Our Firm Foundation

— By LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN, Adelphi

It is the basis, the bottom line, the firmness and the strength on which all else is built. A foundation may be a principle, a stone or steel structure underlying a building, a set of bylaws, a path to success or even the means to a more attractive you — a cosmetic or a lady's "foundation garment"!

Who chose the word "foundation" when creating the first such financial structure? No one I've ever heard of, but it was a good choice. By definition, "foundation" means the establishment of an institution with provisions for future maintenance; the basis on which a thing stands, is founded, or is supported; funds for the perpetual support of an institution or endowment; a foundation garment; a cosmetic used as a base for facial makeup. Foundation is "all of the above" in Kappa.

Values are the foundation of our Fraternity — friendship, mutual support, self-growth, intellectual development and positive ethical principles. Our Bylaws, Standing Rules and Policies spell out the foundation of our beliefs — our purpose, organization and conduct. From these things has come the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation — the financial structure that supports programs which benefit our members.

The institution that is Kappa was founded by six young women with a vision of mutual support. They certainly established an institution with provisions for future maintenance, although they could never have guessed at the time how strong a basis they had provided, the breadth and scope of its influence or how large it would grow in years to come.

Think about the Stewart House. The home of a Founder, built on a solid foundation of stone and mortar, enduring through the years, it has been brought back to Kappa Kappa Gamma and restored to period style by the devotion and determination of a group of women who believed in its value as a symbol of the strength and endurance of Kappa. The financial foundation for their work has now merged with the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation to strengthen both for the future. Our history supports our future.

Spontaneous donations to a sister with a serious illness and a chapter's donation to an oceanographic institute were the foundation of the Rose McGill Fund and the scholarship program. From undergraduate aid to alumna assistance, scholarship support to personal trauma, Kappa provides funds and encouragement for members to deal with problems, overcome difficulties and strive for success.

It may seem hard to believe, but not all Kappas are well off, stable or happy. We have problems just like the rest of the world. The difference is, we have a source of help. There are sisters who care and there are funds available. Staying in school because Kappa aid covered a financial gap, funding continuing education to return to the work force, welcoming added income to get through an illness or other set-back, enjoying extra packages that brighten a holiday celebration and — best of all — knowing that these gifts of love come from women whose compassion makes our Foundation truly a vital representation of women supporting women.

And that "foundation garment" or cosmetic base? We are bound to do our best when we look our best. We can get in shape and display a glowing face when concerns are lessened, worries eased and the day looks a little brighter thanks to caring sisters.

Friendship, mutual support, opportunities, respect, understanding of and an allegiance to our values — these are the foundation of our Fraternity, embodied in the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

President's Message

Anything Is Possible in Our Field of Dreams

Out of Kappa Kappa Gamma flows a love that seeks to build into our sisters' lives the beautiful, the good and the true. The depth of love possessed by each individual sister is mirrored by the depth of love in the heart of Kappa Kappa Gamma. It is this level of caring that drives us to find the supply of bricks and mortar for a foundation that will support the biggest dreams of our beloved organization. It takes tremendous effort, on the part of many volunteers and staff, to provide the kinds of programs that bring out the best in all of us. We can take great pride in knowing that our Fraternity Council is leading the way with vision and determination.

Supporting the efforts of the Council of Kappa Kappa Gamma is the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation team. We are committed to raising the funds necessary to make life-changing programs a reality. The funding areas of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation are:

1. Preservation of women's and Kappa's history through the Heritage Museum in Columbus, Ohio, and The Stewart House in Monmouth, Ill.
2. Financial assistance through the programs of Rose McGill Confidential Aid, Rose McGill Emergency Grants for Undergraduates, Rose McGill Circle Key Grants for Alumnae, Graduate and Undergraduate Scholarships and Holiday Sharing.
3. Educational programming that enhances the quality of life for our undergraduates and our alumnae.

We raise the funds for these important needs through the development arm of the Foundation. Anticipating the funding for today's and tomorrow's programs is indeed the challenge. Through wise investing and your charitable giving we will finish first in the race against those pitfalls that life may present to every sister.

Why would you and I want to give our dollars to make this happen? It is because we can make a difference in this world. We can have a real impact on our sisters' lives through the vehicle of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. Your gift from the heart truly can unlock the portals of universal sympathy when a sister has a need. The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation provides each one of us with a way to channel our heart's desire to help others.

As you read through this issue of The Key, I hope you are blessed over and over again. I hope you sense the deep love and appreciation we have for you. You are making an incredible difference and on behalf of the Foundation, I offer a heartfelt "thank you."

Loyally,

Patsy Levang

Kappa Leaders Wanted

Nominations are being accepted for Province Director of Alumnae (PDA) and Province Director of Chapters (PDC) positions. Province Officers assume their positions on June 1, 2001, and remain in office for a two-year term. The PDAs serve as a resource for the alumnae associations in the province; the PDCs serve as a resource for the chapters, Advisory Boards and House Boards in the province. Both motivate and guide the groups and their officers toward a better understanding of their roles. Jointly, the Province Officers plan the program for and preside at biennial Province Meetings. ### What Is Our Philanthropic Focus?

Charged with identifying a philanthropic focus, the Philanthropy Task Force began with a questionnaire to which 118 chapters and 116 alumnae associations responded, showing a strong interest in keeping the focus on rehabilitation and women's health issues. Support for a more narrow focus was also expressed, along with interest in supporting local community needs.

More than 50 women attended the Convention Forum where ROSALYN KEMPTON WOOD, Emory, chairman, and task force members CAROL LASH ARMSTRONG, Miami (Ohio); SARAH NICHOLS ACKERMAN, Michigan State; and PATSY BREDWICK LEVANG, North Dakota; briefly reviewed Kappa's history of involvement with rehabilitation and shared results of the survey.

In light of the survey results and the forum discussion, the Task Force recommended the following:

- "Rehabilitation and Women's Health Issues" would be better identified as "Rehabilitation Services and Women's Health."
- When "Women's Health" was added in 1994, a primary concern was domestic violence, especially among collegiate members. Increased education and emphasis should be made in this area.

- Education and marketing of philanthropy in general needs significant additional attention. This is particularly important for our chapters in recruitment.
- Four key phrases were identified which reflect the essence of our Fraternity and could be used eventually for marketing tools: 1. "The beautiful and the good;" 2. "Using skills of educated women reading, teaching, tutoring;" 3. "It is our responsibility to make our world a better place;" 4. "Caring for ourselves so we can care for others."

Recognizing the time, effort and thought that the Task Force has given to its work, and appreciative of the interest and involvement of those who responded to the questionnaire, the Fraternity Council accepted the Task Force recommendations. Subsequently, the Regional Directors of Alumnae and Chapters will be asked to give input on establishing a position of Chairman of Philanthropy who would serve as a resource and spokesman for philanthropic ideas, education and programs.

Wear Your Badge!

Monday, March 5, 2001,
is International Badge Day.
Promoting the theme,
"Enduring values, eternal friendships ... Honor your badge on International

Badge Day," the National Panhellenic Conference is asking all sorority women to honor their Greek affiliations by wearing their badge or letters, and by gathering in various volunteer activities and celebrations. Whether you're at the office, on campus, around town or anywhere — show your Kappa and Greek pride by wearing your key and tell others why you joined! For more information contact the NPC Central Office at 317/872-3185 or visit www.npcwomen.org.

Task Force To Study Alumna Initiation

Kappa Kappa Gamma has 128 collegiate chapters which thrive on campuses across the continent due in part to the local alumnae who serve as advisers. Many chapters, however, are struggling to keep advisory board positions filled. At the General Convention in June 2000, a resolution was adopted asking the Fraternity to research means of increasing alumna support to collegiate chapters by investigating the option of initiating qualified women in communities where few alumnae reside or are able to assist chapters.

At the August Council Meeting, a task force was appointed to study this resolution and to recommend a solution. The Task Force is comprised of DEANIE WALBURN STRENGTH, Alabama, Chairman; JOYCE WILSON CARSON, San Jose State; TOMMYE LOU VINES DAVIS, Baylor; JOYCE BAINARD FORSTER, Toronto; EMILY FOX, St. Lawrence; DAWN CRAIG GUNN, Clemson; MARILYN MAYES HICKS, Kentucky; BEVERLY KNAPP PULLIS, St. Lawrence; SUE McGINTY RICHES, Oregon State and KATIE WASZKIEWICZ, Colgate.

The charge to the task force is as follows:

WHEREAS, the chapters without Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae in their area are unable to benefit from the support of advisers and house board members; and

WHEREAS, the Fraternity recognizes the benefits of advisers and house board members to undergraduate chapters; and

WHEREAS, other NPC member groups have developed programs to support the initiation of qualified women into alumna membership;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Fraternity Council:

- investigate the benefits and criteria of selective alumna initiation for the purpose of chapter support, and
- develop a plan to promote growth and recruitment of advisory boards by alumnae associations.

Questions may be directed to Deanie Walburn Strength at strength@mindspring.com. If you are interested in serving as a chapter adviser, please contact the Province Director of Chapters in your area. (PDC information is available at www.kappa.org or 614/228-6515.)

Identity Study Underway

What comes to mind when people think of Kappa Kappa Gamma? That's what the Fraternity Council plans to find out. In an effort to capitalize upon the Fraternity's strengths, enhance its reputation and secure its role as a leading women's organization, Kappa Kappa Gamma has embarked on a major study of its identity.

The Fraternity Council has hired Luxon•Carrá, an international consulting firm, to conduct the identity study. The results will be critical in achieving the Fraternity's Strategic Plans, which include promoting and enhancing positive public relations.

The identity study will uncover an internal consensus of what makes Kappa unique. The process will involve in-depth interviews with several collegiate chapters, alumnae associations, university administrators, Greek advisers, parents, Foundation donors and Fraternity and Foundation officers and chairmen. Strategic plans, communication materials and Fraternity documents will be analyzed. The study will clearly define and identify the factors that make Kappa Kappa Gamma distinctive and articulate those factors visually, concisely and consistently to the ever-changing world.

A strategic identity is an investment in the future. Kappa Kappa Gamma is building a concise and consistent image for our chapters, alumnae associations, the KKG Foundation and the Fraternity-at-large. Look for further information on this project in upcoming issues. Questions may be directed to Fraternity Public Relations Chairman KAY SCHOLBERG WEEKS, Bucknell, c/o Fraternity Headquarters, fax: 614/228-7809 or e-mail: kkghq@kappa.org.

Resources Available on Web Site and CD

During the fall 2000 term, each chapter received three copies of the Kappa Resources CD-ROM, which includes reports and forms, the Leadership Guide, the Kappa Notebook for New Members and Fraternity Bylaws, Standing Rules and Policies. These resources will also be available on the official Web site. See your chapter President for the CD-ROM or visit www.kappa.org, sign onto "Kappas Only" and go to "Resources and Forms."

Scholarships Weave Dreams and Memories

— By Robin Pickett, Foundation Development Associate

For one Kappa, the journey to the 63rd Biennial Convention was an opportunity to come full circle in her Kappa life. By establishing an endowed scholarship within the Kappa Foundation, DELL CHENOWETH STIFEL, Cincinnati, has made a lasting tribute to MARIAN KLINGBEIL WILLIAMS, Missouri, an international Greek leader and former Fraternity President (1984-88).

Dell embarked on her Kappa journey in 1948 at the University of Cincinnati. "We were an active, hard-working group and we had a great time together," says Dell, who went on to graduate school at Syracuse University with the goal of becoming a dean of women. As one of the requirements in her graduate program, she attended the National Dean of Women's Convention at the age of 23. There was only one other person in the elevator when Dell was going to her first meeting and that person was wearing a Kappa key. MARY TURNER WHITNEY, Cincinnati, was pleased to meet a fellow Beta Rho member and later that day, the two found themselves at a gathering of Kappas who were also at the conference. At this gathering Dell met former Fraternity Presidents EDITH REESE CRABTREE, Wooster; ELEANORE GOODRIDGE CAMPBELL, Colorado; FRANCES FATOUT ALEXANDER, DePauw; and longtime Executive Secretary CLARA O. PIERCE, Ohio State. These women had a remarkable impact on her life.

During the second year of her program, Dell did research on national sororities. Dell and her group sent surveys to all campuses with Greek life, and this piqued her interest in further research. After graduate school, Dell worked at Northern Illinois University where she was the Panhellenic Adviser. It was here that she worked with the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Chairman who helped her with further research of NPC groups on campuses. This was a time when college life was in turmoil and the NPC groups eagerly assisted her.

During the summers, Dell pursued her Ph.D. at Stanford with the help of a Kappa scholarship. She was on the dean's staff at Stanford for one year, before moving on to Willamette University in Salem, Ore., where she achieved her dream of becoming dean of women. In her new role, Dell began studying membership recruitment and Panhellenic procedures. Her decision to endow a scholarship in Marian's honor was closely related to the early impact of these great women and their Panhellenic leadership.

Dell met her husband while she was at Willamette. Their life together was immersed in family and travel. Her husband's job took them to many places, starting with Burma in 1962. In 1985, Dell and her family were in Nigeria where she found herself far from Kappa connections. After a discussion with WILMA WINBERG JOHNSON, Massachusetts, Director of Alumnae, about the importance of staying connected, Marian Williams and the Fraternity Council appointed Dell, a past Beta Province Director of Alumnae, to the position of International Province Director of Alumnae. In a 1985 issue of The Key, Dell said her hopes as the IPDA were to communicate with Kappas living outside the United States, to establish contacts for Kappa travelers and interns and to reinforce Kappa membership wherever you may live.

When Dell moved back to the United States in 1990, she continued her Kappa commitment. From 1995-98 she served as an adviser at Psi<sup>A</sup> CHAPTER, Cornell. "I loved my work with Psi<sup>A</sup>. I miss them a lot." In addition to her time and talents, Dell had been donating money to Kappa since 1986. "Being a Kappa scholarship recipient, I wanted to help other Kappas in their pursuit of higher education."

In June 2000, Dell expressed interest in setting up an endowed scholarship. After telephone conversations with PATSY BREDWICK LEVANG, North Dakota State, Foundation President, Dell brainstormed names for her scholarship. It was at the 2000 Convention, later that month, that Dell and Patsy were able to meet in person and further discuss Dell's gift. She told Patsy of her connection with NPC and Marian Williams, and the impact of these relationships.

Because of the wonderful friendship and the leadership that Dell has seen in Marian Williams, and the fact that she is the current Chairman of the National Panhellenic Conference, Dell honors her with this lasting tribute.

During her Convention report, Patsy concluded by sharing the news of the Dell Chenoweth Stifel Scholarship in honor of Marian Klingbeil Williams. Patsy said, "It became my pleasure as Foundation President to bring Marian and Dell together so that Marian could find out about this lovely tribute . . . We never know whose life we will have the opportunity to bless."

Dear Libby

LIBBY TUCKER GESSLEY,
Colorado College, is Chairman of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Undergraduate and Graduate Scholarship Program. Below are some commonly asked questions regarding the scholarships available through the Foundation.

Q Applicant: How do I apply for a scholarship from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation?

A Libby: To be considered for a scholarship from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, you must fill out an application and return it to the Foundation office. All applications must be postmarked by February 1, 2001. Applications postmarked after the deadline will not be accepted.

Q Applicant: Where can I get a scholarship application?

A Libby: Applications were sent in October to all chapter Presidents and alumnae association Presidents as part of the Foundation fall mailing. Applications are also available on the official Web site, www.kappa.org, or by calling the Foundation office at 614/228-6515.

Q Applicant: What are the criteria for awarding scholarships? Who makes the decision?

A Libby: Awards are based on merit, scholastic achievement, financial need and participation in Kappa activities. Applications must be completed and postmarked by February 1, 2001. All completed applications received by the deadline are forwarded to the Scholarship Chairman for evaluation by a juried committee.

Q Applicant: I think my chapter has a Project 2000 Scholarship. What does that mean? How do I apply?

A Libby: Project 2000 (P2000) is a program of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation that was initiated in response to a Convention Resolution in 1990. The Resolution arose from a general concern about the escalating costs of a college education. Our Collegiate Recommendation Committee proposed that individual chapters participate in fund-raising projects to endow an undergraduate scholarship for their chapter. The goal for each chapter was to reach $10,000 by June 30, 2000. A total of 22 chapters and one province (Beta) have met this goal (see Page 21). If your chapter has a P2000 Scholarship, you need to fill out an undergraduate application as mentioned. It is important to know that members of the chapter must apply for the scholarship. This scholarship money can only be granted if someone from that chapter submits a scholarship application.

Q Applicant: My chapter does not have a P2000 or any other named scholarship. Can I still apply for a scholarship from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation?

A Libby: YES! The Foundation has restricted and unrestricted scholarships. Restricted scholarships, like the P2000, are scholarships that have requirements that must be met by an applicant before she can be considered for that particular scholarship (i.e. chapter, province, state, major). Unrestricted scholarships have no requirements other than the general requirements of the applicant having a "B" or above average, and being an initiated member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity who is in good standing with her chapter.

Q Applicant: I am unable to pay my Kappa expenses. I was told that the Foundation has scholarships and grants available for members of Kappa. How do I get money to pay my dues and other Kappa expenses?

A Libby: Money awarded by the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation may not be used to pay any type of expense associated with being a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. All award money from the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation is to be used for educational purposes only (i.e., books, tuition, lab fees).

Q Applicant: I applied last year for a scholarship and I was not awarded one. Should I apply again?

A Libby: YES! Each year there is a new pool of applicants. Don't hesitate to apply, as long as you meet the general qualifications of the application.

Q Applicant: When will we be notified and when are checks issued?

A Libby: Notification letters will go out in late May to all applicants. Those awarded scholarships will receive half of the award money in late August, and a second check will be issued after the Foundation office has received your first quarter/semester transcripts.

Application Requirements

1. Undergraduate and graduate scholarships are available only to initiated members of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity who are pursuing full-time study. Applicants must have a grade point average of "B" or above.

2. Undergraduates may not be associate members and must be a member in good standing. An active member in good standing as described in Article IV, Section 5 of the Fraternity Bylaws is as follows: "Members in good standing shall be those who have met the requirements of the Fraternity Bylaws, Standing Rules, and Policies, upheld the Fraternity standards of conduct and scholarship, and met their financial obligations." Graduate members must have left their chapters in good standing.

3. Undergraduates awarded scholarships must continue as active members in good standing through the academic year that their award money is issued. If you have any questions, please call 614/228-6515.

Scholarship Recipient Achieves Her Dream

TALLEY "ROBIN" CATE, LSU, is the Foundation's first recipient of a scholarship to obtain a second undergraduate degree.

In working toward her first degree in broadcast journalism, Robin became a "celebrity" as the voice of the LSU radio station, KLSU. Her popularity was widespread, and her programming and broadcasting skills increased the listening audience on campus and in Baton Rouge.

Upon graduation in 1996, however, Robin realized that her true passion was music, and she knew that she wanted to teach like her parents. She enrolled in the LSU School of Music and Dramatic Arts, realizing that she would have to complete another 3½ years of work in order to achieve her dream. Robin held three part-time jobs while carrying a full class load. "I didn't have a problem working 25-30 hours a week in addition to being a full-time student with full-time extra curricular activities while I earned my first degree in broadcast journalism," says Robin. But when she became a full-time music student, time restraints became a problem.

She wrote to the Foundation stating, "I am finding it nearly impossible to reach my full potential as a student and as a musician. ... hopefully I will be awarded a scholarship and will be able to do my very best without having to juggle so many things..." The Foundation had never granted a scholarship to obtain a second undergraduate degree, but the selection committee believed that Robin's dream would be a sound investment.

"The work was very hard, but I enjoyed every minute because I was doing something I love!" says Robin, whose graduation concert recital was packed with Kappas and other friends eager to hear her sing a variety of musical selections including songs in French, Spanish and German. This summer Robin toured Europe, performing throughout Germany, the Czech Republic and even at the Pope's home church in Turnow, Poland. Robin now teaches at the Baton Rouge Center for Performing and Visual Arts.

Chapter Consultant Says Thanks

I want to express my gratitude to the Foundation for providing my Chapter Consultant Scholarship for graduate school at DePauw and UC San Diego. I also want to thank the Fraternity Headquarters staff and Council for providing support and education during my time as a Chapter Consultant. I graduated June 3, 2000, with my master's in social work from the University of Denver. I soon will start my "real job" at Denver Health Medical Center as a social worker on the general medicine floor. I also plan to be an adviser to BETA MU, Colorado. Being a Chapter Consultant has been a wonderful experience.

I Have Experienced the Essence of Kappa Kappa Gamma

— By KYLIE TOWERS, Simpson, Heritage Museum Intern

"Just write about your experiences." The words of Diane Mallstrom, Archivist/Curator for the Kappa Kappa Gamma Heritage Museum, echo in my mind after she described a seemingly simple task. As the Catherine Schroeder Graf Heritage Museum Intern for 2000, I now realize that I and many other members of Kappa Kappa Gamma understand very little about our Fraternity Headquarters and the Heritage Museum. Similarly, I have found that most people do not realize the wealth of experience a Greek-letter fraternity can provide.

Armed with firsthand knowledge of the Fraternity, I have a three-fold mission to convey: 1. the significance our history holds for chapters and alumnae associations, 2. the important connection between our members and Fraternity Headquarters, and 3. the positive influences a fraternity has on a woman's life.

After seeing the ad in The Key last fall about this internship, and after speaking with MARY KENDALL MHOON McGINNIS, LSU, Heritage Museum Chairman, I knew this was something I would love. I couldn't wait to meet the voice who says, "Kappa Headquarters, this is Marcia," as well as all the other folks I had spoken to over the phone while serving as a chapter officer during the past three years. I wondered if my impressions of Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, would be confirmed ... a large and cavernous office with women who must be mad at me for the latest chapter report that was late or incomplete. But what a different reality was in store for me!

My internship began with an introduction to Fraternity Headquarters and the Foundation Office, as well as the historic Heritage Museum.

During Kappa's infancy, women not only fought to keep their chapters alive, they fought to remain in or even go to school.

Kylie Towers, Simpson, Heritage Museum Intern, presents a Kappa history exhibit.

My first impressions were ones of a professional business atmosphere, rigid schedules and efficient operation. These are true impressions, but they don't scratch the surface of the personalities within the walls of Fraternity Headquarters. These women have great senses of humor and patience that allows even a high-energy intern like me to whiz through the office with no permanent damage! The building itself is impressive with its historic museum in front and modern office space in back, but the array of people inside is what struck me most.

Just entering the doors to Fraternity Headquarters and meeting my fellow Kappas, co-workers and soon-to-be friends gave me a sense of pride in Kappa — a sense that I have felt only at Conventions, Founders Day events and Initiations. Those are the times when Kappas hearken back to the original purposes of the Fraternity. As stated by our first Grand President, TADE

HARTSUFF KUHNS, Butler, "The character of a fraternity is to some extent determined by the quality of its individual members, but its success as an organization depends upon their united efforts for the attainment of its aim and objects ..." There is no greater evidence of "their united efforts" than can be found at Fraternity Headquarters.

Kappa's history has so much to teach us. It seems that chapter life could mean so much more when the original purposes of the Fraternity lead the way. One of my most interesting projects was to look at Fraternity publications and pull thoughts and ideas that highlight Fraternity life. Some of the greatest quotations were found in the Fraternity's newest publication, History 2000 ... Kappa Kappa Gamma Through the Years. I also enjoyed designing an exhibit which brought to life the pages of this wonderful account of Kappa's fascinating history.

The bold innocence and idealism of the Founders reverberates when LOUISE BENNETT BOYD, Monmouth, writes of what they looked for in new members. "Our aim was to draw into the society the choicest spirits among the girls, not only for literary work, but also for social development." Former Fraternity President EVA POWELL, UC Berkeley, expounded upon that thought and noted that sororities "must increasingly become centers not of exclusiveness, but of truly democratic influences, not of social excesses, but of genuine personal culture, dignity and character." Former Fraternity President FRANCES FATOUT ALEXANDER, DePauw, speaks loudest to members like me, who may not have taken advantage of all the opportunities Kappa provides us. She said, "I've spent my life as an alumna trying to make up for my deficiencies as an active."

Too often members of women's fraternities, as well as their critics, forget about the overwhelmingly positive influences such a group can have. While it is naive to romanticize about the past, it is beneficial to learn all that we can from it. The stereotypes found so often in the media, on campuses and even in the minds of those far removed from the college campus, are often negative or greatly exaggerated. Members of social fraternities are dismissed as typical, run-of-the-mill, group-minded people who possess no personal identity. In reality, we are different yet united by a common bond.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma are responsible for their actions on a broad level, and they are held more accountable than many other college students. As active mem-

Kappa Kappa Gamma Comes Home

Stewart House Now Part of Our Foundation

Since July 1, 2000, the Minnie Stewart Foundation of Monmouth, Ill., has been operating as an official part of the educational outreach of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. The home of MINNIE STEWART, a Founder of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is the Foundation's second historical museum.

At the General Convention in June, the board members of the Minnie Stewart Foundation were honored by the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation and presented with a bronze plaque to be displayed at The Stewart House, as the home is officially known. This plaque lists all the Board members of the Minnie Stewart Foundation since its establishment in 1991. Through the efforts of these determined Kappas, this historic treasure has been preserved for future generations of Kappas. A gift of $25,000 from the Fraternity to the Foundation for the support of The Stewart House was also announced at Convention.

With this merger, the overall responsibility for The Stewart House will pass to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. A Stewart House Guild will be established, with many Monmouth and surrounding area Kappas who served on the Minnie Stewart Foundation involved to manage local operation. Responsibility for major fund raising and administrative issues will be assumed by the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

An overall Museums Committee will be formed and chaired by MARY KENDALL MHOON MAGINNIS, LSU, who will serve as the Museums Committee Chairman and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation.

A Stewart House Committee and a Heritage Museum Committee now oversee the operation of their respective museums, and two representatives from each committee will serve on the overall Museums Committee to set direction and determine policy for both museums. The Fraternity Historian as well as the Archivist/Curator on the Foundation staff also serve on the Museums Committee to represent all the resources available to educate our members and the public about the story of Kappa Kappa Gamma in the context of women's history in North America since its founding 130 years ago.

bers, we are expected to excel in school as well as in the management of our individual chapters. Often, the Fraternity's high expectations seem large and unattainable, but my time as an officer of OMEGON CHAPTER and a Headquarters intern has taught me a different lesson. During Kappa's infancy, women not only fought to keep their chapters alive, they fought to remain in or even go to school. They struggled to maintain a sense of dignity in a male-dominated world, and their energy came from a belief shared by all Kappas — the importance of an educated woman. The goals of today's Kappas are more attainable than they were 100 years ago. Our network of Headquarters staff and Kappa volunteers around the world only strengthens this notion.

The women who work at Kappa Headquarters and the Kappa family of volunteers do all in their power to make sure these goals are met, and the results and rewards are immeasurable. They maintain a professional atmosphere and still have lots of fun.

Through mass publications, informed decisions and outstanding leadership, our Headquarters staff and volunteer network is a fine example of teamwork and women supporting women. This summer I truly have experienced the essence of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Three Sisters Have Fond Memories of Their Historic Home

The Reagan sisters from Rogers, Ark., are also Kappa sisters. Each joined Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Arkansas and has enjoyed Kappa membership ever since. "Our lawn was the setting for several rush parties in the 1930s and 1940s," they fondly recall.

Upon this lawn at 420 West Poplar Street, in Rogers, Ark., sits the Colonial-Revival-style home built in 1898, which was purchased by their father in 1923. The Parks-Reagan House, as it is known, is on the National Register of Historic Places.

After graduation, BETTY LYNN and MARY SUE REAGAN pursued careers in teaching in their hometown and have enjoyed seeing their pupils grow up to assume leadership roles within the community and beyond. Some of their former students even returned to teach with them as colleagues. And, as teachers of history and government, they enjoy hearing former pupils tell them on election day, "Miss Reagan, I voted!"

Sisters Mary Sue Reagan, Agnes Lytton Reagan and Betty Lynn Reagan, Arkansas.

AGNES LYTTON REAGAN chose library science as her field of study, earning a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois. She received a scholarship in honor of KATHARINE L. SHARP, Northwestern, founder and first director of the Library School at Illinois — and Grand President of Kappa Kappa Gamma from 1894-96. After retiring from the faculty of the library school at the University of Texas in Austin in 1984, she returned to Rogers to enjoy her hometown — and her real-life and Kappa sisters.

The Parks-Reagan House is on the National Register of Historic Places.

This Kappa family has steadfastly supported Kappa Kappa Gamma's philanthropic efforts, including the Fraternity's Heritage Museum. Mary Sue speaks for her sisters when she says "Kappa means just as much to me now as when I first wore the key."

Archivist/Curator Position Open

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Archivist/Curator. This position is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the Heritage Museum and Archives of Kappa Kappa Gamma in Columbus, Ohio, and also serves as an adviser to the Stewart House in Monmouth, Ill.

This full-time position requires expertise in museum and archival work, including proper care, administration, educational outreach programming, displays, tours and historical research. An advanced degree in an archival or museum program is preferred. For a complete position description, please contact J. DALE BRUBECK, William and Mary, at the Foundation office, 614-228-6515.

GOOD THINGS HAPPEN WHEN YOU GIVE

The Rose McGill Fund offers hope and encouragement to Kappas in need

— By LOIS CATHERMAN HEENEHAN, Adelphi

*G*iving to one sister in need began a tradition of giving that has added up to millions of dollars and thousands of hours of service given by countless Kappas to members and others across the continent and around the globe. It all began at the 1922 Convention when members of BETA PSI, Toronto, told of the plight of a chapter member, ROSE MCGILL. Alone in the world and suffering from tuberculosis, Rose was in dire need of financial aid. Convention delegates contributed enough to help defray hospital expenses and provide a few comforts for Rose until her death a few years later.

From this small, spontaneous beginning has come a broad outreach of financial aid, along with expressions of care and concern for the well-being of each recipient. Funded by contributions from individuals, chapters and alumnae associations, as well as the Rose McGill Magazine Agency profits, Rose McGill funds help Kappas in need on a short-term or ongoing basis. Elderly members with limited incomes, young wives and mothers whose families face serious problems, middle-aged women who are enduring a health crisis — all in need are welcome to apply for aid.

Sometimes forgotten in times of stress, the fund is often mentioned by a Kappa sister who encourages her friend to apply. Rose McGill Aid is confidential but one member shares her story in "My Greatest Treasures" in the following sidebar. Learn how Marnie is rebuilding her life as she builds a business.

Kappas believe that "we are family" and within the Fraternity we show our love and concern for our "Rose McGill family." Since families celebrate together, the idea of a Holiday Sharing program was born. Rose McGill recipients are matched with chapters or alumnae associations who apply to participate. Interests, hobbies, needs, sizes, perhaps favorite colors of family members are supplied to the donating groups. Birthdays and other holidays are brightened when gift packages arrive or a "thinking of you" card lights up a day. And these are gifts that return to the givers. Kappas enjoy time together while shopping, wrapping and writing notes to sisters they know only through giving.

Seeking to help members of all ages and with varying needs, other financial aid programs are available. Circle Key Alumna Grants were developed specifically for alumna members who need further education for career qualification or advancement. Picture the woman who worked for a few years, married, had children and decided to be a stay-at-home mom. Perhaps volunteer work sparks an interest in a new career; maybe family circumstances show a need for additional income. But home computer skills are insufficient for the corporate world or teaching qualifications have been upgraded since her college graduation. Continuing education is a must.

Circle Key Grants are awarded on the basis of need, merit and individual goals for study at a college, university or technical school. They are available only to part-time students. Age is not a factor and the Foundation strives to fund all qualified applicants. Undergraduate Emergency Grants are the vehicle to help collegiate members facing sudden financial distress. These grants are based on need, not grades, and are given in varying amounts. Perhaps a parent is suddenly unemployed or a family member's serious illness drains financial resources. Emergency aid can ease the strain. Although Kappas continent-wide cannot give "hands on" help to sisters in need, we can all help through contributions to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. Association garage sales, chapter fund-raising events and individual gifts — large and small — combine to channel funds into various aspects of the Foundation's financial aid programs.

Having originated one of the first and strongest women's fraternity programs for scholarships and financial aid, philanthropy continues to be a Kappa focus. We are family and we do everything we can to help our own while also extending hands of friendship and aid to our communities and our world.

MY GREATEST TREASURES

The story of a Rose McGill recipient

"I am grateful to Kappa, not only recently for the help I have received, but throughout my life for many things. Friendships made in Kappa are still my greatest treasures," says MARNIE READ STARBUCK, Georgia/Florida State.

Marnie raised a mentally challenged daughter without state assistance until she needed residential care. Her daughter now lives happily in a residential facility and Marnie says, "She is my greatest joy and best friend. She has accomplished more than anyone thought possible."

A two-year illness and recovery from viral encephalitis, a serious mosquito-borne disease, prevented Marnie from working and left her financially strapped. The loss of a wonderful state job for political reasons depleted her income and her husband began drinking again after 14 years of sobriety. They separated and later divorced; she was forced into bankruptcy and lost her house.

Her bout with encephalitis left Marnie with an anxiety disorder, mild depression and very low stamina. Ankle fusion surgery made mobility difficult. Recently she was diagnosed with fibromyalgia, a syndrome of unknown causes that results in chronic muscle pain and fatigue.

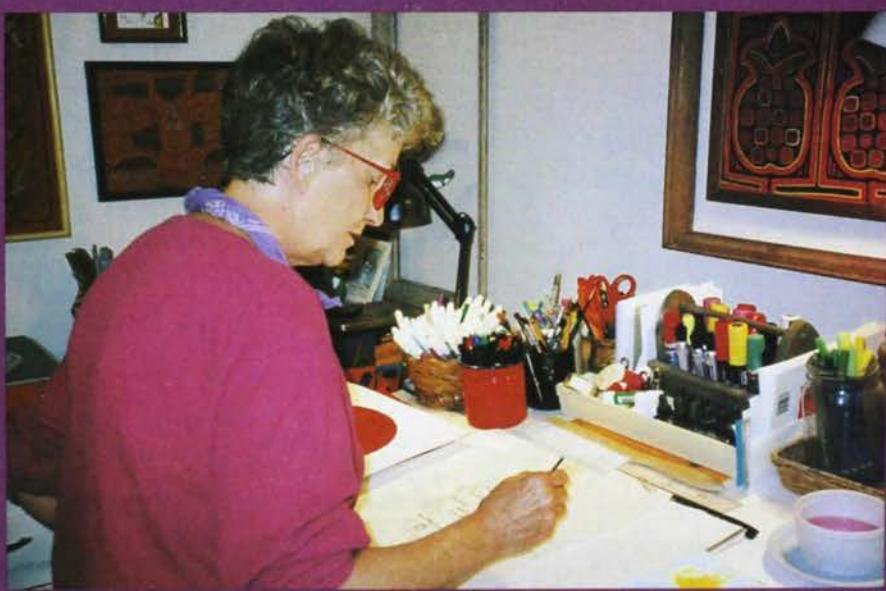

"However, I am able to work and I do want to work!" Marnie declares. Financial aid from Kappa will allow her to begin a legitimate at-home graphic arts business, helping with startup costs for promotional materials, bookkeeping, etc. Regarding her artistic ability as a God-given gift, and Kappa aid as a true blessing, Marnie will use both to, in time, become independent and solvent.

Having transferred from Georgia to Florida State, Marnie was one of five women who started EPSILON ZETA CHAPTER. She recalls it as a wonderful time of teaching and learning, recalling the many women who helped, from local alumnae to Fraternity officers. Marnie served two terms as chapter President, saying, "I truly majored in Kappa during that period. However, I did graduate with a bachelor's degree in art."

Marnie has maintained an active role in her alumnae association, as Chapter Council adviser, on the House Board and, in one emergency situation, as House Director for two weeks.

Marnie Starbuck can be reached at 2301 SE 26th St., Ocala, FL 34471, phone: 352/369-5605.

Did you know? Approximately 50 percent of the price of each subscription Kappa sells comes back to Kappa for the Rose McGill Fund to help Kappas in need. What a great way to share the holiday spirit – a gift of a magazine for family or friends and a gift of financial aid for Kappas.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation

Biennial Report • 1998-2000

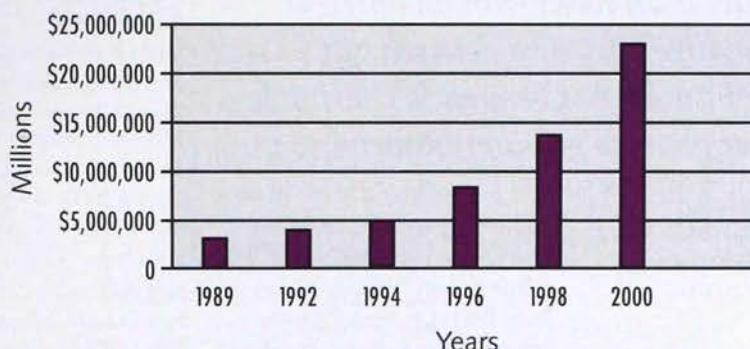

In the year 2000, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation assets have surpassed $23 million, a phenomenal increase of 68 percent in just two years and a six-fold increase since 1989, when the Foundation was formed from the merger of existing philanthropic funds. Kappas through the years have continued to pour out their support to help the Foundation grow and increase its ability to help our Kappa sisters.

During the last biennium, 13,825 Kappas made individual donations to the Foundation, and many made multiple gifts. Two thirds of the total income during the biennium was from individual Kappas, alumnae associations and chapters with the remainder from investments and other income, including support from the Rose McGill Magazine Agency.

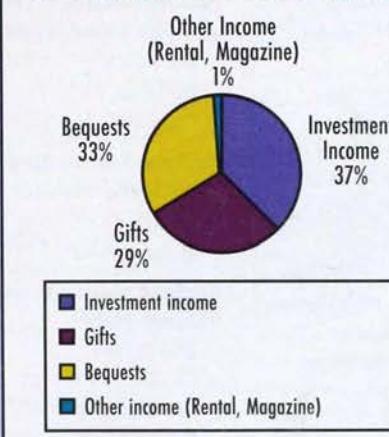

The income from gifts and investments has supported our undergraduate and alumna members in the form of scholarships, confidential and emergency aid, educational programs, and the preservation and outreach programs of the Heritage Museum in Columbus, Ohio. On July 1, 2000, the Stewart House in Monmouth, Ill., birthplace of Kappa Kappa Gamma, joined the Foundation family as part of the preservation of our history and educational outreach.

We gratefully thank our generous donors, listed in this biennial report. Through their gifts, we are able to help our sisters achieve their dreams, maintain their dignity, learn through innovative programming for women and preserve our history.

Project 2000 Funds

In 1990, chapters were presented with a challenge to raise $10,000 by the year 2000 in order to endow an undergraduate scholarship to be given annually in the chapter's name. The deadline for completing this challenge was June 30, 2000. Congratulations to the 22 chapters and one province that have attained or exceeded this challenge.

"I don't feel that Kappa Kappa Gamma is a luxury but a necessity for my daughter . . . . Being with her 'sisters' has kept her in school and helped her through some very hard and trying times. It's very difficult to ask . . . but if there is some type of assistance to provide her some help, I would appreciate it."

A Special Memory

"I became the Rose McGill Confidential Aid Chairman in 1994. One of the very first calls I had was from a young alumna, a teacher and an adviser to her chapter. She was eight months pregnant with her firstborn. Her husband had walked out on her and she had just found out he hadn't paid their mortgage in three months. The bank was foreclosing; what was she going to do? As she cried her heart out to me and I told her about the application process, I realized just what sisters supporting sisters meant.

The Rose McGill Fund of the Foundation was able to help this sister by giving her the money necessary to catch up on her mortgage. She wrote me a thank-you that still brings a tear to my eye when I think about it. She and her son were doing fine, thanks to the Kappa Foundation. That's special and that's what this Foundation is all about."

— VALERIE NELSON RENNER, Indiana,
Financial Assistance Chairman and Trustee

If you had the opportunity to make a wish come true for Kappas everywhere, what would that wish be?

"To hold dear longtime Kappa friendships, to reconnect with long lost Kappa friends, and to find in some small measure a way to give appreciation and thanks for the everlasting joy and privilege of wearing the golden key."

A CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

At the November 1998 Foundation Board of Trustees meeting it was decided to offer charitable gift annuities to members of Kappa Kappa Gamma. For a minimum gift of $25,000, a charitable gift annuity will provide the donor with:

- I. Payment for life, paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly
- II. A guaranteed return often greater than money market rates (For example, currently a donor at age 75 earns 8.2%.)
- III. An immediate charitable income tax deduction
- IV. Reduction in capital gains taxes if the gift is made with appreciated securities
- V. A chance to support the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation

Please contact Dale Brubeck, Executive Director, at 614/228-6515 for a personalized financial analysis that will show you how a charitable gift annuity can benefit you and the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

ALUMNA ACHIEVEMENT

A Master of Decoration

For more than 40 years, BETTY HOPKINS NIBBELINK, DePauw, has built her reputation as master and teacher of early American decoration. She teaches a variety of classes in her Brockport, N.Y., home studio including stenciling, country painting, grain-

ing and reverse glass. She began by teaching herself stenciling from books in order to redo old furniture. She decorated two pieces required for membership in the Historical Society of Early American Decoration. More than 20 of her students have joined this society. According to Betty, "Early American decoration is not just for the artist's satisfaction but also for historic preservation. The whole idea is perpetuating the patterns and ideas of our ancestors. Many people strip down an old piece to the wood and the design is gone. We copy the design exactly as it is and put it back together the way it was."

Besides furniture restoration, Betty's work involves wall stencils in historic buildings being copied, photographed and collected for posterity. Betty once brought back to life a beautifully designed stained glass window in the local Morgan Manning House, which was destroyed by fire, requiring complete reconstruction. She duplicated the damaged pieces, matching colors with reverse glass painting on clear glass pieces. Her work also appears on Hitchcock chairs and on stenciled walls in the house. An "appreciation day" has been created in Betty's honor by the Society for her dedication in historic preservation for the Morgan Manning House.

Co-anchor Turned CEO

CAROLYN SAWYER, Washington State, a former co-anchor for a Columbia, S.C., television station, WIS-TV, an NBC affiliate, has founded a marketing communications firm serving clients from banks to nonprofit organizations. Carolyn states, "I think people see me in a different light than they did as an anchor. People don't ask me about the forecast anymore. They might ask about the business forecast but not the weather forecast."

In addition to starting a company, Carolyn has formed an organization called the CEO Circle, which gives women in the business community a network for moving up the chain of command. "Qualified women are often passed over because no one at the highest level knows them. The goal is to have a base of women that agree to come together to support each other and to provide the strategies we need to put ourselves in a position so we can be considered for president or CEO or an appointment to a board," says Carolyn.

Joining the Fight Against Cancer

Business associates CATHERINE COOK MCKINLEY, Southern Methodist, and cancer survivor IRENE LYNCH KENNEDY, Southern Cal., joined more than 50,000 others when they participated in the annual Revlon Run/Walk for Breast and Ovarian Cancer research and treatment. The 5-K walk begins in the park surrounding the Los Angeles Coliseum and circles the University of Southern California campus, entering a portion of sorority and fraternity row. Catherine and Irene stopped by the USC Kappa house before finishing the event.

Earning Gold Medals in Their 80s

MARY-LOW FAHRENWALD ACUFF, Idaho, and her husband, Earl, give new meaning to the phrase "you're never too old to learn." As octogenarians, they are national U.S. seniors' racquetball champions and have been inducted into the Western North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame. They didn't begin the sport until they reached their early 60s. They have also been inducted into the Idaho State International Masters' Racquetball Association and U.S. Racquetball Association halls of fame.

Mary-Low Fahrenwald Acuff, Idaho, and her husband, Earl.

Their home is filled with gold medals and mementos of their sports careers. They average five national tournaments a year playing in the 80 and over division, as well as in the 75 and over division, and they still win! They recently defended their titles in Houston, Texas, at the National Singles Competition. Both took first place. Mary-Low serves as Secretary of the ASHEVILLE AREA (N.C.) ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION.

Golf Legend Teaches Winning Technique

A 2000 KKG Alumnae Achievement Award recipient, PEGGY KIRK BELL, Rollins, recently ran a golf clinic for the opening of a new resort in northern Wisconsin. She demonstrated some of her winning golf techniques, which are taught at her Pine Needles Golf Course in Southern Pines, N.C. Pine Needles Golf Course will also host the 2001 U.S. Women's Open.

Peggy and her daughters, BONNIE BELL McGOWAN, Rollins, and PEGGY BELL MILLER, Alabama, are members of the newly chartered Sandhills (N.C.) Alumnae Association.

Teach for America Attracts Kappas

"We foster a sense of corps and provide support" – that sounds like a member talking about Kappa. It is a member, MARION HODGES, Southern Methodist, but in this instance she is talking about Teach for America, the organization which recruits and trains qualified college graduates to serve in under-resourced urban and rural schools. Having served GAMMA PHI CHAPTER as Public Relations Chairman, Marion is an equally enthusiastic and knowledgeable promoter of Teach for America.

Marion is executive director of Teach for America's Chicago office. As a college senior, she was involved in a service learning project and was concerned with educational equity. As a Teach for America corps member, Marion taught fifth grade in a rural elementary school in Louisiana where she founded the school's first art club and secured a grant to bring artists to work with students. After her two-year teaching term, she served as recruitment director before assuming the post as head of the Chicago office.

Teach for America is the outgrowth of a senior thesis written by Princeton student Wendy Kopp. Her idea was to recruit high-achieving, energetic and enterprising college seniors to commit two years to changing the lives of underserved students in hard-to-fill teaching positions in low-income urban and rural school systems. In its first decade, Teach for America has sent nearly 5,000 teachers out to serve some 800,000 students nationwide.

Asked what advantages the program has for the individual teachers, Marion was quick to reply. "You learn so much about the challenges and also the possibilities facing low-income students. You gain a greater respect for and become an even stronger advocate for education."

Several Kappas continue their history of support and community service through Teach for America. SARAH GALLANT, Bucknell, former director of eastern recruitment, now heads the New Teacher Project, a group of Teach for America alumnae who consult with school districts on recruiting and supporting new teachers. KRISTIN EHRGOOD, Bucknell, is on leave from her position as director of site expansion to pursue graduate study at Harvard. REBECCA HORNER, Wake Forest, is executive director of the New Jersey office and LARA ASPER SELLERS, Stanford, enjoys her first child while continuing to work part time as director of training and support for new staff. She cites teamwork, values and respect for co-workers as qualities shared by Teach for America and Kappa Kappa Gamma. More information is available at www.teachforamerica.com.

crowns. She has recently been honored in the Fairmont High School Hall of Fame. Janet belongs to the Dayton Amateur, Denison University and Ohio Golf halls of fame.

Recognized for 50 Years of Teaching

MARJORIE EVANS MERTEN, Cincinnati, received special recognition for her 50 years of teaching in the Cincinnati public schools. Ritter Public Library patrons Debbie Zanglin and brother John Diekman, former students of Marjorie's, presented a gift of $10,500 to the library's endowment fund as a tribute to Marjorie, who leads a monthly book club in her Largo, Fla., retirement community and is an active member of the CLEARWATER BAY ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION.

A Well-Bred Career

DAMARA BOLTE, Purdue, has a strong background in animal anatomy and livestock judging. After graduating from Purdue in animal husbandry she studied sculpture under Messr. C. Delhommeau in Paris. She has retired from the National Institute of Health where she served as a supervisory animal scientist. Damara has bred generations of basenji's, mastiffs and border terriers and continues to enjoy showing dogs professionally. Her original cast bronze sculptures also include a growing collection of mini-sculptured brooches, tie tacks, rings and earrings cast in gold.

Summer Safari Makes 27

Travel expert DELTA WILLIS, Arkansas, recently returned from her 27th African safari. Previously she taped a segment for "The Oxygen Network She Commerce Program." She also appeared live on an NBC program and 10 radio interviews. Her Web site, www.deltawillis.com, now features a chat room where women can discuss adventure travel, traveling alone, family adventures and North American destinations. One section is devoted to "Inside Information," which gives updates from her contacts in Africa, information on organizations such as Doctors Without Frontiers, plus trouble spots and more.

Career Help for Moms

Career consultant NANCY JARMUL COLLAMER, North Carolina, has a Web site, jobsandmoms.com. The "Jobs and Moms Resource Center" on this site is full of resources, advice and links for mothers in search of new career directions, flexible work options and home-based businesses. Nancy also publishes a free bimonthly newsletter, Focus on Jobs and Moms, which highlights trends and resources, and can be subscribed to through her Web site. Nancy has also been cited as an expert source on flexible work options in the October 2000 issues of Ladies Home Journal and Redbook.

Hawaii's Ambassador to Education

Retirement will not mean inactivity for JEAN TRINKLEIN WOLFGRAM-HULL, Michigan State. Shortly before announcing her retirement from teaching, Jean received the Kunimoto Award for significant contributions to vocational and technical education in the University of Hawaii Community Colleges. The prestigious award, which includes a $1,000 check, is given biennially to one faculty member; this is the first time a Hawaii Community College faculty member has been a recipient.

Announcing her retirement, Jean said she would continue to work with students and instructors as an "Ambassador to Education," working in events which contribute more than $20,000 annually to student scholarships. "Christmas at Kona Village;" "Big Island Brunch," the Kona Coffee Cultural Festival; and "Sunset Tea" for the American Culinary Federation are some of the events which showcase island chefs and cuisine.

Awards are not new to Jean. Her students have taken gold medals and best-of-show awards and Jean has been recognized by the state House of Representatives for her work. The Kunimoto Award cited her legendary contributions to the profession and her commitment to the community. Jean counters their appreciation, saying, "I look forward to giving back with Aloha to the college, to the students, and to our hospitality industry for all the great times I have had as a culinary educator in West Hawaii."

HOLIDAY GATHERINGS

The Long Island (N.Y.) Alumnae Association raises funds during its annual "Poinsettia Party" for local charities including the Suffolk County Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the Nassau County Coalition Against Violence.

The Door County (Wis.) Alumnae Association sponsored a "Christmas in July" scholarship benefit which raised $300 for a scholarship to a local high school graduate. Small wooden bird house ornaments, individually hand-painted by Kappas, were strung on a Christmas tree greeting guests as they arrived. Each guest received an ornament as a party favor. Pictured are Door County Alumnae Association member Sallie Ferguson Heidler, DePauw, and husband Frank.

Fairfield (Conn.) Alumnae Association members collect gifts at Christmastime for the local domestic violence crisis center. Pictured are Sherry Smith Myer, Butler, and Dee Abbott-Youngs, Cornell.

The Kansas City (Mo.) Alumnae Association's "Holiday House Tour" has been a successful fund-raising event for 49 years. Approximately 45,000 patrons attend the four-home tour every year. A decorator and florist are assigned to each home and are given a budget with which to "decorate." The homeowners benefit from their services and are given the fresh flowers and wreaths used in their homes. The 1999 house tour raised close to $70,000 for a chosen charity. Pictured: Association President Kristin Pierson Schott, Kansas, presents a check for close to $70,000 to a local charity.

The Lincoln (Neb.) Alumnae Association has held a "Kappa Kids Holiday Party" for the past 15 years. Each year, area alumnae bring their children and grandchildren to the party at the Sigma, Nebraska, chapter house and collegians participate in the children's activities. The highlight of the evening is a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus. Alumnae bring treats, a wrapped gift for each of their children and an unwrapped gift to donate to charity. After the party, chapter actives donate the unwrapped gifts to "Toys for Tots."

Kappa Authors

Southeastern Wildflowers

By JAN WINDMILLER MIDGELY, Duke
Crane Hill Publishers
298 pages; $19.95

It's a handy size to carry along as you seek to identify that pretty flower in the local field. Colorful photos and clear descriptions define time of blooming, usual habitat and other clues for successfully growing a variety of wildflowers in your own garden. Recognizing that these gardens may vary greatly in natural environment, Jan covers everything in southeastern terrain, from swamps and flood plain forests to granite outcrops.

Citing parents who encouraged her to enjoy the outdoors, Jan says, "It's comforting that the wildflowers keep coming back every season." She has also authored Wildflowers of Alabama and the other southeastern states as individual volumes.

Finally

By RUTH BRANNING MOLLOY, Pennsylvania
Sutter House
160 pages; 40 illus.; $25

It's an accomplishment to live for 90 years! In addition, Ruth has "finally" gathered poems written throughout her lifetime into a book. An accomplished photographer, author of numerous articles (including a number published in The Key over the years), she has composed poems since age 3 – the first was written down by her mother.

From a life which has spanned most of the 20th Century and produced thousands of written lines, Ruth chose work from each decade of her life and presented it, "not chronologically, but as a collection of related and connected instances." Many were inspired by photographs. A rich, full life, family, world events, a vivid imagination and a whimsical sense of humor provide a variety of topics and viewpoints in the poems. Of one, Ruth says in the preface, "I mounted crushed tin cans on boards, wrote poems about them, and called them Tin Canticles." As enjoyable as the poems themselves are the explanatory notes in the Appendix, which give the background of each poem.

Accompanying a picture of her three young daughters, in 1940 Ruth wrote the simple but eloquent "Grace":

*Oh, bless us on this Christmas day
And bless our feast
And give the most to them, we pray,
Who ask the least.*

And for her 75th birthday, in 1985, she exuberantly wrote "An All-Embracing Toast":

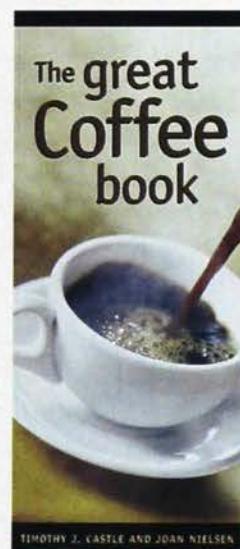

*Here's to everyone I know
Here's to everyone I knew
Here's to all the winds that blew
Here's to breezes yet to blow.
Here's to all my kith and kin
Let the party now begin!*

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ruth was instrumental in researching and writing Volumes I and II of The History of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The Great Coffee Book

By Timothy J. Castle and JOAN REIS NIELSEN, Carnegie-Mellon
Ten Speed Press
152 pages; $15.95

Jump-starting your day with a cup of coffee or ending it with a mellow cup after a good meal, coffee is a fact of life for many of us as we follow our daily routine. Here's a chance to learn more about the origin and production of coffee, brewing methods and cooking with coffee. Attractive photos and charming old ads and posters add to the book and your enjoyment of a great cup of coffee – "hot, aromatic and complex."

Also the author, with Gary Ibsen, of The Great Tomato Book, Joan has developed recipes, edited cookbooks and written television food shows, working with many celebrated chefs. As a talented graphic designer, she makes the books attractive as well as informative. Her mother, JOAN REIS ALLEN, DePauw, submitted the books to Kappa and noted that the coffee book collaboration was so successful for Joan and Timothy that they are now husband and wife!

Iowa Folk Artists

By JACQUELINE ANDRE SCHMEAL, Iowa State
 Iowa State University Press
 126 pages; $24.95

An Iowa native and preservationist, Jacqueline has written about the work and lives of woodcarvers, quilters, basketmakers, potters and painters. The 16 Iowa folk artists live modern lives while using old techniques and maintaining the best traditions of earlier days in their work. Photos by Charles Brill capture the charm of the artists and their creations.

Formerly a staff writer for the Minneapolis Tribune, the Christian Science Monitor and Time, Jacqueline's interest in her roots and heritage has surfaced in several ways. She co-founded Friends of Folk Art through the Museum of International Folk Art in Santa Fe, N.M., and for 16 years was the owner of Iowa, a folk art store in Houston, Texas, that sold work from other states, as well as Iowa. With farm prices so low, farm families welcomed the additional income from their folk art crafts.

Looking at the larger landscape of the rural countryside, Jacqueline realized that old buildings — especially barns — were disappearing. With the help of friends, she launched the Iowa Barn Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to saving the state's barns through funding grants and raising public awareness of the need to preserve these symbols of rural life. A front-page story in the New York Times, January 17, 2000, quoted Jacqueline as saying, "These barns are America's best example of folk art. It's terrible to lose them."

Living what she preaches, Jacqueline moved a tall corn crib to a hillside overlooking a stream and renovations made it into a small home for her increasingly frequent visits to Iowa. Pond, creek, pastures, woods and wildlife are hers to enjoy only an hour from Des Moines.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Key is delighted to receive so many books written by Kappas. We have many books on file for review in future issues, so if you have already submitted a book or plan to submit a book, please be patient. Books will be reviewed in the order in which they are received.

Books and author information may be submitted to The Key, P.O. Box 38, Columbus, OH 43216-0038. Books will not be returned and will be kept in the Fraternity archives.

Serving the Agency

In 1962, as a college senior, JANET (BETSY) ROBSON, Michigan, applied to the CIA but was told that the Agency didn't hire women for its Junior Officer program without a sign of serious intent, one of which was an advanced degree. Already holding a scholarship for a year in graduate study in (West) Berlin awarded by the Berlin senate, Betsy completed a master's in German in 1964 and was hired.

The first woman to teach operations tradecraft to new employees, Betsy served overseas for several years as an operations officer and also spent some time in Washington recruiting new employees. As a geographic branch chief for six European countries, Betsy supported overseas operations and liaison work.

Before retiring in 1999, as Chief, Human Resources Staff, Director of Operations, Betsy led her staff in a complete redesign of the Directorate's entire performance management system which affected several thousand employees. Areas reviewed included career planning, advanced work directives, promotions, senior assignments and evaluation guidelines.

Having received five meritorious unit citations, two exceptional performance awards and the Senior Intelligence Service Merit Award, Betsy was honored on her retirement with the Distinguished Intelligence Medal. This is the Agency's second-highest award, behind only the Distinguished Intelligence Cross for extreme heroism.

Using her management and interpersonal skills to benefit the community of Falls Church, Va., Betsy volunteers on a community services council, at a crisis pregnancy center, as a respite foster parent and as part of a pastoral care team.

A Life-Saving Gift

Members of THETA, Missouri, their friends and area alumnae collected 214 units of blood during the Greek Week 2000 Blood Drive. This year, the blood drive collected more than 3,300 units of blood. According to blood drive workers, each unit of blood saves three lives.

Welcome, Jane Pauley!

JANE PAULEY, Indiana, poses in front of a welcome banner prepared by the members of EPSILON KAPPA, South Carolina. Jane visited the campus to deliver a speech to the college of journalism and mass communications.

Jane Pauley, Indiana, visits the University of South Carolina.

Chapter Learns To Manage Stress

Life for today's collegian can be stressful. Students volunteer, hold jobs, participate in extracurricular activities, complete internships and study abroad, in addition to their regular academic work. ZETA PHI, Princeton, members encourage each other to maintain balance in their lives and have found one way to manage stress.

While Zeta Phi Chapter maintains nearly a 3.6 GPA, members actively participate in philanthropic projects including volunteering at a soup kitchen, donating items to homeless shelters and taking inner-city high school students on campus tours. To reduce stress, the chapter invited a master yoga teacher to lead the chapter in a session of stretching and de-stressing.

Caring for Kids

- "Kappas Karing for Kids" was the theme for EPSILON, Illinois Wesleyan, members who assembled and donated bags stuffed with school supplies for underprivileged children.

- For their New Member Recruitment philanthropy activity, GAMMA GAMMA, Whitman, members made pillow cases for a local children's home.

Fun-Raisers

- DELTA NU, Massachusetts, participated in events that raised more than $5,400 for the Make-a-Wish Foundation of Western and Central Massachusetts.

- EPSILON ZETA, Florida State, members climbed their way to a $1,300 donation in support of the Rose McGill Fund and "Independence for the Blind" during "Kappa Klimb," an annual rock-climbing competition sponsored by the chapter.

- Kappa dads contributed to the success of GAMMA THETA's, Drake, annual walk in support of the Des Moines chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, which was co-founded by a chapter member's parents. Nearly 100 percent of the chapter participates in this annual fund-raising event and when the walk conflicted with the chapter-sponsored Fathers Weekend, Kappa dads lent their walking feet for an amazing turnout.

- SIGMA, Nebraska, held a breakfast fund-raising event called "Green Eggs and Ham." The chapter raised more than $600 to benefit The Gathering Place, a local food shelter.

The "Cut and Paste" Chapter House

Collegians and alumnae of DELTA ZETA, Colorado College, were treated to a rare sight last fall when the chapter house was cut into three sections and moved three blocks to its new site. Administration redesign of the campus determined relocation of all sorority houses to a student organization quadrangle where the men's houses were already located. Planning began in 1995 and by June 1999 alumnae faced the monumental task of sorting 66 years worth of memorabilia for packing and storage.

In 1924, the Hypatia Literary Society used the house for meetings. They became Delta Zeta Chapter in 1932 and two years later adapted the house for sorority living with a large addition. Another addition took place in 1941 and thereafter there were only cosmetic improvements. Inspection and planning for the move uncovered some deplorable conditions — rotten wood, termites, antiquated plumbing and wiring — all of which had to be dealt with. Having used a huge chunk of the reserve fund, the alumnae have undertaken a fund-raising campaign for total redecoration and are still working toward their goal.

Membership Recruitment in fall 1999 was unique. The college furnished each chapter with a white tent set up in an athletic field, along with electricity, microwaves and coolers. A perfect October day contributed to the circus-like event and "Kamp Kappa" was successful. The chapter achieved quota and the alumnae managed refreshments well in the limited facilities.

Recognizing that they were lucky to discover the bad structural conditions of the house, managing the move, recruiting a record class of New Members and utilizing a solid leadership pool, collegians and alumnae of Delta Zeta enjoy a strong Greek system and look forward to many successful and enjoyable years in their almost-new home.

Beta Mu To Benefit from Alumna Bequest

Through the generosity of one Beta Mu alumna, members of BETA MU CHAPTER, Colorado, will benefit from a gift in excess of $3 million to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation. MARIAN SIMS BAUGHN, a 1920 initiate of Beta Mu, left a bequest to the Foundation to be used for undergraduate and graduate scholarships, educational programming, emergency aid and other appropriate uses consistent with the mission and purpose of the Foundation, all for the benefit of members of Beta Mu.

In October, representatives of the Foundation Board of Trustees traveled to Denver and Boulder to announce this gift and explain application processes for use of the funds.

This fund will be named the Marian Sims Baughn Fund, in memory of her sisters, also members of Beta Mu, IRENE SIMS ELOFSON and ELAINE SIMS HAWKINS. Questions may be directed to the Foundation office at 614/228-6515.

Eta Epsilon, Johns Hopkins, took initiative by becoming the first women's group on campus to join the fraternity league of intramural sports. As a result, the campus Panhellenic is establishing a sorority league for intramural sports.

A Kappa sing-a-long entertains the crowd and 22 members of Eta Beta, Pepperdine, while waiting in line at a taping of The Price Is Right.

Zeta Nu, UC San Diego, new members are proud to be Kappas!

What's the big secret that has these members of Gamma Upsilon, British Columbia, smiling? It's really no secret — they are participating in a leadership game led by Traveling Consultant Maureen Eagle, UC San Diego, on her official chapter visit.

Epsilon Gamma, North Carolina, members Paige Downey and Stephanie Shepherd cheer the UNC Tar Heels at the 2000 NCAA Sweet Sixteen Basketball Tournament.

Through the Keyhole ... Letters to the Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: We are delighted to receive so many letters but regret that we are unable to print each one. Please keep writing to The Key and know that we appreciate your input. Letters are edited for clarity and length.

Critique of The Key

The articles in your Spring 2000 Issue go deeper than the surface of issues, such as eating disorders. This is really good investigative reporting that lends punch and substance to your publication. Your publication not only entertains, it informs readers on timely issues in depth. This is a very well-planned publication.

The above comments are from writing professionals who reviewed Greek publications for the College Fraternity Editors Association annual conference.

Books Are a Big Hit

I want to express my enjoyment of the "Kappa Authors" column in The Key. I have ordered Boomer's Big Surprise and several copies of Christmas Trivia from Barnes & Noble and they were a big hit. It adds additional meaning to feel like you "know" the author through Kappa sisterhood.

— LYNN MCCORMICK GUYOT, Butler

Praise for History 2000

My copy of History 2000 ... Kappa Kappa Gamma Through the Years arrived recently. What an impressive job you all did! I'm proud to be a Kappa with so many outstanding and inspiring women. You have told their stories well and have given us all some bragging rights to pass along. What a wonderful treat it was to find out I had won The Key history contest and would receive the book as my prize. I will enjoy it for many years and look forward to the next one.
