

Volume 106, No. 3

Fall/Winter 1989

Come to Kappa's 58th Biennial General Convention.

Join Kappas "Deep in the Heart of Texas" June 27 - July 1, 1990, at the Fairmont Hotel in Dallas for an experience you will always remember.

This is an opportunity for all Kap pas to be active participants in the Fraternity's decision-making proces—to elect officers for the next bien nium, transact Fraternity business and have a part in shaping its future. Kappas of all ages, actives an alumnae, from Canada and the United States will meet to renew old friendships and make new ones, to learn and grow together, to feel the inspiration and motivation of Kappa ideals and Kappa leaders, and o course to have fun—enjoying the locale, events, and people.

Plan to experience the warm and friendly hospitality of Texas. Ever the skies are Kappa blue! Come to Convention — your opportunity to be Deep in the Heart of Kappa!.

Message from the President ____

New Directions... Because We Care

As Kappa Kappa Gamma steps into a new decade and celebrates the 119th anniversary of our founding, your Council is excited about new plans and ideas now in the developmental stages — new visions of the future and new directions to be pursued.

We will not forget the purposes for which we were founded, but because of our heritage, because we care, decisions have been made which will provide new services to our members and promote Kappa's relevance and excellence in today's world.

New . . . the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. Because we care, after several years of careful consideration, our philanthropic funds have been merged. Members and others may give tax-deductible gifts to this 501(c)(3) charitable Foundation. You may still designate gifts for your favorite fund within the Foundation, i.e., Rose McGill, Students' Aid, Adelphe. Plans will be formulated for grants to support Fraternity educational and charitable activities and selected public charities. The change creates a wonderful new opportunity for tax deductible gifts to support scholarships and other philanthropies, thus continuing to strengthen Kappa Kappa Gamma while building for the future.

New . . . KEEP SAFE. Because we care, the Council is proud to announce a program of personal safety and security for women. We hope that this comprehensive program will teach Kappas and other women how to avoid circumstances which could result in injury, rape, or violent death. Our members have bee touched by tragedy much too ofte in recent years; we hope through er ucation to develop an awarenes which will allow them to be sai wherever they are.

New...merchandising and I censing. Because we care, we ar increasing special services offere by the Fraternity. Members wi soon have the opportunity to pur chase Kappa merchandise throug the Kappa Collection and from approved vendors; additional cruise and tours will be offered to benefithe Foundation; we will continue of fering the special insurance program and the Kappa credit card.

Because we care, we are looking forward to seeing you in Dallas in June for the 58th General Convention. You will have a chance to meet Kappas from throughou Canada and the United States, to exchange ideas, and enjoy the fur and inspiration which comes from meeting and being with other Kappas. You will find this a true time or renewal and a time for visualizing Kappa's future.

I thank each of the more than 10,000 members who contributed to the Loyalty Fund last year. These gifts show that you are eager to maintain Kappa's excellence; you want to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow. We can move together in new directions because YOU CARE.

—Kay Smith Larson, BΠ—Washington

KKΓ Is Licensing

Many products are being sold to Kappas bearing insignia which belongs to the Fraternity.

Plans are underway for the Fraternity to share in the profits being made through a licensing program, which also allows for some control of the quality of the products. This program is the first of a three part merchandising program recommended by a study committee.

More importantly, the licensing effort is necessary for the protection of our registered trademarks.

Our name and symbols are registered for the exclusive use of Kappa Kappa Gamma. The Fraternity must monitor their use and limit it authorized vendors, or we risk sing our exclusive rights. Also it is our interest to control who will ave use of our name and symbols. The have learned already of offensive roducts bearing Greek letter ames.

We join Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha i Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta elta, Delta Gamma, Kappa Alpha heta, Phi Mu, and Pi Beta Phi in he licensing and merchandising tarkets. Other National Panhelnic Conference and Inter Fraterniz Conference groups are in varying tages of preparation to enter the arkets.

When the Fraternity learns of a endor using our registered tradenarks—our name, the Greek letters ΚΓ, the crest, our badge, and our ledge pin are registered— they will eceive a letter informing them of neir infringement and asking that hey enter into a licensing agreenent. They will pay a royalty to the raternity for the privilege of using ur trademarks.

The Fraternity requests the assisance of all members in reporting he names of vendors using Kappa rademarks so that they can be ofered a licensing agreement.

A list of licensed vendors will be vailable to chapters and alumnae roups and also published in The Ley. WE ASK THAT OUR MEMBERS TRADE ONLY WITH LICENSED VENDORS.

A chapter or alumnae group buying from a licensed vendor will keep a portion of the royalty due the Fraternity for its own use at the local level.

Members of Kappa who use the registered trademarks for their personal profit will need to be licensed as any other vendor.

Chapters and alumnae groups using the trademarks for their fundraising need not be concerned with licensing.

Anyone interested in becoming a licensed vendor should contact Fraternity Headquarters, Box 2079, Columbus, OH 43216 or (614) 228-6515.

The Merchandising Study Committee which recommended this merchandising program was chaired by Jan Harenberg Stockhoff, ΓΒ—New Mexico. Serving on the committee were Carol Carrano Adams, ΔΜ—Connecticut; Phyllis Penrose Bignold, ΓΓ—Whitman; Debbie Wamser Miller, ΓΞ—UCLA; and Janet Dickerson Sanford, ΓΚ—William and Mary.

New Appointments

Barbara J. Sterner, θ—Missouri, will assist newly colonized Omicron Deuteron—Simpson College as a Chapter Consultant. Barbara, who served her chapter as PR Chairman and Second Vice President, graduated with a degree in interdisciplinary studies — personnel management and public relations.

Heather E. Hartmann, ΔN— Massachussetts, is also spending the year as a Chapter Consultant for a new colony, Zeta Upsilon— Georgia Southern. Heather graduated with a degree in business administration and was Registrar, Panhellenic Delegate, and President of her chapter.

Therese L. Guiney, BY—West Virginia, has been appointed Chapter Consultant for Delta Nu—Massachusetts. Graduating with a degree in interior design, Therese was active in the American Society of Interior Designers and served her chapter as Social Chairman.

Best Job in the Fraternity

Province officers have the best job in the Fraternity! This is the consensus of current and former Province Officers. Of the two offices, whether being a Province Director or Alumnae (PDA) or Province Director of Chapters (PDC) is preferable depends upon who is talking.

Province Officers (POs) are the Fraternity representatives who work most closely with the membership. They oversee the operations of chapters and alumnae groups in their assigned geographic regions while serving a two year term. An alumna may serve two terms in a position, and visits each group at least once in a term. It is the duty of Province Officers to explain procedures and policies, advise, give decision-making guidance, assist with programming, operations, and management, and keep in regular contact with their groups through newsletters and correspondence. As the Associate Council they review policies and procedures with the Fraternity Council and make recommendations.

As liaison between the Council and chapters and alumnae groups, they are the officers who listen and pass on information, suggestions, and concerns as well as giving well-deserved applause and encouragement. Province Officers are invaluable and irreplaceable in carrying on the work of the Fraternity through their close association with their groups and as a link and conduit between the general membership and Fraternity leaders.

The benefits of serving as a Province Officer are really multifaceted, according to Betsy Stillwell Strain, Σ-Nebraska, former Zeta PDC and now a Regional Director of Chapters. "The most obvious benefit is the association with terrific people—working with some of the most outstanding women in North America."

Through visits to alumnae groups a PDA numbers among her friends interesting women of a wide range of ages and Kappa backgrounds. She laughs with them as they share chapter experiences, rekindle old friendships and enjoy the lifetime bonds of sisterhood. She glows with pride as their organizations grow and benefit their community and the Fraternity.

Karen Stevens Pickney, ΔΥ-Georgia, says that serving as Mu PDA "has been a catalyst for stepping beyond the bounds of my own self-limitations. I have conquered a Personal Computer and software program while filling my empty nest with Mu Province owls. My biggest pay-off has been my interaction with women who are consistently of the highest calibre."

Betty Hines Bloore, ΔP-Mississippi, views her association with alumnae in Lambda Province as PDA "As a tapestry—woven with Kappa threads of friendship with recent graduates, career women, The Long-time Faithfuls, Kappas on the mommy track, 50/60/75 year alumnae. All contribute in their special ways to our Fraternity. Each alumna is a volunteer who has chosen to continue weaving Kappa into her life. It is these special friendships, made as Lambda Province Director of Alumnae, that have been extremely enriching and beneficial to me. We have grown together and have strengthened the blue and blue threads that weave us together."

Joan Cook Cohen, BM-Colorado, former Eta PDC, currently Assistant to the Director of Membership, cherishes the advantages to her family in having issues facing college students brought to the dinner table. "It was a joy sharing our home with Kappa Traveling Consultants who brought their youth, enthusiasm, laughter, travel stories, and questions to all members of our family. It was a thrill seeing one tiny, seemingly insignificant suggestion take root in a chapter and grow," Joanie reminisces, "just as it was a challenge to hear undergraduate concerns without judging."

Former Gamma PDC Ann Stafford Truesdell, Pa-Ohio Wesleyan, Chairman of Chapter Programs, says "The BEST job in the Fraternity—this definitely defines the position of Province Officer. The possibilities of developing new friendships with undergraduate Kappe and our supportive alumna abound. In addition, these position allow one the opportunity for selforwith. Fine-tuning lifeskills amanagement and leadership, communications and interpersonal effectiveness, organization and implementation results in self-confidence and satisfaction. The Province Officer position is a skill-building, people job and the rewards far outdistance the time and energy spent."

These are marketable skills that can appropriately be included on résumés. Often Kappa volunteer ex periences lead to employment on new careers.

"People may think they must excel in these areas in order to tack le the PDA or PDC jobs," muses Betsy Strain. "I think they just need to have a desire to learn and develop these skills. All a person has to do is believe in the purposes of the Fraternity and enjoy Kappas young and old. The rest can easily be acquired.

"I also think people tend to volunteer their time to something from which they feel they will benefit or gain. If everyone thought about the rewards, many more would give their time to Kappa!"

"In the Honors of One...

Congratulations to all our undergraduate members who excel in academics and leadership on their campuses. During 1988-89, Kappas were named to honoraries for practically every academic major, held office and were contributing members in hundreds of campus organizations, and received countless individual honors and scholarships. We salute our Panhellenic presidents, Student Government officers, and members of class honoraries. Information was provided by 78 of 119 chapter Public Relations Chairmen on the Annual Honors Report received before July 1, and the national headquarters of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Candles on the Water

by Gay Chuba Barry, AA-Penn State, Chairman of Fraternity Publications

here is a certain radiance about a candle, something that illuminates a little corner of our world...much like our Field Representatives who may be thought of as Kappa's "Candles on the Water." They are reflections of Kappa ideals and standards with unwavering dedication and high ethics. They are glowing flames to light our way.

Serving as Director of Field Representatives for four years was an experience and an opportunity that will be treasured for all time. To be in the company of these fine young Kappas was a time for continued self-growth and a time to be challenged. Their light warms others for all seasons to come.

Since I feel so strongly abut the value and the opportunities available in the Field Representative Program, it seemed apropos to me to learn how this experience influenced and benefited our former Field Representatives. A questionnaire was sent in the spring of 1988 to all who had served since 1950 and to some who served before that time. The response was heartwarming. It was proof positive of the gains realized from the investment in training and nurturing by the Fraternity, and from the time, dedication and effort by the Field Representatives themselves. (Note that in 1984 the specific titles changed from Field Secretary to Traveling Consultant and from Graduate Counselor to Chapter Consultant which more accurately reflect the job descriptions.)

SPECIAL MEMORIES

The memories Martha Galleher Cox, Pa-Ohio Wesleyan, 1943-45 Field Secretary, most vividly recalls are "Traveling during the war by train...always crowded...sometimes having to sit on my bags because there were no available seats, but most important are memories of the girls I met-many are my good friends today."

Judith Lennon Cashman, BB^a—St. Lawrence, 1958 Graduate Counselor for BA—Pennsylvania, remembers her experiences as happy, exhilarating, "heady" - in being perceived by the chapter as "older, wiser, and confident"; she felt the alumnae were more cosmopolitan and sophisticated than she, but still sought her help.

Mary Agnes "Gray" Roberts, Y-Northwestern, Field Secretary and Graduate Counselor 1944-1947, counts among her most special memories "The magnificent people that I met, the Council for whom I worked and represented, the many wonderful friends I made, many of whom have been everlasting...are all coupled with the thrill in traveling hither and yon."

All Kappas may take pride in them because so many participate in their successes: the chapters who pledge and nurture them, the advisers who serve as role models, and the Fraternity officers who encourage them.

In responding to the major benefits of the program, many expressed that they were very well trained as volunteers compared to others, and how grateful they have been for it.

Susan Brown Hardesty, BY-West Virginia, 1967 Field Secretary, shares those sentiments. "I think I have been a better volunteer in the community because of the many opportunities I had in addressing large groups and in assisting in the organization of chapters."

Marsha Love, EZ-Florida State, remembers driving halfway across Columbia, South Carolina, to the USC campus one night with the Epsilon Kappa Christmas tree in her car trunk and no headlights. She also remembers triggering the burglar alarm at Headquarters and "dropping a piping hot pizza all over the front steps just as Clara O. Pierce, BN-Ohio State, Executive Secretary opened the door." (On we "older" Kappas realize the sign icance of that moment.)

Field Secretary in 1962, Marly Nelson Barrett, BΦ-Montana, e pecially remembers "coming to the heartwarming realization that v Kappas do indeed have a specibond regardless of (our differences I have felt this bond every time I'v discovered another Kappa siste through the years."

Frances Davis Roberts, AY-Georgia, Graduate Counselor Arkansas in 1978 relates the feelin of gratitude from the chapter an also of being "scared to death of it stigating a major change, and the feeling like a million dollars when made a positive difference."

A similar point of view was ex pressed by Janet de Michaeli Wickre, Pa-Ohio Wesleyan, wh was a Graduate Counselor at ΓΨ-Maryland in 1974. She remembers "the honor and thrill of being select ed; the fun of being in a chapte house; the rare opportunity to view Kappa in-depth; and the incredible sense that-just maybe-your pres ence made a difference."

For a number the special memo ries included meeting their hus bands as a result of assignments but the most consistent replies were the very special friendships made the interesting people met, and the broadening of perspectives: a "grow ing year" in every sense.

BENEFITS GLEANED

Dorothea Lowendick Bitler EΓ-North Carolina, Graduate Counselor for EX-Virginia, feels the experience taught her flexibility poise and "grace under pressure, giving her confidence to try things she otherwise might not have attempted.

Corinne Mani Yancy, ΔB -Duke, relates that her Graduate Counselor days at ZA-Babson in 1979 helped her to be more openminded about people and attitudes. The experience also helped in the development of organizational skills.

One learns that respect is gained slowly through action, not words, [and] that trust develops unknow-ngly and displaces fear or resentnent. Specifically, Psi Deuteron-Cornell taught me much about exellence — of pursuing one's capapilities and striving for goals." Elizabeth Meyer Berger, EΣ-Virginia, 1978-1980 Graduate Counselor, also says, "Those women gave ne more than I could possibly have given [them]." Beth currently is a andscape architect. One of her recent projects, The University of Virginia Historic Central Grounds Master Plan, won an honor award from the American Society of Landscape Architects.

Several shared the fact that they changed their career directions as a result of this enriching experience either to counseling or a more "people oriented" field.

According to Kimberly Rountree Lien, ΓΞ—UCLA, 1979-1980 Field Secretary, she "learned by maintaining high standards I could accomplish more." Kim also feels one develops "very good people skills" in these positions.

Kay Scholberg Weeks, ΔΦ-Bucknell, both Graduate Counselor and Field Secretary from 1976-1978 echoes Kim. She developed "people, presentation, and administrative skills; problem solving abilities; flexibility in thinking; and solutions to a myriad of situations; and selfmotivation and team-building skills. It was a real foundation for what I have done thus far and may do in the future."

Sarah Avril Sutfin, BX-Kentucky, 1984-1985 Traveling Consultant comments, "It prepared me to feel comfortable about being alone, to think things through more thoroughly." She also feels it improved her speaking ability and motivational techniques.

"As a second year MBA student, my experience as a Chapter Consultant was a popular topic during interviews. Most interviewers were surprised to learn about the level of responsibility I had," said Carol Bender, ΔA—Penn State/ΓP—Allegheny, 1986-1987 Chapter Consultant at Ψ⁴—Cornell. She is now a human resource associate with Bristol-Myers, the first to hold this new position.

Karen Bosch, X-Minnesota, 1980-1981 Field Secretary, says "social graciousness in my job I attribute to my Field Rep experience, and it has often been commented upon by my employers." She adds, "It is a character building, confidence building experience. One's creativity, flexibility, and education are constantly challenged, forcing personal growth. It is fulfilling to watch one's suggestions and support help others to achieve their goals."

Barbara Cole Thornhill, ΓK— William and Mary, 1982-1983 Field Secretary, presently serves as the director of a marketing agency. She comments, "One of the best reasons for doing 'this' is [that] it helps you objectively view the rest of your life. I had a perspective of what I wanted to pursue professionally that I would not have had right out of college. Plus I then had the confidence to aggressively pursue it. Also, it helps establish self-reliance and discipline that serves through any career."

The greatest benefits are "Skills taught in a loving, nurturing environment; tests of the purest kind with complete support. All the skills learned have assisted me with both personal and professional growth. There can be no greater job satisfaction than with this position," says Mary Clarke, \(\Delta Z\)—Colorado College, 1986-1987 Traveling Consultant, and a regional manager of an educational foundation for foreign study.

"I wouldn't have traded this experience for anything in the world, especially now that I have seen how it has impacted my life. Independence and assertiveness are important traits for women to possess these days, and my time as a Traveling Consultant in 1985-1986 helped to develop these areas." Ogden, ZZ-Westminster, worked as a field representative for the American Cancer Society and is presently earning an additional degree in nursing.

These capsule comments are but a few received which give testimony to a program and opportunity of significance provided by the Fraternity. Self-growth, development of career and volunteer skills, as well as personal insight, are some of the tangible benefits derived from this exceptional program. The dividends from this investment are apparent not only to the Fraternity but to those women who attribute much of life's successes to this experience.

The University of Washington Panhellenic was the most recent to hire a former Kappa Field Rep as Greek or Panhellenic Adviser. Colleen Blough, ΔO —Iowa State. 1986-1988 Traveling Consultant, is serving her second year as Panhellenic Adviser. Colleen replies, "I'm thankful the first two years of my post-college experience were so rewarding. I looked forward to each day of work because I believed in what I was promoting."

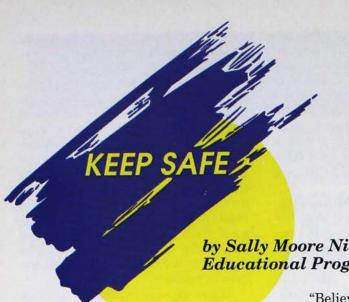

This depth of feeling for the position, this radiance, these Kappas are still illuminating little corners of the world. They will be forever Kappa's "Candles on the Water." All Kappas may take pride in them because so many participate in their successes: the chapters who pledge and nurture them, the advisers who serve as role models, and the Fraternity officers and chairmen who encourage them.

Kelly Riggs, Σ—Nebraska, Field Representative 1978-1980, perhaps sums it up in this quote: "Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you."

The logo of KEEP SAFE is a computer graphic design developed by Linda Lange, BP⁴—Cincinnati, of the Fraternity Headquarter's Communications Department.

Symbolizing a spotlight bringing into sharp focus the issue of personal safety, the KEEP SAFE logo illustrates the bright light of increased awareness which can make the difference between personal safety and crime. By shining this spotlight on an issue so vital to all women today, Kappa Kappa Gamma seeks to bring to the attention of every member information necessary for taking steps to insure her own personal safety.

KEEP SAFE

To increase awareness of the need for and the means by which every member can take steps to insure her own personal safety, Kappa Kappa Gamma establishes KEEP SAFE. This program is designed to fully inform every woman, undergraduate and alumna alike, about the issues involved in personal safety. A special emphasis is placed on Date/Acquaintance Rape...what it is, how it happens, and what prevention and avoidance strategies are possible.

It Could Never Happen to Me

"JOGGER RAPED AND BEAT-EN IN CENTRAL PARK" headline

"CRIME ON CAMPUS . . . SCHOOLS FAIL SAFETY TEST" — The October 1988 USA Today series outlined the lax security, increased crime rates, and student indifference on 968 campuses.

THE ACCUSED — A graphic, horrifying movie portraying gang rape. Jodie Foster won an Academy Award in 1989 for her role as the victim.

AGAINST HER WILL...RAPE
ON CAMPUS — a television production narrated by Kelly McGillis depicted the dramatic increase of date rape on our college campuses.

Talk Shows — Phil Donahue, Oprah Winfrey, Larry King, and others continue to capitalize on the sensational with programs which spotlight campus violence.

You and I read these headlines; we watch media productions. If you react like I do, these topics invite concern, but do not threaten because we have not been personally affected.

However, consider these facts.

FACT: The next jogger attacked might be you or a member of your family.

FACT: Today a Kappa and her husband devote their lives to legislative change requiring every college and university to make public campus crime statistics and security procedures...because of the brutal rape and murder of their freshman daughter at a small private university.

FACT: From a group of eleven of the best and brightest of our young Kappa graduates interviewed last year, two had been date raped as freshmen in college.

FACT: A Fraternity officer was assaulted in the guest room of a

Kappa house while on a campus visit.

FACT: An active member suffered a broken nose when punched in the face by her date at a formal last spring.

What is going on, in our communities and on our campuses?

Kappas are not insulated from campus violence or from any of the violence which dominates the media. Today personal safety is everyone's business. It CAN happen to us and to those we love.

IT COULD HAPPEN TO ME!

KEEP SAFE... Wherever You Are

Simple preventive measures often can make the difference between safety and crime. Published this fall, a brochure, "KEEP SAFE... Wherever You Are," outlines common sense tips to insure personal ifety on campus, in the office, in ublic places, at home, driving a ir, and while cycling and running. Have you thought about your wn safety? ...

N CAMPUS...

Do you prop doors open, especialfire doors, in your dorm or chaper house for even a short period of me? If you do, you risk not only our own safety but also that of thers.

Do you confront or ignore a ranger? Don't! If you see a suspitous person in the corridor or lounge of your dorm or chapter house, call campus security or the local police immediately.

IN THE OFFICE...

If you must work hours when you may be isolated, do you arrange to work with another person in the same vicinity?

In your office do you arrange furniture so that you can easily see the door and anyone who enters?

AT HOME...

Have you established a buddy system with a neighbor? Do you let your neighbor know when you will be arriving late?

If you return to your residence and suspect that it has been illegally entered, do you enter? Don't. Call the police immediately.

Do you replace locks when you move into a new house or apartment? You don't know who has been given keys by a previous resident.

These are just a few of the useful ideas from "KEEP SAFE...Wherever You Are" which can help you be more aware and better prepared to insure your own safety. Awareness is an alternative to fear.

KEEP SAFE...A Program for New Members

Consider one Kappa's story, a rue personal experience.

"I was only eighteen. I didn't now any better. I pledged Kappa in the spring of my freshman year. We were a new group and I, along with my pledge sisters, was trying to figure out what a sorority was and what a sorority girl was.

"A fraternity asked us for an exhange the first week of pledgeship. he guys were cute in their jackets nd ties, carrying flowers into our neeting. We were all excited about he new social possibilities that go long with being Greek.

"The party started slowly...girls uddled together in groups, checking out the guys. Eventually the nusic and the beer loosened people up and the party got going. I was tanding with a group of freshmen we watched the seniors and tried o get the hang of this exchange cene.

"After a while Brett, the cute bledge class president, left the pool able and came over to our group. He talked to me and I felt imporant. We talked; I liked him. He ot me another beer.

"I was only eighteen. I should have known better, but with a few beers clouding my brain, I followed Brett upstairs. I followed him into a bedroom. I don't remember what he said but pretty soon Brett was sissing me and it made me uncombrable. I told him to stop and his arms got tighter. I told him "No!," and shoved him off.

"Brett looked me in the eye and told me if I didn't have sex with him he'd tell all the Kappas that I had anyway and they would kick me out of my chapter. He held me down and he raped me. I don't remember anything but being suffocated.

"I went home and cried. I told myself I was a slut. I told myself I was raised to know that 'good girls' don't do that sort of thing, 'good girls' don't let that happen.

"Part of me knows that Brett had no right to do this to me. But another part of my brain says I could have run. I could have screamed.

"I was only eighteen, but shouldn't I have known better?"

This year every Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge will participate in KEEP SAFE...a Program for New Members, which deals with social issues and date/acquaintance rape. Date/acquaintance rape is defined as rape by someone the victim knows or has been dating. This sensitive and challenging issue is one of the most under-discussed and unreported of campus crimes.

The goals of this program are to help our members, especially our newest members...

* minimize the potential risks that social situations present

* decide how they feel about the issue of date/acquaintance rape

* discover what resources and support are available to their chapter and campus.

Statistics show that the new woman student is often away from home for the first time and must deal with sudden freedom from previous limitations. She has access to many new social opportunities, and regardless of state laws, with alcohol and drugs readily available. Diminished judgment resulting from the excessive use of alcohol and other drugs adds a volatile dimension to the already vulnerable position of new women students.

Kappa addresses this tough, disturbing subject with the sure knowledge that accurate information and increased awareness will work proactively to prevent our members from becoming part of the statistics below:

- Rape is the most frequently committed violent crime in the United States.
- A majority of rape victims are women between the ages of 15-19.
- It is estimated that of three women, one will be raped sometime in her lifetime.
- Of eight college women, one will be raped during her college years.
- Between 50% and 70% of all rapes are committed by someone the victim knows.
- Ninety percent of the college women in a 1985 study did not report their rape to the police and more than 30% did not tell anyone.

Kappa wants each of its members to KEEP SAFE.

WHY GREEK?

by Gini Anding La Charité, ΓK—William & Mary, Fraternity Historian

Kappa Kappa Gamma is a Greeketter fraternity because the ounders patterned their group after ne men's fraternities on the Monnouth campus. The men's groups at he time had Greek letters for ames, so the first Kappas resolved o do the same: "We determined that othing short of a Greek letter fraernity would satisfy us." They also new that the Greek letters should tand for the motto. They wanted to ise the letters KKI for some reason ost to history, and so our name ame into being and our motto was mposed on those letters. It is a cuious fact of Fraternity history that he actual Greek letters were origiially more important than the notto: "You have doubtless noticed hat the letters on our pins are quite free translation from the motto, but we wanted those particular leters and were sublimely indifferent o the freeness of the translation." To establish a fraternity of women vith the specific letters KKΓ was he "something new" they created.

The men's groups were Greek-leter societies because of Phi Beta Kappa, the original model for the college fraternity system. When Phi Beta Kappa went public, it became common knowledge how to name a secret society and establish symbols. in the beginning, the criteria for nembership in Phi Beta Kappa was senior class standing, good fellowship, and literary study, but the reasons why the founders chose Greek etters and a Greek motto seem neither esoteric nor even very noble. It is generally accepted that they opted for Greek in order to honor one of their number who was the best Greek scholar in the college! It is also thought that they elected Greek partly in jest because at the time a gentleman who knew Greek was considered fully educated, while one who knew only Latin was thought to be "half-educated"! It has even been suggested that when they met to organize the group, they were inspired by being in the Apollo Room of the Raleigh Tavern. A far more lofty explanation is that they wished to counter the prevalent atmosphere of "social decay," emphasis on a college social life of "vice and dissipation" (gambling, drinking, and the "sowing of oats"). In this context, the use of Greek may have seemed to convey better than English or Latin a nobility of self-development within the fraternal bonds of fellowship and mutual helpfulness. The determination of one of its aims as the improvement of the social quality of life may well explain why one of the stars of Phi Beta Kappa stands for Morality.

The nineteenth century was a period of neo-Platonism in philosophy and literature, so it would have been natural for all fraternity founders to look to Greek thought when establishing their Greek-letter groups. Neo-Platonic thought holds knowledge as its goal, and the highest idea or ideal is Good, an esthetic principle. A life of reason is a life of order and beauty, with wisdom residing in the figure of the poetphilosopher, not the saint or soldier. True beauty is then intellectual, and love is the active pursuit of that truth, the search for a utopia of order, harmony, and mutual understanding. The study of literature in a nineteenth-century university was based on the conviction that only certain readings provide access to accumulated virtue and culture, the realms of high thought, and enable the individual to experience a synthetic whole. In their chapter literary activities, the Greek-letter fraternities literally created the "Greekness" of the evolving system, as each group added to its storehouse of secrets and symbols.

The ancient Greeks did not have fraternities, and the modern college fraternity system did not evolve from ancient Greek practices. It may well be that the system as begun by Phi Beta Kappa has its actual origins in the European Illuminati movement, or Freemasonry, or, as sometimes thought, Thomas Jefferson himself. The ancient Greeks did have secret societies, the thiasos or club, which grew out of workers' guilds; these groups met regularly, held banquets and games, adopted a patron deity to worship, and undertook certain group activities; the thiasos or guild of builders was the ancestor of the freemasons. Plato's Academy was a religious thiasos which was dedicated to the Muses: it was also considered quite radical in its time because women were admitted! However, the concept of a secret social fraternity as we know it was alien to ancient Greece.

Why Greek? KKI is Greek by custom and tradition. Our use of Greek letters is patterned on the men's fraternities, which grew out of Phi Beta Kappa. Despite this general borrowing, the nature of our particular Greek heritage in our symbols, secrets, and insignia remains very much the expression of purely Kappa beliefs, practices, and ideals.

Saying "Please" and "Thank You"

by Lois Catherman Heenehan, ΒΣ-Adelphi

Have you read Robert Fulghum's delightful piece, "All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten"? It reminds us that some wonderfully basic civilities were learned very early in life. For example, among the first things we were taught to say were... "Please" and "Thank you."

Right now, Kappa is putting both of these expressions to use in The Adelphe Campaign. We have all been asked to give, "please," and many donations have been made. Now it is time to recognize some donors with a most sincere "thank you."

The Adelphe Society is made up of those who have given exceptional donations to The Adelphe Campaign. A gift of $10,000 or more in cash or stocks qualifies a donor for inclusion in The Adelphe Society. A special show of appreciation is due to individual members and to alumnae groups for their contributions. Among those who are part of The Adelphe Society are the following:

Paulina Tomlin Beall, ΓX— George Washington, was known to all as Polly. Her service in virtually every advisory position with three chapters and as Lambda Province Director of Chapters, as well as her selection as a recipient of the Loyalty Award, barely touch on Polly's Fraternity involvement. Her love of Kappa's ritual and her unique ability to inspire and bring greater understanding of ritual to chapter members was exceptional. A Speakers Series for Lifeskills has been established in her memory to bring to Convention and other Fraternity gatherings, outstanding inspirational speakers to enhance the development of positive ethical leadership within our membership. This endowed series will be funded by Polly's gift to The Adelphe Campaign and enhanced by gifts from her many friends.

Miriam Austin Locke,

ΓΠ—Alabama, has given a major gift to The Adelphe Campaign. "Doc," as many know her, has served her chapter in many advisory board positions and as House Board President. The Fraternity has been fortunate to have her serve as Mu Province President, Chairman of Scholarships and of Graduate Fellowships, and as National Panhellenic Conference Alternate and Delegate. A 50-year Kappa and a Loyalty Award recipient, "Doc" requested that her gift be designated in honor of Joyce Thomas Fuller, ΔY —Georgia, and in memory of Edith Reese Crabtree, B Γ —Wooster, Fraternity President 1952-1956, and Clara O. Pierce, BN—Ohio State, Executive Secretary 1929-1969.

Lucille Caswell Davids, FM—Oregon State, has given a donation to The Adelphe Campaign to establish the Lucille Caswell Davids Scholarship to be awarded each year to a qualified member of Gamma Xi—UCLA. Long associated with Gamma Xi, Lucille also helped found the Santa Monica Alumnae Association, served as president of the local chapter of the American Association of University Womer and was very active in PTA, Unite Way and Girl Scouts of America.

Mildred "Diane" Ross Fen nekohl, Y—Northwestern, was "gracious and lovely lady whose life style was the epitome of Kappa' highest ideals." A staunch support er of causes promoting higher edu cation and perpetuation of time-hon ored standards, Diane served a President of the Houston Alumnae Association and was a Citation Member of the Houston Panhellenic As sociation in recognition o her outstanding leadership and service to the Greek community. Her donation established the Mildred Ross Fennekohl Endowment Func for Education to provide assistance in the form of scholarships for generations of Kappas. Her devotion to family and to Kappa is evidenced in her daughter. Rosslyn Fennekohl Crawford, BE-Texas, and granddaughter, Alicia Crawford $\Gamma \Phi$ —SMU.

Alumnae in Dallas, Texas, have donated substantial funds to create the Dallas Alumnae Association Endowed Scholarship in memory of Janet Jones Burford, BE—Texas. The scholarship will be given annually to a Kappa underclassman who resides in or attends school in Theta Province and who has demonstrated superior scholastic ability. Dallas alumnae historically have given 50% of their philanthropic funds to the Fraternity, with The Adelphe Campaign the logical recipient of the proceeds of their successful Holiday Home Tours.

Janet Burford, in whose memory the scholarship was given by Dallas alumnae, was a very active volunteer in the community. Her commitments ranged from PTA to the Children's Medical Auxiliary and the Dallas Symphony. Janet was devoted to Kappa and among her many contributions, served as Theta PDC. With two Kappa daughters, one curently attending the University of Texas, it is only natural that she ecognized Kappa as her favorite volunteer experience.

The Houston Alumnae Association and The Charitable Foundaion of Houston have given generously of the proceeds of their 1986 and 1988 Christmas Pilgrimage home tours to The Adelphe Campaign. Their donation is designated for Kappa scholarships for Texas residents attending colleges and universities in the state. The tours, which involve up to 500 Kappa workers, are held in even years. They receive underwriting from the community and since their inception have generated more than $100,000 for Kappa philanthropies. A portion of Houston's donation goes to the CHOICES program and to the Heritage Museum in honor of Martha Hodson Erwin, BE-Texas. A past President of the Houston Alumnae Association, Martha is noted for her knowledge of antiques.

To all Kappas who are supporting The Adelphe Campaign, but particularly to these members of The Adelphe Society who have given so generously, the Fraternity extends a heartfelt ...

THANK YOU!

The Sweet Fragrance of Success . . . Robin Burns, BT

Rarely does a person achieve so much, so quickly in the fast-paced, competitive perfume industry in New York City. But in the case of Robin Burns, BT—Syracuse, competence and achievement are the cornerstones of her success.

Robin Burns, President of Calvin Klein Cosmetics Corporation, is the force behind the wonderfully controversial "Obsession" and the latest "Eternity" perfumes. Robin was hired four years ago to help turn around the fledgling perfume division which was losing millions a year. With Robin at the helm, the company quickly produced one hit after another and was soon posting sales of over 150 million dollars a year.

How inspirational that all this energy comes from a former chapter President who hails from Cripple Creek, Colorado. And her success came the proverbial old-fashioned way...she earned it.

As an only child, Robin always felt a strong pressure to achieve — from her mother and herself. In Cripple Creek, life was quite relaxed but she made the most of what her town and schools had to offer. An honor student, cheerleader, and competitive ice skater, she was recruited by Syracuse University. She loved it and enrolled.

It is her college days with Kappa that made those years so special. Robin was very interested in joining a sorority. She said, "I had a real need to find some people that I related to and could share those years with." In Kappa, she found what she was looking for - sisterhood. Through her chapter activities Robin developed her theory of teamwork which she still follows today: "You need a balance of strength. Being president of a sorority or a company has similarities. Your success depends on the quality of people working with you. The one thing I learned from Kappa is that harmony can be achieved if everyone is working happily together."

Through a combination of scholarships and jobs, Robin graduated from Syracuse with a degree in business and education. She interviewed with a number of companies and was most impressed by Bloomingdale's, the landmark New York department store. She moved to the big city and shared a one-bedroom apartment, sans furniture, with four friends.

Bloomingdale's turned out to be her launching pad, both professionally and personally. Robin says, "It was survival of the fittest and you'd better be resourceful. It is more competitive internally than externally." After working in various departments of the store, she was transferred to the men's fragrance section. The climb to the top was not overnight — it took five years. From this position she eventually became the cosmetics merchandise manager for all the stores. That's when she caught the attention of Minnetonka Chairman Robert Taylor, who had purchased Calvin Klein Cosmetics.

The rest is the stuff of which dreams are made. Mr. Taylor hired the 30 year-old Robin, who had no manufacturing experience, to turn the company around. Robin's strength is her people skills and that's what Mr. Taylor was looking for. Where did Robin acquire these great people skills? Many were gained through Kappa Kappa Gamma, the meaning of sisterhood.

Her ability to lead and motivate others explains the star quality that led Robin to the top of her profession. Robin is credited with creating "Obsession" and "Eternity." "Obsession" was created in the mid-1980's and reflected the mood of the time. As Robin explained, the fragrance symbolizes the obsession people had with their careers, appearance, and physical fitness. "Eternity" is slightly more romantic. As Women's Wear Daily puts it, "Eternity" is about "wedding rings, parents and children, snuggling on the beach, long walks together and family life." But Robin is always one step ahead of the game. "I'm always thinking about what I'll do next. As successful as we've become, there are so many other things that we can do."

It is this forward thinking that propelled Robin to where she is today. From her office high in the glamorous Trump Tower in Manhattan, Robin runs a beauty empire, never losing sight of the importance of her staff. Her positive attitude and reputation for fairness make her a respected executive. Robin's career demands make balance an important goal. "What Kappa Kappa Gamma ultimately provided for me was the opportunity to forge life-long friendships with some wonderful women. These enduring friendships offer a balance in my life that becomes more important with each new challenge in my professional career."

Ski trips, working out at home, and get-away weekends at her Long Island beach house provide respite from busy work weeks.

Personal and career success...who says you can't have it all? Robin has inked a "rock solid" five-year contract to head the Calvin Klein Cosmetics. Robin will guide it through a long-term plan to build both U.S. and global business.

As The World Turns . . . With Helen Wagner Willey, A

Nancy Hughes of the long-running daytime TV program, As The World Turns, is a familiar face to many of you, but did you know that she is Helen Wagner Willey, A⁴—Monmouth, a Kappa sister?

Since the spring of 1956, Helen has been playing the much loved and revered grand matriarch of Oakdale's Hughes family, giving her the distinction of continuing in a role longer than any other current actor.

A Texas native, Helen and her sister Ruth attended Monmouth College as had their parents. Ruth was a member of the local when it became Alpha Deuteron and Helen was a member of the first pledge class. As one of six legacies in the twelve member pledge class, Helen remembers the thrill of having her older sister pin on her very own Kappa key during initiation. Enormously positive collegiate experiences profoundly affected Helen's personal and professional life, and Kappa was an integral part of these experiences.

While at Monmouth Helen majored in both speech and music, and it was here she had "that breathtaking experience" of finding teachers who made her see the "high adventure that learning can be." In the summer of her junior year her piano teacher took her to New York to attend a master class, thereby opening the gates of the Great White Way to this future performer. After graduation, a short flirtation with becoming an opera singer was followed by three years of studying piano with Abram Chasins, renowned pianist, composer, author, lecturer.

During her first professional outing, Helen's talents were recognized by the great Oscar Hammerstein which led to her first Broadway show — the musical, Sunny River. While in New York to audition for the show, she landed a "plum" job as a church-soloist. This turned out to be quite fortunate as the musical opened to mixed reviews at the St. James Theatre four days before Pearl Harbor and closed a month later. Helen was a church-soloist for five years to keep a roof over the fledgling actress' head while she auditioned for parts.

For years, Helen alternated between musicals and dramas on Broadway, off-Broadway, and in summer theater and touring companies, playing leading roles in productions which included A Doll's House, Merchant of Venice, A Streetcar Named Desire, The Bad Seed, Lion in Winter.

After the war, television was in its infancy providing great opportunities for Helen which eventually led to the pilot of As The World Turns...and the rest is television history! Helen's success is certainly an inspiration to aspiring actors, but she strongly advises pursuing a show business career for the love of theatre rather than with dreams of fame and fortune considering today's intense competition for every role!

Helen and her husband, actor and producer Robert Willey, live in Mt. Kisco about an hour from New York City. Those 7 a.m. studio calls come early and often, but even with her rigorous schedule Helen is very active in her church, volunteers at the Metropolitan Museum, and found time last March to speak to the new Long Island Kappa Alumnae group.

In 1963, Monmouth College presented Helen with their Distinguished Alumna Award. In 1988, she was named national chairman of The Wells Theatre Campaign to raise money for a new Monmouth campus theatre. Surely the capstone of her enduring relationship with Monmouth came in 1988 when the College bestowed on her an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters. She was the commencement speaker and "enthralled" the audience by sharing her experiences and philosophy for living.

"Your self is of priceless worth...And there are too many facets to the gem that is you for you foolishly to settle for just one. You turn one facet to the light in one situation, another facet in another, display different facets with different people, but it's still the same gem - you...

"You can make of your manyfaceted gem of a self anything you want, but you personally have to do it. The search for self is really polishing a different facet with each new adventure. And knowledge is power...

"God is, and men are brothers, and with that knowledge you have all the power you can ever use."

Nature Whispers . . . to Carrye E. Pugh Schenk, BN

"Whisper Pictures," "Secret 'laces," "The Ultimate Ornament" – names that evoke images, feelngs, moods and special times are imong the titles of creations by irtist Carrye E. (Betsy) Pugh Schenk, BN—Ohio State. Much of her work reflects her love of nature.

Having demonstrated her artistic tbilities on posters, programs and overs for a variety of sports and activities in her high school, Betsy vent on to study art at Ohio State where the faculty felt she showed some of the finest raw talent" they had ever seen. Her BFA degree led to several years of work as an interior designer in Columbus.

In 1965 Betsy and husband Bill noved to rural Vermont, where the oine woods surrounding her studio provided wonderful wild flowers and creatures to inspire her. At first, livng in a converted barn, Betsy forced nerself to sketch - fence posts, oirches — whatever was in view. "A charcoal sketch of an imaginary owl really started everything," says Betsy today. An early sketch of the imaginary owl in flight illustrates 'Kappa Is Always There for You" in the Summer 1989 issue of The Key. Her charcoal sketches include a great variety of birds and wild creatures — even skunks! — and some more familiar household animals in the person of appealing Siamese cats. The sketches are printed in black and white; each is individually hand-tinted with watercolors to produce one-of-a-kind wildlife replicas.

Carrye Originals, of Richmond, VT, was established as an outlet for her nature studies and wildlife art, a natural outgrowth of Betsy's enjoyment and appreciation of the wild beauty around her. But Betsy she remains to family and friends.

"Whisper Pictures" is Betsy's name for her original watercolors on a black board background. She feels they are "an illumination of fleeting radiance, which, experienced however briefly, continue to hover in the quiet corners of memory."

"Secret Places," a new line of oil landscapes, is a series of tranquil oil paintings designed "to recall or create a memory of your own special somewhere — a place to gentle the heart and revitalize the spirit."

The pine woods of Vermont's Green Mountains surround, but do not contain, Betsy. She has illustrated several nature books published by W.W. Norton and Simon and Shuster, had numerous oneperson shows and been active in various Vermont craft and art organizations. She has been juried into many national and international competitions, including the Cincinnati Zoo's Wondrous Wildlife show, Vermont Institute's annual Wildlife Art shows at the Natural Science Center in Woodstock, and the Salmagundi Art Club's non-members show in New York City.

Artistic involvement is a part of family life in the Schenk household. Bill is chairman of the theatre department at the University of Vermont, where he teaches scenery and lighting design, and where daughter, Morgan, is a student and a member of Zeta Delta-Vermont. When Morgan was a baby, Betsy created "The Ultimate Ornament," a holiday decoration made with the finest Austrian rhinestones and crystals (see cover). They are "Victorian confections" - more than 500 made and no two alike. Quite a few have been done in blue and blue for Zeta Delta, and a painting called the Kappa Owl hangs in the Beta Nu house at Ohio State, reaffirming Betsy's appreciation for her early years as a woman and as an artist.

Betsy says her "Ultimate Ornaments satisfy my need for emeralds and diamonds." For others, her sensitive and delicate watercolor and oil renditions of nature's magic satisfy the need for tranquil beauty and peaceful reflection.

Tours of Kappa Holiday Homes = A Winning Formula

by Robin Whitfield Brown, ΔΨ-Texas Tech

Holiday Homes Tours have provided the answers for three alumnae associations in their search for a perfect philanthropic project. The tours combine fund raising for local charities and Fraternity scholarships and philanthropies with an opportunity for Kappa fellowship.

OT KANSAS CITY

Incredibly, the Kansas City Alumnae Association is gearing up for its 38th annual tour! Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been returned to their community and given to Kappa by the energetic efforts of three to four hundred alumnae who work on the tour each year.

In the summer and fall, themes and decorations are selected to complement the architecture and reflect the interests of the owners of the five homes to be toured. Kappa volunteers decorate for Christmas or Hanukkah with items that are generally handmade. Every home contains decorations that any homeowner could duplicate; decorating ideas and instructions are contained in the brochure given to every tour-goer. The homes are open one evening for a Candlelight Tour and the following day from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

In addition to the decorated homes, each year a Gourmet and Holiday Shop stocked with goodies provides fanciful shopping opportunities. A new addition in 1988, "The Petite Boutique," contained lovely donated items which were sold for pure profit. In 1987, after supporting one local philanthropy for thirty-six years, KC alumnae decided to diversify and award tour proceeds to several recipients in the area of rehabilitation, with the balance going to Kappa philanthropic funds. The measure of the hard work and dedication of Kansas City Kappas is an enviable tradition of gifts to the community and our Fraternity through the generous financial support generated by their magnificent holiday tours.

HOUSTON

S leek sophistication has become the hallmark of the Houston Christmas Pilgrimage, which has evolved over the years from homemade Christmas decorations to European trinkets. Held biennially, the first Houston Pilgrimage was in 1931 and raised $400. Over the years selected rehabilitation projects in Houston have been greatly enriched by the increasingly spectacular success of this Kappa philanthropic effort.

In 1988 the two and one-half day Pilgrimage featured four distinctive homes in traditional, Mediterranean, French, and Georgian styles. Leading Houston florists decorated the homes in the theme of "Christmas Collections," by displaying collections of Santas, Nativity scenes, Christmas trees, and even hundreds of Raggedy Ann dolls.

The funds for the four chosen charities were earned through ticket sales, underwriting by various individuals and corporations, program advertisements, and the sale of Christmas items in the Marketplace. Fund raising has become more refined by seeking underwriters for larger amounts of money and expanding program advertising. For example, in 1988 four local realtors underwrote the decorations for each of the homes on tour.

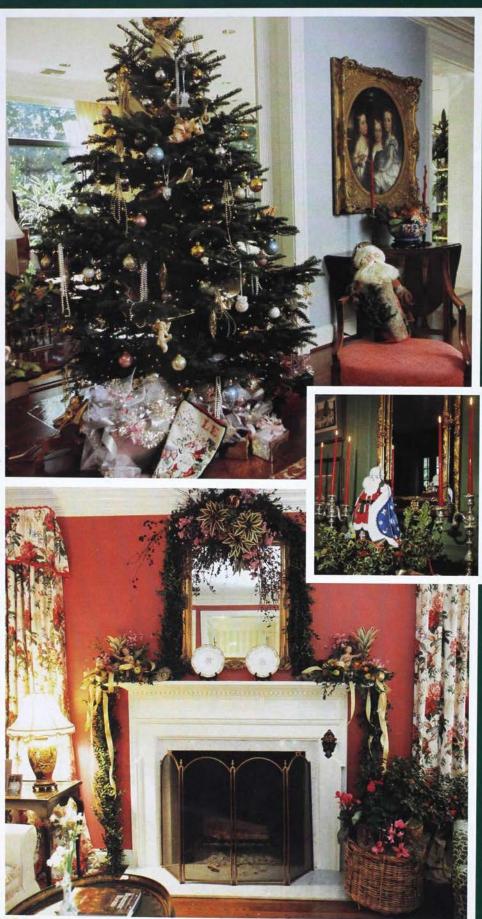

The Marketplace, held in the atrium of Houston's Decorative Center, featured six mini shops, each with a different theme. The Kappa Kitchen, for instance, displayed numerous culinary gift items. Shoppers were able to purchase everything from fully decorated Christmas trees, to unique needlepoint items, to boxed lunches. Staffing the store were alumnae wearing festive red and green plaid taffeta aprons, adding a special touch to the already beautiful and elegant atmosphere.

The night prior to the tour a gala was held at the Marketplace for Kappas and their friends, providing an opportunity to see the homes, do some early shopping, have dinner and dance the night away.

lternating years with Houston's Pilgrimage, the Dallas Alumnae Association will present its twelfth biennial Christmas Tour the first Wednesday and Thursday of December 1989. The theme, "A Family Portrait," will be carried throughout the beautifully executed brochure, the decor of the four Kappa's homes to be toured. and the selection of local beneficiaries for the funds raised.

Many decorations in each of the homes are created in workshops held in the spring, summer, and fall preceding the tour by the four Dallas Alumnae groups. The Senior Day Group decorates three of the homes and the Junior Day group the fourth, which always centers around children and the young family. Upon entering each home, beautiful music greets the tour-goer with talented Kappas providing the harp, piano, or choral offerings. Cookies might be baking in the oven or spiced tea simmering on the stove. providing tantalizing aromas to enhance the atmosphere.

A Christmas store, where lunch is available, is open in a nearby church and is crammed with holiday delights...wreaths, needlepoint pillows and stockings, baked goods, and much more.

The Preview Party is held on Tuesday evening before the tour so that Kappas and their husbands may view the homes and enjoy an evening of fun as a combination celebration and thanks for the year of loving labor.

Dallas gives half the proceeds of the tour to local charities in the area of rehabilitation, with the other half going to Kappa scholarships, including the Janet Jones Burford Endowed Scholarship presented to The Adelphe Campaign in 1988.

The goals of the Dallas Christmas Homes Tour are two-fold: first, to raise money for philanthropies and scholarships; second, and perhaps more important, to join with other Kappas in a worthwhile project that is fun while also providing the opportunity to strengthen Kappa bonds of sisterhood and friendship.

R appas have always exhibited spirit and enthusiasm, but what is that "special something" that directs a woman toward the Fine or Performing Arts? Those of us who chose this path were drawn to it at different stages in our lives and through many different channels. Some begin careers in the arts at middle age, while others practiced their "crafts" during their active Kappa days, performing in rush skits, painting scenery or murals, leading songfests, writing the chapter newsletter.

According to Harper's, "The arts are civilization's storehouse of felt values, the rendering of what has seemed important to those of powerful imagination and profound feeling and great mastery of expression."

Ours is by no means an exhaustive look at Kappa artists. Rather, this is just the start of a continuing regular celebration of Kappas and their art. From live theater to oil or watercolor painting, from a conductor's podium to choreography, the stories that follow are bound to inspire the artist in all of us.

ers and plants of her home in Lake Wales, FL. Her paintings are spontaneous, free, and exciting in execution, with dramatic positive and negative shapes. Her works hang in private and permanent corporate collections throughout the USA, Canada, and in Europe.

Judith Gill Brien, Y—Northwestern, BM—Colorado, studied art as an undergraduate. She later shared her talents as a teacher while raising her children. Active in Junior League, Judith began to exhibit her ceramic works and custom "backsplashes" for kitchen and bathroom which can be found in homes from Texas to California to Kansas. Her works have continued to gain popularity through commission and word-of-mouth referrals; regular clients add her annual Christmas plates to their collections.

One "Bisqueware" collection features "Country French or primitive Pennsylvania Dutch. Most of the pieces portray the artist's love of nature and the farm. Each piece is individually handmade and painted by Judith without the use of transfer or decal." This collection appeals to the currently very popular country or folk art design.

Angelyn Sanders Chandler, II—Alabama, exhibited a collection of paintings, entitled "Magical

The painting, "Riding on a Beam of Light," used as the coverpiece for the show announcement, is vividly colored and dramatic. Angelyn, who works on both canvas and paper, resides in Atlanta and was one of two Graduate Counselors and organizers of EE—Emory in 1959.

Joan Hierholzer, BE—Texas, creates oil paintings of the 21st century. In an exhibit of "Technology Energy" at the Phoenix Gallery, New York City, Joan displayed paintings inspired by the TFTR project of the James Forrestal Center in Princeton, New Jersey—the Mary Shaw Horn, $\Delta\Xi$ — Carnegie-Mellon, is a founding member of her chapter. Mary, a well-known Pittsburgh art teacher and artist, has participated in the University of Pittsburgh's "Generations Together Artist Resource Program." In a visit to an art class at Schiller Classical Academy, she was quoted by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette as saying, "when you paint, splash a lot but learn to put your ideas down. The fact is, you have to put one foot in front of you in life. Keep in mind how very special you are.'

As a part of the University's Center for Social and Human Research project, Mary's works were displayed in a group show entitled "Arts Across the Generations" which was held at the William Pitt Union Gallery.

Susan Seligman Kennedy, I'B—New Mexico, has been painting since childhood and has built a career on her talents of calligraphy, graphic design and painting.

Recently Susan was honored as the inaugural exhibitor in a show entitled "Reflections of New Mexico" at the opening reception for the new University of New Mexico Centennial Gallery. She is a watercolor "realist" and paints landscapes, florals, still lifes, and animal portraits.

Co-owner of a calligraphy business called the Lettering Shop with Kappa sister, Laura Lee Moore, GZ—Arizona, Susan contributes her calligraphy and design skills on behalf of the Albuquerque Alumnae Association. Most recently she supplied the art work for a special UNM centennial cookbook project, called Key Cuisine, A Centennial Collection. The mother of three, Susan is a very active supporter of the University and has held numerous positions in the Albuquerque Alumnae Association.

Geraldine Rasmussen, ΔK—Miami, whose works have been reviewed in The Key (Spring 1972 and Fall 1982), continues to pursue her career in oil painting. Her recent art shows include an exhibit held at the Ft. Lauderdale City Hall. One of the paintings shown was a portrait of Dr. Walter Russell, the "modern Leonardo," which has been do nated to the University of Science and Philosophy at Waynesboro, VA.

Norma Thomas, M—Butler, has pursued her art career through college, private lessons, scholarships and workshops. Her drafting experience assisted in developing her perspective and attention to overall design and detail.

Although Norma has worked with oils most of her career, she now works primarily in watercolors using a light, realistic style for still lifes, landscapes, children, clowns, and animals. She is multi-talented and sometimes combines poetry and calligraphy with the original designs of her watercolors. Shows, juried exhibits, and commissions keep Norma busy, as does her membership in the Houston Alumnae Association.

Her specialty has been to match furniture with existing or planned decor. She has also designed and built some of her own furniture which she has recently begun to show. Her work has been greeted by a very favorable response.

In addition to designs created for the Tulsa Philharmonic Society's Designer Showcase house, she also has a "deal in the works" with Neiman Marcus to market copywritten originals such as her "Goose Table." Cheryl is a very active member of the Tulsa Alumnae Association, recently serving as Corresponding Secretary.

Dance

Lisa Jo Sagollo, FK—William and Mary, is a choreographer, dance educator, and scholar. She presented a paper on the Broadway choreography of Agnes de Mille in June to the American Dance Guild conference at the University of the Arts, Philadelphia. Her article on the influence of modern dance on Broadway choreography will appear next year in volume two of Dance: Current Selected Research.

Lisa Jo has choreographed more than 60 productions for off-Broadway, regional, summer stock, and dinner theaters. She is currently an arts in education doctoral candidate at Teachers College, Columbia University and teaches dance at Columbia, the Manhattan School of Music, and the Michael Chekhov Acting Studio in New York.

Music

Margaret Hillis, Δ—Indiana, 1978 Alumnae Achievement Award Winner, continues her successful career as the director of the Chicago Symphony Chorus which she founded in 1957. Margaret also holds the positions of founder and music director of the American Choral Foundation and is a member of the resident conducting staff of the Civic Orchestra of Chicago.

Michelle Latour, ΔΩ—Calif. State, Fresno, a 1989 vocal music graduate, has entered Boston University to pursue an M.A. in vocal performance. A soprano, Michelle participated in the Metropolitan Opera's spring 1989 auditions, has travelled with the CSUF Concert Choir on its tour through Europe and the Soviet Union, and attended an Austrian three-week summer program of study in in 1988.

Ruth Branning Molloy, BA— Pennsylvania, received the honor of having her photograph, "Bright Offering" win an award and serve as the cover for the American Association of Retired Person's Modern Maturity magazine, October 1987. The AARP competition theme was, "To serve, not to be served," which is the organization's motto.

Stage and Screen

Lisabeth (Mary) Bartlett, Y-Northwestern, who played the role of Papagena in the hit movie Amadeus, most recently appeared in the Broadway production, Execution of Justice. In Suspect, starring Cher and Dennis Quaid, Lisabeth played opposite Phillip Bosco as his "Washington kept woman." Her first love is the stage and she continues to act in regional theaters such as the Gutherie in Minneapolis and the Pittsburgh Public. Everywhere she works she tries to establish a workshop with a local college or university to provide support and assistance to young theater students. Lisabeth and husband Roy Backes. production stage manager of the Roundabout Theater in New York City, have developed a workshop on the many technical and performance dimensions of live theater which they make available to interested institutions.

Bonnie Black, ΓΗ—Washington State

Bonnie Black, TH—Washington State, began her career as a performer in the arts at 41. Prior to her debut, she taught a unique high school elective class in Millbrae, CA, which included elements of drama, speech, and film. During her short career, Bonnie has made national and regional commercials. had a part in the pilot television show, Las Vegas Weekly, and has done extensive "print work." She is striving to make film work a major part of her professional life, but is also interested in representing a product or service connected to the world of women's health.

HIRE A KAPPA!

The HIRE-A-KAPPA Guide to 1990 Graduates is now available from every Kappa alumnae group, chapter Advisory Board, and Fraternity Headquarters. The 1990 Guide lists graduates by chapter, college, major, desired career and location. If you are not in a position to hire, perhaps your husband, friends, or employer would be interested.

We have the opportunity to show our graduates that Kappa does not end with college. Kappa offers sisterhood throughout a lifetime. REMEMBER...if you are about to hire, why not HIRE A KAPPA!

HERITAGE MUSEUM POST CONVENTION TOUR JULY 1 & 2, 1990

ATTENTION: ANTIQUE LOVERS AND MUSEUM GOERS

The Heritage Museum of Kappa Kappa Gamma is planning a two day tour of museums and private collections in Dallas and Fort Worth immediately following the close of the 1990 General Convention.

Plans include a day in Fort Worth with tours of the famous Amon Carter Museum of Western Art and the Kimbell Museum. Both museums were founded by prominent Forth Worth citizens and, in addition to their outstanding collections, are works of art in themselves.

Included on the tour will be private homes in both Dallas and Fort Worth and Las Colinas, the unique urban center with its Venetian style canals, 21st century elevated transportation system, and the majestic "Mustangs of Las Colinas," a larger than life equestrian sculpture. Dinner both evenings will be in private clubs.

Cost of the tour is $275 plus a $50 tax deductible donation to the Heritage Museum. This includes hotel*, transportation, entrances, lunches, and dinners.

The trip is limited to 40 people. To reserve your place, send a $25 deposit (refundable if the tour has reached capacity), made payable to HERITAGE MUSE-UM TOUR, 3825 Chevy Chase Drive, Houston, Texas 77019.

*based on double occupancy

($12.95 Plus $1.50 Postage)
