.

"Reach out and touch someone . . ."

Karen Nichols (1985-86 philanthropy chairman), Jill Fasulo (chapter president) and Kathy Burgess, all

EE-Emory, are seen with a student of Davidson School while they are attending a therapy session there.

Epsilon Chi chapter (Dartmouth) had a similar 1984 motto of "Reaching Out in new Directions" and a chapter goal of communication and commitment, which led them to a most rewarding philanthropy project. They were looking for something really different and long term, having had many single-event projects in the past. They wanted to do something local with older people, and they wanted to be in touch with Dartmouth's past. They your granddaughters.' They will do such things as take you out to lunch or whatever you'd like to do . . . . If you are interested in being a 'Kappa Kappa Grandpa,' . . . . . The response was a nearly unanimous "yes," and thus began a program that is not only providing fun and enrichment but is also educating older alumni about the Dartmouth campus with women and is educating the women about Dartmouth of yesterday. They also reiterate that the

"Our main goal with our program in the chapter is to increase awareness of philanthropy that will continue for a lifetime."

could see that "there was no large scale connection between us and the Dartmouth that existed prior to coeducation," reported Susie Law, Epsilon Chi president in an article by Gabrielle Guise, EX-Dartmouth, in the May 1985 Dartmouth Alumni Magazine. Therefore, the program began and the letters were written: "Dear Sir—The sisters of Kappa Kappa Gamma at Dartmouth would like to adopt you as our Grandfather! We would love to get to know you and to hear about Dartmouth of the past while you get to know us and our lives at Dartmouth today. If you agree to be our Grandfather, we will match you with one or two Kappas who will be

"real motive here was to reach out to some pretty special people. Dartmouth is a place that generates a camaraderie that transcends generations." There have been special parties, but it has been the meetings arranged just between grandpas and granddaughters that have been the real success of this project. An understanding and a caring have developed that have gone far beyond their original hopes to "reach out."

Activities centered around children fill the philanthropy calendars of many chapters. Epsilon Rho (Texas A & M) chapter participated in the Brazos Valley Special Olympics, helping with the races for the handicapped children. They also support year round a child they have sponsored through the Christian Children's Fund. In addition to money they send him monthly, they also write to him and have sent him a picture of the chapter.

Epsilon Epsilon chapter devotes most of its philanthropy service time to the Davidson school, a local boarding school in Atlanta for learning deficient children, who may or may not also have physical disabilities. There are about 30 full-time students from ages five to 15. The Kappas have a pen-pal program, where they write to the students every other week. The school is within walking distance of Emory University, and the Kappas visit twice a year to play games and become better acquainted with their pen pals. Epsilon Epsilon also helps the school with their annual fundraiser, an airshow, where they work all day with the Davidson students.

The children at Upstate Medical Center are the ones who are visited by the Kappas at Syracuse, for the pledges made cookies and visited them several times throughout the year. Also, at Christmas time the Beta Tau Kappas get together with Delta Upsilon fraternity to have a party for underprivileged children. The main project which the Beta Tau Kappas have undertaken is the Dorothy Day House for battered women. They spend their year collecting and donating clothes and toiletries to them. The Kappas also got together clothes and toiletries for members of Alpha Omicron Pi when their house burned down. They also had them over for lunch several times.

Zeta Zeta, like Beta Tau and Delta Sigma, helped a victim of a fire. These Kappas at Westminster spent a day at a professor's fire-damaged house, scrubbing walls, washing smoke-covered articles, painting everything from bookshelves to a porch to one another. They had a wonderful time! To top off their philanthropic service Zeta Zeta spent an afternoon of playing basketball and other games with children from the Missouri School for the Deaf.

Delta Omicron also has a varied philanthropy calendar from meals on wheels, which helps to feed the elderly and disabled, to a Woodward Hospital pal program that enables its residents to visit members of the Ames community and Iowa State students, and skip-a-meals for the campus Ethiopian fund.

Epsilon Iota's spring calendar at Puget Sound was full of philanthropy projects. Eight Kappas volunteered to work each week on the typewriter system at the Tacoma Area Coalition of Individuals with Disabilities. The chapter also went to a convalescent home to deliver flowers on May Day and to visit the elderly living there. It was the pledges who went to the Children's Industrial Home to give an Easter egg hunt and party for the abused and abandoned boys living there. Several Epsilon Iotas helped as lifeguards and timers for the Special Olympics swim meet.

In one week last summer, three Kappas provided service that will be felt for a long, long time. Diane Mares, Jennifer Mottershaw, and Becky Murray, EII-California at Riverside, participated in the Sierra Service Project concerned with the weatherization of native American homes. Each summer, teams are formed to do various types of weatherization and home repair to make life a little nicer for those living in highly populated Indian areas. Usually, but not always, the work is done on reservations. These Kappas worked this year on the La Jolla Indian Reservation repairing an adobe house with cement mortar, replacing broken windows and screens, caulking, painting,

C A M P U S C O M P O S I T E

rebuilding porches, and insulating, among other things. The project is sponsored by the United Methodist Church, the local Tribal Council, and the youths themselves who pay for their own room and board as well as donate money for materials. "Room" consisted of a nice hard area on the floor of an old church fellowship hall, but part of the fun of the project is totally roughing it while doing so much for others, according to Diane Mares. She also writes, "all in all, I'd say that each one of us would agree that this is one of the most rewarding experiences we have ever had—that must be why we go back year after year." (This was Diane's sixth year and Becky and Jennifer's fifth.)

*Philanthropy means service,
means fun,
means fulfillment.*

It is reaching out to help others—hand in hand—Kappas and children, Kappas and the elderly, Kappas and other women, Kappas and others in need.

Philanthropy service means feeling good!

All chapters that include service projects in their philanthropy programs know these good feelings. Many of these chapters also have fundraising projects to support the organization or facility they are serving, as well as others.

Epsilon Psi kicked off a fundraiser by participating in the University of California, Santa Barbara, "Super Saturday" last April, which is an open house carnival for incoming freshmen and their parents. The Kappas had a booth to get sponsors for their annual Bike-a-thon to benefit the American Cancer Society, which they held successfully in May. They also planned for this fall a tennis tournament to involve the entire Greek system at UCSB, with Isla Vista Youth Project as the beneficiary.

braska executed to raise funds for the Lincoln General Hospital Youth Treatment Center for chemical dependency was a "Casino Night." There was a 12-act floor show and many games were played with play money as collateral. However, the real money raised totalled $2,400 for the Center.

Beta Zeta chapter raises money for the Iowa City Geriatrics by hosting a track meet for all the sororities and fraternities on the Iowa campus. A special get-together precedes the track meet and other fun events. This year, Deborah Simpson, EP-Texas A & M, and two members of the Aggie Men's Club, show posters at the joint car wash.

A project which Sigma chapter and the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity at Ne- the seven main sponsors are advertised on the T-shirts. The Kappas also plan to do some volunteer work at the Iowa City Geriatrics, and they have already helped with the Special Olympics.

Delta Omicron chapter-Iowa State has a variety of fundraisers including a car smash for Amanda the Panda's Cancer Camp for Children, participation in the all-campus American Lung Association fund drive, and winning first place with the Sigma Chi during Greek Week for community involvement, points having been tabulated for various fundraisers such as the blood drive, penny collection, and Campbell's soup labels collection.

Sales have been key to some chapters' fundraising successes. Epsilon Iota—Puget Sound donated funds that they raised from a Valentine's Day candy kiss sale to the Tacoma, Washington Area Coalition of Individuals with Disabilities. The chapter also volunteered time with the coalition. And in the Puget Sound phonathon, they earned $150.00.

Magazine and donut sales were part of Delta Iota's program at Louisiana State, as were a walk-a-thon and the week-long Muscular Dystrophy drive.

Epsilon Rho held a car wash with the Aggie Men's Club at Texas A & M and were able to donate $250 to the Brazos Valley Food Bank, a program just getting started in the community.

At an ice cream social in the Memorial Union Building, Rho Deuteron-Ohio Wesleyan Kappas raised money through sales of a cookies 'n cream ice cream for Turning Point, a local shelter for battered women. They also have planned lollipop sales this year to help send children from Columbus and the surrounding areas to Kidney Kamp. In their plans for this year also is the second annual balloon derby at Ohio Wesleyan, the first one last year having been a big success. Through it they were able to help a local organization for low income families.

Other chapters who have reported about balloon derbies are Zeta Gamma (Centre College), whose annual derby is traditionally held during parent's weekend, and Epsilon Lambda-Tennessee, whose derby before the Homecoming game in November raised about $500 for the American Heart Association.

The Panhellenic Council at Monmouth College, Monmouth IL, recently raised money in support of THE ALS ASSOCIATION to help combat "Lou Gehrig's disease" through the sale of over 100 balloons. The balloons were decorated with popular slogans.

Through these efforts, Kappas are not only raising money to help others, they are also raising the philanthropic consciousness of all with whom they come in contact.

MEDALS MEAN HIGHEST AWARDS

Each school within Fresno State is asked each year to select its outstanding graduate based not only on academic excellence but also on outstanding achievement in the field of study and in bringing honor to the school. The most recent awarding of these Dean's Medals included two Delta Omega Kappas. Julie Kershaw, School of Business, and Lisa Heckel, School of Health and Social Work, each received their school's highest award this year. Julie also won the highest award for a graduating student—the President's Medal.

—OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

At Kansas State, Kimberly Gracy, Gamma Alpha, has received for the second consecutive year the Kansas State P.R.S.S.A. (Public Relations Student Society of America) Outstanding Public Relations Student. This award is presented to the public relations student who displays desire and involvement in the Journalism and Mass Communications department throughout the year. (See the Spring 1985 issue for her picture and previous article.)

Another Kappa in P.R.S.S.A. at Ohio State has been honored by being selected to ARCHONS, an all-Greek honorary. Liz Kennedy, BN-Ohio State, has served as a representative to the Fraternity Managers Association, was a rush counselor in 1984, has been Greek of the Week, and is currently editor of the Lantern, the Ohio State daily newspaper. (Liz's picture appeared in the Fall 1984 issue.)

Jennifer Bales and Laurie Lohmeier, ΓA-Kansas State, have been selected as the KSU chapter of Phi Lambda Upsilon (chemistry honorary) Sophomore and Junior Chemistry Students of the Year, respectively. Jennifer, a chemistry major, is also assistant to the chapter second vice president; and Laurie, in chemistry education, has been chapter scholarship chairman and is currently first vice president.

California at Irvine—chapter president Tamara Powell, Zeta Eta. And honors came to Beta Beta Deuteron Kappas at St. Lawrence this year when three seniors were elected to Phi Beta Kappa national honor society. Jackie Elliman, Allison Granger, and Amy Jeffery also graduated magna cum laude from St. Lawrence.

Tracy McGuire and Tracy Shiland, also Beta Beta Deuteron Kappas, were inducted into Omicron Delta Epsilon national economics honorary; and Susan Daly, BB+-St. Lawrence, was chosen for Pi Sigma Alpha government honorary.

Stacey Kohler, H-Wisconsin, is "psyched for psychology"! She has been chosen for Psi Chi national psychology honor society. Also, Stacey has been responsible for psychology research for Madison and plans to do campus research again this year. She is chapter song leader and currently a chapter Panhellenic officer.

—SCHOLARSHIPS

Rhonda Kuzelka, Σ-Nebraska, has a long list of scholarships to her name as well as being on many honors lists. The recipient of a one-year Regents Scholarship, the David Scholarship, Wallace Robertson Scholarship, Ester Freshman Scholarship, and the David Memorial Trust Scholarship, she has also received the William Gold Scholarship Key and the Clifford M. Hicks Honor Key. Rhonda has appeared on the Dean's List for the College of Business every semester and has been chosen for Beta Gamma Sigma national business honorary and for the Business College Student Advisory Board for which she serves as a committee chairman. In Sigma chapter, Rhonda has been assistant pledge chairman, assistant rush chairman, song leader, and hospitality chairman for the Zeta province meeting.

Receiving scholarships has also been a major part of the collegiate career of Holly Alber, H-Wisconsin. She has accomplished so much in just three years: she received the Olin Hill Scholarship from Kappa in 1984, the Colbeck Scholarship from Polygon Engineering Council in 1985, and the Orida Foods Scholarship for Industrial Engineering. Holly is also a member of Alpha Pi Mu (industrial engineering honor society), Institute of Industrial Engineers, Phi Eta

KAPPAS HOLD HIGHEST POSITIONS—AND GET INVOLVED!

Kappas consistently seem to hold the highest leadership positions on campuses. Dana Meeks, ΔI-Louisiana State, was elected president of the Business School at LSU. She is also in Mortar Board and Angel Flight. Another Delta Iota active, Marjorie Ann McKeithen, was elected vice-president of the Student Government Association. Marjorie is also in Angel Flight and served as president of Alpha Lambda Delta honor society.

At Iowa State, Delta Omicron member Merry Mathis has recently completed a term as vice president of Government of the Student Body. And at the University of California at Irvine, Julie Miele, Zeta Eta, is the newly elected ASUCI member-at-large.

Beta Beta Deuteron Kappas also claimed places in student government. Denise Malone was selected secretary of St. Lawrence University's Class of 1986, and Laura Davis was chosen secretary of the Class of 1987.

Kathy Kurtz, ΓA-Kansas State, is the current KSU Marketing Club president, providing leadership for the KSU chapter, organizing and conducting all executive meetings, overseeing all officers, and residing as speaker at professional meetings. Kathy also serves as treasurer for the KSU Student Foundation and is a member of the College of Business Council. She has been chapter social chairman and is currently scholarship chairman at Gamma Alpha.

Two other Gamma Alpha actives are on the executive council of Kansas State's Panhellenic. Maribeth Gottschalk serves as secretary. She is also a campus tour guide and was selected to the KSU Alumni Association's Student Alumni Board. She has been chapter pledge chairman and is presently public relations and philanthropy chairman. Angela O'Hara is this year's Panhellenic vice president. Angela is also president of "Speech Unlimited," the University's forensics squad.

She placed third at the National Individual Events Tournaments in Poetry Interpretation. She is also treasurer of the Association of Collegiate Entrepreneurs and she has been chapter Panhellenic representative for Gamma Alpha.

Theta chapter Kappas have also been very busy in the Greek world at Missouri. Mary Van Ellis is treasurer of Missouri's Panhellenic, and Nancy Patterson and Caroline Zillion were 1985 Greek Week overall chairman and games committee chairman, respectively. Leanne Stinecipher served as Panhellenic sorority interaction chairman. Mary Van Ellis is also chapter scholarship chairman and, along with Reann Kaley, Holly Hutcheson, and Leanne Stinecipher, in 1985 rush guides. Beth Monschein set the tone for Homecoming 1984 as the overall co-chairman. She is also secretary of Alpha Omega Phi (engineering fraternity) and Theta chapter membership chairman. Helping her in Homecoming was Lisa Higham who was king/ queen committee chairman. Lisa is also chapter president. Heidi Jo Crist was resident assistant for Missouri Scholars program for the summer of 1985, and Karen O'Connor and Lisa Higham were summer orientation leaders this year.

Summer orientation at the University of California at Irvine saw the involvement of Kappas also. Jami Castner, Julie Miele, Sharon O'Mara, and Carleen Slade, ZH-California,

EPSILON PHI GOES HIGH-TECH FOR RUSH

This year, the Kappas at the University of Florida went all out for rush in this present day high-tech world. According to Leslie B. Suskin, EH-Auburn, Epsilon Phi's social and philanthropy adviser, her husband videotaped various parts of their practices and a skit so that they could critique their smiles, gestures, and each other to help make rush the best ever! They plan to do this again next year because it was such a successful technique. Leslie writes that her husband Marc loves being a Kappa husband! (How lucky they are to have him!) Kappas certainly do keep up with the times!

KAPPA GOES TO JAPAN TO TEACH AEROBIC DANCING

■ Nancy Fox, ΓE-U.C.L.A., was an aerobic instructor at a U.C.L.A. residence hall when she was discovered and offered an aerobic instructor contract in Japan for six months, according to Diana Fontz, ΓE-U.C.L.A. "It seems that aerobics has caught on in the Orient—an influence from the West you could call it—and 'beautiful, trim, blonde American girls' are a very credible source for this up and coming exercise. Nancy values highly her experiences in the Orient, getting to know the people as well as the culture." Nancy said that "It was an opportunity of a lifetime." However, she also reported her excitement about being home, surrounded by her sisters, and "as many hamburgers as possible!"

GAMMA TAU CHAPTER AT NORTH DAKOTA CLOSES

It is with deep regret that the Fraternity Council has accepted the surrender of the charter of Gamma Tau Chapter, North Dakota State University at Fargo, North Dakota, as of September, 1985.

Gamma Tau Chapter was founded May 3, 1929 when the petition of the local Delta Phi Beta was accepted by Kappa Gamma. Delta Phi Beta had existed as a strong local sorority for 23 years and its alumnae were initiated into Kappa in two special initiations. Many of these alumnae were daughters of Dakota pioneers. Gamma Tau chapter lists outstanding, loyal Kappas as its members for its 56 years of existence. The chapter was first housed in a room in the YWCA-YMCA Building. Then they were in a duplex home. Finally, in 1955 a brick lodge was built, with addition and improvements made for adequate dining and living space over the years.

It is the hope of the Fraternity Council that the situation at North Dakota State University will change in the years ahead and make possible the reinstatement of the chapter at some future date.

CROWNS STAND FOR ACHIEVEMENT

Crowns for Kappas represent achievement in beauty pageants and recognition in special areas. Lisa C. Hall, Anne Brady, and Amy Farrell, BT-West Virginia, were Forest Festival LIV (54th) Princesses for the Mountaineer Forest Festival, one of the oldest festivals in that part of the country. They were appointed by West Virginia state senators.

■ At Tennessee, Carole Johnson, Epsilon Lambda, was a member of the 1984 Homecoming Court, as well as being in numerous honor societies and a chapter officer.

Editor's Note: It has been brought to the attention of the editor that a section on page 34 of the Spring 1985 issue was not presented completely and therefore did not appear correctly. The following gives proper credit to those named.)

■ Juli Sunday, ΔE-Oklahoma State, was a former Miss OSU. She and Jennifer Horn, BΘ-Oklahoma, were both contestants in the Miss Oklahoma pageant. Jennifer, Miss OU, won a talent award on a preliminary night and was in the top ten. Juli won the overall talent award and the title of Miss Oklahoma 1984. (She had been first runner-up the two previous years.) Felicia Ferguson, Juli's big sister in the Delta Sigma chapter at OSU, was first runner-up that year and won the title of Miss Oklahoma 1985 this year. Juli did crown Shana Butcher, ΔE-Oklahoma State, Miss OSU 1985 but in the role of Miss Oklahoma.

■ Susie Motis, H-Wisconsin, had a busy summer with beauty pageants as she had been awarded the "Miss White Bear Lake" title and was competing for "Miss Minnesota" in that scholarship pageant.

■ Charlotte Negishi, Δ-Indiana, and Sherri Chenoweth and Ann Ritchie, ΓΔ-Purdue, were three Kappas who represented the 33 princesses for the 1985 Indianapolis 500 Festival.

Having spent the past four years based in Beirut, Lebanon for the London Sunday Times, Robin covered an area from Iran to Morocco and witnessed most of the bombings, hijackings and kidnappings of Americans, as well as other acts of the Shi'ite extremists.

Sacred Rage: The Wrath of Militant Islam is her book about her experiences. It was released in mid-October, published by Simon & Schuster in the U.S., by Andre Deutsch in London, and Speigel Buch in Germany. Designed for the general public's reading, it is the first book of its kind, one that explains the trend and profiles many of the Shi'ites Robin came to know personally. To her own surprise, she is now considered one of the few American specialists on Shi'ite terrorism.

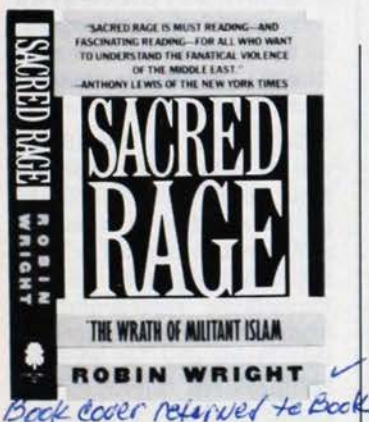

Robin will be taking a break from journalism this fall and will teach at Duke University's Institute of Policy Sciences, as well as giving a series of lectures as a Poynter Fellow at Yale University.

Long involved with historical projects of all kinds, Nada has published a monograph on the role of women at Christmas and Easter, "Holidays: Victorian Women Celebrate in Pennsylvania", and has recorded a good part of Lewisburg's history during the past 25 years.

■ Karen Stedtfeld Offen, BK-Idaho, was awarded a Rockefeller Foundation Humanities Fellowship for 1985-86, during which time she will work on her book-length study of "The Politics of Motherhood in France, 1920-1945." She has published a number of articles on French women's history and is currently completing a book on The Woman Question in Third Republic France, 1870-1914.

REGIONAL CONFERENCES....

They provide great opportunities to see outstanding collegiates in action!

Leaders in education and in the fraternity world are there to impart knowledge, exchange ideas, identify trends and interact with undergraduates. Regional Panhellenic and Interfraternity Conferences are held each year in four areas of the country. Kappa leaders report from meetings held last Spring.

If these topics sound interesting... they were! These were just a few of the seventy-five educational sessions offered at the 1985 MAPCA/MIFCA Conference held in St. Louis, Missouri.

From Minnesota to Texas...from Ohio to Colorado, 130 colleges and universities representing fifteen states of middle America were represented at the Conference. 942 participants composed of Greek men's and women's fraternities, representatives of national organizations, and Greek professionals came together to learn and to have fun.

It was a celebration in every respect. The Mid-American Panhellenic Council Association (MAPCA) celebrated its 5th birthday while the MidAmerican InterFraternity Council Association (MIFCA) was honored at its nineteenth. Balloons, candles on a cake, a riverboat band, and awards for outstanding achievements marked the final banquet. T. J. Schmitz, Executive Director, Tau Kappa Epsilon, made the title of his speech come alive with "Greeks Have Fun... Responsibly." If there was an underlying theme to the entire meeting it was just this... Greeks have fun... responsibly. To make this a reality MPCA, MIFCA appoints a Conduct Committee of participants to be responsible for providing peer group standards. Responsible fun results. An opening night mixer provided lights, music, lots of food, and some of the most delicious non-alcoholic cocktails imaginable.

WESTERN—Kim Braun Padulo EII-U. Cal. Riverside, Panhellenic Adviser at San Diego State University, Conference Executive Director.

The Western Regional Greek Conference (WRGC) is composed of IFCs and Panhellenics in the 11 most Western states and Western Canada. Over 400 delegates from these Universities attended the 1985 conference in Incline Village, Nevada at the Hyatt Lake Tahoe. Delegates heard keynote addresses by Dave Westol ("Hazing on Trial"), T. J. Schmitz ("Motivation"), and Dr. Ed King ("Old Traditions, New Directions"). Ginger Banks (International President of Alpha Omicron Pi) was the closing banquet speaker. Twenty-two workshops on various leadership topics were presented. Campus Advisers and representatives from national sororities and fraternities were invited to attend special, workshops and meetings for professionals.

Kappas present at the Northeast Panhellenic Conference February 28-March 3 were: Karen Frederickson, ΔΔ-McGill; Mary Carnegie, ΔK-Miami, Chapter Consultant ΔA-Penn State; Lynn Constandy, ZI-Villanova; Donna Blum, BT-Syracuse, Panhellenic president and NEPC vice president for 1985-86; Nancy Zezza, ED-Dickinson, Panhellenic President; Kelly O'Rourke, TP-Allegheny; Jill Sousa, BT-Syracuse; Clare Dwyer and Dixie Bruffey, both ΓΦ-Maryland; Karen Johnson, ΔΦ-Bucknell; Laurie Abbivso and Lisa Frabotta, both ΔN-Massachusetts; Marilyn Milton and Heidi Fleisher, both ΔM-Connecticut; Sharin Rothman, ZI-Villanova; Janet Croft, ΓE-Pittsburgh; Erica Labrie, ZΔ-Vermont, NEPC vice president; Julia Piccoli, ΨΔ-Cornell; Jan Larson, Nu PDC; Wilma Johnson, Director of Alumnae; Judy Preston, Panhellenic Adviser for Connecticut; and Marj Converse, NPC Adviser to NEPC.

1985 was the first year of a combined WRPC and WRIFC. The merger was accomplished very smoothly and works very well for the West.

Most outstanding about the 1985 WRGC was the spirit of comraderie developed amongst the delegates. In the mountain retreat atmosphere of the Hyatt Lake Tahoe, collegians from all affiliations had an opportunity to see their Greek systems objectively, to share ideas and information with other delegates and to take home the wisdom and creativity of some excellent speakers. It is the collegiates who determine the direction of our chapters' development, and their horizons are broadened by meetings like WRGC. As a professional working with the conference, I enjoyed the opportunity to meet and work with collegiates from other campuses. The theme of the 1985 WRGC, "Old Traditions, New Directions," reflects their excitement as being leaders of Greek students on their respective campuses.

SOUTHEASTERN—Jean Hess Wells ΔT-Georgia, NPC Alternate, Conference workshop leader, NPC Area Adviser.

Originating in the 1960s, the Southeastern Panhellenic Conference (SEPC) has grown steadily in numbers and importance until in 1985 approximately 600 college Panhellenic representatives from 120 campuses met at the University of Florida. Southeastern Interfraternity Conference meets at a different time and place, unlike other Regionals.

There is traditionally a large attendance of Panhellenic Advisers and NPC representatives who contribute their expertise on Greek concerns at this unique Conference. Held on the campus of one of the large universities in the area, resources of that university are used to provide pertinent program material for ways to deal with current trends. Panhellenic representatives are given accommodations at sorority houses on campus, thus providing opportunity for idea exchanges on an individual basis.

Of vital importance at SEPC is the time set aside for NPC Area Advisers (there are eight in the Southeast) to meet with the Panhellenic representatives from each campus in her area, which permits personal relationships to be established between these participants in Greek affairs.

NORTHEASTERN—Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ-Purdue, NPC Alternate, Conference Adviser, NPC Area Adviser

The Northeast Panhellenic Conference is the youngest of the conferences. NPC asked Marjorie Matson Converse to start a conference for this area. In February of 1982 the Panhellenics were invited to attend the Northeast Interfraternity Conference in Atlantic City. It was an opportune time to present the bylaws which were ratified and signed by 22 Panhellenics present. The membership has since grown to 52 Panhellenics. The NEPC is the smallest conference covering some of New York, all of New England, Eastern Canada, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, DC and Maryland. There are 75 institutions with two or more NPC groups and 36 institutions with only one NPC group. Only three campuses have over 13 NPC groups.

This conference was founded to stimulate interest in the growth and development of women's social fraternities in the northeast U.S. and Canada. It provides the Panhellenic Councils with a communication network to bring the Panhellenics together to discuss ideas and to learn to effectively institute changes which will bring about a smooth running, well respected Greek system for women.

NEPC meets at the same time as NEIFC (Northeast Interfraternity Conference). Attendance has tripled, as more than 600 gathered in 1985, over 350 of whom were women. The program is exciting and challenging. Topics include Women as Leaders, Networking for Women, Exciting Ways to Streamline Panhellenics. Joint sessions with the men attract outstanding speakers for current trends in legal liabilities, positive social programs, and motivating the membership.

Kappa undergraduates have also provided leadership for the Conferences.

Eric Labrie, Zeta Delta, Panhellenic President at University of Vermont, served as Vice President of NEPC in 1985.

Donna Blum, Beta Tau, Panhellenic President this year at Syracuse University, is also Vice President of NEPC.

Shelley Adams, Delta Omicron, Iowa State University, is Vice President of MAPCA for 1986.

Marybeth Whiteaker, Gamma Omicron, University of Wyoming Panhellenic President, comments: "In the Spring of 1985, I had the opportunity to attend my second Western Regional Greek Conference at the breathtaking site of Lake Tahoe, Nevada. I listened to the nationally-known speakers, received an awareness of the legal liabilities a Panhellenic Council may be faced with, and was able to benefit my own Panhellenic with ideas from other schools. Perhaps the most beneficial aspect of the conference was the opportunity to meet Greek leaders from the Western Regional Area.

By talking and listening to them, I was assured that our Greek system was growing, could never get weaker but could only grow stronger."

These conferences provide the learning opportunity of a Greek lifetime and fun for undergraduate and alumnae representatives alike. Kappa encourages your participation.

KAPPA'S ADLON JORGENSEN RECEIVES FIRST NPC ADVISOR AWARD

Alpha Chi Omega Fraternity celebrated its 100th birthday October 15, 1985. They believe that administrators and advisers on college campuses have tremendous influence on the health and well-being of each chapter, the Panhellenic Council, and the Greek system as a whole. These people who have contributed to the growth and strength of the fraternal community should be recognized for their efforts and the National Panhellenic Conference should act as the facilitator of such recognition. Therefore, Alpha Chi Omega established and funded a biennial National Panhellenic Conference Award entitled "The Alpha Chi Omega Centennial Award" to be given to the Panhellenic advisor who has excelled in fostering a cooperative Panhellenic spirit and whose guidance has stimulated the growth and strength of the Panhellenic system.

The NPC executive committee and the awards committee approved the following criteria:

1. Adheres to the NPC Unanimous Agreements
2. Communicates with NPC Area Advisor having all reports current
3. Promotes Panhellenic programming year round
4. Encourages Panhellenic participation in area and/or regional Panhellenic Conferences
5. Promotes Panhellenic spirit and cooperation among the Greek system, on campus and in the community
6. The recipient must have served a minimum of two years at the same institution to be eligible for nomination.

In addition to the honor of being selected as the MOST OUTSTANDING PANHELLENIC ADVISOR for the biennium, there are other tangible aspects connected with this award.

1. The recipient will be presented with an engraved plaque
2. The AXO Foundation will provide transportation, meals and one night's lodging for the recipient to attend the NPC meeting and accept the award in person. It is also their hope that he/she might always be utilized in the programming of the conference so that all may benefit from his/her wisdom and expertise.
3. Recipient will also receive a cash award of $500.

"The first winner of the award could not fit the criteria more perfectly. Her outstanding abilities became evident very early in her life when she was the salutatorian of her high school graduating class at Champaign High School. She went on to receive an AB degree from the University of Illinois in Speech Therapy. While on campus, she became a member of Beta Lambda Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Omicron Nu, Mortar Board, was a member of the Union Board and won a University of Illinois Scholarship Key. After graduation she became an active alumna of Kappa by serving as pledge advisor, rush advisor, chairman of the Advisory Board, and chairman of the House Corporation . . . you can see that she has truly walked in the shoes of our alumnae advisors to our collegiate chapters.

"She has broadened her horizons by earning an MS degree from Illinois in Child Development and Family Relations in 1969. She was an active member of the Jr. League; president of Edison Jr. High PTA; a 4-H Leader; a Deacon, Sunday School teacher and Bible study lecturer and elder in her church; and chairman of advanced gifts for United Way—all in addition to being a wife of a busy husband and mother of three children.

"But her biggest contribution to NPC groups began in 1977 when she became the advisor to the Panhellenic Council and Assistant to the Dean of Students at the University that has the largest number of women's fraternities active on its campus, the University of Illinois."

The award was presented to Adlon Dohme Jorgensen by president of Alpha Chi Omega, D'Alice Cooper at the NPC banquet October 26, 1985. Kappa congratulates Adlon . . . in the honors of one we shall all be proud!

Guide to 1986 Graduates

CHOICES, the career program of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is pleased to present, for the third consecutive year, the HIRE A KAPPA guide to graduating seniors available for employment by next Spring or sooner. You will find each of these eager young women listed beneath her chapter address and phone where she can be contacted. A résumé request form has been provided at the end of the guide for your convenience in requesting information from the graduates listed.

Although not all chapters responded, we heard from 85 chapters totaling over 1,300 interested seniors. Look over this impressive list of young women and their areas of expertise. Even if you are not in a hiring position yourself, perhaps your husband, friends, or employer would be interested.

The names are arranged for your reading convenience. Majors are listed in the far left column alphabetically so that you can check credentials at a glance. The major is followed to the right by the desired career, location, and finally the senior's name.

These Kappas have voluntarily sent in their names for employment consideration. PLEASE DO NOT DISAPPOINT THEM! Show them that Kappa does not end with graduation . . . It offers sisterhood throughout our lives. And remember . . . If you are about to hire . . . Why not HIRE A KAPPA!?

TIPS FROM THE CHAIRMAN

- White dress is required at the Opening and Closing sessions of Convention and the Memorial Service
- Recreational attire suitable to the sport is appropriate. A swim suit wrap will be necessary in the hotel lobby areas.
- A light jacket or sweater may be useful in the air conditioned rooms.
- Comfortable shoes are a must for the walking tours of Philadelphia.
- Eastern Airlines is the official air carrier for the 1986 Convention. In order to receive the special rate, ALL delegates and non-delegates must reserve space through Excursions Unlimited.

BELTER FURNITURE—A VICTORIAN PLUS

Lee McDonald Cassier, P<sup>4</sup>, Ohio Wesleyan, is a good friend of the Heritage Museum. Lee has served as a member of the local masterplan committee and has helped with open houses. But it is a special friend who loans her valuable Belter furniture so that we may enjoy its grace and beauty and share it with the public. Lee came to the decision of loaning these special pieces to us after she had sold her nineteenth century home in Delaware, Ohio and rented a modern apartment. "It's a tremendous change for me," Lee said, "I'm going strictly modern, for now at least."

The first Belter patent dates back to 1858. The process involves pressing several layers of woods under pressure and heat with glues. These laminated layers provide strength. The shape of the laminated piece is that of a barrel with staves to hold the shape. After a 24 hour period, to allow for drying, the "barrel" is cut into four separate pieces. Each section becomes the back of a chair or the end backs of a sofa. John Belter (an American) hired wood carvers from the Black Forest area of Germany who fashioned the beautiful rose wood roses, daisies and grapes that embellish the tops of the three chairs and two sofas that now enhance our grand parlour. Antique auction houses are informing the public that the Belter line is at a premium now. A country who once thought Victorian furniture too garish and fancy, a country who thought early American was the top style to collect, is now recognizing that there is a unique significance of our American heritage in the beautiful and valuable Belter furniture. We are lucky to have Lee's pieces in the Heritage Museum.

Your Art Editor is the recipient of three honors in 1985. She was awarded a plaque "Teacher Recognition of Merit, New York Subway and Bus Art Contest, May 1985." She was judge and coordinator for three thousand artworks produced by New York City school children in a program designed to exhibit them in the world's largest museum—New York subways and buses. In another televised recognition for children's art, she was a judge for Channel 13-New York. As a certified United States Coast Guard artist, she received a citation May 14 at Governors Island, New York, for participation in a summer exhibition July 15 to September 6 at Federal Hall, Wall Street, New York City. She travelled to Michigan this summer to paint around the Great Lakes and in the fall to Spain, Italy and Greece.

■ Pauline (Polly) Watkins Runkle. Ψ<sup>A</sup>-Cornell, has a flourishing flower-arranging business in Massachusetts, where she services the Canadian Consulate, IBM and NYNAX Corporations in Boston. Her beginning experience was with Thalassa Cruso in the WGBH Channel II production "A Small City Garden." Since then, she has taught and lectured all over the New England states on indoor gardening, floral arranging, wildflower and perennial gardening. She appears on television, Channel 44, for a wildflower arranging series. In addition, she is becoming increasingly involved in a corporate functions, interior landscaping and holiday decorations, but her specialty is landscaping.

Her firm is called FLORAL ARTISTRY, which is in Manchester-By-The-Sea. There she makes use of fresh, dried and silk flowers, but prefers fresh ones, which she arranges in a naturalesque manner. She has had a show in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, and was featured in August 1982 in Better Homes and Gardens Magazine.

Her husband is Dr. Joseph Runkle, M.I.T., and they have two sons: Garrett, 16, and Grant Gerard, 14.

■ Loverne Christian Cordes, ΓΔ-Purdue, was in the first class to graduate with a major in Interior Design, one of eight students in Home Economics so specialized. For 18 years she worked as Interior Designer and buyer for The Fred Epple Company, and in 1967 established her own firm, "Loverne Christian Cordes, Fellow of the American Society of Interior Designs"—FASID. For FASID, she has held the office of president, and now serves on the national committee of fellows and the national awards committee. She is a nationally-known career woman, recipient of First National Presidential Citation 1973; 1974, 1975, 1978; represented the United States at first national Design Federation Conference in Stockholm, Sweden, and at the first design Seminar in Russia. She is a professional affiliate of the American Institute of Architects, past president of the Ohio chapter of National Home Fashion League, serves on the Board of Dunham Tavern Museum, steering committee of American Furniture Collectors, National Trust for Historic Preservation, and International Platform Association.

Her commissions range from a chain of restaurants to a T.V. and radio chain. She specializes in Museum and restoration work, and she loves traditional design. She has recently completed the 1857 Bank of Hoboken, New Jersey, and is currently working on a project for the Western Reserve Historical Society and the Detroit Art Museum. She does period rooms also for the Chagrin Falls Historical Society, serves as interior designer for Plymouth Church (United Church of Christ); is responsible for plantings in Chagrin Falls; is a member of the Cleveland Garden Club, Who's Who in America, The World's Who's Who of Women, Who's Who in the World. She has taught at John Carroll University, and was a featured speaker at Purdue University Environmental Design Conference, an annual meeting sponsored by the School of Consumer and Family Sciences, which features nationally-known personalities.

Her husband, Bill Cordes, is one of her clients. He represents Scalamandre Inc., a firm old and famous for decorative fabrics, trimmings, wall coverings and carpets. He has supplied materials in the White House, diplomatic reception rooms of the U.S. State Department, the U.S. Capitol, Fords

Loverne (TA-Purdue) and Bill Cordes—Design Consultants

Theatre, Lawnfield (President James Garfield's home), the Smithsonian Institute, many governors' mansions, D.A.R. headquarters, restorations in Williamsburg, and many others. Chris, who was known in college as "Babe," is a past-president of the Cleveland Alumnae Association, and is doing a condo in South Carolina for her Kappa mother, while serving as an adviser for the Heritage Museum in Columbus.

The Cordes' have two children. Daughter Carey is an Interior Design major at the University of Kentucky, and a Zeta Tau Alpha. Son, Christian, attended Purdue, and is now a competitor of his dad's in the special order department of Brunschwig and Fils in New York City. The Cordes family spend summers in Northern New Jersey on a glacier lake, but the Loverne Christian Cordes firm is located at 60 S. Franklin Street, Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Chris feels that too much cutesie and poor traditional design is now featured in today's publications, and wonders if the public really knows what good traditional is or looks like. She does contemporary homes and finds the change refreshing.

■ Carey Boone Nelson Θ-Missouri, Alumnae Achievement Award Winner, and renowned sculptor, received the "Creative Hands Award for 1985," from the Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art

Club, and also won first place at the 45th Biennial Convention of Composers, Authors and Artists of America for spring, 1985. She was recognized for her leadership in the world of art. At Donnell Library Center, New York, from February first to February 18, 1985, her art work was featured in an exhibition by the National League of Pen Women. She and her husband are world travelers, having just returned from China.

■ Ruth Anne Kocour, BM-University of Colorado, whose degree in Environmental Zoology and talent in art, led her to a M.F.A. at the University of Utah, a teaching assistantship there in fine arts, and 13 years as a freelance medical illustrator for innumerable small publications and three significant books. Now living in Reno, Nevada, she is an important surrealist painter, with more than 32 exhibitions and awards from 1971 to the present, which include one person shows at Gallery NAGA, Boston; Sierra Nevada Museum of Art, Reno; Butler Institute of American Art, Youngstown, Ohio; Terrance Gallery National Drawing Show, Palenville, New York; Marietta National, Marietta, Ohio; International Society of Artists, Golden, Colorado; Coos Art Museum, Coos Bay, Oregon; "Prix de Paris Raymond Duncan—Artists of the United States," Paris,

France; Ligoa Duncan Gallery, New York; 1976 southwest Fine Arts Biennial, New Mexico Museum, Santa Fe; Davidson National Print and Drawing Competition, Stowe Gallery, Davidson, North Carolina. These are only some of the shows, in which she has exhibited. In 1972, she was one of five artists selected to represent Utah in a "Seven State Regional Contemporary Art Exhibit," and she is a prize winner in most of the shows. For example, in the Ehrman Mansion Annual Exhibit, at Lake Tahoe, she placed first in 1980 in acrylics, second place in 1977 for graphics, and third place in 1981 for acrylics. In summer, 1985, following a one-person show at the Gallery Naga in Boston, she was commissioned by Vuarnet, a French firm making quality sunglasses, to do for them 6 paintings, art work to be featured in expensive catalogs, advertising and posters. She hesitated until it was explained she would not be restricted artistically, and that the idea was to center around the protection of wildlife. After that, the company reports, she was instrumental in selecting which animals should be used. Satisfied customers, Vuarnet-France on the back cover of their catalogue states "we are extremely grateful to Ruth Anne Kocour for taking time . . . to provide us with the outstanding visual materials we so desired . . ."

Journalistic recognition, as well as awards, is not new to her. In Jan./Feb. 1980, I.S.A. Communicator gave her a five-page biographical article. She received a similar write-up in Nevada State Journal, and Reno Evening Gazette when one of her paintings made the Marietta National, and has been covered by Chicago Sun Times, The Chicago Art Review, the Salt Lake Tribune, and the Boston Globe.

Ruth Anne is only beginning. A graduate of 1969, she serves on the Board of Directors for the Sierra Arts Foundation. Surrealism is a style so mysterious, so original that she has much latitude for expression. Her versatility is an attribute. When she began in the art world, she produced 424 drawings (55 plates) of Dinosaur bones for a medical book "Allosaurus fragilis: A Revised Osteology" and another illustrated volume, "Biological & Medical Aspects of Contraception." (Wallace & Duffy) for Harvard Medical School. She is not limited as an artist in the commercial or creative world. She puts it all together in a striking way.

■ Jeanne Beebe Schwab, BII-University of Washington, majored in fine arts with interior design emphasis.

Her first job was as a designer for Naramore Bain Brady & Johansen, where she oversaw the building of the Swedish Hospital complex in Seattle. After four years, she started her own business, as she explains "My strong history and architecture background enabled me to contract the design for historic restoration projects of the 5th Avenue Theatre, Pantages Center for Performing Arts, and the Pasadena Playhouse." She works mainly in the greater Seattle area, adapts her planning to client's needs, does both historic and high-tech restoration in which she specifies materials and products.

Her Fifth Avenue Theatre designs in Seattle in 1980/81 brought her four awards from National Trust for Historic Preservation, Seattle Chapter American Institute of Architects, Washington Trust for Historic Preservation, and U.S. Department of Interior Heritage Conservation Achievement Award. Another project, Metro Operations Bases Maintenance Centers, brought an award from the Department of Transportation and National Endowment for the Arts Design Achievement Commendation.

Some of her commercial designs have been commissioned for health care facilities, including Northwest Hospital Medical Office Building, Seattle; Doctors Professional Building, Doctors Hospital, Tacoma General Hospital, all in Tacoma, Washington; Sisters of Mercy Nursing Center, Des Moines, Iowa. Earlier space designs were for Swedish Hospital and Arnold Medical Pavilion in Seattle, a Plastic Surgery Suite in Tacoma, and a Private Dermatology Clinic in Seattle. Banking facilities for which she has designed are Olympic Savings & Loan (Seattle); Kitsap County Bank with branches in Bangor, Washington, Bainbridge, and two in Port Orchard; San Juan County Bank, and National Bank of Alaska, Anchorage.

Jeanne Schwab has done 17 retail and commercial office facilities, 13 private residences, 10 space designs for businesses three of which are Wells Fargo Mortgage Company, Milwaukee Road Railroad, and American Mail Lines Computer Center. Her public assembly facilities are most impressive, and as her clients: Kirkland City Hall, Kirkland, Washington; Port of Seattle Commissioner's Chambers; Longacres Racecourse, Tukwila, Washington; Pantages Center for Performing Arts, Tacoma; Pasadena Playhouse; Geary Theatre, San Francisco; First

United Methodist Church, Kelso; and Rennovation Study for Performing Arts, Olympia, Washington. Such services vary from space planning, lighting renovation, historic restoration, and complete structuring. In Keyport, Washington, the U.S. Navy hired her to do Submarine Base Building 105, and Emick Howard & Schwab asked for a renovation study of Los Alamitos Race Course in Buena Park, California. Restaurants and food service facilities are another of her competencies. Her studies of patron dining may result in refurbishing cafeterias or installing a Turbulator Bar, which she did for Longacres Race Course in Tukwila.

Her firm has become so prestigious and so busy that it is hard to believe that she began by showing some of her batik artwork, was for a few months a children's painting instructor, a manufacturer's showroom representative and for three months did portraiture rendering for Walt Disney, Inc. She lives in Kirkland, Washington, with her daughter Gretchen, age 16.

■ Betty Margileth Diefenbach, M-Butler, expresses her art career as having persevered in art of all kinds, even crafts, all her life. She spent a year at Academy of Fine Arts in Chicago, and in New York took courses at Traphagen, McDowell School of Design, and later at private schools in New Jersey and Vermont. Her husband, Henry Kiefenbach's business, Dempsey and Carroll, stationers and engravers, was in New York City on Madison Avenue for 34 years. She has painted as time allowed in oil, acrylic, pastel and water color. Most of her paintings are landscapes, although she takes commissions for pastels, working from snapshots. One of these is a portrait of an organist friend at the console. She finds small landscapes and flowers sell better. Her first one-man show was in Tenaflly, New Jersey at a local library. Later she repeated a show at the local bank in Randolph, Vermont.

In September, 1984, she had 56 paintings called "Impressions" at the Montpelier Gallery Vermont Conservatory, with a reception on her 75th birthday, September 9. At present, there are 25 at a Travel Agency in Montpelier, most of these done from sketches produced while travelling abroad. She has joined Southern Vermont Art Center in Manchester and Chaffee Art Gallery in Rutland.

Mindy Cipra Gunson, EB-Colorado State, children's photographer

The Diefenbach children are Dick, John and Betsy, all grown and scattered, with Dick in St. Johnsbury, Vermont; John in New Jersey; and Betsy in Colorado. There are eight grandchildren, aged 12 to 22, the oldest in graduate school studying wildlife biology at University of Maine, three more in college and others in grade and high schools. This winter, she is painting land and seascapes and doing work for a show in spring 1986 of flowers. She now lives on Rural Route One, Randolph, Vermont.

■ Melinda Cipra Gunson, EB-Colorado State, has a children's photography business, called "Captured Memories." Her degree is in English, with an Art History Minor. When she married, she retired from a position as pharmaceutical representative with Syntex Laboratories and found time on her hands. Her husband Michael, SAE from Iowa State, suggested she develop her photography hobby as a part-time occupation. She has become successful without advertising, has learned her business finds her by "Word-of-mouth," and 80 percent of it is repeat.

Largely self-taught in photography, she uses a Hasselblad 500 cm with an 80 mm lens, and shoots with Vericolor III, 120 professional film. She does not use a tripod. Most of her customers prefer color to black and white. While she says "children are incredibly difficult to photograph," she manages to relax them with nonsense talk, Sesame Street puppets, promises of lollipops or balloons as rewards, and her own engaging personality. She likes to use a child's home or a park for background, and suggests ways to dress them before she takes their pictures. She likes natural lighting, and her uninhibited photos are proof of her ability to look, see and shoot fast.

Fall is her most productive season, as sittings of families and photos of children are cards and gifts. She is planning a series of photos to be called "A Week in the Life of A Child," and will use her daughter Ashley, four-and-a-half, as the subject. She feels this concept would be extended to a thirteen or fourteen-year girl, showing the transition of growth, and changes in interests from childhood to womanhood. Melinda is known better as "Mindy," in Englewood, Colorado, where the family lives.

■ Susanne Earls Carr, FK-William and Mary, has opened her own interior design firm, at 223 East 66th Street, New York City. She specializes in residential design, which includes lighting, carpeting, curtains, accessories, as well as remodeling kitchens, closets and baths. She hires contractors and wiring experts, often working from beginning plans and lay-outs. While most of her clients live in New York or New Jersey, she has recently completed a job in Pennsylvania. Before establishing her own business, she has worked for Dorothy Draper, David Barrett, Inc., Raymond Loewy/William Snaith, Inc., and sold her paintings through Henri Bendel, Isabel Worsley in New York and Caldwell Alexander in Southampton, Long Island. She has a daughter, Constance Brooks Carr.

POLITICS AND PERSONALITIES

When two Kappas and their husbands are good friends it's no chore to hit the campaign trail together.

Jim Smith, now in the third year of his second term as Florida's Attorney General, will run for lieutenant governor in 1986 and his wife Carole Clark Smith, EZ-Florida State, and three children will be cheering him on. The Smiths have been close friends for eleven years with Harry and Mary Otley Johnston, AB-Duke, and their children. Harry is currently Florida's Senate President and will be running for governor in 1986.

Although a gubernatorial candidate usually chooses his running mate according to geographic balance, even this will work out well since the Johnstons are from southern Florida (West Palm Beach) and the Smiths are from Tallahassee in northern Florida. The two Kappa couples are so compatible that they consider geographical balance and politics just a natural plus.

■ Alice Hansen Langworthy, Ω-Kansas, was elected senator from the state's seventh district, but says she still looks on herself as a volunteer, not a politician. Crediting her realtor husband, Asher, with her success, Audrey feels that their mutual interest in government and his supportive attitude and campaign help played a large role in her victory at the polls.

Formerly a junior high school teacher, mother of a son and daughter, active in the Junior League and the Kansas City Eye Bank, Audrey has always felt she was shy. She believes that her volunteer experiences gave valuable training in problem solving and negotiating, along with opportunities for growth and development.

Gifts To Museum Deeply Appreciated

BY BARNA HURT GRAVES

FN-ARKANSAS

CHAIRMAN MUSEUM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Heritage Museum is now in its fifth year and the accomplishments have been many, thanks to the generous contributions of so many of you. Each gift is deeply appreciated—cash donations, Kappa Memorabilia, and historical items are vital to the Museum's continued growth. Cherished treasures find a special home in the Museum.

During the period of November, 1984 to November, 1985, contributions, totaling $40,380 were received from 867 Kappas and friends. Included were gifts from 54 alumnae associations and clubs. Several groups held special fund raisers and many gifts were designated as memorials to loved ones. The Northern Virginia Association designated $1200 for the Chandelier Fund, established by Polly Beall, TX-George Washington, in memory of her husband, John. The Seattle, Washington alumnae earmarked $600 for the dining room chair restoration project. Other generous gifts included: $500 from Austin, $400 from Columbus, OH, $400 from Denver, $300 each from the Houston and Richardson, Tx. groups.

$250 from Lincoln, Neb. and $200 from the Kansas City Association.

As Museum awareness grows, more gifts are given each year "In Honor Of" and "In Memory Of." This year, the Museum received over 250 Memorial gifts. An additional 64 gifts honored a special Kappa, family member, friend, or chapter.

New categories have been established to acknowledge donor support. They are: Benefactor $1,000, Heritage $500, Patron $250, Supporting $100, and Contributing $50. The following list includes donors from November 1984 to November 1985 and their accumulative gift in support of the Museum.

The 1985 Fund Appeal included a lovely blue brochure, picturing many scenes from the Museum. The Board of Trustees and the Fraternity Council hope this helped you feel a part of your Museum Headquarters Home. Your continued participation in preserving Kappa's rich heritage is vital. The many goals and dreams for the Museum can be attained with your interest and support. "A home built of loving deeds, that stands a thousand years." We trust the Museum will remain high on your future priority list of support.

“DID YOU KNOW YOU OWN A MANSION?”

BY ANGELA L. USREY
MUSEUM INTERN
ΠI—ALABAMA

Your mansion stands in Columbus, Ohio and is filled with memories of wealth and gaiety as well as threads of despair and turmoil. This mansion has a story of her own to tell. Built in 1851 by a wealthy merchant, she became the center of society. Serving as the Governor's mansion during the Civil War only added to her prestige. Standing four stories tall, she is topped with an elaborate belvedere while her basement served as a passageway for the underground railroad. Throughout the Victorian period she was adorned with dignitaries and powerful politicians. She was the toast of the North.

But along with the good is the bad. The Depression lashed out at her as did her country. Her 16 foot high walls were no longer filled with music and dance but became a musty refuge. She remained like this for almost two decades until, in 1951, exactly 100 years after her foundation was laid, she was purchased by Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. It took years to recapture her grandeur but she now stands taller than ever and serves as the gracious home of Kappa Kappa Gamma, The Heritage Museum.

Earlier, an auditorium was added to the back portion of what is now the Museum. This space serves as our Headquarters. Your beautiful Victorian mansion has been written about in over a dozen published books and was recognized as a National Landmark by the United States Department of Interior. Regularly, docents dressed in 19th century fashion give tours of her to the public. She opens her doors to all and exemplifies the Victorian Era into which founders and their ideas were born.

CHANDELIER TO BE MEMORIAL

A Kappa lady, so well known to many of us, is Polly Tomlin Beall, ΓΧ-George Washington. She is anxious for the day she can come to the Heritage Museum and light the dining room chandelier. It will be purchased from gifts given in memory of her John as well as other memorials. John's face was so familiar to those who attended conventions. He was a tall thin smiling man who accompanied Polly many times and who's exuberant, kindly manner won him many Kappa friends. Because of his warm feelings toward his "Kappa family," the chandelier for the Victorian dining room was Polly's choice as the perfect answer. Polly has served as an adviser to Gamma Chi Chapter for many years and she serves presently on the Pan-hellenic Affairs Committee.

The acquisition committee has chosen a beautiful Waterford crystal chandelier which was made in the 1850s. It would be an exquisite addition hanging over our mahogany dining room table. We are hoping to make the purchase soon, but are still in need of additional funds. If you have not made a contribution to the museum this year and would like to do so, you might want to earmark your gift for the chandelier. Please send a check to the Heritage Museum, c/o John R. Beall Memorial Fund. Once it is purchased and in its proper place, Polly will come and light the chandelier. What better memorial can there be for John Beall and other loved ones?

The keystone to Kappa Kappa Gamma is friendship and sisterhood, and nowhere is this more clearly expressed than in our fraternity philanthropy funds and programs.

The Rose McGill Fund is Kappa sister helping Kappa sister. This year $65,000 is budgeted for direct financial aid to members in severe financial crisis. Emergency Assistance Grants totalling $22,000 will be given to undergraduate members to help them remain in school and active members of their chapters. The Circle Key Grant budget of $8,000 will help alumnae continue their education or retrain for a new career. The Rose McGill Christmas Sharing Program will link alumnae and chapter groups with Kappas in financial need to help provide them with a happier Christmas. Those Kappas doing the providing also have a happier Christmas, as the Christmas Sharing program is truly as rewarding for the givers as for the receivers.

The Founders' Memorial Fund for Students' Aid has provided $131,525 for scholarships for women, Kappas and non-Kappas, in this academic year.

How do you "sell" Kappa? Do you tell others about our outstanding scholarship and aid programs? This fall one of the best selling women's magazines had an educational supplement which listed Kappa Kappa Gamma as one of five resources for scholarship assistance for women. Does this magazine know something that you don't? You, through your Fraternity will give $161,525 in scholarships this year alone. Local chapter and alumnae scholarship programs will boost this figure to well over $200,000. Proudly tell others of this noteworthy achievement and proudly ask for assistance, if you need it.

Kappa also needs your help to maintain and enhance our scholarship and aid programs. The requests for assistance far outstrip our capacity to provide help. It is the loyal support of alumnae and chapter groups and individuals that determine the extent of our assistance. Ask yourself what you, as one individual, can do to further the Fraternity's philanthropic endeavors.

1. Do you routinely contribute to one of Kappa's philanthropic funds to memorialize or honor a special Kappa sister? Does your Kappa group contribute regularly for this purpose?
2. Do you encourage your group to support Fraternity philanthropy to the best of its ability?
3. Do you order all of your magazines and gift subscriptions through the Rose McGill Magazine Agency? Dial 1-800-KKG-ROSE.
4. Have you remembered Kappa in your will?
5. Have you designed memorial contributions for you or your loved ones to go to a Fraternity philanthropic fund? Have you told someone close to you about your desire to have this done?

6. Are you an informed and proud promoter of Kappa's philanthropy programs?
7. If you have a special philanthropic request or concern, have you sought further information?

One devoted Kappa has set up a special Kappa scholarship fund in her will. This will be a somewhat different scholarship (according to her wishes) and will greatly expand our scholarship program in the future. Do you have a special requirement or dream that Kappa might help you implement? Contact the Director of Philanthropies to discuss it further.

This past year Kappa was designated as the recipient of several special memorials. The newspaper obituary notices suggested memorial donations to a Kappa scholarship fund and gave the appropriate address. These thoughtful gestures generated almost $10,000 for scholarships. What better way to remember a loved one than by establishing a scholarship in her name?

If you have benefitted from Kappa—from friendships, from loving support, from growth opportunities, from financial assistance—have you considered "paying Kappa back?" Some give because of financial assistance they received in the past; most give because of the invaluable intangible gifts they've received from Kappa Kappa Gamma. The following letter is typical of many received.

Dear Kappa Scholarship Chairman:

I would like the enclosed check to be donated to the Kappa Scholarship Fund. I benefitted greatly from the Fund over thirteen years ago when I received $500 toward my law school education. It is time to start repaying what I consider to be my "debt."

I have practiced law on and off for the past ten years having graduated from law school in May, 1974. I married a law school classmate in August, 1974 and we have had three children over the past ten years (hence my on and off practice of law).

I genuinely appreciate the opportunity Kappa helped me grasp and hope that future needy students can continue to benefit from Kappa's scholarship program.

Loyally,
Mary Kastantin Connolly
I'E-Pittsburgh

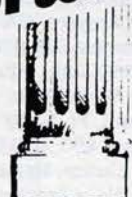

Inscribed on the candlesticks left to the Fraternity by Charlotte Barrell Ware, Grand President, 1884-88, are the words, "How far that little candle throws his beams. So shines a good deed in a naughty world." Certainly Kappa's far reaching philanthropic deeds are a symbol of our Fraternity's eternal flame that lights the way for each generation to seek attainment of the high ideals of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Heartfelt thanks to all of you who have contributed so generously to Fraternity philanthropies this year and held high that flame.

Christmas Sharing . . .

In 1964 South Bend-Mishawaka, IN Association wrote the Rose McGill Chairman offering to "adopt" for Christmas a "family" member. This generous offer has grown to be one of the Fraternity's best loved traditions—the Christmas Sharing Program. Last year 53 alumnae groups and two undergraduate chapters planned, shopped, wrapped and mailed packages for "their" Rose McGill Kappa. In 1985, 75 groups will participate. The joy of the recipients is exceeded only by that of the donors who write it has given new meaning to their Kappa sisterhood.

Expanding the ideals of the program, South Bend-Mishawaka has given assistance for a local hospice family and plans to keep in touch throughout the year with Valentine cookies, garden produce, and school supplies. Houston is reaching out to Kappas and their families who are hospitalized over the holidays: The Mary McKinney Smith Luncheon Group New York City provided a Christmas check for a special needed expenditure of a "family" member; Princeton, NJ altered their annual gift exchange by placing whatever amount they would have spent on a grab bag gift in wrapped Christmas package. Gifts were opened, money tallied, and proceeds sent to the Christmas Sharing Program. So many ways to share the spirit!

KAPPA CRUISE!

Plan a cruise with Kappas or other friends and benefit the Fraternity's new Student Loan Fund and your own alumnae or chapter group as well. The Rose McGill Student Loan Fund for graduate and undergraduate members will be officially announced at the 1986 convention in Philadelphia.

You may get a head start in supporting this new Fraternity philanthropy and have a marvelous trip as well. For each passage booked through Kappa, the Student Loan Fund will receive more than 10% of the purchase price. If you wish to credit your ticket purchase to a Kappa chapter or alumnae group, that group will receive $150 to give to the philanthropy of their choice. For each ten tickets credited to a group, the group will receive one free ticket or the purchase price of a ticket to contribute to the philanthropy of their choice.

For more information, call 1-800-KKG-Rose. Cruise brochures will be sent in the January chapter and alumnae Fraternity mailings. (See page 68)

Popular Ways of Giving Gifts of Cash

Cash gifts are still the most popular way to make a charitable contribution. A check given to any of the funds represents a gift to Kappa and serves to help others. Cash gifts of all sizes are important, are recorded, and acknowledged. Many of the funds are exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and gifts are deductible by the donors in computing their taxable income.

Gifts of Securities

In the case of appreciated securities contributed to a private foundation, such as any of the ones listed except the Loyalty Fund, the amount of the contribution is fair market value on date of gift less one-half of the capital gain which would have been realized had the securities been sold.

Gifts of Life Insurance

A gift of life insurance is another unique way to contribute to Kappa. If the policy is fully paid up, a charitable contribution is generally the replacement cost of the policy, or the cost basis, whichever is less. A policy that is not fully paid up may also be given, and a charitable contribution is allowed for approximately the cash surrender value or the cost basis if less. Ongoing premiums are tax deductible.

Gifts by Bequest

Through your will you can help insure a strong financial future for Kappa Kappa Gamma, for a charitable bequest earns tax advantages and allows you to retain full use of your gift property during your lifetime. There are several options for your consideration in providing a bequest for Kappa, among them:

1. A specific dollar amount
2. A percentage of your estate
3. As a residuary beneficiary

We recommend that you consult your attorney regarding the appropriate state and federal laws governing these plans for giving to Kappa Kappa Gamma and to determine the actual advantage to you. Unless you make a will, state law will decide how your assets will be distributed - such legal determination may not be as you desire, and your estate may pay maximum taxes.

Memorial and Honorary Gifts

Opportunities abound for giving in memory of a friend or loved one as well as giving in honor of someone. All gifts are carefully recorded and acknowledged appropriately. Cash gifts may be specified as to a particular scholarship or use in the Heritage Museum. For detailed needs of a specific nature please write the Heritage Museum or the director of philanthropies.

Nothing could be more of a living or ongoing tribute than establishing a scholarship or donating in the name of a person important to you!

ANOTHER PHILANTHROPY IDEA—Kappa has been asked to assist the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in their efforts to reduce crimes against children. The National Center works in co-operative agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice addressing the issues of missing children, sexual exploitation, child pornography and child prostitution. This adorable electronic bear will be used to educate young children about the possible dangers of talking to strangers, what to do if approached by someone they don't know or are afraid of, the importance of learning their full name, address and phone number, etc.

Groups may become involved in this worthwhile project by helping distribute educational information to hospitals, doctors' offices, day care centers and schools; purchasing bears for use in educating children; furnishing a room in a local police station where children will feel more comfortable when being interviewed; working to get state and local legislation promoting prevention and special education programs in this important area. If you or your group would like more information about how you can help this worthwhile cause...

PROVINCE GRANTS

A total of $17,000 has been given to local rehabilitation agencies by Kappa's provinces. Here are four provinces in a series of profiles.

Pi Province selected Ronald McDonald Houses in Portland, OR and Fresno, CA to each receive $500. Pictured are Cinnamon Bear, Sue McGirty Riches, FM-Oregon State (Pres. Portland Alumnae) presenting check to Ronald McDonald. The house is a "home away from home" where families stay while their children receive hospital treatment for chronic illnesses.

Theta Province awarded $500 to Sequoia group home for retarded adults in Dallas and $500 to Kids on the Block in El Paso, TX a troupe of disabled and non-disabled puppets whose goal is to normalize disabilities in the minds of their audiences. Susan Harrison Guerra, BΘ-Oklahoma, is shown with her puppet, Mark Riley, and Jimmie Faye Beall, Director of Volunteer Services for the Ysleta Independent School District in El Paso.

Epsilon Province also split their funds with $500 going to Kids on the Block where several Upsilon Chapter members at Northwestern volunteered as puppeteers with the Jr. League of Chicago. The other $500 was given to Warren Achievement Center, Monmouth, IL — a group home for developmentally disabled children.

Nu Province granted $500 to United Cerebral Palsy Equestrian Program in Memphis, TN; and $500 to the E.A.R. Foundation in Nashville, see page 9

Now you too can enjoy the world's most exclusive fragrances, thanks to Perfume Originals. Perfume Originals offers you the quality of the world's most alluring scents at an affordable price. A pleasure to give and an even greater pleasure to receive!

Perfume Originals are... romantic, exciting, luxurious, attractive and affordable.

Each of Perfume Originals' fragrances contain characteristic scents that are reminiscent of the "essential notes" found in the great perfumes of the world. For example, the notes in "Poppyfields" are reminiscent of those found in "Opium."

You will also find that your Perfume Originals choice will have a longer lasting scent and that you receive twice the amount of fragrance for a fraction of the cost!

AN INVITATION TO EVERY KAPPA...

BY MARJORIE CROSS BIRD,
BM-COLORADO FRATERNITY NOMINATING CHAIRMAN

June, 1986—an important time for Kappa, as at Convention, the members of your Fraternity Council will be elected. YOU, as an initiated member, are invited to share in this process by recommending those Kappas you would entrust with the leadership of our Fraternity for the next biennium.

Those who have served as province, Fraternity, or council officers will tell you that the experience is one of learning new and useful skills, of personal growth, of working with stimulating people of all age groups, and the special joy of new friendships. Your recommendation might be the beginning of opening such doors of opportunity for some Kappa whose qualities and abilities have impressed you.

Whom may I recommend?... An alumna in good standing who has served the Fraternity within ten years prior to election as a member of Council, Fraternity standing or special committees, as a province officer, a traveling consultant or council assistant is qualified for a Council position.

Except for the chairman, the nominating committee is chosen on the opening night of Convention. The committee is comprised of four active and four alumnae delegates who carefully consider the recommended candidates who have consented to serve if nominated and elected, and prepare a slate. All nine Council positions are slated and elected at each Convention. A Council officer is elected for a two-year term and may be re-elected to the same office for one more term only.

What qualities are important in a Council officer?... She must have leadership and organizational skills, and administrative abilities. She should be perceptive, creative, and be able to express herself well orally and in writing. She must be mature, and a good team player. Because these positions are demanding and involve time away from home, she must have supportive families and/or employers. You will find an impressive list of the responsibilities of the Council on pages 9 and 10 of the Bylaws. The specific duties of each officer are listed on pages 11 and 12. Please take the time to read these few pages. As you are reading, perhaps just the perfect person to recommend for one of these positions will come to your mind.

May I recommend someone for a Fraternity position other than a Council officer?... Certainly. Council responsibilities involve coordinating the work of many Fraternity committees. It is important to remember that committee appointments are often made from the recommendations YOU send. Permanent files are maintained of qualified and interested Kappas.

What do I do next?... Use the recommendation form on the next page! The form has been changed this year to make it easier for you. You are no longer expected to furnish resumé information. A data sheet will be sent directly to each Kappa who is recommended to fill out personally.

Now you have the invitation and the information. Please use this opportunity to sustain the vitality and quality of Kappa's enviable history of leadership by identifying Kappa's future leaders. Send your recommendation(s) NOW to the Fraternity Nominating Chairman.

For the present, it is up to each individual to do her best through preventive measures to avoid developing osteoporosis. The National Institutes of Health conference also stressed the need for public awareness and information. Physicians must emphasize measures that retard or halt the progress of osteoporosis before irreversible structural defects occur. There is also a great need for additional research on understanding the biology of human bone, defining individuals at special risk, and developing safe, effective, low-cost strategies for fracture prevention.

Read about it, ask about it, learn about it. Help to educate the young women around you so that by the time they reach their years of maturity and full bloom, osteoporosis will no longer be the silent epidemic.

1985-86 CALL FOR RECOMMENDATIONS. At General Convention in June, members of your Fraternity Council will be elected. Every initiated member, active or alumna, has the privilege to recommend those you feel are best qualified to serve the Fraternity in these important positions, or in other Fraternity positions.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR COUNCIL OFFICE: She shall be an alumna in good standing and shall have served the Fraternity within ten years prior to election as a member of Council, Fraternity standing or special committee, Associate Council, Traveling Consultant or Council Assistant.

Please send your recommendation(s) by March 15, to Fraternity Nominating Chairman: Mrs. Marjorie C. Bird, 601 Warren Landing, Ft. Collins, CO 80525.

JOIN OUR SPECIAL KAPPA CRUISE

To Benefit the Rose McGill Student Loan Fund

Kappa is pleased to announce a very special travel opportunity that will benefit Kappa Kappa Gamma's Rose McGill Student Loan Fund as well!

Join Royal Cruise Line's September 15, 1986, departure of their European Grandeur cruise. You'll experience the great cities of Rome, Florence and Athens; the fabulous Greek Isles of Mykonos, Rhodes and Hydra; thrilling Istanbul and the incredible ruins of Ephesus; glittering Monte Carlo and the chic French Riviera; picturesque Taormina in Sicily; and a rare visit to the gorgeous, "scented isle" of Corsica.

You'll also receive, just for joining our group, $125 per person onboard credit, as well as special parties and other amenities.

The new Rose McGill Student Loan Fund will receive more than 10% commission from each cruise booking. Alumnae and chapter philanthropies may also benefit from each ticket sold.

The cruise is 14 days, air/sea, and RCL's air/sea program makes it possible for Kappas nationwide to come along. The price starts at just $3238 per person from Los Angeles or San Francisco, but we can quote prices for you from major U.S. cities.

Call Margie Meade at 1-800-KKG-ROSE for a detailed color brochure or more information. Or, call Carmen at Royal Cruise Line to make a reservation. We're sure space for the Kappa cruise will go quickly! RCL's numbers are: 1-800-227-4534 (National) or 1-800-792-2992 (California only).
