THE KEY

OF KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

KAPPA'S CENTENNIAL YEAR 1870-1970

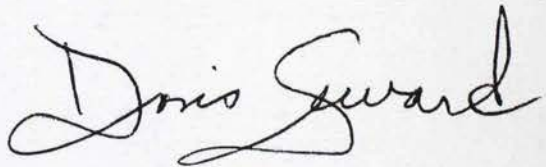

WINTER 1969

“If you can’t go, send someone . . .”

Often as persons of concern we wish to respond to circumstances which need remedy or alleviation. If a person falls we want to help him up. If a friend is thirsty, we can provide a glass of water. If a child has a splinter perhaps we can get it out. Some other troubles are larger or more complicated or farther away than our direct assistance, but are not removed from our compassion. We care that people are deaf, are crippled, are retarded, are deprived, but not often can we immediately go in person to assist effectively. But we do have an opportunity through support of the Kappa Centennial Scholarship program to assist significantly in rehabilitation work. Over ninety campuses where we have Kappa chapters will have a Centennial scholar in our 100th year, 1970-71. These women will be training in some area of the broad field of rehabilitation in order that they can serve professionally on behalf of each one of us who cares about the physically, socially and mentally handicapped. This training subsidy on the part of Kappa is in lovely harmony with our founding purpose and helps to carry out for each one of us the vows we took for loving concern of our fellow man. Our contributions become an extension of our own hands and hearts to others who need us. If we can't go ourselves, send someone.

COVER: Symbol of a scholar. To emphasize the importance of scholarship in Kappa Kappa Gamma, this issue of THE KEY honors those Kappas who have excelled in their chapters and have been awarded scholarships through the philanthropy program. Education is a companion which no misfortune can decrease, no crime destroy, no enemy alienate, no despotism enslave; at home a friend, abroad an introduction, in solitude a solace, in society an ornament. It chastens vice, guides virtue, and gives grace and government to genius. Education may cost financial sacrifice and mental pain, but in both money and life values it will repay every cost one hundred fold.

Is there character in your scholarship?

by MARJORIE CROSS BIRD

Scholarship Chairman

“Scholarship: The ability and character of a man of learning.” So says Mr. Webster. It is an arresting definition. Ability? Certainly. But, character? Why did he choose that particular word? It suggests that a man of learning has certain qualities that distinguish him from other men. It suggests, moreover, that we should be able to expect certain behavior from him because he is a man of learning. The definition has a dignity about it. Are there, responsibilities, even moral obligations of scholarship?

Honesty certainly would be one of them. In using one's own work and in taking tests, honesty is essential, but it goes deeper than that. Real scholarship seeks the truth. It demands research, fairness of mind, sincere effort to discover the whole. It is not satisfied with cleverness, or simply seeking out facts to bolster preconceived contentions.

Secondly, but no less important, there is the obligation to use the abilities you have been given. You should discover those talents and develop them to the fullest, for your own benefit and the benefit of mankind. Learning endows the learner with a depth, a sparkling appreciation for life, a captivating charm, a balance that affects the quality of life of all with whom he comes in contact.

No matter how strongly we believe in independence and the right of the individual to think and act as his conscience dictates, this belief must always be tempered by the realization that thoughts translated into actions have an influence on others. Their actions, then, have the force of advocating a direction that will benefit all.

Women, especially, should be aware of their influence for there is much truth in the saying, “When you educate a man, you educate an individual; when you educate a woman, you educate a family.”

Give your scholarship your best efforts. Put spirit, enthusiasm, and genuine interest in your work. Dig a little! Scholarship of this type is dynamic, it's contagious, it causes sparks between student and student, teacher and student. The quality of your scholarship will be the measure of your education, which, incidentally, is a continuous process. We are all becoming educated. Serious study or heavy reading may even be good for your health! Learning is indeed a life force and certainly it is true that when we stop learning, we might as well stop living.

So discover and develop your potential, the extent of which may surprise you. Even if you contribute no new knowledge, at least contribute wisdom, dignity, and quality to life.

Along with developing your abilities is another moral obligation of responsible scholarship: self-discipline. Self-discipline refers not only to ordering concentration and time to accomplish academic goals, but to disciplining thought processes in the conduct of every day life.

This type of thinking should be reflected in our chapter governments and in the general tone and atmosphere of our chapter houses. If the life style of any chapter can be characterized by rowdiness, a chaotic lack of order, thoughtlessness, disregard for quiet hours, misuse of card key privileges, over-emphasis on socializing and partying, lack of priorities in

Fraternity world pays tribute to Clara O. Pierce

On the night of October 27, 1969, when Clara O. Pierce died, Kappa Kappa Gamma and the Fraternity world lost one of their strongest supporters. Clara believed in the fraternity system. She loved Kappa Kappa Gamma and dedicated her life to its service and growth. She was Kappa Kappa Gamma to many people. For forty years she was the continuity of the organization as one administration gave way to the next. Her many contributions to the Fraternity and the fraternity system during those 40 years of active participation stand as testimony to her affection.

The tributes to her memory have been legion. A small cross-section of the many letters received by the Fraternity from members, friends and business acquaintances testify to the high esteem in which Clara Pierce was held by all whose lives touched hers. Her multifaceted abilities reached into all areas of the Fraternity's associations, not only within its own structure, but additionally to the business community and the entire fraternity world. Her life indeed was the personification of the words of the Kappa Symphony.

"Thou Kappa Kappa Gamma live each day in all our hearts. And in our lives play many noble sympathetic parts. The part of sister, second mother, counselor, true friend. Of love's ideal to which we raise our eyes until the end.

"Until the end? I think when passed beyond this little sphere. We still shall see thy joyous shining light forever clear. And hear in all the skies thy call of perfect Womanhood. So God may say 'On earth and here thou art a lasting Good'."

A memorial honoring Clara's memory is being planned. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

PANHELLENIC OFFICERS VOICE THEIR ADMIRATION . . .

"I just wanted to express my deep sympathy to Kappa Kappa Gamma in the loss of a great lady. It's hard to see the old order pass, but it must; and if it were not for the strong foundations built by women who served so loyally, like Clara, we'd not be able to weather the present storms."

MRS. JOSEPH GRIGSBY,
Past President and Past NPC Chairman,
Delta Delta Delta

"Her name is legend in fraternity and her leadership a great loss to all of us."

MISS MAXINE BLAKE,
Grand President, Alpha Delta Pi

"I find it hard to realize that she isn't still somewhere in the background supporting and advising all of us.

"Over the years I respected Clara, enjoyed her graciousness and appreciated her quiet but keen humor. And I like to think that I learned a little bit from her—when to argue and when to be still.

"It is a great sadness, not only to Kappa Kappa Gamma, that Clara's calm voice is permanently stilled. Only a few have such influence beyond their own fraternities and are sorely missed."

MRS. GEORGE RUDOLPH
Past President and current Panhellenic delegate, Delta Delta Delta

"We know that she personified Kappa Kappa Gamma, giving freely of her knowledge, maturity and experience to your national organization for that long period of time.

"No one could have been more dedicated or more untiring in her efforts to forward the goals of your sorority."

MRS. BLANCHE GREENBERGER
Executive Secretary, Alpha Epsilon Phi

A NIC MEMBER SPEAKS OUT

"Clara O. Pierce made a great contribution to the fraternity world and as one of the people who admired and respected her I want to express to you my thoughts about her. As a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity and a director and officer of the international organization, I asked Clara for help

The actives speak on scholarship

Grades are the yardstick and it would be a wonderful scholarship program that would look not at that yardstick but at what is being measured.

A-Akron

We have devised an innovative and wonderfully effective program including a system of "advisers" (actives) and "advisees" in the chapter. There are 12 advisers, each of whom have about four advisees, who are majoring in similar areas. It is the adviser's job to keep in constant contact with her advisees, encouraging them to study, and especially to help them with any particular study problems. Every active and pledge, regardless of grade average, has an adviser, or is one. All the advisers make up the scholarship committee. We have found that this personal approach really works!

BARBARA BURNETT
Scholarship Chairman
Ω-Kansas

A unique way to keep quiet hours has worked in our chapter. When anyone gets loud, a nice soft-sounding bell is rung. It works very well and is so much nicer than the noise that usually accompanies trying to enforce quiet hours. The girl on phone duty is in charge of doing this, but anyone may ring the bell.

Γ H-Washington State

While it is a truism that there are actives in the house who simply cannot benefit from mandatory study hours, a sound scholarship program is crucial for pledges. During the freshman year, attitudes and study habits are being formed which will carry through the remainder of college. Enforcement is especially important in maintaining the proper respect for scholarship. A pledge should not be made to feel that the scholarship program is merely a set of impersonal rules, but should feel that the house is concerned with her as an individual and her scholarship problems. This is why a good scholarship program would benefit from scheduled seminars before exams, a tutor program within the house, and a scholarship committee with whom members feel they can discuss their individual problems.

B Z-Iowa

An individual motivates herself scholastically. Very rarely can the program stimulate one to study harder except in the problem cases where restrictions cause this. The program is most effective in helping those below the initiation average. As sisters, scholarship aid is offered by individuals not as part of the program. A scholastic awareness prevails to do well for your sisters.

Γ Ψ-Maryland

Each chapter member knows the importance of high scholarship, but our scholarship program has also tried to instill in each member a desire to achieve in other areas, for only by this can a girl be well-rounded and feel a sense of accomplishment in all areas of pursuit. Most of us are using our potential to the best to prepare us for meeting the demands of the society of which we are a part.

E H-Auburn

We feel that the majority of our members are motivated. Yet it is impossible to judge why. The faculty, the student body, and the Greek system are all contributing factors. Attitude of the chapter is important. But studying and "real thinking" are things each girl must do on her own.

Δ II-Tulsa

What creates a positive scholastic attitude is something that comes from within a group. We admire achievement as a group and it is very seldom that a girl who does poorly does not feel a strong desire to improve. Having a good time is becoming less relevant to the college woman as she learns that there are far more serious needs to fill her time.

SUE HOLYOKE
Scholarship chairman
Δ Γ-Michigan

Basically, our scholarship program emphasizes courtesy for one another. We have quiet hours all the time except around meal times. To enforce these hours, we depend on individual courtesy.

CAROL OWEN
Scholarship chairman
B Δ-Illinois

The scholarship program shall aim to reflect the Fraternity's general standard of excellence. In particular, it shall attempt to aid each individual to discover and utilize her own unique capabilities, both scholastically and as a member of society.

Δ Ψ-Texas Tech

The pledge manual was a new addition to our scholarship program, and I felt it turned out to be most beneficial. The grade sheets at the end of the booklet were turned in weekly; in this way the committee tried to patch up loose ends in our pledges' studies. It paid off . . . I would definitely recommend this for other chapters.

LINDA GORENFLO
Scholarship chairman
E E-Emory

I've centered my program around this idea of individual contact being a more influential factor than inflexible, written down rules.

VICKI SCHICK
Scholarship chairman

Worthy of pride— past, present and future!

by MARTHA GALLEHER COX

Director of Philanthropies

Very often these days, the question is asked, "Will the Fraternity system survive?"

The Philanthropy Story of Kappa Kappa Gamma answers a resounding YES. Our two-pronged program provides evidence of our members' interest in these vital factors of the American scene:

1. Promoting higher education for women.

A total of 2,604 young women, both members and non-members, have received assistance from Kappa's scholarship aid program. Kappa's contribution to society through these young women is immeasurable, for they continue to serve as teachers, doctors, artists, technicians, homemakers, and in all walks of life.

This year, $31,875 has been awarded in the following categories:

Fellowships	13
Special Grant	1
Foreign Student Fellowships	5
Foreign Study Fellowships	2
Graduate Counselor Scholarships	2
Rehabilitation Scholarships	15
Undergraduate Scholarships	35
Emergency Scholarships	12
TOTAL SCHOLARSHIPS GRANTED	85

2. Serving human need in the broad field of rehabilitation.

Through Fraternity participation as active chapter members, Kappas have learned the art of living with people, leading people, sharing with people. Through Fraternity participation as alumnae members, these qualities have shown the following results in the year 1968-69:

Gifts to local philanthropic projects	$49,73.11
Volunteer hours of service in the name of Kappa Kappa Gamma	66,317

169 alumnae groups reported service in these various projects:

Aid to the physically handicapped	80
Aid to the socially deprived	68
Aid to the mentally retarded	44
Aid to the emotionally disturbed	32
Aid to the aged	16
TOTAL PROJECTS SERVED	240

There is an ever growing need for the kind of time, talent, and money demonstrated in these figures. Fraternity members are highly motivated to give of their time, talent and money to answer these needs. Others also respond to these human needs. No one does it better.

On following pages read about:

- a) The Kappas, both groups and individuals, who have given generous contributions to make the scholarship aid program possible.
- b) The students, both members and non-members, graduates and undergraduates, who have earned Kappa's scholarship grants.
- c) Former scholarship recipients whose lives demonstrate the wise use of Kappa scholarships.

Fellowships

It is with pride that the thirteen Fellowship recipients for 1969-70 are presented. Kappas everywhere will share the honor of assisting these outstanding young women. Jewelry rebates provide most of the funds for these awards. Group and individual gifts are gratefully received to make possible a greater number of grants, for the worthy applicants always exceed the available Fellowships. The Houston, Texas Alumnæ Association, for the sixth year, and the North Woodward, Michigan Alumnæ Association, for the fourth year, have given their gifts of a full Fellowship in the amount of $500.

Where are they now?

In the 1967 Winter issue of THE KEY, Judith Dodge Breneman, B M-Colorado, was listed among the Fellowship recipients for that year. To state that she led the academic procession at her graduation as the Outstanding Woman Student is sufficient evidence of all she did to earn that Fellowship.

Today, Judy Breneman is the assistant director of the San Francisco Boys Chorus. She is the wife of David Breneman who is studying for his Ph.D. in Economics at the University of California in Berkeley, and mother of three-year-old Erica. She received her master's degree in music education from San Francisco State in January.

The San Francisco Boys Chorus is a unique 21-year-old musical organization for boys from 8 to 13 years old. Inter-racial and inter-cultural, the chorus provides boys with a deep appreciation and love of music, and trains them in repertoire, skills, and theory. The boys sing with the San Francisco Opera and Symphony on radio and television, at civic functions and cultural events throughout Northern California, performing with world-famous singers and conductors. Just as important is the chance for each boy to grow in personal maturity, and independence, to develop disciplined behavior, interracial understanding, cooperation and leadership ability.

Judy Breneman works with three members of the San Francisco Boys Chorus. Billy Denebeim, center, is the son of Elizabeth Bennitt Denebeim, Kappa Province Director of Chapters.

Foreign Study- Foreign Student scholarships

Ninety-nine foreign students have received scholarship aid through the Fraternity since 1937. Most of these young women have returned to their own countries to use their education and talent to help their own people. During the same period, 59 Kappas have received scholarships to study abroad. Of particular interest this year is the first award of the Susanna Stover Root foreign language scholarship given for study in the romance languages. Cynthia McNown, Ω -Kansas, is the first recipient of this award.

Foreign study awards

Bonnie-Leigh Boehm

Cynthia McNown

Bonnie-Leigh Boehm, Δ B-Duke, is studying for an M.A. in German literature and language under the Tufts University Graduate Studies Program at Eberhard-Karls Universität, Tübingen, Germany. In addition to Kappa's award she also received a Fulbright-Hays grant.

To obtain her master's degree, after completion of 10 months of academic work, Bonnie-Leigh will be required to defend an original thesis before a committee of the graduate school at Tufts. She plans to teach on the college level.

She served her chapter as assistant to the second vice-president for two years and as pledge trainer and was delegate to the 1968 General Convention. Her honors include $\Phi K \Delta$ (Mortar Board equivalent), $\Delta \Phi A$ (German scholastic honorary) and dean's list. Among her campus activities were legislator and executive secretary of student government, class secretary, editor of Outlook 70 (Handbook for the entering class of 1970), dormitory house council member.

Bonnie-Leigh wrote, "I can't begin to express my deep appreciation of this grant and of the faith in my potential which it denotes."

Cynthia Leigh McNown, Ω -Kansas is the first recipient of the Susanna Stover Root Foreign Language Scholarship which was established by Mr. Robert Root in memory of his wife, a member of Delta Alpha chapter.

Cynthia is studying for an M.A. in medieval French literature at the University of Strasbourg, France and preparing to teach French and French literature.

She spent her freshman year at L'Ecole Alsacienne in Paris and her junior year with her parents in Nairobi where she worked as secretary and research assistant to an anthropologist. She completed her college work in three years with excellent grades and received a $1,200 direct exchange grant from the University of Kansas to the University of Strasbourg.

Because of working part-time and a heavy academic schedule Cynthia's time for other activities was limited but she served her chapter as scholarship chairman. The degree she seeks will take two years. She is very grateful for Kappa's award.

Foreign student awards

Felicie Affolter, from Switzerland, expects to obtain her Ph.D. in speech pathology and audiology in the spring of 1970 from Pennsylvania State where she has been studying since 1967. She holds degrees from the University of Geneva, University of Heidelberg and the University of Minnesota. In addition to English she is proficient in German, French and Italian.

After obtaining a master's degree in speech pathology in 1961 from the University of Minnesota, Miss Affolter returned to St. Gallen, Switzerland as director of the audiology clinic there. However, she soon felt the need of more advanced training. Penn State offered a clinically oriented program leading to the Ph.D. degree and also a graduate assistantship. However, because of teaching part-time she was not permitted to take a full program of study. Kappa's award for this year will enable her to obtain her degree more quickly and return to the clinic where she is needed.

Celeste O. Botor, from the Philippines, entered the University of Iowa in the fall of 1968 and plans to complete her work for a Ph.D. in education in August 1970. She is on leave as an assistant professor of English at the University of the Philippines where she will return to teach and write books and text books for children.

Nobuko Ishimoto, from Japan, was able to complete her work for an M.A. in English at the University of Missouri during the 1969 summer term because of Kappa's award. She had obtained an M.A. in education from the University of South Alabama in June 1968 and entered the University of Missouri in the fall of 1968 where she was given a scholarship and an award from Altrusa to help cover her expenses for two semesters. She also helped herself with a part-time job but had no resources for the summer term.

She plans to return to Japan to teach English language and literature at a university.

Tsi-chieh Liao, from Taiwan, Republic of China, entered Indiana University in the fall of 1968, majoring in college student personnel administration, and obtained an M.S. degree in August 1969. She is continuing her studies at Indiana for a Ph.D. in education.

She plans to return to Taiwan either to teach in a university or to work as an assistant to the head of the department of higher education, ministry of education, Republic of China. Without Kappa's help she probably would have been unable to continue as her father, who supported her for the past year, is not in sympathy with her desire for further education.

Asha Marwah, from India, is studying for a Ph.D. in education at the University of California, Berkeley. She obtained an M.A. from California State at Hayward in June 1969. She plans to return to India where she hopes to open a school for socially disadvantaged children with high intelligence. She wrote, "I have reason to believe that government funds would be made available to me if the Indian government were convinced that I was suitably qualified to undertake such a task; hence my desire to obtain a Ph.D. in education from the United States."

Are you contemplating a profession or career requiring knowledge of a foreign language? Would you like to study for a year in the country of the language being studied? Write to Mrs. James Eldridge, Route 2, Box 32, Lenexa, Kansas 66219 for an application blank and information about the Susanna Stover Root Foreign Language Scholarship available to graduate student members of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Deadline for applications to be received is March 1, 1970.

Where are they now?

Suzanne Chamier, Θ-Missouri, received one of Kappa's foreign study scholarships in 1967 and spent a year studying in Switzerland and France. Upon her return she attended the University of North Carolina to begin a master's degree in French.

While at North Carolina she has received a first year graduate scholarship and last spring the graduate school awarded her a National Defense Education Association fellowship for three years of further study.

In writing her impressions of her year as a student abroad, Suzanne reflects:

"Although the course week has been a guide to reading, integration into the university system is difficult, both for foreigners and for the French . . . Were I to return immediately for another year's study, I would attempt to establish from the first of the year and with the support of an American educational institution, a regular meeting time with a professor, to insure this contact and criticism.

"The fairly advanced student of literature must remember that his level of expression in French does not correspond in any way to that of a French student at his educational level. This is frustrating because a student finds himself in classes in which the difficulty of the work satisfies his intellectual curiosity but in which he cannot participate fully because of the language problems.

"Nevertheless, the exposure to a completely different system of education is beneficial. The time for reading, for talking to people, for personal rather than academic considerations of one's small world as well as the larger one, together these luxuries supplement the best teacher of all, travel."

Rebekah Thompson Eldridge, Ω-Kansas, is the new chairman of Foreign Study—Foreign Student Scholarships. Application forms may be secured from her. The forms for Foreign Study Scholarships should be completed and returned to her by March 1. Foreign Student applications should be returned by February 1. Mrs. Eldridge's address is Route 2, Box 32, Lenexa, Kansas 66219. Income for these Fellowships is provided by gifts, bequests and by one-third of the rebates from jewelry sales.

The Graduate Counselor program

Funds for Graduate Counselor Scholarships are provided by the interest earned on the Students' Aid Endowment Fund, and by gifts. More and more alumnae groups are recognizing the good that is accomplished by this program, both from the standpoint of furthering the education of outstanding students, and in strengthening the Fraternity through this kind of personal assistance to our active chapters. Groups and individuals who contributed to the program this year were:

Dallas, Texas, $500

Denver, Colorado, $500 in honor of Eleanor Goodridge Campbell, B M-Colorado

Miami, Florida, $350 in memory of Elizabeth Ballard DuPuis, P^A-Ohio Wesleyan
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, $350

Richardson, Texas $350 in honor of Clara O. Pierce, B N-Ohio State

Mary Agnes Graham Roberts, Y-Northwestern, $200

Rochester, New York, $200 in honor of Marjorie Matson Converse, I Δ -Purdue

LAST YEAR

Four outstanding Kappas were able to pursue graduate studies with the help of Graduate Counselor Scholarships. Four good Kappa chapters are better and happier because a Kappa counselor was with them. Take their word for it!

From a chapter who had a counselor last year came this comment:

"Our chapter sends you a big thank you for sending our counselor to us. She is just what the chapter needs. She is a quiet worker who listens before speaking, and the chapter respects what she says."

The advisory board of a chapter who had a counselor wrote:

"We want to go on record with a standing ovation for an outstanding Kappa! Our counselor understands our problems and with her Kappa background and her sincere loyalty, she has given us a real boost!"

A counselor herself wrote:

"I want to tell you all what a wonderful year I had as a graduate counselor. I was able to do graduate work that I never dreamed possible, and will receive my master's in August. But what really made this year special was working with this chapter and becoming a part of it. I believe in Kappa even more, and I appreciate the opportunity I had to repay a little of what has been given to me by Kappa!"

Graduating Kappas interested in applying for a Graduate Counselor Scholarship should contact Mrs. Wiles E. Converse, 83 Stoneleigh Court, Rochester, New York 14618 as soon as possible and no later than February 1. Maximum scholarship covers tuition, board and room. Chapters interested in having a Graduate Counselor live with them, should, likewise, apply by February 1. The chapter is responsible for the room and board for the graduate counselor.

THIS YEAR

Mary Hendershott graduated from the University of Arizona last June. She is a counselor for Delta Sigma chapter at Oklahoma State University where she is working on her master's degree in clinical psychology and hopes to go on to her Ph.D. Mary is interested in working with emotionally disturbed children and would like to teach on the university level while doing research in educational psychology.

Producer-director of the Miss University of Arizona pageant was just one of many campus responsibilities which culminated in her election to Chimes and Mortar Board. She was rush chairman for Gamma Zeta chapter, and helped with her college expenses by modeling.

About her position as a graduate counselor, Mary says, "I am so thrilled to have this job opportunity of staying active in Kappa for another year. Kappa means so much to me and has done so much for me that there is really no effort involved."

Loretta McCarthy, F Z-Arizona, is a name many will recognize, for she traveled as a field secretary last year. Now she is working for a master's degree in business administration. What better way than to share her Kappa knowledge and experience with another chapter while pursuing her graduate studies?

One of Kappa's traditionally outstanding chapters, Beta Mu at the University of Colorado, recognized the need for new ideas, for weeding out bad habits, for ways of making the Fraternity system relevant on their campus, for re-emphasizing the things which had meant strength in the past. They felt a graduate counselor could help them answer those needs.

Loretta found the graduate work she wanted at Colorado, was accepted in their graduate school, and accepted the challenge of working with Beta Mu to achieve the goals they had set for themselves.

NEXT YEAR

Any Kappa planning to attend graduate school next year can apply for a graduate counselor scholarship, and is urged to do so as soon as possible.

Any chapter which recognizes the potential value of a counselor and wishes to apply for one should write to the chairman.

Any individual or alumnae group who would like to promote this vital Fraternity program is invited to make a gift to this Fund.

The Chairman urges anyone interested to act promptly. Important as this program is to the continuing success of our chapters, it is a difficult program to administer. Applicants should be girls who have had good chapter experience, and should be available in late August for a week of training. Applicants should have sufficiently high grades to be admitted to graduate school.

Chapters wanting counselors need to be aware of the difficulty in finding just the right girl, who can pursue her course of study on that campus, and who can be admitted to that graduate school. Every effort is made to bring the many facets of this program together for the mutual benefit of the student and the chapter. None of it would be possible without the financial support of loyal alumnae members.

Rehabilitation scholarships

“Societies are renewed . . . if they are renewed at all . . . by people who believe in something, care about something, stand for something.”

Dr. John Gardner in Self Renewal

Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity's philanthropic program of rehabilitation is helping in many ways to renew our society. In the last biennium, our members volunteered more than 101,000 hours to hospitals, schools and other agencies serving the physically handicapped, the mentally retarded, the emotionally disturbed, the socially deprived and the aged. In addition these alumnae groups contributed over $99,000 to various rehabilitation projects in their local communities.

Kappa Kappa Gamma also provides scholarships to young women who are training as professional workers in the various rehabilitation fields. These scholarships made possible by the generous gifts from the alumnae groups to the Educational Endowment Fund are awarded to Kappas and non-Kappas on both the graduate and undergraduate level.

Rehabilitation Name Award scholarships were received this year from the following alumnae associations:

Cleveland, Ohio, $500
Cleveland West Shore, Ohio, $300
Dallas, Texas, $500
Fairfield County, New York, $500
Indianapolis, Indiana, $1,000
Kansas City, Missouri, $1,000
San Francisco, California, $350
Toledo, Ohio, $1,000

Celebrating Kappa's 100 Years: Centennial Scholarships

The annual Rehabilitation Scholarships will be replaced during 1970-71, for one year only, by the Kappa Kappa Gamma Centennial Scholarships, one on every campus where a Kappa chapter is located. Applications may be obtained from the financial aids office on the campus where the applicant expects to study, or write to Mrs. H. A. Fausnaugh, 20126 Westhaven Lane, Rocky River, Ohio 44116. Deadline for filing is February 15, 1970.

Where are they now?

It would be impossible to assess the value of the influence exerted on society by the 134 young women who have been assisted with their education over the past 17 years through Kappa's rehabilitation scholarship program. The work of just one of these young women, Susan Butler, Δ Δ -McGill, illustrates how far-reaching the benefits can be.

Susan attended graduate school at the University of Michigan and Harvard where she was awarded a scholarship to study psychiatry and psychology. After finishing a course at Hawthorne Center for Emotionally Disturbed Children in Michigan she returned to take up a post at Montreal Children's Hospital. As head therapist there for three years she specialized in the rehabilitation of children with learning defects.

She went to the University of London in 1966 where she is reading for a Ph.D. in psychology under the directorship of Professor Jack Tizard. When the thesis is completed this Spring she will have to reach a decision regarding future employment. She would like to continue research into learning problems and at the same time work in a clinic for learning problem children and teach in the related area at the university level.

The recipient of two Kappa rehabilitation scholarships, Susan explains her research project on reading prediction which was aided through Kappa funds.

This research project is concerned with the early identification of children 'at risk', that is, children who despite normal potential ability are likely to have difficulty achieving academically at school.

To make the study manageable in size the specific area concentrated upon was academic difficulty manifesting itself in reading disability. The Isle of Wight was selected as the location for the study due to its size, stability of population and physical location. A permanent medical and educational research centre had been established there and the senior research officer, Mr. Leslie Rigley, was available to make contacts with the schools.

Children tested were entering school for the first time in September 1967. There were 11 infants schools and 25 combined junior and infant schools involved. The study was normative in that all children were seen.

A special medical examination devised by Dr. Martin Bax with an emphasis on the detection of learning problems was administered by three pediatricians. The audiologist did a pure tone hearing test and the school nurse tested the vision. The psychological battery was devised by Susan in conjunction with her tutors, Professor Jack Tizard and Mr. William Yule.

Susan reviewed the tests available for this age group and with the assistance of Miss D. Wood did an initial pilot study in London schools to assess the applicability and practicality of the tests.

In the spring of 1968 one third of the sample was given the Wechsler Preschool and Primary Intelligence Test to obtain an estimate of the intelligence range in the sample and its relation to the other information collected. From the initial testing using the psychological battery Susan had obtained a reasonably related sampling of children's entering behaviour. As reliability was not available a retest was necessary to provide this information. These tests were administered during the summer term of 1969.

The results of the psychological battery for these children were compared with the results for the rest of the sample and certain patterns emerged. It appears that specific subtests are better discriminators between 'at risk' and non 'at risk' children in terms of functioning ability on group reading tests. Possibly with further analyses a battery of tests can be constructed which will discriminate adequately yet be less costly in time and materials. Further individual testing was done using the Neale Analyses of Reading Ability. In all 148 children received this test; a control group, the children selected as 'at risk' on either psychological or medical criteria and those children selected by the teachers as low in reading ability, in need of special education or as excessively awkward. Analysis of this material is in progress.

chapter planning or unfair encroachment on individual time, then the very nature of the chapter makes it difficult, if not impossible, to realize any scholastic accomplishment. Conditions such as these constitute a hypocritical abandonment of our moral principles.

Yes, there are moral responsibilities inherent in scholarship, and members of Kappa Kappa Gamma are clearly committed to them, for we have proclaimed that excellence will be our guiding principle. Further, Kappas commit themselves to mutual helpfulness toward this end. This means that each uses his strengths and talents to help one another achieve scholastic self-esteem.

The individual Kappa has a dynamic role. As the individual is better able to perform, the more we can accomplish as an organization and the more the worth of Kappa is enhanced. The more Kappa grows in competence and quality, the more the individual can grow as a person for there is a wider scope for individual attainment, and the circle widens as her life touches others.

So, although changes in our educational system should and are being made, let us first see to the quality of our scholarship. Our great colleges and universities are vast repositories of knowledge. It is there for you. In fact, as Will Durant says, "The whole world of knowledge, technology, morals, manners, government, literature, philosophy, and art is your heritage, which has grown incredibly through the centuries and is so rich that you will never be able to exhaust it. Drink the brimming cup of life to the full. . . ."

An open letter—

Dear editor:

"I have wondered if any Kappas have written and told of the importance rehabilitation has made in their lives? Watching the Kappa Centennial Fund and knowing it goes toward rehabilitation scholarships has made me want to say a thank-you to the people involved in rehabilitation who have helped us.

"Prior to August, 1967, our family had no need for facilities of rehabilitation. That month our oldest son underwent open heart surgery to correct a congenital heart defect. He developed complications following the initial surgery and was operated on two times more, making three major surgeries in 24 hours. He suffered lack of oxygen following surgery and was left with what we believe is minimal brain damage, a paralyzed soft-palate, and a weakening of the small-muscle coordination.

"We were fortunate to relocate in a city with excellent rehabilitation facilities; something that we knew so little about. This seems to be always the case until the need for these services enters our life.

"Our boy is now seeing a speech pathologist, an occupational therapist, swims in a heated therapy pool and is enrolled in a pre-school for handicapped children. His speech is better although progress is extremely slow. His small-muscle use and social interaction has also improved. Through the work of these rehabilitators, our son's future has some promise.

"I don't pretend to be a journalist but I felt maybe our experience and subsequent need of rehabilitation services might bring the Kappa Centennial Fund closer to the individual Kappa. I know there are many other stories like ours but this is my way to express appreciation to those involved in rehabilitation and those making it possible for young people to enter and continue in this field. It has been a vitally important factor to this one Kappa family."

Fairfield County helps rehabilitation

Sarah Harris Rowe, Γ-Northwestern, former grand president, has made a $1,000.00 gift to the Rehabilitation Center of Southern Fairfield County through the Fairfield County, Connecticut Alumnae Association. Her daughter, Sarah Rowe Kanaga, Γ-Northwestern, served as president of the association and in 1964 that association honored her mother by giving a $1,000.00 graduate scholarship in Mrs. Rowe's name.

In presenting this gift to Elizabeth Simpson Schneider, Γ Δ-Purdue, Fairfield County president, Mrs. Rowe said, "Several years ago when your alumnae association gave $1,000.00 to the Kappa philanthropic program for a rehabilitation scholarship honoring me I was so much thrilled and delighted that I promised myself I would match it, hopefully soon, said money to be used also for a scholarship in the field of rehabilitation. I am now sending the check; in this way showing my deep appreciation for your earlier gift in my name, and also with a desire to honor my daughter Sally for the splendid work she has done along with your association in this really great field of rehabilitation."

Sarah Harris Rowe

Attending the volunteer tea given by staff members of the Rehabilitation Center were Sally Kanaga; Mrs. Stewart Y. Fish, volunteer chairman of occupational therapy; Mrs. Richard C. McCurdy, board president; Constance Sigrid Peterson, X-Minnesota, staff club president.

Undergraduate scholarships

Since 1936 the Undergraduate Scholarship program has been an important part of building strength into our active chapters. These scholarships are awarded to students maintaining a "B" average who have been highly recommended for their important contribution both to the chapter and to the campus. They are students who need financial assistance. Kappa is fortunate to be able to provide it through the generosity of individuals and groups who have provided gifts ranging from $200 to $400. Several applicants who were rated especially high by the judges were given two Name Awards.

Recipients of these scholarships feel a special responsibility as members of their Fraternity. Donors of these scholarships feel a special pride in playing an important role in the undergraduate program of the Fraternity. In addition to the ones listed, Name Award scholarships were donated by Columbus, Ohio, LaGrange, Illinois, Northern Virginia and Palo Alto, California in memory of Susan Dyer, B H-Stanford.

Where are they now?

One of Beta Chi's most outstanding recent graduates, Nancy Fitch Bryant, earned her degree from the University of Kentucky two years ago with a major in special education as well as elementary education.

At the end of her sophomore year Nancy applied for a Kappa undergraduate scholarship. She was among the recipients chosen for an award (the Lexington Alumnae Association scholarship honoring Curtis Buehler) and she was again honored the following year. Nancy says, "I'm so grateful to Kappa's philanthropy program. The awards enabled me to secure my education more easily . . . and . . . my scholarships have just meant a great deal to me."

During her undergraduate years, Nancy served her chapter as president, was president of Links and Mortar Board, vice president of Panhellenic, and a member of the women's advisory council.

Married in 1967 to Earl Bryant, Nancy has taught second grade for the past two years while Earl completed his third year in the University of Kentucky College of Medicine. During summer months Nancy has headed a class in remedial reading and she has begun graduate work towards a degree in guidance and counseling.

Active in the Lexington Junior League and in local and state educational activities, Nancy also works with Beta Chi chapter as chapter council adviser. She also has been elected president of the Beta Chi house board.

Nancy and Earl Bryant hold the biography of Algernon Sydney Sullivan, namesake of the high award the University of Kentucky presented to Nancy.

For information about undergraduate Scholarships, write Dr. Susan Rockwood, 614 Garrod Lane, Oxford, Ohio 45056. Dr. Rockwood is a member of B PΔ-Cincinnati. All applications for Scholarships should be in her hands by March 1. Funds for these scholarships come from gifts and bequests which are supplemented with the interest from the Endowment Fund.

New scholarship announced

The Harriet B. Westby Scholarship

The late Mrs. Harriet B. Westby was the house director for Gamma Omicron chapter at the University of Wyoming for 12 years. Her efficient management, warm personality, and sympathetic understanding made the chapter house a home and a haven for chapter members. She was proud of her girls and did all she could to help them. Now her influence is being felt in another way.

Gerald H. Westby of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and his sister, Dorothy Westby Moore, B M-Colo-rado, have presented a gift to Kappa Kappa Gamma in memory of their mother, and her love for her Kappa girls. The gift is stock earnings which are to be used for scholarships for members of Gamma Omicron.

This year the Westby Scholarship is awarded to Christine Davis Inkster. Chris is typical of the fine type Kappa of whom Mrs. Westby was so proud. President of Gamma Omicron chapter as an undergraduate, Chris was a member of Spurs, Chimes, Mortar Board, Φ B K, Φ K Φ and is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is now a graduate student in English and will complete her master's degree in 1970. Her husband, Bob, is also a graduate student in English and both plan to teach. Chris has had a teaching assistantship while studying, and has somehow found time to be a mother to Matt, their year old son. She continues her interest in Kappa as an adviser to Gamma Omicron chapter, and was marshal of Eta Province Convention last spring.

Emergency scholarships

A few small emergency scholarships are available during the year for upper classmen who face a sudden emergency and are specially recommended by their advisory boards. Such situations should be brought to the attention of the Director of Philanthropies, Mrs. L. E. Cox, 6210 Morningside Dr., Kansas City, Missouri 64113.

Rose McGill Fund

She was a Kappa. She died after a long, hard battle of over 20 years with a dreaded disease. Her two little girls grew to lovely young womanhood under the care of a loving father during those years when their mother was confined to a hospital. Every month a small check came from the Rose McGill Fund. Of equal importance with the financial assistance was the personal note of interest and concern from the chairman. The responding notes of gratitude from the husband of this member of the Rose McGill "family" were an inspiration to the chairman. Through the years his letters told of their daughters, and included pictures of the happy, though in some ways tragic but valiant family.

This is just one of the many families over the years who have felt the loving outstretched hand of Kappa toward a sister and her loved ones. Gifts from groups and individuals, as well as Magazine Agency earnings, have made this possible. Every gift, of whatever size, expresses love and concern for a sister in need. For those who found it possible to give $100 or more, we gratefully list this honor roll:

ALL SIGNS POINT TO THE CENTENNIAL CONVENTION

by LORETTA MCCARTHY
T Z-Arizona

The 1970 Centennial Convention next summer is an event which promises to be as spectacular as it is informative. The place is the French Lick-Sheraton Hotel in French Lick, Indiana where Kappas will join in the celebration of the Fraternity's 100 years.

The convention, to be held June 24-July 1, is designed to appeal to all members, as well as officers and advisers. It will be a time for everyone to share the fine thinking taking place in each of our chapters. The active chapter members have so much to offer such a gathering as this and it is through the earnest participation of many of them that the convention will offer a fine balance of age groups and perspectives.

There will be recreation time, too. Some of the events include the Kappa Pickers from Delta chapter and an evening of professional entertainment. It is hoped that many active visitors will attend and that some may wish to take part in a swimming event on Sunday afternoon.

Although not catagorized as recreation, an exciting part of convention is award time.

The recipients of awards are filled with joy and the onlookers are thrilled also.

Just one week in Indiana next summer should provide a sense of meaningful heritage, as well as leadership training for today. Come to the convention ready to discuss the nature of fraternity life in the general sense, its function, responsibilities and focus on the future.

And come prepared to exchange specific ideas and programs with actives and advisers from the entire United States and Canada. The valuable aspect of such a convention is the broad spectrum of participants, and it is that very quality which can make it a thrilling and memorable experience, not soon to be forgotten.

Those attending this convention will find it to be an adequate combination of:

- the interested and the interesting
- the stimulated and the stimulating
- the thoughtful and the thinking
- the experienced and the experiencing.

The 1970 Centennial Convention promises to be a grand salute to our Second Century!

An invitation to French Lick

by HELEN SNYDER ANDRES

B II-Washington

The very thought of being a part of Kappa's Centennial Convention this summer at French Lick, Indiana fills my heart with loving reminiscences and great anticipation. The coming together of Kappas from far and wide to the heart of our land where we had our beginning and where our roots are deepest is an experience to contemplate.

The excitement which every convention generates, the focus on the college campuses, as well as the issues of our nation and the world, will make this convention have a unique and extraordinary significance.

Not only will the delegates and officers of the convention be present, but undoubtedly the greatest number of distinguished Kappas of all ages who have gathered together since the Diamond Jubilee Convention at Mackinac, Michigan in 1946.

The Centennial Convention will enrich your appreciation of Kappa Kappa Gamma for the rest of your life. Every effort is made to provide a week of challenge, comfort, pleasure and accomplishment. Witness the actives who radiate Kappa loyalty and significance in its modern role. The alumnae delegation represents a flattering picture of woman-power throughout the nation.

You will warm with pride to see Kappa's officers in action, demonstrating skill, graciousness, intelligence and dedication in their leadership of the Fraternity. Alumnae who have made their mark in the world will be specially honored. Of outstanding interest will be the culmination of a tremendous centennial program, including awarding of the rehabilitation scholarships on every Kappa campus.

Every convention is an unforgettable event, but only once in a lifetime is one privileged to attend a centennial—to appropriately mark its significance, to welcome back many who have had a part in the Fraternity's greatness, to review a hundred years of change and growth, and to be a part of the planning for the next hundred years.

A black and white photograph of a horse-drawn carriage. Two dark horses are harnessed together, pulling a large, open-sided carriage. Several people are seated inside the carriage. A driver, wearing a light-colored uniform and a cap, stands at the front right of the carriage, holding the reins. The scene is set on a paved street in front of a large, multi-story building with a prominent porch and columns. A vintage car is partially visible on the left, and another car is on the right. The overall atmosphere is that of a historical or tourist attraction.

Has YOUR gift been counted?

Small or large, the Centennial Fund needs your contribution now

During a recent eight-week period in the Centennial Fund Drive, it was noted that:

- 4 Kappas gave Keystone gifts of $500 or more
- 52 Kappas gave Founders gifts of $100 or more
- 765 Kappas gave Loyalty gifts of less than $100 (ranging from $2 to $75)

This totals more than $20,000 in contributions. The Loyalty gifts, alone, swelled the Fund by nearly $11,000 in this sample period.

Thus the smaller gifts do play a very important part in the steady growth of the Centennial Fund. No Kappa should feel her gift is too small to help. The big gifts are needed, but the loyalty gifts add up to an impressive total also. A gift from EVERY Kappa would soon put the Fund over its goal.

Could this be you?

Dear Miss Harter:

Like many Kappa sisters of my vintage, I am beginning to ponder carefully the education of four youngsters, the first of whom goes to college next fall. I am writing checks for the church pledge and the club dues, the insurance premium and the house mortgage. I am trying to amortize the family car in order to have funds set aside for replacement of that celebrated station wagon when the old one finally does quit, as well as put pennies aside for that vacation-away-from-the-children which my husband and I need.

Like many Kappa sisters of my vintage, I therefore filed last spring's request for a Centennial Fund gift carefully away—and planned to forget it.

But when I picked up my dear Kappa sister of 83 from the retirement home where she now lives for our first alum meeting this fall and learned that she had tucked away a $63 interest check which had just reached her from some investment and had labeled it "KKG Centennial," I felt truly ashamed.

Kappa has meant much to me, so with great love and genuine best wishes I send you this very modest gift.

Loyally,
JOAN HELLER ROBINSON

Men for the second century

John A. Schneider, executive vice-president, Columbia Broadcasting System

Men on Mars? Perhaps. Kappas, however, are quite content with their Earth men—Kappa fathers, husbands, sons, brothers, uncles, grandsons, and men friends they respect.

The all male Honorary Centennial Committee was established as a means of showing regard for the men in the lives of Kappas. In every spot on earth where there are counterparts of the Honorary Centennial Committee. Letters and comments from Kappa's men have come from around the world. Accepting Committee membership, Yale University professor Bradbury Thompson told Kappa President Louise Barbeck:

"With a wife, two daughters, two sisters-in-law and several other Kappa relatives, could I say no?"

And the Fund keeps growing

The international scope of Kappa Kappa Gamma is well illustrated by the response to the Centennial Fund Drive. Fifty-eight Regional Centennial Chairmen have been responsible since 1967 for promoting the drive with Kappas in the fifty states, the provinces of Canada and abroad. Each area was assigned a Centennial Fund goal based on the number of Kappas residing therein.

The following progress chart was prepared by Centennial Chairman Anne Harter from reports filed by the Regional Chairmen at the end of the last fiscal year. Each area receives credit toward its Centennial Fund goal from individual gifts, alumnae group and active chapter gifts, blouse sales and Centennial charm sales.

Over the goal pacesetters

A number of areas within the states have surpassed their respective Centennial Fund goals. A great deal of the credit for this record goes to hard-working Regional and Local Centennial Chairmen, enthusiastic alumnae association and club support through group gifts, small and large individual gifts from Kappas living in these areas and consistent sales of monogrammed blouses and sweaters.

The areas listed have excelled in all these aspects of Centennial Fund support and are to be congratulated and sincerely thanked for going "over the top" well prior to the end of the Fund drive.

Lingerie sales help boost Centennial Fund

The sale of monogrammed blouses, sweaters and shells has been a means of support to the Centennial Fund since 1964. Lately an attractive line of monogrammed lingerie has been added to the high quality merchandise offered to Kappas and their friends through alumnae group sales as a means of increasing the income to the Fund. (See ad on page 71).

A number of alumnae groups have been steady and superlative blouse boosters over the years. Recognition of their efforts is made at this time as each sale represents one dollar added to the Centennial Fund.

ATTENTION! MAGAZINE CHAIRMEN!

You can go to the Centennial Convention free! Fraternity magazine director Gwendolyn Dorey Spaid, announces a new "Convention Contest" offered by the Magazine Agency. Air travel will be free to one magazine chairman in each of the 12 provinces. The winner will be determined by the Association or Club with the largest per capita dollar increase in magazine orders by May 1, 1970. Watch for more information in future issues of THE KEY.

Thank you alumnae groups

Alumnæ clubs and associations continue their helpful support of the Centennial Fund with gifts in the name of their groups. The continuous gifts of many associations are now adding up to an impressive total. An example is the record of the Sacramento Valley, California Association which, to date, has provided $2,118.98 in gifts to the Fund. Close behind is the Pasadena, California Association with a total of $2,010.00 in contributions.

A thank you to these alumnae groups for their Centennial Fund gifts received since the first of the fiscal year.

Notes and quotes on recent gifts . . .

"Please accept the enclosed check for the Centennial Fund. It is only a small contribution of $1.00 for each year since I was initiated. I have many fond memories of my active years at Delta Nu and then two years I spent at Iowa State as a Graduate Counselor in helping to establish Delta Omicron chapter there. My Kappa friends are scattered throughout the country, but we find it easy to pick up our conversations when we have the opportunity to meet."

"Kappa meant and means a great deal to me. I held a Kappa Fellowship and hope to be able to pay it back over a period of years in service and money. Perhaps I will be able to contribute to the Centennial Fund before the end of the year. But this is my first year of university teaching and I don't have too much extra."

Notes and quotes on recent gifts . . .

"It is a pleasure to send this check for the Centennial Fund. Being a Kappa for 34 years has been a true privilege and honor. The Centennial Fund has my extra special interest. Doris Seward (Centennial Scholarship Chairman) was a wonderful freshman when I was a senior at Indiana University. For 25 years I have been actively interested as a volunteer in the work of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults. So I am especially conscious of the need for trained personnel in the rehabilitation fields. On many occasions I have heard Dr. Rusk speak and have visited his Institute (of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation) on occasion. The Centennial Project has my sincere support and good wishes."

Kappas are saying . . .

"I am very proud that I have been able to contribute one hundred dollars to the Educational Endowment Fund. Kappa gave me a one hundred dollar Emergency Scholarship during college and now I hope another girl will benefit from the Centennial Scholarship Program."

It's a Centennial idea

Sacramento Valley alumnae are raising money for the Centennial Fund through sales of their Kappa cook book, Kappa's Gourmet Cruise. The book contains recipes contributed by alumnae members and Fraternity officers and is being sold for $1.50 (plus 25 cents for mailing). Copies may be obtained from Mrs. Ray B. Dean, 2923 25th Street, Sacramento, California 95818.

Kappas are saying . . .

"Please forgive my lateness with this Centennial gift. I have just graduated and now have the money to give. My four years as an active have been so rewarding and this gift is the least I can give to Kappa in some small measure of return."

"Enclosed please find my check for $30.00 representing one dollar for each year since I was pledged in 1940. Though I would like to give more, it gives me pleasure to contribute this to such a very worthy means of celebrating Kappa's Centennial."

"No monetary value can ever be placed on the friendships, love and encouragement in developing hidden talents and individuality that I have received from Kappa. The Fraternity means so much and has given so much to me. I welcome the opportunity to give Kappa a birthday present and only regret it cannot be a much larger gift."

A Kappa of 72 years writes, "Dollars cannot measure my love and loyalty to Kappa over these many, many years. I wish you success in this Centennial effort and wish so much I were able to have a larger part in it."

Tributes to Clara O. Pierce and advice on a number of occasions. She was always well informed, kind and helpful. Her passing is a great loss to your organization and its members, as well as to her many friends in the fraternity world generally."

J. PAUL MCNAMARA
Attorney-at-law

AS DO BUSINESS ASSOCIATES . . .

"We must express to someone our deep admiration for Miss Pierce and our appreciation of the privilege of having known and associated with her.

"Her fine mind, her compassion for and understanding of people, her zest for living made all around her better persons for having known her."

LEO T. HOBBS AND FRANCES HANSEN
Insurance consultants

COUNCIL OFFICERS REMEMBER HER STRENGTH . . .

"It seems such a tragedy that she, who had done so much to bring it there, could not see the great culmination of Kappa's achievements at the Centennial convention. The greatest part of the past half-century has been dominated by Clara's influence on the fraternity—the rest of us were only passing glow worms to her enduring star. I am so grateful that I was privileged to be her friend and associate, and I know there are hundreds of others who share my feelings.

"Clara was a marvelously complex person and I loved her for every phase she exhibited to me."

HELEN SNYDER ANDRES
Grand President, 1935-1936

"If I were in trouble I knew I could turn to her. She was one of the kindest and most thoughtful women I have ever known. We shall not see her like again."

ELEANORE GOODRIDGE CAMPBELL
Fraternity President, 1956-1960

AND CHAIRMEN, TOO, WRITE THEIR PRAISE . . .

"She was a truly gallant lady, a loving friend and a dedicated and devoted Kappa sister.

"We shall not look upon her like again."

MIRIAM LOCKE
Chairman of Fellowships

"I know how much she meant to so many who had the privilege of working with her.

"Yet, despite the sense of sorrow, comes the thought of her life's work, reaching out to all Kappas everywhere. Few in this world find the 'calling', in the old-fashioned sense, as Clara Pierce did. Clara's gift for administration, vision and leadership included being able to enlist others in her point of view. Yet if there had been no others—Kappas everywhere—to follow and work with her, Clara's career would not have had the meaning it had for us all. She was indeed blessed in finding her life's work."

ANN SCOTT MORNINGSTAR
Chairman of Public Relations

"I want at this time to express my personal feeling of loss in the death of Clara O. Pierce who has guided our Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity these many years. Our appreciation for a life so inspirationally and dedicatedly lived for Kappa will be hard to evaluate. But I am sure as the years go on her true worth will grow in magnitude. One cannot help but say 'an era has passed' and passed so nobly."

GWEN DOREY SPAID
Director, Magazine Agency

ASSOCIATIONS SPEAK THEIR FEELINGS . . .

"We of Kappa cherish the name and memory of Clara Pierce and her many years of service to Kappa. For most of us alumnae, Miss Pierce as Executive Secretary of the Fraternity, represented the heart of the Kappa family of chapters throughout the country."

NORTH SHORE ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION

"She gave so much of her life to Kappa and we will all benefit for many years from her dedication to Kappa."

COLUMBUS ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION

"Her name is synonymous with Kappa and her dedication and contributions to her Fraternity can never be measured or counted.

"A gracious Kappa Lady has passed from our midst."

TULARE-KINGS ALUMNÆ CLUB

"There must be few people who have so completely dedicated themselves, and belong so completely, to an institution such as our Kappa Clara Pierce. She will surely be missed.

"In these difficult days, those of us who cherish our traditions and value our fraternity membership, deeply regret the passing of one so much a part of something we love."

NORTH JERSEY SHORE ALUMNÆ CLUB

ACTIVES, ALSO, REMEMBER THE NAME OF CLARA O. PIERCE . . .

"Though we never met her, her death is a loss felt by all Kappas for she was part of our family of sisters and an ideal and an inspiration through her exceptional service, loyalty and love. We owe a great deal of appreciation to this outstanding woman, and, above all, a true Kappa."

CAMPUS

HIGHLIGHTS

Karen and Kathy Rechnitzer

Brains run in the family . . . Δ Z-Colorado College, is fortunate to have not one but two top scholars from the same family. Karen and Kathy Rechnitzer from Denver didn't give up good grades when they came to college. They both attend Colorado College as Boettcher Scholars, and Kappa has recognized their hard work with a scholarship key.

Each Founder's Day the Colorado Springs Alumnae Association gives a special key to the new active who had the highest grade point average during her pledge semester. Karen wore this key her first year as an active, and Kathy, two years later, is wearing the same key. As Boettcher Scholars, Karen and Kathy each received a four-year merit scholarship which covers full tuition, books, and fees plus $900 at any college or university in Colorado. Forty Colorado high school seniors from more than 1000 applicants are awarded this scholarship each spring by the Boettcher Foundation.

Both girls serve their chapter as officers. Karen is in her second term as treasurer, and Kathy is scholarship chairman. Even though they have much in common, their academic pursuits express different interests. Karen will graduate in June with a degree in art history. Kathy, a sophomore, is law school-bound and is majoring in political science.

Alumnae Activity . . .

A Night at the Track

"Kome Kaper with Kappa" was a highly successful fund raising event for the Florida alumnae association of Broward and South Palm Beach Counties. The night at the harness track was chairmanned by Suzanne Young Allen, T-Northwestern. Admission tickets included admittance to the track grounds, reserved seating in the grandstand and a buffet dinner. Making much more than anticipated, the alumnae added a $100.00 scholarship which was presented to an area graduating senior. The balance of the funds went to the Centennial fund and local charity.

"Sold" for Kappa

San Francisco Bay alumnae were tremendously surprised by the success of their first fund raising auction. All items auctioned were donated by Kappas, friends and San Francisco merchants, including the mayor's wife, Mrs. Joseph Alioto. Vice-president Sharon Welch Holzknicht, Δ Ω-Fresno State, was in charge of the project. The silent and verbal auction brought $800 for Kappa philanthropies.

Your Zodiac tells you

Let your Zodiac guide you to a successful party was the theme of the Fairfield County Kappa philanthropy benefit. Miss Marsha Lane, Schenley Industries women's marketing consultant, gave suggestions for parties, including menus, decor and clothes for the hostess that were compatible with her Zodiac sign. Zodiac fashions and colors were used in the decorating for this party which brought $350 for Kappa philanthropies.

Scholarship Honors Mrs. Stoner at Delta Pi

Mrs. Catherine O'Rourke Stoner (non-member), long-time house director at Delta Pi chapter, Tulsa, died August 16, 1969.

Members and alumnae of Delta Pi have established a "Kaki" Stoner Memorial Scholarship in memory of their beloved house mother. The annual scholarship will be given to a member of Delta Pi on the basis of scholarship, activities and service to the university and to Kappa.

Fort Worth nets $3,000

The home of Mrs. Clarke Gillespie (pictured left) was one of four featured on the Fort Worth Alumnae Association's Tour of Homes. Patricia Spence Coffey, B Ξ-Texas, (right) was the project chairman.

Almost $3,000 was raised for the Language Development School in Houston and Kappa philanthropies. Featured on the tour were a continuous style show, floral arrangements and an art exhibit at three homes while the Kappa Kitchen sold gourmet treats made by alumnae at the fourth home.

Karousel in Columbus

The Kappa Karousel in Columbus featured a Doll House and many gift items from the bazaar. Proceeds of over $800 were used to help the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Ohio State, and fraternity scholarships. Working at the bazaar were (pictured above), Ruth Ann Stanfield Thomas, Jeannie Yardley Bogen and Janet Nitschke Kienle, all B N-Ohio State.

INDIVIDUAL ALUMNAE RECALL HER VIVIDLY . . .

"I only wish I might add in eloquence my own true feelings. I can only say I am grieved at the passing of one of the most remarkable personages I have ever known.

"Her going surely marks the closing of an era in our world—an era of endeavor and progress for the Fraternity."

ALPHONSINE CLAPP HOWARD, Γ Z-Arizona

"Clara was Kappa. She will be missed but what a wonderful legacy she left us—a fraternity with high ideals and sound principles built upon a solid financial foundation. Would that we could all leave such a heritage behind us!"

ANNE WILSON, B X-Kentucky

Scottsdale Kappas, in an all out effort to instill new life into fund raising activities, gave the "swinging party" of the year. Arizona artists, with samples of their work displayed throughout the charming Mexican style home and patios of Joan Lillevig Meyers, Γ Z-Arizona; discussed their work with Kappas and their many guests. The artists represented a cross section of Arizona talent. Mr. William Schimmel, author and lecturer, delighted the party with his water color demonstration of an Arizona scene which he generously donated as a prize.
