Women Supporting Women

Kappas sustain the concept of mutual helpfulness

By LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN, Adelphi

Camaraderie, easy give and take, sharing notes, hectic schedules, struggling through tough subjects together, and some laughs along the way. This is the picture of a coed college classroom today.

But it was not always so. When women first enrolled in college in the mid-1800s, they were scorned and shunned by their peers and professors alike. Women were judged physically unfit for the strain of advanced intellectual training. Attitudes toward women who sought higher education ranged from antipathy through resentment and ridicule to outright hostility.

And so it was that women felt the need to organize into groups of their own to gain acceptance and validity as college participants, blazing trails for those who would follow. Among them were the Founders of Kappa Kappa Gamma. The memory of these women pioneers in education is the basis for our beautiful Heritage Museum, reminding us of how we inherited our philanthropic legacy.

Women supporting women... monthly notes of cheer organized among friends to appear daily during a course of chemotherapy; a home-cooked dinner, ready for warming, delivered to happy but tired new parents; caring for a child when a parent is ill or staying with a hospitalized sibling; rides to a shopping center or Kappa meetings for an elderly friend or sister...there is no list long enough to encompass the many ways Kappas help each other. Much of this help is organized and formalized through the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation where gifts from Kappas help Kappas.

Educational programming provides information on personal safety (KeepSafe), relationship abuse (Insight on Domestic Violence), and self-esteem (SEEK).

Leadership development progresses from chapter opportunities through alumnae associations, Kappa Kinetics and Fraternity offices. There is no greater process of support than that of the opportunity and training for personal growth.

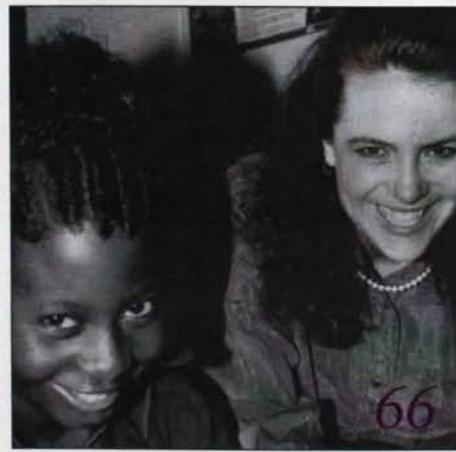

Down-sizing, stock failure, divorce settlement, medical conditions, natural disaster...these are among the circumstances where Foundation financial aid has seen many a Kappa through a short- or long-term financial crisis. And the love that comes with the check is as much a part of the recovery process as the money itself. From bake and garage sales to glittering fashion shows and beautiful house tours, Kappas find innovative ways to raise the huge amounts donated to local and national charities. They work countless hundreds of hours to help the homeless, abused children, battered wives and others who depend on Kappas for what they give of themselves.

When a Kappa looks back fondly on her collegiate days and supports the Loyalty Fund, when another is financially successful and wants to endow a scholarship, when a third leaves a lasting legacy by remembering the Foundation in her will, all are supporting other women and helping other Kappas toward better lives.

It has been said that a gift of food nourishes the recipient for one day but teaching how to grow food nourishes for a lifetime. With gifts of funds and training, Kappa helps troubled sisters in times of need. With support, in whatever form it may take, we sustain each other daily and for a lifetime in a spirit of mutual helpfulness.

Realizing Our Dreams

Foundation Mission Statement

"The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation develops financial resources to support the Fraternity's educational and charitable programs which assist our members to achieve individual excellence and contribute to the universal community."

This is the time of year when we pause to take stock of the many facets of our lives. Have we accomplished all of the goals we set for ourselves, or will we defer them to the next year — with additions? What are our plans and dreams for the future?

Somewhere a Kappa may need the help of her sisters — financial assistance in completing her education, monetary assistance when there is no other means of support, instructional assistance in maintaining her personal safety or recognizing a destructive relationship, personal assistance for growth and achievement. We have goals of supporting these Kappas — dreams of women supporting women. I believe that the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation contributes to the realization of these goals, plans, and dreams.

Why should every Kappa support the Foundation? Several reasons leap to my mind. First, our generous contributions help members complete their education or pursue a graduate degree — goals which many of us have achieved and cherish. Our Circle Key grants enable alumnae to further their educations in order to enhance their career opportunities. Our Chapter Consultant scholarships not only give an outstanding recent graduate the opportunity to pursue an advanced degree, but also gives an active chapter a multitude of hands-on benefits. Often the potential of a chapter is reached after one year with a chapter consultant.

All Kappas take pride in our care and concern for each other expressed through the Rose McGill Confidential Aid fund. When we read the inspiring stories of survival and love through this extraordinary philanthropy, we know that this is sister helping sister in the truest sense.

The development of our educational programs, made possible by funds from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, provides our members with life-skills and a heightened awareness of current instructional techniques and topics.

You have all read and know of SALLY MOORE NITSCHKE, Ohio State, Fraternity President 1980-1984, and her strong belief in the value of well-written educational programs. This year we are directing our energies to the creation of an endowment to make it possible for the Fraternity to hire a Director of Education. This new position at Headquarters will oversee our existing programs, develop new ones, and work with the volunteers who present the programs that provide permanent, positive impact in the lives of Kappas everywhere — all funded through the generous desire of Kappas to help Kappas help others and their communities.

Won't you join me today in realizing our dreams and goals for our Fraternity by making a gift to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation?

Cathy

Power of One

It takes strength to grow — from a tiny rhizome to a lovely iris, from a closet full of memorabilia to an authentic, Victorian-era museum, from six women interested in mutual support of their academic pursuits to 140,000 women with the same interests. And strength is always drawn from a strong foundation.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation represents the past and the future of the Fraternity. Rooted in Kappa's ideals, incorporating long-established programs of financial aid and educational programming and funding, the Foundation continues to further its Mission Statement by promoting and supporting individual excellence. Not only present growth, but also future "buds and blossoms" are kept in mind as funds are sought and invested to ensure that an organization which has grown for 126 years continues to flourish into the next century.

Looking at the 1994-96 biennium, we can be proud of a number of accomplishments:

- 132 Rose McGill grants of confidential aid, emergency assistance, and Circle Key Alumna Grants
- 143 scholarships and fellowships
- Heritage Museum acquisitions and funding for the internship program
- Financial support of Kappa Kinetics on a regional basis to provide all members with the opportunity to attend our intergenerational leadership training

All this was made possible through your gifts. In this biennium we received a record-breaking total of $1,770,644 in contributions, including:

- 12,353 individual contributions totalling $713,965
- 273 alumnae associations contributions totalling $105,269

- 43 chapter contributions totalling $25,057
- $924,933 from 11 bequests realized
- $1,420 in matched gifts.

In addition, we are most proud to have 144 charter members of The Omega Society, the Foundation's newest giving society, introduced this biennium to acknowledge and thank those generous members who have included the Foundation in their estate plans (see page 65).

In our everchanging society, we cannot stop here.

As computer programming must be revised to deal with the year 2000, so must Kappa thinking, planning, investing, and giving be revised and expanded to encompass the needs and dreams of the Fraternity in the coming years.

The strength of the Foundation lies in the broad support it receives. Large gifts from generous donors supply growth spurts, but more than 80 percent of the funds distributed come from the constant nurturing gifts of all sizes from the many individuals who believe in the values of Kappa Kappa Gamma and give to continue our strong tradition of women supporting women — giving ourselves and our resources to help others in our sisterhood and our communities.

With many thanks to those whose generous donations have constructed the strong foundation of Kappa Kappa Gamma, we look forward to continuing to build and grow through the continuing generosity of all who cherish our life-long bonds of friendship and mutual support.

Thank You Notes

Dear NPC Friends,

On behalf of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity, I would like to express our love and gratitude to a very special lady, MARJORIE MATSON CONVERSE, Purdue. How does one describe a human dynamo? In thinking about what to share with you, I am overwhelmed by the myriad of attributes that Marj possesses. First of all is her loyalty. Marj's loyalty to Kappa and the National Panhellenic Conference is evident in the 51 years she has served in one capacity or another.

Love comes next, and these characteristics are listed in no special order. Marj's love is demonstrated over and over as she works towards the ideals and goals in which she deeply believes. Her excellent work in the challenging area of College Panhellenics is proof of her dedication.

Flexibility and fairness are other words that describe Marj. She has often been heard to say, "All right, if that doesn't work, let's try it this way." She is always willing to listen to alternative solutions and has that unique skill of bringing out the best in the people with whom she works.

Honesty and credibility also come to mind. Just like the investment firm ad, "When Marj speaks, people listen," not because they have to but because they know they can trust Marj to be open and candid. She has earned this trust because she always has done her homework and can back up her position with facts.

And always, through the years, Marj has handled her responsibilities with humor and a genuine sense of fun. The number of friends she has made over her tenure in NPC is staggering. Who of us hasn't joined in laughter with Marj just from the sheer joy of hearing her musical laugh.

To commemorate her years of service, Kappa Kappa Gamma wishes to donate $5,000 in Marj's honor to the long range planning efforts of NPC in the area of College Panhellenics.

Fraternally, A. Cathy

Why I Give

By JOANN BARTON VAUGHAN, Virginia

It happens to everyone on a daily basis. You go to your mailbox and mixed in with the credit card applications and the bills are solicitations from nonprofit organizations.

Many of the requests are valid. Starving children, literacy, historic preservation are all worthy causes and need your help. Next to all those letters is an envelope from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation also seeking your assistance. So how do you choose what groups to give to? Why should you give to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation?

"I really think about who I give money to," says MELISSA WOMBLE, Texas, a real estate attorney in Dallas. "Both my parents taught me the importance of giving back to those institutions that shape who you are today. The two main groups I support are my high school and the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation."

"Kappa gave me friendships and the sense of being part of a group. The University of Texas is so huge! Kappa gave me a place to belong to and a feeling like I was part of a family."

Melissa began with a gift of $25 after she finished a graduate law degree and has consistently given to the Foundation ever since.

"I want to help someone else have the same educational opportunities, form similar relationships, and have the enriching experiences that I did."

The ability to help along another Kappa with educational opportunity is what compelled JANET LANG PADEN, Georgia, to support the Foundation. Her donations have

U.S. Giving Statistics - 1995

- $145.85 billion dollars were donated to charitable causes last year.
- Individuals contributed 87.6% of all charitable dollars, donating $126.1 billion.
- 44.1% of all contributions, $63.45 billion, were made to religious groups. Educational institutions were second, receiving 12.5% or $17.9 billion.
- Total giving comprised 2% of the Gross Domestic Product.

Janet Paden, Georgia, and her husband, Carter, have been steady contributors to Foundation funding for nearly 20 years.

selves, but for many others as well. I want to support them in any way I can."

Potential leaders must be willing to take risks, be interested in their field of endeavor, and be outstanding contributors to the general society, according to Janet. She believes that Kappa Kappa Gamma attracts the calibre of young women able to make a difference in the future.

"I feel so blessed in my life," she adds, "that I want to pass on my good fortune. Kappa Kappa Gamma has meant so much to me. I want to help in any way I can, and I plan to continue giving."

Continuous giving of both time and money has been a generous way of life for both KAY MOESSNER JEFFRIES, Denison, and BARBARA CRANSTON GRANAT, Michigan State. Both have given their time and talents as volunteers and every year for almost 20 years have donated to the Foundation.

To Kay, it is the closeness of her friendships and the feelings of sisterhood that have kept her involved with both the Fraternity and the Foundation. Once the "oldest living house board member," she says she has retired from Kappa life after serving for many years on the Gamma Omega Chapter house board at her alma mater, as Treasurer and President of the COLUMBUS (OHIO) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION, and for eight years as a staff member at Headquarters.

"Kappa has meant a great deal to me. My closest friends are my pledge sisters," she adds. "I've been so fortunate. I'd like to see someone else enjoy the sisterhood and experience the love of good friends. I see so much potential in these young women and I am so interested in what they are doing. They seem so much smarter and they are striving for so much more than I ever did. It is wonderful to help someone striving for the best."

A former Rose McGill Assistance Chairman, Barbara is moved not only to help other Kappas but also to "give and continue to give back to the Fraternity because I have gotten so much!"

She cherishes the friendships she made as Beta Province Director of Alumnae and the sisterhood she feels in the PHILADELPHIA ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION, but says grown from a $15 gift in 1980 to $10,000 given this year.

"Many of the dollars raised by the Loyalty Fund go to help Kappas with their education. I feel a real strong bond to these young women," Janet says. "These young Kappas are our future leaders. They are assuming responsibility not just for themselves,

How Do You Eat an Elephant? ...one bite at a time

For many chapters, the idea of raising $10,000 to fund a Project 2000 account might seem daunting, but BETA ZETA, Iowa, accepted the challenge — one step at a time.

Started in 1991, Project 2000 is a program of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation that encourages chapters to endow their own scholarships by raising $10,000 by the year 2000.

JANE CARTER JONES, Oregon State, long-time Chapter Council Adviser to the group and current Regional Director of Chapters for Region 4, bought into the program immediately and sold it to the chapter. For the past five years the chapter members just kept "dropping (money) in the bucket," she notes.

Beginning with a contribution of $177 in May 1991, the chapter has continued to make small, steady gifts towards their goal. Sometimes the donation was as small as $35 and it has never been more than $2,000. To date the chapter has accumulated a little more than $12,000.

The chapter came up with small but easy ways to raise money including an annual Parents Weekend silent auction, putting a coupon in the chapter newsletter sent to alumnae members, and taking old clothes to a resale shop and donating the proceeds. One chapter member is chosen to coordinate Project 2000 activities.

Because both the chapter and the advisers viewed Project 2000 as an important goal, Jane thinks the group was able to sustain interest in the project over the past five years.

Remember the tortoise and the hare? Sometimes slow and steady does win the race.

that "being Rose McGill chairman is the best job in the Fraternity."

During her seven years as chairman, Barbara became aware of the great need of many Kappas. She Kay Jeffries, Denison, provides volunteer time to the Fraternity and monetary support to the Foundation.

Barbara Granat, Michigan State, is compelled to donate to the Rose McGill
Fund.

tells of a request from a Kappa who was homeless and living in her car, of other requests from women who needed assistance to improve their education and return to work.

"These women I worked with had such dignity. Anyone of us could find ourselves in a situation like this."

The time and dedication of women like Barbara and Kay keep the Fraternity moving ahead and their annual donations add up to make a difference to the Foundation and the hundreds of Kappas helped annually through Foundation assistance.

So when the letter comes with the Foundation logo on the return address, you might pause and think back to your college years. According to Melissa Womble, hers were the best. Or you might think ahead to the future, looking for the leaders of tomorrow like Janet Paden. You might, having just helped a Kappa friend through a rough time, wonder what those Kappas do who have no one on whom to lean and provide assistance for Rose McGill Confidential Aid, as Barbara Granat does. Or maybe the warmth and love of Kappa has never left you, as it has never left Kay Jeffries.

Whatever the reason, when the letter comes you might open it, consider the source, and add your donation to the almost $1 million raised annually to help members of Kappa Kappa Gamma. 0

How Do You Spell Success? D-A-L-L-A-S

It is not surprising that one of the most successful associations at fundraising is also the largest association donor to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, the DALLAS ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION.

Successful local fundraising events such as the Dallas Home Tour held in alternate years and Tablescapes, now in its second year, net the association approximately $85,000 yearly, according to MARDI WOCHOS MYERS, SMU, President of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Dallas.

The group's hard work has funded generous donations to their community as well as provided $188,400 to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

"When you can be there helping each other, that's what Kappa is all about," Mardi says.

Dallas' most recent gift was $15,000 to endow a Circle Key Alumna Grant for Continuing Education, designed to help a part-time student seeking additional education to reenter the workforce or advance in her career. The endowment is a tribute to GEORGINA SPIELMAN ROBERTSON, Kansas, a long-time Dallas Alumnae Association board member who was always involved in supporting the Rose McGill Fund.

BELLE DRYE SCHAFER, SMU, former President of the association, "developed this idea and carried it to fruition," according to current Association President ANN ADDYMAN LAWRENCE, SMU. The association had recently endowed a scholarship and had a "small but significant amount to help another Kappa." Belle suggested the endowment in honor of Georgiana and the Kappa philanthropy closest to her heart.

With Tablescapes reaching another successful conclusion this fall, Mardi says the Dallas alumnae plan to continue balancing their giving between local charities and the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

Gift Giving — Today

There are many ways to make a donation today to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, including:

- Cash
- Gifts of property, i.e. stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and real estate
- Both kinds of donations may have a positive impact on your income taxes, depending on what sort of return you file. You should talk to your tax accountant or attorney for more advice.

...and Tomorrow

Deferred gifts are those you arrange for now that will be received by a charitable institution at a later date, normally after your death. Options include giving through:

- Your will by leaving either a specified amount, a percentage of the estate, or a portion of the remainder
- A living trust to provide the management and final distribution of assets
- A charitable remainder trust to provide an annual income for the donor.

Talking to the Animals

Allison, a former Traveling Consultant, has received a graduate fellowship from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation in 1994-95, 1995-96, and 1996-97. During her third year, she completed an internship at the Navajo Indian Reservation in Windowrock, Ariz., where she "treated anything that walked through the doors of the clinic." It was exciting that while on the reservation she could "relate to the importance of ritual and family though my experiences within my own chapter as when working...as a Traveling Consultant."

Dear Foundation Scholarship Committee,

Have you seen the TV drama Chicago Hope? I can picture the teams of emergency room doctors decked in their surgical garb, exuding professionalism and inspiring awe as they work against the clock.

Now...sit back and try to imagine College Station Hope. A team of three semi-professional veterinary students, decked out in their borrowed surgical gowns and armed with their rented surgical instruments, diligently performing humane surgery. Sweat drips from their brows and the tension is thick as we embark on the surgical world of veterinary medicine and try as a team to complete successful surgery on our patients...rabbits! Oh well, maybe it's not as exciting as our TV counterparts, but we have to start somewhere.

During my training I have helped to cure a 400-pound tiger of severe renal disease, remove a kidney from a labrador retriever, and reposition a displaced stomach in a 1,100-pound steer. Now, let me enlighten you on some of the everyday activities of a fourth year veterinary student to give you a taste of who and what you are supporting through the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

The day begins before the day really begins!

I arise before the sun to attend to my patients. First I visit Mr. T, the Sifter, a three-year-old red brangus bull that weighs in at more than 2,000 pounds. Due to his complacent and affectionate attitude I am able to enter the stall with Mr. T, change his bandages, treat his healing wounds, brush his thick coat, and scratch behind his ears. This is not normally allowed behavior from a one ton bull! Next I'm off to milk Lily the goat in order to bottle feed her two new kids and walk Beau, an obese pot-bellied pig. Then I'm off to clinical rounds with the other students.

I hope you have a feel for what you are supporting with your generous donations. The scholarship aids in taking some of the financial constraints off me so my efforts can be directed where they should be to the benefit and welfare of the animals. Thank you for selecting me to receive a Kappa Kappa Gamma Graduate Fellowship.

Loyally,

ALLISON MERRILL, Texas A&M

Allison rescued her new roommate and former patient, Butch, from the animal shelter.

FOUNDATION Fashions

By SUZANNE GEPSON, Colorado College
Catherine Scroeder Graf Heritage Museum Intern,
Summer 1996

The Catherine Scroeder Graf Heritage Museum internship is named for the first Director of the Heritage Museum, CATHERINE SCROEDER GRAF, Ohio State, and is endowed through the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. The internship is currently awarded every other year to a Kappa interested in historical preservation, museum presentation, and research.

Suzanne prepares for her final presentation as the Heritage Museum intern.

Her face shone as she stood proudly beside her bright yellow chiffon dress. Camera shutters snapped and young Kappas felt lucky to pose with the past President and her gown at the Heritage Museum exhibit at the 61st Biennial Convention. It was easy to see which dress was the favorite of LOU LITTLE BARBECK, SMU, Fraternity President from 1968-1972 (see Fall Key, 1996, p. 22).

Others had a harder time deciding which dress they'd like to wear, if given the choice. Some of the younger women fell in love with the "hip" chocolate brown silk evening dress of 1920-1922 President SARAH HARRIS ROWE, Northwestern, from 1920. The sleeveless, full-skirted dress could easily slip into this year's fall fashion line with its rich color and unadorned style.

Many were awestruck by the elegance of a black dress worn by the Fraternity's first Grand President TADE HARTSUFF KUHNS, Butler, circa 1886, which stood at the front of the circle of Presidents' dresses. Diane Mallstrom, Curator of the Heritage Museum, loved the red crepe dress of 1948-1952 President HELENA FLINN GREGG EGE, Pittsburgh, with the wrap-around fringed scarf, circa 1924. Imagine wrapping a fringed scarf around your body three times before playfully tossing it over your left shoulder and dancing the night away.

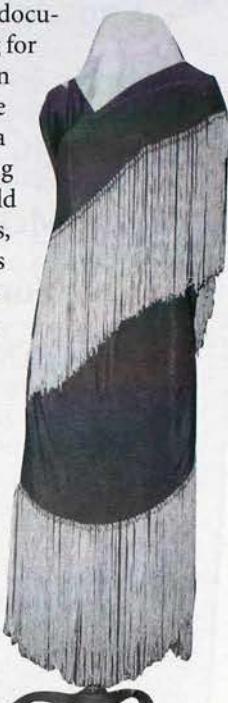

I couldn't take my eyes off of the tiny-waisted, white evening gown of 1944-1948 President RUTH KADEL SEACREST, Nebraska, with its embroidered pearls, bugle beads and rhinestones, circa 1944. Others shared my amazement at a dress so unique and beautiful with its swirling beaded patterns and perfect neckline.

Twelve of the most colorful, historical, and stunning Presidents' dresses from the Heritage Museum costume collection were displayed at Convention in Florida. As Kappas of all ages waited in line for breakfast and lunch, they couldn't help but notice the black, yellow, aqua, orange, blue, white, and red dresses in the Museum exhibit. They were certainly a hit. It is important to remember that in all of their bright color and grandeur, each holds a place in the broader history of our Fraternity.

You may not know that the Heritage Museum has quite a complete costume collection. Established as "a philanthropic and educational outreach of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation," the Heritage Museum not only focuses its attention on the Victorian house at 530 East Town Street, Columbus, Ohio, but also on women's history and the history of women's education. The costume collection is a priceless tool for giving our visitors an example of what life was like for women during the Victorian era when the Fraternity was founded — as well as a glimpse at the history of women and their roles in society since the 1870s. Closets at Fraternity and Foundation Headquarters store women's apparel from the 1870s through the 1990s. There are wedding gowns, World War II women's service organizations uniforms, gowns worn at Conventions, nightgowns, fancy overcoats, Jackie O. style suits, and psychedelic patterned minidresses. Most of the clothes have been worn or donated by Kappas through the years. There are also 12 little lockers filled with hats from the mid-1800s through the 1970s. One from the '60s has big black sequins and what looks like a wild strawberry patch on top! There are boxes of gloves and boxes of shoes, too. The late 19th and early 20th century shoes are so pointy and narrow, it's hard to imagine even a little girl's feet fitting into them now! Wouldn't the ladies then have loved to don a pair of C-width, air-cushioned, turbo-jump, cross-trainers like the ones we wear today?

Until recently, people displayed the dresses, hats, and gloves in the Museum's costume collection in various style shows. Now, in order to preserve the fragile threads, buttons, beads, stitches, and fabrics, only mannequins and white-gloved hands are allowed to touch the garments. As part of my job as the 1996 Catherine Schroeder Graf Summer Intern, I took a careful look at the collection and made sure proper care was given to the garments. First priority was the Presidents' dresses. Each dress was folded with acid-free tissue paper between each fold and placed in an acid-free flat box. Acid-free, dry, cool environments are important for the preservation of all documents and materials. It doesn't take long for the highly acidic newspaper clippings in our scrapbooks to yellow, so just imagine what acidic paper and boxes can do to a one hundred year-old ivory wedding dress. Dampness and heat can cause mold to grow which further decays documents, objects, and clothing. These elements must be controlled as much as possible within a collection's financial, physical, and practical boundaries. Thankfully, our collection is not so huge that most of these factors cannot be controlled.

At this time all of the past Presidents' dresses and the most fragile 19th century dresses are safely boxed and stored in a climate-controlled closet. All other garments are hung on cloth-padded hangers. After visiting several other institutions as part of a workshop week this summer, I know the Foundation is doing its best to properly preserve these important collections.

My final project for the Heritage Museum was to develop a small theme exhibit. Choosing to research Victorian etiquette of the dinner table, I displayed a gorgeous burgundy silk, satin, brocade dress from 1889 in the Grand Parlor, and placed ladies' gloves and hats on the newly acquired étagère in the hallway. These items from the costume collection really gave the exhibit historic validity and a touch of class.

Please come visit the Heritage Museum of Kappa Kappa Gamma and ask to see one of the treasures in the costume collection. 0

Got Some Unusual Togs?

The Heritage Museum is not currently seeking acquisitions for its costume collection; however unusual clothing items from the 19th Century or items of particular significance to the history of the Fraternity may be of interest.

Speaking of Love

Kappas support
Kappas in need through the
Rose McGill
Fund.

By LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN, Adelphi

In the language of flowers, roses speak of love. How fitting that the Fraternity's "sentimental favorite" aid fund is named for a member who epitomized the love of each Kappa for a sister in need.

Gifts to the Rose McGill Fund of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation and income raised through magazine sales provide financial aid for Kappas who are unable to support themselves.

The Rose McGill Fund originated at the 1922 Convention when members of BETA Psi, Toronto, appealed to those attending for financial aid for their sister, ROSE MCGILL, a victim of tuberculosis. The resulting $600 helped defray hospital expenses and provided a few comforts for Rose until her death a few years later.

Like a rose bush which grows and produces more blossoms each year, the fund named for Rose McGill has grown and spread to aid a wide range of needs for Kappas of all ages. Sometimes it is a short-term emergency, sometimes an on-going need — whatever the difficult or tragic circumstance, Kappas can turn to their sisters for help. Although Rose McGill aid is completely confidential, some of the recipients' stories follow, with names changed to maintain confidentiality.

"The Rose McGill Fund Helped Me in So Many Ways"

"LOUISE" is 27, single, and suffering from a debilitating spinal cord injury incurred just before college graduation. As a quadriplegic, with limited use of her arms and hands, she faces tremendous financial burdens. Because she wishes to be independent, her insurance does not cover home health care and medication imposes additional high monthly costs. Louise is extremely grateful for the help that Rose McGill offers. The monthly assistance helps her to maintain her lifestyle and her positive outlook on life.

To Apply for Rose McGill Assistance and Circle Key Grants

Any Kappa in need of financial aid may be referred by her alumnae association, a Kappa friend, or she may request aid on her own behalf.

Letters requesting an application for assistance should be addressed to Rose McGill Chairman or Circle Key Grant Chairman, c/o Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity and Foundation Headquarters, P.O. Box 38, Columbus, Ohio 43216, 614/228-6515, fax 614/228-7809, E-mail 73442.1175@compuserve.com.

"PATTY" has been a member of our Rose McGill family since the fall of 1992. Having lost her job due to corporate reorganization, Patty also had to have surgery which was not covered by insurance. She uses her monthly assistance to subsidize her rent while adjusting to a new full-time professional position and dealing with bills that have piled up over the past few years. Patty intends to get back on her feet and maintains a healthy, positive attitude toward life. She is very grateful to the Rose McGill Fund, doesn't know how she could have managed without it, foresees a successful future and plans to remember the fund through a bequest in her will.

"DORIS" has been a member of the Rose McGill family since 1993. Never married, she is 71 and suffered a stroke in 1984 which forced her to retire from her secretarial career. Expenses continue to rise and her Social Security increases do not keep pace. Friends have been generous, but Doris has had to sell household items to help make ends meet. She desperately needs the aid received from the Rose McGill fund and says that without it she could not make it. She is continually grateful for the assistance she receives from Kappa.

May the Circle Be Unbroken

Many times an alumna may find herself needing to pursue another career. Needing funds to continue educational or vocational training, she may apply for a Circle Key Continuing Education Grant, with the hope that after her circumstances are improved the recipient will later contribute to the Foundation to help another Kappa in an unbroken circle of continual aid. Collegiate members who face a sudden financial emergency may apply for Undergraduate Emergency Grants.

A desire to expand their help to sisters in need created the Holiday Sharing program. Alumnae associations and collegiate chapters "adopt" a Kappa member and her family and send greetings and gifts for special occasions.

VALERIE NELSON RENNER, Indiana, Rose McGill Assistance Chairman for the past biennium, says, "Without exception, the Rose McGill family members are so grateful for the assistance provided by their Kappa sisters. For some, the confidential aid is the only income upon which they can count. The thank you notes I receive monthly are so touching and heartfelt. Rose McGill confidential aid truly is a life link to our Kappa sisters in need." O—

Rose McGill funds brought Michelle Bielski, Washington, much-needed comfort during her final weeks.

Dear Kappas,

On June 18th your organization lost a remarkable 26-year-old alumna, MICHELLE BIELSKI, Washington. I had the privilege of working with Michelle through her struggle with cancer. As I look back on the ongoing challenges she faced, I realize that Kappa Kappa Gamma's outreach to Michelle during this period of discomfort and uncertainty helped make it possible for her to meet each day with encouragement.

Support through the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation came in many forms. Almost overnight the Rose McGill Confidential Aid Committee sponsored Michelle through the Kappa-In-Need program, providing financial assistance that enabled Michelle to remain in Seattle where she could receive the best medical attention and be helped by her friends. The aid helped assure Michelle that no obligations would go unmet, allowing her to focus her energies on more pressing issues.

The warm cards and thoughtful gifts that Michelle received as part of the Kappa-In-Need program proved to be of great moral support during especially difficult times. Although Michelle understood that no one could fight the battle for her, she was never in doubt that her sisters stood behind her.

I can never find the words to describe the monumental difference this program made for Michelle. Please realize that your support had a far-reaching impact and touched her life in many subtle ways.

Sincerely,

Matt Nicholson

ELECTRIFYING EXPERIENCES

Kappa Kinetics helps Kappas make connections

Kappa Kinetics, the Fraternity's new regional leadership program funded by a grant from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, continues to receive rave reviews. Kappa Kinetics is designed for any Kappa to come and learn more about herself and her leadership style through group activities, participating with both collegians and alumnae.

Any and all Kappas are invited to attend. The program is useful for all — you do not have to be the chapter or association President to come and learn with Kappas of all ages, and the exercises translate to the work you do in your everyday life, as MELISSA MURER, Drake, reports.

Kappa Kinetics will be presented as part of eight province meetings this spring (see page 6). For more information, please contact Fraternity Headquarters, 614/228-6515.

Puzzling programs teach teamwork.

Participants of a Kappa Kinetics Leadership Seminar test their team skills in group projects.

Dear Kappas,

I want to share my thoughts on the Kappa Kinetics workshop I attended this past weekend. The programming was first rate. I have attended numerous leadership seminars in the past, and Kappa Kinetics was one of the best. The content was very practical and well organized.

I came away with many new ideas to implement both personally and professionally. I am conducting a staff retreat and plan to use several of the teambuilding exercises that I learned.

Until this weekend, I did not feel that I would be able to have "Kappa Konnections" as I do with my college sisters. At Kappa Kinetics, I made new friends and look forward to future interaction. I also enjoyed spending time with the other participants from Northern Virginia.

I especially appreciated the opportunity to interact with Kappas of all ages from new collegians to 30 years plus. What a great blending of experience. The two lead facilitators, COLLEEN BLOUGH, Iowa State, and CRYSTAL STRAUBE STUMP, Monmouth, made sure everyone participated.

The support of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation is critical to the success of the program and I encourage its support.

Loyally,

MELISSA MURER, Drake

OUR FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS AS IT IS THE GIFTS FROM INDIVIDUALS THAT MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE!

Individuals, through gifts and bequests combined, have historically contributed between 87 and 90 percent of every charitable dollar. Last year the American Association of Fund Raising Council reported that the nation's charitable institutions received a record-breaking $143.9 billion in charitable contributions. Individual giving amounted to 87.6% ($126.1 billion) of that total! Foundation and corporation gifts combined totaled only $17.8 billion of all giving in the USA.

Sources of Foundation Income 1995-96

* $276,526 reflects interest and dividend income. The Foundation also realized a gain of $667,560 on the value of its stock portfolio

"During my training I have helped to cure a 400-pound tiger of severe renal disease, remove a kidney from a labrador retriever, and reposition a displaced stomach in a 1,100-pound steer. Now let me enliven you on some of the everyday activities of a fourth-year veterinary student to give you a taste of who and what you are supporting through the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation." THE KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA FOUNDATION OF CANADA

Established in 1991, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada provides graduate scholarships to benefit Canadian women attending a college or university in Canada, the United States or the United Kingdom. To date a total of $16,000 has been awarded to four outstanding young women.

The 1996 scholarship recipient is Marcia Finlayson, a second-year doctoral student at the University of Manitoba in the department of Community Health Sciences. Her particular interest is in the field of health and aging.

Kappas living in Canada are encouraged to support this important program, assisting young Canadian women to achieve their educational goals. Our deep appreciation is expressed to all the donors listed below for their thoughtful contributions over the past biennium.

All contributions for our 1996-97 campaign will be acknowledged and receipted. Please mail to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation of Canada, 615 Mt. Pleasant Road, Suite 142, Toronto, Ontario M4S 3C5.

Dear Kappa...

Jennifer Haughey

The Chapter Consultant program provides chapters with on-site leadership. A graduate Kappa placed in a chapter house, can advise and assist a new chapter, just getting started, or lend her expertise to ongoing programs at an established chapter.

In the last biennium, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation funded 14 chapter consultant positions. Chapter Consultants are currently working with BETA TAU, Syracuse, BETA CHI, Kentucky, DELTA TAU, Southern California, DELTA UPSILON, Georgia, ZETA PSI, Wake Forest, and ETA BETA, Pepperdine.

The graduate Kappa is granted up to $6,000 to help pay for graduate study while living and working with the chapter. Qualifications include high personal standards, good communication skills, knowledge of the Fraternity, loyalty, flexibility, and sensitivity. Past chapter consultants include Fraternity Executive Director DALE BRUBECK, William & Mary, who assisted new chapters at EPSILON MU, Clemson, and EPSILON SIGMA, Virginia.

The following letter from recent chapter consultant JENNIFER HAUGHEY, Utah, outlines what she learned and is now able to utilize in the classroom with her high school students as a teacher of U.S. history and government.

For more information on the Chapter Consultant program, contact Chairman of Field Representatives MARTHA HAY STREIBIG, Indiana, c/o Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity Headquarters, P.O. Box 38, Columbus, OH 43216.

Skills learned as a Chapter Consultant helped Jennifer while student teaching at James A. Shanks High School in Quincy, Fla.

Dear Kappas,

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you from my heart. I do owe Kappa Kappa Gamma a great deal, and I plan to give back by serving as an active alumnae and making contributions to the Foundation whenever it is financially possible.

Before I go into my experiences as a Chapter Consultant, I'll tell you a little bit about my Kappa family. I guess you could say that I am Kappa "K"onnected. My grandmother is a Kappa; my mother is the current President of the SALT LAKE CITY ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION, my aunt is finance adviser to DELTA ETA CHAPTER, Utah; and my sister is a senior and a Kappa at the University of Utah. What makes this story even more special for me is that each and every one of us pledged and was initiated at the Delta Eta Chapter at the University of Utah.

I knew after meeting ALLISON MARKER, Washington State, the Traveling Consultant who visited Delta Eta during my freshman year, that I wanted to be a Chapter Consultant. She told me all about the program and its benefits and I decided then that when I was a senior I would apply.

I was so surprised when I received a call from the Chairman of Field Representatives (at the time it was ANN STAFFORD TRUESDELL, Ohio Wesleyan) letting me know they had a match for me. I honestly did not think I would be chosen, so you can imagine how thrilled I was. There was absolutely no hesitation on my part when I accepted the position at EPSILON ZETA CHAPTER at Florida State University. I was fortunate enough to attend a school with a highly-ranked graduate program in education and to go to a place I had never lived. Who could possibly ask for more?

During my two years as a Chapter Consultant (1993 – 95) I formed close ties with the chapter and made many new friends. I also learned skills I didn't know I possessed. More important, these skills enabled me to survive my first year teaching. For example:

Time Management and Organization – When it came to planning effective lessons, coordinating the school's history fair and African-American history assembly, and organizing the junior/senior prom, I found it was essential to be able to organize my time and materials.

Budgeting – I needed this budget knowledge to order supplies for an entire year, to help execute the prom without creating debt, and to choose new textbooks that the school could afford.

Presentation Skills. – As a teacher, I had to present material every day. Each class had its own personality and I had to deliver the lesson differently in order to maximize my students' learning. I also made numerous presentations to the social studies department and the administration.

Conflict Resolution Skills – Unfortunately, this is a necessary skill for teachers. My experiences as a chapter consultant helped to minimize problems both inside and outside of my classroom.

Leadership Training – This skill came in handy when working with the junior class officers. Many of them had little experience as leaders and I worked with the other sponsors to foster the students' growth and to create confident leaders. I also used this skill in the classroom as leadership is essential when working in cooperative learning groups or on a project.

These are only a few of the skills I learned at Epsilon Zeta Chapter and then used as a teacher. Although these are the skills I gained, the most satisfying part of my years as a Chapter Consultant was watching the chapter grow, flourish, and improve. Those young women are vivacious, motivated, and impressive and I will always remember them fondly.

Now that I have returned to Utah, I plan on serving as an adviser when my sister graduates. Until then I will be involved with the alumnae association and will help the chapter with Rush and Initiation. I owe Kappa Kappa Gamma a great deal and I plan to give back as an active alumna, contributing to the Foundation whenever possible to fund a similar opportunity for another Kappa chapter.

Loyally,

 JENNIFER HAUGHEY, Utah

Challenge to Excellence Results 1995-96

Seven chapters succeeded in the Fraternity's Challenge to Excellence, completing 100 percent of the Challenge checklist. Maintaining a scholastic average at least equal to the campus All-Sorority Average each term, displaying fiscal responsibility, maintaining Fraternity standards, submitting all reports and fees on time, following the ritual, pledging quota, and maintaining chapter total are a few of the criteria chapters are asked to achieve.

In addition, four chapters met 94 percent of the criteria, and 12 met 87 percent.

Congratulations to those chapters who accepted the Challenge to Excellence for 1995-96. All chapters are encouraged to accept the Challenge for 1996-97. Regional and Province Directors of Chapters are ready to assist each chapter in fulfilling the criteria of the Challenge to Excellence.

Behind-the-Scenes Olympians

On the Road Again

Recent graduate SARAH BLACKWELDER, Colorado College, traveled 27,000 miles in 90 days as one of the drivers of the official lead car for the 1996 Olympic Torch Relay. As a member of the pilot advance team, Sarah was the final person to check out the path that the torch carriers would follow. Her job was to ensure that changes in roads and traffic patterns were accounted for and that the path was clear and safe. Sarah was responsible for a portion of the route every four days. Her responsibilities took her through 42 states and countless cities. The torch route had been strategically designed to come within two hours of 90 percent of the U.S. population. When the Torch Relay made its way through Columbus, Ohio, Sarah visited KKG Fraternity Headquarters and the Heritage Museum.

A highlight for Sarah was when she unexpectedly got to carry the torch with her grandparents watching in Limon, Colo., where she had lived as a child.

Traveling across America and seeing first hand the pride, unity and excitement the Olympics brings, along with warm welcomes from diverse communities, were some of her favorite aspects. She describes it as a three-month pep rally. But Sarah's favorite experience by far was Opening Ceremonies where she felt an overwhelming sense of accomplishment and privilege after helping bring the torch from Los Angeles to Atlanta.

To the Rescue

CARRIE WOOD, Emory, served as an American Red Cross First Responder during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta. A senior international studies and history major, Carrie became a member of the Metropolitan Atlanta Chapter of the Red Cross First Responder program to help provide emergency temporary medical care at Olympic venues and other sites around the city. The First Responders were part of the overall Olympic Games medical services system.

Carrie completed a combination of 40 hours of classroom and hands-on instruction covering first aid and CPR to international humanitarian law and 40 hours of practical application at various events in Atlanta. Each member of the team was tested to ensure individual proficiency.

Carrie enjoyed interacting with Georgia's national and international guests and was glad to learn emergency medical care.

Proud Pen Pals

DELTA KAPPA, Miami, participates in a pen-pal program with students from an inner-city elementary school, where most of the children are from low-income, single-parent households. Chapter members co-sponsored an end-of-year school party with their pen pals.

Chapter Philanthropies

Chapters participate in numerous philanthropic projects, either through direct volunteer service or by raising money for a needy cause. Working together to help others builds a sense of unity and accomplishment within a chapter and helps each member experience the true meaning of sisterhood and concern for others.

Here is a selection of some of the varied and creative philanthropic activities that chapters support with their time and energy. Many chapters hold more than one philanthropic event during the year, but only one per chapter is listed due to space limitations.

Kappas Entertain Country Style

GAMMA BETA, New Mexico, hosted its first-ever Picker Jamboree full of home-cooked food and lively entertainment by the Kappa Pickers singing group. Guests enjoyed a barbecue dinner at the Gamma Beta chapter house, which had been decorated in a down-home country theme. Nearly $200 was raised through ticket sales and was donated to the All Faiths Receiving Home, a shelter for abused and neglected children.

BETA UPSILON, West Virginia, chapter members joined Beta Upsilon alumna and WVUs First Lady, Susan Hardesty, in decorating the Christmas tree in Elizabeth Moore Hall. Students and faculty were asked to bring inexpensive or handmade ornaments to put on the tree. The ornaments were then given to needy families

ZETA SIGMA, North Texas, focused its philanthropic events on improving the lives of children. Starting with a visit to the Children's Medical Center of Dallas, chapter members donated art supplies and helped children make Valentines and decorate cookies. The chapter, joined by its Advisory Board, participated in the "Celebrate the Children Fair" sponsored by the Denton Friends of the Family organization,

Association Action

THE SARASOTA/MANATEE (FLA.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION has added a new dimension to Kappa activities. The association's past presidents have formed a Gavel Club and begun an adopt-a-Kappa program, sharing sisterhood with an 80-year-old member, 14 women who are 65-year members, and nearly 80 Kappas with their 50-year pins. As some are housebound and haven't had the opportunity to keep up their alumnae activities, each Gavel Club member adopts an older sister, remembering birthdays and holidays, sending cards and notes, and touching base with a friendly telephone call. Twenty of the group's 30 past presidents have joined the Gavel Club and the membership keeps growing. As a symbol of their new responsibility and dedication they have added gavel guards to their still bright shiny keys.

Players of all levels are encouraged to participate in the CHICAGO NORTH SHORE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION's annual paddle tennis round robin winter event.

CHARLESTON (W.V.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION members included four collegians and one pledge in their annual holiday coffee gathering. Chapter members from out-of-state schools rekindled old friendships with alumnae and were surprised to see and share sisterhood with high school friends.

Forty women from the LONG ISLAND (N.Y.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION actively participate in a poinsettia pick up and holiday exchange of cookies and holiday decorations. Funds from this annual project enable the association's delegate to attend the general convention.

Kappas Named to Boards of Trustees

Illinois Wesleyan University has named alumna Fraternity President CATHY THOMPSON CARSWELL to its 38-member board of trustees.

AMELIA GRINER WILLIAMS, Georgia, is serving as a trustee for the Public Broadcasting System in Orlando, Fla. She has been active with the Brevard Symphony Orchestra, the Brevard Cultural Alliance and River Association for downtown redevelopment, and the Tourism Development Commission's cultural grants panel.

Community Leader

ADELE CORYELL HALL, Nebraska, has received the Mary Harriman Community Leadership Award, the highest honor the Association of Junior Leagues can award a member who continually works to improve her community. Living in Shawnee Mission, Kan., Adele has been a member of the Junior League for over 40 years, sharing her vision of a world in which children would be healthy and well-educated, families would have decent employment, and all members of society would participate as equals, regardless of status, race, gender, or religion. Adele is deeply concerned about the continuing gap between this vision and the status quo. Bridging this gap is her passion.

Hail to the Chief

MARCI SELLAND KIERSCHT, North Dakota State, is the second woman to serve as president of Stephens College, a private liberal arts college in Columbia, Mo., with a predominantly female enrollment.

Marcia earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from Iowa and received her Ph.D. in psychology from the George Peabody College of Vanderbilt University.

Prior to coming to Stephens, Marcia served as vice president of the Consortium of Universities of the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area, overseeing academic cooperation among 12-member institutions including The American University, Georgetown University, Howard University, Mount Vernon College, and Trinity College. She formerly taught and was on staff at Hood College in Frederick, Md., and Moorhead State University in Minnesota, and was a member of the faculty of pediatrics at the Vanderbilt Medical School.

Announcing a new long-range plan, Marcia believes that Stephens College should position itself to

So Happy Together

Twenty-five women became sisters at THETA CHAPTER, Missouri, in 1940. Seven members of that pledge class still live in Columbia, Mo., have fun together, and share Kappa sisterhood and traditions — after 56 years of growing up together.

Kappa Connections

The staff at The Cloister Hotel Left Bank Gallery at St. Simon's Island, Ga., is true blue and blue as the director of special art programs, the director of social activities, and a junior staff member are all Kappas.

Seventeen members of the 1937 OMEGA CHAPTER, Kansas, pledge class meet every month for lunch to celebrate almost 60 years together.

Fourteen members of BETA DELTA CHAPTER, Michigan, celebrated a 40 year reunion with sisters from adjoining pledge classes. The women have kept in touch with an annual newsletter for over 35 years.

Through the Keyhole... Letters to the Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: We are delighted to be receiving so many letters but regret that we are unable to print each one. Please keep writing to The Key and know that we appreciate your input. Letters are edited for clarity and length.

Know Your Past

What a wonderful Profile you did on FRANCES STEEN JOSEPHSON! It is so good to read how women, especially Kappas, served during World War II. I also read The Ultra Secret by F. W. Winterbottom who tells of Ultra's history, and he quotes Dwight D. Eisenhower's view that "Ultra was decisive."

If citizens do not know and heed past history, it truly is likely to happen again.

GERALDINE RASMUSSEN, Miami

Ovarian Cancer Risks

I am writing in response to your articles on infertility in the Spring 1996 issue. I didn't see that issue, probably because I was then returning from Boston where I spent six months receiving treatment for the fourth most common cancer killer of women — ovarian cancer.

What is of concern to me is whether your articles mentioned that never being pregnant, infertility, and use of fertility drugs such as Clomid and Pergonal are all among the risk factors for ovarian cancer.

My surgeon's response to my question of how I had missed the risk factors of ovarian cancer is now a family joke. He answered, "It was in the popular press, The Boston Globe, The New York Times, and The Lancet, the British medical journal!" Unfortunately, those were not my reading materials as a junior high school teacher in Fort Collins, Colo. What isn't a joke is that during the last year I have seen many magazines for women discussing the use of talcum powder, estrogen therapy, eating yogurt, choices for infertile couples and never seen a sentence stating that these are small, but still present, risks for ovarian cancer.

Since I began researching causes and treatments I have discovered five small risks for ovarian cancer: high cholesterol, estrogen therapy, probable use of talcum powder as a baby, daily consumption of nonfat yogurt for two years before my diagnosis, and the general population risk. Many small risks can add up and are adding up for many women. Ovarian cancer has risen 32 percent since 1989, according to Dr. Steven Piver, author of Gilda's Disease, a new book about comedienne Gilda Radner's death from this disease.

A simple inexpensive blood test, CA125, can be used to diagnose and monitor the disease. Among 13 women whose cases I am familiar with, not one had a doctor use the CA125 blood test in a timely, appropriate manner. Unfortunately, 10 years after Gilda Radner's struggle to get a correct diagnosis began, women are still having the same problem. Ovarian cancer is 90 percent curable if caught in the early stages, but this rarely happens because women do not know their risks or their symptoms.

Gilda Radner wasn't a Kappa, but there will be Kappa lives saved if women are alerted. Risk factors listed in Gilda's Disease include:

- high fat diet
- high lactose diet (yogurt, cottage cheese)
- never pregnant/infertility
- use of fertility-stimulating drugs
- use of talcum powder
- estrogen hormone replacement therapy (6 to 10 years)
- family history of breast cancer
- family history of ovarian cancer

Symptoms associated with ovarian cancer include:

- fever
- feeling tired
- pelvic pain
- bloated feeling
- abdominal discomfort
- feeling of intestinal gas
- backache.

Commit to Organ Donation

I enjoyed reading the article in the Summer issue regarding the need for bone marrow donors. We all need to be enlightened concerning this important issue. On the same note, I would like to bring to light the need for everyone to become organ donors. I know first hand how important and how life saving this is because I am on the list for a liver transplant. Without it, I'll die within the next year or so.

It is tragic when someone dies, but if the family is aware that that person wishes to be an organ donor, that family has given someone else the gift of life. Most people are not aware that they can sign their driver's license to be an organ donor. But it must be emphasized that your family must be made aware of your wishes because the immediate family must sign as well for the organ donation to become a reality.

If just one person does this then that person has helped others to live. All it takes is a signature on your drivers license. I hope you will all do this.

PAMELA THOMPSON CHAMBLEE, Oklahoma State

Editor's Note: This is not a new issue for The Key, as we focused on the need for organ donation in the Winter 1993 issue. As an organ donor designee, I encourage all Kappas to follow Pamela's advice and register as organ donors so that an accidental death is not a total loss.

Wear Your Badge!

The National Panhellenic Conference has declared March 3, 1997, as "Wear Your Badge Day."

All sorority women are encouraged to wear their badges on that day to signify their sorority membership and promote Panhellenic pride. So dig your key out from the back of the jewelry box and wear it to work, school, volunteer commitments, the gym, or grocery — wherever you may happen to be — to let everyone know of your membership in Kappa Kappa Gamma.
