A positive answer to "Why Greek?"

To become a Greek in 1971 is undoubtedly a difficult decision. Reflecting the changing attitudes and more political tenor of campuses, the label "Greek" unjustifiably connotes the political terms, "traditional" and "conservative". Viewed in this way, the purpose of Greeks is unclear to those outside, and even many within. Thus, lack of understanding breeds criticism.

A better understanding of the role of the Fraternity, both on campus and in individual lives, would clear up much criticism. Prospective rushees need to see the opportunities offered by fraternities as they are today, and the benefits to personal lives derived from membership, instead of an ambiguous image partially created by outside criticism. Clarification of our Fraternity's goals need not be taken on the defensive, but rather from confidence based on our merits.

Kappa's history provides a good example of the Fraternity's changing roles. As Kappa has changed throughout the last 100 years, so has its image in the eyes of outsiders. Advocating women's rights to higher education, helping in national war efforts, and participating in philanthropic projects are a sampling of Kappa's purpose. But, while these roles created different public images, one important purpose has remained stable: The aid to an individual's personal growth through fellowship with others has always been a dividend of Greek membership.

The decision to become a Greek introduces unique experiences of living and working with others. Membership in the group brings challenges and responsibilities, as valuable in one's growth as are the purely "fun" times.

I feel that this personal role of the Fraternity merits recognition as the best answer to the political criticism of the times. Recognition is as important among the members, as it is by prospective rushees. Appreciation of the close ties and effects on lives is needed to overcome an attitude of this being taken for granted. Although philanthropic projects are admirable, our age necessitates closer fellowship among individuals as we meet the challenges of a technological society.

Through my experiences as an active, I've found that college almost goes too rapidly to reflect on one's growth through personal relationships or one's own philosophy. Unfortunately, actives don't take the time to really discuss the philosophy of the founders, as reflected in the Kappa ritual. As a member of the Ritual Study Committee I found that contemplation of personal goals and ideals follows discussion of Kappa ideals, whatever one feels about them. This is only one example of the personal role Kappa may play in one's life.

Through contemplation of the personal changes undergone within the Fraternity I feel actives can better understand the role of the Fraternity in their lives. Through the better understanding held by actives, rushees may find a more clear picture of the opportunities of Greek living.

It is up to the actives to take time to contemplate the personal role of the Fraternity in order to make the Greek decision less difficult in the years ahead.

Kappa contributes $107,000 for rehabilitation services

by SARAH ROWE KANAGA
Rehabilitation Services Chairman

Seven medical institutions in the United States and one in Korea have been the recipients of financial support amounting to $107,000 for use in the field of rehabilitation services from Kappa Kappa Gamma. In addition to these institutions, a total of 23 graduate and undergraduate rehabilitation scholarships were granted to boost the total number of rehabilitation scholarships to 51 for this year.

Following a successful Centennial Fund drive which awarded rehabilitation scholarships on each campus where Kappa has a chapter for the school year 1970-71, there was a surplus remaining in the Centennial Fund. Council suggested a committee be formed to study the disbursement of the surplus and appointed Sarah (Sally) Rowe Kanaga, Y-Northwestern, Kappa's Rehabilitation Services chairman, to head the committee composed of Ann Scott Morningstar, B N-Ohio State, and Jane Lindsay Koke, Γ Ω-Denison.

Since Kappa Kappa Gamma identifies with the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine in New York City as the main philanthropy of the Fraternity, the committee met with its founder and director, Dr. Howard A. Rusk, to discuss current needs in the rehabilitation field and in particular at the Institute. Dr. Rusk suggested it would be in the best interests of the Fraternity and rehabilitation if the funds were distributed nation-wide in support of a variety of programs at different institutions.

The committee decided to contact several doctors in key areas of the country to seek information on their projects and needs. After reviewing the quantity of printed material received, the committee met with Dr. Rusk to consider specific requests. The following list was a result of the committee action at that meeting which was agreed on by the finance committee in May and accepted by vote of the Council in June:

Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, New York City.

$20,000 for research regarding brain damage at birth and mental retardation under Dr. Maria Diaz Faro.

$15,000 for two Kappa Kappa Gamma Physician Fellowships at the Institute in the amount of $7,500 each.

Ohio State University Department of Physical Medicine.

$6,000 for a one-year Kappa Kappa

Mr. Jaime Cuzzi operates the Kelsh Plotter to make 3-D measurements from photographs in the biostereometrics laboratory of the Texas Institute for Rehabilitation and Research.

Gamma Physician Centennial Fellowship to Dr. Sharon Denny.

Emory University Regional Rehabilitation Research and Training Center.

$10,000 for a master's program in physical therapy or a research training program for senior physical therapists (persons receiving these funds would be known as Kappa Kappa Gamma scholars or fellows).

Baylor College of Medicine, Texas Institute of Rehabilitation and Research.

$10,000 for research in the use of stereometric analysis for early detection of spinal deformities, particularly scoliosis.

County of Los Angeles Rancho Los Amigos Hospital.

$10,000 for a clinical specialist program in either physical therapy or occupational therapy.

Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago.

$10,000 for a rehabilitation nursing education program.

Woosuk University (Seoul, Korea) Department of Rehabilitation Medicine.

$6,000 for a teaching occupational therapist to be known as the Kappa Kappa Gamma

A physical therapist works with patient at Emory's Rehabilitation Research and Training Center.

Fellow, under the supervision of Dr. Chung Hie Oh.

University of Missouri Medical Center.

$10,000 for a Howard A. Rusk Fellowship, pending approval of a specific recipient.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Rehabilitation Scholarships.

$10,000 for 10 graduate and 13 undergraduate awards. Recipients of these awards will be listed in the Winter issue.

It is interesting to note that Kappa is continuing to aid in the training of people who are so desperately needed in the field of rehabilitation, as well as contributing to the support of research programs. The enormous recent advances made in rehabilitation bear witness to the wisdom of Kappa's selection of this field almost 20 years ago as a national project.

But, one cannot stand still—one either advances or backslides. We strongly urge every active and alumnae to step forward in Kappa's second century with actions, words, and monetary support of handicapped people everywhere.

Many Kappa alumnae will remember with delight Dr. Chung Hie Oh of Seoul, Korea who spent 18 months in the United States during the mid-1950's studying under a special Kappa research grant at the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine in New York. This young woman impressed many alumnae as she visited across the country at the end of her studies and was a guest at the 1956 convention at Swampscott, Massachusetts.

Now Kappa is privileged to assist Dr. Oh's work again through a $6,000 grant to Woosuk University's Department of Rehabilitation Medicine for a teaching occupational therapist. As chairman of that department since 1969, Dr. Oh had written of her need for an occupational therapist and said, "Kappa Kappa Gamma are the only friends I can ask and I know they are most interested in rehabilitation and assisting me over 16 years."

Upon receiving word of the grant, she wrote, "I was so delighted to hear that Kappa sisters have given me a grant of $6,000 for occupational program in Woosuk University. I appreciate very much for all of you Kappa sisters to assist us to provide for those who need help. With all good wishes for you and my Kappa sisters. Chung Hie Oh."

Dr. Maria Faro, assistant professor of experimental rehabilitation medicine, in her laboratory at New York University Medical Center's Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine. Dr. Faro is studying the degree of brain damage and mental retardation resulting in birth asphyxia. Using rhesus monkeys who have been deprived of oxygen at birth, Dr. Faro is focusing on the various learning deficits characteristic of the brain damage caused by birth asphyxia. Dr. Faro is using the data obtained from these studies to develop new teaching systems for the estimated 68 thousand children each year who have overt signs of brain damage. She also hopes to develop diagnostic techniques for the detection of oxygen shortage at birth and excessive accumulation of certain substances in the mother's blood which may lead to brain damage. Dr. Faro's Kappa Kappa Gamma grant will allow her to continue her valuable research.

This fall Dr. Sharon Denny began a three-year residency program at University Hospital in Columbus, working toward certification as a Specialist with the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. At the same time, she is taking courses for a Master of Science in Physical Medicine from Ohio State, one of several schools in the nation to offer the degree. In her position as a Kappa Kappa Gamma Centennial Fellow, Dr. Denny will have the opportunity to add to her general medical background specific diagnostic and therapeutic skills. She will be concerned with patients suffering a variety of impairments, including paraplegia, arthritis, muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, amputation, and a number of less severe disorders.

Kappa receives national award for rehabilitation

Kappa Kappa Gamma is the proud recipient of the 1971 Organization Award presented annually by the National Rehabilitation Association to an organization which has made a significant contribution to helping the handicapped.

This is the first time the award has been presented to a group the first year it was submitted for consideration. The award was presented at the National Rehabilitation Association's national meeting in Chicago in October.

Watch for more details in the Winter issue of THE KEY.

Travel agency to assist convention committee

With the reorganization of the convention committee, and by obtaining the services of a professional travel agency, steps have been made toward streamlining convention procedures. It was felt that by using the skills and knowledge of trained personnel to handle all travel and hotel arrangements, the convention committee would be able to concentrate its efforts and abilities on those things which pertain primarily to Kappa.

The Council has, therefore, secured the services of the Arlington Travel Service, whose President, Mrs. Edie Balyeat, many Kappas will remember from the Centennial Convention at French Lick. Mrs. Balyeat, a diminutive but very knowledgeable young executive, has had 12 years of travel agency experience and is completely familiar with all facets of convention travel, as well as all individual and group travel requirements. She handles convention and post-convention trips for several associations and organizations, and we are confident that her first-hand knowledge will be a valuable asset to us.

She is a graduate of the ATSA Travel Course, has traveled extensively throughout the world, and maintains constant contact with airline representatives, hotel associations, and so forth, keeping completely informed and up to date on travel and hotel conditions in all parts of the world. Arlington Travel Service maintains offices in Columbus, Ohio.

ALL MONIES PERTAINING TO REGISTRATION AND HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS will be sent directly to Mrs. Balyeat at the Arlington Travel Service. Further details will be forthcoming to all those interested in attending the 1972 convention at the Diplomat Hotel in Florida.

The Council and convention committee are sure that Kappas everywhere will welcome Mrs. Balyeat and the Arlington Travel Service as an integral part of the 1972 convention.

You CAN learn to be kind to the environment

by FRANCES CERRA

When Ralph Nader appeared at a Long Island college recently a petite woman had a question for him: "I'm a housewife and I'm concerned about pollution and the consumer," she said, straining to make herself heard in the auditorium, "but what can I do to help?" Her question expressed the frustration of most Americans who have noticed that air pollution has dulled the autumn leaves, that water pollution is closing beach after beach and that pollution of the earth is surrounding our cities with foul garbage dumps.

It's true that industry produces four to five times as much liquid waste as consumers, uses 70 percent of all the nation's electric power and throws away about 94 percent of our solid wastes. But, as that woman recognized, industry's sins do not absolve consumers of their responsibilities to the environment. People can learn to be kind to the environment as individuals, and then, in groups like sororities, on campus or off, can band together to pressure the government and industry to clean up.

Nader answered that housewife's question by telling her not to use products that pollute—like phosphate detergents. He could have listed such items for an hour. Until now, consumers have not used their buying power to tell industry that they do not want products that pollute. Take the disposable craze in bottles, diapers and even cigarette lighters.

Americans are fond of throwing things away, so fond that the United States Bureau of Solid Waste Management is doing research to find out why. Only a few years ago, people not only returned empty soda bottles; the empties were coveted by children as a source of pocket money. Today, most people prefer to throw out disposable soda bottles and cans rather than inconvenience themselves to collect a measly few cents. Out of sight, out of mind. But government studies have already shown that if this trend continues, nonreturnable containers will have virtually replaced the deposit bottle by 1972. That means that there will be some 20 billion cans and bottles littering the landscape and filling garbage dumps unless Americans come to their senses. And don't forget, aluminum cans don't rust.

Industry is already calling the 1970's the "Disposable Decade" and the "Throwaway Age," because they are convinced that consumers' desire for convenience is so strong that they will ignore the threat to the environment. It's time housewives faced a fact: You cannot speak righteously about the local power company polluting the air and then go home and pop a TV dinner into the oven and a disposable diaper on the baby. Prepared foods mean packaging. Garbage. Disposable diapers, paper cups, plates, paper towels—all are unnecessary sources of garbage. And garbage today is either burned, meaning air pollution, or buried in wetland areas like swamps which are homes to birds and animals and spawning grounds for the small organisms that ultimately keep ocean fish alive. Washing diapers and doing your own cooking is trouble, no question; but is there a rational choice?

Many college cafeterias have also been swept by the disposable craze. A collegiate chapter of a sorority is in a fine position to object to the use of disposable plates and flatware. Disposables may save the cafeteria management some labor costs, but what are they costing the environment?

There are other products that ecology-minded consumers can avoid. The phosphates in detergents are thought to be the cause of something called eutrophication, a process that makes lakes and bays fill up with algae and become unfit for swimming and death traps for fish. Lists of detergents and their phosphate contents have been published by the United States Department of Interior and Consumer Reports. Buy detergents with zero or low phosphate contents. And forget about enzyme pre-soaks. They are an additional source of phosphates.

Lead in gasoline is another major pollutant. Some non-lead or low lead gasolines are available now. Buying them will encourage all the oil companies to make unleaded gasolines, and fast.

Long lists of products to avoid can be obtained from local conservation groups, and these are the groups that both collegiate and alumnae chapters can ally with to start efforts to improve the environment. For example, many companies are paying for each aluminum can or bottle returned to them. Besides being beneficial to the environment, this isn't a bad way for a group to make some money.

But the possibilities for group action go far beyond picking up cans or setting up antilitter days. The place to start is by raising the ecology consciousness of the members of your group and anyone else you can get to listen. Bring in guest speakers from conservation groups, ask representatives from local power companies or health agencies to come to meetings and answer questions on what they are doing about pollution. Use college resources, such as the science department, to help organize full-scale teach-in's on the environment.

And how about finding out just who is responsible for polluting that lake near you? If the health department doesn't know who is responsible, put pressure on them to find out. If they do know, then ask them why they haven't done anything about it. If you don't get action fast, show up in a group at your next town board or county legislature meeting. Watch how fast you make headlines when you demand enforcement of existing pollution laws and ask for stronger ones. Watch and see how polite your local politicians will be.

A good example of what can be accomplished happened in the state of Washington last year. The whole thing began as an academic project in a political science class, an exercise to see if students could get enough signatures on petitions to have a referendum put on the November ballot. The students chose an ecology issue, the non-returnable soft drink and beer container. They proposed that at least a five-cent deposit be required on all such containers. The task seemed staggering because the students needed over 100,000 signatures to get on the ballot. Nevertheless, in a little over two months, the students gathered more than 180,000 signatures. The state Democratic convention endorsed the proposal, and so did the Republican governor and attorney general of the state.

Unfortunately, this story does not have a happy ending in the traditional sense. The referendum was defeated, apparently because of strong opposition from brewers in the state. But it is certain that the issue is not dead, and the students found out in the process that they have real power.

Ralph Nader has recognized this fact more strongly than almost any other consumer-ecology leader in the country. He believes that to fight polluters effectively, consumers need public interest lawyers who will represent citizens groups in court cases against polluters big and small and against government agencies that hesitate too long to enforce the law. One such public interest law firm in Washington was recently responsible for stopping the Alaska oil pipeline which conservationists fear would do irreparable damage. The problem with forming such law firms is that they cost money. Nader has proposed, in speeches on campuses around the country, that college students pay $5 or $10 as part of each semester's general fee to set up their own public interest law firm. Instead of demonstrating, then, student groups with a gripe could use the courts to voice their objections. Nader's proposal is just getting off the ground on at least one campus, but the idea offers hope.

Original thinking like this and quick action by individuals and groups is what is needed if the world is to remain a fit place to live. Crowds, noise, dirt and air that stings the eyes are now commonplace characteristics of big cities. Nobody wants to live this way and large numbers of people have fled to the suburbs for escape. But they took with them their cars, their washing machines, their mania for convenience and their indifference. We can learn to be kind to our environment. We must. Or else.

“Why Greek” theme highlights Province meetings last spring

Message from Council:

“What were you saying? Was anyone listening?”

Meetings such as these provide the opportunity to communicate on an open, and person-to-person, basis. We are here, actives and alumnæ, to define our purposes and to discuss the challenges that confront our membership. It will take courage to face these challenges in a positive way, balancing the known values of the Fraternity against the vascillating proposals found in society today. We need to be sure of our position in order to proceed with determination and confidence. Half-hearted measures will only bring confusion and undermine the unity so necessary within fraternal groups.

At our Centennial Convention last June, a report was made by the chairman of “Speak Up.” Several suggestions were made to the Council and this report will indicate the action that has been taken. Other areas of interest will be included.

You said you wanted to know more about the ritual. You wanted to more fully understand its meaning as it relates to today. You wanted to suggest possible changes that would make the ritual more meaningful to your chapter. We were listening. A study committee has now been established to hear your ideas, sift the suggestions, and report the findings at the next general convention. Information concerning this survey has been sent to the membership, soliciting replies and suggestions.

You wanted a resource department established where information could be distributed on a request basis. This idea has been studied for several years and a beginning has been made. Films, slides, pamphlets and other material has been collected and more will be added on a selective basis. A list of such information is being compiled.

The struggle for improved communication is constant and continuous. The need for inner-chapter exchange of ideas is recognized and promoted through a continuation of “Speak Up.” As the chairman stated, this will only be useful if you participate and contribute. The opportunities are limitless. Concerned University People, or KUP, will continue to bring current information of a general nature to your attention. In order to have improved province communications, the officers have been encouraged to have meetings of chapter officers and advisers, in addition to the province meetings. Several have already had such meetings and the results have been exciting.

Flexibility in chapter programming is always acceptable where sincere effort has been made for improvement. This must not mean elimination of necessary organization, but a better use of officers and committees. Good organization is a cohesive factor within a chapter, holding the interest of the members as they participate. The well-organized chapter not only accomplishes the chapter goals, but has more time for the extra services.

Are efforts being made to keep the Fraternity relevant? You will find ideas for service projects in your material at this meeting. These suggestions are to assist those chapters who have voted that they have the time and the number of interested members to attempt such a project. An article in News- week made an astounding revelation. More than 250,000 college students in this country operate, without pay, 1000 programs for mentally retarded children, others conduct classes in hospitals, and still others tutor ghetto children. We are proud of our chapter members who are included in this survey.

Continuous leadership training is vital to the progress of the Fraternity and the Council began several years ago to have such meetings with the Associate Council. This June the ritual study committee will be included at our meeting, as well as the chapter fraternity chairmen. Attendance at Operation Greek seminars has been encouraged, as well as those held by the National Leadership Methods. A new, and exciting, program for the formation of an undergraduate council will be presented at this meeting. This will open another means of communication between chapter and alumnae leadership.

The Council has studied requests for visitation and the use of alcohol within the Kappa Houses. One legal view states that a fraternity house is one dwelling, as opposed to a complex of private rooms, such as a dormitory. The Council sought the opinion of the Fraternity lawyer. His advice, stated in a legal opinion, was that Kappa Kappa Gamma maintain its present policy of disallowing such requests for visitation and alcohol. Where a large university could afford a legal suit and the expenses incurred, the Fraternity would be jeopardizing the financial structure of the entire organization. Too, on these impersonal campuses of today, sororities are unique in their efforts to maintain an area of decency and to protect the privacy of those who live within our houses. If we break down our national structure for all chapters, the Fraternity will be fragmented and resemble only boarding houses. Also, it is well to remember that Kappa houses are owned by all of the members of the Fraternity and thus all members have an interest in the protection of property and furnishings within the house. Security measures for visitation and the opening of the living areas to men on a 24 hour basis are virtually impossible to design.

What of the challenge of individualism? Someone has said, "the true opposite of love is not hate, but indifference." We see this attitude of aloofness as a deterrent to the real purpose of fraternity living. The apathetic member is only concerned with herself and has little interest in the actions of the group. She does not realize the potential to develop her own individuality through chapter participation, encouragement, and promotion of her talents. The real answer to the question, "Why Greek?" is that "we care."

What of the loss of members through resignations? Some of these are due, unfortunately, to the use of drugs which causes apathy and disinterest. Some are due to the desire for apartment living which can leave a chapter house unfilled in numbers and bereft of leadership. The Council has encouraged advisers, house boards and chapters to work together to solve this problem. A house board may now solicit a final decision on apartment living from a chapter, allowing the members to decide if they can afford to release these members. Can they afford the loss of income? Can they afford the loss of leadership, especially of senior members? Finance advisers are asked to report on the chapter budget at an early fall meeting. Undergraduates are encouraged to learn chapter financial obligations and the purposes to which their dues are used.

We trust you are aware that your Council is mindful of your wishes and anxious to explore your ideas. We do hear your voice and endeavor to apply your suggestions as they fall within the larger framework of our Constitution. We are bound by the duties of our offices, and must perform accordingly. While we are mindful of single chapters, the overall picture of 93 chapters is constantly before us. Our strength lies within all 93, combined with the alumnae women who serve so faithfully. While the chapters are "where the action is," the stability of the Fraternity is dependent upon active and alumnae working together.

The theme "Why Greek?" opens a multitude of avenues for discussion. The Council brings you this message with the hopes that it will stimulate your thinking, provide answers for your questions, and renew your faith in Kappa Kappa Gamma as we begin this, our second hundred years. Yes, we are listening.

Mothers and Daughters Attending: Josephine Yantis Eberspacher, B M-Colorado, and JoAnn, Highlights: The 21st biennial meeting of Epsilon Province and the 101st year of Kappa reflected the changes and independence of "coming of age". Instead of being held at the location of the chapter, Eta joined with the Milwaukee Alumnæ and Milwaukee West Suburban Associations in hosting the meeting at the Milwaukee Inn, overlooking Lake Michigan, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

This was a meeting, not a convention, and the atmosphere of informality and flexibility made for easy group discussions and the sharing of ideas and thoughts. The time was shortened to a concentrated day and three-quarters, and delegates and visitors worked diligently to accomplish the purpose of meeting.

The keynote speech, "The Vanishing Greeks" by Dr. James McLeod, Professor of History and Religious Literature, Northwestern University, created a thoughtful and provocative climate for discussions and the roles and challenges for both actives and alumnæ. The Greek system has survived the tests to "exposure, endurance, comparison, and sacrifice" and that which is worth preserving requires effort, responsible attitudes, innovation, and intelligence. The value that comes from belonging to such a group is of greatest benefit to the individual. Munching hamburgers and drinking cokes, the actives continued this theme with Dr. McLeod, PDC Jean Hall, and Field Secretary J. J. Fraser.

The alumnæ, with their lesser powers of concentration, lunched on a low calorie salad and observed the fun and games of attending four or more Province gatherings and the initiation of the Hooters, conducted by Wisest Hooter of all, Jo Eberspacher and her Hooter gallery.

Workshops began again, and the alumnæ gained helpful facts and suggestions for membership, programs, community service projects and philanthropies from presentations by delegates that have had particular success in these areas during the last two years. But the greatest value is the actual sharing of problems and interests of Kappa with the various age groups.

Registration was the busiest time at Epsilon Province meeting.

For, regardless the closeness of an alumnae group with a chapter, it is only through the exposure of listening to actives from more than one campus and meeting alumnae from more than one area that we can understand the attitudes and challenges we all have to cope with—and for us to better communicate and support each other's efforts. The spirit of Kappa—the spirit and closeness that comes with being a Greek creates a bond that cannot be easily put into words but is felt by both active and alumnae.

The beautiful Candlelight Banquet was held at the University Club in the Ladies Dining Room. The colors blue and blue with white were carried out in the centerpieces of hurricanes with blue candles. Milwaukee West Suburban Alumnae were the hostess group and toastmistress was Judy Harrison. Ruth Bullock Chastang was the banquet speaker.

A new club in Naperville, Illinois was formed in the last biennium.

Highlights: Following the theme, "Why Greek", the 21st biennial Zeta Province meeting was held at the Kappa House in Lawrence, Kansas.

The Candlelight Banquet was held Friday evening in the University Student Union with Jeannette Greever Rustemeyer serving as toastmistress. Table decorations of baskets of yellow jonquils, matching candles and blue ribbon runners were contributed by the Kansas City Alumnae Association. Key chain favors were provided by the Topeka Alumnae Association. The Banquet address was given by Council member, Jean Hess Wells.

A new chapter award presented for the first time was the Martha Galleher Cox Award with the following dedication: "With the love and respect which Marty Cox has for Kappa and because of the inspirational guidance she has given to Kappas, the alumnae associations of Zeta Province are presenting a new province award at this meeting to be known as the Martha Galleher Cox Award. It is to be a rotating award presented at the time of the Zeta Province meeting to the active chapter which most clearly exemplifies the qualities of excellence, inspiration and creativity hoped for in a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma."

Highlights: Eta Province's 19th biennial meeting was held March 4-6 at the Quality Motel in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The purpose of the meeting was to cover leadership training in the areas of "Why Greek?", membership selection, and fraternity awareness. For that purpose we turned to professional Caryl Lenahan, executive director of Operation Greek. She was informative, dynamic, enthusiastic and well prepared on her subject. She involved those in attendance with a questionnaire, and participation from the audience. She also provided many pass out sheets with factual information on the how and why to accomplish success in a chapter.

All meetings were joint alumnae and active. The meeting lasted from Friday morning to Saturday noon. The Passing of the Light tradition was conducted by former Fraternity Vice-President Phyllis Brinton Pryor at the close on Saturday morning.

Kay Smith Larson, Director of Membership, gave a State of Fraternity address at an informal banquet Friday evening held at the Broadmoor Hotel. Colorado came up with one of their famous (for Eta Province) snow storms and the roads were very hazardous, but all made the banquet in good spirits.

Highlights: Good restaurants have the most cars parked out front. Good meetings like this year's Theta Province meeting drew approximately 315 Kappas including active and alumnæ delegates and visitors, and an impressive array of distinguished Kappa leaders. We welcomed a new alumnæ group, Hot Springs, Arkansas and a new province, Xi, which will include Oklahoma and Arkansas, Theta now comprising Texas and Louisiana.

Our alumnæ and chapter awards impressively revealed that Kappa is very much alive and 'relevant.' Re-evaluation, new approaches, a real emphasis on each individual knowing and reaching her goals and potential ran through all the discussions. "Happily" . . . all our Theta Province chapters are strong campus leaders, but there is still membership selection problems: more girls have to be . . . "sold." Depledging and resignations (a new phenomona) have to be soul-searched, be it drugs or whatever. Individualism with cooperation is the new look to pledge training, and good scholarship is back in style where it must always be.

All this and then there are the alumnæ groups, again 'individuals.' Theta Province has 2,447 paid members . . . 25 percent of potential. Including philanthropies (Kappa, local and others) assistance to nine chapters and magazine proceeds to Rose McGill, Theta Province has contributed approximately $25,931.00 in the last two years.

"To define our purposes . . . to discuss the challenges that confront our membership" in 93 chapters: This is what it is all about today. To take known Kappa values versus our "oscillating" society values and come out with understanding and leadership . . . to communicate; these are the things that came out during Centennial Convention and are being put into action by a study committee on ritual, a resource department, a continuation of "Speak Up" for inner-chapter communication, and KUP, Concerned University People.

Agenda highlights: Lorna Troop Stegner, Γ Α-Kansas State, our 50 year Kappa who didn't leave a dry eye when with marvelous wit and optimism she told us what Kappa means to a 50 Year Pin wearer; Mary Alice Gordon's (Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Psychology at SMU) learned and fun seminar on "Communication . . . Basic to Effective Leadership"; an inspiring after-dinner workshop by G. Michael Boswell, a Dallas attorney, on "The Law and the College Woman."

What did we 'walk away with'? In my opinion . . . much. Much to be pondered, much learned, much to do, and a much better feeling for Kappa Kappa Gamma's next 100 years!

Highlights: Iota's 24th Province meeting was an action packed affair from start to finish with much pertinent and provocative dialog discussed during the two days the actives and alumnæ spent together.

Friday evening the Tacoma alumnæ welcomed the visiting delegates at the home of Barbara Neils Owens, B II-Washington, for a delightful supper and sparkling conversation amidst the Owens' handsome collection of paintings and art work. The actives were entertained at a Spaghetti Feed at the home of Joan Bonnell Jones, B II-Washington, and her Kappa daughter Betsy, E I-Puget Sound.

Saturday morning gave the delegates an opportunity to hear Dr. Gary Peterson, professor of speech at the University of Puget Sound, discuss the art of leadership. The luncheon on Saturday was indeed a "Notable Affair" when those Kappas who had attended three or more Iota Province meetings were honored by having their names entered on the Notable Iotable Scroll and were entertained by the clever poem composed and read by Jean Hogensen, past PDA.

Last but not least was the Candlelight Banquet, held at the Oakbrook Country Club, where the Kappas were entertained by the Wilson High School Swing Choir and were truly inspired by the speech given by President Barbeck as a fitting climax to an outstanding Province meeting. The unique owl favors that graced the banquet table were painted by a Tacoma artist and Kappa, Marcia Jartun, B Δ-Michigan.

Of special note too, were the delicious baskets of cheese and fruit placed in the motel rooms by the Portland Alumnæ Association, the handsome pots of flowers created by the Lake Washington alumnæ for the Saturday luncheon and the clever owl name tags designed and given by the Corvallis-Albany Association.

for delegates and visitors arriving for the meeting. Following registration and a social hour, a no-host dinner was held in the main dining room of the Inn.

Friday's luncheon was served around the pool. The theme was "Happiness is Kappa" and the decorations, done by the Los Angeles Alumnae Association, used the Peanuts character, Lucy.

The Candlelight Banquet was held in the Terrace Room with Joey Hatch Moeser, Pi Province Director of Alumnae, acting as toast-mistress. The speaker was Marian Schroeder Graham, Director of Chapters. The decorations and favors were done by the Los Angeles Alumnae Association; Santa Monica-Westside was responsible for the actual banquet arrangements. The active members of Gamma Xi entertained with three of their Kappa songs. Six actives from Gamma Zeta also entertained with three songs. During the banquet, fond memories of college days were stirred by the passing of a candle to announce the engagement of one of the active visitors. Following the banquet, a reception was held for alumnae and actives at the Pacific Palisades home of Sally Iredell Gulick, Δ -Akron.

Luncheon was served Saturday at the Gamma Xi house at UCLA, following tours of the house, a panel discussion, and installation of officers. Members of the chapter served as hostesses for the luncheon, which was served buffet style. Guests sat at tables in the dining room or on the patio, enjoying the famous Southern California sunshine.

Two new alumnae groups were the Contra Costa Association and Amador Valley Club.

After the luncheon hosted by the Piedmont-Carolina Club, the afternoon was devoted to workshops. When the workshops were concluded, several delegates and visitors took advantage of the tour of Duke University provided by the Delta Beta actives.

The Friday evening banquet was informal with the various distinguished guests seated at different tables rather than having a head table. Saturday morning the meeting site moved to Montgomery where the Alabama State Day luncheon was held at the Blue Moon Inn. Hostesses were the Montgomery Alumnæ Club. Phi Chapter, Boston surrenders charter

by JESSICA MITCHELL
President, Phi Chapter

The decision to surrender the charter of Phi Chapter in the eighty-ninth year of her history serves to dramatize the problems many chapters all over the country are facing as they begin to implement their rush programs. For us personally, it brought to a climax a struggle in which all Greeks on the Boston University campus have been engaged in for quite some time.

As a large urban university with a great proportion of commuter students and students in off-campus housing, the number of those going through rush declined at a steady rate while hostility toward the Greek system increased. Nothing seemed to help the situation. Panhellenic restructured itself, Operation Greek was brought in, rush became informal, and, most important of all, the sororities themselves began self-evaluative programs. The net result at the fall rush was 200 girls signing up for rush with less than 30 attending open house. A similar turn out was reported at the individual parties.

Phi Chapter, in particular, had only 14 girls to begin with—12 of these seniors—so a large pledge class of underclassmen was a necessity. The situation was not entirely new to us. Often in the past our numbers dropped but the chapter managed to revitalize itself every two years. Last year, however, we could find no girls and it seemed as if none wanted to be found.

The decision whether or not to continue had to be made without much delay and it was a decision not unlike the one each chapter faces every time it considers new membership. We had a responsibility to our heritage—and quite a heritage it was: Three Grand Presidents between 1884 and 1900, initiator of the first Panhellenic Conference, editorship of THE KEY for some of its early years, and the only woman to receive a French Gold Medal of Honor, to mention only a small part of the legacy we received. We also had a responsibility to the future of the Fraternity, to keep it alive by providing members who would find fulfillment and enrichment in fraternity life and thereby revitalize the life of the entire group through communication of these sparks of energy. And so we made the only decision we thought we could.

But if the situation drew our attention to our precarious situation in a community in the midst of change, it also re-affirmed our faith in the values that led us to and sustained us through the period of change. First of all we turned inward to ourselves and each other, to what binds us together and to what is Kappa. We found it to be quite independent of the university situation which initially fostered its growth and to be quite impervious to our shaky surroundings—indeed it was a personal source of strength that grew more stable with each demand made upon it. Secondly we reached out to our advisers and to our national structure. Through the sympathetic guidance of a wonderful Chapter Council Adviser, and an equally fantastic Province Director of Chapters and Field Secretary, we gained confidence in ourselves, our decision, and managed to make it through the confusion of closing a chapter.

Finally we encountered another all important dimension of Kappa at the Alpha Province meeting. The overwhelming sympathy, interest in and sensitivity to our recent problems on the part of all present—actives, Council members and alumnae—provided the moral support we needed to see beyond the sadness of the moment and view our closing within the larger context of the cycle of growth and rebirth that keeps Kappa alive. It was a genuine sharing that spanned distance and age and united us all.

Jessica Mitchell, president of Phi Chapter, presented a $400 check to Director of Philanthropies Seney at the Alpha Province meeting. This money from the chapter's treasury is to be used for an undergraduate scholarship.

And so our Kappa experience has been somewhat more intense but no more real nor no more memorable than that experience by so many others since 1870.

50 Year Pin to Sarah Army

Sarah Brown Army, Γ Δ-Purdue, was awarded her 50 year pin by the Dallas alumnae. THE KEY regrets that Mrs. Army's award was erroneously reported in the Spring 1971 issue as being given posthumously.

Four field secretaries to travel for Kappa

For the first time, four field secretaries will be traveling for the Fraternity this fall. The addition of one more traveler will allow the girls to spend time with the chapters who want additional consultation with the field secretary.

Returning to the job for her second year is JULIANA (J. J.) FRASER, B N-Ohio State. J. J. made these comments about her experiences as a field secretary last year, "I certainly am looking forward to my second year of traveling. I learned a great deal about myself as well as how to work with other people. Traveling to the various campuses and visiting with so many chapters proved how sorority living and cooperation is like a human encounter session. Each girl has so much to contribute to make the group stronger, and the group can help develop the character of so many individuals. It was a wonderful experience to be able to see first-hand the purposes and ideals of Kappa operating in a 'now generation.'"

DALE BRUBECK, I K-William and Mary, is another "seasoned" Kappa worker as she has spent the past year as a graduate counselor for Kappa's newest chapter, Epsilon Mu at Clemson University. While assisting the new chapter in their first year of existence, Dale also has completed her course work for her master's degree. In looking back over the past year, Dale said, "I enjoyed being a graduate counselor. We had our ups—many—and a few downs, but most of all we all grew to be bigger people. I mean that it is important to grow and to become. And it takes all types of experiences to do that."

GRETCHEN GATTMANN, Δ T-Southern California, is a native Californian and lives in Encino. In her chapter she was first vice-president, registrar, rush counselor for Panhellenic and delegate to the Centennial Convention in 1970. Her honors in college included Shell and Oar, and the Dean's List. An occupational therapy and psychology major, Gretchen spent much time working in rehabilitation clinics. After her year with Kappa she hopes to work as a therapist and begin work on her master's degree. She enjoys handcrafts, sewing, reading, all sports and traveling.

NANCY KELLEY, E Z-Florida State, finished her degree in business in August at Florida State in her home town of Tallahassee. Serving her chapter as president, social and homecoming chairmen, she also attended the Centennial Convention in 1970. As a pledge she was social chairman and awarded the Outstanding Pledge honor. Before transferring to Florida State her sophomore year, Nancy attended David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tennessee. Her college activities included the Marketing Club, States Dates (student government hostesses), and was active in Panhellenic, serving on the Housing committee and Constitution Revision committee. When she has time, Nancy enjoys sewing, swimming, badminton, reading, horseback riding and spoon collecting.

The Undergraduate Council— Right On Kappas!

by LYNDA GREEN

Δ Δ—Miami U.

Chairman, Undergraduate Council

Once again the key word for Kappa Kappa Gamma is ACTION! Today it is so easy to complain about our problems of morale, membership, active-alumnæ relations, etc. and wait for the "other guy" to take the first step. On recommendations from actives and alumnæ, Council looked for a "harder" solution—an Undergraduate Council which could serve as a bridge over troubled and peaceful waters among all Kappas.

Those who attended or received feed-back from Province conventions this spring are well aware that the Council was not content to keep the idea on paper. From all over the nation came suggestions which were fairly consistent in the hope that this Undergraduate Council would improve communications, serve as an idea exchange, offer a young point of view, and generate a sense of unity within the Fraternity. Each of the 16 provinces selected a representative, a chairman was appointed by Council, Jean Hess Wells, Fraternity Vice-President, was named adviser, and suddenly Kappa had an Undergraduate Council!

This past summer our Undergraduate Council became acquainted and exchanged general ideas through newsletters. Our enthusiasm seems focused upon our opportunity to "get it all together" with Kappa actives and alums everywhere. There's something special about a Northwestern Kappa communicating with a Georgian Kappa on that common problem of men above the first floor.

We are all aware that our effectiveness as a council this year is very crucial so we need your help—actives and alumnæ. This fall each chapter will be selecting a "contact" and she will be asking you to discuss such areas as pledge training, personnel, rush, spirit, etc. so we as a council can compile and distribute your ideas. Please share in this responsibility. Let's keep Kappa "together" with the new Undergraduate Council.

"Foster boys" project
successful in Winnipeg

by SUSAN EDMOND
Philanthropy Chairman
Γ Σ—Manitoba

This year in Gamma Sigma Chapter, we have decided to work on a philanthropy project for volunteer aid and also to donate some money from our funds to support a worthy cause.

Due to the fact that the majority of the girls wanted to work with children we decided to contact the Children's Aid Society of Winnipeg and with their approval made arrangements to provide entertainment and outings for little foster boys between the ages of three and eight years. In groups of three the girls took the boys out on Sunday afternoons. The activities for the day have included jaunts to the zoo, movies, toboggan riding, art displays and then out for a "bite to eat" before going back to the home.

To demonstrate how much they look forward to these outings, one little boy who had been deprived of the privilege of an outing for that week displayed a great show of affection to the Kappas who brought him candy. This has been very heart-warming work for the Kappas.

The second part of our philanthropic program consisted of a $200 donation to the Home and Research Centre for Retardates Foundation. This home was set up privately to accommodate adult retardates who were capable of taking care of themselves to a certain extent. The donation went towards the building of separate homes fully equipped for them to live fuller and more useful lives. The Kappas have taken great pride in their philanthropic work this year as they have been able to take an active part in the community of Winnipeg.

Associate Council brainstorms in Columbus

by RUTH HOEHLE LANE

Director of Alumnæ

The third Associate Council Seminar met in Columbus, Ohio June 14-17, at Stouffer's University Inn. Now that Kappa has divided into 16 provinces, there were 32 province officers, plus the chapter program chairmen, the Editor of THE KEY, the Executive Secretary, the Administrative Assistant of Headquarters and the members of the Council in attendance.

Leadership techniques and brainstorming were used to get the group thinking about "Why Greek?" and, more particularly, "Why Kappa?" Specifics of the jobs of Province Director of Chapters and Province Director of Alumnæ were spelled out, in some instances by the experienced officers along with the Director of Chapters and the Director of Alumnæ.

The Ritual Study Committee was meeting at the same time and shared with the seminar some of the progress in their thinking in response to the letters and suggestions that have been coming to them since the establishment of that committee at the last general convention in French Lick.

Most of the meetings were held jointly so that all could be exposed to the thinking of the Council, the Fraternity's Executive Committee between general conventions, and thus be able to share with the chapters and the alumnae groups the trends, policies, the role of advisory and house boards, Panhellenic issues—in fact, everything you've always wanted to know about Kappa and didn't ask. It was a very busy two and a half days, but well worth the concentration and lack of sleep that necessarily went with it.

Members of the Council provided the knowledge and enthusiasm which made the third Associate Council Seminar the most successful held. Gathered for the June meeting in Columbus, Ohio were, left to right, Ruth Bullock Chastang, Director of Personnel, Kay Smith Larson, Director of Membership, Marian Schroeder Graham, Director of Chapters, Ruth Hoehle Lane, Director of Alumnae, Jean Hess Wells, Vice-President, Louise Little Barbeck, President, Marjorie Matson Converse, Director of Field Representatives, Margaret Easton Seney, Director of Philanthropies and Jane Lindsay Koke, Treasurer.

Epsilon Mu receives silver from Cheney Estate

Several lovely pieces of silver have been presented to Kappa's newest chapter, Epsilon Mu at Clemson University. Two silver trays and two pair of silver candle sticks were given through the bequest of Catherine South Cheney, 6-Missouri, who left her estate to the Fraternity.

Mrs. Cheney was a native of St. Louis, but lived mostly in Honolulu and Los Angeles. She was always active in a Kappa alumnae group and gave much of her time and financial support to others.

Governor and Mrs. Dunn admire their new surroundings at the Governor's Mansion with their children, Chuck, Julie and Gayle.

Betty Prichard Dunn, Δ P-Mississippi, wife of Governor Winfield C. Dunn is the new First Lady of Tennessee. Governor Dunn practiced dentistry in Memphis until his recent election. Both were active in community affairs . . . both enjoy flying and have their pilot's licenses. One of Mrs. Dunn's first First Lady invitations went to the Memphis and Nashville Kappa alumnae for luncheon and a tour of the Governor's Mansion. Under her leadership, the Mansion is open to the public for the first time this fall with the docent assistance of Kappa alumnae and Republican Party women of Nashville.

Lucy Guild Toberman, Γ Ξ-California at Los Angeles, winner of this year's Community Service Award of the University of California at Los Angeles Alumni Association was saluted for 40 years of service during which she is credited with organizing more than a dozen women's groups in Los Angeles, raising an estimated $1 million for United Way agencies and serving on more boards than she can remember. Says the mother of five, "If anyone needs me, I'm available. When I start anything or belong to anything, I try to help it go on. And when I leave, I try to leave something that goes on."

The American Association of University Women Fellowship program has announced that the Delaware-Pennsylvania Endowed Fellowship has been renamed in honor of Wilfreda Heald Lytle, B M-Colorado, known as the Wilfreda Lytle Endowed Fellowship. Mary Brownlee Wattles, Δ E-Rollins, named First Lady of 1971 by Beta Sigma Phi, says there is nothing in her full 81 years of involved living she would change. Past local and state division president of the American Association of University Women; a president of the Winter Park Garden Club and Winter Park Women's Club and 1947 recipient of the highest civic award presented by Rollins College, her memberships and "doings" are endless, but her proudest achievement is the large part she played in the new library for Winter Park begun in 1956 and still expanding under her leadership.

Lenore Alice Sheridan, M.D., B Φ-Montana, is a clinical instructor in medicine at the Stanford University School of Medicine. She was a staff member of the Mayo Clinic as a consultant in the department of thoracic diseases and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine.

Aside from the book-learning our professors gave us something that helped to hold these basic concepts of moral behavior, indigenous to us, which gave pleasure to our work hours and joy to our fun hours ... we were free ... gayly free, not in the way that oft-quoted word is thrown around today, but free from all that would rob us of thinking of those years with a deep satisfaction and saying, they were good to remember."

Epsilon Beta active takes the lead in blood drive

Debbie Boyd, E B-Colorado State, last year organized five sororities and three fraternities on her campus to aid the blood drive sponsored by the Metro Denver Chapter of the Leukemia Society of America. Each of the 75 students participating (20 Kappas) gave one pint of blood.

After the blood donations were received at the Belle Bonfils Memorial Blood Bank in Denver, Debbie placed over 50 leukemia banks in stores and banks throughout Fort Collins. In six weeks, they had collected over $150.

Hats off to Debbie and all who helped!

Florence Roth passes away

Florence Burton Roth, B Δ-Michigan, 12th Grand President of Kappa Kappa Gamma, died May 29, 1971. Mrs. Roth served her Fraternity in many capacities, each with outstanding distinction, and made permanent contributions to Kappa and the entire fraternity world. She was elected Grand Secretary in 1908, became Grand President in 1910, and also served as Chairman of the National Panhellenic Congress. At the conclusion of her term, she accepted the office of Historian and spent the next 12 years collecting material for The History of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity 1870-1930, a masterly and complete record of the Fraternity's early years. She also served as Chairman of the Hearthstone Board, the retirement home in Florida, formerly owned by the Fraternity.

Her devotion and deep interest in Kappa Kappa Gamma was matched by her enthusiasm for civic enterprises. In her birthplace of Erie, Pennsylvania, she was a founding member and first President of the Hamot Aid Society and participated in the development of the Sarah A. Reed Homes for children and older women. As the first treasurer of this organization, she established the Endowment Fund for the Sarah A. Reed Homes. She was also very active in her Presbyterian church, the Erie chapter of the American Red Cross, the Erie Community Chest, the Erie Woman's Club and the auxiliaries of the community hospitals.

In typically modest fashion, Florence wrote in 1946, when reporting her activities for THE KEY, "locally I can report only the most routine sort of life in the community where I have always lived" and then relates her many services to the sick, the needy and the neglected in her area.

Florence's interest in Kappa Kappa Gamma made her a regular convention attender where she often delighted the Kappas with her wit as the featured speaker. When her health began to fail and it was impossible for her to attend, she still sent messages of affection to the convention. One of her favorite stories about herself was the time she suffered a fractured neck and was in a cast. Undaunted, Florence swathed the cast in chiffon scarves and came to convention! She reported that one of her friends said about her, Florence would go to a Kappa convention if she broke her neck—and she did!"

Admired and respected as a Kappa lady who had made great contributions to our Fraternity, she is loved and remembered most by her many friends for her warm, loving personality and her marvelous sense of humor. It was Florence who made that classic remark when terminating her banquet speech at the 1948 Sun Valley convention, "The mind can absorb only what the seat can endure." And it was Florence who, while visiting the Hearthstone for a Board meeting, joined a then young province officer (me) in raiding the icebox at midnight for orange juice—"surely in Florida, they've got plenty and won't miss it" she said.

Mrs. Roth is survived by her son, Dr. Russell B. Roth; her husband, Dr. Augustus H. Roth, one nephew and a host of Kappa sisters whose lives have been the richer for having known her.
