Seeking Recommendations for Fraternity Leadership Positions for 2010-2012 Biennium

This is every member's opportunity to participate in the Fraternity's nominating process. Influence Kappa's Tradition of Leadership™ by recommending the most qualified candidates for the Fraternity Council and Regional Director positions. Complete the following form and mail it to MARILYN NICHOLS BULLOCK, Kansas State, Nominating Chairman, 4833 Rockridge Court, Manhattan, KS 66503, postmarked by February 15, 2010.

Who is elected at the General Convention?

The eight members of the Fraternity Council, the seven Regional Directors of Alumnae and the seven Regional Directors of Chapters will be elected by the delegates to the General Convention in Phoenix, Ariz., June 23-27, 2010.

Who may recommend a candidate?

Any Kappa may recommend a candidate. Suggestions also are solicited from chapters and alumnae associations. Interested individuals are encouraged to submit their names to the Nominating Committee.

What are the required qualifications for a candidate?

Any alumna in good standing who has served the Fraternity within the past 10 years as a member of the Fraternity, Regional or Associate Council, chairman of a Fraternity Standing or Special Committee, Fraternity Council Assistant, Leadership Consultant or member of the Foundation Board of Trustees.

What qualities are important?

The candidate must have proven leadership ability and strong managerial, communication and analytical skills. She should be mature, a good team player, self-motivated and able to relate well to others. She should be a role model—someone who will represent the Fraternity well.

What is the term of office?

Fraternity Council members and Regional Directors are elected by a majority vote to a two-year term at each General Convention. No one may hold the same position for more than two terms.

Responsibilities of the Fraternity Council Members

The members of the Fraternity Council are responsible for the management and administration of the Fraternity. They set policy, determine the direction of the Fraternity, deal with Greek-related issues, have jurisdiction over all cases of loss of membership and reinstatement, appoint alumnae to serve on committees, supervise the work assigned to those committees, interpret the Fraternity Bylaws and Standing Rules, work closely with the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, and report to the General Convention all action taken by the Council.

Fraternity Council Positions

President: Presides over all meetings of the Fraternity and the Council, supervises Fraternity operations and administration, oversees relations with colleges and universities, presides at the Installation of new chapters, is an ex officio member of all committees except Nominating, and appoints individuals to vacancies with the approval of the Council.

Vice President: Presides in the absence of the President, assists the President in all ways, oversees all publications and implementation of Fraternity public relations projects.

Treasurer: Reviews the Fraternity's financial operation, develops a fiscal plan for the future, oversees all areas of Fraternity finance, directs the work of the Finance Committee, prepares the budget, serves as Treasurer of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, and reports to the Council and the General Convention.

Director of Alumnae: Supervises the organization and administration of alumnae associations, participates in the alumnae association extension program, and directs the work of Fraternity volunteers involved with the development and management of alumnae associations.

Director of Chapters: Supervises the organization and administration of all collegiate chapters, is responsible for the annual review of chapter management and needs, and directs the work of the Fraternity volunteers involved with the development and management of chapters.

Director of Membership: Directs the program and selection of new members, is responsible for membership policies and procedures, and assists in the annual review of chapter needs.

Director of Programs and Education: Supervises the development and implementation of educational programs for collegiate and alumna members and oversees the Fraternity philanthropy program. Performs such duties as the Fraternity President and Fraternity Council shall assign.

Director of Standards: Is responsible for Fraternity standards as outlined in the Fraternity Standing Rules, as well as policies and procedures, works with the chapter Standards Committees, and participates in the annual review of chapter needs.

Responsibilities of Regional Directors

Regional Directors of Alumnae and Regional Directors of Chapters oversee the work of the Province Directors of Alumnae and Province Directors of Chapters.

Regional Directors confer with the Fraternity Council regarding the effective operation of the regions and the business of the Fraternity. They make recommendations to the Fraternity Council and Associate Council for the functioning of the alumnae associations and chapters within their regions. They are responsible for program development, implementation of policies and procedures and training.

Regional Director Positions

Regional Director of Alumnae (seven positions to be slated)

Regional Director of Chapters (seven positions to be slated)

A Summer to Remember

Fraternity Headquarters Intern Shares Her Experience

—By LAURA VINCI, Creighton/Kansas

After my sophomore year of high school is when summer lost its glimmering appeal—it became less about daytrips with the family and more about hourly wages and résumé-boosters. This past year, like many collegians, I turned to the dreaded summer internship to jazz up the parchment paper that reflects my qualifications and experience. But my summer was anything but dreadful! Working as the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity Headquarters intern was probably the best job I have had so far. The work was interesting, the staff is outgoing, and Columbus, Ohio, is an artsy city with much to see and do.

While the Heritage Museum of Kappa Kappa Gamma has had an internship program for more than 20 years, the Headquarters internship is fairly new. The Museum internship is a highly-structured conservation of Kappa's history and historical artifacts. APRIL BAUM, Hillsdale, my roommate during our internship summer and now good friend, was the fortunate Kappa selected as the 2009 Heritage Museum intern.

The Headquarters internship was established more than three years ago by LAUREN SULLIVAN PAITSON, Penn State, former Kappa Kappa Gamma Executive Director, who was also my dedicated and enthusiastic boss. This summer internship lasts between eight and 12 weeks. Both interns work and live at Fraternity Headquarters. The Fraternity provides a furnished two-bedroom apartment (rent free) right on the Headquarters property.

I enjoyed working in various capacities in all of the departments, which allowed me to see a little bit of everything. My work included preparation for Leadership Academy and Associate Council Seminar, as well as assisting with various publications and general office duties.

During my time at Headquarters, I really got to know the amazing women (and men!) who work so hard to keep Kappa running. KRISTIN JOHNSON STYERS, Georgia Southern, Editor of The Key, was so willing to teach me about journalism and magazine layout. (I'm a journalism major after all!) I learned so much about the "real world" without having to live in it just yet.

It's almost surreal for me because some of the very names that appear in this magazine and in Kappa history have become some of my favorite people. This internship has made me realize the potential that Kappa has for me and my future. I can now fully appreciate my membership in this organization because it is an organization truly devoted to leadership, scholarship and friendship for all of its members.

How to Apply

Work at Fraternity Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, for the summer of 2010!

- Twelve weeks of work experience
- A stipend for the twelve weeks
- Up to $500 if college course credit will be sought
- Housing provided at Fraternity Headquarters

Applications are online at www.kappa.org or call Fraternity Headquarters at 866-554-1870. Kappas of all ages and all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Applications must be postmarked by March 15, 2010.

Thanks and Farewell to Our NPC Delegate!

—By STACY UNDERWOOD BJARNASON, Washington

We, as Fraternity Women, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live. —The Panhellenic Creed.

JULIANA (J.J.) FRASER WALES, Ohio State, has embodied the Panhellenic Creed throughout her service to Kappa Kappa Gamma, but she also has demonstrated these qualities as a member of Kappa's National Panhellenic Conference delegation.

As she retires from 17 years of leadership within NPC, J.J. shares that some of her favorite responsibilities were serving on the NPC Resolutions Committee and as Extension Chairman and Educational Development Chairman.

"I am probably most proud of chairing the Educational Development Committee when Merck brought the 'Tell Someone' campaign to NPC," says J.J. "We agreed to partner with Merck in educating the Panhellenic world about the connection between HPV and cervical cancer. NPC has the unique position of being able to reach thousands of women with public service messages like this one, and I believe in NPC's role in this effort."

Serving as Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity President from 1992-96, J.J. continued her involvement in NPC when she was appointed as Kappa's First Alternate Panhellenic Delegate (1996-2003) before moving to the Delegate position (2004-2009).

During these years, J.J. has earned respect among her Panhellenic sisters and has been a mentor and role model to many of the NPC delegates. J.J. has always encouraged members to uphold the NPC Unanimous Agreements and to be role models on their campuses. In a special tribute to J.J., several NPC members had these words to say:

- ▶ J.J. was always there to help a new chapter on campus to ensure the campus Panhellenic was providing a supportive environment.
- ▶ The commitment and enthusiasm she has shown for Greek life on every campus she has advised has been a motivator for our young Panhellenic leaders. J.J. has always emphasized collaboration and teamwork to strengthen and enhance a Panhellenic system.
- ▶ J.J.'s magic touch ... candor, intelligence, wise contributions and fun outlook on life have made a difference in each office she has held, each chair- manship in which she served and on every committee she graced.

"NPC is all about relationships," says J.J. "When there is warmth, respect, real understanding, a belief in being fair, and genuine interest and care for others, friendships form which last beyond the badges we wear."

Kappa Kappa Gamma is grateful to J.J. for representing our organization with grace and integrity not only through NPC but also during her many years of Kappa service from being a chapter adviser, Province Director, Council member and more. Her enthusiasm, thoughtfulness and expertise will be greatly missed as she retires from NPC.

Kappa Kappa Gamma's NPC delegation and visitors wish J.J. Wales (seated right) a fond farewell.

Letters to the Editor

Going True Blue!

I enjoyed reading about “Go True Blue” in the fall 2009 issue.

I recently went through a “deconstruction” project of a 1970s two-story garage. I was fortunate to be made aware of “The Reuse People of Amercia, Inc.,” a nonprofit corporation specializing in deconstructing buildings and taking useable materials to their warehouses to be sold for new construction projects. Not only did we give new life to some usable construction materials, we saved massive amounts of material from our local landfill and are paying forward the materials that may be used by someone else.

I only wish I had known about them before we did a remodel on a portion of our home.

A Reputation for High Scholarship and Hospitality

Last evening, September 28, 2009, I had the great pleasure of being invited to the Kappa House at the University of Wyoming for a scholarship banquet. Two of my students who are Kappas invited me as a guest and I just wanted to relay my appreciation for the hospitality that was extended. In addition, I wanted to congratulate Kappa Kappa Gamma members for their outstanding reputation and organizational abilities on many campuses throughout the United States. Many years ago, as an undergraduate at a Big Ten University, I recall the reputation of the Kappas as the best house on campus. Keep up the great work in representing the Greek system.

—Dr. Scott A. Chamberlin

Do Something!

It always amazes me how few names are on the list of donors. Not just for Kappa, but for universities and many causes and charities. I liked the article in a recent Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation newsletter, “What if Every Kappa Gave $50 Annually?” This is especially true for the many members for whom this is less than they spend in a couple of weeks on mocha frappe, you-name-it coffee. I have learned from my association with Dr. Birute Galdikas and the endangered orangutans in the rain forest of Borneo, just how much can be done if people will just start making small donations ... simply DO SOMETHING.

NPC Launches SororityParents.com

The National Panhellenic Conference is working to combat common stereotypes and misperceptions about sorority life by sharing the real-life experience with potential new members and their parents or guardians. Sororityparents.com shares the real experiences of other sorority parents, while also providing parents with an outlet to share with and ask questions of NPC experts. The goal is to help parents gain a better understanding of how sorority life can benefit their daughters in college and throughout life. Another new Web site is MyCollegeLifestyle.com, where five sorority members are profiled and share their Greek experience online.

Looking Back, Thinking Forward

As we look back on 2009, we have many things to be thankful for and to celebrate. For the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, we have another celebration that is just getting started—our 20th birthday. Yes, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation officially began in 1989 even though the first scholarship of $100 was given decades before and Rose McGill received help from us in the 1920s. Kappas have been helping Kappas for more than 100 years!

And, as a Foundation, we have so much to celebrate! Every year we are awarding scholarships to members, providing financial assistance to those in need, operating two lovely and historic museums and delivering outstanding leadership training to members across the United States and Canada. This issue of The Key contains the annual report of our Foundation, important and interesting news about our organization. And, you can learn even more at www.kappa.org/foundation.

I am happy to report that we are getting close to the completion of our Leadership Academy Endowment Campaign of $2.5 million. We are at 87 percent of our goal and hope to announce that we are “Over the Top” at the 2010 General Convention this summer.

Many members send us heartfelt letters about how meaningful our assistance has been to them. Whether we grant a scholarship that helps a young woman achieve her dream or help another sister who is in financial distress, these women have been touched by your generosity.

Yet, the needs outstrip our ability to help. We can grant only about 30 percent of the scholarships requested and the funds that we distribute to those in severe need are limited in hopes that we can help other members who request help.

Our mission statement is “Invest in Every Kappa.” Someday, we hope that our Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation will have the financial capacity to help every sister who needs us. It’s simply put—Kappas Helping Kappas. It takes each of us to help other Kappa sisters. In celebration of our 20th birthday, would you please consider sending $20 (or more if you would like) to help us help other sisters? Every dollar makes a difference. Every contributor makes us a stronger Foundation.

Indeed, we have lots to celebrate! And, we want you to be a part of our celebration. Please make a gift today. From all of us at the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, thank you so very much for your past, present and future support of our Foundation.

And, may each of you have a wonderful year ahead.

Loyally,

The Importance of Unrestricted Giving

Kappa Kappa Gamma's Annual Loyalty Fund raises unrestricted funds for the Foundation's greatest needs, providing means each year to sustain and expand our programs, strengthen our organization and enhance the Kappa experience for all members. A growing Annual Loyalty Fund allows us to meet our most pressing needs and chart a confident course for our future.

Thank you to all of our loyal and generous alumnae who respond each year to the Annual Loyalty Fund! Your gifts make a collective and immediate difference. This year, we invite you to consider membership in the new annual giving society, the Iris Circle. The Iris Circle recognizes Kappa donors who make a gift of at least $1,000 to the Annual Loyalty Fund each fiscal year.

An unrestricted gift to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation through the Annual Loyalty Fund is a gesture of good will and good faith. We are grateful to everyone who entrusts the Foundation with the honor of unrestricted generosity, and we pledge to be strategic and sensible with these funds, responding carefully to the ever-shifting needs of our membership.

For more information about the Annual Loyalty Fund, please contact LAUREL PALMER, Ohio State, Director of Annual Giving, at lpalmer@kkg.org or 866-554-1870.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation

2008 - 2009 Highlights

- ❖ Leadership Academy, an educational leadership training program, was attended by 229 collegians and alumnae in the fall of 2008. Thirty-five program staff assisted with the implementation of this program at a new host site at Heartland Conference and Retreat Center in Marengo, Ohio. New curriculum was introduced this year from Jim Kouzes' and Barry Posner's Leadership Is Everyone's Business.
- ❖ The Kappa Trainer program consists of 60 trained facilitators who provided training to 63 chapters, alumnae associations and LEAD Seminars, touching more than 4,500 members.
- ❖ The Foundation provided funding for the development of the Kappa Learning Institute and the customized course: Kappa 101.
- ❖ We partnered with the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity to purchase e-learning templates used to create interactive e-learning courses.
- ❖ The Foundation provided funding for the development of Kappa Kappa Gamma's first webinar series, which is free to all members. Visit www.kappa.org to register for one or more of these online events.
- ❖ Scholarships totaling $569,469 were awarded to 101 undergraduate and 38 graduate students.
- ❖ Rose McGill assistance, totaling $262,356, helped 95 members on an ongoing basis. Ten collegians each received $1,000 in emergency assistance. Thirteen alumnae received Circle Key Grants for continuing education.
- ❖ A total of 60 chapters contributed $65,406 to the Foundation.
- ❖ A total of 131 alumnae associations made contributions to the Foundation totaling $118,239.18.
- ❖ At the Tribute Table during Leadership Academy 2008, Kappas donated more than $10,000.
- ❖ Corporate matching gifts were made by 20 companies.
- ❖ Members purchased 5,604 magazine subscriptions from the Rose McGill Magazine Agency, which gave $6,584 to the Rose McGill Fund.
- ❖ Nearly 850 visitors toured The Heritage Museum in Columbus, Ohio, which is on the national Register of Historic Places.
- ❖ The Stewart House in Monmouth, Ill., which is on the national Register of Historic Places, had more than 1,100 visitors.
- ❖ To honor Kappa's earliest days on the Monmouth, Ill., campus, two historical markers were placed in Monmouth, Ill.
- ❖ We added 45 new bricks to the MARJORIE MOREE KEITH, Kansas State, Memorial Garden Patio at The Stewart House, once the home of a Kappa founder.
- ❖ Forty Kappas became Friends of the Museums.
- ❖ A rare 19th-century, glass-plate negative of the "Kappa Bridge"—the only image known to exist—was donated to The Stewart House Museum by George Morris of Monmouth, Ill.
- ❖ Total assets surpassed $28 million as of June 30, 2009.
- ❖ The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation operates with 47 volunteers and five staff members.

Foundation Finance

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation has been strategically planning for the future. Investment and spending strategies provide for the support of our operations and programs in the best of times, and in the more difficult of times. During the 2008-2009 fiscal year, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation felt the impact of the slowdown in the domestic economy and the decline in the financial markets.

What is critically important to us is that the commitment of our donors has not waived. Your dedication to investing in every Kappa remains strong. However, donations were negatively impacted by the decline in the economy. Unrestricted and temporarily restricted gifts and bequests declined by 10.5 percent. Yet, the need for the support provided by the Foundation in terms of scholarships and financial aid substantially increased during the last fiscal year. In a year when the global stock markets declined, approximately 31.3 percent of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation portfolio loss represented 20.4 percent of net investments.

To preserve the ability to fund the programs of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, the Foundation investment strategy is reviewed annually. The policy addresses investment asset allocation and spending rate. An investment committee comprised of members who have investment expertise reviews portfolio performance quarterly with our investment consultant. The committee focuses on achieving strong long-term investment performance, diversification of portfolio investments and manager style differentiation.

The Foundation retains Graystone Consulting as our investment consultant. The role of the investment consultant is to monitor the various fund managers with whom the Foundation has investments. Based on portfolio performance, fund managers may be changed from time to time. The investment consultant also provides asset allocation planning advice to meet overall Foundation objectives.

The investment strategy of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation is to emphasize total return—that is, the aggregate return from capital appreciation, dividend and interest income. The primary objective in the investment management of fund assets shall be the preservation of purchasing power after spending. The secondary objective in the investment management of fund assets shall be the long-term growth of capital while avoiding risk.

Our strategic focus remains on the programs of the Foundation and the development of resources to support those programs. While challenged by these difficult economic times, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation remains determined to emerge from the current downturn fiscally strong and financially sound. Our long-term strategy will enable us to continue to support educational programs and to provide the financial assistance that is critical to our members.

How Leadership Academy to Lead a Healthier Lifestyle

—By MEGAN COWART GADDIS, Kansas, Province Director of Chapters-Nu (West)

Shortly before attending Kappa Kappa Gamma's Leadership Academy in 2008, I discovered that my cholesterol was high. This, combined with me being overweight—something I have struggled with most of my life—made me realize I needed to make changes. But I decided my diet would start after Leadership Academy because that meant I could put it off for another few weeks.

MEGAN COWART GADDIS, Kansas, says Leadership Academy changed her life.

Inspired Me

I didn't know what to expect from Leadership Academy, but when I arrived I was assigned to the Blue Group, which was made up of amazing collegiate and alumna members who brought joy to my life. During this educational weekend, I decided that my primary goal for the future was to lead a healthier lifestyle. The women in Blue Group said they would help keep me accountable. So I returned home, wrote out a plan and began my healthier lifestyle.

While some days were better than others, I lost 50 pounds in eight months. My cholesterol went down, and I was exercising regularly. Taking what I learned at Leadership Academy, I decided to "Model the Way" and "Inspire a Shared Vision" by starting a blog—www.sheddinglite.blogspot.com—where I post healthy recipes and my exercise regimen with the hope of helping others lead a healthier lifestyle too.

Leadership Academy also promotes "Challenging the Process"—which I applied to my life by challenging the way I thought about food and the way I planned my days. In addition to my blog, I told everyone about my plan. I figured if I was honest with myself and those around me, people would support me and help me reach my goals.

For me, diet and exercise are always a struggle, but I'm working my plan and I am determined to see this through—one meal at a time, one day

Megan's Plan for Healthy Eating:

- ▶ Drink more water!
- ▶ Eat five or more servings of fruits or veggies per day.
- ▶ Eat/drink at least two servings of dairy per day.
- ▶ Eat at least two servings of lean protein per day.
- ▶ Have two servings of healthy oils (can be used in cooking) per day.
- ▶ Eat whole grains whenever possible.
- ▶ Take a daily multivitamin (and fish oil, calcium and vitamin E if your doctor approves).
- ▶ Eat what you like—Finding a few things that you really like that are also healthy, will help you stick to your plan.
- ▶ Plan ahead to avoid the drive-thru—Once a week, cook several healthy dishes and stock the freezer with pre-portioned meals.
- ▶ Make your plate pretty—If you like how your food looks, you're more likely to enjoy it!
- ▶ Treat yourself! Otherwise, you'll feel like you are doing something you can't maintain. If you crave a piece of chocolate, have some now and then.

Exercise Tips that Work for Megan:

- ▶ Start small—A 10-minute abs class offered at my workplace was perfect to get me going.
- ▶ Try new things—There are so many exercise classes you can try. See what you like best and what will keep you motivated. If you force yourself to do exercise you dislike, you will be less likely to continue.
- ▶ Exercise with a friend—Ask someone to work out with you and hold you accountable. You are more likely to keep your commitment if you know someone is waiting for you at the gym.

NOTE: Always consult your doctor before starting a new diet or exercise regimen.

at a time. I tell myself “everything in moderation, including moderation,” meaning that if I continually deprive myself, I’ll be tempted to binge. I don’t diet on holidays, but I try to eat a little less.

My best advice is to keep a positive attitude and find someone to hold you accountable to your goal. Make a plan and write it down. Make eating and exercising fun, and celebrate small wins. I learned at Leadership Academy to tackle any challenge one small step at a time, and I apply this to all areas of my life now.

Additionally, when I came back from Leadership Academy, I realized I wanted to be more involved with Kappa. As a former chapter adviser, I had recently moved to a new city and wanted to continue giving back to Kappa, so I submitted a Volunteer Interest Form (at www.kappa.org). Shortly after, I was asked to be the Province Director of Chapters for Nu West Province.

I enjoy being a PDC, and I promote Leadership Academy among the chapters I work with; and I try to meet with former L.A. participants to see how they are using their enhanced leadership skills on their campus and in their chapter.

The women I met in Blue Group have made a lasting impression, and we continue to encourage one another via e-mail. There were 16 of us including our group leader. Ten are actives who went on to hold the following chapter officer positions: Two are President, one is Treasurer, one is Risk Management Chairman/House Chairman, one is Registrar, one is Marshal, and one is Philanthropy Chairman. And, one has traveled to Nicaragua and another to Australia. Of the six alumnae in our group, one is now President of her alumnae association, and two of us are PDCs. We represent a range of ages and life experiences, yet we’ve come together and inspired one another.

After my life-changing experience at Leadership Academy, I returned this past September as a Facilitator in Training. We observed different facilitators and their leadership styles in a supportive atmosphere in which we could fine-tune our skills. I appreciated the F.I.T. experience to learn more about facilitating a group; it’s one way that our organization truly supports learning and helping women develop leadership skills.

I am grateful to Leadership Academy for motivating me to be a better person and leader, and I am healthier and happier because of this experience. I am more involved and able to give back to a wonderful organization, and I have made friends who hold me accountable and who are leading the way in their communities, as well. 🗝️

One of Megan's Favorite Low-Fat Recipes:

"Bourbon" Chicken

2 lbs. chicken (suggestion: boneless skinless chicken thighs)

1 tbsp. olive oil

1 garlic clove

1/4 tsp. ginger (ground)

3/4 tsp. red pepper flakes

1/4 cup unsweetened applesauce

1/3 cup light brown sugar (suggestion: Splenda brown sugar)

2 tbsp. ketchup

1 tbsp. cider vinegar

1/2 cup water

1/3 cup soy sauce

Heat oil in large skillet. Add chicken pieces and cook until lightly browned. Remove chicken. Add remaining ingredients, heating over medium heat until well mixed and dissolved. Add chicken back in and bring to a hard boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 20 minutes. Serve over hot brown rice or other grain.

Ready to Get Involved?

Leadership Academy is funded through a generous grant from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, and is open to emerging leaders—actives and alumnae. This fun-filled four-day leadership retreat offers outdoor leadership challenges, personal reflection and group interaction. The next Leadership Academy will be held at Heartland Conference and Retreat Center, in Marengo, Ohio, September 16-19, 2010.

One representative from each chapter attends, and 80 alumna positions are available. Each chapter pays $200 to help defray the expense of Leadership Academy. Alumnae pay a $50 registration fee. To learn more about Leadership Academy and other leadership opportunities, visit www.kappa.org or call Fraternity Headquarters toll free at 866-554-1870.

2010 Dates to Remember

- ▶ Chapter Participant Selection Forms and Volunteer Interest Form Due: March 15
- ▶ Alumna Interest Form Deadline: March 15
- ▶ Collegiate Registration Deadline: May 15
- ▶ $200 chapter fee due to HQ: May 15

Leadership Academy Endowment Campaign: Let's Take It Over the Top!

Kappa Kappa Gamma has exemplified leadership, scholarship and friendship for 139 years. A pioneer in the women's fraternal movement, Kappa Kappa Gamma has continued that Tradition of Leadership, now a part of our cultural fabric. In a world searching for values and leadership, Kappa Kappa Gamma has stepped up to the challenge and is committed to enhancing these characteristics in our members.

To inspire and train emerging leaders, the Fraternity launched the Kappa Kappa Gamma Leadership Academy in 2004. This four-day leadership retreat features outdoor leadership challenges, personal reflection and group interaction designed for undergraduates and alumnae. Kappas of all ages are equipped to take leadership roles in their chapters or associations and in their communities. As tomorrow's leaders, Leadership Academy participants have the potential to make their community, their country and the world better for all.

We've come a long way, but we must keep going!

- ▶ In 2007, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation embarked on a campaign to raise $5 million for a Leadership Academy Endowment, the income from which will fund the program each year.
- ▶ Early in the campaign planning, LYNNE McNABB WALTON, Arkansas, recognized the importance of this endowment because of the leadership skills she developed through serving as President of Gamma Nu Chapter. Three generations of the Walton family have experienced Kappa's values of leadership, scholarship and friendship.

- ▶ In tribute to these values, The Walton Family Foundation made a $2.5 million commitment in the form of a challenge grant. Each gift to the campaign will be matched one-to-one by The Walton Family Foundation.
- ▶ Gifts and pledges have reached 87 percent of the $2.5 million matching challenge.

Here's what a few Leadership Academy participants and donors are saying:

"I loved sharing with our future leaders their first realization of the breadth, compassion and forward thinking of Kappa," says TERI VANDORN HAMPSON, Iowa State. "It was a time to reflect on and improve my leadership skills, adding new terms, ideas and understanding. It was conquering outdoor challenges with Kappas of many different ages, laughing and crying at how close we had become in such a short time. It is a first-class program with something for every Kappa!"

"Although my special interest is the scholarship program, I supported the Leadership Academy Endowment because I feel that funding the Leadership Academy for the future will ensure the Fraternity's Tradition of Leadership ... ." says LIBBY TUCKER GESSLEY, Colorado College.

"Kappa has meant so much to me," says ADELE CORYELL HALL, Nebraska. "So it was with a spirit of deep loyalty and thanksgiving that I wanted to give back. I am moved by the goal of the campaign: to inspire women to assume leadership positions and to instill practices of effective leadership. We need bright, courageous, passionate women in leadership positions!"

Join the hundreds of Kappas who have stepped forward to be a part of Kappa history. Please help us raise the final $335,000 to put the campaign over the top! We hope to meet the Walton challenge by June 2010 so we can celebrate at the General Convention in Phoenix. Let's have 100 percent participation!

Please make a gift to the Leadership Academy Endowment Campaign today! Send checks to: Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, P.O. Box 38; Columbus, OH 43216-0038 or visit www.kappa.org to donate via a secure link.

Thank you for your gifts to the Leadership Academy Endowment Campaign. Leadership Academy gives emerging leaders the vision and skills to become the experienced leaders of tomorrow. Training female leaders to tackle the issues of the future is a noble cause. Please join us!

Sisterhood Turns Into Support When Tragedy Strikes

—By LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN, Adelphi

From our earliest days in Kappa—even during Recruitment—we learn about helping others through philanthropic efforts. And we learn that Kappas help each other with scholarships, financial aid and simply as women supporting women. Through the Rose McGill Fund, we help members with short- or long-term financial aid and emotional support.

But when one young woman pledged at OMEGA CHAPTER, Kansas, she wasn't thinking about that. She just felt that Kappa was "a perfect fit" and today that original feeling is even stronger.

LYNN WILLIAMSON BROWN, Kansas, went to college on a golf scholarship. Following the path of her sister who had pledged at the University of Missouri, Lynn found that Kappa was a great way to make a big university seem smaller. She was a pre-pharmacy student, feeling that it was an area where there would always be a need and she could find a good job. After graduation, Lynn moved to San Francisco, living near her sister, but later returned to Kansas City and found a pharmacy position.

While in college, Lynn met Jason, her future husband. He was a football star in high school and continued in college, aiming for a spot in professional football. "I kept running into him, but there was no interest on my part," she says. But after Lynn returned to Kansas City, they began dating. Lynn found Jason to be smart, well traveled and fun to be with.

A few months into their relationship, Jason's new job brought a transfer to Austin, Texas. Lynn eventually moved to Austin and found a great job. Jason, however, was not as pleased with his job and football was no longer an outlet for him. A college knee injury led to seven surgeries and, despite great hopes each time, he had chronic pain. The need for pain pills became an addiction, along with alcohol.

The couple went through several breakups, but eventually married. Shortly after their daughter,

Marli, was born, Lynn endured three surgeries for melanoma. She was given a prescription for pain pills and Jason stole them. Other health issues in their extended family led to more tension. Despite their problems, Lynn says Jason had "a huge heart, like a giant teddy bear and he could always make me laugh, even at some of my angriest moments."

But the problems grew worse, and more dangerous. Despite having two previous DUI events, Jason continued to drive while impaired and use poor judgment regarding his family's safety. Lynn asked him to leave, insisting that he go to rehab or she would file for divorce. His parents supported her decision. Lynn then found a receipt for a drug that Jason was not supposed to be taking. She texted him that she had found the receipt and had filed for divorce.

Jason drove straight home and learned that his visitation rights with Marli would not begin until he had been sober and clean for 60 days. Then the unthinkable happened. Jason went up to their bedroom and shot himself in the head. Lynn called 9-1-1, but Jason died in her arms.

Lynn knew he had guns in the house; he had always had them. She thought they were in the basement, still packed from their move. The gun was actually in their bedroom closet.

Blaming herself, Lynn couldn't sleep for weeks. Despite some medication, she had flashbacks. For three months she shook so badly she could barely sign her name. And for a couple of weeks, Marli woke up screaming, "NO!"

Lynn's boss was helpful, putting her on a leave of absence for a while. Finally she realized she had to get up and about and earn some money. She worked part time so that she could be with Marli as much as possible. She lost one job when her hours were cut and that ended her health insurance. Life was bleak. Her car broke down and something always went wrong.

A friend, JENNA BRADY JOPLIN, Kansas, suggested Lynn apply for Rose McGill aid and Lynn says this saved her. It was her only income at one point and she is most grateful for it. In addition, she and Marli were thrilled to become part of the Holiday Sharing Program. The RICHARDSON-PLANO (TEXAS) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION sent encouraging cards and never forgot a birthday or holiday. Lynn says the group was led by KIM MCAULIFF MARTIN, Nebraska, and her family got involved, with her daughters sending stuffed animals, bracelets and necklaces they picked out for Marli for Valentine's Day and other occasions.

Holiday Sharing participants provide a list of things they need and when Lynn suggested a gift card to help in buying a mattress for a "big girl bed" for Marli, they received "the most adorable princess bed and mattress, sheets, bedspread and pillow to go with it." Lynn's reaction: "How touching and unbelievable was that! They made Marli's dream come true. I can never repay Kim's kindness," Lynn says, adding that alumnae in DENVER, BOSTON, DETROIT-NORTH WOODWARD and the GOLDEN KEY group sent a spread, sheets and clothes for her, books, stickers, animals and dolls for Marli. "You name it; we got it!" Lynn marvels.

The first year after Jason's death was spent getting through shock and post-traumatic stress disorder. The past year has shifted toward grief and "down" times, including the two-year anniversary in August. Despite Jason's problems, Lynn says he was "a great guy and dad," but couldn't conquer his addictions.

Lynn has had a full-time job since April and did not reapply for Rose McGill aid. "With a full-time job, a 3-year-old, trying to figure out child care, etc., my time is very limited now, but it is more important to me than ever to be a part of Kappa in as many ways as I can in the future.

"I realize how the Kappa family has gone well beyond the college years and helped me during the worst time in my life. I value Kappa even more as I realize that some friends have become lifelong friends," Lynn says. "I would love someday to be on the other end financially and to give more to alumna life and Rose McGill and also be involved with the Holiday Sharing Program to help someone else out."

Lynn's thoughts are similar to those of others who have been helped by the Rose McGill Fund. From a small amount of financial aid for one member of BETA PSI CHAPTER, Toronto, in 1922, has come a growing and ongoing facet of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. From times of sudden distress to situations of overall economic downturn, donations to the fund provide financial relief. The work of Kappas who raise funds, find holiday gifts and offer emotional support provides the sense of family that is so much a part of Kappa Kappa Gamma. 🗝️

EDITOR'S NOTE: Rose McGill Aid is confidential. Thank you, Lynn, for sharing your story to educate Kappas whose generous donations to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation make it possible.

Holiday Sharing Program Lifts Spirits During the Holidays and Year-Round

—By WILMA WINBERG JOHNSON and SUZANNE PETERSON FREAM, Holiday Sharing Co-Chairmen

What do two Kappa sisters in California and Oregon share as a special Kappa project, along with alumnae in Colorado, with Kappa chapters in New York and Texas, and with small or large alumnae associations in Michigan, New Jersey and Florida? They all participate in the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation's annual Rose McGill Holiday Sharing Program.

Each holiday season brings requests from Kappas all over the continent who find, as the holiday season approaches, that holiday giving is beyond their current financial and/or physical abilities. The reasons for such distressed circumstances are as varied as the wish lists the Holiday Sharing Co-Chairmen receive each fall season. The stories are always deeply emotional and poignant. It is significant that our requests for the wishes of other members of a family are more numerous than requests for personal items. It was a marvelous testimony to Kappa's philanthropic spirit when, during the General Convention last June, an anonymous recipient of many years ago, came forward to discuss her experience as a Holiday Sharing recipient when her young family experienced severe financial difficulties.

The members of the 1964 SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA (IND.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION initiated

WILMA WINBERG JOHNSON, Massachusetts, Holiday Sharing Co-Chairman

the first known Holiday Sharing project when they "adopted" a Rose McGill recipient in need of special cheer during the holiday season. The recipient and her family received gifts from a wish list that were bought, wrapped and delivered by the area alumnae. The project attracted the interest of other Kappa associations, and, in 1975, a Holiday Sharing assistant was officially designated as an integral part of the Fraternity's overall philanthropy plan.

During the past 39 years, our scope of Holiday Sharing has expanded to include more than 100 chapters, alumnae associations and individual Kappas. Every wish list received from recipients identified by local alumnae or from individuals is matched with alumna volunteers in other geographic areas in order to provide anonymity to our recipients.

A majority of our recipients receive most or all the items they wish to receive. Gifts range from bedroom slippers, sweaters, toys, books and newspaper subscriptions, to baby equipment, car tires, a washing machine or furniture. In 2009, more than $17,000 in goods was gifted through our Holiday Sharing Program.

In 2000, the Holiday Sharing program expanded into a second phase, inviting Kappas everywhere, as well as associations and chapters, to develop relationships with Rose McGill Aid recipients throughout the year, giving friendship and emotional support by remembering these sisters with special occasion cards, little gifts and personal notes.

If you are interested in participating in the Rose McGill Holiday Sharing program, please contact WILMA WINBERG JOHNSON, Massachusetts, 22 Burlington Rd., Bedford, MA 01730-1306; 781-275-6737; wilmawjohnson@verizon.net. Please let her know by June 30 if you want to participate as an individual or if your alumnae association or chapter is interested.

In September, participants will be matched with interested recipients and you will be notified of the name and address of your Holiday Sharing Kappa along with her wish list.

Thank you to the many generous Kappas who have spread holiday joy through the Holiday Sharing Program! 🗝️

Thank You, Rose McGill

To My Sisters,

I would like to thank you for the support I have received after recently being diagnosed with brain cancer. I feel so lucky knowing there was somewhere to turn when things seemed like they were falling apart. As I continue to get better, I know that there are other Kappas just beginning to need help. I have saved some of my aid money and would like to return it for them. Thank you again.

Loyally,

AMANDA VAN DILLEWYN, Miami

Alumnae Association Lends a Helping Hand

—By JENNIFER PILLA TAYLOR,
North Carolina

Long before Halloween or Thanksgiving, the members of the CHARLOTTE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION are thinking about the holiday season, and a Kappa who might need their help over the holidays.

When members mail in their dues, they tack on a few extra dollars for the Holiday Sharing program, through which the group assists a struggling sister—typically one who is far away and remains anonymous.

“Our membership is always very generous where holiday sharing is concerned,” says treasurer ANDREA BACA, New Mexico. “It has become a favorite tradition of ours.”

The donations range from $5 to $55, and even at the height of last year’s recession the Kappas collected more than $800 for Holiday Sharing—well over the $250 guideline set by the Foundation. With the excess funds the group held a RIF event and made an additional donation to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

Over the years, many of the Holiday Sharing recipients have been elderly Kappas, but last year the group was especially moved by a request from a Kappa in her 40s, who suffers from bipolar disorder.

“Kappas of all ages and walks of life need help occasionally,” says DIANE ALTHOUSE, Babson, who organized Charlotte’s 2008 Holiday Sharing effort. Four Kappas did the shopping, buying almost everything on the recipient’s request list. They also tucked in a few department store gift cards, and the alumna book club added some gently-used selections from their past year’s reading list. Then several members helped to wrap the items up in festive holiday paper and mailed them directly to the recipient.

“We love giving back through Holiday Sharing,” says association President KATIE RUSSELL, Furman. “It’s really a very easy way that we can make a big difference in a sister’s life.”

Scholarship Recipients Reflect on What

There are few things more painful than an unfulfilled dream. But thanks to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation and our loyal supporters, thousands of Kappa sisters have been given opportunities and fresh hope to pursue their dreams and life goals.

In recognition of the Foundation's 20th anniversary, we asked former scholarship recipients what their scholarships meant to them and how they have pursued their dreams with a little help from their Kappa sisters.

The response has been overwhelming! We plan to feature as many as possible in future issues of The Key, in newsletters and on our Web site.

Enjoy meeting just a few of the many Kappa sisters who are achieving their dreams thanks to the Kappa Foundation. If you have received financial assistance through Kappa, please share how this support has changed your life!

Scholarships Lead to Success and Friendship

A New Englander and a Southerner who received Chapter Consultant Scholarships 17 years ago have formed a lifelong friendship. JENNIFER WILLAND DILLARD, Connecticut, and SONJA SCHNELL BRODERICK, Miami, became friends and pen pals and eventually next-door neighbors thanks to their Kappa scholarships.

Having served as Vice President-Organization at DELTA MU, Connecticut, Jennifer met Sonja, former President of DELTA KAPPA, Miami (Fla.), during their Chapter Consultant training at Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity Headquarters. Sonja was assigned to EPSILON KAPPA, South Carolina, while Jennifer went west to BETA PHI, Montana.

They kept in touch as Sonja earned her MBA and Jennifer her MPA with financial help from Kappa. Jennifer says, "We both feel blessed by the generosity of women we have never met, but who helped finance our graduate educations with their generous contributions to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. The impact of even a small contribution adds up and it can transform a Kappa's life."

Back home, in the South and New England, they reconsidered their careers. Sonja became a university career counselor and Jennifer applied to Ph.D. programs. As it turned out, Jennifer wound up at South Carolina for a women's studies certificate and her Ph.D., with Kappa financial aid along the way.

Sonja moved to Arizona then Texas. Jennifer was a visiting professor at Clemson and served as faculty and chapter adviser to EPSILON MU. They continued to communicate and discover mutual Kappa friends along the way. And, coincidentally, they both married men from South Carolina.

Now Jennifer and her family have just moved into a newly built home in Piedmont, S.C., and Sonja and family have bought the lot next door. Their husbands get along well and their children enjoy playing. The affection between Jennifer's son and Sonja's daughter makes them smile at the thought of becoming in-laws some day!

As a professor, when Jennifer introduces herself to her classes she often tells her students that she would not be where she is today if it were not for the generous financial support that Kappa Kappa Gamma invested in her. Sonja too appreciates Kappa's investment in her education and looks forward to the possibility of someday sharing the Kappa bond with her daughter. "Thank you, Kappa!" say these two best friends.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada Awards Ph.D. Scholarships

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada raises scholarship funds for Canadian women in Ph.D. programs. The 2009 recipients are Jessica Rourke, University of Victoria, and Laura Nimmon, University of British Columbia.

Jessica is a social psychology doctoral student studying the role of forgiveness and its link to decreases in depression, guilt, anxiety, chronic anger, general distress and addictive behavior. Jessica has been awarded $5,000. Laura is a doctoral student in language and literacy education aiming to improve the literacy and health literacy levels of minority women nationally and internationally. Laura has been awarded $1,500.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada is incorporated and registered with Canada Revenue Agency (www.carc.gc.ca/charities).

It awards scholarships to qualified Canadian women, including nonmembers. Eighty percent of donations to the general account are awarded to scholarships in the given year. Donations to the endowment are invested for a minimum of 10 years. Applications are available at www.kappa.org/foundation.

Donations may be sent to: Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada, P.O. Box 1273, 2384 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario M4P 3E5 Canada. Contact KAREN CASTRO ROSIL, Toronto, at 416-622-0676. The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada thanks its loyal donors and appreciates continued support.

Our Scholarships Change Lives

Q&A with surgeon and Foundation scholarship recipient

RACHEL IDOWU, UC Berkeley

Q: What did your Kappa Kappa Gamma scholarship mean to you?

A: As a premedical student in a competitive science department, our rigorous program often caused us to be more aware of areas where we may have “fallen short” in comparison to our peers. It seemed as though there was always someone studying longer hours or who was just that much closer to a 4.0 than me. Such comparisons often kept me from acknowledging those qualities and passions I possessed that were valuable contributions to my academic and social communities. When I applied for the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation scholarship, it gave me an opportunity to reflect on my passions and then to articulate how those passions informed the contribution I wished to make in the world.

Receiving the scholarship felt like a validation of my professional goals. The award also encouraged me to push harder in a tough academic climate because it felt as though an organization whose ideals and praise I respected, Kappa Kappa Gamma, recognized and appreciated my efforts.

Q: What influence has Kappa had on your life?

A: Kappa has promoted leadership and professional ideals, which I aspire to emulate as I make my way through each stage of my career. Refining and shaping us into confident, articulate leaders was a clear commitment of our chapter advisers. Through my chapter positions, I started on a lifetime journey of serving as a leader who sees and listens to people, rather than being preoccupied solely with my predetermined ideas of what I want to accomplish.

Q: How did receiving a scholarship influence your feelings about charitable giving?

A: I now recognize two important things about charitable giving: first, alumna giving contributes to an organization’s efforts to further its mission—in this case, to build and shape a future generation of young, female leaders who embody Kappa ideals and values; second, the scholarship provides a young Kappa with recognition that helps her feel proud of the work she has accomplished, and encourages her to invest her time and energy toward her chapter’s success.

Q: Why should every Kappa support the Foundation?

A: Every dollar you give to invest in a Kappa contributes to her future as a leader in her community and workplace. It has the immediate impact of demonstrating to new members and active members that alumnae recognize that being a Kappa is a lifetime privilege and responsibility. Your gifts have the benefit of encouraging young Kappas to donate to the Foundation as they graduate and move into their professional careers.

Q: Do you feel Kappa is relevant to future generations of women?

A: Absolutely! During the collegiate years, Kappa serves a role that few undergraduate organizations can fill. It provides a home, a community and an opportunity to move into adulthood with a set of ideals and values that encourages maturity, personal responsibility and regard for the people who are part of your life.

The Omega Society Has Lasting Impact

When BETTY MONAHAN VOLK, Ohio Wesleyan, died on March 28, 2009, countless Kappas were saddened by the loss of this caring friend who tirelessly volunteered as Kappa Kappa Gamma's Rose McGill Confidential Aid Chairman for 10 years.

Betty has left a legacy that will touch the lives of Kappa sisters for years to come. With a provision in her will designating that $25,000 go to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, specifically for the Rose McGill Fund to help Kappas in need, Betty's loyalty has come full circle.

Betty's daughter, DEBBIE VOLK COOK, Ohio Wesleyan, remembers the card table that was a fixture in her mother's bedroom. Seated at her card table, Betty would write monthly checks to the Rose McGill recipients. These Kappas received a hand-written note with their checks and they developed a relationship with Betty, whose husband, Vaughn, was very supportive of her volunteer work. Betty and Vaughn even visited recipients when their travels took them near. Betty was thrilled that the Kappa Foundation could help members in need, which is why she left such a generous gift that will continue doing just that. And, Betty would be glad to know that our current Rose McGill co-chairmen still write to each recipient.

Debbie, like her mother, has also included the Foundation in her will and also has a long history of Kappa service. Debbie has served as a Province Director of Alumnae, Regional Director of Alumnae and Assistant to the Director of Alumnae.

Another loyal Kappa who was a member of the Omega Society was KATHERINE MOESSNER JEFFREY, Denison, who passed away on May 21, 2009. She too will be greatly missed, and yet her memory lives on through her support of the Rose McGill Fund, The Heritage Museum and the Scholarship Fund. Kay donated to all of these areas with her gift of a life insurance policy that she purchased and of which she made the Foundation owner and beneficiary. Kay worked at Fraternity Headquarters from 1979-1987, and she was a member of the Heritage Museum Guild from its inception and participated in their activities until shortly before her death.

We honor those we have loved and lost, whose generosity and careful planning will provide a lasting legacy of Kappas helping Kappas.

How You Can Join the Omega Society

The Omega Society honors donors who include the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation in their estate plans. This can be done through a bequest provision in a will or trust, a charitable gift annuity, a charitable remainder trust, a charitable lead trust or by naming the Foundation as the owner and beneficiary of a life insurance policy or as the beneficiary of a qualified retirement plan such as an IRA or 401(k).

For more information, please contact MAGGIE SIMS COONS, Hillsdale, Director of Planned Giving, Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, P.O. Box 38, Columbus, OH 43216-0038, 866-554-1870, ext. 2117 (toll free), mcoons@kkg.org, or visit www.kappa.org.

KERRIE QUINN MURRAY, Idaho, Foundation President; ELLEN BENSON MERRIMAN, SMU, and DEBBIE DICUS KENNEDY, Kansas, Co-Chairmen of the Kappa Holiday Homes Tour luncheon, and DARCY HOWE, Indiana, Co-Chairman of the Leadership Academy Endowment Campaign. The 58th Holiday Homes Tour Luncheon in Kansas City featured speaker Eddie Ross, top design finalist and former Martha Stewart Living editor. The homes tour proceeds support three local charities and the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

THE RICHMOND (VA.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION donated $500 to the Foundation during the 2009 Lambda Province Meeting. "Through hosting our Province Meeting, the Richmond-area Kappas were re-energized, especially with Fraternity President DENISE RUGANI in attendance and the opportunities for actives and alumnae to interact," says ALICE BUCHANAN SCOTT, South Carolina, association President. "This made our annual gift to the Foundation even more special."

At the 41st Beta Province Meeting, a reception is held to celebrate the newest "Betateers," those attending three or more Beta Province Meetings.

KORI COOPER CECIL, Kentucky, and MARY ELLEN PLUBELL MILLER, Cornell, find it amusing that both wore white, broad brimmed hats to a neighborhood Fourth of July pool party. The two became neighbors and friends on the same street in East Tennessee six years ago and soon discovered that both are Kappas.

Several members of the NEW YORK CITY ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION participate in a 5K race benefiting the local Boys and Girls Club. They crossed the Hudson River to Hoboken, New Jersey, to compete in the "Party with a Purpose" race and afterward, enjoyed dinner on the river.

Director of Alumnae SUSANNE WOLF VANDER HEYDEN, Washington State, presents a charter to the newly formed BAINBRIDGE ISLAND (WASH.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION, during a barbecue at a member's waterfront home. Eleven new members joined at their April extension meeting and an additional six during this summer event.

Members of the WASHINGTON D.C./ SUBURBAN MARYLAND ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION (also known as the Kapital Kappas) gather on the National Mall for an evening outdoors watching the classic movie, "Rebel Without a Cause," with the U. S. Capitol in the background. Attending "Screen on the Green" has become an annual tradition for these Washington D.C.-based alumnae.

Key Achievements

✦ KATHRYN (NANCY) BRUNKOW SAMPLE, Illinois, has published USC's First Ladies: A Trojan Family Album, highlighting the 10 women who have served as first lady of the University of Southern California. Kathryn has served 28 years as a university first lady, including an 18-year tenure at USC, where her husband, Steve, is president. One of the highlights of Kathryn's time at USC was becoming the only first lady to receive a commendation from the Academic Senate during the school's 125th anniversary, for "sound judgment, wholehearted commitment and steady confidence in the university's mission and destiny." She has two Kappa daughters, MICHELLE SAMPLE SMITH, Nebraska, and ELIZABETH (MELISSA) SAMPLE, Nebraska. Kathryn has been active with Kappa alumnae associations and is a member of the DELTA TAU, USC, House Board.

✦ LANA WEISS BROWN, Illinois Wesleyan, received the 2009 Communicator of Achievement Award from the Illinois Woman's Press Association. Lana, a member of the National Association of Press Women, is vice president of the Illinois Women's Press Association and an educator who has written and produced award-winning publications, grants and curricula. Since 1996, she has served as principal education consultant for the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago, where she authored the museum's DocuFest, an online initiative honored by Oprah for innovation. She is a freelance writer for the Chicago Tribune and other news organizations. Lana was presented her award by Kappa sister and IWPA president, MARIANNE WOLF-ASTRAUSKAS, Illinois Wesleyan.

✦ After a motorcycle accident trapped MARI WINSOR, Michigan State, in a body that wouldn't move, doctors told this dancer/choreographer that dancing again was not likely. But as she began her long road to recovery, Mari discovered Pilates and used the program to work through her pain and stiffness. Not only did she heal, but she also resolved to bring her victory to millions of others through books, videos and her own Pilates studios. Mari has worked with numerous celebrity clients, and people from all walks of life flock to her studios in Hollywood and Santa Monica. In Mari's book The Pilates Powerhouse she says, "When you are at peace with yourself and when your entire body is working in harmony, you will experience joy."

🔑 JODI BONDI NORGAARD, Indiana, has introduced a line of nine plush, sports-themed dolls for girls to promote the benefits of exercise, proper eating and sleeping habits, self-esteem and overall healthy life-skills. Each doll is dressed in sports attire and includes a gym bag, equipment and encouraging messages on stretching, eating a healthy snack and exercising. Jodi's first doll, "Tennis Girl," debuted at the U.S. Open in New York in 2008. Five hundred dolls sold out in six days. Jodi has coached "Girls on the Run," which encourages girls to make healthy choices in life through running. Jodi soon realized there was a need for a positive doll that would be age appropriate, proportioned properly and send messages about a healthy lifestyle. Jodi's business is Dream Big Toy Company and her dolls, Go! Go! Sports Girls, can be viewed at www.gogosportsgirls.com. A portion of her profit goes to organizations that encourage girls to participate in physical activity.

JODI BONDI NORGAARD, Indiana, promotes healthy lifestyles with Go! Go! Sports Girls.

🔑 Two friends who joined as charter members of ETA GAMMA, San Diego, have launched a baby and children's line of dolls and accessories called Muddy Cloud (www.muddycloud.com). JOY LIMANON ANAYA and STEPHANIE MILLER BRYSON have designed five abstract characters that are colorful soft dolls for young children and babies. The whimsical stuffed toys come with matching hats and mittens allowing children to "dress up" like their favorite character. They are collaborating with Discovery Arts in Southern California, which creates arts programming for children's hospitals, so that while children receive treatments, they can escape into a world of creativity.

🔑 ANNE LILY IRWIN, Oregon, owner of Anne Irwin Fine Art in Atlanta, has published her first coffee-table book highlighting the many artists she represents, including a few who are Kappas. Anne, who sits on several boards and often donates a portion of the proceeds from gallery openings to various charities including Atlanta Youth Academy and the Atlanta Police Foundation, was featured as one of four prominent businesswomen in Atlanta this year by Northside Neighbor Newspaper. Anne founded One Hundred Shares, a nonprofit that contributes $100,000 annually to inner city ministries. For more, visit www.anneirwinfineart.com.

Line of Day Planners Created to Simplify a Mom's Busy Life

Once a successful ad executive and business woman heading a family business, and now a busy mother of four trying to organize her own hectic days, NINA PIZZUTI RESTIERI, Colgate, has designed a line of home organizers, called momAgenda. The concept was born as she pondered why there were hundreds of options for brides to choose from when planning their weddings, but no options for mothers to plan their everyday lives. These unique agendas are crammed with basic information, such as online resources and toll-free numbers for a variety of sources, pages for party and vacation planning, and space to list all the activities of each family member.

When the first run of products, created after a year of research, sold out within three days at 120 stores, Nina knew she had struck a chord with busy women all over the country. Since its beginning in 2005, momAgenda has grown to include day planners, (myAgenda, momAgenda and Personal Portfolio) home organizers (Kitchen Folio, School Years, Wall Calendar) and helpful pads (Weekly Menu/Grocery Pad, Permission Slip, Honey Do List and Babysitter Info.) The collection is sold at leading national retailers and boutiques throughout the country and has been featured on the Today Show, in Real Simple Magazine and People Magazine.

After Nina graduated from Colgate, where she was a charter member of ZETA RHO chapter, she began working in advertising where she honed her advertising skills. She later went to work for the direct marketing company founded by her mother. Nina gave birth to her first child just five weeks before her mother's untimely death at age 48. With no one else to step in, Nina returned to the business just days after her mother's funeral to serve as president. After two years of long hours and travel, Nina could no longer bear to be away from her family and decided to sell the business.

Having three more children in six years, Nina became a stay-at-home mom with a busy schedule of playgroups and preschool. Although she knew this time with her young children was priceless, she vowed to only take on a job that would allow her to make being a mom her first priority. MomAgenda was born and Nina gets immense joy out of helping the pieces of everyone's personal puzzle—family, career, home and social life—come together.

The vast range of organizational products, many inspired by suggestions from customers, can be seen at www.momagenda.com.

NINA PIZZUTI RESTIERI, Colgate, organizational expert, is the founder of momAgenda.

PATTY CLARK HAWKINS, LSU, finishes one of her quilts depicting her beloved Colorado Aspen trees, using machine pieced and fused construction and her own dyed fabrics.

Fabric Collages Capture Scenes from the Colorado Rockies

Artist's Latest Work Inspired by Sister Helped by Rose McGill

Internationally recognized textile artist PATTY CLARK HAWKINS, LSU, creates fabric hangings and quilts whose colors and subjects are inspired by the Colorado scenes around her: Aspen trees, rock outcrops and Rocky Mountain peaks.

Patty began this artistic journey somewhat late in life. She had been an elementary education major, although she loved art classes. Deciding she wanted to be an artist, Patty struggled for 15 years with watercolor, which taught her a lot about color and composition. Then, one day in 1985, she saw a Smithsonian traveling exhibition at the Denver Art Museum, with “art quilts” hanging high above the floor. “I was speechless,” she says. “I realized that, knowing how to sew, thanks to my Kappa mother, I could make art quilts, and I have been consumed and passionate about creating (them) ever since.”

Patty dyes her own silk-screened fabrics creating striking abstract markings by using bubble wrap, corrugated cardboard and non-skid rubber rug mats. She also uses an ancient Japanese pole wrapped dying technique, shibori, (like paper scrunched on a soda straw) to transform her fabrics into her iconic three-dimensional images of Aspens.

Patty’s work has been seen in exhibitions and on HGTV’s program, Simply Quilts. In 2007, she was awarded the “Quilt Japan Prize,” which allowed her to travel to Japan to teach Japanese quilters. She is a member of the national Studio Art Quilt Association and teaches at conferences around the country.

Patty’s latest work, titled “Survivor,” depicts a misshapen and wounded Aspen tree. Halfway through finishing this quilt, Patty says “it became profound that this quilt was also about my sister, PRISCILLA CLARK ROSE, Colorado State, a recent recipient of the Rose McGill Fund. Priscilla lost her hearing 10 years ago due to meningitis and later developed diabetes, which put her in a nursing home. Priscilla received gift boxes through Holiday Sharing from three alumnae associations, and just raves about “my Kappas,” says Patty. She says Priscilla was so joyful and tearful. “It means so much to my sister that there are people who know and care about her, beyond her immediate family.” Patty is thankful to The Key for the Rose McGill article in the January 2009 issue, knowing first hand how much the Rose McGill Fund does for Kappas in need.

So it is understandable that a seven-foot-tall wall hanging titled “Survivor” has special meaning for this talented Kappa. More of her works can be seen at www.pattyhawkins.com.

UC MERCED. ETA XI participates in a “Taste the Greek Rainbow” event to promote Greek Life and share Kappa ideals with potential new members. Each Greek chapter on campus passed out candy: Kappa gave out blue gumballs from a gumball machine.

SPAIN. While studying abroad in Spain, Lainey Craven and Maggie Grisanti of BETA CHI connect with Kappa sisters from BETA XI, Mallory Shary and Margaret Newman.

JOHNS HOPKINS. Abigail Hoglund, Anya Remole and Nicole Overley, ETA EPSILON, learn to problem solve and work together while participating in team-building activities and a low ropes course during a sisterhood retreat.

SEMESTER AT SEA. Kappas from all over the United States find time to take a photograph while studying abroad aboard the Spring 2009 Semester at Sea Voyage.

CREIGHTON. On a service trip to Ghana, Africa, Molly Gosmire, ETA IOTA, forms connections with the local children. She taught the students how to count, spell and read, and she enjoyed time spent bonding with them.

SYRACUSE. At the Alpha/Rho Province Meeting, BETA TAU members Naomi Ratner, Jaclyn Siegle, Katherine Salisbury, and Quinn DelZoppo compile ladies toiletry gift bags for a local women's shelter.

BRITISH COLUMBIA. At GAMMA UPSILON's Sapphire Ball, Nilo Tabrizy, Jaclyn Mintzberg, Julie Wabnik and Jenna Kuchinsky dance the night away.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN. Sarah Monahan, Kelcey Schmidt and Brittany Sammons show ZETA UPSILON spirit by participating in a fraternity's philanthropic event that involves Greek teams yelling their personalized cheers. "Kappa Gamma...Kappa Kappa Gamma!"

COLGATE. Members of ZETA RHO sit at a table decorated for a birthday party. "Kappa Birthday Club" is Zeta Rho's largest philanthropy event in which members throw a gigantic birthday party for local children.

Still time for Spring Trips...

Amalfi—The Divine Coast of Italy

April 28-May 6—One hotel—visit Positano, Sorrento, Ravello, Pompeii and Herculaneum, and Capri. Much included. $2,795.

Aix-en-Provence, France—Haunts of Cezanne, Chagall, van Gogh

May 11-19—Sunny beaches to undulating hills, vineyards and olive groves. $2,695

Plan Ahead for Summer...

Canada Maritimes

July 26-Aug 4—Stay cool, travel closer to home. Enjoy the history and charm of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. See the wild, rugged coasts, spectacular bays, lush river valleys and beautiful lighthouses of this culturally unique area. A fun-filled "small-group experience." $3,295.

Prince Edward Island

Danube River

Cruise into fall...

Scotland, Oban and Stirling

Aug 8-16—Two charming hotels to anchor the adventure that begins with a visit to the island of Mull, a cruise on Loch Ness and seeing the Slate Islands. From Stirling visit Edinburgh, Loch Lomond and St. Andrews. Balance of free time and included programs, plus many meals. $2,495.

Cruise the Danube River

Sept 7-18—Begin with three nights in Budapest followed by a four-night River Cruise through five countries and highlighting Vienna. Spend the final three nights in Prague. Deluxe accommodations and many meals included. From $2,895.

Italian Lakes and Dalmation Coast Cruise

Sept 9-19—Only 300 passengers enjoy this intimate, luxurious cruise on the Wind Star motor-sail-yacht after a three-night stay on Lake Maggiore. Sail the Dalmatian Coast to Dubrovnik and back to Venice with stops in charming Rovinj, Opatija and Trogir. Begins at $4,095.

Alumni Holidays International Travel (AHI) trips include alumni travelers from other organizations and offer alternative dates. Family and friends are welcome on all Kappa Travels trips.
