— Our Leading Edge

Wanted: Innovative, responsible women, willing to relocate or travel, who like people and enjoy a varying daily routine.

Benefits: Will enhance self-assurance, leadership and organizational skills and will provide the "opportunity of a lifetime."

Inquire Within: Kappa Kappa Gamma Chapter and Traveling Consultant Positions. Contact listed at end.

This has got to be one of the most popular job descriptions that a graduating or graduated member of KKTΓ could find. Judging by the growing annual number of applications submitted for Kappa Career positions, these posts are rising in popularity and in value to the pre-professional KKG member.

The group selected for 1987-1988 is one that exemplifies the finest in Kappa. It is with great pleasure that we introduce the latest members of the Traveling and Chapter Consultant Teams:

Traveling Consultants

COLLEEN BLOUGH, ΔO-Iowa State, B.A. English/History

Chapter Service: Pledge Class President, Panhellenic Representative, Second Vice President and 1984 Convention Delegate

Colleen Blough

Student Activities: Basketball: All-Greek and Iowa University Women's Teams; Co-Director 1985 Musical Varieties Show; Greek Week Committee Chairman, Dean's List student

Serving a second year in this capacity, Colleen brings to this position the special insight of a seasoned traveler. Her ability to organize and to balance many responsibilities makes her especially valuable in her role as a Kappa traveler.

Ellen Marie Boyd

ELLEN MARIE BOYD, Δ<sup>A</sup>-Monmouth, B.A. Elementary Education/Learning, M.A. Special Education, U of Kansas

Chapter Responsibilities: Corresponding Secretary, Second Vice President and President

Campus Activities: Women's Residence Hall President, Asst. News Editor — campus paper, Capital Campaign and Admissions Film coordinator, Monmouth

This Illinois native has the ability to "juggle," as evidenced by her numerous chapter and campus responsibilities. Her many academic honors and awards also attest to this fact. Her flexibility and varied background make her an asset to our chapters.

LAURA ANNE DONNELLY, ΓΨ-Maryland, B.S. Finance

Chapter Responsibilities: Treasurer, Membership Chairman, Philanthropy Chairman, delegate to 1986 KKG Convention

Campus Activities: American Marketing Association, Financial Banking and Investment Society, Order of Omega — Leadership honorary

Laura Anne Donnelly

Laura hails from Gaithersburg, Maryland, where she pursues a variety of hobbies during vacation times — racquetball, white-water rafting, photography, and an interest in Spanish. Another of our Dean's List students, Laura will add a special dimension to our traveling team.

LISA LYNN MORRIS, ΓP-Allegheny, B.A. Communication Arts

Chapter Responsibilities: PR Committee, Senior Panhellenic Delegate, President

Campus Activities: Student Government and Judicial Board, Design Editor of COMPASS, campus resource book

Lisa used her communication skills well in her experiences as a residence hall counselor and in chapter and student government. National and international politics are two loves along with theatre and dance, reading, arts and crafts and physical endeavors — especially aerobics. Lisa has recently started piano lessons. She should keep all of our chapters in harmony with her balance of talents and skills.

Lisa Lynn Morris

Lila Anne Isbell

LILA ANNE ISBELL, BΦ-Montana, B.S. Business Administration/Marketing

Chapter Responsibilities: Scholarship Chairman, Panhellenic Delegate, Second Vice President, President

Campus Activities: Intramural Athletics, SPURS-Sophomore Service Organization, University Excellence Fund Volunteer

Lila enjoys downhill skiing, sewing, reading, softball and shopping. Her range of experiences and interests will make her a valued representative of the Fraternity.

MARTHA A. TIMMINS, BM-Colorado, B.A. Psychology

Chapter Responsibilities: Pledge Class Secretary, Personnel, Public Relations and Pledge Committees, Rush/Membership Chairman

Campus Activities: Colorado University Panhellenic Rush Coordinator, Organizer of Greek Rape Seminars and Drug and Alcohol Awareness Committees

Martha Timmins

Martha, a Colorado native, is a leader in timely programs for student awareness. This provides an insight for our chapters that face so many difficult legal and social awareness challenges at this time. Photography, needlework and tennis are other special interests that Martha pursues — when she finds a spare moment.

The Chapter Consultants

... A Kappa is awarded a scholarship for graduate study while living with a Kappa chapter on the campus to which she is assigned. She is to assist the chapter in all areas of chapter organization and programming techniques. To act as adviser, friend and link with the Fraternity at large. . .

A big order to fill? You bet. And there's more than is printed on this page. However, Kappas are good at filling tall orders, and these young women will do just that during the next academic year.

EMILY ROE COX, EP-Texas A&M to ZΔ-Washington and Jefferson

Education: B.S. in Community Health Education/Biology, Pursuing advanced degree in Pharmacy

Chapter Responsibilities: First Vice President, Nominating Committee Chairman, House Chairman, Kappa Pickers

Campus Activities: Opera and Performing Arts Society, Aggie Alliance Club

Texan Emily Cox returns for a second year as a Chapter Consultant to Washington and Jefferson. She attends classes at the University of Pittsburgh where she is president of her Pharmacy Class. The chapter and the Fraternity are pleased to have Emily as part of the Kappa Connection for another year.

CONNIE MARIE DELVECCHIO, ZK-Bowling Green to BΩ-Univ. of Oregon

Education: B.S. in Child/Family Community Services, Pursuing advanced degree in College Student Personnel

Chapter Responsibilities: Recording Secretary, Member of Scholarship and Personnel Committees, Charter Member of Chapter

Campus Activities: Panhellenic Executive Council, Rush Counselor, Orientation Leader

Connie, an Ohio native, is a Dean's List student and Kappa Scholarship recipient. She is also serving her second year as Chapter Consultant to Beta Omega. Her talents in communication and human relations bring a warm perspective to this Kappa job.

MARGARET FRELEN FRAZIER, BX-Kentucky, to ZII-Rhodes College

Education: B.A. in English

Chapter Responsibilities: Chairman of Public Relations and Fraternity Education Committees and Assistant Membership Committee Chairman. Member of the Personnel Committee and Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

Campus Activities: The English Undergraduate Advisory Committee

Maggie, who's home is Signal Mountain, Tennessee, enjoys tennis, reading, writing — and when the weather's right, water skiing. She comes with first hand experience to the job since she had the chance to work as a Chapter Consultant in the Spring of 1986 when then-new chapter Zeta Mu-Virginia Tech was established. Maggie also worked for Kappa at our Headquarters from June, 1985 until January, 1986. Her comprehension of new chapter operations will come in very handy as Maggie works with our fine members in Zeta Rho.

CAROLINE VELVET GATES, ZM-Virginia Tech to ZII-College of Idaho

Education: B.A. Political Science, Pursuing Advanced Degree in Political Science/Law

Chapter Responsibilities: President, Personnel Committee, Membership Chairman, member of Nominating Committee

Campus Activities: Order of Omega-Greek Honorary, University Honors Colloquium, Theatre Arts Department

Caroline is another Dean's List student and member of the Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Honorary. She plans to use her background in political science to perhaps pursue a law degree. Her sensitivity to government and legal matters will be an asset when working on this growing college campus.

BONNIE S. GRISWOLD, ΔΓ-Michigan State to ZM-Virginia Tech

Education: B.A. Advertising, Advanced Degree in Higher Education

Chapter Responsibilities: Personnel Committee and First Vice President

Campus Activities: Senior Class President, Michigan State-1984, Vice President of Michigan State Student Foundation, Coordinator of University's Parent's Weekend

Bonnie, an Ohio native, has varied job experiences in her background. She worked for Milwaukee Paper Products (Proctor & Gamble) following her year as a Kappa Traveling Consultant (1984-1985). This is her second year as a Chapter Consultant at Virginia Tech, where she stays avidly involved with her major, the chapter, and a few favorite outdoor sports.

DAWN DIANE MURRAY, ΓP-Allegheny to ZO-Richmond

Education: B.S. Psychology, Pursuing Ph.D. in Neuropsychology

Chapter Responsibilities: Pledge Class President, Pledge Chairman, Personnel and PR Committees

Campus Activities: Residence Hall Counselor/Adviser, Campus Panhellenic

Dawn, who trades the piney woods of Texas for the hills of Virginia, has been the recipient of many scholastic awards during college. With her diversified experience in the classroom and in extra activities, she will be an asset to our new chapter at Richmond.

ELIZABETH ANN PERRY, ZK-Bowling Green to EZ-Florida State

Education: B.A. Sociology/Psychology, pursuing advanced degree in College Student Personnel

Chapter Responsibilities: President,

Second Vice President, Philanthropy Chairman

Campus Activities: Rush Counselor, University Tour Guide, Campus Orientation Board

Beth grew up in Worthington, Ohio, not far from our own Kappa Headquarters. Perhaps this provided some subtle prompting to pursue a Kappa career upon graduation. Her strong academic background makes her an excellent representative of our Fraternity at Florida State.

SHERYL ANN PURVIS, ΔΠ-Tulsa to ZΞ-Yale

Education: B.A. Political Science, Pursuing J.D. in Law

Chapter Responsibilities: Fraternity Education Chairman, Second Vice President, President

Campus Activities: Yale Law Women and Street Law Women, Senior Staff of Mortar Board — Tulsa, University Research Assistant — Tulsa

Sheri begins her second year as a Chapter Consultant at Zeta Xi. As her credentials indicate, she possesses an impressive academic and volunteer background. Her dedication to the chapter and to her academics make her a most valued member of the Chapter Consultant team.

SUSAN MICHELLE RUCKMAN, EM-Clemson to ZN-UCSD

Education: B.S. Administrative Management, Graduate degree in Public Relations

Chapter Responsibilities: Second Vice President and First Vice President

Campus Activities: Campus Speaker's Bureau and Student Development Council, Blue Key National Honor Society, Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities

Susan also begins a second term as

Chapter Consultant. This Florida native seems to be at home in the California sunshine where she combines hard work and a passion for extracurricular activities to produce a very full and satisfying schedule.

So here they are — the 1987-1988 very competent members of the Kappa Connection who maintain the ties between our many undergraduate members and the Fraternity at large.

You may have noticed that many are athletes. All are good students working with dedication in their majors. Four are returning to their jobs, and the rest are new.

One strong thread they have in common is their command of leadership skills. This is perhaps what makes us all look to them and respect them for the organization they represent — our Fraternity.

Authors Pam Wallace and Beverly Price summed up these skills in their work, "The Leading Edge."

... Leadership's imperative is a "sense of rightness" — knowing when to advance and when to pause, when to criticize and when to praise, how to encourage others to excell. From the leader's reserves of energy and optimism, her followers draw strength. In her determination and self-confidence, they find inspiration. . .

To the women who inspire us, the best of luck!

Fraternity Executive Director Retires

by Sally Moore Nitschke, BN-Ohio State

"Fraternity President Marian Graham and the Council announce the appointment of Mrs. Robert V. Cameron to the position of Executive Secretary of Kappa Kappa Gamma."

In this notice in the Fall 1972 issue of THE KEY, the appointment of Betty Sanor Cameron as the fourth Executive Secretary of the Fraternity was announced. To me, a then brand new Council member, it was a special appointment for it meant that a good friend, a fellow Columbusite, and a Kappa mentor long respected would share those first days as a member of the Council team.

Now fifteen years later, Betty Sanor Cameron announces her retirement effective August 1987. What a busy productive fifteen years they have been!

Serving under four Fraternity presidents, Betty, better known to us all as "Seetie," has been a part of the Fraternity growth which has marked the last decade. She has worked to develop administrative procedures at Fraternity Headquarters which would keep pace with the programs and services which these increasing numbers required. Under Betty's guidance, the Fraternity was brought into the world of computers with membership records and chapter finance now completely computerized; the Heritage Museum was established; and the Headquarters building remodeled to accommodate new spaces with new functions.

Twelve full time and twelve part time staff persons work under Betty's guidance to provide services, respond to requests, and enable the functioning of the large volunteer team that comprises the Fraternity leadership. Not only is Betty's job one of managing the staff, supervising Fraternity business, and maintaining the Headquarters building at 530 East Town Street, Columbus, Ohio, but she also serves on numerous Fraternity committees ex-officio and acts as the secretary for the Council.

During these fifteen years as Executive Secretary, the title of the position has been changed to that of Executive Director. The job, too, has changed and grown to the administration of a non-profit organization of 100,000 members; 35,000 Kappas have initiation certificates signed by Betty S. Cameron; countless Kappas have been graciously welcomed by Betty at Fraternity Headquarters.

Betty
Cameron

Keys and buckeyes have always been very much a part of Betty's life. A lifelong Columbus resident, Betty belongs to an all Kappa family. Her mother, Lana White Sanor; her sisters, Lana Sanor Livingston, and Nancy Sanor Pennell, as well as her daughter Ann Cameron Mathewson are members of Beta Nu chapter at The Ohio State University. Another daughter, Carol Cameron Amos, is a member of Theta chapter, University of Missouri.

Following graduation from The Ohio State University, Betty served as an instructor of fine arts, was elected the chairman of the Board of Managers of the Columbus Museum of Art. She was also president of the Junior League of Columbus.

From her staff Betty has earned deep respect and loyalty which is obvious to all who visit the office. Staff members say that she has a 12th sense which puts her right at their desk when they need her. She has been known to wake up in the middle of the night and leave messages on the answering machine at Headquarters, to be sure that she and the staff do not forget a particularly important job to be done. A highlight of the staff's year is the Christmas party where Betty is the target of a gentle loving "roast" where she receives the affection of the staff. To those who work for and with Betty, she has been a supporter, a good friend, a good sport and a resource.

Now Seetie retires to enjoy a more evenly paced life. She retires to join her husband Bob in the many interests they share . . . travel, evenings with good friends, and time spent with their beloved grandchildren. Kappa extends to her our deepest thanks for a job well done though never done. We appreciate the endless hours of meetings carefully planned. We appreciate the myriad of words produced by Headquarters in letters, manuals, reports, and forms. Fraternity officers thank Betty for making Fraternity Headquarters a home away from home complete with favorite soap and diet soft drinks as well as every possible resource which has helped the volunteer leadership do their jobs most effectively. All Kappas are grateful for the beautiful letterings, logos, and art work which have come so easily from her talented pen.

Seetie, you are the apple of our eye, the fleur-de-lis feather in our collective cap, and a bright star in Kappa's crown. We wish you every happiness in the days to come.

A Tale of Two Installations

Richmond — Zeta Omicron

The Installation of Six Greek Groups at Richmond Made History

Feb. 22, 1987

Sidney G. Allen
1006 Heritage Drive
Shreveport, LA 71115

Dear Sidney,

Thought you might be interested to know about a unique undertaking in the Panhellenic world which has just been concluded. The University of Richmond, a private institution located in Richmond, Virginia, has had a fraternity system for men for a considerable length of time. At the request of the women students, a study was undertaken of the possibility of instituting a Greek system for women. The whole campus was involved in this evaluation, and the decision was made to invite six National Panhellenic Conference groups to establish chapters; rush and pledging, and later installation of the chapters, were to be held concurrently.

On February 6, colonization teams from Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi arrived on the campus to spend a week entertaining, informing and getting to know over 600 women who had signed interest forms. Each of the groups was limited to 20 college and alumnae members on the campus at one time. College members from nearby chapters attended parties and pledging, and Richmond alumnae were involved in all of the segments of the project.

Alison Bartel, Greek advisor and Lissa Bradford, NPC Area Advisor for Virginia, were in charge of the project. Each of the six groups provided a Panhellenic person, whose duties were to serve in lieu of a college Panhellenic and be the communications link between the college and the individual fraternities.

Following a week of frenzied activities, approximately 540 women donned pledge pins. Installation activities are planned for the weekend of May 2-4, 1987.

According to Alison Bartel and others who have done a bit of research, this is the first time in history that a colonization of this magnitude had been accomplished at any American University.

Faternally,

Norma

Norma Anderson Jorgensen, KAT
Kappa Alpha Theta Panhellenic Conference
Delegate
58 Mountain Shadows East
Scottsdale, AZ 85253

As the letter indicates, the May installation of six women's Greek groups at the University of Richmond was a landmark event not only on their campus but nationwide.

Founded in 1830, the University of Richmond is an outstanding coeducational institution offering undergraduate programs in the liberal arts, as well as in business, education and law. As early as 1906, university guidelines prohibited the establishment of sororities at the University; but, in 1985 the students voted to establish national sororities. In October, a panel composed of faculty, administrators and students interviewed nine National Panhellenic Conference groups — and five were chosen in addition to Kappa: Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Delta Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Chi Omega and Delta Gamma.

Fraternity President Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ-Missouri, presided at installation services for Zeta Omicron Chapter. Assisting her were Rebecca Stone Arbour, ΔI-LSU, director of alumnae; Cynthia McMillan Lanford, ΓΠ-Alabama, director of membership; and Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ-Purdue, Fraternity extension chairman. June Miller Mohr, ΓΔ-Purdue, served as installation chairman assisted by Sue Curry Whitaker, I-DePauw and Mimi Stein Morton, T-Northwestern, the coordinator of chapter development for this new chapter. Also instrumental in the success of the weekend were Colleen Blough, ΔO-Iowa State, Mary Clarke, ΔZ-Colorado College and Lisa Temple, ΓΞ-UCLA.

Over the weekend more than 200 Kappas gathered with the new members, their families and friends capping off the affair with the Installation Banquet held at the historic Commonwealth Club in downtown Richmond.

Zeta Omicron-Richmond is Kappa's 115th chapter with eighty-nine young women as charter members. They are:

Adding to Rho — Yale-Zeta Xi

by Charlotte Walton Sargeant, M-Butler
Yale Installation Chairman

Historic buildings, rich Gothic spires and sparse modern towers on the campus of Yale University symbolize a commitment to training America's leaders that began long before the American Republic. Last January, the shining golden keys worn by twenty proud Kappa initiates became a part of that scene, symbolizing the University's continuing commitment to meeting the special needs of its women students.

Yale, founded in 1701 near its present site in New Haven, Connecticut, is one of the world's leading universities. The student body, coming from almost every nation, includes 5000 undergraduates enrolled in over 70 academic disciplines and 5000 graduate students, studying under an outstanding faculty that includes many Nobel laureates.

Women, however, have only been permitted to register as undergraduates at Yale since 1969. Today, approximately 45 percent of the students admitted are female. While fraternities were prominent on the all-male campus of the late 19th Century, they were often identified (not always accurately) with many non-democratic attitudes prevalent during that period. These groups flourished into the 20th Century, but after the school upheavals of the Sixties and Seventies, only one survived.

Today, students are recognizing the advantages gained from fraternity membership. In January 1986, when Marjorie Matson Converse,  $\Gamma\Delta$ -Purdue, Kappa extension chairman, responded to a call from Sara Church Dinkler,  $\text{EO}$ -California-Davis, a recent Yale Law School graduate, reporting of students' interest in Kappa Kappa Gamma, Marj found five male Greek organizations and Kappa Alpha Theta already on campus.

Marj returned to Council after a visit to New Haven and reported that students and the University were indeed interested in Kappa. The New Haven and Fairfield County Alumnae groups, under presidents Kelly Hall Silva,  $\Delta\text{N}$ -Massachusetts, and Marjorie Koza Gasco,  $\text{BT}$ -Syracuse, were most enthusiastic about a Yale chapter. The Fraternity approved the proposal and the first colonization rush for Zeta Xi-Yale, was held in April, 1986.

In June 1986, Andrea Goetze, then a Zeta Xi Colony pledge, attended Convention in Philadelphia. Sheri Purvis,  $\Delta\text{II}$ -Tulsa, was appointed Zeta Xi's Chapter Consultant and Constance Engle,  $\Delta\text{A}$ -Penn State, was appointed Chairman of Chapter Development.

The colony's founding members were joined by others in September 1986 when Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta conducted Yale's first formal sorority rush. After rush, Sheri took the new members through pledge training while the Fairfield County and New Haven Alumnae set up Zeta Xi Advisory and House Boards.

Chapter Installation began on Thursday, January 15 with the arrival of Fraternity President Marian Klingbeil Williams,  $\Theta$ -Missouri, Wilma Winberg Johnson,  $\Delta\text{N}$ -Massachusetts, director of philanthropy; Jean Dale Brubeck,  $\Gamma\text{K}$ -William and Mary, then assistant to the council, (currently Fraternity Executive Director); Mary Clarke,  $\Delta\text{Z}$ -Colorado College, traveling consultant; Marj Converse, Charlotte Walton Sargeant,  $\text{M-Butler}$ , installation chairman, and a host of other dedicated Kappas. A dinner for pledges and these guests was followed by a stimulating Fraternity talk given by Marian Williams.

Fireside activities, conducted by Wilma Johnson, were held in the paneled library of the Colonial-period house on New Haven's historic Town Green which houses the Yale Graduate Club. A limited-edition print of Audubon's "Snowy Owls" hanging above the fireplace made the room seem perfect for Kappa's needs. Undergraduates from our Rho Province chapters attended the ceremony, many of them anticipating the role they'd play as big sisters to our new members.

Center Church near the Town Green served as the installation and initiation site. Following this lovely occasion, Marian and Wilma conducted a Model Chapter Meeting. Later that day, the Fairfield County and New Haven alumnae introduced the new initiates to the Yale and New Haven communities at a formal tea, which included friends and parents of the new members.

The special women who chose to become the pioneers of Kappa Kappa Gamma on the Yale University Campus are: Susan Elizabeth Anslow, Theresa Michele Babich, Ada Teresa Chun, Diane Mary Clerkin, Elizabeth Prince Donnem, Andrea Jane Goetze, Lori Ellen Gottlieb, Kristy Lynn Hasen, Michele Patrice Hernandez, and Stephanie Pearl Kingston. Also, Ashia Ann Lee, Karen Josephine Lindsley, Eve Rose Maremont, Jennifer Anne Maxwell, Elaine Michele Pofeldt, Mary Upton Quest, Mary Susan Schulze, Anandi Subramanian, Terry Kathleen Vance, Margaret Frances Webb and Hui Hsing Wong.

The Fraternity is also pleased to announce the following:

Zeta Pi Chapter— The College of Idaho, Caldwell, Idaho. 19 young women pledged, Spring 1987. Installation scheduled: November 1987

Zeta Rho Chapter — Rhodes College, Memphis, Tennessee. Colonization Rush: October 22-24, 1987. Send Recommendations to: Shanon Ritz (Mrs. Michael), 2740 McVay Road, Memphis, TN 38119

Executive Director Named

The Fraternity Council is pleased to announce the appointment of Jean Dale Brubeck,  $\Gamma\text{K}$ -William and Mary, as the fifth Executive Director of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She assumed her duties on August 17, 1987.

An article telling you more about Dale will appear in a future issue of The Key.

From Toronto to Irvine, and Berkeley to Boston: 17 Province Meetings Take Place During Spring 1987

by Marian K. Williams, Θ-Missouri

(Excerpts from the Fraternity Message presented at each meeting)

... There is a special feeling that fills the air when Kappas assemble regionally for their Province Meetings. It was 102 years ago that the membership discovered the value of area gatherings, and they have been a favorite Kappa tradition since that spring of 1885.

... The theme for these important meetings was "Excellence — the essence of Kappa." May this be our yardstick by which we, as individuals, chapters, alumnae groups and Fraternity officers, measure our every action and deed in the name of our beloved organization. There is a familiar saying which bears repeating: "Kappa is not just great because she is old, she is old because she is great." Excellence insures permanence.

... Founded 117 years ago on sound, basic, ethical and moral principals, that excellence through her purpose was established. As each generation of new membership accepts the privileges of Kappa, we have also been entrusted with the responsibilities to uphold the high standards and ideals expected of us. If we truly believe as we say "our characters will be the criteria of her," the accountability for that continued excellence is ours.

... "Are we what we say we are" as reflected in our activities and our actions? This is a very important question and the answers are critical to our future as an organization and a member of the Greek world. While it may be more popular than ever in the history of the sorority and fraternity movement to be Greek, we are also being called upon to be accountable for our behavior and to live up to the high standards as expressed in our statement of purpose.

... Kappa Kappa Gamma so firmly believes in planning for the future and developing the potential which is ours. More than ever before in our history, the time is appropriate to offer expanded opportunities to meet the needs of our membership. A Development Committee has been created to formulate specific procedures to make those plans a reality.

... The Long Range Planning process that began during the last biennium proved so successful to the organization and management of the Fraternity that it has continued. Areas of concentrated study by subcommittees have been the Heritage Museum, the focus of the philanthropy program, the General Convention of the Fraternity, and the area of Constitutional Studies.

can offer, we proudly welcome two new additions to our family of chapters. Zeta Xi at Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut received their charter during installation ceremonies for the 21 new members on January 17. Zeta Omicron was colonized on Valentine's Day at the University of Richmond in Richmond, Virginia. They filled our hearts with joy as 89 young women were pledged to that colony. They were installed during the weekend of May 1-3, 1987. Our circle of friendships grows stronger with the fine women who come to us from these outstanding institutions.

... Kappas continue to keep up with the ever-growing hi-tech world in which we live. The long-promised chapter finance program is ready to be phased into operation. Five of our chapters have been utilizing their computers with a software package designed for Kappa's finance system since last fall. An additional thirty chapters will be added through a variety of preparatory stages over the next few months.

... Kappa's heart in giving to others is the ultimate of excellence as we live true to our purpose. In the past biennium, the Fraternity gave 325 scholarships totaling $288,241 to women, both members and nonmembers. We gave $500 each to ANAD (Association for Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders), and to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, $1000 to osteoporosis research, and approximately $120,000 for direct financial aid to Kappas in need. Last fall, we gave an $8000 grant to our dear friend, Dr. Oh of Korea, to enable additional students to be trained in rehabilitation to carry on her work in Korean villages where the medical need is so great.

... The long-awaited Rose McGill Student Loan Fund program was launched for both graduate and undergraduate members. These sums of money do not reflect the thousands of dollars our chapters and alumnae groups earned and donated locally to charities of their choice. The time Kappas spend in giving service to others can only be estimated in the hundreds of thousands of hours each year. Kappas know why they wear the golden key that is so symbolic of their interest in the welfare and well-being of everyone surrounding them.

... We admittedly receive from this organization far greater rewards than we are ever able to return... perhaps that is why our membership gives generously and tirelessly in time and energy. Our heartfelt appreciation to the dedication and support of our House and Advisory Boards, and members of alumnae groups who give their all in support of worthwhile projects. Our deeply felt thanks and continued encouragement to the undergraduate members who strive to maintain on their campuses a reputation for Kappa in which we can all be proud. We acknowledge the vital interest we have in the future of this organization and to which we pledge our time, our services, our resources and loyalty.

... Your investment in Kappa's future will reap positive benefits. The true essence of Kappa is YOU — the nourishment you bring to her maintains the excellence!

The festivities began Friday evening at Nu P.M. with a Mexican Fiesta Dinner, followed by a rush skit "The Wizard of Kappa" performed by members of Zeta Gamma-Centre College. Here, members of Epsilon Alpha-Tennessee get into the Mexican Dinner spirit.

Fraternity Officers to be Elected at the 1988 General Convention

At the General Convention in June the active and alumnae delegates and other voting members of the Convention will elect your Fraternity Officers to serve during the next biennium. In order to make the election process work successfully, the Fraternity Nominating Committee needs your input. The slate of officers which the Committee will present to the delegates at Convention is based on recommendations submitted by you — individual Kappas, chapters, Advisory Boards, alumnae groups, House Boards.

To serve as a member of Fraternity Council, an individual must be an alumna in good standing and have served the Fraternity within ten years prior to election as a member of Council, Fraternity standing or special committee, Associate Council (Province Officer), Traveling Consultant or Council Assistant. If you know someone whom you think would make a good Fraternity Officer, fill out the recommendation form included below (as completely as you can) and send it to the Fraternity Nominating Chairman. The Fraternity Nominating Chairman will then contact the individual recommended and send her a biographical data sheet to complete.

Remember — this is your opportunity to participate directly in the selection of your Fraternity Officers and to assist the Fraternity Nominating Committee in identifying the best qualified individuals to serve in these important positions.

In addition, the Fraternity would like your recommendations for other Fraternity positions such as Standing Committees, special appointments, chapter and alumnae program chairmen, philanthropic chairmen, etc. which will be appointed by the Fraternity Council following the 1988 General Convention. Your recommendations for these positions should also be sent to the Fraternity Nominating Chairmen.

PLEASE SEND YOUR RECOMMENDATIONS BY MARCH 15, 1988 TO FRATERNITY NOMINATING CHAIRMAN: Jean L. Schmidt, 310 W. 107 Street, New York, New York 10025.

The Call To Convention

Kappa Kappa Gamma requests YOUR presence at the 57th biennial General Convention, June 21-26, 1988 at the Boca Raton Hotel and Club in Boca Raton, Florida.

You are invited to make new friends and renew the old, to gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of our Fraternity, to reflect on traditions and past accomplishments, to meet the challenging issues of today, and to plan for the future with confidence and enthusiasm. Timely programs and stimulating speakers will inform, educate, inspire and train you for future involvement, Fraternity business will be transacted, and officers for the coming biennium will be elected.

The theme for the Convention is "We Are Kappa Proud" . . . justifiably proud of our 118 years of service to others and to one another, and our achievements, individually and collectively. As we share our pride in our good fortune, we gratefully accept our responsibilities to continue those traditions of excellence which bring honor to the Fraternity and to our sisters.

The site for this Convention offers ideal facilities for meetings, workshops, special events, and leisure time activities on the spacious and exquisite grounds surrounding the hotel. The elegant setting, excellent food, timely topics of discussion, and good friendship will make your convention experience a highlight to be remembered. Pack your hopes, dreams, and goals for this beloved Fraternity of ours and join us in the pursuit of happiness, friendship, personal growth, mutual support and stewardship in service to others. I look forward to seeing you next June in Boca Raton.

Shopping: Town Center Mall, the second largest shopping center in Palm Beach County and the beautiful Royal Palm Plaza are located in Boca Raton; the famous Worth Avenue is on the island of Palm Beach, 22 miles away.

Restaurants: A multitude of restaurants exist in the Boca-Palm Beach area, but two of particular note are the Five-Star rated French restaurant La Vieille Maison, located in a Mizner-era mansion, and Cap's Place, a rustic fish-camp style restaurant on an island accessible only by Cap's free ferry.

Recapturing the Glory

by Becky Roper Matkov,  $\Delta B$ -Duke

The 1925 advertisement for Boca Raton described a development in south Palm Beach County which existed then only in the imagination of a talented, eccentric Addison Mizner. At the time it was written, most of the land was unpopulated farm acreage. Today, the vision has become a reality.

When Kappas go to their 57th Biennial Convention June 21-26, 1988, they will have a chance to see for themselves the historic Boca Raton Hotel and Club, praised when it was first built as one of the most beautiful buildings in America.

The Boca today is a Mobil Five-Star Resort, located on 1400 acres in the heart of Florida's Gold Coast. Its 1000 rooms are spread out in four buildings — The Cloister, with its Old World charm; The Tower, a 27-story building overlooking Lake Boca Raton; The Golf Villas; and The Boca Beach Club, a spacious complex on the Atlantic Ocean and the Intra-coastal Waterway reached by complimentary shuttle bus or by a ride on "Mizner's Dream," a teak-trimmed motor yacht.

A half mile of beach — with water typically 75-80 degrees — tempts swimmers, as do four hotel pools. The hotel's marina offers facilities for fishing, sailing, motor boat cruising, waterskiing, snorkeling, and scuba charters to ancient wrecks. Since the Gulf Stream is closer to Boca Raton than to any other spot in the United States, deep sea fishing is an especially popular excursion.

An 18-hole golf course, 22 tennis courts, fitness facilities, fine dining and lovely shops — along with the latest in modern convention meeting space and amenities — round out the Boca's credentials for hosting well any conference.

But what makes the Boca Raton Hotel and Club so special is its colorful history and architecture. . . .

It all began with a flamboyant architect and promoter named Addison Mizner. In 1918, at the age of 45, debt-ridden and suffering from heart and lung trouble, he came to Palm Beach to die. Instead, he regained his health and gained fame and fortune. With the support of his millionaire friend, Paris Singer, he designed the Everglades Club in 1918, and then Eva Stotesbury's palatial home, El Mirasol, in 1919, followed by a multitude of other lavish "cottages." He became the darling of Palm Beach society, firmly implanting the Spanish-Revival style as the architecture of the 1920s in South Florida.

With the financial backing of such famous names as duPont and Vanderbilt, Mizner acquired 17,500 acres in 1925 for the development of Boca Raton. As in other Florida boom-time communities, a magnificent hotel was planned as the centerpiece.

With his incredible imagination and flair Mizner poured himself — and his money — into building The Cloister Inn. Gracious arches, old tile, antiques and artwork personally collected from Spain, magnificent gardens and fountains all created an oasis of beauty, enhanced by Mizner's "aging" the building to give it an aura of the past. When The Cloister Inn opened on February 6, 1926 with a grandiose, celebrity-studded celebration, it had cost $1.25 million and was considered the most expensive 100-room hotel ever built.

But Mizner's triumph was short-lived. Within a year, the Florida real estate boom collapsed and Mizner Development Company went bankrupt.

The hotel was purchased in 1928 by Clarence Geist, who had made a fortune in utilities. He hired the New York firm of Schultze and Weaver (architects of the Waldorf) to enlarge the hotel, spending $8 million on a six-story addition, the beautiful Cathedral Dining Room, patios, swimming pools, and cabana club on the beach. Geist changed the name from The Cloister Inn to the Boca Raton Hotel and Club, opening it in 1930 as an exclusive private gentleman's club.

Following World War II, when it was used to billet Army Air Corps radar trainees, the hotel was bought and redecorated by theater owner Myer Schine.

Arthur Vining Davis, board chairman of ALCOA, purchased the hotel in 1956, later forming Arvida Corporation to manage it. In 1969, Arvida constructed the Golf Villas and the 27-story Tower with 250 guest rooms and a top-floor restaurant. In 1980, the Boca Beach Club was built on the site of the former Cabana Club. In the last few years, major refurbishing of the original Cloister building has restored it to its former splendor.

From the moment you drive up the dramatic Camino Real entryway to the Boca Raton Hotel and Club, passing the fountains and flowers, the statues and royal palms, you will know that this pink architectural fantasy is indeed a very special place — and worthy of a Kappa Kappa Gamma Convention.

Memorabilia Room Debuts

by Catherine "Kay" Schroeder Graf, BN-Ohio State

One of the purposes of the Heritage Museum is to preserve and display Kappa memorabilia. We Kappas love to look at documents, photographs, and other paraphernalia which tell the story of our Fraternity's development and the individuals who helped along the way. Seeing the mementos, personal belongings and clothing worn by our sisters are among the highlights of a tour through the historic home that houses our Fraternity Headquarters and Heritage Museum, 530 E. Town Street, Columbus, Ohio.

At Associate Council Seminar this past June, the Memorabilia Room was opened, established for Kappa visitors who tour the Museum. The location selected for the memorabilia display, is the second floor studio room adjacent to the roof garden. It is easily accessible from both the main and back stairways of the building.

The Memorabilia Room will feature rotating exhibits dealing with women and the progress of Kappa from our founding up to the present. The first display is titled "Women in History". Emphasis is on Kappas who have made contributions to national and international welfare as well as to the development of our Fraternity.

A replica of Rho<sup>Δ</sup> Chapter's renowned Lucy Webb Hayes doll occupies a place of honor in the Memorabilia Room. This doll, a reproduction of the one presented to the chapter by Elizabeth Monahan Volk and her daughter, Deborah Volk Cook, both past presidents of Rho<sup>Δ</sup>, was presented to the Museum by Margaret Leland Russell, also a member of the Ohio Wesleyan chapter.

The Lucy Webb Hayes doll is a miniature copy of the Smithsonian Institution's model as it originally appeared in the First Ladies exhibit. The dark red gown was replaced later by one Mrs. Hayes wore at a White House State Dinner for the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia. When Mrs. Hayes accepted an invitation to honorary membership to Rho Chapter in 1880, Rutherford B. Hayes was the 17th President of the United States. The father of one of the chapter's charter members, Mary Lawrence Haviland, was Comptroller of the U.S. Treasury at the time, thus, our connection with national government. Lucy Webb Hayes was the first college-educated wife of a President. She was graduated from the Wesleyan Female College at Cincinnati in 1850.

The Lucy Webb Hayes doll

At the Museum, there is a Charlotte Barrell Ware display. This brilliant woman became our Fraternity's second president in 1884 while a student at Boston University. During her first year as Kappa's leader, she also served her Alma Mater as a junior proctor, senior class president, and president of an open society named Gamma Delta.

Charlotte became a pioneer in the dairy industry after her marriage to Robert Ware in 1885. The dairy she established became a force in saving infant life and produced the first certified milk in New England. In 1913, Charlotte was appointed a member of the American Commission for the study of Agricultural Cooperation in Europe. In 1922 and 1924 she was enlisted as the only woman delegate to the General Institute of Agriculture in Rome.

Charlotte's wedding candlesticks can be seen in the exhibit. They have become a part of Fraternity tradition for she originated the "Passing of the Light" ceremony with these silver candlesticks at an Alpha Province Meeting in 1935. They are used in the closing service at each convention and in the installation of new chapters.

A book by Dorothy Canfield Fisher, BN-Ohio State, is in the Memorabilia Room. Dorothy was not only a famous author, but was the motivating force behind KKG's war relief efforts on behalf of the French during World War I and II.

A charming scrap book assembled by children of the war-torn area of Meudon was presented to Beatrice Woodman, Φ-Boston, who served as chairman of this philanthropy during World War II. It is among the displays in the Memorabilia Room.

Norma Waln, BI-Swarthmore, also an author, is honored in this room. She donated a significant portion of the royalties from her first book, proceeds from her BBC broadcasts to English school children, and fees from her lecture tours in the United States and Canada to Kappa's war relief project known as the Nora Waln Fund, which she helped administer.

The Liberation Medal presented to Rheva Ott Shryock, BA-Pennsylvania, by King Haakon of Norway in 1947, also is on display.

This 1936-1940 Fraternity president, authority on parliamentary procedure, Achievement and Loyalty Award recipient, chaired the Nora Waln Fund for Refugee Children of England and Norway. Kappas sewed 5000 layettes for Norwegian babies, many of whom had to be wrapped in newspapers for warmth. Infant attire was simply not available during wartime.

A mannequin in the room is garbed in the suit Virginia Gildersleeve, BE-Barnard, wore at the signing of the United Nations Charter in 1945. She was the only woman delegate to the conference authorized to draft the charter. She also served as alternate delegate to the United Nations General Assembly for a brief period. Virginia was dean of Barnard College for more than 36 years. She was a highly regarded educator and expert in international relations. One of her books is a part of the exhibit.

Other books by Kappa authors are displayed. One of these is by Phyllis McGinley Hayden, ΔH-Utah. She received the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1961.

Mareta West, BΘ-Oklahoma, received an Alumnae Achievement Award in 1970. She was the first woman astrogeologist to be hired by the U.S.

Geological Survey. She had the distinction of mapping the landing site for the Apollo II flight in 1969 — a mission which placed the first men on the moon. A photograph of Mareta at her drawing board is featured in the Memorabilia Room.

Many other outstanding Kappas are honored in this "Women in History" display. Nancy Pennell, BN-Ohio State, is the Heritage Museum staff member who designed the exhibit including the revamping of the room, itself, to accommodate the displays. Appropriate lighting, wall and floor coverings have been installed.

Kappa officers and committee chairmen were among the first visitors to the Memorabilia Room when they attended Associate Council Seminar. They were pleased with this special niche, where they savor the accomplishments of Kappa "Women in History" to their hearts' delight.

Summer Museum Internships are available. Inquire at Fraternity Headquarters.

Heritage Museum Internship

Jill Macdonald, BN-Oregon, served as Kappa's Heritage Museum intern during the summer of 1987. She especially enjoyed working with the Museum's collection of period clothing. Kappas who are interested in a summer Museum internship should contact Dale Brubeck, Fraternity executive director.

"Actives Plus Alumnae Equals Fraternity"

by Gini La Charité, GK-William and Mary, Fraternity Historian

In 1874, just four years after the founding, Kappa Kappa Gamma began initiating women who were not college students. Aside from the early practice of inviting "sub-rosas" and "preps" (high school students) to join, the Fraternity Constitution of 1874 officially recognized the classification of honorary membership, and, indeed, that year marks the first recorded initiation of an honorary member: Julia Maria Taliaferro Thompson, Δ-Indiana. Julia Thompson, the wife of a professor of military science, was known affectionately as

"Mrs. Colonel Thompson," and she was one of the first patronesses of Delta Chapter, a patroness being a woman in the community interested in college life. Patronesses were the forerunners of today's advisers and house board members, but, in the beginning, patronesses were rarely alumna members of the group.

It must be remembered that in the first decades of the Fraternity, undergraduate chapter members were dependent upon families, faculty wives, and friends in the local community for meeting places, social gatherings, advice, material assistance, and guidance in forming policies, making decisions, and developing traditions. The chapters were small in numbers, limited by the 1878 Constitution, for example, to a maximum of 20 members. By 1874, when Julia Thompson was initiated, the Fraternity consisted of three "living" active chapters (Alpha-Monmouth, Delta-Indiana, Epsilon-Illinois Wesleyan) and no more than 50 Kappas, a figure which includes both actives and alumnae. The practice of having patronesses on the local level arose naturally, and, indeed, it is recorded that Julia Thompson's first act as a Kappa was to offer her home as a regular meeting place for Delta Chapter. Hence, the custom of initiating certain patronesses began as a practical necessity, and most women's Greek groups relied on patronesses as local support groups. In general, these women were not recognized officially and had no "national status," but they were important in the development of chapters for all groups during the first years of the women's fraternity movement. Some Greek groups even had a special induction ceremony for patronesses, a ceremony which in no way resembled the initiation service, and a special patroness pin, which was not an official badge, for patronesses were not members. As the women's fraternity system grew, alumnae gradually replaced the custom of local patronesses. However, in Kappa Kappa Gamma, as well as in other Greek groups, both men's and women's, it was not unusual to offer honorary membership to loyal community supporters and special chapter friends.

The Constitution of Kappa Kappa Gamma never had a provision for patronesses, but, from 1874 to 1896, the Fraternity did have a provision for honorary membership. By and large, there were two broad categories of honorary members: patronesses and prominent women who were distinguished socially or professionally. The need for alumna support in moral and material terms was accompanied by a desire to gain quickly national recognition and respect, for the early years of the women's fraternity movement were a period of strong anti-fraternity feelings on the campus, a sentiment which resulted in the original loss of Alpha Chapter and others. Three of the most pressing societal issues during the last half of the nineteenth century were higher education for women, abolitionism, and women's suffrage. All three issues had an impact on Kappa Kappa Gamma. The Founders of the Fraternity were inspired in the first place to form a fraternity, not a sorority or club, as a means of gaining equality in the classroom (educational parity with men) and in campus life (social equality with the all-male fraternities). Second, popular campus speakers at the time were abolitionists and suffragettes (advocates of human rights).

In addition to extending honorary membership to local sponsors or patronesses and to prominent women, Kappa chapters initiated a few women who had graduated before the chapter was established and who had younger relatives who were members. But, regardless of the reasons why a chapter chose to bestow honorary membership on certain women, each signed an oath of membership and was initiated in a "regular" manner—the one exception even managed to attend an initiation some years after she had accepted her invitation to join and signed an oath of allegiance.

From 1874 to 1881, honorary membership was strictly a chapter privilege, so existing records on the subject are vague at best. Omicron Chapter-Simpson had honorary members, but they were never identified by name or by qualifications; they were probably patronesses. In 1881, when the Fraternity turned from the Grand Chapter form of government to that of the Grand Council, honorary membership required the unanimous vote of the Grand Council and of all the chapters in the particular province. The 1881 change further stipulated that only prominent professional women could be considered for honorary membership. The 1890 Convention determined that a two-thirds vote of all the chapters would also be required. In 1896, after much discussion, the practice of honorary membership was abolished by the Fraternity on the grounds that the qualifications for membership should "come from within" and "not from without."

Between 1874 and 1896, there were at least 28 honorary members initiated by 10 chapters. Actually, these 28 women were initiated during a ten-year period, 1874-1884, but records confirm that at least seven women were officially proposed for honorary membership after 1884, and, of these seven, six requests were "ignored" by the Grand Council and one was refused by chapter vote. The 28 official honorary members include professors, faculty wives, writers, abolitionists, scholars, social reformers, musicians, elocutionists, suffragettes, women's temperance leaders, and Kappa relatives, as well as patronesses.

The most famous Kappa honorary member is Julia Ward Howe, who was initiated in 1884 by Phi Chapter-Boston; she is also the last of the known honorary members. From her initiation in 1884 until her death in 1910, Julia Ward Howe was deeply proud to be a Kappa; she sent greetings to the 1886 Convention, wrote an 18-stanza poem for the 1890 Convention, and, in 1905, wrote a poem in commemoration of the death of her lifetime friend, Mary A. Livermore, who was initiated as an honorary member by Iota Chapter-Depauw in 1879.<sup>1</sup> While best known as the author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," which became the anthem of the Union troops during the United States Civil War and was played at the funerals of Abraham Lincoln and Winston Churchill, Julia Ward Howe was an indefatigable writer and lecturer on behalf of the anti-slavery movement and served as President of the New England Suffrage Association. On February 12, 1987, she became the 36th subject of a 14-cent regular U.S. stamp in the Great American Series for her outstanding work in American social reforms, especially women's rights.

However, the Kappa story of the initiation of alumna women does not end with the honorary membership conferred upon Julia Ward Howe in 1884, nor with the Convention vote in 1896 to abolish honorary membership as a separate classification. Throughout the 1920s, for example, Kappa chapters occasionally initiated women professors and Deans of Women, such as Marguerite Wynne-Roberts, who was initiated by Gamma Kappa Chapter-William and Mary in 1928. The Convention of 1930 voted to initiate as a member the older sister of one of the Fraternity Founders, Minnie Stewart, A-Monmouth; accordingly, on October 25, 1930, Gamma Xi Chapter-California, Los Angeles, initiated Isabella Stewart Hammack, who had graduated from Monmouth College in 1869; she was 80 years old at the time of her initiation.

Throughout Kappa history, there are unexplained entries in various chapter letters, documents, and membership rolls. For example, a "Professor Myra Goodwin" is listed as one of the "four girls" initiated by Iota Chapter-Depauw in 1883. Xi Chapter-Adrian initiated "Mrs. Professor Wilbur" in 1884 and then proceeded to list her as Jennie Zane, class of 1886; Xi Chapter also initiated "Mrs. Professor Furguson" in 1888. These two women initiated by Xi Chapter were apparently not honorary members, but "selects," "select" in that they were pursuing one or even two courses per term; while they were obviously faculty wives and not regularly enrolled students, they were enrolled at Adrian College as special students. Moreover, chapters have always had the privilege of offering active membership to graduate students; the present Fraternity Bylaws state that active members include "Graduate students initiated while pursuing graduate courses" (IV, 1, A, 1, p. 4). Two of the three charter members of Lambda Chapter-Akron had graduated before the chapter was chartered in 1877.

Kappa alumnae in the strict or modern sense of the term were frequently listed on the active chapter roll, attended meetings regularly, and paid dues. For years, chapter reports in The Key included in the membership figures both alumnae and associates; alumnae referred to those members who had graduated but who remained in the community, while associates were either those Kappas who transferred as actives (affiliates) or who moved into the community after graduation from another campus and chapter. Beta Nu Chapter-Ohio State voted in 1888 to make the two alumnae who had initiated them associate members of the active chapter. When Mu Chapter-Butler sent its delegate to the planned 1880 Convention, she had already graduated, but she was probably one of those alumnae "in residence" and so part of the active chapter. The first "active" delegate which Beta Beta Chapter-St. Lawrence sent to a Fraternity Convention was a member who had graduated two years earlier. Hence, alumnae membership as we know it today did not officially exist during Kappa's first decades. There were those alumnae who stayed in the area and so remained part of the active chapter and those who moved where there was no chapter and became "silent" members.

Historically, Kappa Kappa Gamma was never a strictly undergraduate organization. Alice Pillsbury, A-Monmouth, graduated in 1873, but from 1873 to 1875 she served as the Secretary of Alpha as Grand Chapter, probably due to a lack of members and the anti-fraternity problems on the campus; most likely, she was a patroness who happened to be a member. Throughout the 1870s, Grand Chapter Officers and Officers of Convention were often alumnae. The first Grand Council in 1881 had one alumna member, while four of the 15 delegates to the 1882 Convention were actually alumnae. The reason that Katherine Sharp, T-Northwestern, is considered the first alumna Grand President of Kappa Kappa Gamma when she was elected in 1894 is that she was the first elected from the midst of the alumna delegates, but she was by no means the first Kappa alumna to hold a Fraternity office or Council position. Tade Hartsuff Kuhns, M-Butler, our first Grand President, was an alumna when she was elected to her second term in 1882. Hence, the problem of understanding honorary membership and the initiation of alumna women into Kappa Kappa Gamma is part and parcel of the problem of the formal recognition of alumnae as an official classification of membership. After all, the first Alumnae Day at Convention was not held until 1902, the first Alumnae Officer was not appointed until 1904, alumna delegates did not receive voting privileges on alumna matters at Convention until 1912, and the election of a Director of Alumnae to the Fraternity Council did not occur until 1914.

The emergence of alumnae as a recognized classification of membership does not, however, end the story of Kappa's history of initiating alumnae, nor does this particular page of Fraternity history conclude with the initiation of Minnie Stewart's older sister in 1930. Whenever the Fraternity establishes a new chapter through the procedure known as "By Petition," that is the acceptance of a local organization as a colony or nucleus for a chapter, the alumnae members and sponsors (patronesses) of that group may also be offered the privilege of being initiated into Kappa Kappa Gamma, provided that they "have completed at least one year in the college or university, are in good standing with the local group, and pass an examination on Fraternity information" (Fraternity Bylaws XII, 2, D, 4, pp. 18-19). To date, 62 local groups have become chapters of the Fraternity by petition and all their alumnae have been offered the opportunity to be initiated. The first local group which brought with it all of its own alumnae was the Browning Society, founded at St. Lawrence in 1875; when the Brownings became Beta Beta Chapter in 1881, several of the charter members were alumnae, one having graduated in 1873 before even the Brownings were founded. It is to the Brownings' actives and alumna that Kappa owes her patron goddess, Minerva, and the owl.

Between 1900 and 1944, 48 of the 55 chapters established or reestablished (87%) were local groups which entered the Fraternity by petition. One of the early sponsors of Gamma Delta Chapter-Purdue was at the time of the installation the Dean of Women, Carolyn Shoemaker, who had been one of the organizers of the local group, Mu Sigma Alpha, in 1912; when the group "went national" in 1919, Carolyn Shoemaker felt that she should not be initiated because the Greek system for women was just beginning on the Purdue campus; in 1921, convinced that the system was well underway, she was initiated into Gamma Delta Chapter. Dr. Clara McIntyre, a professor of English at the University of Wyoming, was one of the first sponsors of Gamma Zeta, the local begun on the campus in 1920; she was initiated as an alumna the day after Gamma Omicron Chapter was installed in 1927. Dr. Miriam Locke, former Fraternity Chairman of Graduate Fellowships and recipient of the Loyalty Award in 1974, was first a member of Pi Alpha, which became Gamma Pi Chapter-Alabama in 1927; Miriam Locke is one of a large group of distinguished and loyal Kappas who were alumnae initiates. The last local group which became a Kappa chapter by petition was Epsilon Upsilon-Baylor in 1977. The local organization, the Athenian Club, had been established in 1935; nearly 400 Athenian alumnae were initiated into Kappa membership, including Cornelia Marshall Smith, who, as a member of the Baylor faculty, had been a sponsor of the Athenians when they began. Dr. Smith was almost 81 years old at the time of her initiation.

Of Kappa's seven "deuteron" chapters which have been reestablished, six went from being "national" (chartered by a national fraternity) to "local" status due to difficult campus situations;

when they were reinstated as Kappa chapters, their "local" alumnae also became Kappas. In fact, the alumnae of the original chapters often became the sponsors of the local group, safeguarded the memorabilia and history, and worked devotedly and patiently with the group until the campus situation so changed that the chapter could be reinstated. One of the noteworthy examples of joint Kappa and local alumna guardianship, modern-day service as patronesses, is found in the story of the reestablishment of Psi Chapter-Cornell; closed in 1969, Psi became Kappa Psi and literally operated as a "Kappa local" until it was rechartered as Psi in 1977.

Most local organizations had Greek-letter names, and several groups were formed with the express purpose of becoming only a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, such as the Fleur-de-lis Club in 1955 which became Epsilon Epsilon Chapter-Emory in 1959. But one of the most unique local groups which ever received a Kappa charter is Alpha Chi (not related to Alpha Chi Omega), which became Gamma Lambda Chapter-Middlebury in 1923. Every woman who entered Middlebury became a member of Alpha Chi, founded in 1889; as the local sorority developed its own ritual, symbols, governing rules and procedures, the group gained unusual prominence and stature for a local. In 1922, the members of Alpha Chi had to decide if they wanted their group to "nationalize" by becoming a national sorority in its own right or by becoming a chapter of an existing national organization. After much deliberation, the members of Alpha Chi decided to petition Kappa Kappa Gamma, and most of its living alumnae were eventually initiated, including three of the five founders. The Fraternity processional, "We Look To Thee, Kappa Gamma" was originally an Alpha Chi song.

While the installation of Epsilon Upsilon-Baylor in 1977 represents the largest number of local alumnae initiated in Kappa history, the distinction of being a local group the longest belongs to Delta Chi Chapter-San Jose State, which was installed in 1948; the petitioning group was the Allenian Society, founded in 1896 — 52 years earlier! The most unusual name for a local group was "The Witches," which became Lambda Lambda Theta in 1906 and eventually Gamma Alpha Chapter-Kansas State in 1916, while the most picturesque name belongs to Las Chaparritas, which was formed in 1927 and became Delta Psi Chapter-Texas Tech in 1953. Beta Xi Chapter-Texas has the distinction of having had the most local names; two local groups formed in 1898: Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Sigma Sigma (not related to the NPC groups by these names); the two groups merged in 1899 as Delta Sigma and then changed the name again in 1901 to the Alpha Club; it is as Alphas that their petition was finally granted in 1902.

How many alumna women has Kappa initiated since 1874 when the practice of honorary membership was authorized and 1977 which is the last time that a petitioning group with its alumnae and sponsors became members of the Fraternity? There are no figures. Chapter chronological indexes and Fraternity membership rolls are maintained by date of initiation only. There is no special designation for a member initiated as an honorary or alumna of a local group. Each initiate, regardless of age and situation at the time of her initiation, is fully entitled to all privileges and responsibilities of Kappa membership. Kappa has never practiced "regular" membership, "artificial" membership, or any other classification to distinguish a given status at the time of initiation. However, the number of women who were not undergraduate or graduate students and yet who have been initiated into the Fraternity must reach into the thousands, and we are all the richer for their contributions.

In the first years of the Fraternity, alumna women served the struggling organization as advisers and provided our chapters with much-needed assistance. Others graciously and generously shared with us their national and international honors and outstanding records of achievement. In the modern era, alumna women have served as pioneers and role models in establishing local organizations which have captured the spirit of Kappa, reflected the essence of the Kappa tradition of excellence, and demonstrated that their standards embody Kappa ideals. Kappa's history of initiating honorary members and post-collegiate alumnae explains more clearly the formula that "actives plus alumnae equals Fraternity."

Note:

<sup>1</sup>Julia Ward Howe's poem to the 1890 Convention was last printed in The Key, 47 (February, 1930), 67-69; her poem in honor of Mary A. Livermore appeared in The Key, 23 (January 1906), 5-6. The Fraternity Historian is deeply indebted to May Whiting Westermann,  $\Sigma$ -Nebraska, for her article, "Honorary Membership," The Key, 46 (December, 1929), 468-92, and to the unknown Kappa author who wrote "The Policy of Fraternities Regarding Honorary Members and Patronesses," The Key, 47 (February, 1930), 61-69. The last time that the Fraternity published its list of honorary members was in 1932 in the History of Kappa Kappa Gamma 1870-1930, p. 706.

Who's Who . . . . .

Leslie Barnes, BA-Illinois, was recognized by the Panhellenic Council as one of three outstanding presidents — out of 26 sororities!

Keri Lee, ΔH-Utah, was chosen 1986 Outstanding Greek Woman of the Year for her involvement in the student government, student association and performing arts. Vicki Renfrow, BK-Idaho, and Susan Walker, BP<sup>Δ</sup>-Cincinnati, were also recognized as Outstanding Greek Women of the Year for their contributions to the Greek community.

ΓB-New Mexico, was recognized by the university with three awards of distinction: the President's Trophy as the outstanding sorority on campus, the Scholarship Pledge Trophy for the best grade point average for all pledge classes, and the Overall Scholarship Trophy for the best pledge/active grade point average for all campus sororities.

Three Kappas received special recognition from their respective schools. Paige Scanchy, EΔ-Arizona State, was awarded Panhellenic Pledge of the Year; Jennifer Smith, BK-Idaho, was named Greek Pledge of the Year, and Laura Shock, ZK-Bowling Green, was chosen Most Outstanding New Member 1986.

Jennifer Schreiber, ZN-California-San Diego, was elected president of Panhellenic at UCSD. As a charter member, she is the first ZN Kappa to serve as Panhellenic president!

Serving her second term as president of Panhellenic, Kris Madsen, EB-Colorado State, was chosen CSU Outstanding Greek Woman. She is active in student government and will have a challenging opportunity serving as liaison between the university and the state legislature.

Kudos to . . . . .

The following chapters were recognized for achieving the highest grade point average among campus organizations:

ET-North Carolina
BT-West Virginia
ZK-Bowling Green State
ΔΓ-Michigan State
ΓN-Arkansas

BII-Washington, decided to establish a no drinking policy during exchanges with fraternities. They took the challenge straight to Panhellenic and were "key" factors in establishing a new drinking policy for all sorority/fraternity exchanges.

Chapter Excellence

EI-Puget Sound, received recognition for excellence in community service, Panhellenic achievement, university involvement and fraternity standards!

EI Kappas received the highest grade point average of all sororities, all university undergraduates and all Greek averages! They also received the Campus Service Award for the most chapter members involved in campus activities.

In the community, EI Kappas earned the Hogan Community Award for their involvement with Students Against Muscular Dystrophy (S.A.M.S.). The chapter raised over $2,000 for S.A.M.S. — the most money raised by any university organization. The Tacoma Children's Industrial Home also applauded the chapter's efforts toward its $600 donation. Again, the chapter raised more money than any other sorority.

Congratulations to EI for your dedication and excellence!

Greta Anderson, EI-Puget Sound, has not only observed change in her chapter, but has instigated it as well. Her enthusiasm for campus and philanthropic activities is evident in her list of affiliations. She has served as fraternity education chairman, philanthropy chairman, and has just completed her term as chapter president. On campus she is involved in the university chorale, Mortar Board, Order of Omega and is a representative to the UPS Alumni Board. Prospective students and new freshmen have most likely seen her conducting tours of the university as a campus tour guide, or they have benefited from her work as a freshman advising assistant. In the community, Greta served as an intern with the international division of Nalley's Fine Foods where she initiated the donation of sample foods to a local shelter for the homeless.

Individual Honors

Wendy Grogan, EΔ-Tennessee, was recognized for her outstanding achievement on campus and given the Chancellors Award. She is an active member of Mortar Board and Omicron Delta Kappa.

Pamela Conway, ZΔ-Washington & Jefferson, received two honors of academic excellence, — the 1987 Schmitz Book Prize, for the highest grade point average in German and the Donald Ward Ebert Award for outstanding academics and activities as a junior. She is a member of Delta Phi Alpha (German honorary), Alpha Psi Omega (theatre honorary) and the Theatre Club. As a senior staff writer, Pamela contributes to the college's newspaper, The Red and Black. She is active in student government, and is a founder of a new nonalcoholic pub, George & Tom's Place.

Jeannie Mitchell, ET-North Carolina, was elected president of the Carolina Student Union. During her term, she was responsible for the board of directors, ten committee chairpersons and their activities, and the general guidance of the Union.

Julie MacMillan, P<sup>Δ</sup>-Ohio Wesleyan, was student body president and serves on the Wesleyan Student Foundation. Excelling in sports as well as academics, she is a member of the women's soccer team, and is a Wesleyan Scholar.

Jamie Smallets, ZK-Bowling Green, was the recipient of the 1985 Whirlpool Foundation Scholarship. Whirlpool Corporation/Clyde Division granted a $10,000 scholarship based on Jamie's leadership and academic excellence.

Robyn Ridenour, Δ-Indiana, received the Rawles Key Award from Beta Gamma Sigma (commerce honor society) for excellence in scholarship and community service. She also received the Senior Scholastic Award for being among the top one percent in the School of Business. A two-time recipient of the Kodak Scholarship, Robyn is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, Golden Key and is a Vice-Presidential Scholar.

Holly Hedrick,  $\Delta$ -Indiana, received the Berle Showers Holland Award, a fellowship for medical school (and named for a fellow  $\Delta$ -Indiana Kappa). She participates in the I.U. Student Foundation Steering Committee, Phi Beta Kappa and Golden Key honor societies.

Chosen as one of ten Most Outstanding Student Leaders on Campus, Maripat Findley,  $\Delta$ T-Georgia, has excelled in both academics and leadership. She is an active member of two leadership honoraries, Order of Omega and Omicron Delta Kappa, as well as Phi Sigma Epsilon (business honorary) and College Republicans. She has served on the Finance Club, Financial Management Association, Student Alumni Association and Activities Review Board.

Tracy Theodore,  $\Gamma\Psi$ -Maryland, was among 110 college students — 26 of whom represented different NPC groups — to attend the Leader Shape Institute. Sponsored by Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity, the program focuses on developing leadership and organizational skills. Tracy is currently president of her chapter and is a member of Order of Omega. She has also held the offices of second vice-president and rush chairman.

Recognized for excellence in leadership and service, Catherine Linder, EK-South Carolina, was elected president of Alpha Chapter of Mortar Board. She was the student director of the Carolina Scholars, an organization made up of scholarship recipients. She is a member of Pi Delta Phi (French honorary) and Omicron Delta Kappa. Catherine has served as EK's scholarship chairman and assistant pledge chairman.

The Texas Tech Outstanding Student of the Year award was given to Shara Michalka,  $\Delta\Psi$ -Texas Tech, for excellence in scholarship and campus involvement. She is a Student Association senator and active in the Student Foundation. Recognized as Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities, Shara is also a member of Mortar Board, Order of Omega, Rho Lambda, and Omicron Delta Kappa.

Achieving in leadership, academics and community service, Molly Dible, BΘ-Oklahoma, was among the top 20 junior women inducted into Tassels. She is active on the Campus Activities Council, Alpha Delta Lambda and Phi Eta Sigma (freshman honoraries) and Beta Gamma Sigma (business honorary). She is also a member of Mortar Board, Order of Omega, Golden Key honor society and has just completed her term as second vice-president for Beta Theta.

Recognized for her involvement in student government, Courtney Walker,  $\Gamma\Phi$ -SMU, received the Outstanding SMU Senator award and the John L. Freehafen award, a \$450 scholarship. She is a University Scholar and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma (freshman honoraries).

Active in Student Association, Kathy Moorehead,  $\Delta\Psi$ -Texas Tech, has served as a senator and a secretary on the University Life Committee, and is active on Student Foundation's Campus Relations and Ways and Means committees. She is a member of Mortar Board and Golden Key honor societies.

Jennifer McGee, BΞ-Texas, is active with Mortar Board and two service organizations, Orange Jackets and Posse. She has been a member of the UT women's varsity tennis team and Matchmates, a booster club.

Christine Hardcastle,  $\Gamma\Phi$ -SMU, was the recipient of the Charles Harmon Scholarship, awarded for excellence in the College of Business. Chosen on the basis of academic excellence and campus leadership, she is a member of the Robert S. Hyer Society, Mortar Board, Beta Alpha Psi (accounting honorary) Beta Gamma Sigma (business honorary) and Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. She has served as president and scholarship chairman for Gamma Phi.

Women in Achievement

Sara Button,  $\Gamma\Theta$ -Wyoming, was elected 1986 University of Wyoming homecoming Queen. As  $\Gamma\Theta$ 's music chairman, Sara led the chapter to another Homecoming victory: the Kappa song group won the overall

Sara Button

Homecoming Sing competition. On campus, she is a member of the varsity cheerleading squad, Spurs, Iron Skull and Mortar Board. She has served as pledge class president and scholarship chairman.

Shellie Parrott

Shellie Parrott,  $\Gamma\Theta$ -Wyoming, is the 1986 Wyoming Junior Miss. She placed among the top five finalists in the national competition. On campus, Shellie is a member of "Wildfire", the university's dance-drill team.

Prina Porter

Prina Porter,  $\Gamma\Theta$ -Wyoming, is currently the USA Miss Teen for Colorado. She is also a feature twirler for the UW marching band.

Marcy Morris,  $\Gamma\Theta$ -Wyoming, was named 1986 Miss Frontier of the 90th annual Cheyenne Frontier Days. She was nominated by the community and interviewed by a selection committee that considered evidence of a pioneer background in her family. Additionally, she was selected for her horsemanship, public speaking, and her involvement with the Cheyenne Frontier Days. Marcy is one of several Kappas who have been distinguished with the Miss Frontier title, including her mother, Norma Bell Morris,  $\Gamma\Theta$ -Wyoming, who reigned in 1949.

Kim Eason, EK-South Carolina, is a member of the "Celebrate America" cast at Six Flags Over Georgia. She travels 300 miles each weekend to rehearse and perform. She was the 1986 runner-up in the Miss Southeast Georgia pageant. On campus,

Kim Eason

Kim is a member of Eta Sigma Delta (hospitality honor society), Hotel, Sales and Marketing Association, Carolina Hospitality Society, and Golden Key National Honor Society. She has served as registrar and corresponding secretary for Epsilon Kappa.

Linda Wagner, ΓP-Allegheny, was crowned 1986 Homecoming Queen. Kappas hold a three-year record for homecoming queens, with Jenny Wall receiving the honor in 1985 and Sharon Kapcos in 1984.

Katie Jensen

Katie Jensen, ΔT-Southern California, was voted by the university's student body as "Miss USC 1986."

Shelly Spence, ΔΔ-Miami University, captured the title of "Greek Goddess 1986." Voted on by members of the student body, the event was part of a philanthropy drive. Money collected was donated to the Kidney Fund.

Cheryl Sokolosky, EΔ-Arizona State, was crowned "Miss Phoenix Rising" by the mayor of Phoenix. She will also be a quest video jockey on the music video show "Hit City."

Heidi Kozak, ΔT-Southern California, has made appearances in two prime-time television series, "Silver Spoons" and "Growing Pains."

Sonia Hartunian, ΔO-Iowa State, was crowned Miss Iowa T.E.E.N.

Bonnie Weeks, ΔΔ-Monmouth, was crowned Homecoming Queen. She is active with Crimson Masque, the college's theatre, and has received two music scholarships.

Molly Bishop

Molly Bishop, Ω-Kansas, is currently a "Jayhawk" cheerleader for the University of Kansas.

Amy Lucs, Ω-Kansas, worked for Senate Majority Leader Robert Dole (R-Kansas) during the summer, 1986. As a Political Science and French major, Amy is active in the student senate and the university's honors program.

Kathy Pierce, ΓΔ-Kansas State, worked for a month with Senate Majority Leader Robert Dole (R-Kansas), doing research, answering the phone, and taking notes at hearings. A psychology major and a Kansas State cheerleader, Kathy described her summer as a "fantastic experience."

Caryn O'Brien, I-DePauw, served as an intern during her 1987 winter term with Congressman Harris W. Fawell (R-Illinois). Her duties included researching legislation, attending hearings and responding to constituent requests and concerns. On campus, Caryn is a member of the university's swim team.

The University of Wyoming "Cowboys"

The University of Wyoming "Cowboys" are cheered on by varsity cheerleaders Margaret Yovich, Sara Button and Karrie Holmes, all ΓO-Wyoming.

Lori McMickle

Jenny Obremsky

Jenny has been selected to intern with the United States Olympic Committee. Pictured on the right is Kerri Randel, Δ-Indiana, also a member of the Student Athletic Board.

Philanthropy

BΛ-Illinois, raised over $2,000 with its second annual mud volleyball tournament. Proceeds were donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

ΔΣ-Oklahoma State, paired with the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity to sell Slice soft drinks for Valentine's Day. Donations collected from its "Slice of Love" or "Slice of Friendship" benefitted the Rose McGill Fund.

EB-Colorado State raised over $1,500 for the Partners of Larimer County, an organization that matches troubled youths with adult volunteers, with its annual balloon derby. Ten percent of the money raised went to the Iris Foundation (Denver Alumnae Association) that provides scholarship assistance to undergraduate members in Kappa chapters in Colorado.

ΓE-Pittsburgh, and the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity PUSHed their way through local Pittsburgh neighborhoods with wheelchairs. Over $2,200 was contributed towards P.U.S.H. (Play Units for the Severely Handicapped) for Western Center in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania.

BT-Syracuse, sponsored five runners in the American Heart Association Heart Run, to benefit the Association. Sandy Daviduk, center, placed first in the three-mile division for women.

Panhellenic awarded EΨ-California-Santa Barbara, the "Outstanding Philanthropy Program" award for its philanthropic events during the year.

Journalism

Personal Profiles

These Kappa Doctors Minister to Children

DR. MARY LOUISE LYONS SCHOLL, BΓ-West Virginia, is one of the nation's foremost developmental pediatric neurologists. While Assistant Professor at Harvard Medical School for 22 years, she was among the first physicians to recognize that some learning disabilities must be treated medically and some neurologically.

She carried on her research while teaching at Harvard and its associated hospitals. Her pioneering work continues in San Diego where she is Associate Clinical Professor of Encephalography (EEG) to resident physicians at the University of California Medical Center. This facility is known for its trauma, burn and cancer centers. It also houses the Magnetic Resonant Imager necessary for Dr. Scholl's studies of the brain.

A consultant to both the California Department of Rehabilitation and the American Cancer Society's School Intervention Program for Children with Cancer, Dr. Scholl is on the Medical Advisory Board of the San Diego Health Department. She has licenses to practice in six states. Her suite of offices is shared with Dr. John Scholl, her husband, who is a brain surgeon currently serving as Senior Aviation Examiner for pilots living in San Diego County.

This Kappa doctor is uniquely able to help her patients because, as a child, she was dyslexic herself. Still, she majored in chemistry at West Virginia University expecting to be an industrial chemist. But her favorite professor advised her to change direction since there were no advancement opportunities for women chemists at that time. She was accepted at the University of Maryland Medical School where she graduated four years later.

Dr. Scholl worked at Pittsburgh's eight hospitals and Columbus Children's Hospital before becoming an instructor in pediatrics at The Ohio State University. Her growing interest in neurology took her to Massachusetts General Hospital as a research fellow in that field and subsequently led her to Harvard.

DR. JANIS BUTLER BALSIGER, ΔO-Iowa State, is becoming known in far North Dallas not only for her dentistry skills but also for her friend, "Willie the Wisdom Tooth". Willie accompanies Jan on her visits to schools and health fairs to present programs on dental health awareness.

Jan Butler Balsiger

Jan is a former journalist and junior high school teacher with bachelor's degrees from the University of Minnesota and Iowa State University. Her Doctor of Dental Surgery degree is from the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry. There she also received an award from the American Society of Dentistry for Children for outstanding ability and achievement in pedodontics.

Dr. Jan spends one day a week volunteering at her children's schools as a parent-nurse. She is also a volunteer dentist for the Dallas Dental Health Program that provides low-income families with dental care.

Last September, Jan spent three weeks in China conducting seminars on periodontal disease. She was part of a group of dentists who went to China at the request of the Chinese Association for Science and Technology to lecture in five different cities at medical and dental schools associated with colleges and universities. Jan's topic related to the use of stannous-fluoride in the treatment of periodontal disease.

Before moving to Dallas in 1982, Jan had a dental practice in the Minneapolis suburb of Edine. Her husband is a hotel developer. They have two children. Jan is a member of the Richardson-Plano Alumnae Association.

Woman Entrepreneur of the Year

GWEN DYER KAPLAN, BM-Colorado, Principal and President of Ace Mailing and Data Processing, has been named Woman Entrepreneur of the Year by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Diane Feinstein presented the award at the St. Francis Hotel at a special breakfast meeting that attracted over 900 people. Gwen was singled out for special recognition for her work in community and job development.

A former social worker, Gwen works closely with the Arriba Juntos Center, a community agency that trains economically disadvantaged residents of the city's Mission district.

Along with her membership in the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, Gwen also serves on the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Professional Womens Network and is one of the founders and current vice president of Direct Net, an organization for women in the direct response business.

Member Honored by State for Child Advocacy Work

Georgianna Roberts

Georgianna "Gann" Timmons Roberts, BN-Ohio, immediate past president of The Ohio Association for the Education of Young Children, has been selected as its recipient for OUTSTANDING EARLY CHILDHOOD PERSON IN OHIO. This was awarded by the group's 2,000 members for the extraordinary leadership Gann has shown. In particular, Gann was the inspirational and organizational force behind the successful passage of Ohio House Bill 435, the Day Care Licensing Law. Her grassroots organizing abilities trained novices in lobbying techniques, overseeing the coordination of statewide efforts, and extensive media contacts. In addition to working for safer environments for Ohio children, Gann has been visible and vocal on the national level as an advocate for improved child care worker conditions.

One Kappa Pilots 747's

Cessna's first woman test pilot, PAMELA MITCHELL STEPHENS, ΔE-Rollins, is now a 747 pilot for Northwest Orient Airlines. Out of 2400 pilots for the airline, only 20 are women, and Pam is the only woman trained in 747s.

When an article about Pam Mitchell appeared in the Summer 1983 issue of The Key, she was not married. In the article, she mentioned the highlight of her life had been flying in Blue Angel #7, one of the Navy's "Blue Angels" precision flying team jets. Pam is now married to the Blue Angel who took her for that ride, CDR Bob Stephens.

Pam flies about half of every month which means that the couple is together only about six months of the year. She flies the 747-routes to Copenhagen, Frankfurt, London, Oslo, Stockholm and Japan. In Japan, where there are few Japanese women pilots, they call her "Missy Captain."

The 14-hour trip from New York to Japan takes Pam 39,000 feet over Canada, central Alaska and the Aleutian Islands. In Pam's job as Second officer, she is responsible for flight engineering and navigation. On a typical flight day, she calls two hours before take off to confirm. One hour later, she checks in with Operations, which is usually located beneath the passenger levels in airports. Pam reviews the flight information files and checks on the weather and airport conditions. She does an exterior walk around the aircraft to check tires, lights, security of electrical compartments and other visuals.

Pamela Stephens

Inside the pilot's cabin, she does a cockpit preflight inspection, goes through a "takeoff checklist" and sets the throttles for take-off power. Twice an hour she takes a fuel score, and she does navigation fixes using ground-based instruments hourly. Pam constantly monitors the radio to Northwest Flight Dispatch to get coordinates of turbulence (caused by sudden increase or decrease in wind which accounts for that "elevator ride" sensation sometimes experienced during flight). When preparing for the landing, which is done manually as is take-off, she checks off another list.

Before joining Northwest Orient, Pam was a 727 pilot for Republic Airlines. Currently she is the Airline Pilots Association's only female spokesperson and is lobbying to make the installation of airline crash avoidance systems mandatory. She is also a First Lieutenant in the Air National Guard, inactive status.

Pam has flown over 4500 hours, 1100 of them in jets. Husband Bob, a Navy pilot, has logged 3600 hours, almost all in jets. Pam's brother is an Air Force pilot stationed in Dover, Delaware. They are certainly an airborne family — one that encourages all Kappas to learn how to fly.

Designing Women

KAY MILLER FORD, ΔΓ-Michigan State, and her partner Alma Miller (who also happens to be her mother) are partners in Miller & Miller, a business they formed to design fashions for nurses. Having spent 12 years as a professional nurse, Kay wants "to help enhance the image of nurses at a time when nursing morale and its attraction as a profession are at an all-time low."

The clothing line, which has expanded from three designs to 31, is made in Hamtramck, Michigan.

Kappa Plants a Garden Legacy

RUTH TIMBERLAKE TRENT, Θ-Missouri, has been planting a garden legacy for her Medford Leas retirement complex in Medford, New Jersey, since she moved in 10 years ago. Now 93 years old, Ruth has transformed a huge mound of earth displaced during the building of new residential and medical facilities into a 220-foot long flowering oasis known locally as "Trent Hill."

Within view of Ruth's ground-floor window, the mound is located conveniently adjacent to the large 40-foot long community greenhouse. She interested so many residents in gardening, there is a waiting list of those who want to be greenhouse members.

Ruth Trent grew up in Vancouver, British Columbia, and was always attracted to gardens as a place of accomplishment and quiet. When she married a doctor working for the Veteran's Administration. She moved frequently because of his job. But wherever they lived, Ruth always had a small garden. She became a National Accredited Flower Show Judge for The Federated Garden Clubs of America, and is a member and emeritus judge of the American Rose Society.

Ruth has given Kappa two legacies: a daughter, MARGARET TRENT BREWER, BX-Kentucky, who is active in the Hilton Head Kappa Alumnae; and a granddaughter VIRGINIA ROGERS MARTY, ΓΩ-Denison. Through her gardening skills, Ruth Trent has also created a legacy of the beautiful and the good.

A Dulcimer Personality

MITZIE COLLINS, ΓΦ-SMU, was trained in classical music on the piano but she has chosen the dulcimer as her hallmark. She and her husband, Tom Bohrer, run a recording company, Sampler Records, out of their home. They have recently produced two records of Christmas music: "Ornaments" and "Nowell." Her first three albums are: "A Sampler of Folk Music," "The Leaves of Life," and "Sounds Like Fun" — also the name of her 10-year children's music program on WXXI-FM.

Mitzie Collins

Mitzie came from her native Dallas to Rochester as a piano major at the Eastman School of Music and graduated in 1963. She has worked as a church organist and has taught courses in church music at Colgate Rochester Divinity School. Husband Tom teaches physics using sign language at the National Technical Institute for the Deaf.

Their son Patty has cerebral palsy and Mitzie's 23-year old daughter Mary Ellen has Down's Syndrome. Their extended family also includes Tom's two sons and a daughter from an earlier marriage, plus the second daughter of Mitzie.

"With two kids with two different kinds of handicaps, I've learned a lot about handicaps. One of the things you learn when you work with handicapped people is the potential that people have — and your own potential. You learn what's essential about people and about music," explains Mitzie.

What Mitzie has learned from the handicapped she has returned in a variety of ongoing performances and programs with and for the handicapped in the upstate New York region. In 1985, she received the United Way's prestigious service award.

Teacher Starts Her Own School

SUSAN STOWERS ROLFE, EA-TCU, stopped teaching junior high in Richardson, Texas, to start her own school. Her "Learning Unlimited," a popular study skills and test preparation service, filled its 200-student capacity its first summer of operation.

The eleven-year veteran of teaching has also completed "Learning How to Learn," a 170-page handbook for junior high and high school students who, for various reasons, have not been making good grades. The handbook, co-authored with her partner Nancy Benzon, has subsequently been adopted by the Dallas Independent School District and several others.

PATSY SMITH, ΓH-Washington State, and NANCY ANDERSON, BH<sup>Δ</sup>-Stanford, reached the final match of a national women's amateur doubles tennis tournament played in Hilton Head, South Carolina. Both athletes live in Seattle where Nancy is the daughter of Patsy's best friend.

SUSAN HICKS GODISH, BT-West Virginia, won the $500 first prize in the "Share Your Secret Recipe" contest held by Kraft. Susan created her

"Seafood Pasta Salad" specifically for entry in the contest. A sixth grade teacher at Warwood Grade School in Wheeling, West Virginia, she was also selected by the Ohio Valley Jaycees as Outstanding Young Educator in 1986, and she subsequently was awarded the state title.

SALLY HUNTER HOPPER, ΓO-Wyoming, has been elected to her first four-year term as Colorado State Senator. The district of this Republican from

Sally Hopper

Golden includes portions of seven counties between Denver and Aspen. Sally is a member of the State Affairs and Transportation committees and is vice-chairman of Education.

Only two weeks after she had announced her candidacy, her husband was diagnosed as terminally ill. At his insistence, she continued her campaign and was elected two and one-half months after his death.

KATE JACKSON, ΔP-Mississippi, is most recently recognized as "Amanda King" on the CBS-TV series, "Scarecrow and Mrs. King." "The Scarecrow," played by actor Bruce Boxleitner, became her husband in the show this season. In a previous series on television, Kate was one of "Charlie's Angels" and portrayed the nurse on "The Rookies."

This Kappa actress has appeared in numerous television productions since her graduation in 1970 from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York. In 1976, she won the Golden Apple Award as female newcomer of the year in the Hollywood Women's Press Club annual ceremonies. Kate is the daughter of Ruth Shepherd Jackson, ΓTI-Alabama.

HELEN HARWOOD, BB<sup>Δ</sup>-St. Lawrence, has received St. Lawrence University's Outstanding Alumni Award. She has been a resident of Sarasota, Florida, since 1968, and was honored for her long-time community service including "The Players," a little theatre group.

Actress BARBARA JOAN STOCK, Δ-Indiana, was the leading lady in a two-part "Murder She Wrote" episode on CBS-TV. She played Robert Ulrich's girlfriend, "Susan Silverman," on the ABC-TV series "Spenser: For Hire."

Barbara Stock

Barbara recently completed filming a movie in Birmingham, Alabama, titled "Verne Miller" in which she stars opposite Scott Glenn. She lives in Sherman Oaks, California.

Carol Hoffman

CAROL CULBERTSON HOFFMAN, Δ-Indiana, has received the Albuquerque Distinguished Teacher of the Year Award — an honor given by The Albuquerque Tribune in recognition of exceptional teachers in the city's public schools.

JANE SPENCER SMITH, ΓΚ-William and Mary, and her husband, Willard Sanders "Bill" Smith, became the first husband-wife team to receive the William and Mary Alumni Medallion conferred for service and loyalty to the college. Among other activities, they organized the annual Sandy Kelly Alumni Tennis Tournament held at Homecoming each year. The Smiths reside in Richmond where Bill is associate publisher and editor of that city's edition of Travelhost magazine. Jane works for the magazine as associate publisher/sales service. Three of the Smiths four children have attended William and Mary.

MARILYN McDONALD ERICKSON, Δ-Indiana, has been chosen by the Dayton Professional Chapter of Women in Communications to be the first recipient of the Dayton Vanguard Award. The award is given for excellence in the field of communications and for involvement in the community. During Marilyn's tenure as vice-president for development at Children's Medical Center, the hospital raised more than $15 million. She has been the first and only woman president of the board of trustees of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra Association and the first woman elected to the board of governors of the Dayton Racquet Club. Marilyn is a member of the Dayton Alumnae Association.

Barbara Thornhill

BARBARA COLE THORNHILL, ΓΚ-William and Mary, has been made director of HJV Direct, the commercial division of the Richmond-based direct response marketing agency, Hunt-singer, Jeffer, Van Growsbeck, Inc. Previously, Barbara managed the successful launch of "The Platinum Card" for American Express.

DONNA deVARONA, ΓΞ-UCLA, two-time Olympic gold medalist and ABC-TV sports commentator, has written a new book, Hydro-Aerobics — Swim your way to total fitness. At 13, Donna was the youngest member of the U.S. swim team at the 1960 Summer Olympics in Rome. She set eighteen world records en route to the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, where she won her two gold medals (see THE KEY, Spring 1979).

Mary Phipps

MARY CLAIR ASCHENBRENER PHIPPS, H-Wisconsin, took the top awards at the State Fair of Texas Heritage Recipe Contest. Her "Chuck Wagon Pepper Steak" won first place in the Chuckwagon category and went on to win Best of Show over the 200 entries in the Dallas contest, which was co-sponsored by The Dallas Morning News, Southwest Airlines and Hilton Hotels.

LIZ HEALY MEYERS, Θ-Missouri, has made two appearances on ABC-TV's "Good Morning America" this year. As an account supervisor at Edelman Public Relations in Chicago, she was invited on the show for a segment regarding pregnant women in the work force. At that time, Liz was six months pregnant. In February, the show invited her back with her new son John Francis, who at three months, was the youngest guest ever on "Good Morning America."

Kerrie Murray

KERRIE QUINN MURRAY, BK-Idaho, has been elected to the American Red Cross National Board of Governors. One of 50 such governors, she is the only one selected for the state of Idaho. Kerrie, a Red Cross volunteer for the past 15 years, has served as chapter Chairman as well as other board positions. She is a past president of the Boise Kappa Alumnae Association and is employed by Idaho First National Bank where she was recently promoted to vice president of commercial real estate loans.

Tausca Schillaci

TAUSCA SCHILLACI,  $\Gamma\Delta$ -Kansas State, has been named Advertising Professional of the Year for 1986-87 by the Denver Advertising Federation.

ELIZABETH MITCHELL DAY,  $\Gamma\kappa$ -William and Mary, is Associate Headmistress of Woodward Academy in College Park, Georgia, the largest independent school for grades pre-kindergarten through high school in the continental United States. Liz serves as secretary of the House Board of Epsilon Epsilon chapter at Emory University.

Her daughter, ANN ELIZABETH DAY, an Emory Kappa who graduated in 1986, currently attends the University of Pennsylvania as a Fels Scholar, Fels Center of Government. Ann was student government president and Kappa house manager at Emory.

Super Volunteers

CAROLINE COLE TOLLE,  $\Delta\Delta$ -Miami University, is the first full-time paid director of the Volunteer Center of Sarasota. The Center places its more than 1400 volunteers with at least 100 nonprofit organizations, health care facilities, county agencies and schools.

"What is perhaps unique about our operation is that our concern is the volunteer," Caroline emphasizes. "We want to help the community, but our object is to find the right spot for the individual. The by-product is that agencies have the benefit of a corps of qualified volunteers." About 35 percent of the volunteers are men — some of whom admit that their wives were going crazy with a retired husband hanging around the house all the time.

The Sarasota Kappa alumnae funded a publication that Caroline developed to provide a "Wish List" of supplies and equipment needed by the agencies served by the Volunteer Center. The booklet enables corporations, clubs and individuals to know exactly what is needed, and donations are directed by the Center to the proper recipient.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Caroline earned her degree in special education. Before moving to Sarasota, her particular pride came from researching and developing a public park for the handicapped in Toledo. Kappas know her as an active  $\text{KK}\Gamma$  volunteer and officer, having served as Director of Personnel (1976-1980), Director of Field Representatives (1980-1984) and a leader in numerous other Kappa roles.

CYNTHIA ANNE KITE HUDGINS,  $\text{B}\Theta$ -Oklahoma, is one of the most visible leaders of both the Dallas Symphony Orchestra League and the Dallas County Medical Society Auxiliary. President-elect of the symphony league for 1986-87, Cynthia created the annual Perrier Symphony 10K Run. And during her year as Season Ticket Sales Chairman, she doubled the previous year's sales. She was also chairman of the symphony's Designer Showhouse in 1984-85, when it doubled its net income and attendance from the previous year.

During her tenure as president of the Dallas County Medical Society Auxiliary, Cynthia and the organization won a record-breaking nine Gold awards and 14 Silver awards — the largest number won by a single auxiliary in the state of Texas. Cynthia is also involved with the Dallas Kappa alumnae and was a member of the most recent Christmas house tour committee.

DORIS HAMES PONITZ,  $\Delta\Gamma$ -Michigan State, received the Citizen Legion of Honor Award for her long-standing Dayton community involvement. Her list of involvement includes being vice-president/president-elect of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra Association, president of the Buckeye Trails Girl Scout Council, and trustee of the Mortar Board National and WPTD-TV Channel 16. Doris is also co-chairman of the United Way Individual Pace-setters national consultant for the American Symphony Orchestra League.

In accepting her award, which included a proclamation from Senator Charles Horn, Doris said, "Voluntarism is an important part of any community, and I think the recognition of a full-time volunteer for this award is significant. Community involvement has enriched me and educated me. Every time I have said 'yes' to an organization or a cause, it has taught me new things." Doris is a resident of Dayton, Ohio.

A Million Dollar Gift

MARIE THOMPSON IRWIN,  $\text{A}\Delta$ -Monmouth, and her husband Richard D. Irwin of Flossmoor, Illinois, have given a \$1.9 million community center and park to the Homewood-Flossmoor Park District. The building is named the Marie Irwin Center and contains 11 rooms encompassing 13,000 square feet for activities. It is situated in the

Marie Irwin

Richard D. Irwin Park, which is landscaped and furnished with play equipment, ball fields and a band shell.

The community center was once an unused lot with an empty decaying school building. It attracted the attention of the Irwins since it was across the street from the Irwin Publishing Company.

The Chicago South Suburban Kappa Alumnae Group honored Marie at their Founders' Day Luncheon, which was held at the center, and she treated them to a tour of the facilities. In the words of one member, "Marie Irwin is a Kappa who has made a difference in her community."

KAPPAS RAISE THOUSANDS FOR PHILANTHROPIES

The grand dame of Christmas house tours, the HOUSTON ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION'S Kappa Christmas Pilgrimage, held the first Pilgrimage in 1931. It lasted one day, and raised approximately $400. With one interruption during World War II, the tour has been held biannually, and last year, 500 of the 657 paid members participated in some way.

Despite Houston's depressed economy, the 1986 Pilgrimage was incredibly successful in its newly revised form. In addition to the handmade decorations available for sale to the public, outstanding Houston florists and the Williamsburg Foundation were asked to decorate six members' homes for the three-day tour. Underwriters were solicited and advertising space was sold for the elegant program given to each ticket buyer.

Mrs. William E. Matthews, Past President; Mrs. Tom Dunscombe, General Chairman; Mrs. Frederick McCann, President; Mrs. James R. Clark, Jr., Advisor; Mrs. D. Keith Dobson, General Chairman.

A portion of this year's Pilgrimage proceeds went to the Rose McGill Fund, the Heritage Museum and Kappa scholarships. Sheltering Arms received the money needed to establish a Day Treatment Center for Alzheimer's Disease Victims, and the Houston Child Guidance Center received funds to provide a group therapy room. The Institute for Rehabilitation and Research in the Texas Medical Center was given money for special research into possible adaptations for patients suffering from rheumatoid arthritis.

In addition to the monetary donations, the Houston Kappas have committed themselves to becoming more involved with the recipient agencies. Kappas gave a Valentine's Day party for the children being treated at the guidance center, and many members are doing volunteer work at the agencies.

Another blockbuster home tour is the KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION'S annual Holiday House Tour, which began in 1951. The December 1986 tour included five homes plus a "Gourmet Kitchen" and two Christmas shops. Most of the gourmet items are made by Kappas and sold by consignment in the shops.

The tour continues its original intent: to display and decorate homes in ways that can be enjoyed and reproduced by the touring public. The house decorations are then given to the homeowners.

Pre-school for the Deaf
Kansas University Medical Club

The two main beneficiaries of the 1986 tour were the Preschool for the Deaf at Kansas University Medical Center (which has been supported by the Kappas since the 1951 tour) and the Rose Brooks Center, a shelter and service for battered women. The Kansas City Kappas also assist in Kappa rehabilitation scholarships and philanthropies.

Some fund-raising ideas from other associations:

AUSTIN ALUMNAE annually holds a Kappa Kaladium Gathering at which they sell caladium bulbs. This year's sale doubled profits from last year.

SPOKANE ALUMNAE had a YMCA Swim-a-Long Luncheon that raised $500 for the Handicapped Swim Program this year.

SAN ANTONIO ALUMNAE and their sixty husbands or dates attended the association's silent auction one Friday night at the home of RUTH DU BOSE KENDRICK, BΞ-Texas. One Kappa attending the event, which benefited local charities, was JANE SEIZER BOLDRICK, also BΞ, an early president of the San Antonio group.

A silent auction was held on Founders' Day by the PORTLAND

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION. Kappas came from southern Oregon as well as Washington to attend. More than $200 was raised for the two nearby active chapters: BΩ-Oregon and ΓM-Oregon State.

PORTLAND OREGON ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION October 14, 1986, Founders' Day Luncheon Silent Auction

In another fund raiser, Kappa Wrap-Up netted thousands of dollars to benefit the Rehabilitation Institute of Oregon and college scholarships. This project involves selling gift wrapping paper.

Cooking corn chowder

The first Monmouth County Fair was held jointly by the STILLWATER (Oklahoma) KAPPA ALUMNAE and the Pi Beta Phi alumnae. The events included selling Kappa wrapping paper along with crafts and antiques. A lovely lunch of corn chowder, salad, croissants and homemade desserts was served on tables decorated with a fall country fair theme.

Local women's shops provided an informal fashion show using Oklahoma State University actives and local alumnae as models. Approximately 250 guests attended and the Kappa alumnae netted almost $1300, which will be used to help support a scholarship for a Delta Sigma (Oklahoma State) active.

The TULSA ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION sponsored its third annual Cook's Tour '86 with proceeds earmarked for Parents Anonymous and other charities. Tickets were sold at $15 for either of two teaching sessions conducted by cookbook authors and cooking school teachers using recipes from some of Tulsa's better-known cooks.

In a related activity, the association has a Serve Our Sisters program in which home-baked foods are delivered to Kappas undergoing difficult times.

GARAGE SALE — Cystic Fibrosis

A garage sale benefiting Cystic Fibrosis was held by the SAN DIEGO KAPPA ALUMNAE. It raised $500 for the organization. This year marks the 60th birthday of the alumnae association.

La Jolla and San Dieguito

A fashion show and tea was a fund raiser given jointly by California's La Jolla and San Dieguito Associations. Zeta Nu chapter at California-San Diego is the main recipient of the proceeds. Other philanthropies are La Jolla's The Home of Guiding Hands and San Dieguito's Casa de Amparo. Pictured are model LYNN DUNAHOO WHEELER, ΔT-USC, talking with FRANCES JONES FLORES, Σ-Nebraska, (wearing hat).

A one-day only Yard Sale held by the ARCADIA (California) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION was an overwhelming success. This small association of under 50 members raised over $1000. Pictured

New Kappa Alumnae Groups

The HILTON HEAD ALUMNAE CLUB was chartered March 15, 1985, due mainly to the work of LOUISE HEN-NEMUTH SCHUTT, ΒΤ-Syracuse, who found no existing Kappa club when she moved to the island. Through correspondence with Kappa headquarters and joining forces with nearby Kappas, the new alumnae club already has 52 dues-paying members.

The group wants to pass on the things it learned while trying to organize:

- 1.) the tremendous value of Kappa's galley sheets;
- 2.) the tried and true response to meeting in members' homes;
- 3.) the success of couples and singles parties and picnics; and
- 4.) the joy of making Kappa friendships in a new community.

In April 1986, the WINTER GARDEN ALUMNAE CLUB of south Texas and the Texas hill country was chartered. One of their initial activities was to present their first 50-year pin to Del Rio resident MARY IRENE TAYLOR, ΓΦ-SMU. Club president DONNA DEL-LINGER KETCHBAW, ΔΨ-Texas Tech invites any Kappas who live in or around the Uvalde, Texas, area to contact her at P.O. Box 1630, ZIP 78802.

Plaudits and Plaques

The National Kidney Foundation gave Kappa one of its 1986 Distinguished Service Awards for its support of Ohio's Kidney Camp, which is fondly called Kappa Kidney Kamp. Alumnae Editor CiCi Williamson, ΓΨ-Maryland, was asked to receive the award for the Fraternity.

Since 1983, the COLUMBUS ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION has been providing scholarship funds for needy youth and adults within central Ohio. In 1985, the group brought the idea of statewide support of the camp to Gamma Province, and in 1986, chapters and alumnae across the state of Ohio began to help. This year, about $5000 has been donated to the 1987 All-Ohio Kappa Kidney Kamp by Gamma Province.

Active-Alumnae Cameraderie

FORT WORTH ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION undertook a special project this year to create initiation gifts for its local chapter, Epsilon Alpha-TCU. The results were 49 cross-stitched pin cushions. The idea came from alumnae president SUSIE SINGLETON SILMAN, also EA. Alumnae members cross-stitched the key design, then stuffed and assembled them.

Making Pin Cushions

Gift Trunk

Painted by JULIE FISHER MCKINNEY,  $\Gamma\Delta$ -Purdue, this gift trunk was presented as an installation gift to our new Zeta Xi chapter at Yale by the NEW HAMPSHIRE ALUMNAE CLUB.

Shown wearing an antique gown at the Beta Mu Founders' Day celebration is pledge LISA SAN FILIPPO. She is

Members of the RICHARDSON-PLANO ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION made ten new initiation robes last year for Epsilon Upsilon chapter-Baylor. And this year, they are shown making ten robes for Epsilon Rho-Texas A&M. From

Other alumnae members decorated white pillowcases with eyelet lace and golden keys to be sent to new initiates so they can "dream of Kappa".

DONALDA MacDONALD SCHROEDER,  $\Gamma\Delta$ -North Dakota State, president of the GRAND FORKS ALUMNAE CLUB, received a group award for Kappa's support of recreational activities at the Medical Center Rehabilitation Hospital, Grand Forks, North Dakota. The award was presented by RAVE (Rehabilitative Action through Voluntary Effort), the hospital's volunteer auxiliary.

DEFERRED RUSH CHAPTERS 1987-88

Twenty five chapters are preparing for Deferred Rush which is held after the completion of the fall term. NOW IS THE TIME TO SEND REFERENCES FOR RUSHEES ATTENDING THESE SCHOOLS. If a reference is received now the actives have time to study the information, meet the rushee on campus, and (if permitted by Panhellenic) invite her to fall rush activities. Your introduction of the rushee via a reference will be most appreciated and beneficial!! Send your reference to the attention of: Chapter Reference Chairman, school address (listed in the directory of this issue).

Wrong Name? Wrong Address? Here's Why . . .

The Fraternity Directory is printed from information compiled at Fraternity Headquarters (PO Box 2079, Columbus, OH 43216) gathered from reports sent in by the chapters and alumnae groups.

If an error is made when filling out a report, unfortunately, that error may appear in print. Headquarters personnel must depend on the accuracy of people filing reports.

If you notice a change is not reflected in this Directory, please advise your group's corresponding secretary so she may report it to Headquarters.

Alumnae: if you change your name or address, please notify Headquarters and your chapter immediately. We spend approximately $1000/issue of The Key on forwarding magazines and returned postage due to incorrect addresses.

Please help us, help you, by sending Headquarters accurate and timely information.
