Alcoholism: It couldn't happen to me . . . but it did!

By Sally Farren Bulford
BN - Ohio State

When I was a child growing up in the middle-class suburbs of Cleveland, I used to dream - as children do - of the things I would do and be when I grew up. Later, as a student cramming for exams between dates and late-night soul-searching with my sisters in the Ohio State University Kappa house, I expanded and refined those dreams. And when I married and turned my energies toward a Ph.D. in English, I began to convert certain dreams into the goals that would direct my life.

Never, among my many dreams and goals, was one that said: When I grow up, I think I'll become an alcoholic.

Should the thought ever have crossed my mind, I probably would have countered it with: it couldn't happen to me.

But it did.

I am one of an estimated ten million alcoholic Americans . . . one of one million who can call themselves sober alcoholics for today.

Although the progression of my disease was termed "normal" by those who understand alcoholism, I did not - and do not today - conform to the stereotypes that I once shared with most Americans about alcoholics and alcoholism. I always thought that drinking too much was a weakness; I did not know that alcoholism is a disease, so declared by the American Medical Association in 1956.<sup>1</sup> I thought that a drinking problem was a lower-class problem, associated with under-the-bridge living and seedy sorts (males) in trench coats and cardboard-lined shoes. I did not know, as I do today, that alcoholism respects no class, no income, no sex, no intellect; there is no typical alcoholic American.<sup>2</sup>

In fact, I am as "typical" as any other alcoholic American. I am white, female, divorced, 43, a mother, twice degreed (with a third in process), employed at an upper middle-class salary, the product of a solid midwestern family . . . and a self-diagnosed alcoholic. Most of us are "typical", as I found out when I tried to find a definition that would assure me that I was NOT an alcoholic. Perhaps the reason is that the symptoms of alcoholism, especially in the early stages, "have to do with feelings about drinking: a need for drinks at certain times, a need for drinks in order to enjoy other things, in short, a need for drinks-dependence."<sup>3</sup>

About 7% of all women in the country are alcoholics, and about 9% of all American males are alcoholics.

Rev. Michael Peterson of the St. Luke Institute in Massachusetts quoted in UPFRONT, vol 3 # 2 (Dec., Jan., Feb., 1983) p. 14.

"It's difficult to say who is an alcoholic. And it is almost impossible to tell by behavior alone . . . The clue to the alcoholic is consistent lack of control. Only in extreme cases can the diagnosis be used with certainty because alcoholism is a progressive illness."<sup>4</sup> For me, my diagnosis is certain because it's based on my feelings, my pain, and a very simple definition of alcoholism: If alcohol causes you a problem, it is a problem.

People used to suggest vaguely to me that I might have a drinking problem; they'd say, "Why don't you do something about your drinking?" I laugh now at this typically nonalcoholic statement. Back then, I thought, ironically, but I am doing something. I'm drinking. What's more, I'm trying to control it. Of course, I couldn't. I didn't know that the only thing to do about an alcoholic drinking problem is not to do any more drinking.

Female adolescents tend to become involved with drugs that have greater potential for addiction and that are more self-destructive than do males.

"Drug abuse among adolescent females entering treatment programs" Focus on Women: Journal of Addictions and Health 2(4): 204-222, 1981

Years before I really did do something about my drinking problem, I sensed deep inside me that I was drinking quite a lot, that I might even have a problem. But I never, not even when I was actually confronted by a coworker, thought that I had more than a "problem." Had I been aware, as I am today, that "a drinking problem" is alcoholism in one stage or another, I still wouldn't have taken it that seriously (except for the social stigma). I thought that this lower-class malady was a nuisance, not a killer . . . a strange, distorted approach to life that, for the unlucky, might result in cirrhosis of the liver. I never dreamed that alcoholism is acknowledged as the number three killer in America and that it is believed by many to be the number one killer, accounting in reality for deaths attributed to accident, heart failure, or any one of a number of other apparent circumstances.

Women alcoholics have more dysfunctional marital relationships than men, "indicative of their tendency to lead a more chaotic life."

S.A. Richman, M. Teichman, E.W. Find, Psychosocial differences between male and female alcoholics in Currents in Alcoholism, vol. 7

The story of my own insidious progress through alcoholism began innocently enough. I believe to this day that I was a social drinker through college and into the early days of my marriage. I drank at parties and later, when my husband finished school and the budget loosened, began to have a drink with him before dinner every night. By the time I was 25, I was a daily drinker. Within several years, I was laughingly accustomed to drinking "a little too much" at parties (most of our young professional friends did) and on those nights when my husband didn't come home for dinner and I had my before-dinner cocktail alone — followed by another and another and another. By the time I was 29 and entered the hospital to give birth to our long-awaited daughter, I wondered in passing what it was going to be like to go three days without a drink. I know today that I am lucky to have a daughter unaffected by Fetal Alcohol Syndrome.

The next eleven years are hazy to me. To my dismay, my husband and I separated and later divorced when my daughter was two. I responded as many alcoholic women do. Unlike men, we are prone to increase our alcoholic drinking when confronted with emotional — usually familial — turmoil. And I did.

I began a series of what I now call "if only cures." If only I could complete my half-finished Ph.D., for example, then everything would be better. Therefore, at 30, I took the qualifying exam for the degree. I had, of course, indulged in a bout of "therapeutic" drinking the night before the oral portion of the exam; on exam day, although I didn't know it, I was in withdrawal. My hands shook, and I hardly knew my name, let alone the exact passage that indicated a Christian influence on the medieval poem, Beowulf. I failed the exam.

The result — the failure — of this initial attempt to cope with the new lifestyle that had been thrust on me capped a list of griefs that I could use to feed my alcoholism. In my generally bloodshot eyes I was a brilliant but thwarted literature scholar, a sensitive flower abandoned by her husband and burdened with the financial and emotional responsibilities of being a single parent. No wonder I drank.

Women use 50 percent more prescription drugs than men and alcohol misuse in women may often directly lead to the misuse of drugs prescribed by the physician to alleviate symptoms actually related to alcohol misuse.

M. Saunders, "Opening remarks of the Woman Next Door symposium reported in the Journal of Drug and Alcohol Dependence, 1980, vol. 5

Really, of course, I drank because I couldn't not drink. The "poor me" attitude that is integral to every alcoholic's story was not only an excuse for me to drink, but was augmented by the depressive effect of the alcohol.

The "if onlies" continued. If only I could live in the place of my dreams. So I made a catastrophic and foolish "escape" from Ohio to Massachusetts where I increased my drinking because, as I told myself, I didn't know anyone and couldn't find an editing job that met my expectations. If only I had a job that I liked or that paid more. Futilely I ran from unemployment in Massachusetts, to satisfying employment in a low-paying job at an underground magazine in Cleveland, to profitable employment on a contract administered from Washington, D.C., to self-employment in a partnership in Columbus. Each successive job met needs unfulfilled by the last one, but instead of being content, I was restless and resentful, rendered incapable of really succeeding by a never-ending cycle of drinking nights and queasy days. If only I had a man in my life then things would get better. I eventually dated a series of men and neared the altar at least twice, but found that dealing with the common vicissitudes of a relationship over a bottle of wine or a fifth of scotch only made things worse.

In short, things always got worse because my disease was inevitably progressing and because I was continually looking for something outside myself to make things better. I knew, with Hamlet, that there was "something rotten in Denmark"; I did not know that the something rotten was the alcoholism growing within me.

Recently, the rate of increase of drunkenness offenses, numbers receiving treatment for drinking problems and mortality due to liver cirrhosis and alcoholism has been greater among women than men.

S. Shaw, The causes of increasing drinking problems amongst women: a general etiological theory in Women and Alcohol, 1980, vol. XIII

When finally, I came to rest in Columbus (my old home town, where life was easier) involved in a long-distance relationship (with another alcoholic) and working at my old job as a lecturer at Ohio State (a job whose flexibility was an asset to my real career — drinking), I was 35. In the little house that I had fought so hard to buy (banks weren't generous with their loans to single mothers at that time), I closed the curtains, opened the bottle and created my own ghetto. For five years, I went to work everyday and to my own alcohol-induced internal world every night.

Alcoholism is a family disease. We alcoholics inflict our unknowingly manipulative and unpredictable behavior on those around us and they, in turn, adopt unnatural survival behaviors that begin to seem dangerously normal. My situation was no exception. In my family of two, I dragged into my illness the one person I wanted least to hurt — my daughter. She was and is a bright, beautiful, and self-sufficient child, and our symbiotic relationship knew hardly a rival. I was understandably the center of her universe; I made her the center of mine, granting her adult roles and the heavy responsibility of being my reason for living. Today we can sometimes laugh painfully about those distorted days — about how I kept her up when she was nine, until 2:00 a.m. cleaning her room (because that would make everything better), or until 11 p.m. so she could eat the dinner I couldn't stop drinking at 7 p.m. to fix; about how she finally took over the cooking; about how I'd tell her on Friday night to wake me up early Saturday and then rant at her when she did.

The tendency for women to protect the secret of their alcohol abuse and supportive attitudes of relatives regarding secrecy are . . . chief obstacles to the diagnosis of alcoholism.

F. Salzberger and G.B. Laury, "Hidden Affair" Behavioral Medicine 8 (10):14-16, 20, 1981

One of the primary symptoms of alcoholism is its denial by the alcoholic. And despite all evidence to the contrary, I clung to a set of "at leasts" that proved that I was not an alcoholic. "At least" I had a job (80% of us are employed). "At least" I didn't abuse my child (physically or intentionally verbally, no, but emotionally my disease was devastating us both, and we didn't even know it). "At least" we had clean clothes and bodies, although our house was filthy (practicing women alcoholics tend to be either overly cleanly — or they can say "at least my house, or body, or dress is clean" and they don't have to look at their alcoholism — or totally slovenly; I was a combination of both. "At least" I had friends (either alcoholics or enablers — those kind souls who help alcoholics beat drunk-driving charges, who cover their absenteeism, who wink at their violation of their own values, who fill in their memory gaps. Since I remained largely at home, my enablers were confined to telling me that I was okay and joining me in not looking at my drinking problems).

But there came a time, in my fortieth year, when I was drinking all weekend as well as every evening and could sense the progression of my disease; when an old friend managed to get into my house to see me (I let no one in; even I knew that the house was filthy and that I was incapable of cleaning it — although I didn't know why) and I saw myself mirrored in his loving, horrified eyes; when a friend at work took me out to lunch and told me I had a drinking problem; when I became sick and tired of being sick and tired. I let go of my misguided and erroneous I-can-do-it-myself attitude and, on April 8, 1980, made the call for help that changed my life.

Physical withdrawal from alcohol generally lasts about five days, and so it was with me. I shook, fought my compulsion, and lay sleepless for five nights . . . and then slowly began to feel better. I could have taken advantage of one of the many excellent five-day, three-week, or six-month treatment programs for alcoholism, but I still had enough false pride left to make me want to "do it on my own."

For recovering women alcoholics, learning to live with other women in a positive way is an important task which raises self-esteem and increases awareness of alternatives to previous unproductive lifestyles.

P. Pearlman, Women in a residential Setting U.D. Journal of Drug and Alcohol Dependence, 1980 vol. V

Alcoholism is a physical, emotional and spiritual disease, and once I'd shaken through the physical withdrawal I had to set about healing my emotional and spiritual being. I had to change — the person I was would drink again. I needed a new me. Slowly, with endless support from other alcoholics who had been where I was (I never did "do it on my own") and with a dawning belief in miracles, I began to build that new me.

Today, I have lived just about 1100 days, one day at a time, without taking a drink, and in those days the new me has continued to grow. This me has a new — and very clean — house. This me is back to school hacking away at that Ph.D. and performing at double my old pace . . . in the same job. This me is a mother, slowly accepting the welcome parental responsibilities for a daughter who daily comes more and more out of that shell that once was her survival mechanism. This me has new friends — healthy, creative, positive people who call a pity party or character defect an excuse for what it is and who help me nurture the positive and strive for its growth.

As reported by Alcoholics Anonymous in its "Analysis of the 1980 Survey of the Membership of AA," 31 percent of the sample population completing the survey were women.

I'm one of the lucky ones. I've been sober for three years, and I have an 86% chance of staying sober for another year. I'm among those of us who say, "I'm glad I'm an alcoholic — a sober one, that is." The disease is never cured. From my disease — one of the most deadly and crippling of illnesses, but the only fatal one capable of being held in permanent daily remission — I have discovered strains of humility and humanity in myself that I could only have found in this way. I would never have chosen this disease that I thought couldn't happen to me; today I accept it with understanding.

Recognizing that alcohol abuse is the number one health concern in the United States today, the Fraternity has asked all chapters to make alcohol awareness programming a part of each year's plans. Every chapter should conduct a major program annually in addition to ongoing efforts to alert each member and pledge to the effects of alcohol abuse. Information regarding counseling services available on the campus should be constantly available to the membership. Further materials related to alcohol awareness programming will be sent to the chapters in the Fall, 1983 mailing.

ARE YOU AN ALCOHOLIC?

In order to determine whether or not a person has drifted from "social drinking" into pathological drinking it is well to check over a list of test questions. While these are only "test" questions, it is suggested that they be answered TRUTHFULLY.

It is possible — but not at all probable — that you may fool somebody else. But you must be HONEST WITH YOURSELF; you must want to become and remain sober because alcohol has you "licked" — if you want the help of Alcoholics Anonymous.

| 39. Has a physician ever treated you for drinking?                                    | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 40. Have you ever been hospitalized for drinking?                                     | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

If you have answered YES to any one of the questions, there is a definite warning that you may be alcoholic.

If you have answered YES to any two, the chances are that you are an alcoholic.

If you have answered YES to three or more, you are definitely an alcoholic.

Charlotte Brailsford Serves As Museum Apprentice

Charlotte Brailsford, EN - Vanderbilt, now a graduate student at the University of Georgia.

It was a happy day for the Heritage Museum when Kappa Kappa Gamma's Council decided to allocate to it the current interest from a large bequest. The gift, received in November, 1982, is from the estate of Flora Idella Burgess, K - Hillsdale. The amount is the interest accrued by the end of the 1982-1983 fiscal year in June. The money was designated for educational purposes. The Council's recommendation that a summer apprenticeship be offered to a Kappa student interested in museum work was eagerly accepted by the Heritage Museum staff.

A letter, announcing this opportunity, was sent from the Heritage Museum to all chapter presidents in February. Fourteen Kappas and one male student, who didn't explain how he happened to hear about the job, responded. Application forms were devised and sent to those who had expressed their interest within a reasonable period of time.

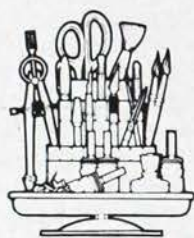

A decision was made by the staff and several Museum officers that only highly qualified applicants of senior and graduate standing should be interviewed. These interviews were conducted by the Museum director with some assistance from Jean Hess Wells, ΔY - Georgia, former chairman of the Heritage Museum Board of Directors. The caliber of the candidates who reached this level of consideration was impressive. Their credentials and references were outstanding. The selection process was difficult indeed.

Charlotte Brailsford, EN - Vanderbilt, eventually was chosen. She is in the midst of her Master's Program at the University of Georgia. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree at Vanderbilt University in June, 1982, with a double major in English and Art History. Charlotte served an internship during her undergraduate days at the Cheekwood Fine Arts Center in Nashville. This experience included making an inventory of all the works in the permanent collection, hanging and deposing shows, and helping prepare a pamphlet for docents. She also has taken an historical preservation course as a part of her graduate studies. Professionals with whom Charlotte has associated have noted her thoroughness in research projects.

Charlotte's hometown is Spartanburg, South Carolina. She is the second of four siblings and reports that they enjoy a close relationship though widely separated geographically. Charlotte's hobbies include painting in watercolors, photography, playing piano, tennis, and swimming. She was employed as a lifeguard and swimming instructor during the summers of her undergraduate years.

The Beta Nu House Board generously voted to provide Charlotte rent-free accommodations in the chapter house at Ohio State University. She is looking forward to living there because of its proximity to the University Libraries where she plans to do research.

ATTENTION ALL KAPPAS WITH GRAPHICS OR ARTWORK TO SHARE!

We're putting together a GRAPHICS MANUAL and need contributions from Kappas across the country.

Have you ever searched and searched for "just the right owl" for that publication you're putting together and could never find one? Have you ever been envious of another group's newsletter because it had such wonderful graphics and yet you had no idea where they got them or even how to use them? We will soon have the answer to these frustrations!

Our GRAPHICS MANUAL will include such things as correct use of artwork and borders, publications hints, suggestions on printing and dealing with printers, and other related communications guidelines. The major portion of the binder will include a wide variety of reproducible graphics submitted by Kappas like yourself. Please help us, and make this a true collaborative effort from Kappa actives and alumnae everywhere.

Loyally, Susan Cornwell Ryan, Alumnae Communications Assistant

Zeta Kappa Chapter Is Installed At Bowling Green

It was last reported that 58 very happy faces were seen on the Bowling Green State University Campus as the school year came to an end. The cause of the smiles — the installation of Zeta Kappa, the 112th chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma on the weekend of April 29th and 30th, 1983.

Zeta Kappa colonized the weekend of January 21-23 and then spent three months in study and preparation to become Kappas. They worked with field secretaries Pam Anthrop, Barbara Cole, Laurie Schmidt, and Cathy Goodyear and were prepared for the initiation process by Jenny Young who helped to heighten their awareness and disarm their apprehensions. This colony also won Greek Week and the Delta Gamma Anchor Splash which helped to put them on the Bowling Green map!

Toledo alumnae have enthusiastically opened their arms to the opportunity to serve in any way during the past months and they also comprise the advisory board under Jean Craig McCullough, Θ - Missouri. Barbara Bennett Hensler, BA - Illinois, most capably chaired the entire installation and received the "unsung hero" award from Gamma Province Meeting in April.

Inspiration week was indeed inspiring for pledges and alumnae alike. Thursday evening the advisory board hosted a casual dinner at the Ice Arena for about 70 including pledges and Fraternity officers under the direction of Jean McCullough. Food and flowers were creatively coordinated by Linda Lenahan Clement, K - Hillsdale. Among the Fraternity officers in attendance were Sally Moore Nitschke, BN - Ohio State, President; J. J. (Juliana) Fraser Wales, BN - Ohio State, director of membership; Carol Aspell Messmore, Δ - Akron, Gamma province director of alumnae; Carol Lash Armstrong, ΔΔ - Miami, chairman of chapter advisory boards; Ann Stafford Truesdell PΔ - Ohio Wesleyan, Gamma province director of chapters; and Diane Miller Selby, BN - Ohio State, editor of the The Key. All Zeta Kappas were extremely excited to meet Sally Nitschke and hear her inspiring words about Kappa. In appreciation for the help given, Zeta Kappas gave their advisers white roses.

Fireside was conducted by J. J. Wales on Friday evening at the Delta Zeta house where pledges met their big sisters who were actives from each chapter in the province along with some Toledo alumnae. Sarah MacLean, K - Hillsdale, and Carolyn Casey Schwartz, K - Hillsdale, were in charge of setting up. Nancy Swartzbaugh Lehmann, H - Wisconsin, was in charge of the reception. Ellen Thomas, GP - Allegheny; Laurie Schmidt, BK - Kentucky; Cathy Goodyear, EA - Arizona State; and Jenny Young, Δ - Indiana, were silent workers all weekend helping things run smoothly.

Saturday morning saw Harriet Kline Janney, K - Hillsdale, organizing breakfast for 150 before initiation. Meanwhile, Mary Dale Kupper, BK - Idaho, director of initiation set up, was busily scurrying around at the First United Methodist Church where initiation was held, assisted by Karen Collins, K - Hillsdale, and Jane Coombs, ΔΔ - Miami (both from Columbus and Fraternity Headquarters) and Janet Allen Esch, PΔ - Ohio Wesleyan; Marcia Irwin Gautsche, BM - Colorado; Ann Truesdell, and several Kappa husbands.

During the installation ceremony Heidi Moorma, ZK - president, accepted the charter for the new chapter. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was held at the church for all participants. The luncheon was organized by Barbara Hensler and all alumnae associations and clubs in the province provided the meal. A model chapter meeting was held immediately after lunch.

Before the installation banquet a campus reception was held at Offenauer at which over 200 people attended including campus dignitaries, Kappas and their parents. Once again, Nancy Lehman chaired this reception assisted by Betty O'Rourke Hepler, PΔ - Ohio Wesleyan, and Trudy Hoffheins Sturk, ΔΓ - Michigan State.

The grand finale was just that at the installation banquet at the Holiday Inn, Perrysburg thanks to the skill and creativity of Juliana Williams Fraser, ΔΓ - Michigan State, and Dorothy Merke Yager, BΔ - Michigan. Everyone found the room to be a breathtaking sight of "blue and blue" as more than 200 live fleur-de-lis graced the round tables in individual vases and were flanked by hundreds of votive candles of varying heights through which small blue stones were scattered giving the impression of a "sea of fleur-de-lis."

Toast mistress Carol Armstrong introduced Carolyn Estey Oster, Φ - Boston, president of Toledo Alumnae Association, who welcomed all 225 attending the banquet. Heidi Moorma, ZK president, thanked everyone on behalf of her chapter. Greetings were given by Frazer Reams, president of the Board of Trustees (who is married to Kappa Susan Rodawig Reams, BZ - Iowa, and they have a Kappa daughter initiated in May at St. Lawrence BBΔ Chapter.) He assured all concerning future housing, joking that he would make sure there was a house with no less than 58 bathrooms and 58 telephones to suit the Kappa needs! Wayne Colvin, Director of University Greek Life spoke of the importance of Greek life to the campus where a fraternity can be a stepping stone from teenage years to adulthood, emphasizing the chapter as a corporation preparing its members for leadership and developing their skills. Diane Selby, editor of The Key, shared greetings received by the chapter. Sally Nitschke painted Kappa as an organization of people whose goals are to further the principles and foundation parents have started and to share in the problems, joys, sorrows and accomplishments of each of its members. Cheers to Zeta Kappa!

CAMPUS COMPOSITE

Edited by Anna Mitchell Hiatt Pflug
Active Chapter Editor
Beta Mu - Colorado

A Kappa composite is never complete without the Panhellenic picture. At Kansas, four Kappas participated in "Greek Endeavor," an annual meeting of all the Greek groups on campus which is designed to help each one learn more from the others and to bring their new-found ideas back to their own chapters. Amy O'Leary, Katie Brosnahan, Lynn Huss, and Julie Corneilson,  $\Omega$  - Kansas, attended such seminars as Religion, Assertiveness, Scholarship, Pledgeship, Rush, Black and White Awareness, Greek Facts and Myths, and Sexual Awareness. Lynn is Panhellenic Representative for Omega chapter and Julie is on the "Greek Endeavor" staff.

At another Panhellenic gathering, Delta Zeta (Colorado College) Kappa Laurie Garver was chosen "Most Valuable Panhellenic Member." She was rewarded for her participation and spirit when Colorado College hosted the Panhellenic convention for the area of Colorado and Wyoming.

On the Indiana campus, Delta chapter received the outstanding award for obtaining the highest scholastic achievement among the 55 Greek groups there. And Kappas taking on leadership responsibilities for Panhellenic include Becky Berg, BII - Washington, who is in charge of public relations/rush, and Diane Marie Gyescek,  $\Gamma E$  - Pittsburgh, who has been elected secretary of her Panhellenic executive board. Diane has also served her chapter as Panhellenic representative, recording secretary, and registrar.

Beta Mu Has Been Presented Panhellenic Spirit Award

Beta Mu chapter (Colorado) was named winner of the Panhellenic Spirit Award in March. The award was established by Alpha Omicron Phi national organization in 1980 as a gift to the University of Colorado Panhellenic in appreciation for all their help in the reactivation of the Colorado Alpha Omicron Pi chapter. The award was to be kept by Panhellenic for one year and then awarded to the sorority which best displays Panhellenic spirit. The Panhellenic Alumnae Advisory Committee makes the selection on the basis of inter-sorority programming, campus and community service, involvement in Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council programs, and essays submitted by Panhellenic representatives.

The Kappas at Colorado were selected for many reasons: the large number of social events with other Greek groups, their Panhellenic Awareness Week last spring, their strong support of and participation in the Panhellenic softball tournament, having the best participation in IFC alcohol and hazing awareness workshop, community service projects (especially "Cruise for Craig" bike-a-thon for Craig Rehabilitation Center in Denver which raised over $1,000), winning Greek Week last spring which included strong participation and second place in song-fest, banner contest, Sigma Chi Derby Days, Ten K Run, and Blood Drive. They were also noted for their strong support of all Panhellenic activities and for giving to Panhellenic leadership five outstanding Panhellenic rush counselors, Kate Sheaff, BM - Colorado, who served as secretary/treasurer, and KieAnn Ellington, BM - Colorado, the new Panhellenic president. The essay for the selection was written by Laurie Phelps, BM - Colorado, the Panhellenic delegate.

Nancy Knopp,  $\Gamma A$  - Kansas State, alumna, presents the first annual Mary Francis White award to Karin Hajinean of Delta Delta Delta. Mary Francis White was a Gamma Alpha Kappa who was also very active with Greek affairs, taught English at Kansas State, served on the Gamma Alpha House Board, and before her death last year was actively involved with the alumnae association. The Manhattan Alumnae committee selects the award winner from three nominations made by each Greek group on campus.

Beta Pi (U. of Washington) Kappas put on a carnival for the children of the three branches of the Seattle Day Nursery.

Feeling Good . . .

It seems that all the news which is submitted about philanthropy projects includes a statement about how wonderful everyone felt about her experiences in such an atmosphere of giving and sharing. Hope Thayer, EII - California at Riverside, wrote about their surprise for the Sunshine School, "The smiles were thank you enough for us, and we left with a beautiful feeling inside of us." The Epsilon Pi Kappas had gathered up the bread dough pins which they had handpainted during rush week and took them to the children at Sunshine School, a special school for handicapped children. They stayed to visit with the children and carefully placed a pin on each one.

Smiles and beautiful feelings were uppermost also at the "Kappa Karnival" which the actives of Beta Pi (Washington) put on for the children who attend the Seattle Day Nursery, a nursery which provides daycare for abused and underprivileged children and which the chapter has adopted as their philanthropy. The carnival was the first gathering of all three branches of the nursery since its opening. The Kappas spent about four months in preparation and used the proceeds earned by selling Sonics magazines at the Seattle SuperSonics home basketball games. The carnival was set up in an old elementary school gymnasium and was filled with game booths ranging from fishing to bowling to face painting. There were costumes, puppet shows, a magician, and dancing troupe, as well as a noontime meal. Area alumnae helped in getting prizes. According to Michelle Gilkey, BII - Washington, "We have found that unity comes with helping others."

The feelings which Omega chapter expressed were those of being honored to have special guests in their home. This spring the chapter at Kansas and the Swarthout Society held a reception in honor of the Preservation Hall Jazz Band at the Omega chapter house. The Swarthout Society helps support the University of Kansas Concert and Chamber Music Series. This band is from the Preservation Hall of New Orleans which opened in 1961. The members, ranging in age from 45 to 88, play old Dixieland jazz.

CAMPUS-COMPOSITE-CAMPUS-COMPOSITE

It was the children of local alumnae who shared the happy feelings of Kappas at Delta Iota (Louisiana State) and Delta Psi (Texas Tech). The chapters had Easter egg hunts with all the frills of prizes and refreshments. Around 50 children hunted for over 150 eggs at Delta Iota, and there were about 20 at the hunt at Delta Psi which had been organized by Carol West,  $\Delta\Psi$  - Texas Tech, and her committee.

As philanthropy chairmen for their pledge class, Jane Sullivan and Leslie Strompf,  $\Gamma\Psi$  - Maryland, were responsible for getting the Kappas involved in a Multiple Sclerosis benefit banquet. The 1982 pledges served as hospitality aids at the luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, National Capital Chapter. Many Kappas helped behind the scenes also, and some of the pledges helped in the organization of the benefit. Many patients also attended, and they were wheeled around by the Kappas helping. The Kappas expressed feelings of being honored to have been part of such a noteworthy cause.

The Kappas at Pi chapter (California) were involved in a benefit dinner which they organized themselves to help a six-year-old girl who needed a kidney transplant. The entire chapter helped with publicity and preparation for the Italian dinner for which most of the food was donated. The success of the dinner gave the chapter good feelings for three reasons: They had raised over $1,000 for the Adrienne Williams Trust Fund; they had gained much toward the achievement of their chapter goal "Attack Apathy;" and they had improved relations with the campus community. They are really feeling good!

The University of Pittsburgh Kappas, along with Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, were involved in a real "push" for philanthropy last fall — Project Push, that is. Together they pushed a wheelchair from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh — 238 miles across the state of Pennsylvania — to raise $2000 for Handicapped Children.

Feelings — exhaustion . . . victory . . . worthwhile — how to explain these feelings! Ceily Bernhardt, Erin Conaghan, Eileen Supko, and Patti Bishop,  $\Delta A$  - Penn State, danced the full 48 hours in the Interfraternity Council-sponsored dance marathon to benefit the Four Diamonds Fund, which is Penn State's Cancer Fund at the Hershey Medical Center. The Kappas teamed with Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity to raise \$1100 toward the grand total of \$136,000, raised through this university-wide event. The Four Diamonds Fund was suggested by the parents of a young man who died of cancer in 1972 soon after his 14th birthday.

Theresa Brochini and Mechelle Fournier, II - California, helped to serve at Pi's benefit dinner.

and the name of the fund was taken from the title of an essay he had written in the spring of that year. His message described "the struggles fought with the weapons of courage, wisdom, honesty, and strength to ultimate victory." As the publicity for the event reads, "Yet victory in his case was not to mean cure or life. What then, is victory? Victory means different things to different people. For some, victory means that there are others who care, who care enough to share with those who need help. Most of these people are strangers who in their sharing become friends without specific names or faces." This fund was established by the Board of Trustees of Penn State to provide relief from extraordinary financial burdens for the families of children with cancer who are treated at the Hershey Medical Center. Additional support will allow clinical, educational and research programs relating to children with cancer.

Other dance marathons which involved Kappas were at Washington and Maryland. Alane Gangeware,  $\Gamma\Psi$  - Maryland, represented Kappa in a 72-hour marathon which raised \$90,000 for the American Cancer Society. Daria Land, BII - Washington, danced for 24 hours to help in the Gamma Phi Beta-Phi Delta Theta benefit to raise over \$100,000 for Special Olympics.

Nancy Murfin, ΓA - Kansas State

Pam Moffat, ΔΩ - California State, Fresno

Mary Nan Chapman, Θ - Missouri

Hard Work Has Its Awards

Hard work has paid off for many Kappas whose interest are varied in the sporting field. Nancy Murfin, ΓA - Kansas State, is among the top young horsewomen and rodeo riders in the country today. She has reigned for three consecutive years as the American Junior Quarter Horse Association World Pole Bending Champion. In 1982, Nancy ranked among the Top 10 youths in Western Pleasure, horsemanship, English Pleasure, equitation, pole bending, barrel racing, and trail riding. In the open class (competition for all ages), she is ranked in barrels and Western Pleasure, and she qualified for her fourth national high school rodeo in poles, barrel racing, and cutting.

Pam Moffat, ΔΩ - California State, Fresno, has been competing with her university Intercollegiate Horse Show Team for many years and recently earned second in Showmanship, fourth in Trail, fifth in Western Pleasure, and sixth in Stock Horse. Pam is also High Point Owner/Amateur Rider for the Fresno Appaloosa Club and Central California Regional Champion in Western Riding and Trail. Terri Palmer, K - Hillsdale, has advanced in the last six years from a rookie to being ranked in the Top 10 nationally. She competes in the Western, English, and jumping categories, and she plans to take a semester off her last year to show on the national circuit. At Duke, two Kappas, Melanie Soffa and Renee Lewis, are prominent members of the Duke Equestrian Team.

On another track is Theta (Missouri) Kappa Mary Nan Chapman, who is on the Missouri girls track team and who plans to participate in Heptathlon (eight events) at Big Eight training camp. Her achievements include high jump five feet eight inches personal best and the 1982 Missouri Indoor Invitational, 1983 Missouri versus University of S. Illinois, 1983 Indoor Triangle, and 1983 winner Arkansas Relays.

Three Kappas who have excelled at Iota are Mary Peacock, who competed in the DePauw Women's Invitational Track Meet and set a record for the long jump at 15.3 feet; and Allyson Foster and Maggie Wilder, who are completing their fourth years as members of the varsity tennis team.

Dana Strieter, ΓΨ - Maryland, represents Kappa on the tennis courts at Maryland, where she ranks number one in doubles and number two in singles for the university women's tennis team. Susie Foster and Laura McCann, BΠ - Washington, are members of the Husky tennis team, and Laura has travelled to Arizona to play in tournaments as well.

Ginny Berg, ΔΥ - Georgia, serves her university as the elected secretary/treasurer of the UGA P.E. Club.

Joyce Bolyard and Ann Watson, ΓΓ - Whitman, have worked hard this year on the varsity women's downhill ski team. Ann skis second on the team and Joyce, third. They both ski slalom and giant slalom. The team placed second overall at their home meet. Joyce is also chapter house manager.

Susie Stewart and Boz Downey, ΔB - Duke

Diane Dilthy, Θ - Missouri

Angie Snider, Ω - Kansas

Vicki Garon, ΔB - Duke

Another team sporting Kappa members is the Duke University field hockey team on which Susie Stewart and Boz Downey, ΔB - Duke, are listed.

Many swim teams list Kappas: Liz Cornell, BII - Washington, is a top swimmer on the Husky swim team. Diane Dilthy, Θ - Missouri, is now swimming sprint freestyle for the Missouri women's swim team. She helped Missouri place second in the 200 free relay at the Big 8 Championships this year and afterwards was awarded a scholarship for next year with plans to swim middle distance freestyle. Vicki Garon, ΔB - Duke, is active on the Duke varsity swim team.

Mu (Butler) chapter has two outstanding swimmers on the varsity swim team. Betsy Waugh and Maryjo Dobson, M - Butler, both also work as lifeguards in their hometowns and spend time teaching swimming and coaching younger children. In the February Heartland Swim Conference Betsy placed ninth in the 200-meter backstroke, 10th in the 100-meter backstroke, and 11th in the breaststroke. Maryjo placed 11th in the 100-meter butterfly and also beat her best freestyle time.

Another Big Eight top team which includes a Kappa is that of Kansas University. Angie Snider, Ω - Kansas, practices basketball five hours a day, seven days a week. Her hard work has paid off with such recognition as being named Big Eight women's player of the week this February, being awarded the Adrian Mitchell Most Inspirational Player as a sophomore, named Kansas 1980 Female Athlete of the Year, and playing on the United States national team which travelled to Cuba in 1981. This June she travelled with the national team to Venezuela and Brazil. Angie is the Jayhawks leading scorer this season — She starts every game and averages 20 points per game!

More hard work for another Kappa and more recognition! Erin Bevan, ΓΓ - Whitman, is one of only 12 women on the varsity women's track team. She holds the record in both the 400-meter low hurdles and the 100-meter intermediate hurdles. Erin has participated in district and regional competitions.

Four of the 10 members of Whitman's varsity women's basketball team are Gamma Gamma Kappas. Barbie Cunningham is the team's leading scorer, and Robyn Lavender is the second leading scorer. Robyn is also her chapter's Fraternity education chairman.

At Louisiana State, Delta Iota chapter's intramural soccer team has won the intramural league championship for the second straight year. The team went undefeated through regular season play and gave up only one goal during the year! Also, Delta Iota's football and basketball teams advanced to the finals.

Marisa Velling, BII - Washington, has won the award for "Most Inspirational" in women's crew. Her boat recently won the Class Day Regatta. With her on the crew team is freshman Lisa Kelly.

Robyn Lavender, Zoe Pearson, Tammy Russell, and Barbie Cunningham, ΓΓ - Whitman.

Janette Baxter, ΔY - Georgia

Pam Tosti, Θ - Missouri

Talent is Put to Work

Pam Tosti, Θ - Missouri, having always been interested in physical fitness, has been increasingly involved with aerobics throughout her college career. She led classes in the chapter house for Kappas and soon became an aerobic instructor at a local studio. She teaches every day and plans to open her own studio soon with classes for men and women and plans to expand to include weight sets and saunas. Some day she hopes to own a chain of fitness centers in several college towns. Laura Yorke, ΔB - Duke, is involved in dance also, doing much of the choreography for the Duke Dance Program.

The talents of Janette Baxter, ΔY - Georgia, have led to her being chosen, along with 13 others, from 200 applicants to entertain by song and dance in Six Flags' version of "America," as a member of Six Flags Over Georgia's Crystal Pistol cast. Janette is also a member of UGA's Young Choreographers Club and represents Kappa in intramural tennis. Another Kappa who will be working as an entertainer this summer is Leah Brandon, M - Butler, who was hired at King's Island amusement park. She will be performing with the group "Celebration" and dancing in the American Heritage Hall Museum, the main stage there.

Seniors Jenny Winship and Jan Goldberg, ΔZ - Colorado College, displayed their talents in their final projects, as each gave an art show consisting of many different works of art.

At Duke, many Delta Beta Kappas contribute their talents to the running of the student cable television station. (See picture to right.) Libby Sunderland and Nancy Davis co-anchor the nightly news, while Nancy coordinates all the cable news. Catta Morris is on the talk show, and Cristina Robert has her own comedy show. Of special interest is Molly Fitzgerald's "cable cooking," a bimonthly show focusing on cooking which students can do in their dorm rooms or kitchens with minimal equipment. Molly has a book, Don't Worry Mom, I'm Eating Right, which is currently being reviewed by publishers.

Four Gamma Gamma Kappas at Whitman have proven their talents on stage. Mary Ann Marshall has both appeared in several plays at the Harper Joy Theatre (and one which traveled to Seattle) and has directed. She also has the responsibility of being the theatre's Costume Mistress. Patty Mathieu spent a semester in London and also is a director. She has started a drama program at a high school, focusing on Shakespeare. Julie Bayer has appeared in many plays, has worked the box office often, and serves as Drama Club vice president. Laurie Utterback is Drama Club secretary/treasurer and has been seen in many plays. She also works in the box office and is employed as assistant publicity director for the theatre. Kim Taylor has begun her acting career at Whitman by appearing in three plays this year.

Margy McHugh, ZI - Villanova

Eliza Buono, ΔB - Duke

Patty Gesner, ΔZ - Colorado College

Sherri Crumley, BK - Idaho

Nancy Zabriske, Megan Wilde, Jane Reny, and McCall Watson, ΔB - Duke.

The Kappas of musical note are indeed many. Elisa Buono, ΔB - Duke, has earned her place in Collegium, a prominent group of graduate students and faculty singers who sing in the Renaissance and Medieval music. Elisa and Harriet Cann, also a Delta Beta Kappa, founded a 12-member female a cappella ensemble, "Out of the Blue," whose membership also includes Delta Beta Kappas Brooke Caldwell and Liz Schoff. Patty Gesner, ΔZ - Colorado College, gave her senior piano recital in February, and Sherri Crumley, BK - Idaho, held her junior piano recital in the same month. Nancy Zabriske, Megan Wilde, Jane Reny, and McCall Watson, ΔB - Duke, are in the Duke Chapel Choir, which this year presented the "Messiah" in the Duke Chapel.

... in Many Ways!

Megan Wilde, Beth Pollack, and Shari Cross, ΔB - Duke, are active members of the Duke Theatre world and appeared last fall in Uncommon Women and Others, a play specifically about college women. Another Delta Beta Kappa, Mary Beach, is a prominent member of the Duke Players, having been in Comedy of Errors and worked on a full-length feature film, written, produced, directed by, and starring Duke students. Margy McHugh, ZI - Villanova, has been active in school productions, including Godspell.

Several chapters have had their talents recognized through competition musical revues. Eta chapter teamed with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity for Zeta Beta Tau's annual philanthropy project "Humorology" at Wisconsin. Phi Gamma Delta was the only fraternity with a winning record for the past three years, and this performance was no exception. Included is familiar music, original choreography, extravagant costumes, and a plot — with a restriction of $100 per team to be spent on costumes, makeup, and props! Varsity Revue at Oklahoma State also presents teams of a fraternity and a sorority. Delta Sigma Kappas and Delta Tau Delta fraternity worked together to win awards for outstanding choreography and best music. Stephanie Griffin, ΔΣ - Oklahoma State, was director, and 12 Kappas participated. At Kansas University, Omega chapter has a first place trophy on the shelf following their teaming with Sigma Nu Fraternity in a university-wide competition of original mini-musicals. They walked away with awards for "Most Effective Use of Costumes and Sets" and "Best Overall Production"!!!

The part of the Kappa composite which portrays scholastic honors always seems to overflow:

Delta Epsilon (Rollins) has an honor roll which includes four who made the President's List which requires at least 3.67 GPA on a 4.0 scale — Jo Day (chapter president), Anne Kelley (recording secretary), Susan Murphy, and Alexis Payn, ΔE - Rollins — and eight on the Dean's List which requires at least a 3.33 GPA — Diana Chrissis (chapter house chairman), Debra Hewitt (marshal), Mollie Marcotulli, Frieda Max, Judy McEvoy, Karen Partridge, Peggy Poulin (public relations chairman), and Vanessa Shaw (second vice president), ΔE - Rollins.

Tracy Heslin, I - DePauw, had the highest GPA of her pledge class, is in the Management Fellows Program, on Freshman Board, varsity tennis team, and was recently accepted to Academic Council and Phi Eta Sigma.

Janet Helms, EM - Clemson is on the National Dean's List with a 3.91 GPA and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Eta Sigma, Beta Gamma Sigma (business), Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, and Blue Key. For Mortar Board, she was director of the 1983 Miss Clemson pageant, and for Blue Key, she directed the 1982 "Tigerama." She has been chapter pledge chairman and activities chairman and received her chapter's best pledge award and the Loyalty Key.

Janet Helms, EM - Clemson

Diane Hope, EM - Clemson

With a 3.97 GPA, Diane Hope, EM - Clemson, holds the highest GPA for all sorority seniors on campus, and she received the Panhellenic Scholarship Award for Senior Scholastic Achievement. She is also a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, Beta Gamma Sigma (president), and in the Society for The Advancement of Management and the Outstanding Young Women of America.

Every year Gamma Psi (Maryland) honors the pledge with the highest GPA and overall scholarly effort. Donna Zmuidzinis, ΓΨ - Maryland, won the award this year with a 4.0 average. Donna is active as the news editor for the campus radio station and also serves as a student assistant to the Student Counseling Center and has been on the Student Advisory Board.

Honored for their scholastic and leadership achievements were four Delta Sigma Kappas who were tapped for Mortar Board at Oklahoma State. Brenda Richey has also been treasurer for Aggie-X, a member of Alpha Zeta (agriculture), an Ag Ambassador, and national assistant editor for the American Agricultural Economics Association. Renetta Reeves has been involved in Arts and Sciences Student Council and Omicron Delta Kappa (leadership). Becky Wolf's activities have included Education Student Council, OSU Ambassadors, and Cowboy Coeds. Nancy Schraad was a finalist for 1983 Business Queen and is in Beta Gamma Sigma and Beta Alpha Psi (accounting).

Debi Burris, ΔI - Louisiana State, has been president of her Mortar Board chapter and delegate to National Triennial Mortar Board Conference 1982. Debi also lists in her credits manager of the LSU Union Candy Shoppe, vice president of the College of Business Administration, founding member of the Business Administration Leadership Council, Phi Kappa Phi outstanding Junior Alternate Award, Beta Alpha Psi, Beta Gamma Sigma, Alpha Lambda Delta, Homecoming queen nominee, dorm Judicial Board chairman, LSU Chancellor's Freshman Honor Award, and chapter registrar, historian, and 1979 outstanding pledge.

Many other Kappas also list several scholastic honoraries among their honors. Kathy Lewis, ΔB - Duke, was elected to Phi Lambda Upsilon (chemical) and was on the Academic Dean's List for three years, receiving class honors in 1982. Kathy has her private pilot's license and has also received the chapter award key for citizenship and contribution. Another Delta Beta, Tina Malcom, is active in dormitory and nursing school life. She is in Sigma Theta Tau (nursing), was director of Duke's nursing awareness week, and is a Resident Advisor in a dormitory.

At Villanova, Zeta Iota Kappas Cathy Burgoyne and Karen Pasqua are in Gamma Phi, the College of Commerce and Finance honor society. Karen is also chapter assistant treasurer, and Cathy is registrar. Carol Alkons, ZI - Villanova, is secretary of Tau Beta Pi (engineering) and treasurer of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers Society. Also in Tau Beta Pi is Christy Allen, ΔB - Duke.

Iota chapter (DePauw) boasts two Phi Beta Kappas this spring. Jennifer Kneisley is also chapter second vice president, and Carla Martin is active in DePauw's music department. Sally Massick, ΓΓ - Whitman, has also been chosen for Phi Beta Kappa. She has been a disc jockey for the college radio station, a member of Spurs and Signet Table honorary societies, a special research consultant for Whitman's history department, and chapter treasurer for two years.

Elizabeth Ann Hayes, ΓE - Pittsburgh, has been selected to Phi Eta Sigma, is a Panhellenic Judicial Board Justice, on the Dean's List, and chapter pledge chairman and scholarship chairman. Lisa McTeer, EM - Clemson, also lists Phi Eta Sigma among her achievements of being a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, recipient of an award for "Outstanding Sophomore in Computer Science," third runner-up in Clemson's Homecoming and a Miss Clemson finalist, Dean's List all four semesters, and recipient of her chapter's Activities Award.

At Oklahoma State, Orange and Black Quill seeks to recognize with honor sophomores who have a GPA of 3.3 or above. Kay Oltmanns, Karen Smith, and Marla Johnson, ΔΣ - Oklahoma State, were initiated into this honor society this spring.

Golden Key National Honor Society proudly announced that Anita Carman Wilson, EA - Tennessee, was the junior scholarship recipient at the University of Tennessee. Golden Key scholarships are presented annually to a junior and senior member at each campus who demonstrate outstanding scholarship, leadership, and service to the community. Anita served on the Freshman Aid Coordinating Team, Student Orientation Board, the Peer Advisers, as a rush counselor, and as her chapter's assistant membership chairman. Other notable Kappas in Golden Key include Evelyn Photiadis, BY - West Virginia, and Kim Mangano, EΓ - North Carolina, Kim also was in Order of the Grail and was chairman of arts and crafts in West Virginia University's annual Mountaineer Week.

Meg Donovan, BH<sup>A</sup> - Stanford

Nancy Sheppard, ΔY - Georgia

Claire Rohs, EH - Auburn

Laura Wehrum, EH - Auburn

Dana Harrington, ΔB - Duke

Beta Eta Kappa Meg Donovan has been recognized for her "astonishing time management skills and selfless motivation" as one of eight to receive the 1982-83 Dean's Student Service Awards at Stanford. She was selected for her involvement in such activities as helping to organize a six-mile race which raised $600 for the Peninsula Children's Center, serving as a Big Sister in Volunteers for Youth, co-directing the Student Center for Innovation in Research and Education which helped establish student internships, serving as a dorm resident assistant, organizing intramural sports in the dorm, and working as a student editor for Approaching Stanford, and assisting with the sports section of the Quad. Meg has also worked in community affairs and other capacities for the athletics department. As an active Beta Eta she was house chairman and marshal.

At Colorado College, another Kappa has received a very prestigious award. Harlene Haynes, ΔZ - Colorado College, was presented the Sigma Xi Scientific Research Society award for encouragement in psychology and her outstanding work in the psychology department. She is also the chapter's liaison with the alumnae.

Kappas are known for their involvement in all kinds of activities, and Jackie Koch, Θ - Missouri, is a perfect example. She received the University Scholarship her freshman year for being in the top five percent of her class, and in 1982 she also received the Kappa Kappa Gamma rehabilitation scholarship. Jackie was named to the Dean's Honor List, Sigma Rho Sigma, Kappa Epsilon Alpha, Phi Eta Sigma, and Kappa Delta Pi (education) honoraries. Her activities extend to being on the Panhellenic scholarship committee, rush guide, on the Student Foundation involved in membership drives and fundraising for scholarships, and on the MSA-Student Faculty committee where she works to improve problems faced by handicapped students. Jackie has also been chapter house chairman and is currently scholarship chairman.

Mortar Board and Blue Key just were not enough for Delta Upsilon (Georgia) Kappa Nancy Sheppard who was named to Who's Who Among Students in Universities and Colleges and to the university's women's honorary Palladia. Nancy has also served as public relations chairman for Greek Week and is the photography editor for UGA's Greek quarterly. Two more Kappas named to

Who's Who were Claire Rohs and Laura Wehrum, EH - Auburn, who were chosen for scholastic ability, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to Auburn, and potential for future achievement.

Prior to her spring graduation, Joanne Jacobs, BO - Tulane, was honored with membership in Mortar Board, Kappa Delta Pi (education), Daisy Chain, and was on the Dean's List. She had also been secretary of Panhellenic Council, Senior Class representative to Newcomb Senate, co-chairman of Newcomb Spring Arts Festival, tutor for Community Action Council of Tulane University Students, peer guidance counselor to freshmen, first maid of Tulane's Homecoming court, and chapter first vice president, Panhellenic delegate, and nominating chairman. Another recent Tulane graduate, Althea Harlin, BO - Tulane, was listed in Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Psi Chi (psychology), Daisy Chain (junior honorary), on the Dean's List, as one of 12 Newcomb Dean's honor scholarship recipients, a Tulane University Scholar, and served as efficiency chairman for the Women's Forum, appointed student representative for the Newcomb Admissions committee, undergraduate representative for the Psychology curriculum committee, on the Associated Student Body Health Services committee, Newcomb Views staff, volunteer research with primates at the Audubon Zoo, a ballet teacher at a center for underprivileged citizens, and chapter second vice president, pledge chairman, and pledge class president.

Mary Claire Leahy, ZI - Villanova, was elected news editor for the year for the Villanovan, the campus newspaper. She has also been chapter marshal and is currently public relations chairman. Another Kappa journalist is Michelle Randzio, ΓΨ - Maryland, who writes for The Giants Newsweekly, a publication about the New York Giants. She has also written for four other news publications and has produced and anchored two sports related shows for her college internships.

Activities continue to prevail on all campuses — Dana Harrington, ΔB - Duke, is in charge of all campus tour guides and the tour program. Other Kappa tour guides are Nancy Davis, Libby Sunderland, Vicky Hard, Ellen Stewart, and Jill Edwards, ΔB - Duke. Also, Beth Rothermel and Lisa Benson, ΔB - Duke, are in Dukes and Duchesses, a group who represents the school and acts as hostesses for prestigious visitors, incoming freshmen and the like.

Mary Valdrighi, Σ - Nebraska, is active on her campus on the Home Economics Advisory Board, Student Dietetic Association, Delian Union Literary Society, NU Meds, Y-Pals, in Omicron Nu and Phi Upsilon Omicron (home economics honoraries), and as chapter treasurer.

On the Colorado College campus, Diane Brenton, ΔZ - Colorado College, has been elected to a women's concern committee which is a very competitive spot and is also active in Panhellenic.

Also on her Panhellenic's Council, as public relations coordinator, is Diedre "Dee" Winter, ZΔ - Vermont. Dee is also treasurer for UVM Oktoberfest, in Mortar Board and TOWERR (The Organization for Women Exemplifying Reason and Responsibility — eight senior women recognized for leadership and service to the university), has been a Resident Assistant, on the Dean's List, captain of the cheerleading squad, coeditor of the English Department newsletter, an admissions representative, and currently chapter first vice president.

Alison O'Neill and Cathy Zaden, ΓΠ - Alabama, work on their SGA Homecoming committee as vice-chairman and chairman, respectively, to coordinate all homecoming activities.

Other aspects of student government have attracted several Kappas. Jill Ahstrom, ΔB - Duke, is a member of the Undergraduate Judicial Board. Duff Points, ΔΣ - Oklahoma State, has been installed as an Engineering Senator for the Student Government Body. She is also a finalist for Engineering Queen. Kimberly Gracy and Lisa Otke, ΓA - Kansas State, are also student senators in student government. Kimberly is senator for the College of Arts and Sciences and serves as secretary of the Communications committee. Lisa represents the College of Architecture and Design, is on the Personal Selection committee, and is a member of Design Council.

At Alabama, these Gamma Pi actives are involved in student government: Luann McKee is chairman of the SGA Campus Planning Commission, which deals with parking problems and development on the campus. Alison O'Neill is also on this commission, serving as chairman of the amphitheater task force. Alison, Lauri Gaskell, and Allison Steve are members of the Commerce and Business Administration Executive Council of the Business School.

The SGA Executive Advisory Council serves the campus in resolving areas of concern to the students and includes Callie Howe, Tamera Tutton, and Lauren Graves. Mary Courtney, Giny Dawson, and Sara Porter are on the Greek Council on Civic Affairs, which works to strengthen ties between the Greek organizations and works to help Tuscaloosa and the University of Alabama. Mary is chairman. Valarie Lake has been elected to the Alliance of Pre-Health Careers for which she is now the director.

At Indiana, several campus organizations find Delta chapter actives among their memberships: Betty Landis is a Senator for the Indiana University Student Association. Betsy Grizzell is a Panhellenic Judicial Board Justice, and Cynthia Carvey is a Standards Board Director. On the Indiana University Student Foundation are Kim Jones and Melissa Libke, while Jennifer Foulke, Betsy Kabelin, and Patti Skoronski serve on the Student Athletic Board. Jennifer is vice president. Annie Pete is on the Union Board as a director.

Delta Beta actives are highly interested in the society and the people around them. Kathy Strozier, Liz Schoff, Harriet Cann, Sue Gordon, Ellen Stewart, Shari Cross, Sue Carpenter, Laura McAllister, Alice Mays, and Beth Rothermel are Duke Student Tutors. Founded by Liz and Kathy, Duke Student Tutors are students who tutor elementary and junior high school students in local schools.

The Alabama Accounting Society acquaints accounting students with the job market by providing opportunities to meet potential employers. Donna Novak and Elizabeth Spencer,  $\Gamma\Pi$  - Alabama, are both members. Vivan Stabler, Jane Turnipseed, and Melanie Talbot,  $\Gamma\Pi$  - Alabama, are active in Angel Flight, which represents the Air Force ROTC. Melanie is currently Little Colonel.

Julia Carney, I - DePauw, has been serving as president of the Chaplain's Living Unit Council for which she coordinates individual and group projects, including Winter Term in Mission, a program which sent medical and construction teams of DePauw students to Haiti, Honduras, Georgia, and Peru for January.

Susan Hildebrand,  $\Delta\Omega$  - California State, Fresno, was elected the Youth Delegate representing the San Joaquin Presbytery for the United Presbyterian Church General Assembly held in Atlanta in June. This is an historical year at the General Assembly, as the United Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church of the United States have voted to reunite after splitting during the Civil War.

Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership honorary, chooses members at Alabama for exemplary character, scholarship, intelligence, service and leadership in campus life, and among their membership are Lauri Gaskell, Lee Ann Matthews, and Catherine Berry,  $\Gamma\Pi$  - Alabama.

Haley Jo Matson,  $\Gamma\Lambda$  - Kansas State, has been honored with membership in Blue Key national honor fraternity. She has also been in Chimes junior honorary, was a 1982 K-State Ambassador finalist, and served as an International 4-H Youth Exchange Delegate to Italy as a representative of the United States. Also at Kansas State, Chimes chooses 25 members from as many as 300 applicants, based on GPA and university activities. Of the 25, four are Gamma Alpha Kappas — Erin Brummett, Sonja Smith, Donna Biggs, and Kathleen Daniels. Chimes sponsors Parents Day at K-State as one of their major projects.

Successful Free-Lancing, by Marian Faux, ΓΔ - Purdue, St. Martin's Press, Inc. New York, 1982. 175 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10010, $11.95 per copy.

In today's economy, traditional career paths may not satisfy the needs of individuals seeking both financial security and a high degree of personal freedom. Many people have therefore considered free-lancing as an alternative to the constrained, workaday world of the office, and it has become one of the fastest-growing career options of this decade.

In her latest book, free-lance writer and editor Marian Faux shows the prospective or established free-lancer all aspects of the business. Whether tax analyst or baby-sitter, these features put Successful Free-Lancing right on target. Included is basic information on how to get started, suggestions for setting up an office, information on the finances and tax aspects of free-lancing, effective techniques for self marketing and promotion, dealing with free-lancing fees, and tips for efficient time management and organization on the job.

In addition to providing information available to start, develop and maintain a free-lancing career, Marian Faux shows how to gain and keep a positive attitude, and how to operate a free lance business on a professional, profitable level. The book is well organized, and addresses the facets of the business in the order the free-lancer would be likely to encounter them.

The book may be ordered from the publisher.

We Can Fly, by Mary Beth Rogers, Sherry A. Smith, Janelle D. Scott; Publisher Ellen C. Temple, ΒΞ - Texas, Dallas, TX, 1982. The book may be ordered from E-Heart Press, Inc., P.O. Box 58289, Dallas, Texas, 75258, $12.95 paperback and $24.95 hard cover.

We Can Fly takes you into the clouds with one of America's first women pilots, Katherine Stinson. Then it lifts you into space with America's first women astronauts. It is a book about women in Texas whose dreams allowed them to soar through the currents of time. The book is an outgrowth of the two year touring exhibition "Texas Women - A Celebration of History." The authors helped create the successful exhibit which is to be on permanent display at Texas Women's University in Denton, Texas. Twelve other women celebrated include an Olympic gold-medalist, a civil rights worker, a battleground nurse, and a professional golfer.

The Smocked Bishop Dress by Nadine Neilson Lomax (Phi Mu, Univ. of Georgia), and Jane Evans Macpherson, ΔΥ - Georgia, Just Smocking Two, Box 842, Summerville, South Carolina 29483; 1982. The book may be ordered from the publisher at $8.00 a copy + $1.50 for postage and handling.

This single book, teaching from start to finish the construction of the bishop's dress, is a complete guide. The 24 page illustrated edition contains three smocking designs, 65 sketches and photos, measurements and yardage charts and a guideline that allows the dress to be made in all sizes.

The authors, both graduates in Home Economics have taught English Smocking and French Handsewing for seven years, and co-own their own shop. They are charter members of the Smocking Arts Guild of America and taught at the 1982 SAGA National Seminar. Nadine and Jane are both married to career military officers and each is the mother of two girls.

Entertaining in the Light Style, by Lou Seibert Pappas, ΓΜ - Oregon State, 101 Productions, 1982, paperback $6.95.

Lou Pappas, food editor of the Peninsula Time Tribune, Palo Alto, California, has written a cookbook that will be welcomed by anyone planning to entertain anytime of the year. Her light style means that food is abundant but not overdone. Flavors are heightened by stripping away superfluous salts, sugar and fats. The emphasis is on seasonal bounty, swiftly prepared and artistically presented. Her menus are spontaneous to cut down on advance preparations. Recipes are presented in a special framework of menus, planned to feed from four to forty. Simple menus take on festive airs when Lou Pappas lends her special know-how and flair.

Conversational Spanish for the Medical and Health Professions, Cynthia Ann Cason Teed, ΒΟ - Tulane, Harold Raley, and Jeffrey B. Barber, Holt Rinehart and Winston, 1982, 812 E. Friar Tuck, Houston, TX 77024.

This text offers a series of dialogues, vocabulary and cultural notes to prepare nursing, medical, and health-care personnel to interact with Spanish-speaking people. Using the framework of the hospital as a unifying theme, the text covers all aspects of the hospital and its routine, while emphasizing practical and correct uses of spoken Spanish. True to life dialogues simulate actual hospital situations and include vocabulary necessary for communication in the field.

Features include medical documents and charts written in Spanish and English, cognate word study to reinforce medical terminology in both languages, material on anatomy, health care, and dietetics with essential information needed for translators to explain procedures or doctor's orders. Also included are conversation-oriented vocabulary exercises, including question-answer, substitution, fill-in-the-blanks, and many role playing activities. A grammatical appendix provides easy reference to essential grammar points.

Time and Change Affect Province Boundaries

Beta - Historic Example

By Catherine Schroeder Graf
BN - Ohio State
Fraternity Historian

Beta Province has not always been composed of Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey. In fact, its boundaries have varied considerably throughout the past 102 years. Those of you who are mathematically and historically astute will quickly calculate our Fraternity's age as 113 years. However, Kappa wasn't divided into provinces until the Convention of 1881, when the chapter roll had grown to 20 and the youngest was (Beta) Beta at St. Lawrence University.

Delta Province, established in 1890, included all chapters west of the Mississippi River. Epsilon and Zeta Provinces joined the Kappa family in 1906, extending Fraternity government to the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean.

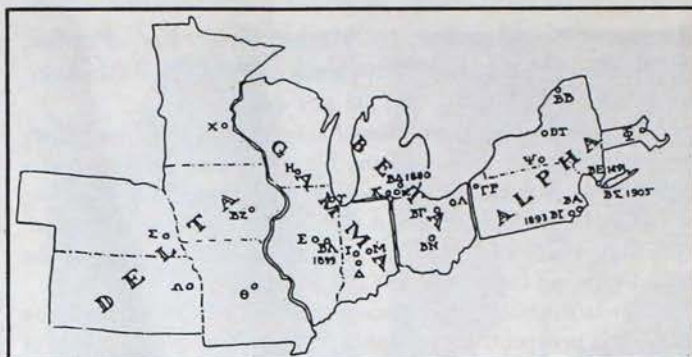

In 1914 the number of provinces jumped to 10. Gamma Rho (Allegheny College) and Beta Upsilon (West Virginia University) Chapters were assigned to Gamma Province that year. Beta Province moved east and Alpha Province moved south. Alpha Province included Beta Alpha (University of Pennsylvania), Beta Epsilon (Barnard), Beta Iota (Swarthmore), Beta Sigma (Adelphi), and Phi (Boston University) Chapters. Beta Tau (Syracuse), Beta Psi (Toronto), and Psi (Cornell) Chapters were in Beta Province. This state of affairs continued until 1923. The provinces probably were turned around during the Council session that year, although nothing regarding rearrangement of provinces is recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

Massachusetts, initially placed in Alpha Province, had been removed to Beta before the "turnaround" in 1923. That same Three provinces were designated by the 1881 Convention. Beta Province was made up of Wisconsin, Indiana, and Michigan. Since there were no chapters or alumnae groups in the states which form Beta Province today, that area was not included.

In 1945 Beta Province still included the area around New York City. Connecticut, Rhode Island, Delaware, and New Jersey had been added to the province because of the establishment of Delta Mu (University of Connecticut) Chapter and new alumnae groups.

A fourth province was added in 1890. Beta Province now consisted of Michigan and Ohio. Due to the chartering of Gamma Rho Chapter in 1888 and Beta Alpha in 1890, Pennsylvania was placed on the map, in Alpha Province. West Virginia was added to Alpha after the chartering of Beta Upsilon.

This 1914 map was taken from the forerunner of our pledge manual, the Song Leaflet and Manual of Information, which was published for the first time that year. (The heavy lines denoting the provinces have been added by this author.) The territories we know traditionally as Alpha and Beta Provinces were interchanged from 1914 until 1923.

year, Gamma Rho and Beta Upsilon, which had been returned to Alpha, became a part of Beta. Gamma Kappa, chartered in 1923 at William and Mary College, also was placed in Beta Province. By 1929 George Washington University's Gamma Chi and the University of Maryland's Gamma Psi Chapters had been added to Beta.

Lambda and Mu Provinces came into existence in 1930. Beta Upsilon, Gamma Kappa, Gamma Chi, and Gamma Psi were removed from Beta and placed in Lambda Province. The new Mu Province comprised our southernmost chapters.

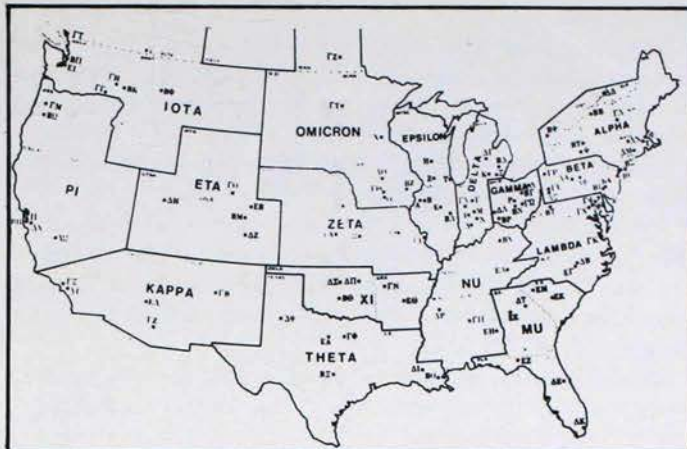

Twelve provinces continued to make up the Fraternity roster for the next 40 years. It was obvious, by the time of Kappa Kappa Gamma's centennial, that changes and additions were needed.

Copies of province maps are needed to fill empty spaces in our records. Please notify the Heritage Museum staff if you know where old maps can be located. This article can be removed from The Key and placed in the Province Section of your Kappa Notebook.

ed in geographical distribution in order to equalize responsibility and opportunity within our province organization. Nu, Xi, Omicron, and Pi Provinces came into being in 1971. The most recent change occurred in 1979, when Kappa's 17th province, Rho, was created.

Although Beta Province has remained stable for the past 12 years, it is an excellent example of the effects of redistricting. Nothing is as certain as time and change. Surely all our province boundaries will wander, again and again, as our Fraternity continues to progress.

Redistricting plans started in 1970 became effective after province meetings the following year. This map depicts the 16 provinces as constituted at that time. Connecticut and metropolitan New York City had been placed in Alpha Province.

Kappa's latest map includes our 17th province, Rho. Born of Alpha in 1979, the separation of the New England states eased a situation which had become unwieldy. Beta Province remained unchanged, but notice the variance in Eta and Kappa Provinces.

Newly Appointed Committee Studies Province Division

Gay Chuba Barry, ΔΑ - Penn State, Fraternity vice president, has been appointed by the Council to chair a committee to study the possible division and redistribution of the existing 17 provinces. The last study of province division occurred in 1970 when Kappa had 93 chapters. With the addition of ZK Chapter at Bowling Green, Kappa collegiate chapters now number 112 with over 400 alumnae groups.

The charge to the committee is to study all aspects and ramifications of division based on detailed input from a questionnaire given to all province officers this past spring. The committee will make recommendations to the Council in January in 1984.

Members of Council serving ex officio are: Sally Moore Nitschke, BN - Ohio State, president; Becky Stone Arbour, ΔΙ - Louisiana State, treasurer; Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ - Missouri, director of chapters; and Wilma Winberg Johnson, ΔΝ - Massachusetts, director of alumnae. Committee members include: Joyce Wilson Carson, ΔΧ - San Jose; Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ - Purdue; Lois Baird Jeffery, ΔΑ - Miami; Kay Smith Larson, ΒΠ - Washington; Kathy Welsh May, Χ - Minnesota; Mary Agnes "Gray" Roberts, Υ - Northwestern; Debbie Wamser Miller, ΓΞ - UCLA; and Janet Dickerson Sanford, ΓΚ - Wm. and Mary.

Some financial facts have been assembled by Fraternity Treasurer Becky Arbour for the committee regarding the ramifications of division including communication, visiting costs, additional manuals and paper resources, travel and training at Associate Council Seminar, Convention expenses, additional province meetings involving attendance by Council and resource personnel.

In addition four questions were posed to the committee to get them started in their thinking: What are the strengths of our present system? What is the weakness of our present system? If the number of provinces were to remain the same, what suggestions or ideas could aid the province officers in their work? And finally, a creative thinking question . . . "pretend that we are just beginning . . . what would be the best possible system we could devise to service our members? What type of personnel would it involve and what would be their responsibility? (Financial considerations aside.)"

The questionnaire completed by all province officers included questions regarding the identification and description of socio-economic areas found within their provinces, consideration of what areas are growing in population and what areas are losing population (even asked the approximate number of square miles within the province.) Many questions centered around alumnae groups and where they were located as they provide advisory board and alumnae group leadership.

A main question asked is, "What are the maximum number of chapters or alumnae groups that can be served in a province most effectively?" Currently, there are some provinces with four collegiate chapters while other provinces have eight — alumnae groups vary from approximately 16 in a province to 44 in another. An underlying question is how important are geographical features and state borders in a province division?

Every member input is welcomed and may be addressed to any member of the committee or sent to the chairman, Gay Barry (see Directory for address.) Suggestions and ideas are needed. To change or not to change — that is the question!

Dearest Sisters,

Imagine looking in the mirror at yourself, your face gaunt, hair dull and stringy, ribs standing out individually, legs barely visible, and pelvic bones sticking out disarrayed. "I'm fat," you say — and you really do feel fat . . .

Imagine refusing to eat a cracker because it would mean you were consuming 20 extra calories . . .

Imagine spending all of your waking hours calculating how many calories you've eaten that day — usually it's under 700 — and spending the time to cut out magazine pictures of chocolate layer cakes, pecan pies, vanilla ice cream, and all the pasta dishes you can find . . .

Imagine having nightmares about eating cookies so that when you woke up you were too scared to look in the mirror for fear you've put on a pound . . .

Imagine finding yourself feeling all alone and quite unhappy even though you had thought if you had lost weight, everything would work out . . .

If you can see yourself in any of these instances, if you don't have to imagine it because you've already done it before, I urge to listen. You're not alone. You have what millions of American women have — and it's called Anorexia.

Anorexia Nervosa is defined in Elenor Whitney and Eva May Hamilton's book Understanding Nutrition as "a severe self-imposed limitation of food intake sometimes seen in adolescents; a dangerous condition requiring skilled professional treatment." Who gets it and why? There are no straight answers, but it does seem to occur more often to teenage women who come from competitive, successful families. How do I know so much about Anorexia? Because I too have had it, but I was one of the more fortunate ones who got help in time.

When I first started losing weight, I remember being on a natural high; I received instant attention from my peers; I thought that if I were thin I'd get a boyfriend and be happier all around. Besides cutting down on calorie intake, I began a rigorous exercise program. As the five pounds came off, I hated the thought of stopping my diet; I had gained instant reward for my successful dieting and my friends and men kept telling me how great I looked.

What began as a small diet to lose five pounds, turned into a 24-hour compulsive desire to lose more weight and become thinner. From the minute I got up in the morning (I used to run to the mirror and jump on a scale to see if I had gained or lost a pound) till the time I went to bed (I usually had done 100 situps and checked myself in the mirror) my thoughts were constantly on my weight and food. Why didn't I stop after the five pounds came off? I think perhaps it was due to my peers reactions. It was like a dream come true. Men began noticing me; asking me out; complimenting me on my dieting; while women constantly praised me. My mother bought me new clothes and I was told that I looked like a model. But soon, all too soon, my dream turned into a nightmare . . .

I remember vividly how lonely I felt as time progressed. My friends began to avoid me at meal time; they snickered as I tried on clothes, and they began to get paranoid that I was criticizing them on their weight and lack of exercise. In actuality, I wasn't concerned with other people's weight; it was me who I was criticizing. I felt compelled to keep succeeding at my diet. I was terrified of gaining back the weight and having people think I had failed. I thought I was being so smart; if I kept losing weight I'd stay ahead of the game.

It was no longer fun. I was scared now and had no one to turn to. No one believed me when I told them I thought I was fat. No one could understand how I could look in a mirror and see a fat person. But I did.

I finally got the point where I was consuming under 300 calories a day. I had been a cheerleader before all this; now I hardly had enough energy to talk or drive a car. My friends were scared to be around me. They felt so helpless, but their avoidance only worsened things. I did get better, but I didn't get better until after things got worse . . . and I lost a lot of friends in the process, too.

I ended up getting very sick with mono, blood poisoning, and other ailments. I was kept in the college infirmary for two months and during that time the doctor put me on medication that, not to my knowledge, would increase my appetite. I was horrified! Since I was unable to exercise, I began putting on weight. I was embarrassed having my friends see me eat. I would starve myself when I was around people, but as soon as I was alone I would gorge myself. That's when I began to throw up food; the bingeing and purging syndrome termed Bulimia.

I remember feeling so much pressure to stay thin — our society has told us that successful, happy women are thin women. Yet, I no longer had enough energy to keep starving myself. It seemed so simple, yet little did I realize that this little scheme would become so habitual that I'd begin throwing up every meal. That wasn't the worst of it. Though I tried to conceal my habit, my friends began to find out. It was horrible; if I had ever felt rejected when I was anorexic, it was nothing compared to now. People scorned me, turned up their nose to my problem, threatened me to stop, but no one would help me. My Big Sister in the sorority, who knew about anorexia, was the most sympathetic but soon even she began to give up. I was lonelier than ever and the lonelier I felt, the more I felt compelled to gorge myself.

It was a vicious cycle that soon resulted in my coming close to death. I threw up so violently one night, I ruptured a minor artery in my throat. I was forced to seek professional help — it was what saved my life.

Sisters, I urge you to take action if you know of someone who is anorexic or bulimic. Don't get angry; don't turn away. Get them to seek professional help from someone who has experience with these eating disorders. If you don't do it now, the next time it may be too late . . .

P.S. It's been over a year now, and I'm a happier, healthier person thanks to professional counselors who knew what to do. Sure, I still have anorexic tendencies which I fall back to when under stress. But, my Kappa sisters understand now; they've accepted me, and stand behind me. If you have any questions, I urge you to write. Let's help each other. KKT - ED, PO Box 2079, Columbus, OH 43216. Although the writer's name has been withheld for protection of identity, all letters will be sent to her for response.

The eating disorders, anorexia and bulimia, have become almost epidemic on our college campuses and have had a particularly devastating effect on both the mental and physical health of many young women including active chapter members.

The Fraternity is developing a program for chapters that will:

1. Educate the members, advisers and house directors on the signs and symptoms of the eating disorders and help to develop their awareness and sensitivity to this problem which is both individual and group related.

2. Work with Personnel Committees and advisers to help them become alert to chapter members who have problems in this area and to make appropriate referrals for professional treatment.
3. Encourage chapters to develop philanthropy programs with a focus on eating disorders. This might include sharing educational programs with other Panhellenic groups and having fund raising events to benefit ANAD, National Association of Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders. (continued on pg. 46)

Thank You Loyalty Fund Contributors!

The Loyalty Fund makes it possible to develop quality programming in a time of rising costs to serve both alumnae and undergraduates. Carefully considered extension on quality campuses is a reality along with the continued service of The Key to a mailing list of 95,000. Because of your generosity the Fraternity is able to offer alcohol awareness programs to serve the needs of our chapters and to provide leadership and management skills for all officers and chairmen, both active and alumnae, through outstanding programs and resources. We thank the 6,868 members who contributed over $157,000 with an average gift of $22.98 per donor. The following contributed between April 16, 1982 and April 30, 1983.

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor,

The members of her family have tried to acknowledge each of the many notes and expressions of sympathy that Kappa sent to us on the occasion of the death of Edith Reese Crabtree on January 6, 1983, but we realize that we have not been able to respond to all of them.

The outpouring of notes and letters and the contributions to the Edith Reese Crabtree Scholarship Fund have meant a great deal to us.

Sincerely,
James C. Crabtree

Dear Delta Omega Chapter,

Congratulations on your success in the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's "Fraternity and Sorority Energy Conservation Competition." Your efforts have resulted in winning the 5% Achievement award. A cash award of $25.00 from Pacific Gas and Electric is enclosed.

This achievement and the program of which it is a part are significant both for the energy Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority saved over the past year as well as for the overall reduction in cost to your chapter. I wholeheartedly support your participation and congratulate you on your success.

Robert Lundal
Interfraternity Council Advisor
CA State U. at Fresno

ANAD is an entirely volunteer program working out of donated space in the Highland Park Hospital in the Chicago area. It is the first national non-profit educational and self-help organization in America dedicated to alleviating eating disorders such as anorexia and bulimia. It offers many free services including counseling, information and referrals, self-help groups for both victims and parents, educational programs, and a listing of therapists, hospitals and clinics treating anorectics. The group also encourages research.

Scottsdale's ART-A-FAIR

"Have you heard? The Scottsdale Kappas are having an A-Fair — an ART A-FAIR! It's not a secret. In fact, please tell everyone all about it."

This was the intriguing opening of a bulletin to all Kappas in the Scottsdale (AZ) metropex. The explanation of their community oriented fund raiser followed, and the bulletin ended with a . . .

"P.S. To the Scottsdale Kappas . . .

No tickets to sell! No hors d'oeuvres to prepare!

Just call all your friends about the ART A-FAIR!"

The third annual Art-A-Fair was held in March, despite some doubts about continuing to present the fair, and Kappas were delighted to find that attendance and participation more than doubled this year. With a final profit of more than $1200, they are already looking toward a bigger and even more profitable fair next year.

What is an ART-A-FAIR? It is a unique concept that involves local artists, held in an historic setting, sponsored by the Scottsdale Alumnae Association, and benefitting local high school students.

An invitation was issued to local artists and craftsmen to submit some of their work — paintings, drawings and pottery . . . oils, acrylics, watercolors, pen and ink, charcoal . . . framed or unframed. There was no limit to the number of pieces per artist, but each entry was accompanied by a $2.00 fee. The pieces were displayed on March 5th, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and offered for sale. The artist kept 70% of the sale price of any piece purchased, with the other 30% donated to the fair. Kappas handled all the arrangements and the proceeds went to the Scottsdale School Arts in Education Council. The sale supports their program of visual, performing, and literary arts for Scottsdale teen-agers through their high schools. The project includes professional residencies; instrumental, vocal, dance and theatre performances; art exhibits and interdisciplinary study experiences. The council is a parent volunteer organization and is unique to Arizona.

BΣ - Adelphi

Arrangements were kept relatively simple. Since no admission was charged, there were no tickets to sell. Food was also omitted, although wine was served and sold by the hotel. The responsibilities of the Kappas included encouraging artists to participate and serving on committees for site arrangements and display, publicity and promotion, hostessing, and receiving and returning art works. A core group of 15 Kappas, under the chairmanship of Mary Ingwersen Shrake, ΔB - Duke, organized the event, with about 40 more serving on committees. Costs were basic — printing, advertising, etc. — with sponsors covering much of this need.

On the day before the show, works were received and carefully labeled with the artist's name, title of the work, an identifying number, and the price. Careful labeling and cataloguing assured orderly handling of the works.

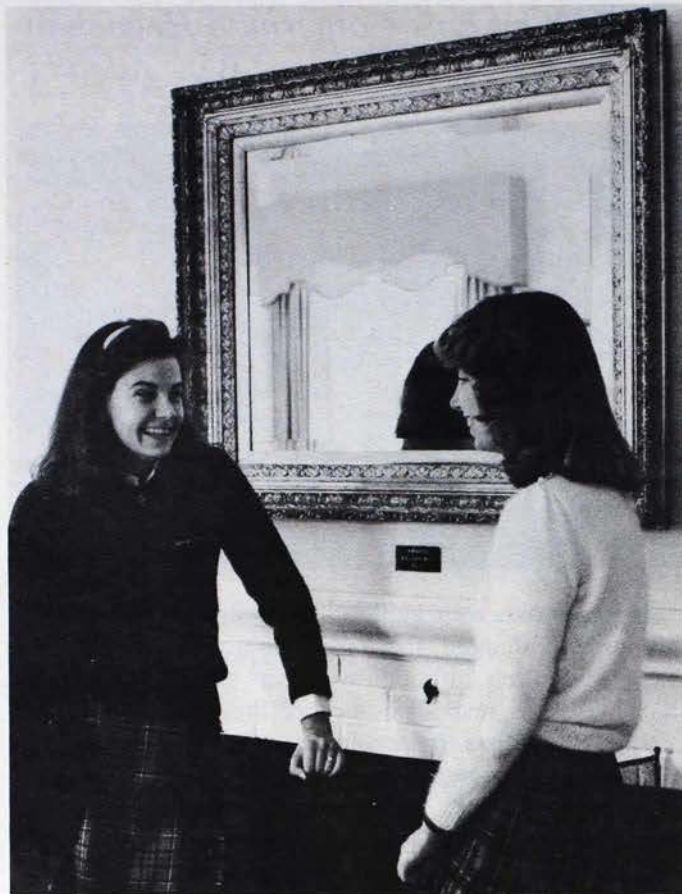

Even the weather was perfect, to enhance the lovely setting. The Royal Palms Inn contains history from the city of Phoenix, as well as world history. Once a private home, the inn housed lush tropical gardens and one of the most complete private cactus gardens in the southwest. It is laden with priceless 15th century antiques from around the world and only in 1948 did it become an inn. Even with many modern conveniences, the Royal Palms Inn continues to mirror its gracious and colorful past.

To add a Kappa touch to the event, a small cookbook of "Kappa Fare" was sold for only $1.00. (Note the design logo used throughout the fair in letters, advertising etc.) The cookbooks are now back-ordered and will probably be higher priced next year!

Some suggestions for a successful affair . . . The location must be convenient and it must fit the budget. Good publicity is essential. The ART-A-FAIR had generous articles in local papers, along with paid ads. "Connections" help, but timing is all-important. Radio spots and local events highlighted by the T.V. weatherman kept the event in the public eye.

Alumnae Activity . . .

Arcadia

Active-alumnae interaction (AAI) was strong as members of the Arcadia (CA) Alumnae Association joined  $\Delta T$  - U.S.C. for Founders' Day at the chapter house. Songs, good food and a program of chapter history, inspirational poetry and the awarding of 50-year pins to three alumnae members combined to provide a real feeling of Kappa spirit and sisterhood.

Mary Brown Mills, BN - Ohio State, one of those who received a 50-year pin, was honored further. In recognition of her many years of devoted service as finance advisor to  $\Delta T$ , a special key set with her birthstone was presented in her name by the alumnae. It will be given to each chapter treasurer to wear during her term in office. Delta Tau President, Tracy Griffin, and Mary Mills are pictured with Teri Smith (right), chapter treasurer, sporting her new key.

St. Lawrence

While members of Beta Beta Deuteron Chapter, St. Lawrence, are enjoying the luxury of a completely redecorated formal living room in the Kappa Lodge, they are also aware that they live in a house that claims the distinction of being the second house built in the village of Canton, NY.

Richard N. Harrison, Controller of the City of New York, was one of the early settlers in the village of Canton. About 1786 he acquired one third of all the land in the town and in the early 1800s he built what is now the Kappa Lodge. The original house had a straight line fence with square posts that enclosed the front of the property. At one side of the house, toward the back, was a small building which served as his land office. Richard Harrison moved to this property with his wife, mother and sister, and later a William Harrison lived there.

In 1889, Senator Dolph Lynde of Hermon bought the property and moved there with his wife and daughter, Grace, who was an early member of Beta Beta Chapter. Senator Lynde founded the First National Bank (now Chase Manhattan) and Grace Lynde worked there for many years. In 1900, the Lyndes moved next door and rented their former home to the Zeta Phi girls. Finally, the St. Lawrence Alumnae Association purchased the property and it became known as the Kappa Lodge.

Actives and alumnae are aware of this heritage and continue to cherish and maintain the beautiful and historic property. Through a sustaining membership fund, alumnae have helped to keep the lodge in good order. The past year's improvements included the complete redecoration of the formal living room, B.J. Laidlaw Wilkinson, Carolyn Robbins Sisson and Doris Pike Gibson, all BB $\Delta$ , along with Patricia Palmer Roach, BM - Colorado, were the committee in charge. The major part of the project was completed during the summer but finishing touches continued all fall with the addition of an antique brass bucket for wood (scrubbed and polished by B.J.) and the gift of an antique mirror in memory of Marie Lalone Wells, BB $\Delta$ . Still to come is a needle-point cover with dark blue background and light blue fleur-de-lis in the center, for one of the mahogany side chairs. This is being made by BB $\Delta$  Helen Atwood.

Lubbock

Yum, yum . . . it's Kappa Kitchen time. The Lubbock (TX) Alumnae Association's annual fund-raising event is a large sale of goodies during the first week of December. Everyone in the community plans Christmas parties around goodies bought at Kappa Kitchen. Pictured are Pam Fikes McPherson and Terri Heath Shankle, both  $\Delta\Psi$  - Texas Tech, co-chairmen of the event, arranging items for this year's Kappa Kitchen which raised over \$1400.

Cruisin' Kappas

Louise Forve Barker,  $\Gamma\Xi$  - U.C.L.A., and her husband Dr. Edward H. Barker, an adjunct professor of the University of Pittsburgh, were part of an around-the-world trip on the S.S. Universe. The trip was the fall 1982 cruise of the University of Pittsburgh's Semester at Sea Program. Louise described the trip at a joint meeting of the Los Angeles, Santa Monica and Westwood Alumnae Associations. She was able to audit four classes during the trip and participate in many university related programs in the countries visited. Among the 435 students and 32 adults who visited Japan, China, Taiwan, India, Indonesia, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, Morocco, Sri Lanka and Spain were seven Kappas . . . Gigi Gentry,  $\Gamma\Phi$  - Southern Methodist; Lisa Savage and Lilli Stammler, both BM - Colorado; Katie Johnson,  $E\Omega$  - Dickinson, Kim West, also  $\Gamma\Phi$ ; Louise Barker, Gay Fournery,  $\Delta\Sigma$  - Oklahoma State; Patty Sargent,  $\Delta O$  - Iowa State.

Midland

A biennial fund-raising project of the Midland (TX) Alumnae Association is their Kappa Kitchen. Baked goods, frozen casseroles and personalized Valentine's Day treats were sold for a net profit of $2400. Proceeds were divided equally among Special Olympics, Hospice of Midland, and EP - Texas A & M. Always held near Valentine's Day, and cued to the holiday theme, the event offers items for sale that are cleverly decorated with hearts, doilies, ribbons, bows, etc. As an added attraction, a beautiful cake made by one of the members is raffled off.

Kappa hostesses looked particularly festive this year in their new white aprons and distinctive denim key name tags. Modeling and ready for buyers are Mary Frances Barnard Snure and Le Ann Martin Grantham, both  $\Delta\Psi$  - Texas Tech.

Dallas

Thousands of Texans delight in viewing the Dallas Alumnae Association's Christmas Homes Tour and hundreds of Kappas in Dallas are involved in preparing for this special event — baking, decorating, making craft items, and presiding over the countless details necessary for success. A wide and diversified membership works together toward a common goal and benefits go to Kappa philanthropies and scholarships as well as to local recipients — Dallas Services for the Visually Impaired and Sequoia, Inc., an organization established to provide small group homes for retarded persons 18 or older.

Kathy Weed Vittetoe,  $\Gamma\Phi$  - Southern Methodist, is pictured making pine cone petal angels. Directions follow: Large — 18", small — 8". Make a cone of heavy brown paper and spray with two coats of clear liquid plastic inside and out. Let dry. (This is the skirt or base.) Clip petals from pine cones with tin snips and glue to skirt, overlapping to hide raw petal edges. (Hot glue works best.) Stop petals  $\frac{1}{2}$ " from top.

Head is an artificial pomegranate about 1" in diameter. (A small apple, turned upside down, may be used.) Gesso head; paint hair, face and neck. Insert small styrofoam ball on the underside of the cone. Gently force into top of cone and secure with glue. Place small stick (larger than a toothpick, if possible) through bottom of head and force into styro ball. Add pine petals to cover neck.

Wings are cut in heart-like shape from lightweight bark or heavy brown cardboard coated with glue before dipping into a mixture of pot-pourri, spagnum or spanish moss to achieve a woodsy effect. Wings are glued to a small piece of styrofoam which is sprayed brown and glued to the back of the angel.

Crown finished head with tiny cluster of baby's breath or any small unique object. Spray entire angel with clear varnish. Large angel is constructed in the same manner except placing pine cone petals on wings, and bark (or cardboard coated with moss) on skirt.

Dallas Kappas also have a special recipe for Kappa Eggnog Cake. Why not write to them for it and enjoy a little bit of the holidays Texas style.

Des Moines

Claire Rayburn and Camille Goodwin, both  $\Gamma\Theta$  - Drake, received a very special gift from Polly Kurrle Clark (center) also  $\Gamma\Theta$ , President of the Des Moines (IA) Alumnae Association. Polly had the happy task of presenting to the chapter the 84 new initiation robes and ribbons made by the alumnae during many hours of sewing workshops.

Grand Rapids

Enjoying the Christmas hospitality of the Grand Rapids (MI) Alumnae Association are collegians Stacey Lippert, K - Hillsdale; Pam Zeerip, BM - Colorado; Elizabeth Noack,  $\Delta\Gamma$  - Michigan State; Michelle Miller, also K; Shelley Appel, I - DePauw. Alumnae members felt a special glow of Christmas and sisterhood as they hosted the chapter members.

Fairfield County

Members of the Fairfield County (CT) Alumnae Association prepared "goodie bags" for  $\Delta M$  - Connecticut actives. The gaily decorated bags, tagged with each active's name, were filled with nutritious snacks and delivered to the chapter house as a surprise just before finals. Vonnie Cunningham Eccles,  $\Gamma H$  - Washington State, shared the fun with Kathleen O'Neill (standing), and Celeste Frederick,  $\Delta M$ , Lee Thomson Bemus,  $\Delta A$  - Penn State, and Caryn McCullagh,  $\Delta M$ , when the goodies were delivered.

New Hampshire

Planning activities for the New Hampshire Alumnae Club are President, Barbara Smith Arnold and Panhellenic Chairman, Jane Brodnax Patterson, both  $\Delta N$  - Massachusetts; and Vice President and Program Chairman, Joyce Gustafson Janosky, BA - Illinois. Among the activities under discussion is a service project for the Kappas of EX - Dartmouth.

San Diego

Although there is no college chapter nearby, San Diego Alumnae Association members enjoyed participating in the initiation of 14 pledges of EII - Riverside. The whole chapter came to San Diego for the initiation ceremonies at the home of an alumna. The beautiful program inspired initiates, actives and alumnae and afterward the alumnae served brunch for 60 in the home of Marnie Wright Barnhorst, B $\Omega$  - Oregon, overlooking San Diego Bay. Each initiate received a split-chambered nautilus shell and a calligraphied copy of the poem "Listen to the Nautilus" as a remembrance. Actives and alumnae are pictured enjoying brunch in the garden and sharing those special Kappa feelings.

Chicago Area

Reunions are always fun and seven Kappas who were classmates at Purdue in the fifties gathered at the home of Nancy Laitner, Epsilon Province director of alumnae, for dinner and remembering. (Could we call it a Kappa Katch-up Gab?!) Pictured are Janet McDougal Alberts, Ruth Ann Parkinson Southworth, Ann Magee Royce, Jean Stratton Witter, Merle Snakenburg Popham, Nancy Voorhees Laitner, Pearl Jones Lindborg, all  $\Gamma\Delta$  - Purdue. (Janet's grandmother, Lena McDougal was the Kappa housemother.)

Indianapolis

For the past two years, the Indianapolis Alumnae Association has provided substantial funding for a camping program for physically and mentally handicapped children in the area. Approximately thirty 16-year old students of the Cold Springs School (a special education facility) were provided with a three day camping experience . . . a major undertaking, since these students require a great deal of individual help with crafts, hiking, nature study, etc.

May Lyon Bennett, BII - Washington, (front) received her 75-year pin from the Memphis Alumnae Association. She helped to organize the alumnae group, served as its first president and later was instrumental in the group's efforts to colonize a chapter at the University of Mississippi. May has also been active in and served as president of several civic and community organizations.

Marsha Goedecke Rutherford, FI - Washington U, and Margaret Tayloe Cox, H - Wisconsin, received their 50 year pins. Sharon Gafford Ritz, BΘ - Oklahoma, Nu Province director of alumnae attended the special event and Lea Sunderland Davis, ΔP - Mississippi, was chairman.

Kappas from 40 chapters live in the retirement communities of Sun City and Sun City West, AZ. Sixty-one are 50-year Kappas! The Sun City Alumnae Association presented eight pins this year to (front) Annette Ray Bickel, ΔE - Rollins; Portia Pittinger Risler, M - Butler; Betty Methais Soderstrom, BA - Illinois; (back) Eleanor Dawson Cottingham, also ΔE; Virginia Stevenson Robbins, ΔZ - Colorado College; Gerry Fitzgerald Giesecke, ΓZ - Arizona; Jerry Eckis Bjorkback, also ΔE; Irene Clark Holway, BT - Syracuse.

Southern Orange County (CA) Alumnae Association gave two 50-year pins to members. Marion Waller Dittenhafer, ΓH - Washington State received her pin from 50-year member Virginia Forest Henry, ΔH - Utah, and Tina Morison Bibby was pinned by Barbara Knepper Johnson, both ΓΞ - U.C.L.A.

Special Friendships

Jean de La Fontaine, a 17th century French poet, said, "Friendship is the shadow of the evening, which strengthens with the setting sun of life." The sunshine and shadows are increasingly warmed and strengthened for all Kappas by the friendship of our 50 and 75-year members.

Tulare-Kings Alumnae Club (CA) gave 50-year pins to Charlotte Beachler Brooks, ΓE - Pittsburgh, (actually a 60-year Kappa); Hazle James Ketcharsid, ΓA - Kansas State; and Ruth Miller Grout, Ω - Kansas.

Actives of ZB - Lafayette joined with the Lehigh Valley (PA) Alumnae Club for Founders' Day and the presentation of 50-year pins and also welcomed special guests Barbara Cranston Granat, ΔΓ - Michigan State, Beta Province director of alumnae, and Gay Chuba Barry, ΔA - Penn State, Fraternity vice president. Pictured in the front row are 50-year Kappas Margaret Raymond Shuttleworth, ΓA - Middlebury, Clare Feldman Fish and Catherine Serfas Terry, both ΔB - Duke, Kit Cannon Fox, I - DePauw. Back row: Barbara Granat, Gay Barry, Sally Jo Harris, ZB president and Nancy Curran Laidlaw, BA - Illinois, alumnae president.

A special note of nostalgia came from realizing that Catherine and Clare were childhood friends and were roommates and pledge sisters at Duke.

Gail Natoli Sajkoski, ΓΨ - Maryland, president of the New York Alumnae Association, gave 50-year pins to Virginia Stelle, ΔE - Rollins and Alice Koller, ΨΔ - Cornell.

Names in the News . . .

Marcia Urton Martyn, FZ - Arizona, has an enviable record as an ultradistance runner. After a teaching career in six states (while husband Dave pursued a medical career), Marcia earned an MS from Pepperdine University in special education and learning disabilities. Along with pursuing her work with mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed children and young adults, she has also pursued a favorite pastime . . . distance running.

Marcia ran her first mile on a dirt track on her 40th birthday. Since then she has run the Boston Marathon twice and the Pike's Peak Marathon three times, and has completed 23 marathons in all. Her first 50-mile race in 1981 established a course record and placed her seventh in the United States for women over forty.

Six weeks later the 50-miler ran her best time at the Fiesta Bowl Marathon in Phoenix, placing her in the top 10% of all women in the race. Last summer Marcia became one of 39 women ever to successfully complete the prestigious Western States Endurance Run. At the same time, she broke the U.S. 100-mile record for women age 43.

Just eight weeks later, Marcia made her third trip to Colorado Springs, CO, for the Pike's Peak Marathon. Along with the Sunday round trip race of 28.2 miles, she also ran the ascent-only 14.3 miles race on Saturday. An article in the October 18, 1982 issue of Sports Illustrated cited Marcia as the only woman ever to manage this feat.

Another eight weeks passed and Marcia finished 191st. of more than 4,000 women in the New York City marathon. Her current goal is to compete in the October 1983 Hawaii Ironman Triathlon. Her past record says she'll do just fine!

Elizabeth Robinson Schwartz, Y - Northwestern, was the first woman to represent the United States in Olympic Games. At age 16 she was a gold medalist in the 100-yard dash at the 1929 games. A high school student, she won the only gold medal for the U.S. team that year. Betty had not thought of entering track and field events, but an assistant track coach, who happened to see her run to catch her train for home, encouraged her to try. After weeks of extensive training, she broke the world's record in the Olympic trials for the 100-meter race. After winning her gold medal, she continued to break and hold many women's world records.

In 1931, Betty was involved in a single-engine airplane crash and doctors predicted she would never walk again. With extensive therapy and determination, she proved them wrong and in 1935 was able to compete again in a 200-meter race.

In the 1936 Olympics she made the relay team and won her second gold medal for the U.S.

Three years later, Betty married and devoted her time to raising three children. One of them, Janie Schwartz Hamilton, ΔΠ - Tulsa, suggested that this item about her mother appear in The Key. Dividing her time between Lake Forest, IL and Naples, FL, Betty now plays golf instead of running. But as a member of the board of directors of the national chapter of Olympians, she continues her interest in the games and supports them with fund-raising appearances and enthusiastic talks.

Betty is shown crossing the finish line in Amsterdam in 1928 . . . a gold medal winner at age 16. The insert photo was taken in 1977 when women were taken in as Northwestern N Club members. NU's director of women's athletics Joanne Fortuna-to adjusts Betty's new jacket.

Betty Perry Reynolds, ΔΓ - Michigan State, is known as the "Mayor of Third Street." This is a restored area of Geneva, IL, a unique town with many unusual shops located in old homes, some historical.

A home economics major at Michigan State, Betty joined two partners in opening an original art shop called Craft Odyssey in Wayzata, MN, in 1972. Upon moving to Illinois five years later, she thought her days of shop ownership were over. But after discovering the charm of Geneva, she joined two new partners in opening Clay 'n Caboodle, a shop which offers original art works by local artists and craftsmen and others from coast to coast. Opened only 5 months after their arrival in Illinois, Betty credits encouragement from husband Al, national sales manager with U.S. Suburban Press, Inc., with giving her the support to tackle this project.

As "Mayor of Third Street," Betty is president of the Third Street Merchants' Association, a group comprised of the owners/operators of 40 shops. They sponsor four major promotions annually — Third Street Is Blooming (spring), Swedish Days (June), Festival of the Vine (September) and their famous Christmas Walk the first Friday in December. (Coincidentally, Betty's former home was at Christmas Lake, Excelsior, MN.)

Betty feels "it is very satisfying to build a successful business to know and work closely with so many talented artists who express themselves through their particular art form." Along with being a successful business woman, she also enjoys being a wife and the mother of three grown children.

Harriet Taylor Allen, I - DePauw, said, "It was the most marvelous experience we have had in our whole lives." after her son, Joseph P. Allen IV (better known as Joe) returned from his first trip into space. Joe Allen, also a graduate of DePauw, joined the NASA space program fifteen years ago as a physicist, learning to fly only after he became an astronaut. He is familiar to viewers of previous space trips as the voice of Apollo 15 and Space Shuttle 1 for his witty responses to the men aboard these flights.

Lisabeth Bartlett, Y - Northwestern, is a continually rising star in theatrical bright lights. After a successful run on Broadway (and good reviews) in The Dresser, she played Ophelia to Christopher Walken's Hamlet at the American Shakespeare Theatre in Stanford, CT, last summer. Despite mixed reviews for the production as a whole, Lisabeth's Ophelia was well received. Now she is making her film debut as Papagena (the Magic Flute) in the movie version of Amadeus. Author Peter Shaffer also wrote Equus and director Milos Forman has Hair, Ragtime and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest among his credits.

Lisabeth is currently filming on location in Czechoslovakia and Italy, making it necessary to turn down three plays to do the movie. However, she did find time during the past year to return to Northwestern to lecture to acting students. Her success to date should provide a lift and a goal for those about to enter the field.

Both Harriet and her husband J.P. ("Perk") Allen, III, retired professor, were at Cape Kennedy to see their son blast off on STS Columbia at 7:19 a.m. February 12, and were also at Edwards Air Force Base to see the triumphant return 14 days later. In the meantime, Joe had traveled 2 million miles and circled the earth 82 times at an approximate speed of 18,000 mph.

Joe came back to Indiana about a month after the flight to visit DePauw, his old home town of Crawfordsville, and to address the state legislature, charming everyone with his relaxed, modest manner.

Harriet, a longtime resident of Greencastle, was actively involved with Iota Chapter prior to a recent move to a retirement home in Frankfort. She was a member of the house board for many years, served on the advisory board and in 1975 was chairman of the very successful chapter centennial celebration. The happy family group pictured shows Bonnie Jo, Joe's wife; parents J.P. and Harriet; and Joe, astronaut Dr. Joseph P. Allen, IV.

Tawne Newcomb, BΔ - Michigan, after completing a five-month training program which ended with an intensive three-week seminar, was named a Syntex professional medical representative. In this position, she will provide health care professionals in the Ann Arbor, MI area with medical background and usage information on Syntex pharmaceutical products. Prior to joining Syntex, Tawne was a clinical microbiology technician at the University of Michigan Hospital.

JoEllen Stevens Burgwin, BA - Illinois, writes scripts for puppet shows for the Institute of Texas Cultures. A graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, JoEllen suffered a severe attack of polio in 1949. After two weeks in the iron lung and six months at what is now Texas Rehabilitation Center, JoEllen emerged as a quadriplegic. Confined to a wheelchair, she nevertheless considers herself lucky, since she does have the use of her hands.

When she was asked to help with script writing for the institute's ongoing puppet shows, JoEllen put her dramatic training to work in helping the interpreters to create the aura of a particular life and time. The scripts relate bits of Texas history, culture, foods, etc. and more than 62,000 "children of all ages" have enjoyed the magic world created by JoEllen's imagination to provide an enjoyable learning experience.

George-Ann Stokes, ΔI - Louisiana State, was named Louisiana delegate to the National Displaced Homemakers' Conference. As statewide administrator of the Louisiana Network for Displaced Homemakers' Services for the Department of Education, George-Ann is responsible for planning, implementing and directly supervising the seven regional centers located throughout the state.

She was also honored as Woman of the Year by the Hammond-Tangipahoa District Business and Professional Women's Club for her distinguished civic services to Tangipahoa Parish and her outstanding participation in the Hammond BPW Club, of which she is president. Also an active member of the Spirit of '76 Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, George-Ann recently received from them the "Parker Bowl" for meritorious service.

Having received her graduate degree in guidance and psychology from Southeastern Louisiana University - Hammond, George-Ann became Director of the High School Relations and Orientation Program there. This busy Kappa also works on a part-time basis as an independent consultant in public relations, marketing and other career-oriented areas. She has served as an adviser to Delta Iota and continues to pursue her interests in cooking and in theater.

Sidney Johnson Pauly, X - Minnesota, was elected by an 80% margin to the Minnesota State House of Representatives from her home area of Eden Prairie and Edina. Among her new duties, Sidney was appointed to the Tax Committee, a rare honor for a freshman representative. Prior to her recent victory, Sidney was twice elected to the City Council of Eden Prairie.

With a long list of accomplishments, both political and personal, Sidney likes to tell of her family. One daughter, Diana, is a sophomore at the University of Minnesota Law School. Two daughters are Kappas — Maureen, ΔZ - Colorado College, is a student at Tulane Medical School and Kirsten, also ΔZ, is a senior in geology at Colorado College. Son, Roger is a student at the Blake Schools, Minneapolis.

Sidney commented that "One of the joys of campaigning was running into my sorority sisters. After so many years, it was really fun to catch up. I didn't exactly campaign as a Kappa, but word got around."

Ruth Ann Rogers Montgomery, ΓΦ - SMU, Dallas civic and cultural leader, has been named a Distinguished Alumnae of Southern Methodist University. She attended Wellesley College and received both a B.A. and an M.A. degree from SMU.

Currently serving on the City of Dallas Planning and Zoning Commission, Ruth Ann is past president of the Dallas Women's Club, and is a member of the Junior League, Dallas Art Association, Symphony Orchestra Association Development Board and the Historic Landmark Preservation Committee. She has received honors for her service that include the Dallas County Heritage Society Founders Cup 1978, the Dallas Alumnae Association Distinguished Alumna Award in 1980 and the Texas Historical Commission's Best Chairman in the State Award in 1981.

Ena Moelter (or Pat Olliges and Ena Moelter)

Patricia Howard Olliges, ΓΒ - New Mexico and Ena Watt Moelter, ΒΣ - Adelphi, have the Las Vegas golf scene all tied up.

Pat was honored by the University of New Mexico Men's Golf Team as Woman of the Year. She was the first woman to receive the award and was honored at a Pro-Am and dinner in conjunction with the William H. Tucker Intercollegiate Invitational Tournament. Cited for her support of the N.M. Golf Program, Pat is the only woman in the N.M. Top 100 Booster Club and the only woman on the N.M. team from 1957-60. She also arranges all transportation for two golf teams — U.N.M. and U. of Nevada - Las Vegas — and appreciates the help of husband Ed, owner of a Ford dealership, for the support he and others in the auto industry have given to her and the teams.

Ena met Pat at an alumnae gathering and encouraged her to play golf again. Ena is president of the Sahara Country Club Women's Golf Association and Pat is president of the Las Vegas Country Club group. Ena has also been president of the women's group in Westchester County, NY and course champion in both places.

Pat and Ena worked together on the Ladies P.G.A. Tour Event held at the Desert Inn in April and are now hard at work together on six planning committees for the Million Dollar Pro-Celebrity Tournament to be held (and televised) in September 1983 in Las Vegas. It will provide the largest purse ever for PGA golfers, as well as benefitting charitable organizations. Watch for these busy ladies . . . you may see them in operation as part of the scoring committee.

Helen Levis, Barbara Quilling, Sally Fetherston

Barbara Gerlinger Quilling, ΔΛ - Miami, was named 1982 Milwaukee Panhellenic Woman of the Year. Given annually for outstanding contributions to the community, the award emphasizes the promotion of Panhellenic ideals. Barbara is the youngest woman ever to receive this award, but it came as no surprise to her friends.

Rush chairman and president of Eta Chapter, Barbara later served as treasurer and president of the Milwaukee Alumnae Association. During her time in office, alumnae membership grew significantly, as did alumnae support of the chapter. The alumnae group were runners up for the McNaboe Award for the most improved association at the 1982 national convention.

Kappa heritage is strong in Barbara's family: she is the 19th of 23 Kappas in the family, all but four of them Eta initiates. Her grandmother, Helen Parkinson Levis, Η - Wisconsin, is the family's Kappa historian. "Parkie's" sister, Kathryn Parkinson, at age 92, is the oldest participating alumna in the Madison (WI) Alumnae Association and Barbara's sister, Sally Gerlinger Fetherston, is also an active member of the Milwaukee group. Kappa heritage plus loyalty equals strength. Pictured are "Parkie", Barbara and Sally.

Committee lunch break — Joyce Miller Pauer, ΒΚ - Idaho; Ann Catto Francis, ΓΦ - S.M.U.; Rebecca Rhue Dooley, Ι - DePauw; Pam Hudson Krewson, ΓΩ - Denison; chairman Mary Ingwersen Shrake, ΔΒ - Duke; Beverly Frizell Blackwell, Ω - Kansas.

In the area of promotion, personal contact was found to be essential. Finding the artists, creating interest, getting them to submit works and also attend the event needed the personal touch.

Overall, INTEREST in the project is a must. Each committee member brings her own enthusiasm to the event. Experience is helpful but "we all have to start somewhere," so the real priority is individual interest.

Creativity, cooperation, community involvement and "crunch" . . . being there to help when it really counts . . . the Kappas of the Scottsdale Alumnae Association know how to put it all together for a successful affair.

UNIQUELY DRAKE

ET SIS:

A History of the Fraternities and Sororities of Drake University

by: Sheree L. Clark and Lynden Lyman

From outrageous episodes to the rigors of survival, ETSIS traces Fraternity and Sorority life at Drake from its uncertain inception in the 1890's, through the perilous years of wars and depression, into the struggle of the 60's to arrive at the challenges of the 80's.

This unique treasury of Greek life at Drake is a product of over two years of dedicated research through fraternity and university archives; exhaustive reviews of student newspapers, chapter scrapbooks, annuals, histories and magazines; in addition to contacts with over 1500 Drake alumni.

Your chapter history and those of all the others will rekindle fond memories of your years at Drake. There is a bit of you in ETSIS, a distinctive hardbound volume of approximately 250 pages containing over 100 illustrations dating back to the turn of the century.

As a Greek alumni, ETSIS is uniquely you.

ET SIS; Drake's first sorority, founded contrary to University regulations; the inspiration of all that followed; the inspiration of this work.

Growing Expectations . . . of ourselves and of our Fraternity

Province Meetings Council Message

What a pleasure it is to bring you a collective welcome from your Fraternity Council. Province Meetings, a biennial opportunity to meet regionally, have been a Kappa tradition since the early days. This Spring, right on schedule, from Montreal to Tallahassee, and Charlottesville to Santa Barbara, Kappas met to elect officers, discuss the business of the Province, and learn together through workshops and programs.

Growing Expectations was the theme of this year's Province Meetings. There are indeed growing expectations in every facet of our lives . . . of the role women will assume in the future . . . of the Fraternity which seeks to play an important part in that future, and of each individual who as a member of Kappa brings unique qualities to make a difference in that world.

The world we live in seems to ask more of each of us today and in turn we are asking more of those things we choose to do. Each Kappa certainly brought her own expectations to Province Meeting. She planned to see old friends and to make new ones. She hoped to better learn her job and to become more familiar with the organization she has chosen. She had questions to be answered and sought solutions to problems.

But also each Kappa made a commitment just to be there that weekend. In terms of time, money, and school or job responsibilities, she made the decision to come to Province Meeting because it was worth the commitment made. She expected value received, time well spent, and a quality experience to add to that growing collection of Kappa memories.

At this time over 50% of the students enrolled in undergraduate programs on our campuses are women. A U.S. Department of Labor report states that the more education a woman has the greater the likelihood she will seek paid employment. And of women with four or more years of college, two out of three are now in the labor force.

As students we are expected to handle the stress involved in this educational process which prepares us to move into stiff competition for available jobs. We are expected to work as necessary to provide funds for the rising costs of our education while maintaining a high GPA, contributing to our campus, and enjoying college as the most wonderful time of our lives!

Today women take their place in a world that expects them to do all the things they have traditionally done in roles as wives, mothers, and homemakers while embarking upon a working life which extends indefinitely. We are challenged to prevent war, control the forces destroying the environment, survive a sluggish economy, and defy statistics in a world whose technological advances are poised to advance, or destroy, civilization as we know it.

Kappa moves with its members into this future. We have a proud past and a dynamic present. During this biennium we have gained an initiated membership of over 120,000 members with 10,000 undergraduates and approximately 3500 pledges each year. We are proud of the fiscal management we have maintained in a time of rising costs as we move into a computer age to help chapters and house boards build in those processes which insure that all know what funds are needed and that those funds are available. We have established a tangible link with our past in the development of the beautiful Heritage Museum. CHOICES, Kappa's career program, is reaching out to both undergraduates and alumnae to provide job information and networking help over the country. Active alumnae organizations, outstanding leadership at all levels of Kappa's volunteer program, the addition of quality new chapters, and the broadening of the base of support through the Loyalty Fund have been goals of your Council, goals now met.

During province meetings many elements of Kappa's future were discussed. In the report of the Reference Study Committee there was the chance to think together about the future of Kappa's membership policies which have worked so well for so long to maintain our quality membership. Delegates shared with Council the tough financial realities within which we work and gave us your thoughts as to the options available to maintain the quality of our organization. Through programs and workshops, you shared ideas and developed skills to make chapter and alumnae life more efficient, effective, and inspirational to our members.

The Fraternity and each one of its members will meet these growing expectations not alone but together. Through the shared work of the Fraternity we will become better equipped to make a real difference. Kappa is a believing organization. We believe in you, our members, and in the power and potential you will bring to the world you live in.

Growing Expectations . . . of ourselves and of our Fraternity . . . an apt theme for today and tomorrow.

David, Sue, Norman, and Nancy Hadsell.

Blue skies and tailwinds!

By Carol Cheney Williamson
ΓΨ - Maryland
Feature Editor

You might call this Kappa a "Blue-and blue Angel!" Pamela Mitchell ΔE - Rollins College, was the first woman test pilot for the Cessna Aircraft Company. She is a professional pilot and now national spokeswoman for the company's new flight training program.

Pam has logged almost 3,000 hours as a pilot, including about 400 hours in jets. She has her own pink and blue Cessna airplane which she pilots throughout the entire United States promoting general aviation on television, radio and in print.

The highlight of Pam's life was flying in Blue Angel #7, one of the jets in the Navy's precision flying team, "The Blue Angels." She was treated to the ride just before the team performed at the Grand Junction, Colorado, Air Show last year. If given the chance, Pam would love to be a "lady astronaut." She is a second lieutenant in the Air National Guard and participated in the Air Force flight training program.

She told The Key, "I am really excited about the prospect of being able to share some of my feelings about flying with fellow Kappas. Sometimes when you love something as much as I love flying, it is hard to step back and describe some of those feelings to others who have never experienced it."

"Flying for me, besides being a profession and a mode of transportation, is a constant challenge; not in the sense of constant pressure, but rather a feeling of always striving for a flight just a little better than the last one, a view just a bit more breathtaking than the last, or a flight to a destination that you've never been to before. It is really a whole series of new experiences, even to seasoned pilots."

Pam first became interested in flying when her father bought a small airplane, but she hadn't planned on a career in aviation! A native of Brush, Colorado, she received the Brush High School scholarship to study art at Rollins College. Later she transferred to Colorado State University where she graduated in 1975 with a degree in graphic design.

Pam's job hunting as a commercial artist led her to apply at United Airlines in Denver. They told her there were no job openings in the art department, but suggested she go down the hall and apply for a flight attendant's position. She did, and became a United Airlines "stewardess" for more than four years.

During this time, she took her pilot's training at Shomberg Airport in Chicago. Learning to fly generally takes about a year, but the average student usually completes all the requirements within four months. The "Cessna Flight Plan" Learn-to-Fly Program, for which Pam is national spokeswoman, incorporates audio visuals with a Manual of Flight to reinforce the learning.

Writing answers to questions in the Private Pilot Workbook tests this knowledge needed to pass the FAA written examination which students must pass to be licensed.

Cessna's Flight Plan features a guaranteed price of $2990 for the training required to qualify for a private pilot's license at any of the company's participating Cessna Pilot Centers in the United States.

Naturally, the fun part is the actual flying lessons, which lead to being able to pilot a plane "solo." Pam explains, "Anyone who can't remember every single minute of his solo flight is not a true pilot. I've been told by many people that that day rivals a wedding day in memories and importance to a pilot. I was on top of the world after my first solo. What a feeling of accomplishment, confidence, and 'take-on-the-world' excitement! My instructor surprised me. I didn't have any idea I was to solo that day, and when he told me to land and taxi to the base, I thought he was cutting my lesson short for some reason! I started to get out and he turned to me and said, 'No, fasten that seatbelt — this time you're on your own!' He told me to take it around three times (or three touch-and-go landings) and by the sixth, he finally had to come stand beside the runway and motion for me to stop — NOW! I just couldn't get enough of flying!"

Once Pam became a licensed pilot, she founded her own aircraft ferry company titled "Deliverance, Inc." This entailed flying newly-constructed airplanes from the factory to their new owners all over the world. Pam would frequently deliver American-made private airplanes to Europe. A typical delivery to Austria would take 51 hours of flying, which entailed "pit stops" in Greenland and Iceland.

Pam told The Key, "I flew single-engine aircraft across the Atlantic Ocean many times. I felt a little like Amelia Earhart must have felt, sitting in those little airplanes all alone in the middle of all that water!"

On one of these trans-oceanic flights, Pam was flying within sight of a huge commercial airliner and struck up a radio conversation with its pilot. After some usual pilot lingo and bantering back and forth, the male voice on the other end boomed over, "What's a nice girl like you doing in a place like this?"

Today in her present position, Pam may spend 28 days at a time flying around the country. Typically, she would fly to an airshow based at a major city. Her public relations work would be making herself available for questions from the general public, and also the local media.

"Being National Spokeswoman for Cessna's Flight Training Program has been fun and rewarding simply in meeting people who have always wanted to fly. Some of the media people I give first flights to have never wanted to learn to fly, and are terrified. But usually after they get over the initial apprehension, they really get a kick out of flying over landmarks and over their homes. I let them make the take-off, which is how we let everyone start, if they like. That thrill, when the wheels leave the ground, and you're at the controls, is one they'll never forget. I have had several media people start flying lessons after their intro flight!"

"The road to becoming a professional pilot is, for a woman, a challenging one. Although I have encountered no discrimination in my various positions in aviation, I have had some very amusing incidents and a lot of good-natured teasing. I was Cessna's first woman test pilot, involved in testing multi-engine aircraft, turbo-props, and jet aircraft, and the first and only woman in my present position."

Pam thinks that it is not dangerous to fly, and she has never had an accident. There are 100,000 new pilots in the skies each year, and 300,000 general aviation planes available. Of the 14,500 airports in the United States, only 400 of them are served by commercial airplanes.

In the air, there are 65 different levels of space assigned for flight paths. Pam's airplane flies at an altitude of 10,000 to 12,500 feet, while commercial airliners fly at much higher levels.

Pam is enthusiastic about encouraging others to learn to fly, as "it changed my life more than anything I've ever done."

There are six basic dials common to every airplane: airspeed indicator (speed); attitude indicator (for keeping wings level); altimeter (how high the altitude); vertical speed indicator (rate of climb); directional gyro (compass); and turn-and-bank indicator (rate of turn).

Relates Pam, "I had a letter the other day from a Kappa in Ohio who wanted badly to learn to fly. She had 'friends' and a husband who kept convincing her that she was 'too dumb' to learn to fly, or 'not coordinated enough.' I wrote back to her and assured her that if I could learn to fly, anyone could!! She did give it a try and is now about to reach that exciting experience of first solo. Learning to fly gave her the confidence her friends and husband took away from her, and the sense of adventure and of being in control of the airplane helped assert her control over her life as well! It has been really rewarding to correspond with this Kappa."

Pam has kept up with many Kappas from her pledge class and her chapter at Rollins. One Kappa in the class ahead of her's is professional golfer Hollis Stacy. Pam is the only Kappa in her family. She became a sister just because she liked all the Kappas during rush. Pam's brother is also a pilot—for the Air Force. Lieutenant Tom Mitchell is stationed in Lubbock, Texas.

Pam is a member of the international women's pilot organization, the "Ninety-Nines" (named for the number of members at the first meeting started by Amelia Earhart). Their greeting is to wish you "blue skies and tailwinds" wherever you go. Pam explains, "I have always thought that kind of appropriate, and I've always felt that the sun always shines when you can fly. I never get bored with the beauty of climbing through a grey, drizzling overcast, and breaking out into bright, blinding sunlight and blue, blue skies."

"Flying will always hold a little sense of mystery to everyone. I am ever thankful that I have had a chance to experience and enjoy some of the beautiful mysteries of flight. I hope that I have shared as much of this as possible with my Kappa sisters."

Pam Mitchell would like to hear from all Kappas. If you would like information on flying, call her at Cessna's toll-free number: 1-800-835-3345. Ask for her office.

Blue skies and tailwinds!

Careers Add Up in Atlanta

by Patricia Stead Sullivan, GB - New Mexico

41 plus 15 equals 56 . . . but it also equals the formula for a highly successful career program in Atlanta. Fifteen professional women with widely diverse careers gladly shared their years of experience in the working world with undergraduates, recent graduates and alumnae interested in re-entering the working world.

Theresa Maiuri Dean, ΔI - Louisiana State, and Lizann Gribben Gibson, M - Butler, organized the event. It was structured as a workshop, providing mini-seminars for productive question-answer exchanges on a variety of topics: Dress for Success, Interviewing Techniques, Résumé Writing, Re-entering the Job Market, Communications and Portfolio.

The Saturday afternoon exchange began with signing in, donning name tags, filling out Kappa's "CHOICES" questionnaires and friendly socializing. Fifteen actives attended from ΔY - Georgia, two from EM - Clemson and seven from EE - Emory.

Wicke Oliver Chambers, ΔY - Georgia, recipient of a 1982 Alumnae Achievement Award and a television programming and publishing executive, was the keynote speaker. She captivated her audience with straightforward descriptions of experiences as an employee and as an employer. She touched on aspects of job hunting, interviewing, and networking. Other career alumnae joined in with more advice and suggestions based on personal experience.

They encouraged the group to be versatile when looking for the first job; to continue with education while on the job; to continue interviewing for other jobs; to be open to new opportunities; to be positive and enthusiastic; to be helpful to employers and to others in need of contacts; and to be informed on related professional events.

The career alumnae who contributed to the exchange included Carol Carrano Adams, ΔM - Connecticut, advertising executive for Women's Wear Daily; Mary Larson, EE - Emory, producer for Turner Broadcasting System; Theresa Maiuri Dean, ΔI - Louisiana State, art director and free-lance graphic artist; Linda Robinson, ΓΩ - Denison, financial planner; Mary Lynn Lowery, EM - Clemson, real estate development executive; Julie Little, ΓΠ - Alabama, sales manager for Rich's Department Store; Mary Jourdan DeWalt, GB - New Mexico, graphic artist; Deborah Morris Haselschwerdt, BZ - Iowa, sales and marketing executive; Judith Montgomery Becker, EE - Emory, attorney and estate planner with Powell, Goldstein, Frazer and Murphy; Patricia Stead Sullivan, GB - New Mexico, free-lance writer; Judy Clark Nichols, ΔΨ - Texas Tech, secondary education administrator; Karen Papy Horne, ΔY - Georgia, interior designer and hostess for the program; and Wicke Oliver Chambers, ΔY - Georgia, television and publishing executive.

Wicke Chambers (center) offers career advice to actives Mary Fletcher, Gretchen Henderson and Jill Pope. All are ΔY - Georgia.

Enthusiasm for the career exchange resulted in plans for a directory of Kappa alumnae listing careers and areas of expertise. One important means to a new job, Kappas learned was to get a name of someone involved in a career which interests them. Then contact can be made to learn more about the career and gain help in pursuing it. The directory will help Kappas in the Atlanta area to contact alumnae who can help them.

The program was organized so that the "audience" could visit first one mini-seminar and then another. Large signs indicated what topic was to be presented in each room. Small groups of six to eight moved from room to room.

The one criticism of the event, felt by those who presented the seminars, was that they were kept too busy to hear what other professionals had to say about their careers. The next exchange will allow time for each career Kappa to tell everyone (other professionals included) what they do, how they do it, and what helped them along the way.

In preparation for the event, Theresa Dean made posters for the chapter houses and contacted the chapters weeks in advance. Each chapter was asked for a general count of those attending. Actives arrived in car pools and the two Clemson actives drove a long distance . . . but were glad they did. All the actives took information on job hunting, interviewing and résumé writing back to their chapters to share with their sisters.

The afternoon was considered a resounding success by all who attended and enthusiasm for another career exchange in the fall is widespread. Indications are that attendance will be larger, subjects more varied and more professions will be presented.

15 professional Kappas plus 41 Kappas eager to learn . . . a formula for a successful career program in Atlanta that may multiply upon itself. But more than that . . . the Kappa formula has always been Kappa plus Kappa equals sharing.

Choices

Dear CHOICES CLIPPINGS Readers,
I have set "local networking" as a major goal for this year. I have asked each alumnae group to enter a career line, if applicable, beneath the name and address of each member. Those with past career experience are just as valuable as those presently working. Thus, each city could have its own local network in action! How exciting for a Kappa graduating or relocating to a new city to be able to consult the alumnae directory and establish her own network!

The directory could also be used to great advantage by chapters in the vicinity who are in need of career information or advice. As you may remember, the CHOICES program was begun with the idea of alumnae assisting actives with career counseling. The active chapters could "let their fingers do the walking."

There is enormous potential in the CHOICES network program! Our members have so much career knowledge and experience to share, and according to the growing number of letters I receive from graduating seniors and alumnae returning to work, there is a great desire for someone to impart this wisdom and expertise!

We have approximately 8,000 Kappas currently in our network file and are adding more daily, however, considering our membership of over 100,000 "we have only just begun" as the song says. How fortunate we are to have so many bright, innovative, wise women with whom to consult! What a powerful network we can become!

I realize that there are many alumnae associations already engaged in local networking, but I have direct knowledge of only a handful at present. The following groups have directories containing career information which are presently on file with CHOICES:

CHOICES CLIPPINGS

Arlington Heights, IL
Denver, CO
Jacksonville, FL and environs
Kansas City, MO
New York City
Northern Virginia
Palo Alto, CA
Phoenix, Scottsdale, Tempe, and Mesa, AZ

Southern New Jersey
Tucson, AZ
Washington, DC-Suburban Maryland

In addition, Delta Sigma Chapter at Oklahoma State University has printed a membership directory with names, addresses, and careers of all initiates and affiliates to its chapter from 1947 to the present.

Other alumnae groups are actively involved with chapters and career programs — more on this later!
Looking forward to hearing from you.
