Editor's Letters

Dear Mrs Selby:

I saw in Spring 1980 number of The Key the picture of the four Gordon sisters who are all members of the same Kappa chapter. I accept the challenge to prove they are not a first.

The four Chaplin sisters of St. Louis are members of Γ chapter at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo. I (Elise) was initiated in 1924, Harriet Uwe in 1926, Alice in 1929, and Susan in 1932. I think I have these dates approximately correct.

Because of illness Susan started at the university as a part time student and could not pledge. A girl in her class liked her and recommended her to Delta Gamma to rush. When the $\Delta\Gamma$'s heard who she was, they said, "No chance. The Chaplins all pledge Kappa."

Harriet Uwe is now Mrs. H. S. Price of Albany, N.Y., Alice is Mrs. John F. Langenberg, St. Louis, and Susan is Mrs. William P. Yeoman of Waukegan, Ill.

I hope you will turn up other four-sister groups. Perhaps a five or more group.

Loyally,

Elise Chaplin Countryman

To Whom it may concern:

I would like 2 copies of the winter publication of The Key. I have enclosed $3.00 in check form. (The cover has Tade Hartsuff on it.)

I would like to tell you how much I enjoy getting The Key, every time I get the magazine I sit down and read it for hours. The information is so helpful to me, not only in Kappa Kappa Gamma matters but it applies in my every day life.

But the biggest thrill for me had to be when my name appeared in this issue of the magazine. My mother, sister and grandmother (all being Kappas) were so excited to see their flesh and blood's picture in their favorite magazine also. We all can't wait for the next issue of The Key. I have a lot of friends in other Greek Organizations and I am so proud of my sorority's national magazine.

Keep up the good work.

Thank you again for the privilege to appear in the best magazine ever!

Loyally,

M. Carolyn Mcfarland

Dear Editor:

A big thank you from the American Cancer Society to your chapter at the University of Alabama. Last fall, these girls conducted a very creative and profitable fund-raising event to benefit the Society.

It was the "Balloon Derby for Cancer", conducted for the second consecutive year in conjunction with homecoming.

All through homecoming week the Kappas sold balloons for a 50¢ contribution to the American Cancer Society. Each individual who purchased one had his name written on a ticket attached to a helium-filled balloon. The ticket also explained the event and asked the finder to return it to the Kappas at Alabama.

On the day of the game, during half-time, the girls walked out on the field of Bryant-Denney Stadium and released 2500 balloons as the homecoming queen was crowned. What a beautiful sight!

Needless to say, they made a generous donation to the American Cancer Society, while they generated a wealth of good will and brought to the attention of thousands of Alabama football fans the many worthwhile civic contributions made by members of Greek community.

Incidentally, a University student won the $50.00 prize. His balloon was returned to Kappa Kappa Gamma from Virginia.

We know you are very proud of these girls. They are terrific. Susan B. Swindle Area Director Alabama Division, Inc. American Cancer Society

DePauw News Bureau Release: Commencement will not necessarily be a time for rejoicing for Najmeh Sadri who is a senior at DePauw University.

Naj will graduate from DePauw May 18 with a major in art, but she faces the day knowing her anxious parents will not be granted visas to come from Tehran to see their only child awarded a college degree.

What troubles her more is the knowledge that by May 31 she apparently must return to Iran, ending for now her plans to continue study in America for a career in interior design.

"According to the order I have now I have to leave by the end of May," the four-year DePauw student said this week. "I am trying to get political asylum. I guess I need an immigration lawyer. It is a long and not very easy process, I guess. A lot of people are asking political asylum — the Cubans and everyone — so I am not the only one."

Naj's parents are now jobless in Tehran. Her father's wine-making business was appropriated after the Iranian Revolution. Her mother res as director of the dental hygiene school at T University during the riots there.

"There is nothing for them to do at home. I can only take $2,000 out of the country. My parents are in their fifties and that's too old to leave and start all over."

Naj discussed her family's future with her friends by telephone this past weekend. It was a guarded conversation. "I was afraid people would be listening to us, so I spoke very fast in English," she said.

Because her parents will be unable to attend DePauw's commencement, several of Naj's student friends have agreed to take movies and slides of her graduation. Naj lives at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house and is a member of the chapter.

"Being An Alum"

Being a Kappa involves many things. Fun things joining any group brings. Going to parties, midnight snacks. There's nothing on earth the Kappa house lacks. Rush, South Pacific, and Kappa sings. All the confusion that rush week brings. People and noise, and chatter galore. Until you think you can't rise from the floor! Trying to convince the rushee that Kappa is best. That this is where the good "Owls" all nest! Rush meetings that last half the night, Where even some of the best sisters fight! Food and treats the other groups send, Helping many hard feelings to mend! Being a little sister and a big one too, Knowing someone is pulling for you. But above and beyond are the serious times, When "sisters" are wonderful people, one finds. When a helping hand and listening ear, Is just what is needed to save a tear. So many things you'll remember someday, That to you mean Kappa, now and away. But when your college days are through, You'll think that Kappa is over for you. When your college days are done, You'll learn as a Kappa you've just begun. What are some things Kappa will give, That will last you as long as you live? Friendship, broader horizons, to name a few, These will always be a part of you. Loyalty, poise, leadership, you'll see, Many fine qualities come with that little key! Things you won't realize right away, But all will come at a later day. Yes, "being a Kappa active" is fun, But it doesn't compare with "being an alum!"

ZA Installed At Babson College

by Joan Salsbury Berg
ΔM — Connecticut

On the morning of Saturday, February 16, Boston area Kappas woke to grey skies and snow-filled driveways. Until then, the winter of 1980 had virtually been snow-free in New England. Fifteen miles west of Boston, the town of Wellesley was blanketed in snow by the time all the Kappas arrived for the installation of Zeta Alpha Chapter at Babson College.

Babson is a small, independent co-ed college of management located on a wooded 450-acre campus, a few miles from Wellesley Square. The college was founded in 1919 by financier Roger W. Babson and enrolls 1330 full-time undergraduates and 1535 graduate students, of which one quarter are women.

The setting for the installation was the Wellesley Congregational Church, as steeped in history as the town of Wellesley itself, which will celebrate its centennial next year.

The church today is the fourth to stand on the present site. On June 23, 1774, nearly a year before the first battle of the Revolutionary War and the battles of Lexington and Concord, the first meeting house was begun, but, because of the war, not completed until 1798. In 1835, a second church was dedicated, its white steeple dominating Wellesley Square until 1871, when it was purchased by Mr. Charles Dana and moved to his property in Wellesley, where it later became the first building of the Dana Hall School for Girls. The third church, dedicated in 1872, was destroyed in a spectacular fire on December 30, 1916. Less than two years later, the Parish House of the present church was completed, and in 1923 the present church was dedicated.

Registration was held on Friday afternoon across the street from the church in the lobby of The Wellesley Inn, which once served as a boarding house for Wellesley College students in the early 1900's. Registration and hospitality was headed by Joan Gill Craig, BZ - Iowa. Helping her at Friday's registration was Anne Chapman Booth, BI - Swarthmore and Daisy Davenport Temby, Σ - Nebraska. Handling the finances was Joan Davis Dimond, ΔΔ - McGill.

The weekend activities started Friday evening with the Fireside Service being held in Wellesley Hills at the lovely home of Margaret Taylor Daggett, ΠΔ - U of California at Berkeley. After the quiet ritual of Fireside, Kappa alumnae gathered around the punch bowl and had an opportunity to become acquainted with the members of Zeta Alpha colony.

On Saturday morning, Kappas trudged through newly-fallen snow into the Parish House of the Wellesley Congregational Church for the Installation Service. Dinnie Texter Callahan, BM - Colorado, had driven from Headquarters in the blue and blue van, bringing with her all the necessary equipment to set the stage for a memorable ceremony. Assisting her were Ann Ritter Johnston, ΓN - Arkansas, Mary Lou Speery Kruse, ΔM - U-Conn, Connie Adler Engle, ΔA - Pennsylvania, Jane Terrell Berry, BBΔ - St. Lawrence, and Pam Price Botts, Θ - Missouri, who was in charge of properties. Leslie Zittel Jose, BBΔ - St. Lawrence, ably assisted by Jean White Lamb, BA - Michigan, had taken care of every last detail in the dressing rooms.

For Ann Johnston, Installation Chairman, and Mary Lou Kruse, Vice-chairman, the Service was the culmination of months of planning and work since the chapter's colonization last fall. They received support every step of the way from the members of the Boston Intercollegiate Alumnae Association, many of whom served on the Installation Committees.

The installing officers were Jean Hess Wells, ΔY - Georgia, Fraternity president, Sally Moore Nitschke, BN - Ohio State, director of Dartmouth. Serving as Pages were Barbara Laitner, BM - Colorado, field secretary; Jane Brock, $\Gamma\Delta$ - Purdue; Suzanne Morgan, BY - W. Virginia; and Carolyn Bodie, $E\Sigma$ - Virginia.

Sorely missed was Marjorie Matson Converse, $\Gamma\Delta$ - Purdue, extension chairman, who was recuperating from an accident and unable to make the trip to Boston. It was due to her continuing guidance of these 20 girls at Babson, that Zeta Alpha Chapter exists today.

Following the Installation Service, the new initiates and their Delta Nu Big Sisters, gathered in the church parlor for an informal lunch of sandwiches, chips and Coke. Giving Joan Crain a helping hand with lunch and Saturday registration was Susan Huston Lakin, ΔA - Penn State. After catching their breath, the Zeta Alphas conducted their first pledge ceremony for six super pledges - Corinne Collins, Kathryn Gilchrist, Stacey Holmes, Deborah Kory, Jennifer Spalt and Jane Stasikelis. It was an exciting moment for Dolores Paino, Zeta Alpha President, assisted by Carol Hasenfus, Pledge Chairman and Karen Myjak, Marshall.

With a snowblower keeping the church walkways clear, Kappas quickly reached their cars and attended a reception on the Babson College campus in contemporary Trim Hall. Fran Wilson Hartwell, ΔM - U-Conn, was in charge of this event which drew a crowd of alumnae, parents and friends, coming together to welcome Kappa Kappa Gamma to the Babson campus. Doing the honors at the punch bowl were Carolyn Bodie and Jane Brock.

As shadows fell on the snow-covered Babson campus, Kappas hurried back to their dorms and homes to get ready for the Installation Banquet, held at the popular Marriott Hotel in Newton. A lovely setting and delicious dinner was arranged by Banquet Chairman Joy Barron Babcock, Φ - Boston U, and her committee: Kathleen Raynor, $\Psi\Delta$ - Cornell; Edie Crouse Hawkridge, $\Gamma\Xi$ - UCLA; Jan Long Welty, ΔZ - Colorado College; Betsy Roberts Sands, $BB\Delta$ - St. Lawrence; Elinor Reynolds Hanley, $B\Phi$ - Montana; Jeanne Mills, $\Delta\Phi$ - Bucknell; Jane Brock; Ann Booth; and Daisy Temby.

Sally Nitschke got the evening off to a great start as Toastmistress, taking the place of Ruth Hohele Lane, Φ - Boston U, former director of chapters, who was unable to attend.

Coordinator of Student Activities at Babson College Mary Dunn, in welcoming the new chapter, offered them challenges: One was a challenge to be different - "To resist the pressure to follow old ways, to conform to the norm." "I would also challenge you to work toward actualizing the goals and ideals of your Kappa Chapter," she said. Then one hundred and forty glasses were raised as Alison Kenney, Delta Nu President gave a toast to Zeta Alpha Chapter.

Wilma Johnson read letters and telegrams of greetings from chapter and alumnae groups near and far.

The Installation address by Jean Wells carried an inspiring message to all the Kappas present; from those who had worn their key for just a few short hours, to those 50-year Kappas, Ann Booth, Betsy Sands, Daisy Temby and Kay Bailey Hoyt, BN - Ohio State. Kay Hoyt then presented Dolores Paino with the President's Key as a gift from Boston Intercollegiate Alumnae Association. Ann Johnston and Corinne Mann presented each new initiate with a small jewelry box, its cover finished in blue and blue needlepoint, individually monogrammed.

Patty Gesell presented the chapter with many lovely gifts, including a silver Paul Revere bowl from the Alpha Province alums, and silver candlesticks from two Connecticut alumnae groups - New Haven and Fairfield County. From Rho Province came award jewelry from Dartmouth, a handmade banner from U-Conn, and the U-Mass Big Sister Chapter passed along their gavel.

A most meaningful gift in the name of Beatrice Woodman, Φ - Boston U, was presented by Patty Gesell and Judy Preston as a Chapter Award in the form of a fleur-de-lis pin; to be given annually to that member of Zeta Alpha Chapter who best exemplifies the ideals of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity.

In keeping with tradition, the Banquet was closed with the Candlelight Ceremony, bringing an end to an exciting and memorable day for all Boston Kappas.

On Sunday morning, the new initiates of Zeta Alpha chapter reviewed the ritual and received the chapter archives as Jean Wells and Sally Nitschke conducted the Model Chapter Meeting. And a tinge of excitement from the previous day was felt by all present as Dolores Paino, ZA - President, conducted the last part of the meeting. It was hard to believe that these girls' dream for a new Kappa chapter at Babson had in fact come true.

Lafayette College Local Becomes ZB

Lafayette College was founded in Easton, Pennsylvania, just one mile west of the New Jersey border in 1826. The college was named to honor the Marquis de Lafayette for his contributions during the Revolutionary War and has a long and proud history as an outstanding liberal arts college for men. Women were first admitted in 1970 and in the current academic year comprised 43% of the total enrollment.

A long tradition as a Greek campus makes Lafayette a fine place for the establishment of Zeta Beta Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma. There are 17 national men's groups dating from Beta Theta Pi established in 1855 and including the Alpha Chapter of Phi Delta Theta. With the increase in women's enrollment, the women approached the administration with the idea of national groups for women. Locals were formed and required to wait two years before seeking national affiliation to assure the continued interest of Lafayette women. The probationary period having been completed by three of the five groups, national fraternities were invited to make formal presentations to the three eligible groups.

Kappa is proud to have been preferenced by Gamma Tau Delta, an outstanding group of young women who exemplified the highest standards, scholarship and campus leadership. Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Kappa join Kappa on the Lafayette campus.

Zeta Beta Chapter was installed on April 26, 1980 after being formally pledged February 24th. Installing officers included

Jean Hess Wells, ΔY - Georgia, president; Gay Chuba Barry, ΔA - Penn State, director of alumnae and Lisa Schmidt, $B\Theta$ - Oklahoma, graduate counselor for Dickinson. The Lehigh Valley alumnae were most enthusiastic in arranging the use of College Hill Presbyterian Church for the installation, Hogg Hall for the reception and Marquis Hall for the banquet. Sue Peterson Fream, BT - Syracuse, served as toastmistress for the delicious prime rib banquet and Dean Alice Sivulick, Panhellenic adviser, welcomed Kappa to the Lafayette campus. Shirley Mertz Arther, ΓP - Allegheny, PDC ; and Barbara Cranston Granat, $\Delta \Gamma$ - Michigan State, PDA helped with the installation. The lovely fireside ceremony was held at the home of Mary Kathryn Cannon Fox, I - DePauw. She is the pledge daughter of former Fraternity president Frances Fatout Alexander, and her father-in-law was chairman of the Board of Lafayette College. Alumnae from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware all attended this historic event.

Since there is no graduate school at Lafayette, Kappa was fortunate in having Virginia Logan, ΔN - Massachusetts, on campus as an "undergraduate counselor". The chapter is filled with 60 outstanding girls. Captain and five of the Lafayette cheerleaders are all Kappas — Veronica DeBeradine, Meline DelRio, Nancy Gifford (capt.), Sue Miller and Jane Williams. Nancy Pretzfelder holds six swimming records for the school and Sue Cassin (one of the founders of Gamma Tau Delta) is a Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Epsilon (economics honorary) and won the John H. Allen award in economics. There are 20 Kappas on the Dean's List, ten in Maroon Key Society (academic honorary), Stacey Gladstone is student government secretary, and Karen Larson is secretary of Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary. Marie Whelan is the Panhellenic president and many of the girls are in sports and study abroad.

Three award keys were presented at the banquet. The president's badge (all garnets in honor of the school colors) was presented by the Lehigh Valley Club to Linda Grebe. Margaret (Peg) Raymond Shuttleworth, $\Gamma\Lambda$ - Middlebury, presented an opal badge to be worn by the Kappa (other than the president) who by her actions and deeds best exemplifies the ideals of KKT. Jacqui Castelnan, chapter treasurer, was the recipient of the Shuttleworth Key. The diamond and sapphire badge of Naomi Burnstan, Y - Northwestern, was given by her son in her honor (her husband attended Lafayette) to be used as a scholarship key. Maureen Forrester with a 3.8 accum was the recipient. Naomi lived in Princeton, New Jersey prior to her death.

Many gifts were presented to the new chapter including a Bible, silver bowl, popcorn popper, stained glass decoration, tray, owl print, trivet and candlesticks. But perhaps the best gift of all was the beautiful quilt and the fact the Beta Province now boasts seven chapters with Zeta Beta completing the roll.

Fraternity officers at installation included: Shirley Mertz Arthur, $\Gamma\Phi$ - Allegheny, PCD; Barbara Cranston Granat, $\Delta\Gamma$ - Michigan State, PDA; Gay Chuba Barry, $\Delta\Lambda$ - Penn State, director of alumnae; and Jean Hess Wells, ΔY - Georgia, Fraternity president.

ZΔ Colonizes at the University of Vermont

by Sally Leach Peterjohn
BM - Colorado

On March 21-23, Zeta Delta Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was colonized at the historic and beautiful University of Vermont in Burlington, Vermont. This colonization was held on the University's 224-acre campus, spread out along a ridge overlooking the city of Burlington and Lake Champlain. The campus includes over 30 architecturally distinctive buildings, including the largest library in the state. These buildings are clustered around several large and sprawling campus greens. Just a short distance away are the valleys, mountains, and rural countryside revealing the varied aspects of Vermont life.

The city of Burlington, located downhill toward the lake from campus, is a vital and historic New England city. Just a short distance from campus, the city offers interesting shops, restaurants, and many other entertainments. Since the campus separates the rural countryside from the city down the hill, students can enjoy the best of both environments.

Following only 4 other Ivy League institutions (Harvard, Yale, Brown, and Dartmouth) the University of Vermont (UVM) offers a choice of over 100 majors from its collection of colleges and schools. Half the students come from Vermont, while another quarter come from other New England states. These students choose UVM because of its superior academic reputation and because of Vermont's varied and beautiful environment. UVM tends to attract students who are involved and active, so there are over 70 different student organizations on campus. Five other sororities and 15 fraternities are associated with UVM and are close to the academic center of campus.

Due to a strong and rapidly expanding Greek system, the Panhellenic was well prepared to welcome a new sorority to UVM. After the initial contact with the University, advance planning and organization by Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ - Purdue, chairman of extension, and confirmation of a graduate counselor, Panhellenic invited Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity to colonize a chapter at UVM.

The Kappa colonization rush team began with Marj Converse, who made the initial contacts and plans but was unable to attend due to a broken hip. A week before colonization weekend, Barbara Laitner, BM - Colorado, field secretary, met with Mary Malloy, Panhellenic Advisor, Kathy Geraghty, Panhellenic Vice-President in charge of Rush, and other UVM officials. She worked on rush party details and organized the Burlington alums. Sally Peterjohn, BM - Colorado, and Lilli Copp, EZ - Florida State, Burlington alumnae, helped with preparing and executing parties, interviewing, and hostessing. Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ - Missouri, director of membership, and Sally Moore Nitschke, BN - Ohio State, director of chapters, directed the colonization rush, in addition to securing references, interviewing rushees, and making selections. Patty Gesell, ΔA - Penn State, province director of alumnae, and Judy Preston, Φ - Boston U, province director of chapters, assisted in all areas to help the colonization run smoothly. Other Burlington Alums, Carrye Pugh Shenk, BN - Ohio State, and Jane Titus, also lent their support to the colonization efforts.

The four active chapters represented worked as a confident Kappa unit. Psi Deuteron from Cornell came back from spring vacation early to help. Delta Delta from McGill added their support after a long bus ride from Montreal. Delta Mu, from the University of Connecticut, traveled seven and a half hours to participate. Beta Beta Deuteron, St. Lawrence College, sent seven sophomores and juniors who sang, smiled, and helped keep spirits high. All these Kappa actives rushed their hardest for the new Zeta Delta Colony. They provided excellent support for the alums and added the spirit of active Kappa life.

THE KEY/SUMMER 1980

Stowe Ski Resort is site of ZΔ Colony retreat.

The team went into action for the first rush party held on Friday night in the John Dewey Memorial Lounge. The large, historic room was filled with rushees, Panhellenic members, several UVM officials, plus Kappa actives and alumnae. After welcoming the rushees, refreshments were served along with slides and a narrative about "The Spirit of Kappa." Beta Beta and Psi chapters entertained with songs as the party ended. The rushees enthusiastically signed up for interviews to be held the next day.

The Preference Brunch was held in the Faculty Dining Room in Waterman Hall. The atmosphere was informal yet sincere, and the food was excellent. Psi chapter added a special touch by bringing decorations from their own preference party. The Brunch was followed by a program highlighted with Kappa actives.

Formal Pledging followed the Preference Brunch. As a result, Kappa gained 25 bright, attractive, active pledges from the University of Vermont, including 1 junior, 19, sophomores, and 5 freshmen. Four girls are from Vermont and 21 come from various other states. One legacy was included in this group.

Since that weekend, the new Zeta Delta Colony has been very busy. The Stowe Ski Resort was the location for their first retreat. The group stayed in the State Ski Dormitory while getting to know each other better and learning everything they could about Kappa. With the help of Barb Laitner and Lilli Copp, they have elected officers, and have been involved in pledge conferences with Sally Peterjohn and Lilli Copp. They have attended a Kite and Key party with the Thetas, a barbeque at a park on Lake Champlain, a colony dinner at a pizza parlour, and have held a reception for area alumnae. The new pledges have organized a Picker singing group and already have several philanthropy projects in mind. Panhellenic provided Big Sisters for the new colony and they will have Kappa Big Sisters from the Dartmouth Chapter in addition to their special Kappa Friends who participated in rush. As the semester ends, Zeta Delta Colony looks forward to their first rush, their initiation as charter members, and the installation of their colony. They are already functioning as enthusiastic and energetic Kappas!

Kappa's Loyalty Fund is up, up, and away! Over 6,000 members have contributed from May 1, 1979 to April 18, 1980, with an average gift of $21. The grand total is just over $120,000. The following pages are filled with the names of generous donors to whom the grateful thanks of the entire Fraternity is given.

The Loyalty Fund has provided seed money for the development of the Fraternity Headquarters as a museum... providing better utilization of the building.

to incorporate and display more of our permanent collection of memorabilia. Continued chapter extension and significant expansion of alumnae groups has been aided by the Loyalty Fund. New manuals have been produced and increased programming and training are now available for career development, alcohol awareness and chapter finances.

Kappa is able to maintain strong, forward momentum because of your generous response to the Loyalty Fund. The success of the fund is evidence that we are "... widely scattered yet closely united."

Greek: philanthrōpia - loving mankind

Providing "good will toward one's fellow-men" is very much a part of Kappa life. Active chapters express their philanthropic feelings through a variety of projects: from having parties and treats for underprivileged or handicapped children and serenades and visits to special homes through hair-styling for ladies in a home for the elderly and "adopt-a-pet" program for the humane society.

At Texas Christian, the pledge classes of Epsilon Alpha and Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity visited the children at St. Theresa's Home weekly. The home is a state licensed residential treatment center for emotionally disturbed orphans ages two through 13. It is a place where treatment, love and a chance for a normal life are offered the children. Strong bonds were easily formed between the children and their Kappa and S.A.E. visitors, as they learned to skate, play ball or just have a piggyback ride. "All the children had so much affection to share, and their only wish was for your attention." Their final visit was a Christmas party with gifts for the children. It was then they could see "that giving of our time and love are still the greatest gifts of all!"

Epsilon Alphas can see "giving of our time and love are still the greatest gifts of all."

The administration at DePauw has recognized its students who participated in Central American Winter Term Mission Projects sponsored by the University Chaplain during January 1977, 1978 and 1979. These students spent the three winter term sessions building five churches, a school, a school teacher's apartment, and a medical clinic. They also provided health and dental care for 15,000 children and adults in Central America. Several Iota Chapter Kappas were part of the

1. good will toward one's fellowmen, esp. as expressed through active efforts to promote human welfare,

2. an act of deliberative generosity, a contribution made in a spirit of humanitarianism.

student volunteer service program which offers numerous opportunities to work in a tangible, significant way toward the welfare of others. Those recognized from Iota are: Sara Stanley, Mary Margaret Joyce, Najmeh Sadri, Laura Busch, Saralee Schacht, Elizabeth Greene, and Jane Marshall.

The highlight of Epsilon Epsilon's (Emory) philanthropy endeavors is the Pen Pal Program with the children of the Davison School, who are between the ages of five and 17 and are at the school because of hearing and speech difficulties. Thirty of the children have Kappa actives writing to them, baking, and basically offering their love and attention. This program has brought great pleasure to the Kappas, who have commented: "... all people need someone who cares for them. It's good for them to have someone who is an older friend as a guiding force. And for me, it's wonderful to have someone who really needs your friendship." "They appreciate every little thing that we do for them so much. It makes you think how lucky we are to have what we have and to appreciate it more." "... he has the mind of a two-year-old and cannot speak yet he always hugs me." "I have just learned how to understand and deal with less fortunate children." "... it is 100% better than just giving money to a philanthropy." "Giving time and caring is so much more meaningful." "It is wonderful to have your philanthropy become alive and meaningful. Now I feel I can give with a true spirit because philanthropy is not another charity project but it is children and teachers who really need our help and support."

It is loving mankind!

“Acts of deliberative generosity” Fill Kappa Calendars

In addition to providing direct service to promote human welfare, some Kappa chapters also organize events to raise funds for specified charities; some join with others and some contribute to already existing fund-raising events.

One of the highlights of Greek-sponsored activities at the University of British Columbia is Mardi Gras, a week-long celebration with a carnival night, various contests and rallies, and a Mardi Gras Ball. With all Greek groups on campus participating, this year proceeds from Mardi Gras amounted to $5,200 which was donated to the Multiple Sclerosis Society of British Columbia. Kelley Brandes, ΓΥ - British Columbia, was on the Mardi Gras Committee as an executive member.

At Bucknell University, proceeds from Greek Week-end last fall went to the March of Dimes. Delta Phi Chapter contributed through its ice cream cone stand. Another March of Dimes donor was the pledge class of Epsilon Kappa South Carolina, who had a Macho Man for March of Dimes contest for which 13 fraternities nominated their own macho man. Votes were taken campus-wide through donations. The proceeds were presented at the March of Dimes telethon, for which the Kappa Pickers performed. According to the March of Dimes, this contribution was doubled in that more pledges came in after the audience saw what the Kappas had done.

Many Kappa pledge classes nationwide add to the spirit of Sigma Chi Derby Days which are philanthropic fund-raising events. Delta Alpha Penn State pledges won first place in their Derby Days and raised over $200. This amount was divided between Sigma Chi's national philanthropy and Kappa's own rehabilitation fund. Also displaying a first place trophy for Sigma Chi Derby is Delta Phi Chapter at Bucknell. Their Derby was a week-long philanthropic fund-raising event. University of Mississippi Delta Rho Kappas donated $177 to their Sigma Chi Derby Day philanthropy for the Kidney Foundation this spring. The Kappas devised a theme of “Sigma Street” and related their performances to the Sesame Street theme.

The Kidney Foundation of Columbus (Ohio) benefited from a tootsie roll sale in which the Rho^Δ (Ohio Wesleyan) Kappas participated. They raised over $1,000 and Holly Hattemer, P^Δ - Ohio Wesleyan, was awarded the “Big Tootsie” prize for selling the most cans.

All Heart

Delta Rho (Mississippi) Kappas spread much happiness last year as they raised funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Research Foundation through their singing Valentines project. With five songs to choose from, they took orders the week before Valentine's Day for one dollar for an on-campus message and two dollars for off-campus delivery. Two groups of five Kappas each delivered the singing Valentines to the tunes of popular songs. Epsilon Epsilon Kappas also had a singing Valentines project at Emory University.

Gamma Pi Kappas have initiated a Balloon Derby for the American Cancer Society at the University of Alabama.

In their second annual Balloon Derby Epsilon Mu Chapter raised $2500 for Multiple Sclerosis with the help of everyone in the chapter and the release of almost 3,000 balloons.

Betsey Payne (left) and Chris Wolesslagel, $\Delta\Lambda$ - Miami U., carry balloons for their Balloon Derby which resulted in a check for \$1,000 for Muscular Dystrophy.

Beneficiaries of all these fund-raising efforts range from local hospitals, nursing homes, centers for the disabled or underprivileged to national foundations for such diseases as cancer, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, lung and heart, and UNICEF. Outstanding in the list are the donations to Kappa's funds. As already noted, Delta Alpha Chapter helped the rehabilitation fund. Alpha Kappas at Monmouth earned money through working on a campus mailing for the college Alumni Office — money which they happily donated to the Rose McGill Fund of Kappa.

Some Kappas work to benefit their alumnae association's philanthropic projects. Beta Pi Chapter (U. of Washington) worked at a Seahawks professional football game, passing out programs to earn $750 for the Seattle Day Nursery which is the project of the Seattle Alumnae Association. Beta Pi has also been involved in a telephone marathon calling for the University Scholarship Fund.

Balloon derbies are popular events for philanthropy projects. People are encouraged to buy a ticket which is attached to a helium-filled balloon. All balloons are released on a certain day and prizes are awarded the person whose ticketed balloon flew the farthest away and to the person who found the balloon.

At Beta Upsilon (West Virginia) the chapter instituted a Balloon Derby for Crohn's disease because Jane Thomas, BY - West Virginia, and one of their alumnae are afflicted with Crohn's disease. To the right, two Beta Upsilon Kappas salute the successes of the chapter's efforts and note how the Kappas there, in cooperation with Dr. Bernard Zimmerman of the University's Medical Center, started a chapter of the National Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis (or Crohn's disease) at W.V.U.

Just as each chapter has its own flavor, so does the philanthropic involvement of each vary. There are charity carnivals, yo-yo marathons, print sales, daffodil sales, spaghetti dinners, car washes, canned food collections, benefit concerts and serenades, an oyster-eating contest, raffles, singing Valentines, Kissing booths, telephone-a-thons, dance and running marathons, balloon derbies, and many other fund-raising events in addition to the service projects described at the beginning of this section.

However, no matter the project, certain elements of philanthropic work never vary — knowing the reason for the project and the group responsible, having the involvement of the entire group, and feeling those wonderful feelings of caring and giving — giving of one's self for the happiness of others, keeping in mind control of time and financial allocations for the best results for both the recipient and the donor.

Kappas care and Kappas give!

Dance marathons have been noted for several years. The picture above represents Delta Rho Chapter's (Mississippi) successful third annual Kappa Dance Marathon for Muscular Dystrophy. Twelve couples finished the 30-hour marathon, which was highlighted by a special appearance by the Mississippi muscular dystrophy poster child. Over $8,000 was raised.

At Penn State, the IFC sponsors a 48-hour dance marathon to benefit the Four Diamonds Fund for children with cancer. Delta Alpha Chapter supported their dancer and the fund by collecting over $2500 last year with $76,000 raised in total.

Actively Speaking . . .

Two Gamma Kappas have been elected to serve on the Honor Council at the College of William and Mary: Mindy McCauley, who has been chapter women's intramurals chairman, and Lynn Hendricks.

Missy Wright and Kristi Esbensen, ΓK - William and Mary, have been elected senior class officers. Missy, who will be senior class vice president, is a member of the Athletic Policy Committee, the Commencement Committee, secretary of the Student Association, former member of Dorm Council, the only woman to serve on the College's "Search for a New Football Coach" committee, and Gamma Kappa recording secretary and assistant pledge trainer. Kristi, elected senior class secretary-treasurer, has been on swim team and was on a swimming scholarship, has received awards as an All-American swimmer, is a member of Phi Eta Sigma (freshman honorary), and has been her chapter's membership chairman.

Carolyn Healey, Martha Riley, and Suzanne Guyot, BZ - Iowa, have been selected to serve as their university's Student Alumni Ambassadors. This organization works with the University of Iowa Alumni Association on various activities such as Homecoming and commencement. Two more Beta Zeta Kappas have been selected to work on the 1980 Homecoming committees. Jennifer Vickery will be director and Barb Hogg will serve as Alumni Relations chairman.

Three Delta Rho (Mississippi) Kappas have been honored. Linda Gary was selected as a Rebel Recruiter to work with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics in recruiting athletes for the University. Lillian Abraham received the National Business Education Award, presented annually to the outstanding senior in business education at Mississippi. Karen Kahler was the recipient of a Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Honorary Freshman Certificate Award, given to students at the University who attained a 4.0 average their freshman year.

Melanie Long, EA-Texas Christian, was elected secretary of the House of Student Representatives for 1980, the body which is the link between the students, the administration and the trustees of T.C.U. Melanie has also been active in her dorm council, on the Finance Committee of the House of Student Representatives, and as her chapter's assistant treasurer.

Debbie Gray, EI-North Carolina, is chairman and consumer contact for the Student Consumer Action Union, is Educational Policy Coordinator for the student government, student representative on the Dean's Curriculum Planning Committee, on the Vice Chancellor's Food Service Advisory Committee, on the Board of Directors of Chapel Hill Woman's Resource Center and in the outing and parachute clubs. Debbie has also had various internships.

Rosemary Miley Bassett, ΓΨ-Maryland, is very active with the Art League and has been the co-director of the "West Gallery" student run, Student Arts Gallery. She is also her chapter's membership chairman.

Sarah Adams, BT-Syracuse, is a member of Hendricks Choir, a select group of singers whose skills include harmonizing, sight-reading, reading notes, and solo singing. The group is performing throughout New England this year. Sarah has been art and song chairman for her chapter, and she will graduate in nursing.

Beatriz Rodriquez (left above), Ω-Kansas, has completed her term as president of Panhellenic at the University of Kansas. Sue Kelsey (right), Ω-Kansas, has been chosen to participate in the Clinical Practicum in Speech Pathology and Audiology at the University of Kansas. She was one of three students chosen to begin the program this spring, and she will have her own clients to diagnose and treat.

(From left) Sharon Williams, Betsy Belcher, Kathy Pearce, Patty Foss, Sandy Kemper and Bethanne Dressel (not pictured), $\Gamma\Psi$ - Maryland, were selected for Kalegathos Greek Honorary Society in recognition of their outstanding work in Gamma Psi Chapter, on campus, in Panhellenic and in the community. In particular, Sandy Kemper was Panhellenic social chairman and planned fundraising for Panhellenic and IFC and planned the annual Pledge Debut, which is attended by 2,000 people. Betsy Belcher was also named for Omicron Kappa Delta (leadership) and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, was chairman of University Sing, on the Chancellor's Committee to select a new Campus Activity Director, University Theater, Greek Orientation speaker, University singers, CBS internship, and a WMUC sportscaster.

Jill Ann Kirkpatrick, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State

Stephanie Coates, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State

Several Delta Sigma Kappas were honored this spring at honors banquets. At the Education Honors Banquet Maribeth Burns, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State, was named Top-Ten in the College of Education, Susan Dodson, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State, received the sophomore honorary award, and Stephanie Coates, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State, was named to Who's Who in the College of Education. Stephanie is also programs chairman for Mortar Board, Executive Chairman for 1979 Homecoming, in Orange and Black Quill (sophomore honorary), Kappa Delta Pi (education), Top-Ten in the College of Education, Education Student Council, and has been chapter social chairman and house manager as well as recipient of the Kappa undergraduate scholarship.

Jill Ann Kirkpatrick, $\Delta\Sigma$ - Oklahoma State, was named Top-Ten in the College of Business. She was also chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, is in Mortar Board, Omicron Delta Kappa, Beta Gamma Sigma (business), and Business Student Council. Jill was Panhellenic president in 1979.

Lee Bennett, $\text{E}\Gamma$ - North Carolina, has been a recipient of the UNC School of Nursing Alumni Association scholarship, on junior varsity tennis women's team, dorm secretary, Student Nurses Association, Sigma Theta Tau (nursing), and chapter nominating committee chairman. Another North Carolina senior, Kim Bullock, $\Delta\Phi$ - Bucknell, was in Psi Chi (psychology), Alpha Epsilon Delta (pre-med), Phi Beta Kappa, Adopt-a-Grandparent program at Bucknell University, telephone counselor at Chapel Hill Crisis Center, and on several chapter committees.

Groups Dynamic . . .

Lusty, crusty pirates and prim school maidens gave the highest acclaimed performance at Kansas University's Rock Chalk Revue 1980. Omega Kappas and Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Theta Pi created the colorful production which won five out of seven awards: Best Overall Production, Best Actor and

Actress, Best Original Song, and Best Production Number. Directors were Alison DeGoler, Ω - Kansas, and David Preston, with Kappas Shelley Coker as assistant and Laurie Faith as costume designer. Martha Dreher, Ω - Kansas, received Best Actress recognition. Liz Waugh portrayed the other female

lead in the musical entitled "As The Tide Turns."

Sponsored by KU-Y, an all-university organization, the revue is entirely written and produced by students. Many months of creation and rehearsal precede the revue for which a panel of judges selects only four groups to present their numbers.

Hopes came to life as the Kappas at Oklahoma State paired with Chi Omega to present the winning skit "What if Notes Came to Life" for the 1980 Varsity Revue. They won Outstanding Costume and Backdrop, Outstanding Choreography and Music, and the 1980 First Place Trophy!

Maria Romeo (left) and Nancy Bozarth, ΓK-William and Mary, celebrated sisterhood along with over 100 other Kappas at Gamma Kappa's special event "Celebration of Sisterhood," on February 16, exactly 57 years to the day after the chapter's founding.

The public relations committee planned the celebration banquet for the time the 1979 pledges were welcomed into sisterhood, inviting all Kappas in Lambda Province. "We hoped to show our newest members, and the chapter at large, that the organization we call Kappa, and the love that guides her, stretches far beyond Williamsburg, and lasts well beyond the college years."

Gamma Upsilon Makes a Clean Sweep —

"Songfest" at the University of British Columbia included Gamma Upsilon's production of four songs. During scheduled breaks in the show, the annual Panhellenic awards were presented. Gamma Upsilon Kappas took first place in scholarship with a 78.6% average. The Sports Trophy given to the sorority that participates in the greatest number of sports events as well as excelling in those activities, went to the Kappas, too. The chapter also won the Activities Trophy for being the most involved group both on campus and in the community. The Marjorie Leeming Trophy, awarded to the best all-around sorority, went to Kappa. The grand finale came when the winners of the Songfest competition for giving the best musical performance and good stage presence were announced KAPPA! Thus, the Kappas took all five Panhellenic awards in an unprecedented victory — no other single sorority has achieved an overwhelming sweep of the awards in the history of U.B.C.'s Panhellenic Association.

Three Gamma Upsilon Kappas have been very active in the executive part of Panhellenic. Jane Edgar was social coordinator; Anita Weinberger as rush coordinator saw the total number going through formal rush up 50% from the previous year. Paddy Hall was secretary for her third year and was also treasurer.

The Kappas Maryland (Gamma Psi Chapter) were paired with Alpha Gamma Rho to form a winning team at Homecoming. They won the first races of the celebration and went on to receive the overall trophy for spirit, creativity of theme and artistic ability with their float.

Judy Dwyer, ΓP -Maryland, is captain of the varsity women's swim team and has qualified for Regionals in 1977, 1978 and 1979 and this year will be swimming in the AIAW Nationals. She holds four pool records for various freestyle events.

Nance Thompson (left) and Betsy Hughes, $\text{E}\Gamma$ -North Carolina, are on the varsity women's swim team. Nance lettered in 1979 and 1980 and was All-American in 1979 and 1980. Betsy also lettered in 1978, 1979 and 1980, was All-American in 1979 and was named Most Improved Women's Swimmer 1978-79.

Karin Swanson, ΓP -Allegheny, is on the women's swim team which will be hosting and competing in this year's AIAW Division III swimming and diving national championships.

Stephanie Kornegay, $\text{E}\Gamma$ -North Carolina, (pictured left) has played varsity golf 1976-1980 and varsity basketball as well as being national representative and delegate to the Delegate Assembly of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women. Stephanie was selected Outstanding Senior Athlete and asked to speak at a Faculty and Staff banquet.

Heather McKenzie, $\text{E}\Gamma$ -North Carolina, is on the varsity tennis team.

She's an athlete . . .

Parliamentary Inquiry:

Question:

Our membership has increased considerably since our bylaws were adopted a few years ago. We are presently revising our bylaws, and are considering increasing the number of members required for a quorum. Are there any guidelines to follow in determining the proper size of a quorum?

Answer:

A quorum is the minimum number of members eligible to vote who will have to be present at a meeting in order to transact business. In the absence of a quorum no legal action can be taken — this includes the approval of the minutes.

It is therefore advisable to fix the size of that quorum in the bylaws. Regardless of the size of an organization, the quorum should be based on the smallest number of members that can be expected to attend a regular meeting under normal circumstances. On the other hand, a quorum should not be kept so low that a very small and unrepresentative number of members could make major decisions. Also, it is not advisable to fix the quorum at a certain percentage of the membership because it is often difficult to determine how many members an organization has at a given time. With a changing roll of members the number of the quorum would also change and would have to be computed before each meeting.

A presiding officer should make sure, before calling a meeting to order, that a quorum is present. If not, the call to order should be delayed until enough members have arrived to make up a quorum.

The only actions that can be taken without a quorum are: to fix the time to which to adjourn; to adjourn; to recess; to take measures to obtain a quorum. If it is necessary to take emergency action in the absence of a quorum, this action will have to be ratified at the next meeting. Needless to say, this can lead to sticky situations if the members refuse to ratify the emergency action.

A quorum, if not fixed in the bylaws, is one half of the total membership.

The quorum of a committee is one half of the members of the committee, unless specified differently in the bylaws.

Remember: While a quorum (a fixed number of members) has to be present to vote on any resolution or motion, it is not necessary for every member to cast a vote. A member who abstains from voting has actually participated in the voting process by abstaining.

Question:

Please explain under what circumstances a "two-thirds vote" is taken and describe the proper procedure for taking it.

Answer:

The "two-thirds vote" is always applied to resolutions and motions which would deprive members of some of their rights or which serve to amend something previously adopted. It is designed to protect a minority of more than one third and allows this minority to exercise its will over a majority. Obviously, a quorum of members eligible to vote will have to be present.

The "two-thirds vote" is taken whenever bylaws are amended (except if those bylaws have a different provision for amendment); previously adopted rules are to be suspended or amended; debate is to be limited or extended or cut off by a call for the Previous Question; nominations or polls are closed, and when an action, which was voted on earlier, is to be rescinded or amended. For additional situations which call for a "two-thirds vote" see Robert's Rule of Order Newly Revised.

The count of the "two-thirds vote" is based on the total number of votes cast. Two-thirds of

30 votes	=	20 votes
31 votes	=	21 votes
32 votes	=	21 votes
33 votes	=	22 votes

In all but very small groups it is good procedure to take a rising vote on questions that require a "two-thirds vote." If there is any doubt, the chair should order a counted vote.

Send your questions on parliamentary procedure to:

511 Kramer Dr. S.E.
Vienna, VA 22180

If a prompt answer is required please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Board and Blue Key, both senior honoraries. She was a presidential scholar and received ΓΒ's scholarship key for two years. Diane was on Dean's List and Honor Roll and is listed in Who's Who of American College Students. She has a BA in economics and business and was elected the Department of Economics honor student. Prior to being president of ΓΒ, Diane served as rush party chairman, on the social and house committees, and as house chairman.

Anne "Talby" Hardy, ΕΣ - Virginia, likes traveling and has visited England and Scotland, and from Maine to Florida. She served her chapter on the public relations committee and as registrar, and 2nd vice president. Talby says she is "career oriented to the community of women" and hopes eventually to enter law school. She was selected for the University Guide Service for three years and also was on the ombudsman committee. Talby was Fraternity/Sorority editor and Student Life editor of the Yearbook at University of Virginia.

Nancy Olcott, M - Butler, was not only her chapter's outstanding senior, but also the most outstanding student in the student body. Nancy was one of the top ten women students at Butler and was named the Indiana State Student Achiever of the Year by the YWCA. She was Mu Chapter's senior with the highest grade point average but still claims to love "camping, backpacking, bike riding and coaching the neighborhood kids in softball!"

Diane DeLayo

She was also in the tennis Mid-West Regionals. Nancy's family includes two sisters and a Mom and aunt who are Thetas at Butler, plus a grandmother who is a Phi Mu.

Leah Yelverton, ΓΠ - Alabama, has found philanthropy to be a vital part of her life. She was Alabama State Chairman of the March of Dimes and Chairman of a blood drive for the Red Cross. Through Angel Flight she adopted a grandmother and grandfather at the Peak Nursing Home and worked for the Tuscaloosa Cancer Society in memory of her mother. Leah was chapter president, pledge president, assistant social chairman, bylaws review chairman, and nominating chairman. Nancy says one of her most interesting experiences was serving as a student intern for Dr. David Matthews, president of the university. She is a member of Order of Omega, Greek Honorary; and Omicron Delta Kappa; and Iota Circle Honorary. Leah was chairman of the German Language House Board and coordinator for Bob Hope's visit on campus. She has two sisters and enjoys tennis, volleyball, and water skiing.

Karen Bosch

Traveling this year will be five field secretaries trained to solve problems, armed with new ideas, and filled with enthusiasm for Kappa. Every one of the 107 chapters will be visited between August and May (many schools start by August 15th!) and some will receive additional rush help.

Karen Bosch, X - Minnesota, has an interest in quilting, the piano and clarinet, as well as having been Chi Chapter's president, 1st vice president, treasurer and pledge president. Karen has a BA in Spanish with a minor in business. She is a member of Rho Lambda (Panhellenic honorary) and served as a student government liaison. For two years she was involved with special olympics in the track and field events. Karen is from Mesa, Arizona, and has two brothers and three sisters. She says she really prefers summer to winter anytime!

Diane DeLayo, ΓΒ - New Mexico, has just completed a term as president of her chapter. She was elected to Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary; Spurs, sophomore honorary; Las Campanas, junior honorary; and Mortar

Patricia Harris Convenes 14th World Congress of Rehabilitation International

"The airlines of the world have promised their utmost cooperation in transporting participants to and from Winnipeg with ease, regardless of wheelchairs and over-stuffed briefcases! We have been gratified by the responses of immigration authorities, hoteliers, restaurateurs, trailer camp operators, and taxi drivers, all of whom, once apprised of the nature of the Congress, have eagerly planned their facilities accordingly. The Canadian Ministry of Transport has undertaken significant renovations at Winnipeg International Airport in order to meet our requirements. Arrivals and departures at all major points will have the added help of identifiable volunteers from the Workmen's Compensation Boards of Canada to extend greetings and provide help and directions.

"1980 is the dawning of a new decade and in spite of tensions which exist throughout the world, there has developed a concern for mutual problems and the need for a global approach to solutions. Existing technology can prevent many forms of disability and isolation. Through the Congress we will have a meeting of minds enabling us to form strategies for the implementation of technology in the reality of a global family."

Rehabilitation International, a world-wide, non-governmental federation devoted solely to disability prevention and rehabilitation, is headquartered in New York. Every four years, the federation is responsible for organizing and supporting the international congress to obtain and ensure a maximum exchange of information in the struggle to assist the disabled. The federation represents over 450 million people with significant impairments, attempting to ensure services for disabled and implement legislation in different member countries to assure these services. Prevention of physical and mental disability and research into its causes are also of primary concern. Nearly 10,000 delegates and spouses will be in Winnipeg for the Congress, spending an estimated total of $4.8 million during the eight-day period. For the first time in its history, the Congress will have three official languages — English, French and Spanish — available to its delegates, possible through the Centre's simultaneous translation equipment. Sign language and braille is also available. The Winnipeg Convention Centre received the plaque for accessibility for ramps throughout the building for wheelchairs, telephones at accessible heights, signs indicating washroom facilities accessible to the handicapped and ramps surrounding the building on sidewalk curbs which were built into the Convention Centre to accommodate disabled.

Pat said in an interview with The Key that, (her) "involvement in rehabilitation began through a Junior League project in Montreal, almost twenty years ago. At the same time I was asked to help the

After nearly four years of intensive planning and consultation between Rehabilitation International, the Canadian Rehabilitation Council for the Disabled and its Winnipeg Committee, Canada is ready for the 14th World Rehabilitation Congress, June 22-27, 1980 in Winnipeg. And . . . a Kappa is the gracious and efficient president of this World Congress.

Patricia Lang Harris, BII - Washington, is the past president of the Canadian Rehabilitation Council for the Disabled and is the Canadian Member on the Council of Rehabilitation International (the newly elected vice president). She is on the Board of trustees of the Quebec March of Dimes, serves on the Board of the Montreal Branch, Canadian Red Cross, and is a founding member and Director of Canadians for Health Research. An Honorary Life Member of the Canadian Hemophilia Society, Pat served a five year term as their National president. In 1977, Pat was a recipient of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee Medal awarded for community service.

The 1980 World Congress of Rehabilitation International is being held in Winnipeg Manitoba. It is twenty years since the Congress has been held in North America and the first time it will take place in Canada. Pat is the first woman to be elected Congress President.

Pat is married to Dr. C.E.C. Harris, a Montreal Hematologist, and has four children and one grandson.

Writing for the International Rehabilitation Review, Pat states, "There is nothing that can quite match the stimulation and enthusiasm experienced by large numbers of people with common interests who come together for an exchange of information designed to achieve their goals and aspirations.

"The Winnipeg Convention Center would appear to have been designed as the appropriate venue for our particular needs and we feel sure that everyone will be proud of Winnipeg for providing the amenities of an accessible city.

Canadian Hemophilia Society in organizing treatment centres and rehab facilities. When I became president of the Canadian Hemophilia Society I was asked to go on the Board of the Canadian Rehabilitation Council headquartered in Toronto. Eventually I became president of the Council and that led to involvement with Rehab. International. All of these activities have been very rewarding and have enabled me to visit all over this continent and other fascinating places around the world. Do you suppose that all the years of reading about Kappa activities in The Key provided a 'subliminal' inspiration to become more involved in rehabilitation? My pride in being a Kappa is certainly enhanced by all the good work the Fraternity has done for rehabilitation.

"Perhaps Kappa will think about our Congress theme: Prevention and Integration when planning activities for the International Year of the Disabled Person and do all that is possible to create an awareness of the capabilities of those with disabilities.

"When I stand up to greet the Congress delegates I'll think of the Kappas conference (Kappa convention from June 19-25) and stand a little taller!"

Planning for the 1981 Year of the Disabled Person has begun around the world. In the United States a national planning conference was held by the Council for IYDP. The conference decided to pursue a program concentrating on eight Points: expansion of access to education and employment, removal of architectural barriers, greater utilization of technology, increased participation of disabled people in community life, reduction of dependency through medical rehabilitation, increased biomedical research, accident and disease prevention and activities to alter public attitudes.

United Nations Emblem for International Year of the Disabled Persons

The above design has been chosen by the UN as the official emblem to be used in connection with the International Year of Disabled Persons — 1981. The emblem represents two people holding hands in solidarity and support of each other in a position of equality. It is based on an original design presented by the French National Commission for IYDP and is intended to reflect equality, hope and support. The leaves around the symbol are a part of the emblem of the United Nations.

The Key is anxious to be in contact with all Centennial Scholars who receive Rehabilitation grants in celebration of Kappa's one hundred years. The grants were made in 1970 on all campuses where there were Kappa chapters. Over $500,000 in grants were made to members and non-members alike. We would like to know after ten years what has become of our scholars. Please write, Editor The Key, Mrs. David B. Selby, 6750 Merwin Place, Worthington, OH 43085.

WHO Study Finds Motor Accident Rise

One of many reports from the World Congress holds figures of import for all Kappas. "Disproportionately high increases among the 15-24 year old age groups were noted in a recent World Health Organization study documenting a rise in motor accident death rates. The WHO study of mortality and morbidity statistics in 26 developed and four developing countries attributed rising motor vehicles accidents among the young primarily to abuse of alcohol. Although vehicle caused mortality is on the rise for all age groups, the increases were more than doubling for the young. The study, recommending a shift of concern to accident prevention, stated that 'Plans will have to be made to provide the necessary social security support for families of those who are killed or permanently incapacitated, for programs of rehabilitation and re-employment, and for the increasing demands which will be made on . . . treatment facilities.' The study was carried out for WHO by J.D.J. Harvard of the British Medical Association."

Erwin and Harriet Griswold on Hawaiian trip 1959.

A frequent visitor to the White House, HARRIET FORD GRISWOLD, BH - Stanford, was a chapter sister of Lou Henry, Mrs. Herbert Hoover. President Hoover met his wife waiting tables at the Stanford Kappa House. Harriet's Kappa roommate, Mary Barstow, became the wife of Norman Rockwell. Erwin N. Griswold, a young lawyer who would later become Dean of the Harvard Law School, had brought his bride Harriet to Washington, D.C., in 1932 when he joined the Solicitor General's office in the U. S. Department of Justice. Harriet began her fascinating and busy life as a lawyer's wife, and shortly, as the mother of two children.

Then she contracted polio. Both legs became paralyzed. For over 40 years she has worn heavy braces from hip to instep, and can't walk without crutches. A person might wonder how she managed two youngsters whom she couldn't run after, handle emergencies every mother faces, prepare meals, and struggle to answer an incessant telephone or doorbell. A polio victim could list herself a casualty of life, bitter and discouraged.

Instead Harriet Ford Griswold is listed in Who's Who of American Women. Her specialty in life is getting buildings accessible to wheelchairs. A few of her successful conversions include Chicago's O'Hare Airport, The National Gallery of Art, the British Museum, hotels in Washington, D.C. (Washington Hilton, Shoreham, Statler Hilton, and Sheraton Park), and airports in Australia. A world traveler, Harriet has experienced a large slice of life, from being presented to Queen Elizabeth to helping a New Zealand Maori girl amputee get an artificial leg in the right color.

Dorothy Mason Fuller, trustee of Radcliffe University, describes her friend Harriet:

"There is a ring to her voice which sounds as if life handed her nothing but bouquets. She puts you at ease by her manner, which seems to say, 'Don't let it (polio) bother you; it doesn't bother me.' Her lively interest in people makes you forget her physical handicap, and you realize that whatever is wrong with her legs has not affected her mind and her heart. She makes one proud to belong to the human race."

Harriet Griswold Pursues Worldwide Accessibility

In 1934 Harriet and family moved to Belmont, Massachusetts, when her husband began teaching law at Harvard University. There she knew well a Kappa tennis great, Harriet Hotchiss Wightman, II^A - California.

Her success as a handicapped housewife was noticed by the mother of the "Cheaper by the Dozen Children," Lillian Gilbreth, who included Harriet's ideas in a book Management of the Home. Collier's magazine published an article, "I had Polio." She even found time to lecture to clubs and groups of "The Handicapped are Human Beings." Once a month review of young people's books appeared in a national newspaper under her name.

When her husband became Dean of the Harvard Law School in 1946, she hosted many interesting guests. Some of the women law students she remembers are: Wendy Marcus, granddaughter of the founder of Texas department store, Neiman Marcus; the wife of Senator Robert Dole; and Bob Hope's daughter-in-law. She has also been hostess to many Supreme Court Justices, not only from America but also other countries: Adlai Stevenson, Nehru, Archibald Cox, Elliot Richardson, Master of Rolls Royce, and Calder of mobile fame.

While living in Massachusetts, Harriet was active with the Boston Kappa Alumnae. EDITH REESE CRABTREE, BF - Wooster, Kappa Fraternity President 1952-1956, was also a member of the group. It was Edith's idea for Harriet to be the final banquet speaker at the 1950 Kappa National Convention held at Murray Bay, Quebec, Canada. Before her speech it was announced that Kappa was presenting a Harriet Ford Griswold Fellowship to be given to a woman doctor from an occupied country. The fellowship was awarded to Dr. Yaeko Kawai from Japan, who studied with Dr. Howard Rusk at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at Bellevue Hospital in New York. Harriet and Dr. Kawai appeared on radio and TV in Boston. The subsequent Fellowship recipient was Dr. Ching-Hie Oh from Korea, who today runs a rehabilitation clinic in Pusan, Korea.

In 1952, due largely to the inspiration of Harriet, Kappa adopted rehabilitation as our national philanthropy. Among the Kappas serving on the first Rehabilitation Services Committee were Harriet and Mrs. Howard Rusk.

Another field in which Harriet was involved was advising the Junior League of Boston on a volunteer project at a rehabilitation clinic. The members had been studying the disabled man, who usually sits at one place at a desk, or at one place at the factory. A man is stronger in the shoulder girdle, so he can often climb steps or get on a bus when the disabled woman cannot. She helped the Junior League members look at the role of the disabled housewife and mother who cannot lead a stationary life. When they saw Harriet hanging onto a radiator to get up the steps at the Harvard Club, they decided to publish a guide to Boston for the handicapped. They listed minimum requirements for doorways, railings, floors and ramps (which may not rise more than 1 foot in a 12-foot stretch).

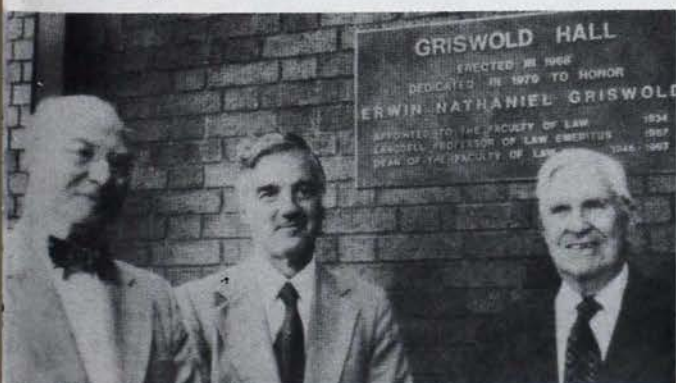

Now published by the Easter Seal Society, the booklet is titled, "Wheeling through Boston." Many cities have copied this guide.

Still, very few people know what the minimum standards and needs of the aged or disabled are. When Harriet and her husband were in Montreal to attend American Bar Association meetings, he had to ride the freight elevator to get to their room in the elegant Bonaventure Hotel. Each dining room was inaccessible to wheelchairs, having three steps and no hand rail.

Many airports contain impediments to persons in wheelchairs. If there is no jetway or level entrance to airplanes, they must be elevated to the door on a forklift. Even worse, disabled persons used to be put on planes like a sack of flour in a chair Harriet has nicknamed "Three Bears Chair." The back is too high, the seat is too short, and it has no arms. Since most persons in wheelchairs do everything with their arms, they are practically helpless in such a chair. When their legs, in braces, fall off the chair seat, they can do nothing to help themselves on the ride up to the plane's entrance.

From 1967 to 1973 Erwin N. Griswold was Solicitor General of the United States. The family moved to Washington, D.C., and Harriet's hostess duties took on an international flavor. Besides sharing hospitality with visiting dignitaries, she also traveled worldwide with her husband. In Japan she spoke to 100 physical and occupational therapy students at that country's first school. She also spoke at Taiwan's medical school and helped with the rehabilitation program in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. In England outside of Oxford, Harriet visited the Stoke Mandeville Rehabilitation Clinic headed by Dr. Guttman, who started the idea of wheelchair games. The rehabilitation center in Uganda, Africa, was visited by her as well as Lord Snowden, who had polio when he was fourteen. On another trip to Africa she shared her ideas about rehabilitation and volunteers to the Zambian hospital. In 1974 Harriet visited the Moscow rehabilitation clinic.

A member of the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, she continually works on getting buildings accessible. The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., underwent her scrutiny, and she also influenced the architect for the John F. Kennedy gravesite to have a level path usable by wheelchairs instead of the originally planned 14 steps. Harriet helped get legislation for identification and parking privileges for disabled drivers in the District of Columbia. She has had her disabled driver's license since 1946, driving her car via hand controls to carpool children and friends.

Erwin Griswold, Mrs. Henry J. Friendly, and Harriet Griswold at recent dedication ceremonies at Harvard University Law School

January 15, Harriet heard her husband argue a case before the Supreme Court. He has argued more cases before that Court than any living man. Only Daniel Webster had done more. Recently 1000 people gathered at Harvard University as the Law School honored Erwin N. Griswold by naming its faculty office building after the former Dean.

Harriet and her husband keep up a busy schedule of meetings, conventions, and worldwide travel. In May they flew to Australia where Chief Justices from 108 countries assembled to see Queen Elizabeth dedicate a new Supreme Court Building. Erwin Griswold gave one of four speeches at the gathering of the top legal officers of the world.

For some 34 years Harriet has been spreading the word about the needs of the aged and disabled. She does this wherever she goes. Hard work is needed to insure that once standards and legislation are passed, that they are upheld and carried out. In Harriet's words, "Though disabled, I can put out the hand of friendship and share my practical pointers. I am happy to contribute what I can to this world."

Dallas Career Directory

When women were admitted as university students in the late 1800s, there were some who recognized the need for those of similar interests and ideals to form organizations which would foster their common feelings and mutual achievement. Among them were the six young women who founded Kappa Kappa Gamma on the campus of Monmouth College in October 1870. Since then, Kappas have continued to be leaders; to recognize problems, seek solutions and meet needs as new situations arise.

The changing roles of women in today's world have created many varied problems - from equal opportunities in the job market to the equal right of a housewife to obtain her own credit rating and cards. Every organization is feeling some effect from the changing status of half the world's population and most are seeking ways in which to deal with these effects. Kappa has always tried to adapt to the times and in recent years our Fraternity has turned a great deal of attention to our working members. Kappas are lively, intelligent, talented women, many of whom have interesting jobs. They enjoy their fraternity membership and wish to remain as active as possible but their world is busy - career, home, family and all the related activities make heavy demands upon their time and strength. They want to belong and to participate: the Fraternity values them as members. How do they cope? How can we help?

In early efforts to assist, Council established a career program to aid members in search of a position or those who were thinking of returning to the work force. A request to Headquarters will supply information about specific opportunities in areas, and the career file will also be available at convention.

In order to help Kappas who need to return to school to continue or broaden their education to obtain employment, the Circle Key Grants were established as part of the Rose McGi Fund. Many women have appreciated money received to supplement their educational costs while working or continuing to care for their families but hoping to advance their wage-earning abilities.

The whole is equal to the sum of the parts and it is on the local level, the small and large alumnae groups, that thought, planning and action is necessary to best meet the needs of the members. Many groups feel a pinch as loyal, contributing members are rarely seen at meetings since their time, attention and energy is focused elsewhere. Alumnae officers and boards, themselves intelligent, observant and innovative women, have come up with a variety of ways to keep their working Kappas as productive and participating alumnae members.

For example, New York City Alumnae Association has long been comprised of a majority of working women. Their meetings usually begin at 6 p.m. and I enjoy traveling against the New Jersey-bound commuter traffic to join them for meetings. As many groups are learning to do, they use their talented members for programs. Marybeth Merriman, EB - Colorado State, spoke on buying gems and jewelry. Madeline Carvalho Lanciani, BPΔ - Cincinnati, explained that her BA in music gave her little but sore feet as she trudged to auditions in New York. She realized that she loved to eat and loved to cook so she went back to school, served an apprenticeship, and now owns and operates Patisserie Lanciani, a continental bakery in downtown Manhattan, with her husband, Joseph. The evening's refreshments came from her shop and it was hard not to sample every delectable item. Madeleine laughingly admitted that it was the first time she had attended an alumnae meeting but added, "I'm happy to be here and I realize what I've been missing."

The traditional wine and cheese meeting in September gives the 60 or so who attend a chance to get to know each other and their related interests as each member announces her name, college and what she does. Several events during the year provide additional social get-togethers. One year the group attended a performance of "I'm Getting My Act Together and I'm Taking It on the Road", a very successful off-Broadway show with book and lyrics by Gretchen Kiger Cryer, I-DePauw, who was also the star. This also served as a fund-raising event, as did the cocktail party and show at the home/studio of artist Jill Freeman Gill, ΔN - Connecticut. Parties and benefits scheduled for a Saturday or Sunday help to provide a good turn-out and allow husbands and dates to attend as well.

Career programs have been worthwhile for New York City and Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland. Actives from ΔM - Connecticut traveled to New York to hear panel members from the alumnae association: a marketing consultant who rose to vice president of a major company and now owns her own business, Camille Perkins Edgell, BM - Colorado; health and beauty writer for Harpers Bazaar, Nancy Hall, ΨΔ - Cornell; young executive with Lloyds International Bank who has moved up in two jobs where progress is new for women, Nancy Jones Armstrong, ΕΓ - North Carolina. Perhaps we could all benefit from points made by these women:

1. Take risks in order to move forward.
2. Develop "street sense" - what interaction is taking place in your work structure.
3. Use that female instinct that men lack.
4. Develop a women's network in business as men have.
5. Learn politics.
6. Keep your resumé succinct: no more than three paragraphs ever!

Gamma Psi - Maryland and Gamma Chi - George Washington benefit from the career program offered by the Washington, D.C./Suburban Maryland alumnae and held at the ΓΨ house. The chapters are polled to determine their interests, areas of study, career goals, etc. Six alums are then chosen in selected fields and asked to summarize their careers, give advice and suggestions and answer questions. Dessert and coffee allows time for more informal chatting. This year's panel consisted of Mary Ellen Ayers, BHΔ - Stanford, U.S. Department of Labor, on the job market; Constance Cornell Stuart, ΓΨ - Maryland, public relations agent and former press secretary to Mrs. Richard Nixon; Carolyn Peery, ΓK - William and Mary, with AT&T long lines; Sallie Greenwood, ΓX - George Washington, writer and researcher for National Geographic; Elizabeth Young, also ΓΨ, IBM marketing; Catherine Carlson, ΔH - Utah, temporary office personnel manager. Both alumnae groups found it valuable to have established career women as panel members as well as those who were just beginning to move up the ladder in their chosen fields. In addition, the Maryland fall newsletter carried "advertisements". Any dues-paying member could submit an ad for her goods or services. Those published ranged from ski reservations to handmade dolls. Pasadena, California, also carries ads in their monthly newsletter.

Katherine Murphy Walker, ΕΘ - Little Rock, cover artist and Kaki Hoover, ΒΕ - Texas, publisher of the Dallas Career Directory.

Many alumnae associations have night or young Kappa groups for recent graduates and/or working members. Northern Virginia young Kappas have a monthly pot-luck supper that is very well attended. The total organization meets alternately in the daytime or evening and several of the young career Kappas spoke at a meeting on their experiences as a teacher, an accountant, a lawyer and a real estate agent. Gourmet cooking classes and other interest groups provide additional activities and support the keynote of their planning: variety.

The Kappa Career Directory is the brainchild of Kaki Hoover, ΒΕ - Texas, president of the Dallas night group. After attempting to contact all Kappas in the Dallas, Richardson and Garland areas, a list of over 200 women was compiled; women who covered a wide range of talents, skills and educational backgrounds. The list was divided into two sections: advertising, for those who paid from $3-5 to be listed, and the second, referrals, for those who are not really "in business" but who are available for help and information in their fields and who paid $1 for their listing. Directory sales have netted $450 but those involved cite other benefits. This very large alumnae association found an opportunity to know each other better and relatively inactive members received additional Kappa contact. Job information was made easily available to local active chapter members, new graduates, alumnae and their families and the warm response to the directory has been a positive experience for all involved.

In an association spread over a large geographical area, a centralized meeting location is essential and this sort of planning plus evening meetings to accommodate working members has proven successful for the San Diego Association. As an added incentive, members' talents and interests are used for programs. Susan Guenther Wingfield, ΓΘ - Oklahoma, is a member of the San Diego Ballet and has toured nationwide with them and with the Dallas Ballet and she presented a program for the alumnae at the studio. A very different sort of program was presented by Marnie Wright Barnhorst, ΒΩ - Oregon, who has taught biology in college and shared her special knowledge in genetics with the alumnae group.

Marnie Wright Barnhorst, ΒΩ - Oregon, husband Howard and Kiley, Nicholas, Zachary and Amy.

Susan Guenther Wingfield, BO - Oklahoma, and her partner in the San Diego Ballet.

Founders' Day was a real Kappa occasion. Besides honoring 50 year members, two of whom had not seen each other since college days, the program featured "Our Amazing Kappa Career Women", a presentation by several Kappas who discussed their careers and some of the problems of integrating the dual roles of family and career. This program was held in conjunction with San Diego Women's Work Week, which was organized by Melinda Jeffries Lasater, ΔE - Rollins, chairman of San Diego's Advisory Board on Women. As a practicing lawyer for six years, Melinda was a natural choice and also for her special responsibility, the sub-committee on Increasing Career Opportunities for Women. The work week was created to promote awareness of the economic situation facing women and to increase the opportunities available to them. It was the first venture of its kind and involved more than 100 organizations and 50 events during the week. Busy members and an often difficult climate can't keep Cleveland Kappas from enjoying frequent get-togethers. The "Lunch Bunch" meets monthly at various downtown restaurants, and separate checks and no reservations allow for differences in individual schedules. Other alumnae who are not regular working gals may join for an outing downtown and summer weather may call for brown-bagging it in a mini-park or fountain area. Passing men often ask what group is gathered (Kappas ARE an attractive group!) and express genuine interest at the obvious enjoyment of the women and their response. Good public relations becomes a special bonus. Alumnae president, Jane Robb Davis, AΔ - Monmouth, says there is no agenda and fellowship is the only purpose. However, she often has an opportunity to make announcements or answer questions and always receives a good response to pleas for help.

Among the year's programs in Cleveland were a career program with Cleveland-South Shore alumnae for ΓΩ - Denison; the history of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi, the "Monmouth Duo", on the Monmouth campus, presented by Mary Bartling Crowe, also AΔ, and chairman of Monmouth's history department; a presentation by Martha Brown Baker, BN - Ohio State, national board member of Alcoholics Anonymous; and a talk by Sally Hout Henkel, Y - Northwestern, producer of a local PM Magazine television show.

It is interesting to see how much busy Kappas can contribute to their alumnae groups as Jane Davis presents a thumbnail sketch of the Cleveland Association Board members. "The integration of 'career girls' is really complete for the board is chosen with geographic and age distribution as well as special interests in mind. Without using names or titles, I'll give you some examples of complex lifestyles and myriad responsibilities. Out of 26 board members, nine have Junior League obligations, 30 children call members 'mommy', one member is head of Hanna Pavillion Women's Committee, one serves on the Women's Committee of the Natural History Museum and the Women's Committee of University Hospitals, two are Girl Scout leaders, one teaches aerobic exercise class and does monograms for a gift shop, other work as dietician, chemist, personnel director, retired English professor, teacher of arts and crafts and co-worker in her husband's greenhouse. And who knows what else they are involved with!" (Editor's note: The lengthy and complete responses to my requests for information, not to mention the friendly and lively way in which alumnae presidents responded is a tribute to their ability and willingness to take on one more obligation in an already busy schedule. Thanks to all of you!)

Diversity has always been a strong point of the fraternity system, although our critics would have the public believe otherwise. The varied abilities, training, talents and interests of our members are capable of meeting any challenge. The very spark and flow of adrenalin that enables today's working woman to cope with her fragmented life . . . and, indeed, to face it with a smile as a new proving ground for her ingenuity . . . can also provide the impetus for alumnae groups to adapt and grow. Small or large, city, suburban or country, there are Kappa alumnae groups that will benefit from change and grow by adapting. Housewife or working woman, house tour or career panel, there are activities to interest and involve every member. It's up to each of us to assist in finding them.

So, like the seven dwarfs, "put on a grin and start right in to whistle while you work".

Kappa Enters Its Twelfth Decade Singing

Kappa chapters received a questionnaire this spring from the Fraternity vice president, Becky Stove Arbour, ΔI - Louisiana, asking them to rate in the order of usage most of the 111 (along with a few other) songs in the Songs of Kappa Kappa Gamma, published in 1960. This eighth edition of a book of Kappa music was compiled by Bonnie Daynes Adams, ΔH - Utah, and her committee of musically talented Kappas. It is a paperback volume, printed as inexpensively as possible, so that many actives and alumnae would be able to afford to buy a copy. It was hoped that wide distribution would relieve chapter and alumnae music chairmen of the laborious task of copying words and parts for song fests.

Music seems to have played an important part from the beginnings of Fraternity life. Alpha Chapter raised $50 early in the 1870s to pay for publication of a piano piece, the "Kappa Kappa Gamma Waltz." It was written by S. H. Price of Monmouth College's Music Department and dedicated to the Fraternity. The Key reported that after dinner exercises during the 1882 Convention included the singing of Kappa songs and dancing to the strains of the "Kappa Waltz." S. H. Price also wrote the "Golden Arrow Polka" in honor of I. C. Sorosis (the other half of the "Monmouth Duo" which later changed its name to Pi Beta Phi).

Minutes of century old chapter meetings contain entries such as, "After singing our songs chapter adjourned," and "For the first time in a great while we sang our greeting song." There also are references to "Kappa songs," "the initiatory song," and singing from Kappa's Golden Treasury (whatever that may have been).

The Conventions of 1881 and 1882 voted that a committee be appointed to collect and arrange all chapter songs worthy of circulation. In each case, the committee was composed of Nu Chapter members (Franklin College; Franklin, Indiana — established 1879, closed 1884). They were assigned the task of making a copy of all the Fraternity's suitable songs and forwarding it to the chapter next in geographical location. That chapter was to make its own copy and forward the original to the next nearest, and so forth, round robin fashion, until all chapters had obtained a copy. The collection had partially made its way around the 21 existing chapters by the 1884

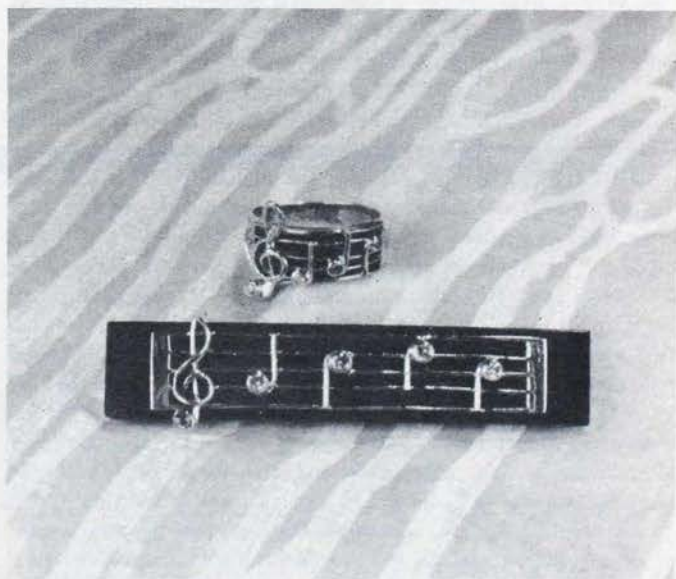

Convention, when it was decided that Beta (now Beta Beta Deuteron) be delegated to publish the best songs. Twenty five dollars was subscribed from the treasury to cover printing costs.

The first official song book appeared early in 1876. It is actually a pamphlet, 7 x 4½ inches. Its 29 pages contain words, but no music, to 36 songs. The tunes, or "airs," whose words had been replaced by Kappa sentiments, are indicated under the titles. An attempt was made to divide the book into five general categories: greeting and initiation songs, odes or hymns, reunion and alumnae songs, social songs, parting songs.

A charming custom of those days was the dedication of songs to the chapters by gentlemen admirers of a chapter's members in general, or perhaps one specific member. The 1886 song book numbers several of these among its contents. Happily, this practice is not dead. The 1960 edition carries two songs written by members of Beta Theta Pi — "She Wears the Golden Key" and "Give Your Heart to a Kappa Girl."

It was realized almost immediately that the first attempt at a compilation of Kappa tunes was rather incomplete because not all the chapters had sent in songs, and some of the Fraternity favorites had been omitted. The Convention of 1888 commissioned Chi Chapter to publish a more representative collection. With the invaluable assistance of two members of Iota Chapter, Susan Goldsmith Kelly and Jessie Cowgill, this second edition appeared in 1889. The 36 songs in the first edition were reprinted, along with 78 new numbers, indexed both alphabetically and by contributing chapter. The membership's familiarity with foreign languages is demonstrated by the inclusion of songs in German and Latin, and some contain Greek phrases. Honorary member Julia Ward Howe's stirring lyrics to the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" are the book's finale, designated as "The Song of Songs."

The third edition in 1897 is important because music is presented for the first time. Editing was by members of Beta Epsilon, the Barnard College chapter (established 1891, closed 1917). It was published by Grand Council, and retained 25 songs from the first edition. Meticulous attention had been given to copyrights to the music that is printed in the book. Owners' permission was sought in every case, and where it was refused, words only are used.

Catherine Allison Christie, I - DePauw, Chairman of Music from 1941-1948, willed her onyx ring and bar pin, embellished with a staff of 14 karat gold and diamond notes, to the Fraternity to be worn by each successive music chairman during her term in office.

A fourth edition song book made its appearance in 1916. It was compiled by Jeannette Comstock and Juliette Hollenback, members of Beta Sigma Chapter (established at Adelphi College of Brooklyn and later Garden City, New York, in 1905 and closed in 1954). Among the book's "new" songs are five whose popularity persisted throughout the next four editions. Two of them, with substitute words for the old Russian National Anthem and "Because You're You," from Victor Herbert's The Red Mill, are sung by many actives and alumnae today. Fraternity members have adopted these compositions as "Kappa, All Hail To Thee" and "Not Thy Key, Oh Kappa."

In honor of the Fraternity's completed first half-century of existence and the 35th anniversary of a printed volume of songs, a fifth edition was published under the direction of Carolyn McGowan, whose title was custodian of the song book. Her chapter, BPΔ - University of Cincinnati, aided, along with the Cincinnati Alumnae Association, in its preparation. There seem to be two versions of this edition — one which includes several initiation songs and one which does not. The Call, now a top secret, appears as a feature of the 1921 and 1932 cover designs. Such favorites as "I Love You Truly," "One, Two, Three Words," "My Little Kappa Lady," "When I Went To College," "Pat Says She," and the "Kappa Blessing" now could be found in the contents of a Kappa song book for the first time.

In 1932 a sixth edition was prepared under the supervision of Winifred Glass (Rosenwald), ΓΘ - Drake, Fraternity chairman of music from 1930 to 1937. The name, "custodian of the song book," had been changed at the 1930 Convention. Only one song from the earliest editions remains in this collection. An Initiation Song Contest was held during the 1930s in an attempt to improve the quality of the music. The first prize was ten dollars; the second, five. Chapters were at a loss for uniform material at this time and used whatever they liked or had been done before within the individual groups.

The seventh edition of a Kappa song book, Serenade of Keys, was published in 1945. Catherine Allison Christie, I - DePauw, chairman of music from 1941 to 1948, was responsible for this volume. It is much smaller than the sixth edition, containing only 34 songs, none of them from the pioneer editions. Catherine Christie also prepared the first pamphlet of standardized initiation songs in 1946, composing several of them in the process. Now music chairmen could quit agonizing over this situation. Before the pamphlet appeared, they only were able to offer suggestions and arrangements to chapters seeking help with initiation music. Catherine Christie willed her onyx ring and bar pin, embellished with a staff of 14 karat gold and diamond notes, to Kappa Kappa Gamma for each succeeding music chairman to wear while in office.

A new booklet of initiation songs was printed at Fraternity Headquarters by Jean Ebright Elin, BN - Ohio State, Ann Green Mahle, Δ - Massachusetts, and Dinny Texter Callahan, BM - Colorado, under the direction of Becky Arbour, in 1979. Becky reorganized the 1979 pamphlet, placing the material in the proper order and preparing a table of instructions to accompany it. Workshops on the use of ritual were held at province meetings that spring.

Many KKG authors have rewritten lyrics to previously composed classical, semi-classical, and popular melodies. Some of these Kappa have gone on to become well-known poets. Two are Phyllis McGinley Hayden, ΔH - Utah, and Elinor Kiess Rose, K - Hillsdale. Others, some of whom wrote music as well as words, have served as Fraternity officers. An incomplete list includes:

Cleora Wheeler, X - Minnesota, grand registrar 1904 - 1906 and custodian of the badge 1911 - 1918
 Juliette Hollenback, BΣ - Adelphi, grand registrar 1910 - 1912
 Katherine Tobin Mullin, BΣ - Adelphi, editor of The Key 1914 - 1922
 Helen Beiderwelle Hanselman, BPΔ - Cincinnati, Gamma Province President 1929 - 1931 and composer of the spirited Kappa Toast
 Alphonsine Clapp Howard, Σ - Nebraska, Kappa PDA 1972 - 1975

Mention also might be made of the Fraternity's song writing grand president, Jean Nelson Penfield. She led Kappa at the turn of the century, from 1900 to 1902, and she was a leader of women all her life — as an attorney, parliamentarian, reformer, suffragist, lecturer. She had studied music and drama in New York after her graduation from DePauw University. We have no record of songs she may have written for Iota Chapter and KKG, but titles of some others she wrote are: "White Tree Tops," "Mother Mine," "Hold High the Flag," "The Right To Be a Man," and "It's Once More Gay on Old Broadway."

The eighth edition in our progression of song books has been discussed in the beginning of this article. Twenty years beyond that very practical, successful volume seems a good time for the introduction and publication of many new songs as well as rearrangements of old ones. Actives and alumnae are encouraged to send their entries as quickly as possible to:

Mrs. Robert Arbour
 1220 Ross Avenue
 Baton Rouge, La. 70808

The ninth edition of a book of Fraternity songs is scheduled for debut at the 1981 province meetings — so hurry!

Fraternity Headquarters has no piano. This seems a serious omission in a home which has been furnished and decorated as authentically as possible in the manner of the Victorian Era. Surely a square or grand piano graced the drawing room of the lovely old residence when it was a center of Columbus society. Kappa's Museum Committee is most anxious to acquire an appropriate instrument in playing condition. It would be wonderful if the parlor walls could ring again with the sound of music when convention delegates, Council and Associate Council, field secretaries and graduate counselors, committees and other Fraternity personnel, or local groups meet there. How delightful it would be to hear a recital by a Kappa artist in the gracious setting of our 130-year-old mansion! if any of you can help us locate a suitable piano, will you please contact Headquarters?

Washington, D.C.-Suburban Maryland Leads the Polls

Making an alumnae association run successfully is quite similar to campaigning for president of the United States! It takes organization, the leader's ability to delegate responsibility, (a good staff to carry through, careful planning,) a variety of programs, an informed constituency, willing workers and the overall spirit of camaraderie that combines fun and dedication to make it all work. The atmosphere of our nation's capital must set the tone for area Kappas because the Washington, D.C. - Suburban Maryland Alumnae Association is a front-runner in the polls for successful sisterhood.

Marilyn Cave Bradley, ΓM - Oregon State, president of the group for the past biennium, said in a speech given at the initiation luncheon of ΓΨ - Maryland this spring:

"Wear your key with pride. It identifies you as one who chose well . . . and was also well-chosen. The smaller recognition keys . . . gifts to the initiates with love from the alumnae . . . may be worn long after the college sorority pin finds a place in your jewelry box . . . and are in themselves keys to an unlimited number of future friendships. You will find Kappas throughout your lives in the strangest places, in the oddest circumstances . . . and always when you need a friend. The fraternity experience is continuing giving and sharing, growing and learning together, with friends. It can give to each of us the support, encouragement and confidence to lead contributive and self-fulfilling lives. Enjoy . . . and appreciate . . . your Kappa heritage."

It seems that the executive board planned and executed the group's program in the light of these remarks and a part of their success is reflected in an increase in membership from 125 to 185. It was felt that because of the atmosphere and pressures of the particular city, a strong and informative program was imperative if they were to maintain the support of the membership. Consequently, the board began planning with these basic ideas: appreciation of our Kappa Heritage and our roles as Kappas today, utilization of the resources within the association . . . programs by Kappas and for Kappas, exploration and knowledge of the city in which they live.

Attendance varies, but different Kappas attend each meeting and so friendships grow. They average 60 for a luncheon, 35 for an evening meeting, 20 for a coffee or tour, with much larger turnouts for special events.

The geographical area and individual personalities in this association contribute to the success of the program but many of their ideas could be adapted for use by other groups. September meetings are times for getting acquainted or reacquainted. In 1978 they honored ten past presidents, gave a brief history of the association and showed the slide show of convention. This past season started with a group of mini meetings at diverse times and locations, with Lambda Province Director of Alumnae and of Chapters and chapter council advisers to ΓΨ and ΓX among the speakers.

Founders Day is always a special day just for Kappas. 1978 saw the beginning of a three-part program for this group; three portions of the initiation service conducted by Pauline Tomlin Beall, ΓX - George Washington, 1978 Loyalty Award Winner and a very special member of the group. This year was a combination celebration with the 50th anniversary of ΓX and ΓΨ Chapters. (See ΓX and ΓΨ Celebrate 50th on page 57 of this issue.)

December is traditionally a salad and dessert luncheon with recipes raffled off. The program may be holiday-oriented or related to some facet of our national capital.

A block of tickets for the University of Maryland basketball game and a party later at a member's home was the gala answer to February doldrums in '78. A first for '79 and hopefully a future event, was the "First Annual Luncheon With Our Sisters Across the Potomac". Having met the members of the Northern Virginia Alumnae Association at Lambda Province Meeting in 1979 and then working together on the 50th anniversary celebration of the two chapters, it seemed to be time for a fun get-together and that was the feeling for 50 members of the combined groups who met for quiche, salad, dessert and sisterhood. Sometimes it's fun just to BE A KAPPA. (continued pg. 57)

ALUMNAE

ACTIVITY . . .

Atlanta

For their second year, Atlanta Alumnae Association members served as hostesses for the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's premier party for the Decorator Show House. An annual tradition of the Atlanta Symphony, for nine years the show house has provided an opportunity for local decorators to demonstrate their talents in different rooms of a selected Atlanta area mansion. Pictured are alumnae members and actives of EE - Emory who also served as hostesses.

Northern Virginia

Mona Anderson Shultz, IZ - Arizona, and her husband, Ted, are the originators of a popular philanthropic project; Northern Virginia Alumnae Association's Gourmet Cooking Class. Now in their third year of teaching, Ted and Mona create a complete menu around such delicacies as Veal Quenelles or Chicken Saltim Bocca, demonstrate the preparation of most of the menu, give detailed recipes, and serve their finished meals. The response has been so enthusiastic that each menu must be offered on two occasions to meet the demand. A reasonable charge of six to eight dollars per person provides five dollars for Kappa philanthropies and the remainder to cover the cost of ingredients. To date, Kappa has netted about $800 and, says one regular, "lots of first-rate camaraderie".

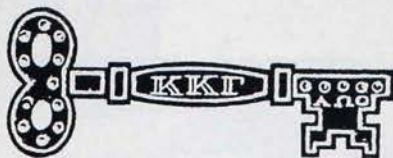

Memphis

Ellen Hazenfield Stern, EA - Tennessee, Sharon Gafford Ritz, BO - Oklahoma, and Betsy Foster West, ΔB - Duke, stand at the door to welcome guests to the Kappa Christmas House, a new ways and means project for the Memphis Alumnae Association and an out-growth of their annual greenery sale at "crafty" members' interests and talents. Both day and night owls had a chance to work on the project in which crafts were made and greenery ordered in advance. The home of an alumna was decorated and guests could enjoy refreshments, order greens and buy craft items. Proceeds were divided among Kappa philanthropies and Forget-Me-Not, Inc., a local rehabilitation agency. All Kappas agreed that it was a great way to get into the holiday spirit.

Baton Rouge

Kappas of the Baton Rouge Alumnae Association and their guests chartered a bus for an all-day trip to Natchez, MS for the Natchez Pilgrimage. A highlight of the year's programs, the trip took them on a tour of five of the famous antebellum homes gracing the bluffs above the Mississippi River. Donna Cambon Stuart, ΔI - Louisiana State, and her mother-in-law, Dottie Phillips Stuart, also ΔI, were among those who enjoyed the trip and who look forward to a similar outing next year.

Portland

The third annual "Trees of Christmas Home Tour" of the Portland, OR Alumnae Association netted $2,500 for the Oregon Kidney Association. Decorated for the holiday season by the Kappas, three area homes reflected a variety of architecture, size and theme: Williamsburg, Victorian and traditional English. Homemade refreshments were served and wooden ornaments and greens were sold to a capacity crowd. Admiring a Della Robbia wreath are Marilyn Reinelt Hodgson, ΓM - Oregon State; alumnae president Marilyn Hooper Pamplin, and Mary Lou Gooding Raffety, both BΩ - Oregon.

Chicago North Suburban

Feeling that sophomore year can be a let-down after all the attention received in freshman rush, the members of the North Suburban Chicago Alumnae Association invited the sophomores from Y - Northwestern to a winter brunch. Enjoying the get-together are Mary Ann Bondurant Hodgkins, Y - Northwestern; Margery Scott Marlatt, I - DePauw, alumnae president; and Mimi Hodgkins, Y sophomore who helped her mother hostess the event.

Dallas

The Dallas Alumnae Association and their junior and night groups netted $32,000 from the 1979 Kappa Christmas Tour of Homes. New this year was a very successful preview party for sponsors of the home tour, held at the home of alumnae president, Peggy Dunlap Thompson, BΞ - Texas. Money raised will support local charities as well as national and Theta Province scholarship funds. Pictured are Nadine Ligon Hankinson, BΘ - Oklahoma, and Anne Blalock Bunter, BΞ - Texas, co-chairmen of the biennial event, as they happily add up the proceeds.

Richardson

Day and night groups of the Richardson, TX Alumnae Association met on March 18, 1980 to celebrate their fiftieth anniversary. Among the special guests were ten past presidents of the group and Theta Province Director of Alumnae, Eloise Moore Netherton, BΞ - Texas. One of the founding members, Jane Tourner Curry, Δ - Indiana, gave a brief history of the group. In 1961, a chance meeting of several Kappas at a newcomer's tea led to the formation of a club and three years later, with 30 members, the association was chartered. That year Kappa joined Alpha Delta Pi and Delta Delta Delta to form the nucleus of the Richardson Panhellenic Group.

Membership now stands at over 125 and several small-scale projects have become annual events that have benefited several local rehabilitation projects and national scholarship funds. Area Kappas are proud of having received the McNaboe award at three conventions.

Capital District (N.Y.)

A special effort to increase membership brought promising results for the Capital District Alumnae Club. Interest increased as members gathered to make wheelchair bags for patients at the county nursing home. Enjoying sisterhood while they stitch are Mary Bowkley Beyer and Mary Daley, both BT - Syracuse; Susan Mitchell Russell, EB - Colorado State; and Kay Scholberg, ΔΦ - Bucknell, former field secretary and graduate counselor.

Names

in the News . . .

Donna Symmonds Clemson, ΔA - Penn State, cheerfully manages a lively family of five, a large old house, occasional teaching and a full-time job as editor of alumni publications at Pennsylvania State University. The chief publication is the bi-monthly magazine, The Penn Stater, an attractive magazine that covers university and alumni news and includes articles on sports, music, theatre and local glimpses such as the museum-like atmosphere and old prints in a favorite local dining spot. In this university-oriented family, husband Frank commutes daily with Donna to University Park; one son is a chemical engineering graduate; daughter Leslee is a new initiate in ΔA and younger Clemsons are likely to follow. Donna has served Kappa ΔA alumnae president, chapter adviser and Beta Province Director of Chapters. Her professional experience is varied but the last decade has been with the PSU Alumni Association. Somehow her busy schedule manages to include an interest in antiques, dress-making, building doll houses and miniature furniture, and bridge . . . a very energetic lady!

Janna White Maestri, ΔI - Louisiana State, applied the principles of the tickler system, a widely used office technique, to organizing the daily activities of running a household. The result is a series of home executive's seminars which she teaches in Baton Rouge and several other Louisiana cities. The seminars cover time management, organization of time and people, delegation of responsibilities and of storage space, the running of a home office, and touch on kitchen and laundry work, financial management and Christmas holidays.

The course, called "Fringe Benefits for the Home Executive", uses a system of color-coded cards related to responsibilities and chores that must be done each day, week, or seasonally, with time allotted for oneself and bonuses of free time. She has received such favorable reception that she now writes a column for a local newspaper and will soon appear as a regular feature on a local morning television show.

Marie Zellfelder Vogan, BA - Pennsylvania, received the "unsung heroine of the month" award from the Jenkintown, PA Rotary Club for her volunteer work at Abington Memorial Hospital where she has served since 1957 by sorting patient mail, working in clinics, comforting families in the lounge and helping young patients in the recovery room. Pictured with her is her husband, Rex, who serves with her in Red Cross Bloodmobile campaigns.

Kathrine Shaw Spaht, ΔP - Mississippi, professor of law at the LSU Law School, has won many professional and civic honors in her busy eight year teaching career. She has served as chairman of the advisory committee of the Joint Legislative Subcommittee responsible for reformation of Louisiana's community Property Laws and on the state law institute's committee proposing reform of Louisiana Family Law, as well as writing numerous articles and a book in the works on Louisiana Family Law and Community Property Law. This busy wife and mother of two spends time for Kappa alumnae and chapter activity, has served on the Junior League executive committee and was featured in a local newspaper article on how women combine work and home. She is a recipient of Kappa's Alumnae Achievement Award in 1974.

Helen Hoskinson Jones, BI - Swarthmore, was honored by the Bellaire, FL Civic Association for her work in the community. She has spearheaded community beautification through the park board and garden club, as well as working for improvements and new equipment for the police and fire departments. Her citation for service reads, in part, "Every community has a few dedicated, tireless workers - often too few - who care enough about their town to give continuously of themselves to improve its beauty, stature and quality of life."

Marion Smith Bishop, BM - Colorado, has served Kappa as Eta PDC, rush advisor to BM for 10 years, Denver Panhellenic President in 1946, and former assistant to director of alumnae. For her devotion to Panhellenic and Kappa, Marion was named Woman of the Year by the Denver Area Panhellenic at the 73rd Annual Awards Luncheon at the Brown Palace Hotel. Three scholarship winners (Kappa, Margaret Althoff) and eight collegiate achievement award winners (Kappa, Sue Knights) were named. The Denver Woman of the Year was established in 1971 with another Kappa Phyllis Brinton Pryor, BM - Colorado, as its first recipient.

Mary Garban Dlugos, ΔY - Georgia, a designer with Colony Furniture Shops of Charlotte, N.C., was one of the decorators featured in individual room designs at "Morrocroft", the Charlotte Symphony ASID (American Society of Interior Designers) Designer House. Photos of the house are featured in Southern Accents, a magazine of southern interiors and gardens.

Nancy Kelley Wittenberg, EZ - Florida State, is Secretary of the Department of Professional Regulation, headquartered in Tallahassee, FL. Selected by Governor Bob Graham to head the department as its first secretary, she has final authority over 25 professions, including physicians, real estate, nurses, cosmetologists and funeral directors, in the licensing of over 628,000 professionals in Florida. She has previously served on or as head of a wide variety of state commissions.

Pattie Sweeney Starcher, EZ - Florida State, is an example of the fabled surprise success story. One day when business was dull at the linen shop she operates in Florida, she took off for New York and her lifelong dream of performing there. Answering an ad in a trade paper, she auditioned for an off-Broadway comedy, Roadhouse Girl, and won the lead over 200 other actresses. Incidentally, the show satirized the old movies in which a pretty girl wins fame and fortune in Hollywood! Pattie is now back at the linen shop but hopeful that her continued contact with two theatrical agents will help her to land additional roles.

Doris Larimore, ΓN - Arkansas, is a former Coast Guard officer and private pilot who organized a group of high school girls interested in aviation into a senior scout troop which evolved into a community service organization, the Wing T's. In 1979 many of those former Wing T's gathered to honor this outstanding Kappa who had become a second mother and best friend to 197 girls . . . including several future Kappas.

The troop worked hard at a myriad of fund-raising activities to finance their work with the elderly, under-privileged, and mentally and physically handicapped. In 1976 Governor David Pryor honored Doris with the Arkansas Outstanding Volunteer Award for her work in establishing the Adult Development Center and in her honor a $200 donation was made to the center by those attending the 1979 reunion.

Doris' civic activities also include service as president of the hospital auxiliary and member of the hospital board, P.E.O. and Panhellenic. Her successful real estate and insurance business seems almost secondary to her enthusiasm for life and her devotion to the needs of others.

Lisa Leonard, Σ Chapter president; Lucy Van Horn Sawyer, Σ -Nebraska, 75 year member; Ann Nordstrom Van Bloom, Σ , Lincoln alumnae president.

Dorothy Dougherty Greenwhite, ΓX -George Washington, Mary Elizabeth Eddy Crabtree, $\Gamma \Omega$ -Denison, Bonnie E. Warner Schroeder, Northwestern, received 50 year pins at the Hinsdale-LaGraine (I) Founders' Day celebration.

Katherine Hunt Bennett, BI -Swarthmore, received her 50 year pin from Kathryn Wolf Luce, $\Gamma \Omega$ -Denison, also a 50 year Kappa, members of the Fairfield County (CT) Alumnae Association.

Rochester (N.Y.) alumnae turned out on a bad winter day for a special luncheon honoring Marjorie Gardner Salisbury's, BT -Syracuse, 75 years as a Kappa on the exact date of her initiation. Pictured are Carol Krier MacDonald, ΓP -Allegheny, Marjorie Salisbury, Marjorie Matson Converse, $\Gamma \Delta$ -Purdue, national extension chairman.

Golden Value of Long-term Members

Kappa Kappa Gamma honors 75 year members as well as 50 year members, whose devotion, loyalty and spirit are a vital and active force in our lives. We build on the past, we work in the present and we look to the future while we thank those who gave us the firm foundation from which we grow.

Virginia Thompson, ΓII -Alabama; Marie Stowe Hubbard, ΓI -Washington U; (top) and Jessie Haas, also ΓII , received 50 year pins from Jane Vulevich Hieronymus, ΓII , president of the Mobile Alumnae Association.

Lufkin (TX) Alumnae Club presented a 50 year pin to Josephine Rutland Fredrick, $B \Xi$ -Texas, second from right, seated. Also seated are Judy Martin Dies, also $B \Xi$; Cathey Puckett Friesen, EA -Texas Christian; Mary Martha Gardner Henderson, $\Gamma \Phi$ -SMU. Standing are Mary Knotts Perkins, $B \Xi$; Joan Cox Temple, ΓN -Arkansas; Len Arnett Medford, EA ; Ann Temple Allen, and Effie Tenge Stemple, both $B \Xi$.

“Realities, Risks, and Rewards are discovered by Kappas attending NAWDAC Meeting

The National Association of Women Deans and Counselors (NAWDAC) convened April 8-12, 1980, at the Netherland Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Kappa was well represented at the gathering of over 500. Past president of NAWDAC Jane McCormick, ΔA - Penn State; and Assistant to the President of Penn State, Doris Seward, Δ - Indiana, joined with newly elected vice president for professional development, Gail Short Hanson, H - Wisconsin, in honoring Jeannette Scudder Anderson, $\Gamma \Delta$ - Purdue, as a Citation Winner.

From 1940-1955, Jeannette Scudder Anderson served as Dean of Women at the University of Arkansas followed by fifteen years as Dean of Women and Associate Dean of Students at the SUNY at Buffalo. A graduate of Purdue University who holds a Master's Degree and Professional Diploma in Student Personnel Administration from Teachers College, Columbia University, she began her career as Director of Residence Halls for Women at the University of Kentucky.

The hallmarks of her abilities as administrator and counselor are vision, justice, compassion, warmth, friendship, and encouragement. She has fostered innovations in student government, Panhellenic, the design and financing of student housing, and initiated early programs of peer counseling and continuing education for women.

Jeannette's leadership has been felt in NAWDAC, which she has served as Director of the University Section, Association Secretary and member and chairperson of various committees in her 43 years of membership. When APGA was founded, she exerted a strong voice in persuading the then NADW to remain an independent organization. A vigorous proponent of equality of opportunity, she was a leader in admission and integration of black students into the University of Arkansas in the 1940's and early 1950's. At Buffalo, a church project of her instigation grew into a powerful city-wide organization, Housing Opportunities Made Equal. Under her presidency, the Buffalo Branch of AAUW initiated meetings which eventuated in emergency inter-governmental actions which saved Lake Erie from dying.

In 1970 she retired from higher education, married Lyle V. Anderson, and lived for several years in Japan. She now lives in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Her interests and activities have not yet retired!" (From the NAWDAC Citation)

Gail Hanson is the Dean of Students at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. where she has served as Assistant Dean of Students, Assistant Director of Housing, and Resident Director. She has an M.A. from George Washington and a B.A. from the University of Wisconsin. Her memberships include AAUW, Am. Assoc. of Higher Education, Omicron Delta Kappa, faculty member CUPA Workshops on Access for the Handicapped 1978, task force member — Model Admissions Project — ACE/AACRAO 1978, conference speaker 1977 Women's Leadership Conference in Washington, Community Service Award from United Way 1977, and Who's Who Among Women in Higher Education 1978.

Spring meetings may include a tour, an autobiography or part of the initiation service and a party for Polly Tomlin Beall - George Washington. As if this isn't enough, add Career Night, a panel presented by the alumnae for the two chapters. (See Whistle While You Work, page 35 of this issue.) June winds up the year for most of us and last year this group visited an indoor tennis facility for several hours of playing and lunch at a member's home. This year will be a special event; a bon voyage party to send Fraternity Treasurer, Jean Lee Schmidt, ΔΔ - Miami, off to convention in style, complete with Florida-atmosphere pool party and convention-style awards. Local chapter members will be included in the invitation. A special event each year is the annual benefit for Children's Hospital National Medical Center and Kappa philanthropies. Apples and champagne are served and a fashion show presented at Garfinckel's, an elegant old Washington store. Door prizes are donated by the store and the featured designer and cosmetic company. Kappa alumnae supplement the professional models and actives of ΓΧ and ΓΨ are encouraged to attend at half price. This half price policy is a regular thing, with the alumnae association paying half the cost of the actives' Founders Day receptions, etc.)

Additional fund-raisers carry intriguing titles. "Be Mugged by a Kappa Owl" involves the sale of stoneware mugs decorated with a blue and white owl design. One is presented to each graduating senior of the two chapters and they are for sale locally and will be at the Blue Owl Boutique at convention. "Bag the Kappa Bird" is the unusual name for a new project. Quilted tote bags with an owl applique, designed and stitched by a member and with handwork done by board members. These will also be sold at convention and the proceeds will go toward a special new philanthropy . . . the Pauline Tomlin Beall Scholarship, an undergraduate award of $500 presented by the group in Polly's honor.

To quote again from Marilyn Bradley's speech, having a successful organization means planning, programs, professionalism and pride . . . in the fraternity and in self. This has been the success story of this alumnae group.

Congressional Country Club

Gamma Chi and Gamma Psi Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Congressional Country Club of Potomac, Maryland, was the elegant setting for the golden anniversary of the founding of Kappa's "Heavenly Twins," Gamma Chi at George Washington University and Gamma Psi at the University of Maryland on Founders Day, October 13, 1979.

The two groups were installed June 7, 1929, in a single ceremony and have remained the only two chapters ever jointly installed. Jane Ramey Knox, I - DePauw, was named honorary hostess of the Founders Day Celebration in recognition of her participation in that installation when she was president of the Washington, D.C. Alumnae Association.

Chairman Marjorie Faeth Brier, ΓΜ - Oregon State, coordinated the Northern Virginia and Washington, D.C. - Maryland alumnae clubs in planning the gala celebration for an overflow crowd of 364. Marilyn Cave Bradley, Ω - Kansas, mistress of ceremonies, introduced Jean Schmidt, ΔΔ - Miami, Fraternity treasurer, who offered a spirited account of the changes fraternity women have experienced. Fifty-year pins were presented to 42 Kappas, and for a grand finale, Sara Mae Eckstein, ΒΠ - Washington, gave an historical panorama of ΓΧ and ΓΨ featuring musical sketches and fashions from the past.

1979-1981 Province Nominating Chairmen Announced

Province Meetings will be held in 1981 and all Kappas are urged to consider those they wish to nominate for Province Officers. Please send any suggestions to your appropriate Province Nominating Chairman.

Partners in Volunteerism

by Rebecca Stone Arb
ΔΙ - Louisiana

The dictionary defines a "volunteer" as one who enters into or offers himself for any service of his own free will. It's most important to understand this term "volunteer" as it applies to members of the Greek system. Let's not narrow our thinking to visualize a volunteer as someone who only collects money for charity, door-to-door, for instance, or works in a hospital one day a week, or washes cars for a needy cause, or devotes endless time producing a top-notch dance or football marathon for a national philanthropy. True, when Greeks engage in these worthy philanthropy projects, they are serving as volunteers, however, in the broadest sense of the term, Greek members become volunteers the day that they pledge. Upon initiation, each member promises to uphold the Constitution and Bylaws of the organization and so takes on the responsibility of service of his own free will and becomes a volunteer simply by virtue of membership. So when we think about volunteerism, let's think of this broader definition and realize that your members are volunteers. As organizations made up of volunteers, Greek fraternities and sororities should make a difference in the lives of their members and on their campus.

What would happen if all Greeks stopped functioning?

What would happen if all Greeks stopped functioning on any given campus? How would both the members and the campus be affected? There should be a great difference, if we are doing a good job with our groups. Without active chapters the small-group living experience on the college campus would disappear and the lessons of leadership development and communication skills would fall to other campus groups. These other campus organizations, so often the benefactor of their Greek members, would be greatly challenged. Without active chapters there would be loss of scholarship aid, no philanthropy drives and the housing implications on many campuses would be severe.

So we can see that the existence of active Greek chapters does make a difference and would affect a lot of people if they did not exist. Our challenge is to continue to use these voluntary organizations to the best possible advantage and this means providing positive experiences for our members to keep them involved and interested, as any group is only as good as its members.

We all live under the "Discipline of Three Domains" . . .

. . .the individual imposes obligations upon himself . . . not to fulfill this commitment is to betray himself.

Lord Moulton, in the Atlantic Monthly, explains that we all live under what is known as the Discipline of Three Domains: The first of these domains is the force of positive law which prescribes rules of conduct and exacts penalties for disobedience (obeying traffic laws, paying taxes, etc.). The second realm that influences us is that of free will, which is covered by no statutes (reading a book, taking a nap, etc.). The third domain - and the one pertinent to volunteerism - is the one where neither law nor free choice prevails. It is in this domain that the individual imposes obligations upon himself. The individual is not completely free, as he has accepted a responsibility. He knows that no law and no individual may compel him to fulfill this commitment, but he also knows that not to do this, is to betray himself.

The greatness of an organization, a community or a country is measured by the extent to which those involved are disciplined by this third domain. A college student receives a good grade for accepting the responsibility of class demands. She also might receive a grade if she has a part-time job. To have her volunteer and impose the responsibility of Greek membership upon herself, certain needs and satisfactions must be fulfilled in lieu of concrete rewards such as pay or grades.

she needs:

Worthwhile work and programs
Positive relationships with those around her

Individual self-growth opportunities

On the other hand, Greek life provides:

Worthwhile work to do

Opportunity to test untried capabilities as part of a team effort

Opportunity to learn new skills and grow as an individual

It is apparent that volunteer needs are closely related to the opportunities provided by Greek life, so it is no surprise that fraternities and sororities are excellent training grounds for volunteerism.

Let's take a look at some of the positive qualities that can be developed through Greek life. These qualities are the things that cause self-growth in our members and all are qualities that serve well throughout life. When asked what they "get out" of a fraternity or sorority, most will say, "friendships and social life." Don't misunderstand, it is those things, but it is a great deal more. The membership process, for instance, teaches communication skills, social skills, and very importantly, how to make a choice, no matter how difficult.

Fraternity experience is life in capsule.

Being a part of a group is learning about compromise, dealing with people, being recognized for jobs well done and learning from mistakes. In short, the fraternity experience is life in capsule and challenges the leadership within the group to make that experience as sitive as possible. So leadership is another quality that is developed along with all of the ministrative skills involved.

As each member grows and begins to develop these positive qualities, a chapter becomes stratified with members at all levels of volunteer experience. A good chapter puts all this to work and does all sorts of exciting things as a group and with others.

Today, active chapters are becoming more aware of all of their members. Certainly there are still Indians and chiefs, but the Indians are giving their say and the chiefs are responding instead of the other way around. Leadership must respond to member needs and it is a great step forward in a chapter where this has happened.

Chapter officers are being better trained. Chapter programs are becoming more creative and beginning to change from "what has always been done" to things that are, again, more responsive to their members - and they're having much more fun, too!

Panhellenics and Interfraternity Councils are still sponsoring traditional social events, but are becoming more and more involved in training and educative mechanisms such as the many area Greek Conferences being held around the country.

Philanthropy is really "in." Individual chapters, Panhellenics, Interfraternity Councils - and in various cooperative combinations are walking, hiking, marching, speaking and meeting for charity. They are sponsoring large media events to raise money for large national philanthropies and are doing small, less noticeable, good things for children and elderly people. There are dance marathons, football marathons, Christmas, Halloween and Easter parties for children, car washes, balloon derbies - and even an urban renewal project where an old run-down house was restored for a 76 year-old woman. So you can really see that our fraternities and sororities are truly partners in volunteerism: active in interworking with pledges; Indians with chiefs, chapters with other chapters; Panhellenics and Interfraternity Councils.

With the qualities of trained volunteers, many alumnae are interested in expanding their volunteer horizons within their community.

After being involved in a system such as this during the undergraduate years, what's the payoff? Hopefully, we produce stimulated, experienced alumnae, interested in expanding their campus and Greek experience into their community as effective citizens - and back into their individual fraternity organizations. Those alumnae who are interested in continuing their volunteer work on the campus and in the fraternity system, are those who help to form the network of the fraternity system, itself: national officers, alumnae groups, House Corporation officers and the chapter advisers. National officers actually administer the fraternity while alumnae groups provide community and friendship experience. The continuity and expertise of chapter advisers has proven essential to the long-range growth of a chapter. Somehow, without good advisers, chapters slip into a pattern that is neither creative nor stimulating. Finally, without the diligent work of alumnae House Corporation officers to maintain our properties, Greek chapters would indeed be crippled. Many other alumnae members, organized in their own alumnae group or as individuals, continue to help their undergraduate members by providing arrangements for a social event; by presenting programs, such as career seminars; or by just being a contact in the community for a job, a service or for social reasons.

Volunteers in a community make the difference in the quality of life offered.

With the qualities of a trained volunteer, many alumnae are interested in expanding their volunteer horizons within their community. A large percentage of community leaders are Greeks, and they not only work at full time jobs or careers, or care for a home and family, they also serve on boards of directors in a voluntary capacity; are active in their churches and political parties - and serve in innumerable ways doing innumerable things. It is the volunteers in a community that make the difference in the quality of life that a community offers. Sociologists and economists say that volunteerism is the future of our society. Alienation from a sense of family, community and self, has been caused by today's technology and high mobility. Volunteerism has a way of filling the gaps and transitions in our lives.

For individuals, having the expertise of a good volunteer increases their credentials and the level of this expertise builds with each new experience and challenge. It opens doors to a variety of growth possibilities and may be an entry into a paying job, if this is what that person seeks. A speech therapy major, by way of example, might be a member of an undergraduate chapter committee to plan a Christmas party for handicapped children, many of these children needing speech therapy. This individual is exposed to the children and meets many of the staff involved, and decides to volunteer on a part-time basis. Several things happen: volunteer skills are increased and credentials are boosted toward the paying job. It also gives the individual on-the-location insight that may redirect career goals.

Greeks can give their members a head start on life by developing qualities and skills that make for a caring, productive member of society.

So the world of the volunteer is a broad world indeed, necessary to the community and necessary to the campus. Greeks can give their members a head start on life by developing the qualities and skills that make for a caring, productive member of society. We really must do this, because not to will endanger the Greek system itself. We must produce members willing to be good volunteers, because a chapter functions in direct relationship to member interest. Our alumnae must remain enthused. With the trends of more women in the job market and back on campus; of rising inflation and higher energy costs, we, as Greeks, must be able to provide quality experiences and high rewards or we'll lose our advisers and interested alumnae because what we provide won't be worth the time - or the gas - to get there. There is time to both work at a paying job and volunteer, but it's got to be worthwhile and rewarding. Careful attention must be given to all fraternity programming, so that some skill, some positive quality will be developed through any major program. In this way we will be insuring the needs of our members as well as contributing to the long-range development of those who will be productive volunteers for their fraternity, sorority and their future communities.
