Letters To The Editor:

During our Rush period this Spring one of our parties was around the theme "The Zodiac". Being in charge of the party, I decided to check into Kappa's own zodiac sign and see if I could relate it. The following is what I came up with. I was truly amazed at how the ideals and beliefs of Kappa fit in with those characteristics of a Libra. It turned out to be a rather interesting horoscope, and something we here at Delta Mu (U. Conn.) would like to share with our other Kappa sisters.

Loyally,

Donna J. Swedin

ΔM-University of Connecticut

On October 13, 1870, at Monmouth College in Monmouth, Illinois six young women entered the chapel. All wore large golden keys bearing the Greek letters KKT, symbolizing the "birth of our sorority, falling under the sun sign Libra.

Libra: well-balanced, intelligent, a gracious host.

These three phrases are all descriptive of one born on October 13. The ultimate goal of Libra is peace and love. Those who appreciate her are fascinated by her sense of beauty and balance, and her ability to see two sides to a story. Libra signifies cooperation, partnership, public relations, and a sense of equilibrium.

One might think that with all these wonderful intentions everyone would be on her side. This isn't the way of the world though. Yes, she's adored by many, but there are others who find her not to be their cup of tea. But, she is an idealist who moves people, once she commits herself. And, once committed, followers are attracted.

An almost innate, subconscious goal of a Libra is toward culture. She is a humanist-she too is very human and may be soft and giving.

Sound is very important to a Libra-musical tones, the voice, the sound of music; these are all meaningful where she is concerned. She can appreciate music, the music of the spheres-which means, in this case, the rhythm of the universe, the movements of the planets, the categories of life. She appreciates order, involvement-the involvement of one human in the life of others . . . the meshing of gears, the give and take of human relationships.

The above information concerning the characteristics of a Libra were taken from Sidney Omar's Astrological Revelations About You by Sidney Omar.

Dear Kappa alum:

Won't you take this opportunity to play an important part in Kappa's future? Stop right now and think of those special young women in your community who will be entering college next fall. Check in the directory included in this issue to see if there is a Kappa chapter at the school she will attend.

Now, use the reference form on page 37 to let those Kappas know about your prospective rushee!

The process is a simple one. If you are a member of an area which has an Alumnae Association or Club, just send the form to your Area Reference Chairman listed in the directory pages 32-36. If you live in an area which does not have any Alumnae Association, send the reference form directly to the membership chairman of the chapter involved. You can find her name, as well as her school and summer addresses, in the directory beginning page 23. Note also the chapter rush dates. Send your information about girls you are interested in early.

Join in Kappa's future . . . insured by pledging outstanding young women. If you care enough to send the very best . . . complete a reference right now.

Loyally,

Sally Nitschke

Alpha - Gamma

To give a unique opportunity to share Kappa concerns with actives and alumnae from Canada, England, New England, New York and Ohio, a joint Alpha-Gamma Province Meeting was held April 4-6, 1975. This first joint venture was held at the Marriott Inn, Cleveland, Ohio and hostesses were P^Δ-Ohio Wesleyan, and BΨ-Toronto chapters, and The Cleveland Alumnae Groups and Buffalo Association. A total of 152 Kappas were in attendance with 63 actives and 89 alumnae.

Some of the special events included a boutique set up in the registration-resource room with items provided and sold by a number of alumnae groups. This proved a popular and quite lucrative project for several of the groups. A Loyalist Luncheon was held for those who had attended five or more province meetings. These ladies received special favors. A candle-light banquet was held Saturday evening with entertainment provided by Rho chapter sextet. They preformed a rush skit and then led everyone in a sing-along. Centerpieces were calico flower arrangements flanked by blue candles. Each Kappa received a blue and blue owl "sun-catcher". Special guest for the evening was Mrs. George Klein, president of the Cleveland Panhellenic Association.

A career Panel composed of Kappas who have been successful in the professional world discussed their educational and working experiences and then answered questions.

Distinguished guests present were Eloise Ryder Pingry, ΓΔ-Purdue, director of philanthropies; Jane Tournier Curry, Δ-Indiana, chairman advisory boards; Juliana (J. J.) Fraser Wales, BN-Ohio State, chairman fraternity education; Margaret Easton Seney, P^Δ-Ohio Wesleyan, chairman history committee; Julia Williams Fraser, ΔΓ-Michigan State, assistant to director of membership; continuing Gamma Province Officers, Helen Girdler Fishburn, BΔ-Michigan, PDC; and Drue Cox Zuverink, BX-Kentucky, PDA; outgoing Alpha Province Officers, Nancy Lease Osgood, P^Δ-Ohio Wesleyan, PDC; and Carol Krier MacDonald, ΓP-Allegheny, PDA.

Alpha Province Alumnae Awards were given to: Rochester Association, New York City Association, Fairfield County Association, Westchester County Association, Buffalo Association, Montreal Association, and Toronto Association.

Province Meetings 1975

Stability In Motion

Beta

Blizzard conditions did not in any way dampen the spirits of a most successful Beta Province Meeting. Hosted by Gamma Rho Chapter and Meadville and Erie Alumnae the Beta Meeting was held in the David Mead Inn at Meadville, Pennsylvania. Attendance, despite the inclement weather of April 4 and 5th, totaled 61 with 24 actives and 31 alumnae.

Anne Marocchi, ΓP-Allegheny, presented an alum/active slide show and a clever skit with a ventriloquist MC, take-off on the Osmond Brothers and traditional rush skit by Gamma Rho about "Mrs. Potter-Brown"—a skeleton mailed bone by bone

Chapter Award Winners: Chapter Improvement, ΔA, Deborah Shiffer; Chapter Loyalty, ΓE, Lynn Dempsey; Scholarship, ΔΦ, Kay Sholberg; Scholarship Improvement, ΓP, Janet Mitchell; with PDC and "Beta Bear" given her by actives.

to a GP by her med student boy friend a few years after the chapter began (1888) and her later adventures. A fun Betateer Luncheon inducted eight new members and four honorary ones.

The distinguished guests included: Jean Risser Aiken, chairman undergraduate scholarships; Jill Eversole, field secretary; Adeline Holmes Lubkert, former Beta PDA; Anne Adams Marocchi, former Beta PDA; LaRue Moss Screib, former Beta PDC; Elizabeth Monahan Volk, former Beta PDA, and Monica Young, graduate counselor at Gamma Epsilon. The Council representatives were Jean Hess Wells, director of chapters; and Barbara Terry Henderson, assistant to director of alumnae.

Retiring PDC Lois Catherman Whittaker claims one of the memorable events was the pipes bursting outside the main meeting room during Jean Wells' speech at the banquet and by the morning of departure day it was under 2 inches of water! Never-the-less, Lois happily declared the weekend a success.

Active awards were given to Gamma Rho for scholarship improvement; Delta Phi for chapter loyalty (given in honor of Helen Kinsloe by her friends in Beta); Gamma Epsilon for chapter improvement (given in memory of Suzanna Stover Root by her husband); and Delta Alpha for achievement.

Alumnae awards presented by continuing PDA Gay Chuba Barry were to Pittsburgh for outstanding overall programming, with honorable mention to Southern New Jersey; Harrisburg received the efficiency award and Lackawanna honorable mention. North Jersey Shore won the philanthropy involvement award.

Delta

Delta Province had the distinction of holding their meeting first, February 14-16, at the Iota Chapter House at DePauw University. The Province meeting fun began Friday evening with an informal party and welcome given in song by Iota chapter. Each chapter followed with a song or skit, while Delta Chapter conducted an early meeting using their original minutes . . . some things have changed . . . yet, not all!

A Proviteer's Luncheon on Saturday was a delightful gathering of 135 talkative Kappas with speaker being Natalie O'Dell Peeler, M-Butler, who read a clever poem that explained the origin of the Delta Proviteers composed by her sister, Molly O'Dell Adams, M-Butler. Each guest received an original owl plaque designed and made by Natalie. Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ-Purdue, Fraternity vice-president, concluded that luncheon with a provocative message yet continued the gaiety that was felt in the sunshiny, red begonia plant-filled room. A walking tour of DePauw campus conducted by Iota pledges concluded the afternoon festivities.

A Punch get-together with informal picture taking began the evening's frivolity. The candlelight dinner brought tears to the eyes of the actives as they entered the banquet room and saw a mass of lighted blue and blue tapers and individual hobnail candles—which were their favors. The evening entertainment was the very professional sounding Iota Pickers.

Perhaps Delta Province was unique in having six of seven housemothers attend one day of their activities. Mrs. Scott, Iota House Director, served as hostess for the day spent chatting, recipe exchanging, and taking the walking tour of the campus. Sally Moore Nitschke, BN-Ohio State, director of membership; and Marjorie Matson Converse met informally with them for an hour during the afternoon. They were guests of the province for lunch and dinner.

Distinguished guests in addition to the council representatives were Mary Elizabeth Gordon Wagers, member Fraternity bylaws committee; Caroline Godley O'Dell, former Delta PDA; Joan Herrin Hancock, former Delta PDC; Ann Henry, former Mu PDC; Elizabeth Foster West, Fraternity housing committee, and Lois Baird Jeffery, Nu PDA. Total attendance of 96 included 61 actives and 35 alumnae.

Awards presented in the Province included: Erica Yudowin, BΔ-Michigan, advisory board award to most outstanding girl in the province (silver charm bracelet with disc); Gamma Delta-Purdue, cultural award (owl bookends owned by Elizabeth Bogert Schofield, former Fraternity President); Delta Gamma—Michigan State, most improved chapter (silver tray presented by Indianapolis Association); Iota—DePauw, all round chapter excellence (brass key ashtray presented by Beta Delta and Ann Arbor Association); Delta—Indiana, PDC Award (silver reverer bowl presented by Sally Reed Kelso as she retired from office of PDC 1969).

Epsilon

Epsilon Province Meeting convened April 12 and 13 at the Beta Lambda Chapter House in Urbana, Illinois at the University of Illinois. The Champaign-Urbana Association and Beta Lambda chapter hosted a most enjoyable weekend for the 55 Kappas in attendance. Council Representatives were Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ-Purdue, vice president; and Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ-Missouri, director of personnel.

One of the special highlights of the meeting was the tour of Krannert Center for the Performing Arts and the Krannert Art Center. The candlelight banquet honored guest was Mrs. Lester Corrie, a 65 year member of Beta Lambda and honorary chairman for province meeting. At the owl luncheon presentation of awards was made with Naperville Club receiving the most improved club award; Champaign-Urbana Association the most outstanding association; and Park Ridge-DesPlaines the most improved association.

Active awards were presented to Upsilon chapter (Jane Rikers Award for unity and loyalty), and the Mabel McCoy Award for close relationship between alumnae and actives was given to Beta Lambda chapter.

Twenty actives and thirty-five alumnae enjoyed the fellowship of the weekend and will remember the words of retiring PDA Cyndy Harbold, "The timeless values and principles of

Friday evening song fest for all.

Punch and chatter together.

Pat Shaver, ΔΓ-Michigan State, PDA; Sally Moore Nitschke, BN-Ohio State, director of membership; Jill Cox Campbell, M-Butler, retiring PDC; Sally Schnaiter Lugar, ΓΔ-Purdue, incoming PDC; and Marjorie Matson Converse, ΓΔ-Purdue, vice-president.

Active award winners are Ellen Schoenburg, BA-Illinois, best alum-active relations; and Mary Martino, Y-Northwestern, best unity in chapters.

Winners of alumnae awards are Jean Creswell, Champaign-Urbana the Jo Eberspacher Award for outstanding recognition to an association. Cathie Gelhaar, Arlington Heights, award for being #1 in the country for an association with the most members under 50 years of age. Carolyn Cook, Park Ridge-Des-Plaines, an award for the most improved association. Mary Lou Raber, Naperville, an award for the most improved club.

New Province Officers are Joan Hunter Cooper, PDA and Joni Feiger Molt, PDC.

Epsilon Province distinguished guests: Keith, past PDA; Laitner, chairman Emergency Scholarships; Harbold, PDA; Williams, director of personnel; Converse, vice-president; Eberspacher, Rose

Kappa are uniquely qualified to provide that mandatory stability for her members as they experience rapid change . . . Kappa is—and will continue to be—a lifetime experience, the stability of continuation and integration of values and principles, vital and personal growth, a learning experience, a past, a present and a future. This is our stability as we are in motion".

Zeta

Convening on April 18 and 19 at the Sigma chapter house in Lincoln, Nebraska, 40 actives and 31 alumnae held a really fun province meeting. The Omaha Association made needlepoint keyrings (kits) for banquet favors and Betsy Molsberry Prior, director of alumnae, gave the banquet address. Entertainment was provided by Annie Garretson, the Omega delegate who played guitar and sang several original compositions, and the Gamma Alpha Pickers who presented a musical program (they were sent to Province meeting with money donated by Hutchinson Alumnae Club!)

Additional distinguished guests included Kay Smith Larson, director of field representatives; Ruth Kadel Seacrest, former Fraternity President, and Sally Stebbins Knudsen, former PDC.

In the Special awards Gamma Alpha—Kansas State, received the Martha Galleher Cox silver tray for the chapter which most clearly exemplified the qualities of excellence, inspiration and creativity hoped for in a chapter of Kappa. The alumnae award, a sterling silver Revere bowl, was presented to the Omaha Association.

The retiring Province officers were each given an engraved silver card plate. The province will miss Martha Young Miller and Betty Smith Beachy who have served so ably for four years. The newly elected officers were installed.

Eta

"The Early Bird Supper was a marvelous, laughing evening which set a warm, working-together atmosphere for the conference. Then a very appreciated event, particularly for the alumnae, was the Special Proxy Initiation for Margaret Eggelson Weaver. It brought back warm memories and words buried deep in many minds by years of separation from their use. The Saturday evening banquet welded new memories around the performance of the Epsilon Beta Pickers, special awards earned and acknowledged, warm friendships begun and renewed, and two very welcome 50 year members honored."

The above words (by Liz MacLauchlin, PDC) seem to sum up the feelings of Eta Province Meeting held at the Ramada Inn, Fort Collins, Colorado on February 27, 1975. With the Ft. Collins Alumnae and the Epsilon Beta Chapter as hostesses, a total of 55 actives and alumnae participated in the meeting. Special guests included the Council members Sally Moore Nitschke and Betsy Molsberry Prior; NPC Delegate Phyllis Brinton Pryor, and Lee Clark Clement, past PDC.

Shared with the meeting was a most inspirational prayer: "This is the beginning of a new day. God has given me this day to use as I will. I can waste it—or use it for good, but what I do today is important, because I am exchanging a day of my life for it!"

When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever leaving in its place something that I have traded for it. I want it to be gain, and not loss; good, and not evil; success, and not failure; in order that I shall not regret the price that I have paid for it."

McGill Fund Rep.; Creswell, president Champaign-Urbana Alumnae; and Butler, PDC.

Theta

The flavor of Louisiana permeated the Theta Province meeting March 14 through the 16th as a total of 111 Kappas attended the full convention. A record crowd of over 200 members attended the banquet to hear Fraternity director of personnel Marian Klingbeil Williams give the banquet address. During this banquet awards were presented as follows: The Agnes Favrot Award—Epsilon Alpha Chapter for excellence in intercommunication with the PDC; the Lois Lake Shapard Award—Delta Iota for carefully planned fraternity appreciation, continual use of ritual, excellence in active-alumnae relationships, care of fraternity property and equipment, current history of chapter and complete archives and chapter spirit and cooperation; the Jane Tournier Curry Award—Gamma Phi for stimulating and inspiring its members toward the attainment of individual and social excellence.

Two alumnae associations tied for the Myrtle Oliver Roever Award with El Paso keeping the award the first year and Ft. Worth the second year.

Highlights of the weekend included a tour of the Louisiana State University campus and a visit to the Kappa house preceeding a visit to Goodwood House, an historical plantation home within the city limits of Baton Rouge, which is owned by a Kappa and has been the setting of several movies. Delta Iota performed its Kappa Karnival rush skit in full costume and girls from different chapters offered songs and skits as entertainment. Most of the alumnae groups and chapters brought pictures, scrapbooks, Kappa handicraft items, and other items pertaining to their groups for display. Favors, included in each packet, were products or items representing industry and culture of Louisiana. Decorations were indigenous to the culture—such as Spanish Moss, loaves of bread shaped in the forms of crayfish, shrimp plants, orange shrimp nets with small bottles of Tabasco Sauce caught in the net.

Attending the meetings were Louise Little Barbeck, Fraternity parliamentarian; Sue Douglas Christensen, former director scholarship programs; Jane Tournier Curry, chairman chapter advisory boards; Myrtle Oliver Roever, chairman Rose McGill Fund; Gayle Pyke, field secretary; and Molly Beard, graduate counselor.

Iota

Iota Province Meeting assembled April 4 and 5th at the Beta Phi chapter house in Missoula, Montana with 22 actives and 19 alumnae in attendance. The list of distinguished guests is impressive with Marian Schroeder Graham, Fraternity president; Barbara Tranter Curley, scholarship program chairman; Ann Dearmore, field secretary; Flora Horsky Wertz, past member

Other Theta Province award winners were Texas Christian (EA) the Agnes Favrot Award; Louisiana State (Δ I) Lois Lake Shapard Award, and Southern Methodist (Γ Φ) the Jane Tournier Curry Award. Accepting the awards are Kathe Ambrose, EA; Jan Williams, Δ I; and Mary Flo Squires, Γ Φ .

Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ -Missouri, director of personnel; Rebecca Stone Arbour, Δ I-Louisiana, PDC; Eloise Ryder Pingry, Γ Δ -Purdue, director of philanthropy; and Shirley Younkin Shreve, Γ A-Kansas State, PDA, are members of the Fraternity Council and province officers respectively (right to left).

Distinguished guests attending Theta Province meeting were Vilate Crane Shaffer, Δ H-Utah; Louise Little Barbeck, Γ Φ -Southern Methodist; Sue Douglas Christensen, Δ H-Utah; Jane Tournier Curry, Δ -Indiana; Myrtle Oliver Roever, Γ I-Washington Univ.; and Dee Speed Elder, Γ Ψ -Maryland.

Attending the province meeting were three generations of Kappas in one family. Pictured are Mary Caroline Beem Kazmann, Γ N-Arkansas, daughter of Belle McKee Beem, X-Adrian, center, and Hollis Kazmann, Δ I-Louisiana, Mrs. Beem's granddaughter.

Active Delegates to Iota Province Meeting: Saundra Hill, EI-Puget Sound; Jan McBeath, ΓΥ-British Columbia; Lynne Collins, BK-Idaho; Gretchen Gottschalk, ΓH-Washington State; Teddie Bravakis, BΠ-University of Washington; Nancy Thompson, ΓT-Whitman College; Jackie Galt, BΦ-Montana; and Julie Samuelson, marshal, BΦ-Montana.

Fraternity finance committee; Mary Agnes Graham Roberts, convention chairman; Hulda Fields, past fraternity officer, and Lisa Thompson, newly-appointed graduate counselor.

Some of the fun events included the "Notable Iotables" luncheon on Saturday (honoring those who have attended three or more province meetings), and the wonderful musical talent of the Beta Phi Kappa Pickers.

Retiring PDC Nancy Guthrie feels, "The future of the Fraternity depends on our membership programs . . . selecting and pledging girls who will maintain high scholarship and outstanding citizenship which is synonymous with Kappa's name." Continuing to express her thoughts after four years of service she said, "Pledgeship is the time for the prospective member to make her commitment of dedication, loyalty, love and academic excellence, and to realize the investiture of responsibility not only to oneself, but to all of the sisters."

Speaking on the role of advisers she said, "Advisers are the backbone of the Fraternity . . . offering a mature guidance; the friendship of another generation; continuity; helping to strengthen the girls' abilities, and at the same time broadening their own horizons."

Dorothy Brassey, continuing PDA announced happily the return to active status of the Vancouver, British Columbia, Alumnae Association who at a recent meeting gathered 120 members for an election of officers!

She said how she relates to the old French saying, "the more a thing changes, the more it remains the same." "Change is an essential part of growth. In fact, in the times we are now living, change is necessary for survival. It is exhilarating and often times, frustrating. For some, change is painful. I have heard so often, 'Well, we've always done it that way'. Doing something repeatedly doesn't make it the best way. Kappa is indeed a lifestyle for now and for tomorrow. Retaining the strength of yesterday, the hopes of tomorrow. Yes, the more a thing changes, the more it remains the same . . . me too, I've changed—tomorrow looks brighter—thanks to Kappa."

"There is a destiny that makes us sisters;

None goes her way alone;

All that we send into the lives of others, comes back into our own."

Kappa

Kappa Province Meeting was held in Albuquerque, New Mexico April 3-5, 1975. Delegates and visitors totaling 57 attended from southern California, Arizona, and New Mexico. Actives were the guests of the Gamma Betas and stayed in their chapter house. Alumnae stayed at the Four Seasons Motor Hotel.

Distinguished guests included magazine agency director, Gwendolyn Dorey Spaid, M-Butler; chapter public relations chairman, Anna Mitchell Hiatt Pflugh, BM-Colorado; director of finance, Betty Burton Perkins, GB-New Mexico; field secretary, Linda Dickey, BΘ-Oklahoma; past PDC Helen MacArthur Savage, GB-New Mexico; past graduate counselor Marti Dalby Goodman; and director of alumnae, Betsy Molsberry Prior, BN-Ohio State; and director of personnel, Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ-Missouri.

Alumnae were the guests of the Albuquerque Alumnae Association for a pot luck dinner at the home of a local alum the first evening, while the actives dined and were entertained at the Gamma Beta house. All business sessions were held at the chapter house and "the main theme which seemed to run throughout the entire meeting was a feeling of relaxation and enjoyment," according to alum marshall, Mary Ann Craig Eaves. Upon arriving in their hotel rooms the alumnae were surprised with small, individual baskets of fruit, crackers, cheese, and wine. Each Kappa attending the candlelight banquet received a macrame owl. This banquet at the Four Seasons Hotel featured Mary Durey Poole, X-Minnesota, the president of National Association of Junior Leagues, Inc., as speaker. Gamma Beta Pickers entertained and the evening was filled with applause and laughter, "so much so that we attracted the honorable Mayor and Mrs. Harry Kinney who had attended a party in the next room, and they joined us for the entertainment."

Alumnae awards were given to: Hobbs, New Mexico; Tucson, Arizona; and Pasadena, California. Active awards included: the outstanding chapter-adviser relations to Gamma Xi; Gleim-Stokes scholarship award for greatest improvement to Gamma Zeta; highest scholastic average in province to Delta Tau; Florence B. McLaughlin Award to Epsilon Delta; Outstanding efficiency to Gamma Zeta; chapter effort award to Gamma Beta; Public Relations Award to Gamma Xi; and chapter excellence award to Epsilon Delta.

Lambda

A new Kappa Scarf was especially designed and introduced at the Lambda Province Meeting. (See pg. 16 alumnae news for details). The total of participating Kappas was 169—a record crowd who gathered at the Ramada Inn, in Rosslyn, Virginia, April 4-6, 1975. The list of distinguished guests is staggering: Sally Moore Nitschke, director of membership; Janet Dickerson Sanford, chairman chapter programs; Polly Tomlin Beall, Panhellenic committee and former PDC; Anne Harter, former PDA, director of philanthropies, and Centennial chairman; Ruth Hocker, former PDC; Jessie Halstead Kirk, former PDC; Carol Peters Duncan, former PDA; Nancy Upshaw Egerton, former PDA; Martha Hetterich Flatt, former PDA; Eleanor Heller Haley, former PDA; Ellen Johnson Lawther, former PDA; Louise Berry Wise, former PDA; Dale Brubeck, former field secretary and graduate counselor; Kit Caples,

A slide show of Gamma Chi chapter and campus welcomed the province. Friday luncheon at historic Lee-Fendall House (especially prepared by the Gourmet Cooking Interest Group of Northern Virginia Alumnae) featured the fashion show done by Frankie Welch and the new Kappa Scarf, followed by a walking tour of historic Alexandria.

Friday evening a lively panel discussion entitled "Kappas in Motion" featured Kappa Achievement Award Winners who spoke briefly about their career field and answered questions. Saturday noon the speaker for the luncheon was Mary Thomas Brooks, Director of the U. S. Mint and 1974 Achievement Award Winner. She even brought along a proof set of the new Bicentennial Coins—the only other viewing they had received was to President Gerald Ford! The Kappa Keys of Gamma Psi entertained and favors were bookmarks with a painted iris, fleur-de-lis bouquets, and owl candles.

A brief departure from routine was offered by PDA Kitty Thomason—two 5-minute exercise breaks—aptly entitled "Stability in Motion" were used to pep up all participants!

Chapters receiving awards were Gamma Psi, Gamma Kappa, Beta Upsilon, and Epsilon Gamma. The Clarksburg, West Virginia Club, and Piedmont-Carolina who tied Northern Virginia Association all received alumnae awards. A special loyalty award was given to Polly Beall, and the chapters presented Marcia Johnson, retiring PDC with a gift.

Mu

The Causeway Inn Beach Resort, Tampa, Florida was the location of the Mu Province Meeting April 11-13, 1975. A total of 123 Kappas registered for the weekend filled with memorable events. A ritual workshop held jointly with actives and alumnae was most impressive. An informal campus trends session for all gave an appreciated opportunity to ask questions and learn answers.

Chapter awards were given to Epsilon Mu for gracious living; Epsilon Epsilon for overall best scholarship; and Delta Epsilon for scholastic improvement. Alumnae awards were presented to Atlanta Association for their Advisory Board support to the Emory chapter; Tampa Alumnae Club for programming; and to Winter Park, Florida, for relations with the Rollins chapter.

Special events included honoring the "Mutineers" at a luncheon attended by all. Jean Hess Wells, director of chapters, served as MC. A "Mutiny on the Bounty" theme was used with some original songs, decorations, and favors. The banquet featured favors that were small pewter boxes with an owl on top. No formal speeches were given although Jane McFarland, H-Wisconsin, a Clearwater alum, did give a colorful description of Kappa and collegiate life in 1925—the year she was initiated. Marguerite Erwin and Janet Atkins, both Epsilon Epsilon, sang an original song accompanying themselves on the guitar.

Awarding a 75-year pin and several 50-year pins was indeed a highlight. However, the afternoon planned for "fun in the sun" was all but rained out unfortunately. Some did brave wind and rain for shopping, swimming, ping pong, and special awards were given to the "super-achievers" such as the shopper who bought the LEAST!

Distinguished guests included Jean Hess Wells, director of chapters; Jane Lindsay Koke, treasurer; Sally Schwartz Muzii, chairman pledge training; Caroline Cole Tolle, assistant treasurer; Marguerite Erwin, newly appointed field secretary; Linda Buell, graduate counselor.

Nu

Nu Province Meeting was held April 18-20, 1975 with Knoxville, Tennessee being the hostess alumnae and Epsilon Lambda chapter the active hostesses. All actives were lodged by Epsilon Lambda on a buddy system and all advisors were housed by Epsilon Lambda advisers!

With registration totaling 142—102 of these actives—the weekend proved lively and rewarding. A very special visitor was Margaret Aldrich Krueger, Xi chapter, and a 60 year Kappa. Another special event featured the mothers of Epsilon Lambda actives as luncheon guests. The hostess chapter provided entertainment in style as they are the winners of All Greek Sing 1974 and 1975. Favors from the banquet were owl pins handmade by LaRue Abercrombie Johnson, Knoxville Alumnae, and the speaker was Eloise Ryder Pingry, director of philanthropy, with the theme "Kappas—A Concerned Group".

Distinguished guests; Juli Warner Deeds, BN-Ohio St., PDA; Caroline Cole Tolle, ΔΔ-Miami, Ass't. Frat. Treas.; Carol Carrano Adams, ΔM-Connecticut, retiring PDA; Jean Hess Wells, ΔY-Georgia, director of chapters; Jane Lindsey Koke, ΓΩ-Denison, treasurer; Jan Singleton McAllister, ΔP-Mississippi, retiring PDC; Sally Schwartz Muzii, Ψ-Cornell, retiring pledge program chairman, new PDC.

Receiving her 75-year pin is Lucy Louis Vonnegut, Δ-Indiana. Her daughter Pauline Vonnegut Eck, Δ-Indiana did the honors.

EE-Emory, winner of Mu Province Scholarship award.

ΔE-Rollins, winner of Mu Province Scholarship Improvement award.

Lois Baird Jeffery, ΔΔ, Nu PDA.

Virginia Anding La Charite, ΓK, Nu PDC.

Alum Delegates: Front, Louise Schwallie Heidish, ΓΩ, Huntsville; Lois Baird Jeffery, ΔΔ, PDA; Carolyn Horrell Hepple, ΔP, Memphis; LaRue Abercrombie Johnson, ΓO, Knoxville; Back, Gloria Harger Gildemeister, A^Δ, Nashville; Kay Whercott Mobley, Δ, Louisville; Dr. Miriam Locke, ΓII, Tuscaloosa; Dana Paulson, BX, Lexington; Suzanne Pullen, EH, Auburn; Virginia Jones Mason, BΘ, Birmingham.

Active Delegates: Front, Debbie King, ΓII-Alabama; Patti Early, EN-Vanderbilt; Terre Blanton, ΔP-Mississippi. Back: Virginia Anding LaCharité, ΓK-Wm. & Mary, PDC; Kathy Phifer, EH-Auburn; Mary McHenry, EA-Tennessee; Missy La Croix, BX-Kentucky.

Alumnae Awards were presented to: Nashville, Tenn. for most progressive alumnae group; Knoxville, Tenn. for outstanding service to the Fraternity; Auburn, Alabama for most outstanding club; and Memphis, Tenn. as most outstanding association. Active awards were given for scholastic improvement, Epsilon Eta; membership selection to Gamma Pi (honorable mention Beta Chi); single philanthropic-public relations event to Epsilon Nu; advisory board—chapter relationships to Beta Chi and Delta Rho; pledge training to Epsilon Eta and Epsilon Lambda.

Two new awards were given (Nu Province is in its second biennium) with Barbara Tranter Curley, first PDC of Nu presenting a pair of candlesticks recognizing scholarship—given to Epsilon Eta (honorable mention Epsilon Lambda). The other award was presented by Virginia Anding LaCharité, continuing PDC, for chapter programming and efficiency to Epsilon Lambda (honorable mention Epsilon Eta). Both new awards are to be rotating.

Distinguished guests included: Eloise Ryder Pingry, director of philanthropies; Jean Hess Wells, director of chapters; Janet Dickerson Sanford, chairman chapter programs; Miriam Locke, chairman graduate fellowships and former PDA; Elizabeth Foster West, housing committee, former PDA; Mary Hamilton Ewing, former Mu Vice President.

Xi

Fayetteville, Arkansas and Gamma Nu chapter hosted the Xi Province Meeting March 21 and 22, 1975. A really special highlight of the meeting was the celebration of the 50th birthday of Gamma Nu. Seven of the original Gamma Nus were in attendance throughout the entire meeting and were especially honored at the closing banquet where a birthday cake with 50 candles was served for desert and those charter members had the honor of blowing out the candles.

Saturday afternoon featured a program on fraternity education using take-offs on the Hollywood Squares and the $10,000 Pyramid. Lee Reynold, BΘ-Oklahoma, who coordinated the show is to be congratulated as it was most successful. Friday evening was fun-night with skits given by Gamma Nu,

Beta Theta, and Delta Pi. Epsilon Theta Pickers sang and Delta Sigma presented some of the songs written by their chapter. Tee-shirts were presented to the PDC, director of chapters, and fraternity president. The backs of the shirts read "Big Blue Owl" for Jo Barton, PDC; "Bigger Blue Owl" for Jean Wells, director of chapters; and "Biggest Blue Owl" for Marian, Fraternity president. The favors were needlepoint fleur-de-lis mounted on a white wooden ring . . . 150 handmade by the Gamma Nus. (They can be used for pin cushion or to hang on the wall.)

The alumnae award in honor of Mildred Coby Brilhardt went to Fayetteville and Tulsa for outstanding alumnae work. The active award presented by the Oklahoma City Alumnae Club for excellence in the field of scholarship went to Gamma Nu.

For the 90 actives and 29 alumnae who attended the second meeting of Xi Province it was a memorable weekend. Special guests included former field secretary Deidra Ballard and current field secretary Gayle Pyke, as well as the Council members previously mentioned.

Omicron

Exchanging delegates with the Kappa Psi province convention delegates was an unexpected highlight of the Omicron Province Meeting held in the Holiday Inn at Fargo, North Dakota April 4-6, 1975. The Gamma Tau chapter and Fargo-Moorhead Alumnae were ready hostesses for the 95 registered Kappas as they too discussed "Stability in Motion." A rather amusing point brought out to demonstrate the theme was the fact that the province had known three PDC's during the biennium and still functioned efficiently with all the transitions.

Distinguished guests included Gayle Pyke, field secretary; Betsy Heller, former graduate counselor; Patsy Bredwick Levang, former graduate counselor and field secretary; and Alene Wall, former Omicron PDA.

A special highlight of the candlelight banquet was the presentation of alumnae achievement awards and of the active and alumnae province awards. Other events were a style show by the Bumbershute (owned by Kappa Jennifer Paulsrud) and an alumnae party at the home of Mrs. John Dady. The exchange of Kappa gifts brought by alum groups for active chapters was delightful. The Council members, Kay Smith Larson, director of field representatives, and Jane Lindsay Koke, treasurer, added so much to the meeting that all left feeling it was a time well-spent.

Pi

Pi Province welcomed two new groups to its ranks with the installation of Epsilon Omicron chapter and the organization of Santa Cruz Alumnae Association. The Province Meeting assembled at the Ramada Inn, Fresno, California March 20-22, 1975 with the Fresno Alumnae and Delta Omega actives as hostesses.

Alum delegates; Front row; Betty Ann Rider VanDorn, ΓΘ-Drake, Des Moines; Joyce Keith Smith, ΔO-Iowa St., NW Iowa; Juanita Steffens Drake, ΔO-Iowa St., Ames; Evelyn Scott Hurst, ΔO-Iowa St., Ft. Province officers Carolyn Hornor Wilson, BY-W. Va., PDA and Teri Van Dorn Hampson, ΔO-Iowa St., PDC.

Active delegates; Kristen Breen, X-Minnesota; Joan McConnell, ΓΣ-Manitoba; Jean (Deedee) Hall, BZ-Iowa; Joanne Lewis, ΓT-N. Dakota St.; Sara Korb, ΓΘ-Drake; Gail Skladzien, ΔO-Iowa State.

Province Achievement Award winners; Matilda B. Thompson, ΓT-N. Dakota St.; Georgia Tainter Goff, ΔE-Rollins; Donald MacDonal Schroe-der, ΓT-N. Dakota St.; Margaret Grimes Kelly, ΒΠ-U. Wash.

Members were entertained by Kappa Pickers of Delta Omega at the opening night potluck dinner where actives and alums enjoyed getting acquainted. Saturday luncheon featured a theme "Those Were The Days" and alums came dressed as they dressed when they were initiated. Sacramento Alumnae raffled two magazine subscriptions for the benefit of Rose McGill Fund. It turned out to be a most fun party. The welcoming address was given by Dr. David Bell, Dean of Student Affairs, California State University at Fresno.

The Candlelight Banquet address was presented by Marjorie Cross Bird, former chairman advisory boards, and was enjoyed by the total 106 registered participants.

Active chapter awards were given as follows: San Francisco Bay Alumnae Award for excellence in scholarship to Delta Omega; the Delta Chi Award for outstanding chapter programs to Delta Omega; and the Delta Chi award for pledge training program to Beta Omega.

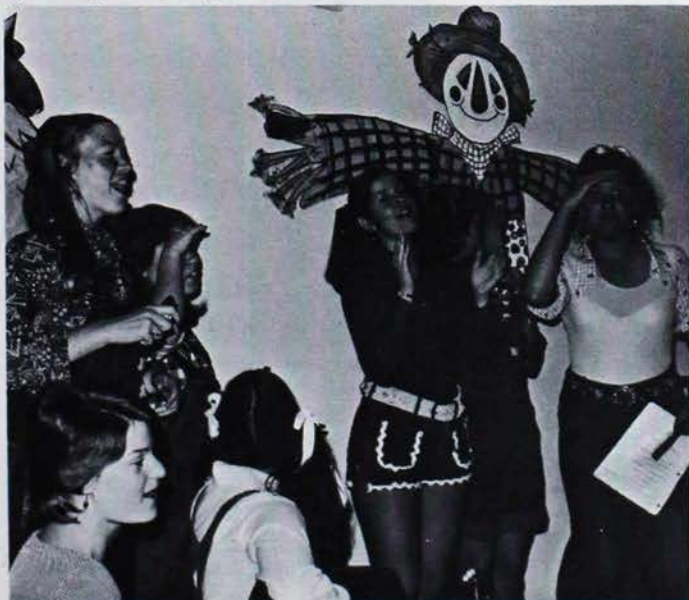

Alumnae awards were given in many categories to San Jose, East Bay, Sacramento, San Mateo, Palo Alto, Portland, Tulare-Kings Counties, and Fresno.

Distinguished guests included Kay Smith Larson, director of field representatives; Marjorie Cross Bird, former chairman advisory boards; Ann Dearmore, field representative; Helen Snyder Andres, former Fraternity president; Marylou Herbert, former PDC; and two 50 year Kappas, Grace Dean and Charlotte Brooks.

Province meetings were similar in that they all experienced a wealth of friendship and exchanged ideas and ideals. The heritage of the past is linking us with the horizons of the future as we seek "stability in motion." The workshops conveyed the materials of the fraternity and the speeches gave voice to the hopes and dreams of Kappa. There were recommendations passed and resolutions carried on to Council members. This is your fraternity in action . . . it's not too early to begin making your plans to attend the next convention—June 1976 at San Diego, California for Kappa's 51st Biennial Convention!

New Province officers; Patricia Maness Kriz, BM-Colorado PDA and Carla Myers Wiese, BM-Colorado, PDC.

Alumnae News

Houston Tour Is Super Fund-Raiser

Members of the Houston Alumnae Association are all smiles these days because their latest Christmas Pilgrimage Tour of Homes netted $28,000 for philanthropic donations. The tour is held biennially and provides funds for a two-year period. On hand for the distribution of this year's share of the funds was Fraternity Director of Philanthropies Eloise Ryder Pingry, in whose honor alumnae attended a brunch. Hostesses were former Theta PDA Dee Speed Elder, Fraternity Rose McGill Chairman Myrtle Oliver Roever and Rose McGill Assistant Chairman Doris Kirkham Brokaw. Beneficiaries included Texas Institute for Rehabilitation and Research, Texas Children's Hospital, Rose McGill Fund and Kappa Student Aid.

Alumnae Activity

Northern Virginia Scarf Sale

A special "Kappa scarf" was introduced during the 21st Lambda Province Convention in April at the historic Lee-Fendall House in Old Town Alexandria, Va. The scarf is a unique fund-raising idea of the Northern Virginia Alumnae Association, which commissioned fashion designer Frankie Welch to create the novelty. Mrs. Welch has designed fashions for many distinguished women in the nation's capitol, including First Lady Mrs. Gerald Ford. Her Kappa scarf is of blue and white cotton, decorated with keys, owls and fleur-de-lis. She also has designed a miniature version of the scarf, called a napachief. Above, Elizabeth Fugina Atwell, X-Minnesota, tries on a scarf with the assistance of the designer. In addition to conventional use, the scarves can be made into pillow covers, pictures, patch pockets for aprons and skirts, cocktail napkins. For order information write Laura Meagher, 6210 Foxcroft Road, Alexandria, Va. 22307. Proceeds from the sale will go to philanthropy programs.

Long Beach

Kansas City

Admiring the decorations for the Kansas City Alumnae Association's 23rd Holiday House Tour are, from left, Mrs. Robert Newman, home owner; Gene Griswold Omundson, Y-Northwestern, association president; and Snowdie Bilderback Martin, ΓΑ-Kansas State. The project involved the work of 400-plus members of the Association and attracted more than 5,000 persons. Proceeds of more than $14,000 went to the Preschool for the Deaf at the University of Kansas Medical Center, Mattie Rhodes Center, Rose McGill Fund and a graduate scholarship. In addition to ticket sales, alumnae raise funds during the tour by selling craft items and their very special fudge. For the latest tour alumnae made about 1,200 pans of fudge under the direction of Lynn Latham Chaney, ΔΙ-Louisiana State, and Sandy Rosenbun Wilcox, ΔΙΙ-Tulsa. General chairmen were Judy Strafer Horn, Ω-Kansas, and Kaye Williams Yarbrough, ΔΨ-Texas Tech.

San Diego

Jean Handley Neth Talbot, BA-Illinois, chairman of the San Diego Alumnae Association's fifth luncheon and fashion show, presents a check to Tina Strawser, Cystic Fibrosis poster child. Looking on is Dr. Ivan R. Harwood, director of the Cystic Fibrosis Center in San Diego. For the second year, the La Jolla Alumnae Association assisted in presenting the successful show. Six "Gentlemen of Distinction" who are helping in the fight against cystic fibrosis were honored during the benefit. Proceeds went to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Equipment and Supply Fund for the Cystic Fibrosis Center at University Hospital in San Diego.

New York

Fashion designer Jenny Bell Whyte was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the New York Alumnae Association. She showed a collection of skirts made from "recycled" fabrics, some of them museum pieces such as tapestries. Modeling one of the skirts, with the designer's assistance, is Association President Mary Legg Capouch, BA-Illinois, who is college competitions editor for Mademoiselle magazine. Looking on at right is Addy Holmes Lubkert, ΔΘ-Goucher. The New York City Panhellenic will award two $400 scholarships to fraternity women doing graduate work at a college or university in the New York City area during the 1975-76 academic year. Applications may be obtained from Mrs. Kelso Sutton, 2 Tudor City Place, New York, N.Y. 10017, and must be returned by August 1.

Baltimore

Members of the Baltimore Alumnae Association made macramé plant holders to sell at a local spring festival. They coordinated their efforts with the Association for Retarded Citizens Horticultural Center, which furnished the plants and materials. From left: Denise O'Brien Garbarino, ΔA-Penn State; Gretchen Vanderboegh Howell, ΓK-William and Mary; Donna Clark Coons, EA-Tennessee.

Seattle

Among those attending the Seattle Alumnae Association's Christmas tea was this family trio. At center is Helen Tremper Lane, an outstanding 70-year Kappa, with her daughters, from left, Nancy Lane Pelly and Josephine Lane Collins, all BII-Washington. The tea was given to promote the sale of a plant book written by Jane Fields Strohecker, BK-Idaho. Proceeds from the sale go to the Seattle Day Nursery and to Fraternity scholarships.

75 Year Pin

The Schenectady Alumnae Association honored Frances Ellis Douglass, BT-Syracuse, at a formal tea in celebration of her 75th anniversary as a Kappa. The honoree was initiated into the Fraternity on October 13, 1900 and was graduated in 1902 with a degree in library science. In addition to the fleur-de-lis pin, alumnae presented her with a gold badge to replace one that had been lost. From left: Jennifer Addy Schmidt, IP-Allegheny; Mary Schreiner Seielstad, K-Hillsdale, Schenectady alumnae president; Marcia Fischbeck Grimm, ΔM-Connecticut; Mrs. Douglass; Claribel Nisley Linder, ΔA-Penn State.

Scottsdale

A memorable meeting featuring active-alumnae cooperation was undertaken by the Scottsdale Alumnae Association recently. With the assistance of Epsilon Delta Chapter at Arizona State University, an initiation ritual was presented to the alumnae. The goal was to re-create the beautiful ceremony for those who had not seen it for many years and to foster a rededication experience. Assisting the actives in the ritual were four 50-year members, Ruth Redman Dunshee, BZ-Iowa; Dorothy Reynolds Collins, M-Butler; Alphonsine Clapp Howard, Σ-Nebraska, and Mildred Todhunter Sheets, Δ-Indiana. With memories refreshed, the Scottsdale alumnae report they are now anxious to assist in chapter initiations and have voted to provide funds to replace some of the chapter's time-worn regalia.

Northern Orange County

For the past eight years members of the Northern Orange County (California) Alumnae Association have enjoyed helping one of their sisters, Nelle Givens Woods, Σ-Nebraska, a charter member of the association. Mrs. Woods celebrated her 90th birthday this spring. Alumnae have provided transportation for shopping, medical appointments and social activities. Recently, Mrs. Woods moved to a convalescent hospital, where alumnae visit her weekly to provide any assistance she might need and to simply enjoy her company.

Lackawanna

A small but active group representing some 25 Kappa chapters is the Lackawanna Alumnae Association in north central New Jersey. It takes its name from the commuter-line railroad along which the members' communities are located. Through the sale of stained glass ornaments and an annual white elephant auction, members help support the Summit, N.J., Speech School. Sonya Gordon Jones, Φ-Boston, the group's delegate to the Summit-Short Hills Panhellenic Council, recently founded a Panhellenic Council in the Morristown, N.J. area.

Whittier

A number of members of the Whittier, Calif., Alumnae Association served as docents for the Whittier Panhellenic's recent historic homes tour in celebration of the nation's upcoming Bicentennial.

Elizabeth Emmert Allor, Δ-Indiana, is Panhellenic president and was author of a lovely booklet about the homes presented on the tour. The booklet was so popular that the Panhellenic is considering reprinting it.

El Paso

Delta Psi Alert

The Lubbock, Texas Alumnae Association is beginning a fund-raising drive to help build a lodge for Delta Psi Chapter at Texas Technological College. Eight of the thirteen chapters on campus already have built lodges in a complex known as Greek Circle.

To make contributions or obtain additional information, Delta Psi alumnae and any other interested alumnae should write Mrs. Joe L. Murfee, III, 3503 38th, Lubbock, Texas 79413.

Gamma Alpha Reunion

Eleven women who were pledged by Gamma Alpha Chapter at Kansas State University in the 1920s gathered for a reunion in California recently. Seven of the alumnae and their husbands met for a vacation in Escondido prior to the main reunion in San Diego, where one of the group, Helen Louise Swan, is in a convalescent home. From left, back row: Marjorie Morrow Hale, Josephine Skinner Hagerty, Eugenia Leighton Chatman, Olive Baker Griffith, Emily Downing Amis, Jeanette Verser Embry. Front row: Ernestine Hobbs McCord, Margaret Chaney Wilson, Helen Louise Swan, Beatrice Woodworth Weber, Maurine Bryan Meseke. Even though some of the women had not seen each other in over 40 years, most of them had kept in touch through round robin correspondence.

Dortha Selby Guenther

Dortha Selby Guenther, ΓΘ-Drake, has received much acclaim recently for her instigation of a tree-planting project in East Providence, R. I. Always a lover of trees, she happened to find out that the Rhode Island Department of Natural Resources will give any community in the state 1,000 trees just for the asking, and 1,000 more for $35. So she set about gathering support from the City Council, the City Beautification Committee and parks and planning officials. After careful study to determine the best places for the trees, she enlisted the help of Boy Scout troops to help in the planting. About half of the 2,000 trees she acquired were used to create a "greenbelt buffer" between a school playground and adjoining industrial plants. An editorial in the Providence Evening Bulletin praised her for converting a good idea into a practical activity. Response to the project was so favorable that local businessmen have decided to follow her lead and plant 2,000 trees annually. She is happy that she is receiving numerous inquiries from people in other areas asking, "How can we do this in our town?" Mrs. Guenther works with her husband in their management consultant firm in Rumford, R. I., where her family lives. She and her husband are enthusiastic boating members of the Newport Yacht Club.

Former Fraternity President Rheva Ott Shryock, BA-Pennsylvania, has been elected to the Commonwealth Board of the Medical College of Pennsylvania. The board is made up of 140 women who live in Pennsylvania and who support the college (formerly Woman's Medical College).

Nellie Lee Holt Bok, Σ-Nebraska, was awarded an honorary doctor of liberal arts degree by Lake Erie College Jan. 23, 1975. The special ceremony took place in her home in Philadelphia's Society Hill and was conducted by Lake Erie's President, Dr. Paul Weaver, who flew to Philadelphia for the occasion. Mrs. Bok was unable to attend commencement ceremonies at the college last June because of commitments as a member of the board of the Curtis Institute of Music, founded by her late mother-in-law, Mary Curtis Bok Zimbalist. Mrs. Bok, widow of the distinguished jurist Curtis Bok was professor of religious education at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., for 11 years, during which time she traveled widely, including a trip to India to observe first-hand the teaching techniques of Mahatma Gandhi.

Marjorie Wilkinson Houck, BΦ-Montana, has been presented the Bishop's Cross by the Rt. Rev. Ivor R. Curtis of Seattle for outstanding service to her church. She has served on the vestry of the Epiphany Episcopal Church, as chairman of the shut-in committee and as president of Epiphany Church Women. A member of the Seattle Alumnae Association, she has also been active in USO, YWCA and Camp Fire work.

Eleanor Riley Grant, H-Wisconsin, was the subject of a cover story in Select magazine in Madison, Wis. The story covered her years (1952-1965) as owner of the successful Soupcon restaurant in Madison with the late Dorothea Rainey, also H-Wisconsin. Mrs. Grant is a charter member of the Madison Theatre Guild and has starred in numerous theatrical productions, being the first person to win an "Oscar" for a local performance by the Capitol Times newspaper. As a member of Zeta Phi Eta society she has helped create numerous tapes for the blind. She now helps with her daughter's restaurant in Madison, known as Grantshire, and recently published a cookbook, entitled "Recipes from Grantshire," which includes all the recipes from her own former restaurant. In addition to her daughter she has two sons, and 10 grandchildren.

Marjorie Wilkinson Houck

Eleanor Riley Grant

Edith Elliott Kuhn and Lorraine Kraft, both E-Illinois Wesleyan, were among the Kappa alumnae present at a memorial service at the grave of former United Nations delegate Adlai Stevenson on UN Day in 1974. After the laying of the wreath they attended a reception hosted by Illinois State University President Gene Budig.

Marilyn Bundy Fike, ΓΓ-Whitman, was one of two women selected by the National Foundation-March of Dimes to train volunteer Mothers' March leaders at 11 orientation programs throughout the United States. She has long been active in community affairs in the Seattle area and is a past president of the Lake Washington Alumnae Association.

Nancy Louise Phelan Kerckhoff, ΓΞ-University of California at Los Angeles, was selected as one of the 1974 Outstanding Young Women of America in a national competition. She has held several offices in the Pasadena Alumnae Association and has been active in Panhellenic work. She also has served in various capacities the PTA, Junior League, Junior Philharmonic and Junior Alliance. She has volunteered her time at the Pasadena Dispensary, Huntington Memorial Hospital, La Casa Well-Baby Clinic, and as a tour guide at San Gabriel Mission. She and her husband and four children live in San Marino.

Linda Metz, ΒΔ-Michigan, has been selected honorary chairman of National Children's Dental Health Week in South Florida. A registered dental hygienist, she was the 1975 Orange Bowl Queen. She was a celebrity guest for the finals at the Bahamas International Open Tennis Tournament in Freeport and represented the United States in a Pageant of the Americas in March in Ecuador. She plans to use the $2,000 scholarship she won in the Orange Bowl pageant to continue her education in the field of public service.

Pamela Denise Scrape, ΓN-Arkansas, was the assistant to the producer of the movie "Benji," the story of a dog that saves two children from a kidnapping. The theme song from the movie, "I Feel Love," was nominated for an Academy Award this year. She is now free-lancing in film production in Dallas.

Ann Chisholm Jourdan, ΓB-New Mexico, has been appointed by Gov. Jerry Apodaca to the University of New Mexico Board of Regents.

Jean Rheinfrank Hawkes, ΔΓ-Michigan State, is assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation at State University College in Buffalo, N.Y. She has discussed physical fitness and demonstrated exercises for senior citizens in her area.

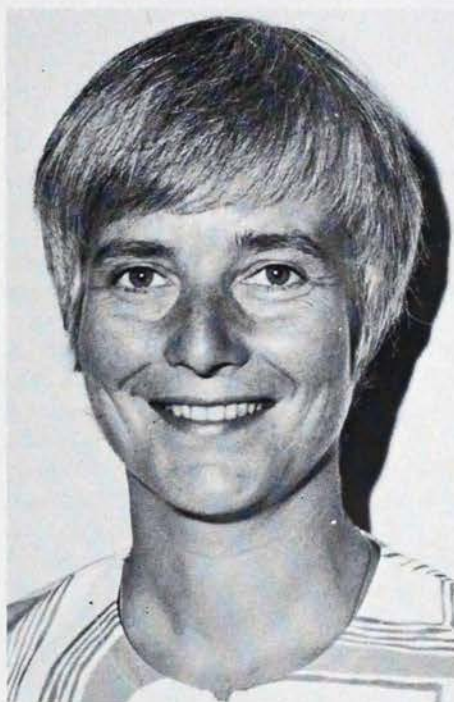

Carol Taylor Smith, I-DePauw, was named one of three Outstanding Women of the Year for 1974 in Danville, Ill., in competition sponsored by the Commercial—News newspaper. She is active in many community affairs, including Lake View Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Red Cross and United Fund. She was the founding president of the Symphony Guild of the Danville Junior College Community Symphony.

Three Kappa alumnae were featured in the December issue of the Junior League magazine. One of them was Mary Durey Poole, X-Minnesota, president of the Association of Junior Leagues (see Winter 1974 issue of The Key), who has been selected by Harper's Bazaar as one of 10 Distinguished American Women. Also featured were Carol Tempest, a member of the Colorado House of Representatives, and Gay Beattie, volunteer coordinator of Project New Pride, both BM-Colorado.

Sue Brown Tinkle, ΓΞ-University of California at Los Angeles, recently exhibited paintings at the Western American Art Gallery in Denver. She is interested in depicting Western and Indian culture.

Betsy Bruce Bennett

We all want to do something constructive about our country's problems, but few actually do—however, Betsy Bruce Bennett, X-Minnesota, did begin a concrete program of service and continues to do more than just talk about the race relations problems of mixed neighborhoods. As chairman of a church women's discussion group Betsy helped create a racially integrated nursery school. She explains, "We think it is important for young children to know children of another race if they are to have a realistic education. Professionally staffed, self-supporting, full enrollment and a waiting list all describe this lesson in living with mothers volunteering and a continuation of real friendship between adult black and white women in a Christian-social relationship as part of the rewarding outreach of this group.

Betty Anderson Smith, BQ-Oregon, has been appointed by President Gerald Ford as one of 30 members to the National Commission on the observance of International Women's Year 1975. She will represent the YMCA in the Commission, and will share the task of giving recognition to achievements and potentials of women with a membership including broadcast journalist Barbara Walters and stateswoman Claire Booth Luce.

The mother of three daughters and wife of attorney Eugene Jericho, Mitch (Mary Ellen) Mitchell Jericho, GF-Southern Methodist, has made her presence felt in the Dallas community, one reason the judges selected her from among 20 nominees for the Zonta Service Award.

She's an executive volunteer with impact on such organizations as the Visiting Nurses Assoc., Panhellenic, American Cancer Society, Dallas Big Sisters, Children's Medical Center, Dallas Commission on Children and Youth, and Timberlawn Foundation as well as Kappa, P.T.A., Camp Fire, Chamber of Commerce, and Dallas Health Planning Council.

Her main interest she says is in children and adolescents but as president of the Visiting Nurses Assoc. (with a budget of over $1 million) she recently signed a contract with the Texas Department of Public Welfare establishing a pilot program for home health care services for the elderly. Mitch says, "We feel that institutional care is not as effective as care in the home, that a person can be happy and kept at home with a minimum of services." This program will offer nursing, homemaker and rehabilitative care to both welfare and non-welfare recipients. A day care center for functionally disabled adults will be opened soon. After testing this program the VNA will then write a master plan for the state. Mitch is president-elect for the Dallas Kappas.

"I like volunteering in United Way," Mary Maxwell Gates, BII-Washington, said in an understatement. Her election as first woman president of the Seattle United Way was preceded by nearly eight years of work for the organization. "Our whole society is built on volunteers, and on the kinds of service volunteers provide. Society couldn't afford to pay for those services, so I don't really feel volunteers are taking jobs away from someone else," Mary said. Continuing her enthusiastic plug for UW Mary mentioned, "the purpose of United Way is to bring agencies together to assist them with fund raising so costs in terms of money and manpower would be low." Mary has also just been appointed a member of the Board of Regents for University of Washington!

Edith Louise Gardner, Ψ-Cornell, is the new president of Katharine Gibbs School—long known for developing the standards for secretarial excellence adopted throughout American business. Miss Gardner earned A.B. and M.A. degrees at Cornell then took the Katharine Gibbs special course for college women and later became administrative assistant to financier Bernard M. Baruch, Jr. She is a member of the Cornell University Council, a former member of its administrative board and a past president of Cornell Women's Club of New York.

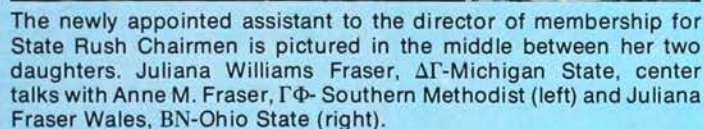

Nancy Carpenter Storch, BP^A-Cincinnati, has been named one of ten Women of the Year in the Cincinnati area. She is the mayor of Milford, Ohio, having been elected to the City Council in 1971. A teacher by profession, she is the mother of four children.

Nancy Sundmacher Baird, ΔΓ-Michigan State, was the national winner of a Time-Life Award as editor of "the most improved educational publication in the periodical category." Her winning publication is the newsletter of Catlin Gabel School in Portland.

Monny Bennett Postle, BN-Ohio State, was one of five women honored for voluntary community service to the Columbus, Ohio area by the Upper Arlington, Ohio Rotary Club. President of the Upper Arlington Board of Education, chairman of the Junior League Education Study Committee, Monny was named the distinguished alumna of the Ohio State University College of Home Economics.

Barbara Whelpton, ΔA-Miami, was one of four persons named as Citizens of the Years for long-time community service in the Oxford, Ohio area. She has been active in the League of Women Voters, Planned Parenthood, United Presbyterian Church, Community Action Council, Welfare Medical Board, and the Head Start program.

Edith Kinney Gaylord Harper, ΔZ-Colorado College, has been elected to a six-year term on the board of Colorado College in Colorado Springs. Mrs. Harper is secretary of the Oklahoma Publishing Company which publishes the Daily Oklahoman and Oklahoma City Times. Her newspaper career has included free-lancing in Washington, reporting for the Associated Press in New York and former president of the Women's National Press Club.

Rush gives us the opportunity to show our true love and sisterly friendship to each other, and each girl who walks through our front door—during rush and throughout the year. Whether active or alum, go with pride and say to all,

"I am a Kappa!"

(from M-Butler Rush Booklet)

"We need to have people who mean something to us. People to whom we can turn, knowing that being with them is really coming home."

(from Beta Delta rush program)

*"Friends are like the warm blue sea,
They splash laughter into your eyes."*

 The University of California at Riverside has invited Kappa Kappa Gamma to colonize on its campus. The colonization of Epsilon Pi Chapter will take place in the fall of 1975.	 The University of Virginia at Charlottesville has invited Kappa Kappa Gamma to colonize on its campus. The colonization of Epsilon Rho chapter will take place in the fall of 1975.

- Kappa is The contentment of friendships but never the complacency of the clique.
- the encouragement of individual development instead of strict conformity to the group.
- the curiosity to learn and to achieve, not limited to the quest for grades, not to a special time of life.
- the joy of serving others without the smugness of the do-gooder.

- Kappa is the ability to build on yesterday while doing today . . . as a preparation for tomorrow.

(from I'E-Univ. Pittsburgh, Rush Booklet)

Maggie MacDonald, ΓΔ-Purdue, was membership chairman where a deferred rush system makes membership selection a year around consideration. New Graduate Counselor for Vanderbilt, EN.

Bunny Gerner, ΓΞ-UCLA, lives in Houston, Texas, and serves as Texas State Chairman.

Jan Nagel, ΓI-Washington Univ. in St. Louis, Mo., serves as president of her chapter and as past membership chairman on this urban campus where interest in rush is on a person to person basis.

Jan McAllister, ΔP-Mississippi, is a transplanted southerner living in New Jersey but having served as Mu PDC and newly appointed chairman of pledge programs.

Imagine if you can a big round table in the conference room at Fraternity Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. Sitting at the table are some of the actives and alumnae most interested in our program of membership selection. They are gathered here from all parts of the country to brainstorm, discuss, and problem solve some of the most basic ingredients of rush.

They are introduced by their photos so join in the discussion of what you feel is the single most important ingredient of successful rushing?

Jan McAllister: "Ingredient" reminds me of cooking. If you are making meringue and don't add the egg whites, the results are rather dismal. The same is rush. Serving super refreshments, performing hysterical professional skits, and securing 500 references won't lead to a successful rush unless we also get to know each rushee and they us. And, when we know a rushee by her looks and what or how much she says at a party we are much like the cook who adds a dash of sugar instead of the called-for cup. We have to know the "whole person" . . . her talents, potential, inner personality, and abilities."

Maggie: That's right! The single most important ingredient would have to be realness. We as Kappas are out to "sell" our sisterhood and to do this we must relate to individuals, communicate Kappa to them, its strengths and weakness, let them see Kappa as a real place to grow. We cannot present Kappa as it is not; we must be real people with a real desire to share the goodness of Kappa with them. Only then will real people want to share life with us!

A Roundtable Discussion

Jan Nagel: Learning how to interact with others, whether it be with a concentrated effort or not is vital. Every Kappa must have the vital knowledge and desire to share by giving part of herself.

Bunny: It is this concern to help another individual enjoy a situation, be at ease and comfortable that is essential to good rushing. Coupled with the realism that Maggie mentions which emerges as honesty and sincerity, it really works. I would add to our "pot" of ingredients enthusiasm, though it cannot stand alone, and a positive attitude.

Cindy: This positive attitude I see as unity on the part of the chapter, adviser, alumnae, Panhellenic . . . everyone concerned with rush. It seems to me that when this unity is present it makes rushing rewarding for those involved, which in turn attracts potential members.

Mary Flo: It all gets down to a positive attitude . . . an optimistic outlook, a cooperative nature, and an assurance that as Kappa we have something important to share.

Cherry: What an unfair question! My first thought, like the others, is a sincere personal contact on the part of chapter members . . . but the more I think about it there are multiple ingredients. You also have to have good planning, bookkeeping, effective communication, and the ability to see and talk about Kappa in concrete tangible terms.

Polly: I am glad you said that, Cherry. The question is deceptively simple. When I attempt to isolate any area of rush as THE MOST IMPORTANT, whether that area be spirit, knowing what to look for, getting to know the rushees, good selection techniques, and proper use of references, it soon becomes clear that all phases of rush are so interlocking and so interdependent that no one single area can be called the most important. May I beg the question. What this question points out to me is that a chapter must through preparation, workshops, and hard work during rush, be prepared in all vital areas.

WHAT ARE THE QUALITIES TO LOOK FOR IN POTENTIAL KAPPAS?

Jan N: Warm bodies . . . I mean someone who makes you feel good inside when you are with them. Girls that have potential, and are willing to share their experiences and help your chapter.

Mary Flo: Right, Jan . . . the key word is potential. We look for a spark of something special, and this spark is clearly visible to all who look with Kappa ideals in mind and makes for an undeniable mutual attraction.

Cherry: I believe we need to stress responsibilities of fraternity membership and the part she is expected to play. I still rely on background (particularly from the standpoint that her family will understand the commitment she is making), scholarship, character, and propensity to group activities. She must adapt to the group dynamics of living together. We need honest discussion, personal contact with prospective members.

Bunny: Like you, Cherry, I believe that character, that undefinable quality that makes for the strength of Kappa from pledge to alumnae, and scholarship are vital. Also remember the strength Kappa has in our legacies.

Jan Mc: "Inner personality" may not be a correct term but I mean ability to work and live with other people, ability to lead and follow. Potential is my favorite word too. Kappa can and should draw out good qualities from a pledge which she herself may not realize she has.

Maggie: I am not sure that actives and alum see eye-to-eye on what makes a girl a good Kappa. Maybe the alums lean more to the girl who is a legacy or a quiet, academically oriented girl. Actives on the other hand look for girls who will add spark and individuality to the house, someone outgoing and enthusiastic. On the whole I believe alums are pleased with the girls the active chapter chooses as pledges.

Cindy: Actives look at rushees in terms of a four-year college commitment while most alumnae seem to view the selection process from the vantage point of long-term involvement. Most often a good active will make a good alumna.

Polly: Actives and alumnae don't always look for the same things in prospective members. But neither do we as individuals.

HOW CAN KAPPA'S REFERENCE SYSTEM BUILD GOOD COMMUNICATION?

Mary Flo: A reference is the most vital piece of communication between actives and alums. Their opinions and information can give us a valuable insight into a girl's past, which can be helpful because some girls don't show us their best during a rush situation. If a reference is taken either too lightly or too seriously it can hinder a chapter in its selection. A reference should be considered just that . . . an added insight!

Jan Mc: That's just right . . . it shows actives and alums they are working toward the same goals.

Polly: Good prompt communication and mutual respect make the reference system work.

Cindy: But we all admit the reference system still is in need of refinements. We must not lose sight of the goal of seeing a girl matched with the group that is most at ease with her and with which she is most comfortable. Good communication must be clear communication. At no point is there a greater need for active and alum to walk in another's moccasins, that is to put ourselves in the other person's position instead of trying so hard to guard our own.

Cherry Ridges, ΔH-Utah, acts as fraternity/sorority adviser at the University of Utah. As well Cherry serves Kappa as the state chairman of Utah.

Cindy Voelker, PΔ-Ohio Wesleyan, acts as membership adviser to ΓΩ-Denison.

Polly Beall, ΓX-George Washington Univ., lives in the Washington, D.C. area serving as Virginia state chairman, is chapter adviser to George Washington Kappas, and also acts as a rush helper traveling to chapters requesting on-site aid during rush.

Mary Flo Squires, ΓΦ-Southern Methodist, served as membership chairman and now as president of her chapter in Dallas, Texas.

Cherry: Firmly believing in the reference system, I feel it still is misunderstood by both groups. Meeting and understanding one another helps communications.

Mary Flo: Poor references don't help . . . an alum should write because she truly wants the girl pledged.

Maggie: Or when alumnae don't answer our first requests . . . or when alums apply pressure.

Bunny: The system breaks down when alums are not aware of fraternity and chapter policies of today . . . we need more education.

Jan N: Actives too cause a breakdown when they do not use references properly and acknowledge their receipt. I like to think of a reference like a decision to accept a blind date. There are few girls who will go out on a blind date without knowing a bit about the boy, and they do ask friends for opinions because they value their judgment. This is the way it should be with references. We value the alumnae's judgment, there we want their opinions.

Now, here is a challenge! Define rush in a single sentence . . . just one response is . . . "Rush is the process, privilege, and responsibility of selecting new members thereby helping to determine and define the future of individual, chapter and Fraternity."

RUSH is a mul

It's the thrill of working with others for a common goal

It's teaching and it's learning

It's crying and laughing

It's screaming and singing and dancing.

It's the right to choose new lifetime members of a very special group, and it's the obligation to give careful consideration to your choices.

ude of things....

It's bursting with pride as you whisper to a rushee that the girl singing "Over
The Rainbow" is your roommate.

It's being physically and mentally exhausted with miles to go and things to do.

And, in spite of it all...

RUSH.... it's fun!

Campus involvement through service and good scholarship is a noted Kappa trait, as seen at Mu and Epsilon Xi chapters.

Last spring, nine Kappas of Mu chapter (Butler University) were initiated into Spurs, the 30-member sophomore women's honorary, and three were elected officers. Beth Swenson served as president, Karen Hungerford as vice-president of expansion, and Linda Wright as song leader. In the fall, Mary Anne Rauh and Lisa Rost, also Mu Kappas, were elected secretary and editor, respectively. The other Mu actives busy in Spurs doing campus and community service projects are Jan Carlson, Jeanne Hambidge, and Linda Pike. Jan Bailey, who was initiated, too, is now at Michigan State University.

Among the most important projects undertaken by the Butler Spurs was the regional convention of Spurs which involved their hosting almost 75 girls from Kansas and Nebraska, including some Kappas.

Other Butler activities for the Spurs have been the Homecoming mum sales, Christmas caroling at a nursing home, marching for St. Jude's Children's Hospital fund-raising, and passing out bubble-gum morale boosters during finals. Selected on the basis of scholarship, enthusiasm, and interest, these Kappas as Spurs are truly exemplifying those standards.

The same is true at California State University at Northridge, where Epsilon Xi received six of the seven awards presented by the Dean of Students office in conjunction with Panhellenic. Chosen for overall excellence in scholarship, philanthropy, and campus involvement, Epsilon Xi first received the Dean's Award. Next, Kathe Hoffer, Epsilon Xi chapter treasurer, was named Greek Woman of the Year for her individual contributions to the school, the community, and the Greek system. The remaining awards were for scholarship during the fall semester, 1974: Kappa had the highest grade point average (pledges and actives together), the highest active G.P.A., the highest pledge class G.P.A., and the individual active with the highest G.P.A. This last honor was won by Mary Sue Weldon, Epsilon Xi house manager, with a 4.0 average.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

Edited by
ANNA MITCHELL HIETT PFLUGH
BM-Colorado
Active Chapter Editor

Debbie Kazanjian, $\Delta\Omega$ -California State University, Fresno, named Student of the Month, president of Tokalon (women's service honorary), vice-president of Blue Key, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Kappa Delta (forensics), chapter president.

Nancy Erickson, A^{Δ} -Monmouth, president of Beta Beta Beta (biology) honorary, chapter treasurer.

The Presence of Their Honors

There are innumerable Kappas who are part of the honors picture. In addition to those shown here are more whose stories have been received by The Key.

The newly established Phi Beta Kappa chapter at Kansas State University has chosen two Gamma Alpha actives as members, Sue Tilden and Karen Kinney. Sue's scholastic excellence is complemented by her chapter responsibilities and her enthusiastic participation in intramurals. Karen's list of honors also includes Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Delta Pi (education), and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Her campus activities extend from student government to the College of Education to service and leadership honoraries, too.

Anne Craighead, BO -Sophie Newcomb, Mortar Board, Honor Board president, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Kappa Delta Pi (education) honorary, maid of the Homecoming Court.

At the University of Texas, three Beta Xi pledges have been tapped by Possee, the University spirit and service organization. They are Lynne McGee, Callie Wroe, and Jenny Liebes.

Janie Strauss, also a Beta Xi Kappa, has been chosen as the only student to serve on the committee that will select the new University president. As chairman of the Texas Union Board of Directors, she has been helping to coordinate the renovation of the Union. Janie's other honors and activities have been listed in previous Key issues.

Orange Jackets honorary at Texas tapped for membership Melissa Pratkanis, BE -Texas, for outstanding leadership, scholarship, and involvement.

Lisa Geisler, ΔA -Penn State, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Omicron Delta Kappa (leadership) honorary.

Ten Delta Psi Kappas are involved in Texas Tech's Angel Flight organization, an honorary service group for the U.S. Air Force. Outgoing commander Dee Cocke, $\Delta\Psi$ —Texas Tech, was voted the most outstanding commander in a four-state region and was nominated as the most outstanding commander in the nation.

The newly elected commander at Texas Tech, Patti Hanson, was voted the most outstanding officer in 1973. Other Delta Psi Kappas in Angel Flight are Cindy Bour-nias, Nancy Cadden, Jane Hamby, Carolyn Smith, Pam Smith, and Melanie Waters, with new members Marcia Hoopingarner and Carolyn Langley.

Martha Upchurch, BE —Texas, was chosen Little Colonel to represent the Texas and Louisiana province in the competition for the title of Little General. She is a member of the University of Texas Angel Flight.

MORE SCORE

Ann Merritt Leblanc, ΔI—Louisiana State, basketball cheerleader, Alpha Lambda Delta, Home Economics Association.

Pennye Elizabeth Presley, ΔI—Louisiana State, university cheerleader.

Gamma Alpha Chapter (Kansas State) has proudly held the championship trophy for women's intramural competition at Kansas State for the last six years. This year they are again at the top with the most accumulated points. The volleyball champions are pictured below.

Individual champions at Kansas State are Sue Tilden and Carol Miller in canoe, Leslie Oswald in tennis, Amy Howard in table tennis, Sue Chisholm in bowling, Amy Howard and LeeAnn Schutte in swimming, and Anabelle Beezley in handball, all Gamma Alpha Chapter.

Nanci Conley, ΓN—Arkansas, intramural diving champion.

Ann Jackson Ellis, ΔI—Louisiana State, first girl at Louisiana State to get a tennis scholarship, first time in the history of interscholastic tennis for the state that someone was first in doubles three years in a row.

Crowns That Celebrate Kappas' Many Credits

Janet Roget, Mary McCombs, Susie Robinson $\Gamma\mathbf{N}$, attended Oxford Univ. London, England on foreign exchange program spring 1974.

ETA Student Tells of Exchange Program

Deosa Choles, H-Wisconsin

This past fall I was one of 85 college students from around the country studying in London through the Beaver College London Semester program. Our first week was spent having morning lectures on different aspects of British culture. Our afternoons left us free to get acquainted with the city. At the end of that week we were each sent to a British family—the Langman's were my family (in their late twenties with two little girls age four and five) and lived in Broxbourne a village of about 2500, 40 miles northeast of London.

In social sciences program I had classes at the University of London Union and the Moorgate Polytechnic—both 45 minutes by subway from our flats in south Kensington. Each lecture met once a week for two hours as did the discussion sections. My largest lecture was only 25 students! I had classes from 9 am - 5:15 pm Mondays and Tuesdays. On Wednesdays I only had one two-hour class in the morning. This left me with a four and a half day weekend. A group of us rented a car and traveled through Scotland and Ireland. Everywhere we went the people were wonderfully friendly and helpful. The countryside were absolutely beautiful.

Linda Brace, E—Illinois Wesleyan, Sigma Pi sweetheart.

The crown which Linda Brace, E—Illinois Wesleyan, wears is in the form of the red roses which she was given as the first sweetheart of Epsilon Gamma of Sigma Pi, a national fraternity. She was also given the promise that her name would be kept alive since she saved their chapter house and the members from a fire by warning them of the fire. The fire occurred shortly after the chapter had obtained its national charter.

The Miss Hoffman Estates 1975 crown was recently awarded to Debra Fansher, E—Illinois Wesleyan, in this official preliminary for the Miss America title. Currently, Debra is the featured twirler with the Illinois Wesleyan Marching Titan Band. She performed a baton twirling routine in the queen contest, which was based on talent for fifty percent of the award.

Kappa is Kappas

Together—

At Delta Lambda (Miami University) one of the most prestigious chapter awards has been changed in name from the Alumni Award to the Susan W. Rockwood Award in honor of their current personnel adviser, Dr. Susan Rockwood, BP^A—Cincinnati. The award recipient is a junior who the advisors feel "has that unique ability to span the generation gap and relate well to both alumnae and advisors and the active members of the chapter." Rather than recognizing scholarship or Kappa activities, this award is for the one who shows concern and consideration for her sisters and is also active and at ease with adults.

This year's winner is Carol Kubek, ΔΛ—Miami U., chapter second vice-president.

Dr. Rockwood's achievements are many. Among them are her position as one of very few female full professors at Miami U., Kappa's Alumnae Achievement Award winner in 1968, being chosen Outstanding Adviser (Panhellenic) in 1965, twice AWS Woman of the Year, and various Kappa positions nationally such as chairman of the reference study and nominating committees and chairman of undergraduate scholarships before those.

Kappas at Beta Kappa and from Gamma Eta enjoying Founders Day together.

Other ways Kappas get together is on Founders Day. Last fall, Beta Kappa (Idaho) and Gamma Eta (Washington State) chapters celebrated Kappa's founding together at the Beta Kappa chapter house. Chapter presidents furnished a slide show of the 1974 convention in Columbus. There was also a birthday cake and an exchanging of songs with the result that the two chapters are already planning other functions jointly.

Very close together are these three Kappas: (left to right) Mary Lou Myers Wiggins, BΞ—Texas; her daughter, Anne Wiggins, ΓΠ—Alabama; and Anne's grandmother, Lulu Wood Myers, Υ—Northwestern. All are residents of Dallas, Texas.

Epsilon Mu (Clemson U.) pledges entered the Wreck Tech parade held before the Clemson-Georgia Tech game and won first prize in the sorority entries. Part of their entry is shown above in the form of the giant cereal box. They also had a giant banana, orange juice can, and a giant cereal bowl filled with none other than Kappa pledges!

The Delta Phi Kappas (Bucknell U.) proved differently this year in their annual powderpuff football game, for which they teamed up with Beta Gamma (a local sorority) to win. Besides the rewards in the form of fun and enthusiasm (generated by both teams' male cheerleaders), the success of the event was seen in the proceeds which were given to the local United Fund.

Eta Celebrates 100 Years of Kappa

On Sunday evening, February 2, 1975, about two hundred Kappa alumnae, actives, and pledges gathered at the Kappa House to celebrate the centennial of the founding of Eta Chapter. The weather cooperated and alums and husbands from throughout Wisconsin, as well as Illinois and Michigan were present for this family birthday party.

Nancy Barickman and Sue Johnson mobilized the actives and beautifully organized the House for serving 200 people supper and providing room for them to circulate and visit.

They served a supper of ham and potato salad, with an array of various kinds of salads contributed by the alumnae, and rolls baked especially for the occasion by the Kappas' cook.

A continuous show of slides made from pictures in the Eta archives and pictures sent by alumnae around the country, and a display of some of those historic pictures and newspaper clippings provided amusement, enjoyment, and memories for the guests.

Mary Parkinson Rehfeld singled out those alumnae who have served Eta chapter for many years and told about the building of the present Kappa House in a light-hearted and delightfully spontaneous talk.

In honor of the Centennial, Eloise Ryder Pingry, ΓΔ-Purdue, Fraternity director of Philanthropies, presented a scholarship for $1000 from the fraternity to Eta chapter to be used during the 1975-76 school year.

Pledges and actives sang current Kappa songs, counterpointed by alums who sang songs popular when they were in school.

After the presentations, the guests had birthday cake and sundaes.

It was an evening of reminiscing, and renewing friendships, a time to visit with old friends and meet Kappas of different vintages. It was an evening to enjoy the meaning of being a Kappa.

Editor's note: The following excerpts have been taken from Eta Echos, April 10, 1975 and are shared to give readers a glimpse of some of the early years. The fall issue of The Key will be entirely devoted to the history of all chapters of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

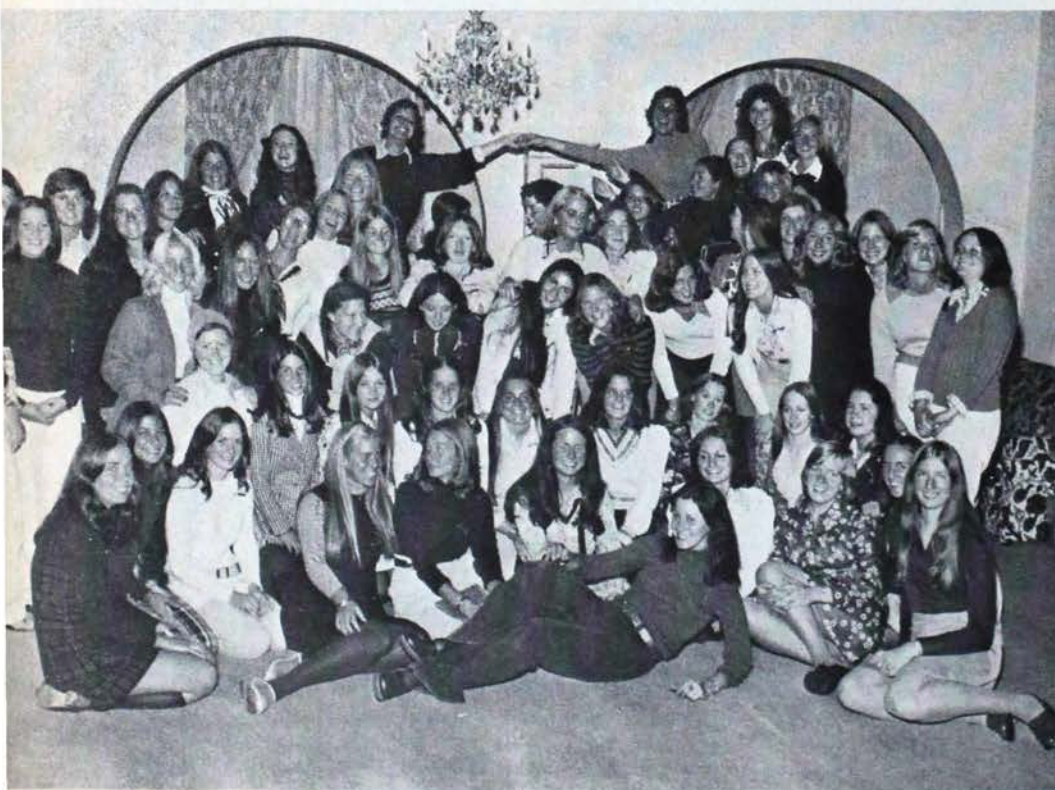

Eta Chapter was founded by Delta Chapter on February 2, 1875. At this time there was only one fraternity in existence at the University of Wisconsin, and the faculty were supposed to be hostile to secret societies. For this reason the organization of Eta was secretly performed by correspondence, and the chapter members felt they were engaged in a dangerous, if not nefarious enterprise.

The first letter on the subject of such an organization was received by Juliet K. Meyer, whose name was selected from the university catalogue by the representative of Delta. In this letter she was requested to lay the matter before a circle of her friends. Naturally her room mates and neighbors in her dormitory were included in the invitation to consider the affair. The number and personality of the charter members were thus, in a large degree, the result of chance.

As nothing was known of the Kappa fraternity, or of college fraternities in general, by the girls, the key to the duly subscribed cypher was awaited in considerable suspense, and a great relief was felt when the really harmless nature of the dark deed was revealed to the founders of Eta.

Regular meetings were held in the private rooms of the members, and literary exercises were always, in the first year, a part of the program.

The beginning of the 1876 fall term found us with four members, not quite enough to fill the offices. As we had only two girls in Ladies' Hall, and as they had non-Kappa room mates, the place of meeting was a serious problem, incapable of final solution. The minutes of that year contain such entries as the following: "After considerable trouble with Ashby the chapter succeeded in finding quiet and solitude" in the attic, the laundry, or wherever they could.

After a while they decided to look for rooms outside, and found a parlor in a private home which they rented for one evening a week. Then they found themselves face to face with a difficulty. Mrs. Carson, the preceptress, refused to let the two Hall girls attend meetings. During the year five girls were admitted. The chapter now numbered nine, and we began to fear that it might become too large.

As the existence of fraternities was an established fact, there was no longer any effort at secrecy.

Early spring, 1883, work on the new chapter house was begun, the first house in Madison to be built for that purpose.

In 1901, Guinevieve Mihills brought home smallpox, from where no one knew,—fortunately a very light case, and for two weeks twenty-one girls were quarantined. Everyone was wonderfully good to us, and donations of flowers, candy, popcorn, oranges, magazines, books, were daily occurrences. And oh! the things that took place in this house—a talk on Spanish art by Mrs. Carson, a mock wedding, "Whom smallpox hath joined together let not fumigation put asunder," the performance of a clever parody on "Romeo and Juliet," a costume dinner dance, a hop with plenty of "men", and games of poker learned from the encyclopedia.

In 1908 a third of our seniors were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, there being three seniors, Janet Van Hise was the one, and she had to show us the invitation before we would believe it.

In February 1925 occurred the great event of the life of Eta—her Golden Jubilee. A charter member said, "What we began long ago in secrecy and humility has proved very worthwhile."

Theta Chapter: Bustles to blue jeans

by Susan Darst, Θ-Missouri

The weekend of April 4th and 5th saw a long-awaited Theta Chapter Centennial—celebrating its long and happy history as the oldest chapter on campus. Alumnae from as far away as California arrived for the festivities, coming in buses, planes, and even one group in a Winnebago with a banner proclaiming "Ra-De-Do, Theta Centennial or Bust!"

An open house Saturday afternoon allowed everyone to see the house, especially the new wing, which was built in 1968. Campus and house tours were highlights for many alumnae who had not been back since graduation. Saturday night climaxed in a formal banquet at the Ramada Inn Ballroom. Betty Smith Beachy, Θ-Missouri, Province Director of Alumnae, was the toastmistress and kept the banquet running smoothly. Julie H'Doubler, outgoing Theta Chapter president, gave the symbols of faith, followed by a Kappa toast by Martha Young Miller, Θ-Missouri, Province Director of Chapters.

A well-deserved recognition was given to Centennial participants, who worked so hard during the months before Centennial. Catherine Harrison, Theta Chapter president, presented the fifty year pins to 27 Kappas, and Theta chapter awards were presented to actives who had earned various honors throughout the year.

A greeting from the Fraternity Council was given by Marian Klingbeil Williams, Θ-Missouri, director of personnel, followed by a gift of $1,000 which was presented to University of Missouri President C. Brice Ratchford. Theta Chapter also presented a gift of $200 to Dr.

Charles Peterson, director of the Rusk Rehabilitation Center in Columbia. The money will go toward new equipment for the center.

One of the most entertaining portions of the program was a light-hearted history of Theta Chapter, ranging from the time Betty Grable tap-danced for a captive audience of Kappas, to the time the foyer was graced with its first male streaker.

Finally, an already misty-eyed senior class was received as alumnae, creating a fitting end to a beautiful and meaningful banquet.

As the weekend drew to a close, Kappas as well as other campus members arrived at the chapter house for a mouth-watering Sunday brunch prepared by alumnae. Centennial only comes every 100 years, but with the help of Linda Lewis and Sally Kling, active co-chairmen and Roxanne O'Gara, alumnae chairman, Theta Chapter's 100th birthday turned into a fun-filled, exciting and very beautiful time that everyone will always remember.

It all started on April 2, 1875, when the first sorority at Mizzou was founded. There were six charter members: Ida Dickson Aldrich, S. Ella Dimmit, Mary B. Harbison, Nellie E. Gould, Laura G. Johnston and Laura Agnes Peters. There was no chapter house for the first 25 years. Kappa was the only secret sorority which kept together, even when the administration banned all on campus in the 1880s. Eight to ten girls remained in the chapter in these formative years.

When the climate was positive again, KKG showed the Panhellenic spirit early by calling the first Panhellenic meeting with four other houses in 1909.

As the chapter grew, so did the need for space. In 1929, after moving in and out of three houses, Theta moved into the beautiful Georgian colonial which is our home today. Additions to the Kappa house have included the circular drive and white columns in 1957, and 14 new rooms, a spacious dining hall and kitchen and space for the present chapter room in 1968.

Theta Chapters of past have left quite a legacy.

Theta Chapters of years past have left quite a legacy. In 1879, Ida Hayes arranged a pledge service which was adopted by the Fraternity as official. General Convention was held here in 1904. A famous Theta Alumna is Jane Froman, radio and TV singing star of the 30s and 40s. In 1952 Mrs. Christopher Schutz was elected the first woman member to the Mu Board of Curators. During WWI, the chapter required each girl to spend two hours per week working for the Red Cross, and in 1942-43

Theta limited its parties to two in order to donate more money to the Red Cross.

The entire history, recollected by alumnae, has been compiled into a book by Mrs. J. Rogers Cochran (Betty Holmes), Columbia catalog chairman.

How do the present college Kappas view the Centennial? . . .

"... as long as I live I will have Kappa."

Cindy Scully, the oldest senior, said, "My four years here represents only 1/25 of Theta's history, but Kappa is such a big part of my life . . ." Lacy Curtis, the youngest pledge, said, "One of the most exciting things as a pledge has been the knowledge that as long as I live, I have Kappa. Centennial made me realize this." Junior Sally Kling, co-chairman commented, "I could see the excitement diffusing through the house . . . everyone participated."

Roxanne Wiebe O'Gara, Σ-Nebraska, president of the Columbia Alumnae Association, added, "It's a neat reason to get together with people you haven't seen for years and years."

Betty Holmes Rogers, Θ-Missouri, agreed. "Good friends came back to see each other. They wanted to see the house, the old scrapbooks, and to go upstairs and exclaim 'Oh, heavens, look what's happened to my old room!'"

One Key That Binds Us . . .

*On the heart of each sister lies one key that binds us,
The badge that reminds us of fraternity days.
Down deep there's a friendship that needs no concealing;
Our heart it's revealing in so many ways;
It is here that we measure each day with new pleasure,
Our friendships outlasting our collegehood days;
And in the years after, with tears or with laughter,
We'll always remember our dear Kappa days.*

Fraternity Headquarters would like to update the list of famous Kappas. There are probably many well known Kappas not listed in the file. There might be a famous person whom Headquarters has not yet heard about or great achievements which are going unrecognized because no one has informed The Key or Headquarters.

Won't you please help us . . . who in your area is a nationally known Kappa? Please send any information to Fraternity Headquarters and she will be sent a biographical sheet to fill out and return for the files. Send along any clippings or news about yourself or other Kappas. Just "keep those cards and letters coming!"

Rho Chapter Celebrates 50th Anniversary of Reinstallation

The 50th anniversary of Rho Deuteron Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan University was celebrated May 1, 1975 with a banquet at Bun's followed by open house at the Kappa house 126 W. Winter Street. Invitations were sent to all local alumnae, chapter advisers, council members of Kappa, and all Rho alumnae living in Ohio.

Rho Chapter was originally installed in 1880 and existed until 1884. Rho Sigma was founded in 1897 as a local group and existed until all sororities were voted out by the university in 1912. It was reinstated in 1922 and granted a charter with the reinstallation in 1925.

Joining in the celebration were several former Gamma Province PDCs, Peg Seney, Aggie Fausnaugh, Fifi Pfahl, and Skip Russell. Current PDA Drue Zuverink was present to award the 50-year pins and also read a delightful account written by Lucille Leonard LeSourd who had been instrumental in the reinstallation of the chapter.

Have you moved or married?

Fill out card and mail (with label attached) to Fraternity Headquarters. Also notify your chapter.
