Genuine Concern for Others — The Meaning of Fraternity

Here I am sitting in a room too cluttered for words trying to write something that will make sense to you and yet not really knowing where to begin.

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Matthew 18:20

An insignificant quote tacked onto my roommate's bulletin board. But is it really that insignificant? For this is the feeling many Kappas have found. In our Kappa homes across the country we learn to believe in the reality of Divinity, for we learn to care. Kappa has taught its members that the abundant life is only for one who gives abundantly to it.

How can we best translate our faith into action which will serve college and community today? Kappas everywhere are sharing time, energy, money, and concern by helping students continue their academic careers, by helping members in need and by making the lives of the handicapped a little more pleasant. Day by day, we can see tangible results of our commitment to a Philanthropy program—a smile on a child's face after having her first swimming lesson, the top-notch performance of a student continuing her studies after receiving a hoped-for scholarship, or a women's lessened frustration because Kappa cared enough to help her through an unexpected crisis. These are only a few examples of the results of our commitment to a genuine concern for others.

What does such a philanthropy program mean for an individual Kappa? For me, it means the pride in knowing I am a small part of an organization whose fundamental virtue is a concern for each other's welfare. This is not a boastful pride, nor one that is insincere, but rather a quiet pride I feel in my heart.

By supporting and planning philanthropic activities, we are able to see just how lucky we Kappas are—lucky to be on the giving side of such an activity—lucky to be able to give.

These words—sharing, caring, giving—may seem trite and obscure at times. But in a fraternity gathering they burn like headlights shining brightly toward a future of continued challenge to do our share in making this world a better place for all.

Deidra Ballard, Past President, BO-Oklahoma University

Delta Celebrates Chapter Centennial

By JEAN FROST
Δ-Indiana University

Centennial activities of Delta Chapter were highlighted October 21 with a banquet attended by Indiana University President and Mrs. John W. Ryan, Chancellor Herman B. Wells, and over 200 active chapter members and alumnae at the Indiana Memorial Union Frangipani Room in Bloomington.

A $3000 scholarship in rehabilitation was presented to IU by Marjorie Converse, Kappa Vice President on behalf of the Fraternity. President Ryan, accepting the gift, noted "the integral function Kappa Kappa Gamma has played in the history of this university."

Also presented to the university was a $2,500 gift to the IU Art Museum, to be matched by an identical award from the university to purchase a $5000 painting for the University art museum. Over $600 was also donated to the Indiana University Speech and Hearing department for the purchase of equipment for testing preschoolers for inner-ear impairments.

Dr. Doris M. Seward, Δ, presently administrator at Pennsylvania State University, was toastmistress at the banquet honoring Kappa's oldest continuous chapter. Dr. Seward addressed the audience wearing her first college formal: a red velvet gown purchased during her Kappa days at IU.

Chancellor Herman B. Wells recalled the Kappas and their prominence during the years of his university presidency, noting, "I have always felt that I have lived with Kappas throughout my life." Wells resided formerly in the Woodburn House, where the six founding members of Delta chapter held their first organizational meetings.

"This celebration reaffirms my faith and belief in the Greek letter system, in what you have been and what you are," Wells said.

The chapter's original singing group, the Kappa Pickers, sang selections from their past summer's tour in Southeast Asia for the USO, followed by a dance for both actives and alumnae.

The banquet culminated a weekend of Centennial activities, which included a Friday evening open house, Saturday Brunch, Formal Fraternity meeting, and campus tour.

Special appreciation plates were presented by Patty Haddock, chapter president, to Joan Reed Darby, Δ, house adviser; Cecilia Hendricks Wahl, Δ, membership adviser, and Fleurette McMillin Benckart, Δ, chapter adviser, for their outstanding services to Delta chapter. A beautiful illustrated Ritual Book and many other memorabilia were presented to the Fraternity to be displayed at Fraternity Headquarters.

Toastmistress for the formal banquet was Dr. Doris M. Seward, Δ, Executive Assistant to the President of Pennsylvania State University and recipient of a Kappa Achievement Award.

Presenting alumnae gifts to Indiana University are right to left, Fleurette McMillin Benckart, chapter adviser, Chancellor Herman B. Wells, Cecilia Hendricks Wahl, membership adviser and co-chairwoman of Centennial Committee.

Delta chapter members serving on the centennial committee were: Ann Bailey and Margaret Hewitt (co-chairwomen), Pat Archer, Jane Jorday, Donna Foster, Patty Haddock, Maureen Henry, and Debbie Millbern.

Members of the Bloomington Alumnae Centennial Committee were Helen Hanson Barrett, Cecilia Hendricks Wahl, Fleurette

McMillin Benckart, Mary Buskirk Chumley, Joan Benavole Curts, Janet Seward Dunn, Martha Sailors East, Sara Jones Froehle, Catherine Dekle Karsell, all members of Delta chapter.

"We're sorry to see Centennial end. Hopefully some of us will be around for the 200th" — Jean Frost, Delta correspondent.

New Province

Appointments

Announced

Mrs. Harrison M. Howard (Alphonsine Clapp, Sigma), of Scottsdale, Arizona, is the new Kappa Province Director of Alumnae, replacing newly elected Fraternity Director of Alumnae, Betsy Molsberry Prior.

Alphonsine Howard was Arizona Membership chairman for 15 years. She organized the Scottsdale Association, served as its president and is on the Board. She was a leader in organizing Epsilon Delta Chapter at Arizona State University, and serves on the Chapter Advisory Board. She is also president of the chapter House Board. When living in Hawaii, she belonged to the Honolulu Association. After graduation from the University of Nebraska, Alphonsine studied at the Chicago Art Institute and the American Academy of Music, thus early demonstrating her lifelong involvement with the arts. (She was a volunteer on many projects that built today's Phoenix Art Museum, at Phoenix, Arizona.) Her experience includes a most successful career in business. In Scottsdale she organized the St. Barnabas Episcopal Church and still assists in the church office. Since 1954 she has been Voters' Deputy Registrar for Maricopa County. The new province president has participated in 5 general conventions and 4 province meetings.

Mrs. Robert C. Pickett (Elizabeth Hawkins, ΔT) of La Habra Heights, California is newly appointed Kappa Province Director of Chapters. Liz has served Delta Tau as Panhellenic, Personnel, and Rush assistant adviser, President of the U.S.C. Panhellenic Advisory Council, and President of the Whittier Alumnae Association. She is currently treasurer of Whittier City Panhellenic and past adviser to city panhellenics for Kappa Province.

Community service for Liz has been in the field of volunteer work and as a Sunday school teacher. With a B.S. in Business Administration, Liz has a real interest also in sewing, needlepoint, organic gardening and boating. She is currently involved in wallpaper, housepainting and trying to locate her children's "gardens" (Laurie 10, Brian 7, and E. "Cameron" 5), and convince them that they are not ready for chickens, rabbits and a hog!

Nancy Lease, P^A, is newly appointed Alpha Province Director of Chapters replacing Betsy Barrett Pry who has moved to Ohio. Nancy Teaches English and American Studies at William H. Hall High School, West Hartford, Connecticut. She is adviser to the Literary Club, and Quill and Scroll and was on the Executive Board of the Connecticut Scholastic Press Association. In 1968 she was an American Field Service Bus Chaperon. While at Ohio Wesleyan, Nancy was Executive Secretary of AWS, Associate Editor of the yearbook, Mortar Board Treasurer, University Scholar (4 years), Phi Society, Pi Delta Epsilon (Journalism), and Kappa Delta Pi (education).

Nancy's Kappa experience includes pledge class secretary, chapter treasurer and president, Delta Mu house association member and treasurer, Finance Adviser Delta Mu, and currently Fraternity education chairman for Hartford Alumnae Association.

Mrs. C. Nicholas Pry ((Mary Elizabeth (Betsy) Barrett, P^A)) is the new Gamma Province Director of Chapters replacing Diane Miller Selby who was appointed editor of THE KEY. Betsy recently moved from Connecticut with her husband and son Barrie (4½) when Nick became a trust officer for a Defiance, Ohio bank. The Prys are busily hunting antiques and building a new "old" house.

Betsy holds a B. A. in elementary education from Ohio Wesleyan with some hours toward a Master's degree at Ohio State University in educational T. V. While on campus at Ohio Wesleyan Betsy was President of Associated Women Students. Following graduation she taught second grade. Betsy most recently served as Alpha PDC and attended the 1972 Convention in Miami.

Replacing Jane Abney Price of Tulsa, Oklahoma as the Xi Province Director of Alumnae is (Edwina) Jane Shelter Shelley, BΘ, University of Oklahoma. Jane has served the Fraternity as President of the Oklahoma City Alumnae Association from 1958-59. She will be filling out the term of Province Director of Alumnae until Province Meeting.

Helen Andres To Chair Housing Study

The Council is happy to announce the appointment of Helen Andres as chairman of the Housing Policy Study Committee.

Helen Snyder Andres, BII, University of Washington, is no stranger to Kappa as she was the first Field Secretary, Director of Standards, Grand President, Director of Chapters, Ritualist, National Panhellenic Delegate, Scholarship Chairman, and Historical Committee Chairman. She served her chapter as rush and pledge chairman, and has been alumnae president for Seattle and San Jose, as well as having been House Board President for San Jose for 13 years. Helen is currently supervisor of the English Department and Assistant Superintendent at Campbell Union High School District, San Jose, California. She and husband Eugen have three children—a Kappa daughter, Phi Gam son, and DU son, plus three grandchildren.

The Council of Kappa Kappa Gamma regrets that, due to the increased costs of transportation, the 1974 Convention which was to be at the Bayshore Inn in Vancouver, British Columbia has been cancelled. We are very happy to announce, however, that we will hold our convention at the Sheraton-Columbus Hotel in Columbus, Ohio in June, 1974.

Ann Scott Morningstar, BN, Ohio State University, Chairman Public Relations.

A grand fleur-de-lis award of gratitude should go to Ann Scott Morningstar, BN, Ohio State, for her recent service as the Interim Editor of The Key. Her four issues are a historical record of Fraternity events from Winter 1971 through Fall 1972.

Ann was born in Huntington, West Virginia, received an A.B. Magna cum laude from Ohio State; an M.A. with honors from West Virginia University; ΦBK; 1960 Kappa Alumnae Achievement Award; three times West Virginia State Women's Badminton Champion. She is a member of ΘΣΦ, Public Relations Society of America, Ohio Society of New York, Jr. League of Huntington, and is listed in Who's Who of American Women and Who's Who in the East.

She is married to Robert P. Morningstar, a research chemist. Ann is the founder and owner of Ann Scott Morningstar Public Relations and Ann Scott Morningstar Productions. She was responsible for the Kappa Centennial Film, moderated the achievement award winner's panel at the 1972 General Convention, and is currently Fraternity Chairman of Public Relations. She edited The Hoot, (convention newspaper) in 1972.

How's Your Q.T.?

At the Interim Session of National Panhellenic Conference in Norman, Oklahoma, October 1972, Phyllis Brinton Pryor, BM, Ruth Bullock Chastang, BN, and Frances Fatout Alexander, I, attended, participated and enjoyed working on a new Quota-Total System and Plan which was accepted unanimously by the 26 groups of NPC as a recommended procedure. In an effort to keep alumnae and actives on the same "channel" regarding Panhellenic practices on campuses, THE KEY is printing in full the new Q.T. System recommendations.

Quota-Total System

National Panhellenic Conference believes that some plan for orderly procedure is necessary to assure the maximum strength for all its members. Therefore, National Panhellenic Conference recommends the use of the Quota-Total (QT) System:

- A. To give each rushee maximum opportunity to pledge.
- B. To provide fraternity experience to as many as possible.
- C. To maintain adequate strength in the fraternity chapters.

Successful operation of this Quota-Total System plan depends upon the combined use of Quota and Total Chapter Size. This combined use, over a reasonable time, will result in overall growth of the fraternity chapters.

Continued lowering of Quota or Total Chapter Size does not guarantee success, but can be detrimental to all fraternity chapters on the campus.

Any regularly registered woman student, or fraternity chapter, should be free to engage in Continuous Open Bidding if there are vacancies.

Quota-Total Plan

Quota refers to the number each fraternity may pledge during formal rush. Total means the total number of pledges and initiated members comprising the chapter on that campus.

In setting up a Quota-Total Plan the following points should be kept in mind:

- A. Each fraternity is entitled to the Pledge Quota whether filled in formal rush or later in that school year.
- B. The plan must be flexible enough to be adjusted to changes in campus situations.
- C. The aim at all times is to increase the number of those pledged and initiated.
- D. The system, as it functions, must promote the aims and goals of the plan.
- E. The rights and needs of all groups must be safeguarded.
- F. Any plan that does not attain these objectives should be reevaluated.

Quota

The total number of rushees accepting the first invitational parties divided by the number of participating fraternities, establishes the Pledge Quota. Once established, Quota should remain unchanged for that entire formal rush period.

Total Chapter Size

A. Total Chapter Size should be set and retained for a period of years before reevaluation, taking into consideration the desirable size chapter for that particular campus and the availability of rushees. Limiting Total Chapter Size too drastically can be injurious to fraternity growth.

B. Where there are chapter houses, Total Chapter Size should protect minimum needs of all chapters on that campus.

Quota-Total

A. Each fraternity is entitled to the Pledge Quota even though it may bring a fraternity chapter above the established Total Chapter Size.

B. Vacancies in Pledge Quota cannot be refilled unless the chapter is below Total Chapter Size.

C. Success of the Quota-Total plan depends upon Continuous Open Bidding.

Bid Matching

A. National Panhellenic Conference considers it preferable to match bids to fill only Pledge Quota in Formal Rush. This procedure treats each chapter the same. Additional openings under Total Chapter Size may be filled during Continuous Bidding.

B. If Pledge Quota is combined with additional openings under Total Chapter Size, Pledge Quota must be matched first for all chapters, then the remaining names on the lists shall be matched for Total Chapter openings.

Council Profiles Presented

Marian Schroeder Graham, BΦ, University of Montana, President.

Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ, Purdue, is currently Fraternity Vice President. She holds a B.S. in child development from Purdue where she served as chapter president, and an M.S. degree from Penn State in child development where she was a Kappa Graduate Counselor. Marj also traveled as a Field Secretary for two years and has since been assistant to the Director of Chapters (advisers), Chairman of Graduate Counselors, and Director of Field Representatives.

She taught at Plattsburg and Genesco State Teachers Colleges and at Eastern Michigan University. In Plattsburg she met the teacher who became her husband. She married Wiles Converse, now a staff engineer for Bausch and Lomb, and they have two children Mark 12 and Cindy 16. The family enjoys sailing, swimming and Marj's great gourmet cooking.

Marj is past president of Rochester Newcomers, Women's Club of Rochester, Rochester City Panhellenic, Women's Association of Rochester Yacht Club. She is currently on the Board of Directors of Monroe Community Hospital Volunteers, on Cotillion Board, advisor to Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club, and Governor of Women's Club of Rochester.

In 1968 Marj was cited as the Time-Union Woman of the Year.

Marian Schroeder Graham, BΦ, University of Montana, brings a wealth of Kappa experience to the office of Fraternity President. As an active she served on Standards, as rush chairman, and Panhellenic delegate. Marian has a B.A. in English and psychology.

Alum work has found Marion most capable and willing to share of herself. She has been president of Missoula Association, rush adviser to BΦ, scholarship and pledge adviser to ΔH, Panhellenic Administrator University of Utah, 1950-56; rush committee UCLA 1966-68; finance and chapter council adviser to ΓΞ 1960-68. Eta Province Director of Alumnae 1953-56; Assistant Director of Membership 1964-66, Director of Membership 1966-70. Director of Personnel June-January 1970; Director of Chapters, January 1971-72, and elected Fraternity President 1972.

Marian is thrilled with her family and eagerly shows a sparkle at the title "Grandmother"! Her husband, Lester (ΣΦΕ) is a retired analyst for Transamerican Corporation; son Howard (Link) Lincoln is a Beta with a Tri Delt wife living in San Francisco, California; and daughter Kathleen Ann Graham Gray, ΔH, lives with her husband and two young children in Tucson, Arizona. Marian says, "Grandchildren are my hobby! Handicraft is my interest."

When asked about her public and volunteer service Marian responded that "at present there is no time! Over the years, though, the same as any wife and mother. As to awards received, she simply replied, "my greatest honor is being a Kappa."

Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ, Purdue, Vice President.

Jane Lindsay Koke, $\Gamma\Omega$, Denison, Treasurer.

Jane Lindsay Koke, $\Gamma\Omega$, Denison is the conscientious Fraternity Treasurer serving her second term. Initiated at $\Gamma\Omega$, Jane later affiliated with ΔB , Duke, where she became chapter treasurer and ΦBK .

Since college Jane has continued to be active in Kappa having been president and most all offices of the Delaware Alumnae Association, also Beta Province Director of Alumnae.

Concerning her family and special interests Jane says, "We are a family of four, with daughters Barbara 15 and Carolyn 12. Bob is a commuter to Wall Street where he is president or treasurer of several corporations in investments and real estate finance. Water sports are a love of all of us. We have a small sailboat that travels on top of the car whenever we think we might be close to water. We also like to body surf having tested waves up and down the Atlantic Coast."

A special hobby of Jane's is needlepoint and Danish embroidery (she just started a kneeling cushion for her church.) But recently there hasn't been much time for hobbies as the Kokes moved from Delaware to New Jersey. Jane says that with the exception of Kappa all current activities are in limbo. "And how wonderful it is to have one (activity) that travels with you! There is no wondering as to what the goals of the group will be, who will be involved, and whether you really will be interested enough to want to devote your precious time to the organization."

Kay Smith Larson, BII, University of Washington, is serving her second term as Director of Membership. Kay received a B.A. degree cum laude in elementary education with a speech minor plus studied one year at graduate work. While an active Kay served Kappa as assistant scholarship chairman, and 1st Vice President. She was president of Pi Lambda Theta, secretary of Zeta Phi Eta and program chairman of the ASUW. She was honored to be in W-Key (Sophomore activities and scholastic honorary), Totem Club (Jr. honorary) and Mortar Board.

Kay taught fourth and fifth grades for $5\frac{1}{2}$ years as well as being pledge, house and membership adviser. She was president of the Bellevue Alumnae Association 1966-67, Iota Province Director of Chapters 1967-70, and first elected Director of Membership 1970.

Durmont, (Kay's husband) assistant Vice President of Pacific National Bank of Washington and son, Jeff (10) are Kay's best helpers. Kay says they are interested in family activities, spectator sports, skiing, and tennis. She is interested in various arts and crafts such as knitting and any creative work.

When stacks of blue paper and letters to answer don't over-take her, Kay enjoys serving her community by being a member of the University of Washington Alumnae Board, and serving as president of all county groups of the Ryther 4 & 20 Clubs. (These groups support the Ryther Child Center for emotionally disturbed Children.) Kay is also one of only three women to serve on a forty member Board of the Jerry Lorensen Foundation (aid to amateur athletes seriously injured in supervised sports).

Kay Smith Larson, BII, University of Washington, Director of Membership.

Betsy Molsberry Prior, BN, Ohio State, is the newly elected Director of Alumnae. Betsy has a B.C.E. in Civil Engineering, plus additional work at Whittier College in Mathematics. She was Marshal BN chapter.

Her family includes husband, James (ΦΔΘ from Ohio State) two sons and a daughter, and seven grandchildren. Jim is the Executive Vice-President Sierra Electric Division of Sola Basic Industries. Betsy says, "Jim and I both judge dogs at AKC shows (we are licensed for 14 breeds), but our consuming love is working with metal and gemstones—we hope to make a serious career out of it in time. We love to fish and go rock-hounding."

Betsy's Kappa activities include recommendations chairman for both South Bay in 1956 and Arcadia in 1959; nominating chairman 1969 and president Arcadia 1963-64. She was finance adviser USC 1964-65; Southern California Centennial Chairman 1967-70; Ways and Means for Arcadia 1968; Province Director of Alumnae 1969-72.

Betsy has been active in Panhellenic, Altar Guild Episcopal Church for nine years, Eastern Star, Republican Women's Club of Arcadia, DeMolay Mothers Club, plus all the other activities encountered when raising a family. Betsy comments, "My life has been that of any busy mother and wife; Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Rainbow, DeMolay, collecting for Red Cross, etc., all of which must be replaced when the children grow away. From that time to the present, it has been a happy blend of traveling with my husband, babysitting and Kappa. Would that others could have as happy a life as I do."

Jean Hess Wells, ΔΥ, University of Georgia, Director of Chapters.

Jean Hess Wells, ΔΥ, University of Georgia, has moved to Director of Chapters from the position of Vice President for the Fraternity. Jean brings with her untold chapter experiences as she served as recording secretary and a charter member of Delta Upsilon chapter; membership, pledge, and chapter council adviser to her chapter; membership, pledge, and scholarship adviser to ΔP chapter; membership, pledge, and chapter council adviser to EE chapter; colonization and installation committee for EE, EH, EK, and EM chapters. She was Mu Province Director of Chapters 1963-67; assistant to the President 1967-70, and elected Vice President 1970-72.

Jean also served as president of the Atlanta Alumnae Association 1951-52 and President of Memphis Alumnae 1954-55. She was Assistant to the Director of Membership and Mu Province Rush Helper.

Married to Dr. Robert E. Wells, private practice of Orthopedic Surgery (SAE), Jean is currently president of the Board of Member's Guild of the High Museum of Art, chairman of the advisory planning, advisor decorative arts committee. Son Jere and daughter Cathlean have joined their parents in travel, camping and canoeing. Two recent memorable trips for Jean were a fifteen day backpack canoe trip through Quetico National Park in Canada and a two week camping trip on St. John's Island, Virgin Islands in the summer.

Betsy Molsberry Prior, BN, Ohio State University, Director of Alumnae.

Sally Moore Nitschke, BN, Ohio State University, Director of Field Representatives.

Sally Moore Nitschke, BN, Ohio State, is the new Director of Field Representatives. Sally attended Vassar College and transferred to Ohio State where she served BN as president and a member of ΦBK .

Sally's Fraternity experience includes rush advisor to BN 1954-58, Gamma Province Director of Chapters 1957-61, and State Rush Chairman 1961-63. From 1961-65 Sally was chairman of pledge training for the Fraternity and in 1970 she became the first chairman of Speak Up—an innovative kind of instant communication between chapters to exchange information and ideas.

Sally is married to Chuck, an architect with his own firm (ATO), and they have three children, Chris 16, Caren 13, and David 8.

Being a part of the community is very much part of Sally as all her interests are in the area of voluntarism. She has been a member of the Jr. League of Columbus for 13 active years in a variety of capacities including president 1969-71. She is also a past officer of the Childhood League of Columbus, the Junior Board of Ohio Avenue and West Side Day Care Centers. At the present time she is vice president of the Volunteer Action Center Advisory Council, a city-wide volunteer resource center. Sally is working as a volunteer with the Columbus Public School system in the community resources program and also serves as a member of the planning committee for the Department of Continuing Education at Ohio State.

Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ , University of Missouri, newly elected Director of Personnel, is a Nationally rated official in basketball and field hockey and has taught physical education at Christian College, Columbia, Missouri; University City Elementary Schools, University City, Missouri; and Albuquerque Junior High School, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

As an active Marian was Panhellenic delegate and chapter president. She has been a member of the Albuquerque Alumnae Association for the past ten years where she has been secretary, treasurer, Assistant Marshal for Province Meeting, Rehabilitation Center Delegate, and president. She has also been finance adviser to ΓB chapter and Eta Province Director of Alumnae. Her most recent Fraternity position was as chairman of Chapter Public Relations and Newsletters from 1970-72.

Marian is a member of the Jr. League of Albuquerque. She has also been a Blue Bird Leader, a Girl Scout Leader, on the Arts and Crafts Fair Board, a New Mexico Conservation Coordinating Council Trustee, a member of League of Women Voters, Rehabilitation Center Auxiliary Board and Board of Directors, and vice chairman Albuquerque Environmental Concerns Commission (City appointed).

Somewhere in all this busy life Marian found time to marry Charles and have a lovely family of Steve 11, Debbie 9, and Ken 7. Together they enjoy boating, tennis, golf, and bowling as participants, and all sports as avid spectators. Camping and traveling are very special interests.

Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ , University of Missouri, Director of Personnel.

(Ruth) Eloise Ryder Pingry, $\Gamma\Delta$, Purdue, is the Fraternity's new Director of Philanthropies.

While at Purdue, Eloise received a B.S. in Speech Therapy and was active in Mortar Board, Gold Peppers, $\Theta\Lambda\Phi$, $K\Delta\Pi$, Yearbook Feature Editor, Playshop, WBAA Radio Station, and Speech and Hearing Clinic. She served $\Gamma\Delta$ chapter as pledge training chairman and president.

Immediately following graduation Eloise was a member of the South Bend, Indiana Alumnae and then moved to Dallas, Texas for the next four years. Another move found Eloise in Houston where she became corresponding secretary, Panhellenic delegate and Junior Group Chairman. As Eloise moved she continued to serve Kappa as president of both the Cincinnati and Milwaukee associations.

In Cincinnati Eloise was a member of the Junior Women's Club, and on the auxiliary Board of the Children's Convalescent Hospital. She was also a volunteer therapist at the Cincinnati Speech and Hearing Center.

Wisconsin was fortunate to claim Eloise as State Centennial Chairman from 1967-70 and as Marshal of the Epsilon Province Meeting in 1971. She was serving the Fraternity as chairman of rehabilitation scholarships and services until the time of her election as Director of Philanthropies.

Charles Pingry, Eloise's husband, is general manager of Nordberg Company, Division of Rex Chainbelt Inc. Their three sons were Marc, working in Minnesota; James at Colorado State, and Bob in his last years of high school. The Pingry's interests are traveling, skiing, hiking (as a family), and Milwaukee Symphony.

R. Eloise Ryder Pingry, $\Gamma\Delta$, Purdue, Director of Philanthropies.

Phyllis Brinton Pryor, BM, University of Colorado, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate.

Although the National Panhellenic Delegate is not an elected member of Council, she is an integral part of all that Kappa does. It is a pleasure to present Phyllis Brinton Pryor, BM, University of Colorado. Phyl is no stranger to Kappa work as she served as Fraternity Vice President 1968-70 and as 2nd alternate NPC in 1971 until her appointment as delegate in late 1971.

As an active Phyllis was elected President of BM and also President of campus Panhellenic. She represented Panhellenic on ASUC Board and House of Representatives Associated Women Students. Her B.A. degree is in English literature.

In alum work Phyllis has been a member of Denver Association for 30 years; Panhellenic alternate 1946-48; Vice President 1949-50; President 1950-53; chapter council adviser and chairman of the advisory board for BM 1951-56; She was Eta Province Director of Alumnae 1961-65 and then Eta Province Director of Chapters 1965-68.

In addition to Kappa, Phyl is an active member (sustaining Representative) of Jr. League of Denver, past president of Denver Symphony Debs, Denver Cotillion Board, Auxiliary Services Unit of University of Colorado Medical Center, Arthritis Craft Shop Board, and Board of Denver Children's Home. She is currently on Board of Directors of Operation Greek. The first Outstanding Woman Award of the Denver Area Panhellenic was given to Phyllis in 1971.

Phyllis' husband, Wib, is a partner in a law firm and their three children are Susan Pryor Willson, BM, University of Colorado, with a law degree from Northwestern 1971; W. Michael with an M.D. 1971 from Jefferson Medical College; and Peter who is now at George Washington High School.

Life with meaning for ourselves and others through the CARING and SHARING OF KAPPAS

By (R.) Eloise Ryder Pingry
ΓΔ, Purdue, Director of Philanthropies

A popular song begins "I never promised you a rose garden—for with the sunshine a little rain must fall"—though none of us were ever promised a "rose garden", for most there has been more sunshine than rain—but not for all. Realizing that all is not roses for many around us, we have made caring and sharing part of our lives—helping us to become richer human beings—to lead lives with meaning—a Kappa Life Style—of seeing a need, answering the need, and doing "our little."

With the first $100 allotted for Student Aid in 1902 —

- the spontaneous help given Rose McGill, Beta Psi, U. of Toronto by the 1922 Convention —
 - the Graduate Counselor program recommended by Executive Secretary, Della Lawrence Burt in 1928 —
 - the establishment of the graduate Fellowship program in 1934 through the efforts of then Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Clara O. Pierce —
 - followed by the Undergraduate Scholarship program in 1936, a concern of Fraternity President, Helen Snyder Andres —
 - the answering of immediate needs with Emergency Scholarships by the 1942 Convention —
 - and the recognition of Rehabilitation Services as our Philanthropy twenty years ago —
- the Fraternity has responded to the special needs of its members and developed a Philanthropy program that has made Kappa a symbol of friendship for active and alumnae alike.

Each year, the enthusiasm for Kappa's Philanthropy program has become a more real and viable force for Actives and Alumnae. We are aware of the help that only we can give our Rose McGill Kappa family. We know that with rising costs of education our Undergraduate and Emergency Scholarships make it possible for some of our actives to remain in school as contributing chapter members. In many fields, graduate study is a necessity. Our Graduate Fellowships make further work possible for many Kappas and some very well qualified non-members.

The Graduate Counselorship program has added guidance and strength to our chapters and given a few outstanding Kappas an opportunity to pursue their graduate studies. The Undergraduate and Graduate Rehabilitation scholarships are aiding dedicated young women to complete studies in the specialized fields that will train them for work with the physically and mentally handicapped or socially deprived. Kappas have been outstanding in support and financial contributions to make these programs possible giving their time, abilities, and themselves. This past year Kappa alumnae contributed:

$8,015.42 to THE ROSE MCGILL FUND

$32,454.75 to THE FOUNDERS' MEMORIAL STUDENT AID FUND

$81,172.50 to REHABILITATION SERVICES and PROJECTS

This is a TREMENDOUS ACHIEVEMENT! It is one that reflects the hopes and dreams of early Kappas, of officers, of convention delegates, and various Philanthropy Chairmen. It is one that we will strive to match and top with each succeeding year, for this is—a life style—a life with meaning—for all Kappas.

KAPPA LIFE STYLE of CARING through THE ROSE MCGILL FUND

— for Kappas who have special needs beyond those which can be met by family or community services —

This year, you have helped care for

- Kappas seriously ill in Nursing Homes
- Provided medical care and support to one of our young members suffering from a nervous breakdown
- Made it possible for someone crippled and ill and losing her sight to have an operation needed to partially restore her eyesight
- Gave assistance to members in need due to financial crisis
- Gave love and joy through the Christmas Sharing program and quietly sent cards and notes to those ill and alone

YOU REALLY CARED FOR SOME OF OUR KAPPAS WHO NEEDED YOU

SHARING . . . in THE ROSE MCGILL FUND

- by ordering all your magazines through the KAPPA MAGAZINE AGENCY.
- if every Kappa would order one magazine a year — the Rose McGill Fund would really “come up roses”!!!

HOW TO APPLY FOR ROSE MCGILL FUND AID

1. Write directly to the Chairman of the Rose McGill Fund, Mrs. William Roever, 2001 B Stoneybrook, Houston, Texas 77047.
2. Any deserving Kappa facing an emergency has the privilege of applying to the Fund.
3. Requests for aid must include information concerning the member's; (a) circumstances; (b) the nature of her problem; (c) her chapter and (d) date of initiation.

ROSE MCGILL FUND

The original and continuing purpose of the Rose McGill Fund is to give confidential aid to deserving Kappas who suddenly and sadly find themselves in financial and physical distress. For 50 years, due to the generosity of our members, we have been able to care for individual Kappas and to assist some with dependents.

There has been a sharp increase in the amount of aid given during the biennium. In 1970-71, $21,270.00 was distributed; in 1971-72, $28,050.00 was given. Total for the biennium is $49,530. (An increase of 42 per cent.) Monthly checks to members of the Rose McGill Family represent the major portion of the aid given by the Fund.

The above figures reflect increasing demands made upon the Fund due to continuing inflation in the cost of living and the mounting cost of medical care. The factors are reflected in the circumstances of the members applying for aid. So far we have been able to meet these requests thanks to the support of the alumnae and the hard work of the Magazine Chairmen. But in the future, we will need increased donations in order to answer the requests for aid. Our present income is adequate only to care for the immediate Rose McGill Family.

One of the most pleasant sights at the convention this June in Miami, was to see many Kappas wearing or carrying a rose given them by the Kappa Magazine Agency Director, Mrs. Orion M. Spaid of St. Louis, Missouri. A tactful and charming reminder that the Kappa Magazine sales supports the Rose McGill Fund and has for many years been one of the bulwarks of the Della Lawrence Burt Endowment Fund, established by the Fraternity as an endowment source for Rose McGill.

It is through the loyalty and fine work of Gwen Spaid, and alumnae magazine chairmen across the U.S. and Canada, that the Agency earned over $13,000.00 in the past biennium. To generate over $6,500 a year requires many subscriptions. This year $57,000.00 worth of subscriptions were sold. As the Agency receives 15% of this total, the Rose McGill Fund has gratefully received $9,000.00 as of October 31, 1972.

A rather sad fact is that only about 45% of all Kappas subscribe through the Kappa Magazine Agency. If more of our members gave just one subscription a year—we could easily raise thousands of additional dollars needed to support Rose McGill Kappas if the present trend continues.

Not only do Kappas donate to this Fund but they have also devised a Christmas Sharing project for Rose McGill Kappas which has aroused interest among many alumnae associations and clubs. The bond of friendship is really expressed in the letters from the "Family" at Christmas time.

One Kappa, ill and in a Nursing Home, wrote:

"It was like 'fairyland'. I am using all of the gifts daily and they all fit. You know how much I needed everything Santa brought."

One alumnae group made small Christmas trees for the ones in Nursing Homes and a mother wrote:

"The Christmas tree was darling and is up in her room. She dearly loves it and so do all of the other patients. Let me thank you and all of the Kappas connected with the Rose McGill Fund for the checks you have sent this past year. We simply could not have made it without them. Never will any of you know how much this means to the two of us."

The Rose McGill Kappas are exceptional women. We can be very proud of their courage and their spirit in facing adversity. In May we lost one who had spent the past thirty years in an iron lung. Physically lost years for a girl stricken by polio while in college. During those years she accomplished more than many of us do. Sylvia Riner, Beta Xi, 1939. This is from the Editorial page of the Wichita Falls, Texas Times:

"Wichita Falls lost an unusual and inspiring person last week in the death of Sylvia Riner, who turned three decades of invalidism into a life of radiant loveliness and vibrant usefulness for an ever-widening circle of friends and those she befriended.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, she had lists available for church women of those in special need.

The time not occupied with visitors in person and on the phone she devoted to keeping up with current events and studying an endless number of specialized subjects. Her knowledge of sewing, of cooking, home decoration, gardening and homemaking was encyclopedic.

Babe's life was unique: she was a teacher, counselor and loyal friend, loving people, helping people and inspiring people.

Her help with community causes, like selling tickets for the symphony season, was volunteered and gratefully accepted and acknowledged.

These enrichments of individual and community life are only some of the things she did during 30 years of illness and confinement. They were inspiring, and lift some of the sadness of her death through the knowledge hers was a life fuller, richer and more vital than many who are physically normal."

Gifts to Rose McGill Fund

ROSE MCGILL FUND

In late summer of 1971, the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Association held an informal planning meeting, and decided to adopt a Rose McGill family or just one "Rose".

The president, Marilyn Sorenson Pratt (Epsilon) contacted the chairman of the Rose McGill Fund, and we received our "Rose's" name, also her own list of the things she would like most.

On Oct. 13, 1971, we held our annual Founders' Day luncheon, with Marjorie Morris Keith, (Gamma Alpha) Epsilon Province Director of Alumnae, as our guest of honor. Of course, she was delighted over our plans and cheered us on.

We took up a collection from those present, received more from those absent, and dipped into our treasury so we had ample funds.

A committee was appointed to buy the gifts, and great care was given to finding all those most wanted gifts. Members were: Lynne Sternberg Graves (Gamma Phi) our Magazine Fund Chairman, Erika Esser Shorney (Gamma Omega) and Bobbee Nielsen Bindas (Gamma Theta).

Each member brought a small gift of her own to the November meeting. The purchased gifts were admired and then wrapped into gay packages. The smaller ones were also wrapped and tucked in around the others, then the big box sent off in plenty of time for Christmas.

Our "Rose's" note of thanks meant every bit as much to us as our gifts did to her!

Our Association also sent $50.00 to the Rose McGill Fund.

The Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Association was organized here in 1943, has 46 active members.

SHARING THROUGH EMERGENCY SCHOLARSHIPS

One of the most vital and essential Kappa programs of educational aid to members is the Emergency Scholarship Award. Recognizing that some of our actives are faced with emergency financial needs during the school year, the Emergency Scholarships were established thirty years ago. Grants are given to undergraduate upperclass actives whose membership is of value to the chapter and who need a little additional help to complete the school year. The amount varies according to need and the scholarships are given up to April 1st as long as funds for emergency grants are available. Gifts and bequests provide income for the scholarships as well as unallocated funds from the Student Aid Fund. This past year, awards were made to thirty-eight very deserving Kappa actives. Many of the girls were officers in their chapters and all had made and were able to continue to make a viable contribution to their chapters' life.

Procedure for applying for Emergency Scholarship

1. Write a letter to the Chairman of Emergency Scholarships (address below) describing in detail your needs. Be specific about your expenses, obligations, etc. Include your grades, year in school, major, campus and Kappa activities. If you are employed, list your job.
2. Send a copy of this letter to your Province Director of Chapters. See the Key for her address.
3. Ask the alumna Chapter Council advisor to write a letter of recommendation for you and send it directly to the Chairman of Emergency Scholarships. She should verify your need and your value to the chapter.
4. Ask the Chapter vice-president (personnel chairman) or the Chapter president to send a letter of recommendation to the Chairman of Emergency Scholarships. She, too, should tell of your chapter activities.

Emergency scholarships are available in varying amounts, at any time during the school year. They are for juniors and seniors, who have no failing grades and who need financial help to stay in school. When all of the above information is in, the applications are processed as quickly as possible. Be sure each of the four steps is done. In event the Council adviser is not available, ask another alumna advisor to write the recommendation.

UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships, ranging from $200-$400, are available to qualified students who are recommended for their contribution to their Kappa chapter and their campus. For information write the chairman, Mrs. W. James Aiken, Jr., 206 Maple Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. 15218. Applications for awards must be in her hands by March 1.

UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Fraternity is pleased to present the recipients of the 1972-73 Undergraduate Scholarships. These women are honor students academically, yet find time to make significant contributions to their chapters, their campuses, and local communities. Kappas can surely be proud of them.

Here is a profile of one recipient, Sherry Harris, ΓN, University of Arkansas. Sherry is president of her chapter this year, having served as Panhellenic representative last year. A few of her campus activities are; ΑΔΔ, Angel Flight, Student Senate, Cardinal Key (outstanding junior women) Razorback varsity cheerleader, ΦΑΘ (history) and Order of Omega (Greek Honorary). Sherry is a history major with a 3.46 grade average. She has taught (as professional instructor) cheerleading clinics each summer and weekend clinics during the year for American Spirit Association of Kansas City, Missouri.

Another recipient is Linda Kolwyck, ΔP, University of Mississippi with a major in speech pathology and audiology. She is currently president of her chapter having served previously as 2nd Vice President, assistant pledge trainer, and model initiate of the pledge class. Her campus activities are Commander of Angel Flight, Cwens, Sigma Alpha Eta (Speech) and Ole Miss Homecoming Committee. Each year Linda has held a regional scholarship from the university and has worked for the last few summers in the Head Start program.

Susan Lang, ΔZ, Colorado College is a past and present recipient of Kappa's Undergraduate Scholarship. In addition to being in Cap & Gown (Senior Women's Honorary) a dorm counselor, and member of National Social Science Fraternity, Susan has served her chapter as pledge class president, house chairman, personnel committee and scholarship chairman. She works for the college food service during the year and as a life-guard and in a cannery during the summers. A Ford Foundation Grant made it possible for her German class to study in Munich during April and May 1971. Susan lived with a German family and was asked to stay on as governess for their two young daughters. She stayed until Christmas 1971 and attended classes at University of Munich. This past summer Susan was an intern on the staff of California Assembly Minority Leader Bob Monagan in Sacramento.

Another profile of a recipient is Diane Miller, M, Butler University. Active on campus in Student Assembly, Spurs (sophomore honorary), ΚΑΠ (Education), Angel Flight, Dean's List, Butler Yearbook — sports section editor, and a member of Student Life Commission (faculty, student, administration appointed by university president). Diane has still had time to serve her chapter as rush chairman, assistant rush chairman, historian of pledge class, and culture chairman. She has worked as a cashier in a food store and in the Butler Alumni office.

Serving on the Undergraduate Scholarships Committee are the chairman, Director of Philanthropies, and Marilyn Newman, P^A, Ohio Wesleyan.

Meet The Graduate Counselors!

Carlie Judd, E, Illinois Wesleyan. Carlie is doing graduate work in Fine Arts at Drake University while assisting IΘ chapter. She calls Glen Ellyn, Illinois home.

Judy Clark, ΔΨ, Texas Tech. Judy is a counselor at ΔΥ, University of Georgia where she is doing work in Psychology. Her home is Temple, Texas.

Kit Caples, BK, University of Idaho. Kit is from Salmon, Idaho and is assisting BΦ chapter at the University of Montana. Her field is guidance and counselling.

Training School offered the Graduate Counselors the opportunity to think together about their new jobs. A real brainstorming session resulted in new definitions, fascinating graphics, and new ideas. Each girl using these ideas outlined her own expectations as she assumed her new chapter role.

Kit: "Because I am continuing my education in Guidance and Counseling, I feel this position is a two-fold opportunity. Not only will I be able to attend graduate school, but I will also have the practical experience of working with Kappas in a counseling role. This group living relationship will be just as valuable to me in my field of study as the academic experience. Also the positive fraternity experience I have had in Kappa is so strong I feel it is only right to try to return this appreciation and knowledge to others."

Carlie: "This program has done two things for me. I have the opportunity to continue my interest in Art by giving me the means to do this on a graduate level. Also being a two time legacy (mother and grandmother) I've been able to see what being a Kappa can mean after college and this I want to pursue."

Jackie: "My personal interest in the Graduate Counselor program is in the prospect of making new contacts in my field of political science. New professors, faculty, and courses will give me a better understanding of government around the country and a new perspective for the future. On the other hand, my undergraduate years flew by so quickly, I feel I want more Kappa experience."

Judy: "Why am I a Graduate Counselor? Because of the fantastic opportunity to go to graduate school with financial assistance. Equally important is the prospect of working with other Kappas and being able to get to know girls who are far away yet close because of common interests. I can't imagine a better way to share ideas and experiences and improve our whole fraternity. Perhaps my feelings are best expressed by the fact that Kappa has given me so much personally that I want to return a small measure of the wealth of experience during my year as a counselor. I am so excited about the prospects and possibilities; I only wish more Kappas would take this opportunity for study and continued Kappa participation!"

Jan: "The Graduate Counselor program has given me the chance to work for my master's degree this Fall, an opportunity I would not have had without the scholarship. Someday I hope to teach English literature at the college level. The experience I will gain through working with a chapter while pursuing advanced study will be invaluable."

Jackie Gotter, ΔX, San Jose. Jackie attends the University of Washington where she studies political Science and works with BII chapter. Jackie's home is Tujunga, California.

Jan Persson, ΔN, University of Massachusetts. Jan is the New Englander of the group. Her home is Elmwood, Massachusetts; her field is English. She is a counselor at Σ chapter at University of Nebraska.

She finds "a position of sharing" amidst the impossible amount of paper to be shuffled. Director of Field Representatives, Sally Nitschke, BN, assists with training.

In August the Graduate Counselors join the Field Secretaries at Training School held at Fraternity Headquarters. Under the direction of Fraternity officers, each girl is prepared for the responsibilities she will assume. She learns the specifics of chapter organization, understands clearly Fraternity policies, becomes aware of current campus trends, and deepens her own appreciation and commitment to the benefits of Kappa membership.

Training School Produces a Collective Response!

- We will share with the chapter our stockpile of knowledge and ideas provided by the Fraternity, the composite ideas on successful chapter living from all 91 chapters.
- We want to share our appreciation of the Fraternity, instilled within us by the officers with whom we have worked and which is inherent in our concept of Kappa.
- The chapter will share with us their home, their ideas, and their hopes for the future. We can easily say they will be sharing themselves.
- The exchange of cross country culture, the variety of campus experiences, and the understanding of various campus and college trends will all be part of the sharing process.
- Hopefully there will be a growing awareness of the entire Fraternity potential for assisting one another, the continuing cycle of exchange and sharing.
- Just as important the Fraternity and the chapters are giving each one of us the chance to continue our education which is genuine sharing indeed. Our major field of interest is Kappa; this we hold in common. Our specific field of academic study differs for each of us. The Graduate Scholarship is especially meaningful because it allows room for us to pursue both these interests.

GRADUATING KAPPAS . . . Are you interested in pursuing advanced study on a different campus? Have you served as an active member of your chapter holding some office and on chapter council? Do you have a genuine concern for people and a continuing desire to contribute to the Fraternity? If so . . . consider applying for a Graduate Counselor Scholarship covering tuition, fees, room and board. Study while living and working with an active chapter.

CHAPTERS . . . Would you like to take advantage of the Graduate Counselor program? A good chapter is always looking for better ways to do things, new ideas for more stimulating chapter life. A Graduate Counselor will bring fresh viewpoints and ideas to strengthen your chapter. If you want your chapter to benefit from this opportunity . . . consider requesting a Graduate Counselor.

Please write or call immediately the Director of Field Representatives: Mrs. Charles A. Nitschke, 6570 Plesenton Drive, Worthington, Ohio 43085. (614 - 885-3394)

Kappa Kappa Gamma Fellowships

It seems appropriate to say that "We honor ourselves in honoring them" as we give recognition to superior women students through the granting of fellowships to advance their training in meaningful fields. We are singly fortunate this year to be able to assist outstanding women students in greater number than ever before. Each of these young women has a distinguished record of former academic achievement and shows promise of significant contribution to our society through the richness of her specialized knowledge. We can be proud to share in their present and future accomplishments. Through the generosity of individuals and groups of Kappa alumnae our funds have enabled us to make these awards.

Judges for the fellowships are the Director of Philanthropies, Mrs. Charles Pingry, ΓΔ, Purdue University; Dr. Elizabeth Brooks, ΓΔ, Purdue, Professor of Spanish and Portuguese at the University of Wisconsin; Mrs. Justin Fuller, ΔΥ, University of Georgia, Assistant Professor of English, Montevallo University, Alabama; and Dr. Miriam Locke, ΓΠ, University of Alabama, Professor of English at the University of Alabama and Chairman of Fellowships.

One of the outstanding recipients of Kappa Kappa Gamma graduate fellowships is LINDA ORNELAS, ΓΖ, University of Arizona, who is studying medicine at the University of Southern California Medical School. Linda possibly will direct her training toward pediatrics, with emphasis on physically handicapped and emotionally disturbed children. As an undergraduate she was vice-president of Chimes, treasurer of Spurs, president of Mortar Board, won the award as the Outstanding Sophomore Woman and that as Outstanding Senior Woman. She was also Homecoming Queen. She was active in the Associated Women Students and was Supreme Court Justice for Associated Students. She also served on the President's Advisory Committee and was an undergraduate teaching-assistant in the Biology Department. She was appropriately recognized in Who's Who Among Students, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. In honoring Linda Kappa indeed gains honor also.

Other splendid young women holding Kappa grants are the following:

Bobby Lou Attebury, Beta Omega, University of Oregon, studying in the field of English Education at the University of Oregon;

Susan Elda Boyle, Gamma Eta, Washington State University, attending Purdue University to prepare for a career in university teaching of English;

Marilyn A. Burks, Pi Deuteron, honor graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, studying librarianship at the University of California, Berkeley;

Margaret DeWitt Crosby, Epsilon Gamma, University of North Carolina, presently at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, in the field of Guidance and Counseling;

"We honor ourselves in honoring them." Linda Ornelas, ΓΖ, University of Arizona.

Janet Louise Duffy, Delta Alpha, Pennsylvania State University, now in her second year of legal training at Villanova Law School;

Carol Houlihan Flynn, Beta Lambda, University of Illinois, completing her doctorate in English at the University of California, Berkeley;

Pamela Kay Funck, Gamma Kappa, College of William and Mary, at the University of Florida in the field of special education, specializing in emotionally disturbed children;

SHARING THROUGH

Rehabilitation is a specialized field requiring specific courses of study and often additional work for qualification. Research and education along with interest, ability, and initiative are the basics for an effective therapist or teacher. Recognizing the requirements of education of women, the awarding of scholarships and fellowships to those studying in the fields of rehabilitation became a logical part of Kappas Rehabilitation program. This year, through the generous support of Alumnae the Student Aid Fund and a few remaining dollars in the Centennial Fund, 33 awards were presented to 22 graduate students and 11 undergraduates. Twenty three are Name Awards. These young women are studying in a number of fields including speech and hearing therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, nursing, medicine, special education and social work. The Judges were Mrs. Gladys Houx Rusk; associated in rehabilitation along with her husband, Dr. Howard A. Rusk; Miss Judith Latta working with the education and rehabilitation of the handicapped with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Mrs. Margaret Easton Seney, former Director of Philanthropies; and Mrs. Eloise Ryder Pingry, former Rehabilitation Scholarship and Services Chairman. For many, a personal experience motivated their desire to be of service to mankind in the various fields of rehabilitation, but for all, it is the stimulation of working in new and exciting fields of restoring an individual's worth and the value and satisfaction of helping someone help themselves.

Kappa identifies with the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine in New York City and has contributed to research and study grants since the Centennial. At the '72 Convention, we again presented a gift of $15,000 to Dr. Howard A. Rusk for the Institute. Research programs in physical therapy are still being continued at Emory University and Ohio State University. Because of our interest and support in the rehabilitation of handicapped individuals, we were awarded the National Rehabilitation Association's Annual Organization Award this past year.

The July NEWSLETTER from Emory University's Regional Rehabilitation Center carries the announcement of CARMELLA GONNELLA, PH. D. beginning her position in the research training program for senior physical therapists supported by a $10,000 gift from Kappa Kappa Gamma awarded in October 1971. Dr. Gonnella was a Professor of Physical Therapy, Boston University, Sargent College of Allied Health Professions. She is joining the Emory University Regional Rehabilitation Research and Training Center as a Kappa Kappa Gamma Senior Fellow.

"it is with a great deal of pride in my fraternity that I read of the Rehabilitation Awards program, which will directly augment the specific skills of women whose focus is in service to the wider community."
Alumnae Member

"I gratefully accept the award and hope that I will be able to make my year of studies worthy of the trust this award places in me."
Graduate Recipient '72-73

"The scholarship, along with my summer earnings will help me meet expenses this year at school. I greatly thank you and the alumnae who have made it possible for me to receive the scholarship. I really appreciate it!"
Undergraduate Recipient '72-73

"I owe many thanks to Kappa for helping make this career possible for me. The scholarship money was, of course, a vital aid. Beyond that, however, my sorority experience has been my most valuable preparation for the human relations work in which I am now involved. Nothing has taught me more about dealing with people than my years as an active Kappa and I do hope that in the years ahead I can work to strengthen this wonderful organization of people who have done so much to shape my life."
'71-72 Graduate Recipient - MA Social Work

REHABILITATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Last year, Sarah Kay Hobart, Delta Theta, Bucknell '65, received a Rehabilitation Scholarship to begin her graduate studies in Psychiatric Social Work at the University of Pittsburgh. This year she is receiving the Detroit, Michigan $750 scholarship to help her complete her studies. Sally entered the Greater Pittsburgh Guild for the Blind for total adjustment training after suffering a sight loss during her third year of teaching elementary school in Long Beach, California. After her fifteen weeks of training, she stayed on to teach Braille and a variety of subjects including visualization but resigned to enter graduate school. In addition to her present studies, she is tutoring at a drug rehabilitation center. She states that "those who are blind need to demand independence. They must request training, not patronage, and they must interact unapologetically and without special privileges in a sighted world."

The Kansas City Alumnae Association again awarded a special grant of $1000 for summer study at the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine under the auspices of Dr. Martha Taylor Sarno, Director of Speech Pathology Services. This coveted award was given to Mrs. Judy Cronheim, an outstanding scholar and candidate for a PhD degree in Speech Pathology. The award enabled her to pursue advanced clinical and research training in the field of aphasia. She states that the "supervised experience in research is essential for growth and development as a scholar and teacher."

Sarah Kay Hobart

Carolyn Kay Ledgerwood, Gamma Eta, Washington State University is the recipient of the Pasadena, California $1000 Award in memory of Carla Sargent Fisk. Kay, a first grade teacher, paralyzed from the waist down as a result of an auto accident during her senior year, is studying for her Masters Degree in Special Education at Arizona State University. She exemplifies the value of rehabilitation and is now continuing her education to help in the rehabilitation of others.

Dear Ladies of Kappa Kappa Gamma,

My unending thanks for making this past year possible. I received my M.A. on June 4th. The enclosed thesis just came from the bindery. This summer I have been working as the coordinator of the Learning Disabilities Lab at San Jose State, a position I will continue to hold in the fall.

I thank you for your support.

Loyally,

Sally Armond Moya, (ΔX)

Editor's note:

This is the first thesis Kappa has received from a Centennial Scholar. Her thesis is called "Spelling, Learning Disability, and Fernald Techniques". It is part of the resource department at Fraternity Headquarters.

Grants in the amount of at least $500 are available to Kappas and non-Kappas for advanced study. Applications may be secured from the chairman, Dr. Miriam Locke, Box 1484, University, Alabama 35486.

CARING AND SHARING THROUGH REHABILITATION SERVICES

Rehabilitation is more than just a word — it is the very real world of assisting those with special problems be restored and reinstated into society. With the tremendous advances in rehabilitation in the last twenty years through research, specialized facilities, and individualized training; the physically handicapped, the mentally retarded, the emotionally disturbed, the socially disadvantaged, and the aged are better able to live up to their capabilities and find a meaningful place in everyday life. To be associated with this field locally and nationally has been exciting and challenging, and our Rehabilitation Services are an integral part of our Kappa Life Style.

The service that Kappas give in the areas of rehabilitation are as varied as the numbers of alumnae groups and chapters involved, for each group finds the project in their community that suits the time, talent, and concern of their membership. The possibilities are endless and the satisfaction great. This past year —

191 alumnae groups supported 256 Rehabilitation projects

32,062 hours of volunteer service were given by Kappa groups to hospitals, clinics, Day Care Centers, schools, service agencies as aides, helpers, tutors

$81,172.50 was contributed for specialized equipment, camp scholarships, furnishings, clothing, books, and other needs in the local community for rehabilitation uses.

In addition, the chapters contributed time and dollars to their own rehabilitation projects by tutoring and assisting in Day Care centers, giving parties, providing outings for children confined to hospitals and training centers, helping with the Blood Bank and special medical drives. One chapter adopted a Navaho Indian boy through Children, Inc. and sent him letters, gifts and needed items.

Much of our support is in monetary contributions, and that is greatly needed and appreciated. A volunteer program to be effective, has to be consistent and ongoing and is a major undertaking, but many Kappa groups are carrying on exciting programs which are stimulating to them and satisfying to the agency served. One such project is carried on by the Pittsburgh South Hills Association. They serve as mobility guides at the Pittsburgh Guild for the Blind. It is the only center in the country that uses volunteers for this work. It is a real tribute to the dedicated Kappas of this area and a breakthrough in the use of volunteers.

From the beginning, our interest has been with children assisting in hospitals and training centers for the physically handicapped or those with learning disabilities in actual or supportive programs. Recently, a number of Kappa groups have found a new commitment in working with the socially disadvantaged youngster and teenager. The Baltimore, Maryland Association was presented an award for outstanding service to the Tawson Day Care Center. The Charleston, West Virginia Association is involved in a program called "Keep a Tot in School" which was organized by a member. Clothing and books are provided for youngsters that might otherwise stay away or drop out of school. Kappa groups are assuming the responsibility of aiding in Day Care Centers, tutoring bi-lingual children and counseling in Drug Rehabilitation Clinics. They are seeing the need in their own communities - they are meeting the need.

This is Philanthropy - Kappa style. What is the need in your community? What can you as a group do? Many of you are involved - as 6000 more volunteer hours and almost 10,000 more dollars were given to local community rehabilitation projects by Kappas this past year than in the previous year. Kappa is a vital force in Rehabilitation in our communities. All of the various local projects constitute the national program of Rehabilitation Service - the program of actual participation - of CARING and SHARING.

Dr Paul Gatens who was awarded a Howard A. Rusk Fellowship in Rehabilitation Medicine at the University of Missouri-Columbia Medical Center explains the use of rehab equipment to Mrs. Michael J. Scanlan (left) and Mrs. Charles W. Digges, Kappa Kappa Gamma representatives. Mrs. Scanlan, president of the Columbia (Mo.) alumnae club, was a member of Beta Xi chapter at the University of Texas; Mrs. Digges, treasurer, attended the University of Missouri-Columbia, Theta chapter.

Dr. Paul Gatens, resident physician in physical medicine and rehabilitation at the University of Missouri-Columbia Medical Center, has received a $10,000 Howard A. Rusk Fellowship in Rehabilitation Medicine awarded by Kappa Kappa Gamma from funds collected for the centennial celebration.

With a career goal in the academic area of this medical specialty, Dr. Gatens will use the funds to attend special courses at hospitals which offer exceptional training in the field, and also for independent research.

The fellowships bear the name of Dr. Howard Rusk, who pioneered in rehabilitation of injured veterans of World War II and has become world renowned in this field of medicine.

Dr. Rusk is a graduate of the University of Missouri and returned to the Columbia campus in September to receive an award as one of the most distinguished alumni.

Dr. Gatens received his undergraduate degree at St. Louis University and was graduated from medical school at the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1969.

Dr. Gatens' wife, Cindy, is head nurse of the rehabilitation unit in University Hospital. Severely injured in an automobile crash a few years ago. Mrs. Gatens completed nursing school in a wheelchair and continues to make her patient care rounds by this means of travel. As a student, she was president of the Missouri Student Nurses' Association. She received her B.S. in Nursing degree at Missouri in 1970.

A World To Care For

A World To Care For, The Autobiography of Howard A. Rusk, M.D. (Random House) October 1972 is a compelling and dramatic account of Dr. Rusk's accomplishments in his life long struggle to alleviate the suffering of people physically disabled and to make rehabilitation an accepted and basic aspect of medicine. Dr. Rusk's therapeutic philosophy is to treat the whole man—not only his physical but emotional, social, and psychological problems.

This book is also a tribute to the extraordinary achievements of thousands of disabled. Dr. Rusk relates case after case of people with a depth of spirit and will to succeed that few of us know. It is truly inspiring to learn that with proper training these people have overcome incredible disadvantages to become outstanding citizens and workers—proving it is not body alone that makes a man!

Gladys Houx Rusk Θ, University of Missouri, is the delightful wife of Dr. Rusk and also one of the judges for the Kappa rehabilitation awards.

It is Dr. Rusk's Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine (part of New York University Medical Center complex) that received a $15,000 grant from the Fraternity last June. The World Rehabilitation Fund, which Dr. Rusk helped to establish, has now trained more than one thousand physicians and rehabilitation specialists from eighty-five countries.

November 1972 issue of Ladies Home Journal carries an article by Dr. Rusk entitled, "Governor Wallace's Fight to Walk Again"—it is a personal account of his visit with the Wallaces and of the Governor's courageous battle to resume a normal life.

Keep these members informed about your Panhellenic accomplishments, outstanding programs, problems. Addresses may be found in The Key Directory.

Do you know that Kappa provided four hundred copies of the latest NPC reference, How To For College Panhellenics, for its delegates to the 1972 Convention? If you are unsure what the "Unanimous Agreements" between the twenty-six member groups are, see page 33; what the "Jurisdiction of a College Panhellenic Council" is, see page 34; what the "Relationship between College and City Panhellenics" is, see page 36. These things you need to know for greater understanding! Ask to see your chapter or alumnae copy of this publication. Extra copies may be ordered from National Panhellenic Conference, 1386 Ponce de Leon Ave., N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30306. Make checks payable to National Panhellenic Conference—one dollar per copy.

Do you know that "Questionnaires or requests, oral and written, may not be answered until such time as they have been reviewed by the NPC Committee on Public Relations and information released as to their validity? Such questionnaires and requests infringe upon individual freedom and the freedom of fraternal orders and private clubs guaranteed by the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States." Please refer all questionnaires to your Panhellenic delegate immediately.

Do you know that National Panhellenic Conference makes three awards to outstanding College Panhellenics – and your Panhellenic may be eligible? The next nominations will be made by June, 1973, by the Dean of Women or her Panhellenic Assistant, your NPC Area Advisor, the College Panhellenic Advisor, or the retiring College Panhellenic Council President on your campus. Kappa also makes its own awards and Field Secretaries, Area Advisors, and Province Officers are urged to submit nominations to the Panhellenic Affairs Committee. Why not look ahead and plan to enter the winner's circle!

Membership Statistics (1961-1971) has produced the following conclusions:

Also, twenty-five campuses have opened to Panhellenic groups in the past two years!

The idea of training for Kappa membership began in 1870, with the first pledge. The facts of the Fraternity were few, and could easily be transmitted from older to newer members as solemnly divulged secrets.

In 1888 a Manual of Instruction for chapter officers appeared. By 1914 Fraternity lore had increased to vast proportions. Cleora Wheeler, X, prepared a Song Leaflet and Manual of Information Including Material for Freshman Study for distribution at Convention that year. Although it was not an official Fraternity publication, it was helpful for pledge training through four editions. The first authorized Kappa Pledge Handbook and Instructions for Pledge Training were printed in 1931. Clara O. Pierce, BN, Executive Secretary at that time, supervised Fraternity publications until her retirement in 1969.

Catherine Schroeder Graf, BN, was appointed chairman of Fraternity publications in 1970 with an assignment to prepare a new pledge manual. Sally Moore Nitschke, BN, and Diane Miller Selby, BN, formed the nucleus of a committee to help determine where to begin.

Meeting with officers and advisers of several chapters in Gamma province, we asked them what they'd like to see in a new pledge manual. Because their answers were surprisingly divergent, we sent a questionnaire to all Kappa chapters!

Through their pledge trainers, 63 chapters responded with the majority agreeing on these points: 1) Format - looseleaf notebook an overwhelming choice. 2) Preferred areas for emphasis - pledge privileges and responsibilities, Fraternity structure, our future as Kappas, Kappa's contribution to the world outside the Fraternity, the Greek system. 3) Greatest need - an expression of the "essence of Kappa" and "humanness".

The Publication Committee had by now expanded to include Ann Fletcher Colvin, FH, former Fraternity Pledge Trainer; Phyllis Bolman Pfahl, P^Δ, former PDC; Barbara Terry Henderson, Δ, former PDA; Patti Weber Swaddling, K, former Headquarters Staff member; Ruann

Three pledge trainers were asked to assist the committee via mail: Donna Jaeger, FI; Laury Egan, ΔΞ; and Sally Ryder, BT.

Our ages spanned 25 years. Our viewpoints were diverse. We were truly a small cross section of Kappa.

We wrote, and rewrote, attempting to fit our separate ideas together. In working together, a cohesive kind of chemistry took place. The more we disagreed, the more we respected one another.

As we struggled to provide what the chapters wanted, we felt that we were "building a camel". We adopted as our very own, the joke, "Question: What is a camel? Answer: A horse which was put together by a committee."

A new idea began to take shape as we worked with material as interesting to us as to new members. Why should this book be strictly for pledges? Why not develop something which would have ongoing value for all Kappas?

We visualized a notebook to which pledge/chapter supplements could be added, mailings from Fraternity officers, and clippings from THE KEY. New pages could replace those which had become obsolete. Divider pages would facilitate the placement of materials.

The finished notebook now includes many photographs - four in full color: our founders, the coat of arms, Fraternity Headquarters, and our first Fraternity president. There are sketches, charts, and a new map showing chapter locations. A glossary of Fraternity terms and a complete index were added.

We hope that the flexibility of the format will allow for its continuing use across the whole spectrum of the Fraternity, from pledge to eldest interested alumna.

For information on how to obtain a new Kappa Notebook write to Fraternity Headquarters.

Spotlight on Kappa artists

Cleora Wheeler, X-Minnesota, our emeritus Kappa, finds that 64 years of creating personalized bookplates enhance her valuable contributions to the graphics arts. She is one of a few Americans asked to participate in the 14th International Bookplate Congress (Dansk Exlibris Selskab) at Elsinore in August 1972, and accepted by sending original bookplate designs from her large collection. Elsinore, with Kronborg Castle, is the scene of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and is situated 25 miles north of Copenhagen, where artists assembled for discussions, exchanges and the opening of Ex-Libris Exhibition and distribution of competition prizes. The Pioneer Press of St. Paul printed a feature article March 25, 1972, concerning Miss Wheeler and her intricate work. Early bookplates were inked and painted by hand in books of wealthy persons. The technique was practiced in the 16th century by Durer, Holbein, Hogarth, Chippendale and Cranach. Miss Wheeler began as a free-lance Christmas card artist, and St. Paul's radio station, Twin City, made in June 1972 a tape recording in sound and full color of her story of making and marketing cards. Miss Wheeler, now a connoisseur of rare parchments, engraving techniques and etching feels that contrary to the attitudes of women's lib, male prejudice in her college years worked to her advantage. Professor William H. Kirchner, an authority on lettering, asked his Minnesota class of boys if they had any objection to a girl in the class. They DID, giving as a reason they wanted to work in shirtsleeves. She grew up with a father and three brothers, but Professor Kirchner ended by giving her private instruction, where as a solo pupil she became increasingly expert. Famous persons and organizations for whom Miss Wheeler has done individualized book plates include Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity, Daughters of American Revolution, St. Paul YWCA (her first commission), the author, Mildred Aldrich, and families: Kellogg, Riggs, Ordway, Daniesl, Prince, Savage and Weyerhaeuser. Her book plates have been exhibited extensively, and her fame is growing. Six articles appeared in Minnesota Medicine on her bookplates, and the University of Minnesota Special Collections at the library are reprinting these. At present, the Christian Science Monitor plans a feature on her precise art.

Rounding out a red-letter year, the Pasadena library has placed on view an exhibition of bookplates by Cleora Wheeler.

Katherine Gorham, BII-University of Washington, is a cum laudé Master of Fine Arts in textile design, with a BA in art. She uses Batik combined with reverse applique, stitchery and applique techniques. Her style is highly ornamental using bright colors and rich materials, silks, velvets and satins. Religious symbolism is carefully worked into her designs. Five basic colors (white, purple, green, red and black) have symbolic references in church liturgy, and she is conscious of their meanings when she employs them. While working for her Masters, she selected a thesis project, which brought her immediate attention as a young artist. She planned a set of church vestments, and interviewed priests and read widely concerning church robes and religious symbols. There are no patterns for vestments, but she found one book in French, which she could read, having also a French major. She planned a garment that was functional, original and very beautiful.

The Rev. C. Roy Coulter, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Seattle, advised her and acted as a model when she fitted her thesis vestment. This robe has been used in church services ever since, including weddings. Colors for it are brilliant blue and red on white, and the elaborate parts are the back and hem.

Friends of the Crafts, a North West organization promoting hand-craftsmanship, named Katherine "Young Craftsman of the Year 1972," and she was elected to be a member of Northwest Designer Craftsmen.

At present, Katherine is living in Seattle, and teaching textile design at the Factory of Visual Art, a private school. In addition, she works on commissions for quilts, altar cloths, and liturgical vestments, and gives workshops in her area in textile designing. She says of herself, "I use bright, bold color combinations in almost everything. Color is an important part of my work."

Carolyn Smith Paschal, Θ-Missouri, with paintings, identified top to bottom: seascape in oil; ink and wash ducks; prize-winning casein tea kettle; two florals and portrait in oil.

Carolyn Smith Paschal, Θ-Missouri, B.A. in Journalism and also a graduate of Stephens College, has had an 18-year study of art, which has led her from Foothills Junior College in California; Evangel College in Springfield, Missouri; Memphis Academy of Art, Tennessee; Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma; Livingston State Teachers College in Livingston, Alabama; and Art Institute of Ft. Worth. In addition, she had private teachers in Springfield, Palo Alto and Ft. Worth.

Because of her husband Robert Paschal's career in railroading she moved 13 times in 21 years, and wherever she was, her paintings were displayed, making her an exhibitor in eight states: Missouri, Kansas, Alabama, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and California. In 1968 at the Texas State Fair in Dallas, she received Designer's Craftsman Award for a handmade pin and second prize for painting. She held a one-woman exhibit at First National City Bank in Ft. Worth.

Although she prefers landscapes and buildings as subject material, she enjoys the challenge of pleasing customers, who want special pictures. While her favorite media is pen and ink, she uses oil, watercolor, and casein, and teaches classes. At one time or another, she has tried all styles from primitive to impressionistic. Her most recent exhibition included 50 paintings in oil, watercolor, casein, and pen and ink at Homewood Public Library, Illinois. Her husband died suddenly in March 1972, after a distinguished career, which included a 1966 fellowship at Stanford-Sloan Advanced Business Management School in California, and executive positions with St. Louis-San Francisco Railways, Ft. Worth and Denver Railways, and Illinois Central. Their children are Melinda Ann, 16, and Alan Louis, 10. With her two children, Carolyn will live in Columbia, Missouri, where she began in August 1972, a new job as Director of Public Information, in charge of publications and publicity for Stephens College, a four-year girls' school in Columbia. This is coming almost full circle, as she won in 1948 their Humanities Award, edited the college newspaper, and made BΦΓ for journalism and ΦΘΚ for grades.

Painting and creative art has always been part of her life, and she says, "One can't think of anything else while painting." She was serving as publicity chairman for the Chicago South Suburban Alumnae, when the family lived in Flossmoor, Illinois, at the time of her husband's death.

Claire Blackford Spitler, I-DePauw, in sculpture garden at Gallery One, Findlay, Ohio. Small sculpture in background by John Zeilman. Tall sculpture behind Mrs. Spitler by Ronald Coleman, art chairman at Bowling Green State University.

Clare Blackford Spitler, I-DePauw, who operates Gallery One, 231 West Hardin Street, Findlay, Ohio, is the choice of the Ohio Arts Council (OAC) to be the first private gallery to bring an art show into the Executive Mansion, Bexley, Ohio, to launch a program to develop the arts. Governor and Mrs. John J. Gilligan held a reception January 28, 1972, for the Spitlers and their contributing Gallery One artists. More than 800 people saw the exhibit, which lasted two months.

Donald Streibig, director of OAC, says that one reason Gallery One was selected for the honor is because it is so well managed. Operating in Northern Ohio, Gallery One now has a stable of outstanding contemporary artists; many of whom hold one-man shows; and whose work is announced with colorful and imaginative leaflets. In the middle of the summer, there is an "inside-Out" (this year July 20 and 21) rain, or shine, with refreshments, a door prize, and piano music.

Clare Spitler believes in art. The slogan she likes is "Art is for you—not just the few." She knows that in her words, "Selling quality art is always a challenge, there are many discriminating collectors for whom she hopes to be of service." Her selection as the first small gallery to participate in the OAC program is a great honor, and an excellent thing for artists and public. The purpose of displaying art in the Governor's Mansion is to reach people, who are reluctant to enter a private gallery, even one as warm and hospitable as hers. The elegant setting of the Mansion in Bexley is an impressive showcase for paintings and sculpture in all media, techniques, and styles, from traditional realism to abstract. Scattered throughout the mansion, art is viewed quite differently than in a gallery, museum, or private home. Gallery One closed through August, and last fall re-opened with a reception for two members of the art faculty at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Dianne Almen-dinger, showed paintings and drawings, and Ebb Haycock exhibited sculpture. A new addition to the gallery complex is a permanent fountain, designed and executed by Ronald Coleman of Bowling Green State University.

Jeanne Huber Butler, ΔA-Penn State, an art major, took a Masters at Bowling Green State, and had additional training at Ohio Northern. She is an oil painter, prefers landscapes, and describes her style as impressionistic. Her career as an artist began in Wooster, Ohio, where she was head of advertising for William Annat Department Store in 1948. In 1960, she taught music, art and English in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, public schools. The year 1965, found her an elementary art consultant for the schools of Raleigh, North Carolina. In 1966, she became art consultant for the Bowling Green, Ohio, school system. Since 1967, she has been a full-time art teacher at Findlay High School, Findlay, Ohio, where she says an under-staffed art department in a school of 2,100 students, offers six credits of art, and manages somehow to receive half the top awards at the Northwest Ohio Scholastics Art Exhibitions.

Her list of awards won and places where her own paintings have been shown is staggering. In 1960, she received honorable mention in the 32nd annual of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania's Art Association, and was one of 60 finalists in Motorola National Art Competition. The next year, she was included in the Annual Atlantic States competition at Washington County Museum, Hagerstown, Maryland. In 1962, she received one first award and one merit award in the 10th annual spring exhibition of the Lima Art Association, Lima, Ohio. In 1963, she received Best-Of-Show Award in the 11th annual of the same organization. In 1963 and again in 1964, her paintings were purchased by Bowling Green State University for their permanent collection, which now has four.

Every year until the present, her paintings have been in national and regional shows including exhibitions of United States Artists at Butler Institute of American Art, Youngstown, Ohio; Allen County Museum, Lima; Piedmont Painting and Sculpture, Mint Museum, Charlotte, North Carolina; 31st Annual Regional Artists Exhibition, Ft. Wayne, Indiana; Toledo Area Artists 49th Annual, Toledo, Ohio; Mansfield Art Center 27th Annual, Mansfield, Ohio; Van Wert Artists Area Show, Van Wert, Ohio; and the Ohio Arts Council show with Gallery One, the Governor's Mansion, Bexley, Ohio in 1972.

Jeanne is a professional cello musician, and before she became a full-time art teacher and vigorous painter, played with various symphonies, string quartets and pick-up groups. Her first one-man art show was at Lima Memorial Hall in 1963, in connection with Jose Iturbi's Concert, with the Lima Symphony Orchestra. Since then, she has had one-man shows at Lehr Building, Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio (1963-64); Findlay Senior High School, Findlay, Ohio (1964, 1967); and Gallery One, Findlay (1967, 1969, 1972).

Her husband is Daniel Butler, ΣΦΕ, with a Ph.D from Ohio State, in Genetics, who teaches at Ohio Northern University about 18 miles from Findlay, where the family lives. Their children are Daniel R. III, 23; Lawrence, 21; and Laura Joan, 18. Mrs. Huber is an active participant of the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee, and last fall was campaign manager for one of the local candidates.

Judith Ann Jones Holsenbeck, IT — Maryland, with marble sculpture.

Martha Jo Ramsay, ET-North Carolina, is a senior working toward a Bachelor of Fine Arts, granted in December 1972, who will continue as a special student to earn an Art Education degree. Her series of stained, pieced canvases were displayed in a one-man show at Wesley Foundation at the University of North Carolina campus during the month of September. Other paintings have been in the annual student art show at Ackland Art Museum at the campus, and one has been purchased by the museum as part of their Loan Collection. She makes sales to individual buyers from time to time.

Her usual paintings are in acrylic, and generally large, averaging three by four feet. She uses abstract figures, and organic forms, bright vibrant colors, and blue-greens. She does print-making and ceramics. She is chapter Panhellenic representative, and in constant demand for hand-lettering name tags, rushing posters, and scrapbooks. When not living in Chapel Hill, she joins her family in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Judith Ann Jones Holsenbeck, IT-University of Maryland, spent two years at Maryland, and three more at Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama. She took private art lessons while in Maryland from Ingrid Rehert, and spent another four months studying art in Japan. Since she was a child, art has been her interest as her mother is a technical illustrator and free-lance artist. Her own best work, she feels, are drawings, although she paints and sculpts in clay, marble and cement, and has a room full of 30" x 40" oils and acrylics.

Natural forms inspire her, and she says she has no definite style as yet, although all her work is definitely structured. In 1968, she received first prize in Perry Point, Maryland's Arts and Crafts show. In June, 1972, she was first-prize winner in Gentry Village Arts and Crafts Fair, Auburn, Alabama, and received honorable mention in Eufaula, Alabama, at the arts council annual August sidewalk show, which is notable for quality art.

Her husband is Daniel Carter Holsenbeck, KA at Auburn, and M.D. from John Hopkins in Baltimore. Judith and her husband now live in Auburn, Alabama, where Judith is doing art work for Auburn University Extension Service, while working toward a degree in visual design.

Design by Nan Nalder, T H-Washington State, for brochure describing architectural services of her company.

Nancy Alma Nalder, T H-Washington State, was reviewed soon after she was graduated with honors in 1961. Since that time, she has collected awards literally too numerous to list in their entirety. While she says her work is architecture, she is painter, draughtsman, and expert in aniline dyes, stains, collag , transfers, and color studies, which require illustrations, graphic designs, and consultant work with architects. As member of The Design Company, 1015 Battery Street, San Francisco, she works with Ramon Zambrano, AIA, and Richard L. Brewer. She describes her style as abstract and surreal, with much emphasis on color. A few of the projects on which she has worked as an architect are: Alta Bates Hospital, Berkeley (design, color selections); Winter Park Memorial Hospital, Winter Park, Florida (master planning); Dominican Hospital, Santa Cruz (master plan); Benjamin Rush Elementary School, Kirkland, Washington (supervision colors and materials); Lake City Elks Club, Seattle (lighting fixture design with Leta Davis); Interfaith Chapel, Monroe State Reformatory, Washington (color and materials, lighting fixtures with Leta Davis); Kent Junior High School, Kent, Washington (specifications, selection materials, design, modernization); The Harvard Exit, a cinema in Seattle (planning, design, logo and graphics); and John Muir Hospital, Walnut Creek, California (graphics for the master plan). At various times, she has been employed by or been consultant for: the architecture firms Rex Allen Partnership, Sullam Smith & Associates, and Sullam & Aehle. She served for a short time as instructor in the Medford, Oregon, public schools; worked as layout artist for Frederick & Nelson, Seattle, Washington; was art director for Tycker & Holt Advertising; illustrator for Washington State University Press, Pullman, Washington; and engineering draftsman for the United States Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington.

She has held one-man art shows at the Rogue Gallery, Medford, Oregon, in 1964, 1966, and 1971; at Berk Gallery, Seattle, in 1969, 1970; Attica Gallery, Seattle, Washington in 1967, 1968; Collectors Gallery, Bellevue, 1965, 1966; Southern Oregon College, Ashland, Oregon, 1965; Jane Clark Gallery, Carmichael, California, in 1964, and was included in "Northwest Painters Today," a traveling Show of 1965, which stopped at the Corcoran among other places. She was a first-place winner in 1964 in the Oregon Competition of Painting; in 1963 at Edmonds Art Festival; in 1965 at Renton Summer Arts Festival; second-place winner in graphic design in 1961 in Crown Zellerbach Competition; and received the Henry Rashin Award in 1969 at Frye Museum. Her works are in major collections including the United States National Bank of Oregon; Haseltine Collection of Northwest Art, Seattle; Helen Crocker Collection, Sacramento; A.S.V. Carpenter Collection; Bank of California; Pacific Power and Light; and the Oregon City Hall Collection at Medford.

She has civic interests for which she contributes both time and art work. Among these are illustrating a newsletter for Washington Environmental Council; serving as an aide at Hatch Elementary School, working with children with learning problems; the League of Women Voters; and study groups concerned with law enforcement, environmental quality, and student action programs. She has a son Eric Roger Christopher Tonkin, born August 4, 1962.

"West of Bent," collage, 1972 by Mary Ellen Biciste Porter, A²-Monmouth.

Mary Ellen Biciste Porter, A²-Monmouth, was graduated in 1967 with an art major. Five years later, the Art Center at Monmouth featured her in a second annual alumni art show, beginning Homecoming weekend, October seventh and eighth, 1972, in which 75 works were on exhibition in a wide range of media including oil, collage, water color, pastel, sculpture and lithography. Her paintings show influences of the Southwest, themes of Indian relics, desert landscapes, and more recently her concern for urban congestion.

After leaving college, Mary Ellen's first job was in the Elgin, Illinois, public school system as elementary art consultant. She taught painting at the Galesburg Civic Art Center, and in the summer of 1969, was art history lecturer at Monmouth College. At other times, she has taught elementary and high school classes at Itasca, Illinois; Riverside, New Jersey; and Alamogordo, New Mexico. While her husband was in military service, she attended Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, Texas. The Porters now live in Addison, Illinois, while Len, also a 1967 graduate of Monmouth, is Director of Alumni-Parent Relations at Monmouth College.

Nancy Dennison Weaver, IO-University of Wyoming, took her B.A. in fine arts. While she considers herself primarily a painter, she sculpts using clay and wire, and works with collage. Most of her compositions feature the figure. Her brush strokes are scrubby and texturally busy in bright colors. Her sculptures are quite geometric. Nancy and her husband William (Larry), who is a ΣN and still in Law school at University of Wyoming, have two boys: Jeff, 5½, and Mark, three. Nancy teaches art in summer camps and baby-sits to help the family income. To date she has completed some abstracts commissioned in acrylics.

Philanthropic Patterns Put Epsilon Zeta on Top at Florida State

The 1971-1972 Phi Mu Social Service Award has been presented by Panhellenic and the Inter-Fraternity Council to Kappa's Epsilon Zeta chapter. This annual award is given to the sorority or fraternity on the Florida State University Campus contributing most to the school and the Tallahassee (Florida) community.

The Epsilon Zetas are contributing much of the honor to their past philanthropy chairman, Sally Netherland. Under her leadership, the Kappas donated $25 appropriated for Homecoming decorations to the Tallahassee Junior Museum, raised $96 in the Tallahassee Jaycee Halloween Candy Sale for underprivileged children, and helped the Kiwanis Club with their light bulb sale. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were prepared for families in Tallahassee, and pumpkins were donated to each fraternity on campus.

Volunteers stuffed envelopes for the Heart Fund and Conservation 70's and also entered the Alpha Phi Omega Beauty and the Beast Contest, helping them raise money for the Heart Association. The girls also read to blind students. The biggest project undertaken was sponsoring a Panhellenic-Inter-Fraternity Council football game, which was refereed by the University president, vice-president for student affairs and the student body president. The game netted $193 for the Tallahassee Junior Museum.

In addition to these group efforts, Epsilon Zeta Kappas have served the school and the community individually (See the following page). But the chapter's pattern of hard work does not stop here, for they are very proud of their award and have vowed to contribute even more to the 1972-1973 year!

Epsilon Zetas Help Individually, Too —

As individuals, many of the Epsilon Zeta actives tutored at the local schools to help the slow learners have a better chance in school. Four of the girls marched in the HIKE FOR HOPE to raise money for the ship HOPE. Each girl got a sponsor to pay a certain amount of money per mile that she walked. Three of the girls walked the entire 20 miles.

Twenty actives worked at the Tallahassee Open Golf Tournament acting as drivers, scorekeepers, hostesses, raising money and volunteering. One active is involved working at the Rehabilitation Center 10 to 12 hours per week helping deaf children. Three actives worked on a party for under-privileged children and worked on the state-run Conservation 70's project. One Kappa works at Sunland Training Center for children and one works as a volunteer swimming instructor for retarded children.

Delta Chapter Treats Handicapped Children to a Happy Halloween

The Kappas at Indiana organized with a fraternity a "Trick or Treat for Unicef" march with about 25 children from the Indiana University Speech and Hearing Clinic. They took the children to houses and dorms to collect money for other children aided by Unicef.

The evening's march was followed by a party at the Kappa house for all the children and their hosts.

Pictured above are Gamma Zeta actives in the University of Arizona Hostesses (an organization founded by Kappas to show visitors around the campus and hostess many campus functions). They are (left to right) top: Kathrine Kessler, Melissa Day, Christine Smith, Robin Bonelli, Susan Klees, Gayle Gormley; and bottom: Christine Armstrong, Kathrine Varney, Robyn Russell, Dede Klein, Susan Hood.

USC Coeds Rush to Help

"Project Day" at the University of Southern California last fall was one of the most successful days of rush week—successful in that actives and rushees had a good time working together and successful in that the Rehabilitation Center at the Childrens Hospital of Los Angeles was to benefit from the project.

Depending on which houses the rushees visited on that day, they worked with actives to make such things as decorations, wall hangings, bean bags, pillows or even macaroni Christmas trees—all items for the Hospital's annual Doll Fair and the booth sponsored by Panhellenic.

Some of the Delta Tau Kappas dressed as Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy in keeping with the theme of the wall hangings they were making to be sold in the booth at the Doll Fair. Each sorority donated the materials used.

It was the USC Panhellenic officials who started the idea, which must have been very successful. According to the girls, it was a much more comfortable way to get to know each other and it was more meaningful to know you were working together for a specific charity.

Praise for Philanthropy Efforts at Northwestern

Once again, Kappas have been recognized for outstanding philanthropic service through the efforts of Upsilon actives at Northwestern, who participated in the annual "Philip Martin Renner Memorial Club" Tag Day to raise money for kidney research. They helped to collect over $6,600.00 for the Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago. The Club's Tag Day Chairman has written, "... too often our youth are misunderstood, when in reality there is more student participation than any other generation that preceded them in the quest for peace, equality and a better world for all people . . ."

At Home and Abroad

Five actives from one chapter have been selected to membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are Mary Jeanne Bahr, Carolann Ksiazek, Teresa Owens, Joan Reynolds and Helen Wei, all Gamma Psi Kappas at the University of Maryland.

Margaret Driscoll, ΔΔ — Penn State, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Delta Alpha president.

Ann Wrona, ΔΔ — Penn State, was chosen as one of 40 Penn State students to participate in a unique practicum instituted by the University. They spent nine weeks last spring in concentrated study of marine science at the Wallops Island Marine Science Consortium, Wallops Island, Virginia.

Selected to join the North Carolina School of the Arts orchestra was Margaret Proctor, ΕΓ — North Carolina. She played first violin in the 60-member orchestra which toured Europe last summer.

Nancy Stowers, ΕΑ-Texas Christian, Who's who Among Greeks.

Another Epsilon Gamma active at North Carolina, Peggy Senter, accompanied the Carolina Choir which served as the host choir at a music festival in Graz, Austria.

Sharon Golden and Mary Jane Copley, ΒΤ — West Virginia, spent six weeks last summer studying architecture in eight different countries.

The Bloomington (Illinois) City Panhellenic Scholarship has been awarded to an Epsilon active, Mary Lynn Bumgardner. The scholarship is presented to the Greek woman at Illinois Wesleyan with the highest overall grade point and with consideration for involvement in campus activities. Mary Lynn's activities and honors have included membership in Egas, Alpha Lambda Delta, Kappa Delta Pi (education honorary), Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Omicron (professional music fraternity), marching band and concert band, women's choir and Chapel Choir, Dean's List, Music Educators National Conference, Presser Foundation Scholar (for outstanding musicians) and Professional Panhellenic Council.

It's a Woman's World, Too!

Alpha Zeta, an agricultural school honorary at the University of Idaho, recently opened its all-male membership to include two girls. One of them is a Beta Kappa active — Stephanie Fosberg, who is an accomplished horsewoman with many titles to her name. Stephanie was one of five riders to represent the U.S. Olympic team at Langlay, British Columbia in August 1972. The U.S. won second place in the event.

At the Dressage, Crosscountry and Show-jumping in Seattle in July, Stephanie won first in all events of individual competition. She captured the top award in Dressage, which is a show-riding competition. In a five-mile endurance test called Crosscountry, she placed first and in Show-jumping, a specific stadium jumping event, she also took the top honor.

Stephanie has also taught horse technique to young riders, attended instructor clinics, and planned schooling shows. In 1972, she won her 'A' rating, the highest, in the National Pony Club, a national organization for horseback riders under the age of 21, with emphasis on excellence in horsemanship.

A veterinarian science major, Stephanie is the only woman eligible to apply for veterinarian school from the University of Idaho. She says, "There is no reason why a girl can't do as well as a man."

New books by Kappa authors

LIVING IN TAIWAN: A Handbook for Housewives by Helen Freytag, MeiYa Publications, Inc., Taipei, Taiwan, 1970, 289pp. non-fiction.

Should you be going to Taiwan to live, or any place in the Far East, you can have access to inside information by obtaining a copy of Helen Hughes Freytag's HANDBOOK, in which she tells how to settle in new surroundings as quickly as possible.

Helen Freytag (Beta Lambda, University of Illinois) is one of those fortunate individuals who can adapt to an entirely different lifestyle and make it seem as simple as a move across the county. Helen and her husband Richard spent eight years in the Orient. He is with the International Division, First National Bank. When they lived in Tokyo, Helen taught diplomatic history of the United States at the University of Maryland Extension. In Taipei, Taiwan, she did a weekly cookery column for the China Post and wrote LIVING IN TAIWAN.

"Everyone needs a nest" and "Everyone needs a friend". The author advises the newcomer to "settle in as quickly as possible . . . Being a foreigner living abroad can be a delightful trip back to a time when people needed and helped one another."

Though she suggests that one take a reasonable supply of cocktail cherries, olives and onions, Helen assures you that you can comfortably leave your repairman behind—the ones in Taipei are far more prompt to answer a distress call and "Unbelievably, they come when they say they will and even—smelling salts please—call if they cannot!"

Since an excellent way of meeting people is through social and volunteer organizations, a list of these is included as are all National Holidays. Household hints are not overlooked either, nor is the etiquette of the country.

The Freytags are back in the States at present, but they have two lively mementoes of their years in the Orient; Richard was born in Tokyo and their daughter, Bliss, in Taiwan.

For those interested in obtaining a copy of HANDBOOK, Helen Freytag's permanent mailing address is: 206 North Hughes Road, Woodstock, Ill. 60098.

HONEYMOON ODYSSEY by Bob M. Watt

Kappas of Theta Chapter, University of Missouri, 1909-1913, will be interested in knowing that Bob Lindsey Watt has published a delightful memoir of a belated honeymoon.

World War I postponed the original honeymoon trip to Europe of Bob and Will Watt. One thing and another continued to postpone a trip until April of 1956 when their plans were finally realized.

Bob Watt's husband, William, was a founder of Second Presbyterian Church, Thomasville, Georgia and until his death in 1967 was an active Rotarian, receiving many honors for his work with the Georgia Rotary Student Program.

The author's joy in her marriage and her life is expressed in this Journal. For those wishing to renew contact, Mrs. Watt's address is 714 North Dawson Street, Thomasville, Georgia 31792.

THE PLEASURE IS YOURS: EL PLACER ES

SUYO by Elaine Edmunds, Published by Sugar Daddy Publications, 928pp. $12.50, non-fiction.

You expect to come across recipes of tacos, tostados and enchiladas in the Spanish language—but hush puppies, yorkshire pudding and corned beef hash???? Well, why not if the cook book is bilingual and the author has lived in Venezuela since 1948?

Elaine Carlson Edmunds (Beta Mu, University of Colorado) did not start out to write a cookbook, it just grew to 750 recipes from a beginning collection of family history recipes for her daughters. To these recipes were added the Venezuelan dishes she has prepared during 24 years of living in Caracas, plus others she uncovered teaching a gourmet cooking class for the Venezuela University Women's Association. Her English speaking friends enjoyed her efforts immediately, but there were complaints from her South American contemporaries. The book should be in Spanish also. Now it is and the pleasure is everybody's. Because it is, Elaine received the "Amiga de Venezuela" honor which is given each year to those foreigners who contribute to the community life.

Elaine writes: "Venezuela is exciting to live in as it develops industrially and politically. It offers something for everyone—jungle, mountains, plains, coastline, and tiny villages up to our amazing metropolis, Caracas, with two million people (of the eleven million in the country.)"

Elaine is married to Ralston P. Edmunds, a lawyer and economist. They have two daughters and four grandchildren. Her daughter, Dorothy Moeller, did the illustrations for this book and daughter, Joan Weaver, is a Kappa of the Beta Mu chapter.

THE PLEASURE IS YOURS can be purchased in the United States through Lewis Meyer Book Store, 3401 South Peoria Street, Tulsa, Okla. 74105, for $12.50.

Alumnae News

Preparing items for the Boulder Alumnae Association's Santa's House boutique are, from left, Patty Clark Hawkins, Δ I-Louisiana State; Ann Mallan Fontenot, Δ Ψ -Texas Tech, and Ruth Wierman Hamilton, B.M.-Colorado. Proceeds from the benefit, jointly sponsored with Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae, went to Boulder's Attention Homes, temporary homes for troubled teenagers. The Christmas boutique featured gift items for adults and children, baked goods, a puppet show and visits with Mr. and Mrs. Santa. For more holiday-inspired alumnae activity, see following pages.

Cleveland

An annual sale of Christmas cards provides funds for the Cleveland East Side Alumnae Association's philanthropies, the Cerebral Palsy Foundation School and the Millridge School for the Hearing Impaired. Gail Carey Seiple, P^a-Ohio Wesleyan (center), presents a check to Miss Alice C. Kent, a supervisor at Millridge School. At left are Lana Moxley Knopf, BZ-University of Iowa, an executive board member of the association, and her daughter, Elise, a pupil at Millridge School.

Top teacher

Each Christmas for the past 30 years, Edwina Patton, Δ-Indiana, has composed a poem to send to special friends. Recently the Huntington, Indiana, Writer's Club asked her to share her collection of yule poems at a public reading at Huntington College, where she is assistant professor of English. In addition to poetry, Miss Patton has numerous other interests. She and her sister, Elizabeth, also a Kappa, have traveled extensively. Students at Huntington College selected her as the distinctive teacher at the college for 1972.

How Dallas does it

It's true! The Dallas Alumnae Association's latest Holiday Homes Tour grossed nearly $18,000 in one day. The lovely rooms pictured below were among the settings in four homes that attracted throngs of visitors. About 400 alumnae took part in this super money-maker for the Children's Medical Center, Dallas Services for Blind Children and Fraternity philanthropies. Kappa craftsmen attended "work parties" for months before the event and created over 3,000 items to be sold. Members prepared an attractive brochure listing saleable items on display and house information. The day of the event, bus tours were available, with lunch at a country club optional. At each home chances were sold on a grand prize and carolers sang merrily all day long. Alumnae who graciously opened their showplace homes for the event were Margaret Dalton Folsom, ΓΦ-Southern Methodist; Marilyn McCullough Musolino, BΘ-Oklahoma; Peggy Dunlap Thompson, BΞ-Texas; and Alice Webb Spradley, ΓΦ-Southern Methodist. Chairman was Margaret Ann "Punk" Ammons Field, ΓN-Arkansas. The tour is an every-other-year event, and alumnae admit their latest success will be a hard act to follow.

Activity . . .

Washington — Suburban Maryland

The Embassy of Uruguay was the setting for the benefit buffet and holiday fashion show of the Washington, D.C.-Suburban Maryland Alumnae Association. Proceeds went to the Urban Service Corps. From left, Constance Smith Peeler, $\Gamma\chi$ -George Washington; Miss Sandy Sullivan, a professional model; Pat Dimling Reuther, $\Delta\Xi$ -Carnegie Mellon, association president; Mrs. Hector Luisi, wife of the Ambassador of Uruguay; and Lynn Cashman Astrich, $\Gamma\psi$ -Maryland, benefit chairman. Celebrity model for the event was Constance Cornell Stuart, $\Gamma\psi$ -Maryland, who is staff director to Mrs. Richard Nixon.

Portland trims trees

Hundreds of handcrafted tree ornaments are featured at the Portland Alumnae Association's annual "Trees of Christmas" benefit. To make shopping for the beautiful ornaments even more enjoyable, the alumnae offer patrons a champagne box luncheon. Proceeds from the popular venture go to the Kidney Association of Oregon.

Houston

Kansas City

Proceeds from the Greater Kansas City Alumnae Association's annual Holiday House Tour totaled $12,000, of which $6,300 was donated to the Pre-school for the Deaf at the Children's Rehabilitation Unit of the University of Kansas Medical Center. Miss Madaline Goetzinger, center, accepted the check for the pre-school from the tour chairman, Judith Kay Hoffman, Ω -University of Kansas. Standing at right is Barbara Jean Van Orden Reed, BT -Syracuse University, tour co-chairman. Association president is Anne Hoffman Nichols, Σ -Nebraska, seated with pupils.

Janet Jerles Folsom

A feature article on Janet Jerles Folsom, ΔΞ-Carnegie, appeared in a Boulder, Colorado, newspaper recently, outlining her family's experiences while living and traveling in Europe and Africa the past four years. The Folsoms moved to Boulder from Frankfurt, Germany, where her husband, Wes, worked for IBM. In addition to many memories, the Folsoms returned to the United States with numerous pieces of antique furniture, china and crystal, and this talented Kappa is considering opening an antique shop.

Jeannette Hafner Hahner, B Ω-Oregon, was elected Position 1 of the 16th Legislative District in the State of Washington. Mrs. Hahner, who holds a law degree, was the first woman member of the Walla Walla School Board.

Rosemary Hussey, Δ-Indiana, knows what it is to be a student again. She was the proud recipient of a diploma at the May, 1972, commencement exercises at Indiana University. She first entered the university in 1929.

Names in the news ...

Alice Ann Rice Bell

Alice Ann Rice Bell, Υ-Northwestern, was chosen Panhellenic 1972 Woman of the Year in Honolulu, Hawaii. Her many activities include Junior League, Campfire Girls, Committee on Clean Air and Water, Hale Kipa home for girls and Kailua Drug Clinic.

Katharine Farber Futch, ΓΘ-Drake, is completing a two-year term as director of District VIII, Florida State Society of the DAR. A freelance writer, she was listed in the 1972 English publication of "The Two Thousand Women of Achievement." She also was listed in the 1971 Volume of Personalities in the South and Who's Who in American Women.

Henrietta McArthur, ΔΥ-Georgia, was chosen one of the ten outstanding young men and women of Atlanta by TOYPA, an organization which recognizes young singles who have distinguished themselves in careers and civic affairs. She is with the Citizens and Southern National Bank in Atlanta.

Woman of the year in Lubbock, Texas, is Pauline Yeager Bean, ΔΨ-Texas Tech. She is on the board of the Texas Tech Museum, and has served the museum in many capacities through the years. Her many activities include the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, United Fund, AAUW, Symphony Guild, and president of Lubbock Alumnae Association.

Pauline Yeager Bean

Dorothy Barbour Brassey

Geraldine Thomas Keating

Dorothy Barbour Brassey, Γ M-Oregon State, was recently featured as a "Distinguished Citizen" of Boise, Idaho, in The Idaho Statesman. She has served as president of the American Association of University Women, elementary and junior high school PTAs, St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary, and Boise Alumnae Association. Her other activities include the Beaux Arts Society, St. Luke's Ball, Historical Society and Joffrey Ballet.

Geraldine Thomas Keating, Δ -Akron, is executive director of the International Association of Business Communicators, an important position that evolved from volunteer work she began at Akron General Hospital several years ago. She began doing routine volunteer work, and finally ended up in the hospital's public relations office. From there her status changed within a few years from nonpaid volunteer to head of a worldwide professional society. Her other activities have included United Fund, Witan Club, PTA, and House Building Committee of Lambda Chapter. She is past president of the Akron Alumnae Association.

Janet Evans Hull, Υ -Northwestern, is one of four Community Women of Achievement in Corvallis, Oregon. She was cited for her work with the Migrant Ministry, an organization she was instrumental in founding after hearing a speech on the plight of migrant farm workers. To further her work she has learned to speak Spanish. When Cesar Chavez, spokesman for migrant farm labor, came to Salem, Oregon, for a rally last year, Mrs. Hull delivered the welcome to him. A Camp Fire Girl group leader, she also is a member of the Benton County Medical Auxiliary and a ruling elder in First United Presbyterian Church. She and her husband, an anesthesiologist, are active in Crossroads, an organization which promotes friendships with foreign students.

Jean Chambers Thwaite, Σ -Nebraska, wins friends and influences people with her advice as food editor of The Atlanta Constitution. She and her husband, Dr. Walter G. Thwaite, have four daughters and two grandchildren.

Pat Posten Noyes, Δ E-Rollins, was recently the subject of a "Cooking Corner" feature in Monmouth Moods, listing favorite recipes of her sports-minded and nature loving family. She is a member of the Matawan Borough Bayshore Hospital Auxiliary and public relations chairman of the North Jersey Shore Alumnae Club.

Mary Jeanne Druse, Δ B-Duke, has received a Ph. D. from the Department of Biochemistry at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She was granted a predoctoral fellowship by the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, where she is now doing research in neurobiology.

Harriet Drury VanMeter, B X-Kentucky, was cited recently for her work as founder of the International Book Project, which has headquarters in Lexington, Kentucky. The project collects books from all over this country for shipment abroad to needy areas.

Betty Miller Hart, B T-Syracuse, was one of only nine state artists whose works were chosen for special showing at the 1972 juried art exhibition at the New Jersey State Museum.

Two Kappas and a Delta Gamma have opened a delightful shop in Wichita, Kansas, known as Needlepoint by MEG. The name of the shop is taken from the first letter of each of their names. They are: Mary McGinty Relihan and Eileen Maloney Olander, both Ω -Kansas, and Ginny Gard Mastio. The shop features only Mrs. Relihan's original designs, thereby enabling customers to individualize their work. Instruction, at the shop, is part of their service, and they have been delighted with the interest shown.

Dr. Edward G. Latch, chaplain of the U. S. House of Representatives, was extra proud to conduct the prayer at the University of Tennessee's commencement exercises in June. His granddaughter, Ann Maxwell, $E \Delta$ - Tennessee, was a member of the graduating class. Dr. Latch has another Kappa connection. His wife is the former Maria Vander Vies, Γ X - George Washington. He is the minister who performed the marriage ceremony of Tricia Nixon and Edward Cox. Another dignitary at the Tennessee graduation exercises had Kappa ties. The commencement speaker was Dr. Malcolm Willey, academic executive officer at Maryville College. His daughter, Christine Willey, $E \Delta$ - Tennessee, received her diploma the same day. The Knoxville News-Sentinel published a large photograph of Dr. Latch and Dr. Willey with their graduating Kappa descendants.

50 YEAR AWARDS

YOU CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE by Lee and Ann Edwards. Arlington House, 1968, 377 pp. $6.95, non-fiction.

If you are feeling that the individual effort is outdated and are frustrated as to what to do or where to begin to tell it where it counts, you might start with actually writing that letter to your editor or congressman.

Too busy to do anything more? The Edwards suggest ways of budgeting your days so that there is a parcel of time available for that effort or feel you must make so that you can live with your beliefs by putting action to your thoughts whether that action is in your church, your PTA, civic organization or political party.

THE CHURCH AND CLUB WOMAN'S COMPANION by Ann Seranne and Eileen Gaden, Doubleday, 1964, 340 pp. $5.95, non-fiction.

One would hope that the club and church bazaars, dinners and fairs will be with us always. They are a charming part of Americana, beside the fund-raising they accomplish. The authors, who also did THE BLENDER COOKBOOK and BEST OF NEAR EASTERN COOKERY have come to aid your planning meetings with a well illustrated and, naturally, well-organized book.

In addition to the money makers, they suggest ideas for the club members to enjoy their own get-togethers with party ideas, themes and decorations.

Editor's note:

Current books by Kappa authors are wanted for review purposes and for the Fraternity Headquarters Library. Please send or ask your publishers to send such publications to the Book Review Editor, Mrs.

William F. Cahill, 6 The Billows, Box 4J, Rt. 2, Vero Beach, Fla. 32960.

ATTENTION EDITORS OF KAPPA ALUMNAE COOKBOOKS!!!

Vincent Price, actor and gourmet cook, has the right idea when he says—"One of my best sources is women's club cookbooks. I collect them when I'm traveling. You'd be surprised how great something like Minnie Filch's casserole can be." So how about contributing alumnae cookbooks for our Library at Kappa Headquarters. If you send a copy to the Book Editor, she will mention it in KEY and then pass it along to the library shelves.

Dr. Miriam Locke, III, Alabama, has been elected President of the Alabama chapter of Phi Beta Kappa for the second time! Not only is she the only member to serve as President twice, but she is also the only woman to ever hold the office!

Left, Della McIntosh Rowe, K, Hillsdale is shown with her daughter Barbara Rowe, also K, Hillsdale and currently registrar at Stetson. Mrs. Rowe has been a Kappa 70 years.

Attending the Panhellenic Banquet at Stetson University, DeLand, Florida on September 16, 1972 was a very special Kappa of 70 years - Della McIntosh Rowe, K, Hillsdale. Mrs. Rowe was born in Michigan, initiated in 1902 at Hillsdale College, taught for two years following her graduation and then was married. For the next 20 years she participated actively in various community affairs. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Rowe returned to the field of education when she was asked to become Dean of Women at Hillsdale College. During this period she did graduate study at University of Michigan and Columbia University. She retired to Florida in 1945 and accepted a position on the Dean of Women's staff at Stetson which she expected to hold for a brief period, but she continued to grow younger each year and her contribution was so great that she was not able to retire again until 1967. Mrs. John T. Brownlee, President of the Winter Park, Florida Alumnae was asked to present Mrs. Rowe with her 50 year pin on behalf of the Fraternity. Mrs. Merle Holliday, a 50 year Kappa of Hillsdale and sister to Della was present for the occasion, as was Mrs. Rowe's daughter, also a Kappa from Hillsdale, Barbara Rowe, who is registrar at Stetson.

CAREER CORNER

Florence S. Cromwell, ΔΔ-Miami University, is now serving her second 3 year term as president of the American Occupational Therapy Association and is also a member of the faculty of the Department of Occupational Therapy at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

Today 14,000 occupational therapists in the U.S. serve in all kinds of health care institutions and community agencies providing these kinds of services. They are either OTR's (Occupational Therapist Registered) persons with bachelors or masters degrees who have been educated in one of 45 Universities, or COTA's (Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant) graduates of special programs of training in community colleges or vocational schools. They are all members of the American Occupational Therapy Association which at age 55 is one of the older health professions' organizations.

Miss Cromwell, received education at Washington University in St. Louis after her initial education at Miami University in Ohio. She served three years as an officer in the WAVES then started in an acute care hospital, moved to a work adjustment program in the Goodwill Industries, then to a home care program for the Visiting Nurse Association. Later she engaged in research about pre-vocational evaluation in a center for adults with cerebral palsy, then to special education for future health workers destined to help patients with chronic illness and handicaps, to her present position in which she is assisting the development of occupational therapy resources in community agencies where occupational therapy has not traditionally been offered. According to Miss Cromwell, "People who have experienced illness or injury and the often devastating consequences from them, know that the only meaningful rehabilitation is one's reintegration into his own life role and life style. Occupational therapists have always been dedicated to that goal!

Nancy Peairs Ramos, E, Illinois Wesleyan, is a volunteer in the field of learning disabilities—a handicap that probably affects fifteen percent of our children. For eight years Nancy has been a member of the California Association for Neurologically Handicapped Children (CANHC). She served the county chapter as publications chairman and president and then worked at the state level as publications chairman and now public relations chairman. Last year she was presented with the Award of the Year.

This year she had an opportunity to help produce a movie about an adolescent with learning disabilities—he can't read. This is the first movie that deals with this age group and she hopes to produce another. Two years ago CANHC published the first book on the adolescent "Helping the Adolescent with the Hidden Handicap." It's now used as a college text and was considered as resource material for the White House Conference on Youth. "It's real rehabilitation at this age level," says Nancy whose career is a very real one to her—even though it is volunteer!

Barbara Koval Nelson, ΔΔ, Pennsylvania State, writes that for the past five years she has been a correspondent with the McGraw-Hill World News System, first in the Pittsburgh News Bureau and then in London. She is the only female reporter in the McGraw-Hill World News who is assigned in Europe. Most of her reporting is general business and technical news with an occasional travel or fashion piece. Most of her writing appears in one of the 30-odd McGraw-Hill magazines such as BUSINESS WEEK, MODERN HOSPITAL OR ENGINEERING NEWS-RECORD.

Nancy Peairs Ramos, E, Barbara Koval Nelson, ΔΔ, Illinois Wesleyan. Pennsylvania State.

Reporting from Britain has been very challenging, she says, as she has managed to traverse most of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales on story assignments ranging from the Irish Bank strike to the building of Liverpool's "Mersey" tunnels.

Joyce Dragash Flowers, ΔΓ, Michigan State University, is a speech therapist for the Grosse Pointe Michigan Public Schools.

Lynne Carpenter Massey, ΔK, University of Miami, is a district math clinician for Fayetteville-Manlius Schools in Manlius, New York.

Virginia Bailey Morrison, K, Hillsdale, was presented a citation award at the 50th anniversary celebration of the School of Education, The University of Michigan for "... contribution to education and to the growth of the School of Education." (One of two women so honored). She is Professor of Education, Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan.

Carroll Brugler McNeil, ΔA, Pennsylvania State, is the registrar, Graduate School of Business, Stanford University. She was previously program counselor at Bechtel International Center, Stanford University, and Financial Aid Officer at Mills College.

Patricia Taylor Russo, BN, Ohio State University, is an art teacher for Most Blessed Sacrament School in Franklin Lakes, New Jersey. She worked previously in the O.T. department of Sunny Acres County T.B. Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, and for Rainbow Hospital in the Recreational Therapy department.

Mary Ann Dunn Williams, Θ, University of Missouri, is a free lance writer for "Family Getaway" in Florida Accent, Sunday Magazine section of Tampa Tribune.

Barbara Teachout Arey, X, University of Minnesota, teaches sales in graduate school, Eastern Montana College.

Cornelia Vos Christenson, Δ, Indiana, is the author of Kinsey: A Biography. Currently retired, she was formerly a research associate at Institute for Sex Research, Indiana U.

Lynn Anita Wallace, EΔ-Arizona State, (right) recently won her gold wings at Pan American World Airways flight training center in Miami and has begun work as a stewardess. She is based in New York.

Another new stewardess is Pat Hanley, BN-Ohio State. (left) Pat is with American Airlines and is based in Chicago.

Ella Thompson Wright, Ψ, Cornell University, is presently assistant editor of International Monetary Fund. Previously she was at Brookings Institution, Washington, D.C. associate editor American Society for Engineering Education, Director of Publications for Building Research Institute, Director of Publications National Education Association, (American Association for Health, P.E. and Recreation - Director of Publications) and Food and Agriculture Organ of the United Nations, Editor.

Linda Klouda Lavezzo, ΔO, Iowa State University, is employed by Richardson Seigle Rolfs & McCoy, Inc. (Advertising agency) as creative department coordinator and on editorial staff of quarterly houseorgan "Plain Brown Rapper".

Anna D. Sophocles, BA, University of Pennsylvania, is a Ph. D candidate in Classical Archaeology at the University of Pennsylvania.

Joann Daubenspeck Painter, ΔΞ, Carnegie Mellon, is the Director of Guidance and Placement, Villa Maria College, Erie, Pennsylvania.

Ruth Paterson Chappell, ΓΨ, University of Maryland, is Director of 7 Oaks Presbyterian Kindergarten in Columbia, South Carolina.

Trisha Triesch Bridges, EA, Texas Christian University, is a teacher of the deaf at Callier Hearing and Speech Center, Dallas, Texas.

Carol L. Sampson, IX, George Washington University, is an active at George Washington and also a member of Mrs. Nixon's White House Staff. She works directly under the Director of Correspondence.

KAPPAS ABROAD

Margaret Waits Hurst, ΔI, Louisiana State University, has just moved from Philadelphia to Brussels where her husband is Professor of Management at the European Institute for Advanced Studies in Management. Two of her three small sons are attending a French language pre-school. Margaret says she hopes to play host to visiting Kappas - at Avenue des CERISIERS, 177, 1150 Brussels, Belgium.

Marcia Southworth Willey, ΔΓ, Michigan State University, has acquired British teaching certification and hopes to find a teaching position now in Birmingham, England. Her husband is involved in the International Division of TRW and they spent their first year of British residence in Swansea, Wales. They expect to remain at 20 Yelverton Drive, Birmingham 15, Warwickshire, England for several years.

Elizabeth Hope Urban, ΓK, William & Mary, is doing independent research in Cheshire County Archives at Chester Castle in Chester, U. K. She has a tiny "flat" in a big mansion on the River Dee.

Nancy Wright Howland, ΓB, University of New Mexico, writes that she and her husband have spent the past three years living in Neu Ulm, Germany and traveling extensively throughout Spain, Italy, France, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, and the Netherlands. Fred is a Captain in the Army and recently completed service in Turkey. The Howlands also had their first son while stationed in Germany.

Mary Louise Villeret Stites, ΔI, Louisiana State, will be living in Gaeta, Italy until June 1973 while her husband is serving on the USS Springfield based at Gaeta. She is thrilled to be able to see so much of different countries and to increase her Italian so she can say more than just "I don't understand".

Dianna Crouse Smith, ΓΔ, Purdue, is now a supervisor of kindergartens in Sydney, Australia. She is residing at 2 The Maples - Women's College, Carillon Avenue, Newtown, NSW 2042, Australia.
