ROOM TO GROW

Tuscaloosa, Alabama

Syracuse, New York

Lubbock, Texas

Lawrence, Kansas

Walla Walla, Washington . . .

This Spring at Province Meetings over the country Kappas met to make new friends, share ideas, and capture again that special spirit that generates when Kappas congregate.

The theme of this year's meeting, Room to Grow, builds on the theme of the 1980 Convention, Listen to the Nautilus. The nautilus concept of growth, moving from chamber to chamber through stages of its life, provides rich comparisons in our own lives. As a representative of your Council it is my pleasure to share with you some thoughts about this theme and what it means to you and me.

The Fraternity offers each individual the opportunity for self-growth through a group experience. We all have known the feeling as a pledge, an active, or an alumna. Kappa creates an environment where people can motivate themselves. The Fraternity presents opportunities where we can maximize our strengths and minimize our weaknesses. By creating a sense of belonging, a share in planning, a purpose worthy of our efforts, and confidence in each other, Kappa helps us become responsible for our own growth. The sense of worth that a person feels when others express support and commitment is the greatest motivation possible.

Ardis Whitman in an article, "Invitation to Live," says it another way:

We help or hinder one another, summon another to be and to grow, or to surrender and retreat, influencing one another as sun and frost "influence" a field. The life we touch for good or ill will touch another and that in turn another, until who knows how far that touch will be felt.

How many people do you know who have added to your life in just this way . . . unforgettable people who invite us to love and grow by encouraging, inspiring, renewing, and building. Such people, Mrs. Whitman concludes, "inspirit" us. They make life real. They give us room to grow.

We are challenged to be our best. A return to the basics makes that clear. Let's look anew at the Fraternity purpose and its symbolic expression in our beautiful ritual. We have a standard of excellence to use as the measure for our own performance. The Greeks had a word for it — arête.

A highly regarded music teacher was once asked the secret to his extraordinary success with his students. He thought for a moment and then replied, "I tell them it is better to do well than to do badly."

The goals that a person sets for himself are greatly affected by the framework of the expectations of those around him. If much is expected, the chances are that he will expect much of himself. And so we return to the unalterable fact that through Kappa each individual can be her best. Our challenge is there . . . define for yourself again "the nobler qualities of the mind."

Finally, Kappa develops within us an ethic of service which embraces a concern for the world we live in. The ties that bind us to a larger world are strong ones. As women, balancing the new and traditional roles now open to us, the opportunities and responsibilities are great.

For each one of us knows deep within our Kappa heart that because of the close relationships we have developed with each other, we have a greater capacity for understanding all human nature, a compassion for those less fortunate, a tolerance of opinions different from our own, and a realization that individual freedom can and should be exercised only to the extent that it does not interfere with the rights of others. From our close associations with one another we indeed learn "the real elements of sympathetic interest in others."

And thus the nautilus concept prevails. We grow all our lives. We as Kappas have the opportunity to grow through the various chambers of our life motivated by the caring, challenging atmosphere of a fraternity that believes that the good and the beautiful are within each one of us.

Our heritage has been given to us. The present is now. Our future lies in the kind of people we will become. The Fraternity's greatest resource are women thus inspired.

Kappa colonizes at Lawrence University

On April 23-25 the Zeta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was colonized at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wisconsin. The University is a merger of Downer Women's College in Milwaukee and Lawrence College in Appleton and is a small, private, liberal arts institution with 1,100 students.

Lawrence has a picturesque setting with graceful, limestone academic buildings and residential halls overlooking the Fox River. A magnificent memorial Chapel inspires the compact campus & the quaint residential community in downtown Appleton. The city is famous for its paper companies (both Kimberly-Clarke and Appleton Paper Companies). Paper mills line the Fox River which cuts through the center of town.

Lawrence University is a well-known and respected undergraduate institution. It is proud of the opportunities it presents the students: the challenging academic programs, diverse extra-curricular activities, good sports programs, a strong Greek system, and especially the close community between the faculty, the administration and the students. The University is especially proud of the Conservatory of Music which attracts many students.

The Greek system at Lawrence is small, but strong, with six fraternities and three sororities. The fraternities are housed and the sororities have chapter rooms in a Panhellenic corridor in one of the residence halls. Demand was high among the women for a new group to come on campus, and thus Panhellenic voted in the Fall of 1980 to form an extension committee to research national groups and asked four groups to give a presentation in February, 1981.

Sally Nitschke travelled to Appleton in February to give a presentation to members of the Panhellenic and to the extension committee. Representatives of the three groups, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Delta Gamma, attended the presentation. Joining Sally were: Jane Jllom, Epsilon PDC, Ginny Rose, president of the Fox River Alum Club; Talby Hardy, field secretary, and Katie Quirk, an Eta Kappa and president of Panhellenic at University of Wisconsin. The presentation was a success, and the next month the committee informed us that we had been selected as the fourth and newest sorority on the Lawrence campus.

As the news travelled, excitement piqued among local Kappas and those at The University of Wisconsin. The Fox River Alumnae Club is a long established organization in Appleton, and thus the prospect of a local Kappa chapter was a unique experience. At the Eta chapter in Madison, actives thrilled at the idea of becoming the sister chapter of a colony at Lawrence University.

Colonization rush began the week of April 21-15. Marjorie Converse, ΓΔ Purdue, Chairman of Extension, directed the colonization team consisting of Barbara Laitner, BM Colorado, 1978-80 field secretary; Cathi Gelhaar, Epsilon PDA; Nancy Laitner, Diane Delayo and Talby Hardy, 1980-81 field secretaries; Cathy Harrison, Laurie Schmidt and Lynn Atkinson, Eta Kappas. Attending the activities that weekend were Eta Kappas and Fox River alumnae.

On Thursday evening a reception was held in the Gold Room in Downer Hall on the Lawrence campus. The Gold Room is appropriately named for the exquisite teak furniture, woodwork and beautiful tapestries decorating the room. These treasures were brought from a collection at Downer College in Milwaukee. Punch, cookies, a slide show "The Spirit of Kappa", many enthusiastic Kappas and the beautiful voices of the Eta Kappas filled this special evening. Interested rushees signed up for interviews to be held the next day.

On Saturday, rushees, the colonization team, local alumnae, Eta big sisters and Cathy Hyde assistant Dean of Students enjoyed a luncheon in Colman Hall. The menu featured delicious chicken crepes and once again the Eta Kappas entertained the group with their vocal talents. All of the rushees were given bids at the Luncheon and, to the thrill of everyone, accepted their bids unanimously. A short pledging service immediately followed the luncheon and the remainder of the day was spent with picture taking, lots of Kappa songs, more hugs and an overflow of joy and anticipation for the future of this dynamic group of women.

The charter members are a diverse and multi-talented group. They come from many states; Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Kentucky and Wisconsin. Rugby, photography, tennis, politics, advertising, math, psychology, vocal performance, the theatre, are but a sampling of the interests of the new group. Diane Delayo and Talby Hardy stayed with the colony until June. Sheila Cloyes, BM - Colorado, was appointed to be their Graduate Counselor for the next school year with installation planned for the weekend of October 23-24.

The Zeta Epsilon Colony has already become a viable and popular group on campus. They participated in Celebrate, an annual festival featuring entertainment, art exhibits, handicrafts, and an abundance of food. People came from all over the state of Wisconsin, 8,000 last year, to attend this annual event. KKT t-shirts have brightened up the campus and sounds of "Oh Pat Says She" filter through. The future is undeniably bright for this new group, as we benefit from their membership and they grow through the wonderful Kappa experience.

Kappa Blooms!

One promise left-over from the 1980 General Convention was the prospect that a new fleur-de-lis would bloom and it would be named for Kappa Kappa Gamma. The cover of this issue of The Key proudly pictures the new arrival.

Candy Williamson-Murdoch, a Pi Beta Phi from Arkansas who transferred to Auburn, contacted past Fraternity President Jean Hess Wells in August of 1977. At that time she was a doctoral candidate in horticulture at Mississippi State and had been breeding iris for several years without a particular goal in mind until a Kappa friend said that the iris was a Kappa symbol but as yet there really was not a true blue and blue fleur-de-lis. Candy felt she could help to produce the desired flower and with the permission of the Fraternity she would name it "Kappa Kappa Gamma" and would give it to us to reproduce however we liked. She concluded her letter with . . . 'Just call it a Duo-Monmouth gift from a Pi Phi.'

Thus began three years of correspondence and concern about the progress of the iris. Insect infestation of the rhizomes, disease, late spring freezes, and the breaking into of the greenhouse where several plants were stolen all compounded the problems of the first bloom. Candy kept breeding in other stock to perfect the iris, to make it disease resistant, to make it look more like a fleur-de-lis, and to breed in remembrance so it would bloom twice a year. In late April of 1981 the plants finally bloomed beautifully!

The next step is to turn the rhizome over to a nursery this summer who will begin to produce it, but four or five will be sent to Fraternity Headquarters to plant for next spring. Kappa blooms once again!

Candy Williamson-Murdoch, Pi Beta Phi, checks the iris plants at their greenhouse location at Berry College where she teaches horticulture at Martha Berry's antebellum home site. Candy received her PhD in 1979 in horticulture.

The Loyalty Fund for 1980-81 has exceeded the $130,000 mark and has recorded 6,558 donors. Listed are those who contributed between May 1, 1980 and April 1, 1981. These gifts have provided many services for the Fraternity:

- a fifth field secretary to better service our 107 chapters
- continued expansion of alumnae programming to serve member needs
- aid in remodeling Fraternity Headquarters to provide improved use of space
- a new collator to make Fraternity Headquarters business operations more efficient

- a new Kappa songbook
- career development program to serve all members
- a new pledge chairman's manual to give new direction and emphasis to the pledge program
- continued Fraternity growth through carefully considered chapter expansion

Your continued support of this fund is greatly appreciated by all members of the Fraternity, and Council extends its heartfelt thanks to one and all for joining in this building and growing process.

THE KEY

Oh, what could I share
 With a friend to me so dear?
 A poem, a prayer, a shining dream,
 Or an understanding tear?
 All are so precious
 With their meanings pure and true
 But later when I've gone my way,
 What miracles can they do?
 They can't take a heart,
 Open it, step inside;
 Nor conquer a hindering door
 Where happiness may reside;
 Nor answer questions
 That long have plagued the soul.
 What gift could do so many things
 To help reach a distant goal?
 What opens the heart
 To set all sorrows free,
 Unbolts the door, responds to doubt?
 It could only be the Key.
 So that's what I give
 With the poem and the prayer
 The key to the heart, door, and soul
 To tell you how much I care.

Flower Fair co-chairmen Pam Haworth Barbera, ΔP - Mississippi, and Joan Odell Leavitt, ΔX - San Jose State, and young adults from POWER rehabilitation center admire the bus which Kappa contributions helped to buy.

Philanthropy Flowers in Richardson

Under the guidance of philanthropy co-chairmen Pam Haworth Barbera, ΔP - Mississippi, and Joan Odell Leavitt, ΔX - San Jose State, members of the Richardson (TX) Alumnae Association coordinated a fund-raising project with their local philanthropy work. Their spring "Flower Fair" got off to a very early start when poinsettias used for decorations at the Christmas couples party were later sold. Following up on this success, Easter lillies, hanging baskets and other indoor foliage and flowering plants brought additional income in the spring.

In keeping with the International Year of the Disabled, the funds raised were given to POWER rehabilitation center for handicapped young adults, Notre Dame School for Handicapped and mentally retarded children, R.A.C.L.D. for evaluation of children with learning disabilities, Channel 13 and Kappa philanthropies.

Nancy Frey Sellers, ΓA - Kansas State; Virginia Jones Miller, ΓΦ - SMU; Mary Jane Nissley Addison, BΔ - Michigan; Maureen Denman Wood, EA - Texas Christian; and Willa Ann Stone Darr, also ΓΦ, encouraged residents of a local nursing home to join in their sing-a-long.

A Kappa Speaks Out

In her report as Theta Province Director of Alumnae, Eloise Moore Netherton, BΞ - Texas, spoke of the need to be open and honest about mental illness . . .

"1981 is the International Year of Disabled Persons. Kappa has always stressed rehabilitation and I urge you to direct your activities and "local" money in this direction in the coming year. I also urge you to give special consideration to rehabilitation of the mentally handicapped. I work full time in a community mental health center and I know who the forgotten people of this country are — the adult mentally ill who are not cute, cuddly, winsome, very appreciative, 'going through a stage', 'trying to find themselves', or any other of the endearments we seem to expect from those we help. The mentally ill of whom I speak are hopeless, slow, sullen, 'out of it', perhaps even downright crazy and they remind us of all we don't ever want to be. But they are our mothers, our daughters, our sisters and brothers, and they can be helped — if we don't expect miracles.

In Dallas recently I was expounding on this favorite theme of mine to a Kappa whose name I don't even remember and I said, 'It's not OK to stand up in front of a group and say that your mother is a schizophrenic,' and this Kappa said, 'You're so right. My mother was a schizophrenic and I still can't admit that to most people. It's my husband who participates for me in mental health affairs. I still can't — it's too painful.'

I know another Kappa who has a schizophrenic daughter. My Kappa friend hides this very well. I'm sure very few others of her Kappa friends know this. She would be mortified if they knew.

I'd like for each and every one of you to try to help make it less painful to be mentally ill or to talk about your family member who has a mental illness. It is because of the stigma of being mentally ill that so little rehabilitation is done in this field. Leprosy, retardation, drug and alcohol abuse, even homosexuality, are not the socially taboo topics they once were. Let's start talking about mental illness and doing something about it. Your family may be affected next."

ALUMNAE

ACTIVITY . . .

Philanthropy in action . . .

Dearborn

A tuition scholarship to Oakwood Hospital summer speech program, donated, by Dearborn (MI) Alumnae Club, enabled three year old Christopher Valentine to attend twice weekly speech therapy sessions. The group hopes to donate at least two more scholarships from money earned at a garage sale this spring. Enjoying Christopher's progress are Summer Program Coordinator Christine Sowinski (seated): Karen Smilie (left), Director of Oakwood's Speech Pathology Department; Sue Knoppenberger Ecclestone, ΔB - Duke, alumnae president; and Virginia Showalter Marvin, BY - West Virginia, chairman of the garage sale.

Columbus

Members of the Columbus (OH) Alumnae Association learned a special meaning for the word philanthropy when representatives of the group and area Beta Nu actives visited their local philanthropy, Recreation Unlimited (RU). An outdoor summer camp designed to provide physical and social experiences for mentally retarded and physically handicapped adults. The camp is supported almost completely by donations. Following Beta Nu's presentation to the campers of their newest rush skit, "The Grinch Who Stole Kappa," adapted to a camping theme, alumnae and actives got acquainted with the campers and were given a tour of the facilities.

The alumnae association, which has sponsored three campers each of the past two years, hopes to send more this coming summer and encourage more individual Kappas to participate in the project. Utilizing a philanthropy puzzle depicting the RU logo, 300 puzzle pieces are being sold for a dollar each, tax deductible, with the proceeds given to enable an additional person to enjoy one week of camp.

Contra Costa County

Members of the Contra Costa County (CA) Alumnae Association devoted a day to cleaning and painting at the Lyn Day Care Center as part of the group's annual philanthropy project. Sylvia Silva Hegarty, ΔΩ - Fresno, and Julie Grigsby Fenstermacher, BM - Colorado, alumnae president, particularly enjoyed sprucing up a playhouse.

Toledo

Toledo Alumnae Association members are proud to have been able to contribute to the successful program of the Cogle Memorial Pavilion, a part of the Toledo Medical College Hospital and Medical School. The comprehensive new rehabilitation unit is equipped with physical, hydro, occupational and speech therapy programs and has the newest and most sophisticated facilities available for the handicapped person in its 36-bed hospital unit. There is even a small furnished apartment used for patients and their families to adjust to living on their own prior to discharge. All the therapy facilities are shared by out-patient services.

In 1978 the Toledo Kappas donated a ramp and curbs to the center. The curbs adjust to various heights and are used for training patients in wheelchair mobility, or with ambulatory patients to aid the individual in learning to get up and down curbs or a ramp with assistance devices such as canes, crutches or a prosthesis.

This year the Kappas donated an active duty light-weight standard adult wheelchair which is now used daily in the physical therapy area of the center. This chair has adjustable desk arms, plastic-coated handrims and footrests with quad release. Patients use it in training for home use, as it is similar to the one most often used after release from the hospital. A therapist admires the chair along with Marcia Irwin Gautsche, BM - Colorado, alumnae president; Patricia Brown Kropp, PΔ - Ohio Wesleyan; and Carolyn Estey Oster, Φ - Boston, philanthropy co-chairmen.

Northern Virginia

The gourmet dining group of the Northern Virginia Alumnae Association marked the Ides of March with a spirited "Roman Feast in the Ancient Style." Authentic dress wasn't the original scheme but it took only a hint of interest from The Key's alumnae editor to encourage the 28 revellers to don togas and laurel wreaths to complement the festive menu. Togas in pinks, blues, florals and traditional whites were accented with a variety of personal touches; most notably you-know-whose tiny green alligators appropriately placed on the drapings. The unusual food was well received despite heavy accents of cumin, mint, honey and olive oil, and a good time was had by all. Modeling their drape-it-yourself togas are co-hostess Sharon Smith Steffel, A^Δ - Monmouth; John and Judy Garner Buckelew, ΓN - Arkansas; Claudia Jordan Birkeland, BN - Ohio State; co-hostess Joan Stephens Kelly, ΔY - Georgia; and Ted Shultz, husband of alumnae president Mona Anderson Shultz, ΓZ - Arizona.

Illinois

Kappa sisterhood is enjoyed in many ways. After years of working for Kappa and other organizations, there is a group near the Oak Park-River Forest Alumnae Association who are known as the Bridge-Playing Kappas. They met with the alumnae association for Founders Day last fall and enjoyed it so much that they are eager to serve as hostesses next year. In addition to their monthly meetings for luncheon and bridge, they contribute $50 annually to the Rose McGill Fund and support the alumnae association in any way they can. Several were charter members of the association and almost all are 50 year Kappas. Enjoying the visit from Catherine Bernotas Gelhaar, E - Illinois Wesleyan, Epsilon PDA, are (front) Marilyn Sorenson Pratt, also E; Erika Esser Shorney, I - DePauw, alumnae president; Cathie Gelhaar; Lynne Sternberg Graves, ΓΦ - SMU, hostess. Row two: Virginia Cray Rahr, H - Wisconsin, a guest; Judy Sternberg Schaus, ΓZ - Arizona, Cobina Herbst Orloff, E; Josephine Darrow Shorney, ΓΩ - Denison, Florence Mai Eisermann, BA - Illinois; Cornelia Howe, H; Patti Burnham Woolley, BA; Hildegard Jug Neumeister, H. Back row: Marcia McNeill Libby, Π^Δ - California; Mary Traut Sullivan, H; Evaline Pettigrew Pickett, BA; Sally Bockstaber Martin, P^Δ - Ohio Wesleyan.

Dallas

A twentieth anniversary was only one of the events enjoyed by the Dallas Junior Alumnae Association this year. Their silent auction in the fall featured items made by members and a luncheon cooked and served by Kappas. Proceeds of over $2400 were donated to a new children's nursery at Parkland Hospital. A Christmas tea celebrated the group's anniversary and 17 of the past presidents attended and reminisced about their years in office. Actives at ΓΦ - SMU were the happy recipients of survival baskets at exam time, with donations from parents helping to cover the cost of the goodies. Shown displaying auction items are chairmen Drew Bass Stull, ΓΦ - SMU; Lila Leithead Walker, EA - TCU; Cynthia Booth Forster, also ΓΦ; and Sally Morton Beane, BΞ - Texas.

San Antonio

History and a hint of ritual are incorporated in the new fund-raising project of the San Antonio (TX) Alumnae Association. Elizabeth Hemphill Wilson, ΓΦ - SMU, designed a fleur-de-lis fireside rug and is guiding the stitchers group through all the steps from cutting the canvas to painting the colors into the design through the actual stitching and finishing. Liz is well known for her liturgical designs and has two small pieces in the National Cathedral in Washington.

The rug is 4 by 6 feet and will consist of squares, each with a golden fleur-de-lis on a blue shield, surrounded by a garland of green leaves. Enclosing each square will be a border of small fleur designs. The overall background color will be a golden ivory.

The completed rug will be raffled off and proceeds will go to local and Kappa philanthropies. Shown displaying the design are Liz and Joan Powell Jackson, BΞ - Texas, alumnae president.

Montreal

Delta Delta Chapter, McGill University, marked its fiftieth anniversary on Founders Day 1980 with a gala celebration hosted by the Montreal Alumnae Association. The original members of a local group decided that joining an international fraternity would be advantageous to their continuity and growth and after considering alternative groups, they petitioned Kappa Kappa Gamma for a charter and were installed by Beta Psi Chapter-Toronto. Fifty years later, five of those original Delta Delta initiates joined a delegation of Beta Psi alumnae to show that the bonds of sisterhood have deepened.

Suzanne Brais, $\Delta\Delta$ - McGill, President of the Montreal Alumnae Association, presented 50 year pins to Sally Hay Church, Elizabeth Bissonnet Puddington, Marjorie Lynch Russel and Mary Campbell Gilbert, who came all the way from Florida for the occasion. Eleonor McBride Johnston was given her pin at a special ceremony soon after.

Ruth Bristol Davidson Ried, one of the initiating officers from Beta Psi, now living in Montreal, was also a guest of honor. Special envoys from Toronto were Lou Stoneman and Margaret Bryan who recited a poem written especially for the occasion by the Toronto Kappas. Masters of ceremonies were Cynthia Price and Lorna Telfer, former Alpha Province Director of Chapters, both $\Delta\Delta$. More than fifty guests came from as far as Boston, western Canada and London, England and all enjoyed seeing chapter archives, class pictures and scrapbooks, as well as the skit presented by the chapter and a sing-a-long of Kappa songs, old and new. Suzie Coughlan, president of $\Delta\Delta$, is shown accepting an engraved silver tray presented by Suzanne Brais on behalf of Montreal alumnae.

If you want to start an Alumnae Club — write to Alumnae Fraternity Education Chairman, Mrs. David L. Cox (Molly), 4920 Morningside Pk., Minneapolis, Minnesota 55416.

Tuscon

Members of Gamma Zeta Chapter-Arizona, are minding their table manners to live up to their new table settings. Tuscon Alumnae Association spent $1200 for new dishes for the chapter and were able to buy 108 place settings to replace old dishes and increase the total number of settings to include the 62 new pledges. Debbie Johnson Ashurst, M - Butler, wrote a poem to celebrate the presentation to the chapter. . .

"Pardon our table manners;
It's really not our fault.
Our dinnerware is just the pits,
Never mind our pepper and salt.

It's hard to be a lady,
Even though you know we try.
Eating pie from plates, not saucers;
Now there's an idea we'd buy!

We'd love, just once, to eat our soup
From a shiny, unchipped bowl
And see our cup is the same as our plate,
What a worthy goal!

It would be so lovely
If we had all our wishes.
We'd cross our fingers and clutch our keys
For a brand new set of dishes.

"We hear your pleas!", the alums all cried.
We'll show the active chapter
How much we love the Kappa ways,
The smiles and lovely laughter.

Fort Worth

Members of the Fort Worth (TX) Alumnae Association enjoyed a busy, fun-filled year which included donating proceeds from last fall's "Nancy Parker Cooking School" to cystic fibrosis, entertaining several 50 year Kappas with songs by Kappa carolers and their husbands during the Christmas holidays, and enjoying the third Kappa-Pi Beta Phi joint program-luncheon. Melba Todd, fashion coordinator for Neiman-Marcus, showed the latest trends at the store's "Hedges" restaurant.

Bay Colony

A correspondent for the Bay Colony (MA) Club says that The Key probably hasn't heard from them for 15 years but they do still exist and enjoy their sisterhood. Obviously pleased to be together are Lucy Davis Ingalls, Φ - Boston; Laura Conabee Haddrell, ΔA - Penn State; Jeanette Shrum Willett, Δ - Indiana; Linda Miglierini Pierre, Φ ; Donni Rogers Hart, EZ - Florida State; Ruth Seed Signor, Ψ^A - Cornell; Mary Lou Rumsey Bradley, K - Hillsdale; Nancy Ailes McIlvaine, IP - Allegheny; Leslie Ingman Parker, X - Minnesota; Sue Ellen Tagg, Φ , as they share in the presentation of 50 year pins to Lucy and Mary Lou.

Surely such elegant Kappa gals
As those at Gamma Z
Should have some china, bright and new,
So that is why, you see . . .

We rallied round each other
And dug deep in the purse,
Supported all our fine events;
Hence you hear this verse.

It's just our way of telling you
That we too believe in wishes,
And what you see is what you get -
KKG's new dishes!

Baltimore

A popular program for the Baltimore Alumnae Association was "An Evening of Creative Stitchery" with Susan Bowsher Lloyd, $\Gamma\Delta$ - Purdue, demonstrating various stitches. She looks on while Pat Hogan Ross, BK - Idaho, and Alice Dalbey Bernstein, BZ - Iowa, try their hands at what they've learned.

Big Bend

Living up to its name, Big Bend (TX) Alumnae Club probably represents more area than any other group in the country, encompassing five counties which cover thousands of acres of western Texas. Members often drive a hundred miles to a meeting but all feel that it is worth the effort to be with other Kappas. Gathered to honor a 50 year member are (front) Jane Dunkle White, B Ξ - Texas; Catherine Bunton Steen, $\Gamma\Phi$ - SMU; Dorothy Allen White, $\Gamma\Delta$ - Kansas State, who received her 50 year pin; Janette McIntyre Morrow, B Ξ ; Eloise Netherton, B Ξ , Theta Province Director of Alumnae, who made the presentation. Back row: Polly Lawton Brooks, B Ξ ; Nancy Vanberg Brooks, $\Gamma\Phi$; Ellen Peyton Weinacht, EA - TCU; Worth Lawhon White, B Ξ ; Totsie Adams Kerr, ΓZ - Arizona; Katherine Kerr, B Ξ ; Catherine Jennings, B Ξ .

Kappa Krooners

Elizabeth McKim, EA - TCU, a member of the Dallas Night Group of alumnae, organized the Kappa Krooners because she had enjoyed being a Picker at TCU and felt that this would be an opportunity to continue having fun with alumnae sisters who shared a common interest in and enthusiasm for singing country, blue-grass and hillbilly music. They have had a wonderful time performing for various local organizations including a retirement home, a home for retarded women and Parkland Hospital, not to mention their own alumnae group. Ready to let 'er rip are Beth Bryant, $\Gamma\Phi$ - SMU; Missy Morgan, $\Gamma\Phi$; Adele Dixon, ΔI - LSU; Karen Fry, $\Gamma\Phi$; Liz Lawson Peterson, $\Gamma\Phi$; Elizabeth McKim, EA. Unable to be in the photo are Lynn Razzeto, $\Delta\Psi$ - Texas Tech; Ginny Cartwright, EA; Mary Mitchell Antil, $\Gamma\Phi$.

Harrisburg

Pat Posten Noyes, ΔE - Rollins, displays a few of the items that were available at the Harrisburg (PA) Alumnae Club flea market-garage sale. Two days of real teamwork in preparation and five hours of sales turned their "elegant junk" into a profit of $455 for Kappa philanthropies. They even have some good left-overs awaiting next year's sale.

Philadelphia

Members of the Philadelphia Alumnae Association enjoyed a preview of the Philadelphia Flower Show before it opened to the public as they wheeled residents of Inglis House (Home for Incurables) through the array of plants and blossoms. Appreciating the beauty as they are of service to others are Mary Hutchinson Tucker, Y - Northwestern; Odette Hutchison Locker, $\Delta\Phi$ - Bucknell; Beryl Obermann Stephens, Φ - Boston.

Names in the News . . .

Jeannette Hafner Hayner, BΩ - Oregon, became majority leader of the Washington State Senate after the much-publicized defection of Democratic Senator Peter von Reichbauer to the Republican Party thirty days after the beginning of the 1981 legislative session. Previously, she had led the Republican senators in a minority role. Von Reichbauer's decision immediately made Senator Hayner the most powerful senator in the state.

Jeannette began her career as an attorney for the Bonneville Power Administration in Portland, OR, and she is still a member of the Oregon Bar Association. After her marriage to H.H. "Dutch" Hayner, also an attorney, they moved to Walla Walla, WA, where they raised two sons and a daughter.

Jeannette has been active in various civic endeavors. Elected to the Walla Walla School Board, she subsequently presided over the board. She has chaired the local mental health board and co-chaired the meals on wheels program, and has served as an adviser to Gamma Gamma Chapter-Whitman College. In recognition of her devotion to community projects, she was presented with the Award of Merit by the Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce.

On state and national levels, Senator Hayner has served as a member of the Washington Council on Crime and Delinquency, on the state Advisory Board for Nurses, on the White House Conference on Children and Youth, as state committewoman and on the board of directors of Standard Insurance Company.

Jeannette's Senate colleagues applaud her legislative and leadership abilities with terms such as, "decisive," "positive," "extremely intelligent and a good leader," "a very strong individual with a quick mind." Jeannette devotes long hours to her legislative duties and tries to keep her constituents well informed, since she feels that people are still the backbone of this government.

Muriel Matson Kennedy, ΓP - Allegheny, was installed as President of American Women in Radio and Television, Inc. at the 30th Anniversary Convention in Washington, D.C. She is the owner of MMK Associates in Watertown, NY and provides content and talent for radio and television commercials and programs. As a member of AWRT, Muriel has served in several executive positions, most recently president-elect. Involved in the broadcast industry since 1954 when she wrote, produced and performed a television series on pregnancy and parenthood, Muriel is also a registered nurse and spent several years working as an administrator and educator in the nursing field. Her television series was produced live and ran for three years, during which time she was also substitute hostess for an afternoon talk show.

Later she created and performed a 20 minute daily radio program which, in six months, grew to 50 minutes, fully sponsored, and with a waiting list, and remained on the air for seven years. During this period she also created and performed segments for a public affairs program including a thirty minute documentary, "A Message of Hope," which followed her through a personal experience of breast examination, xeroradiography and actual biopsy of the lesion and after care.

For two years Muriel was Public Relations Director for the Thousand Islands Bridge Authority and worked closely with the international council promoting the islands as a vacation area. She also has served on the board of Trustees of Mater Dei College, Ogdensburg, NY and on Governor Rockefeller's Park Advisory Committee and his Committee of 100 on the Aging, as well as being involved in numerous civic volunteer organizations locally, state, and nation-wide.

In recognition of her community involvement both on and off the air, Muriel was named Watertown Citizen of the Year and was the recipient of the Shapiro Award for outstanding civic contributions; the highest adult award in Girl Scouting and a Commendation Award from the American Red Cross. Married to Dr. John A. Kennedy, an ophthalmologist, and mother of 4 sons and a daughter, Muriel still manages to find a little time to enjoy golf and cooking.

Of her goals in her work, Muriel stresses her commitment to personal excellence and she looks forward with excitement to a new era and broadening horizons for the broadcasting industry of which she is such a concerned and vital part.

Carol Blair Loeppky, Θ - Missouri, was a wife and mother of two children before she decided to enter medical school. The strenuous challenge involved and the responsibilities of family life could not have been met without the help of husband, Dr. Richard Loeppky, a chemistry professor at Missouri. Having graduated with high honors, Carol looks back on the third and fourth years of school as the most trying, with a schedule that kept her away from home from 5:30 a.m. until 8 or 9 p.m.

The Loeppky's treasured their time as a family and, despite their career involvements, devoted time, thought and effort to the emotional security and well-being of their children. Dick's willingness to help with traditionally female chores enables the couple to keep their family life operating smoothly and his belief in his wife's abilities and contributions to her field supports their joint efforts. Their children are now busy, happy pre-teens involved in gymnastics, scouts, music and church activities while Carol and Dick continue to juggle driving and meal schedules for everyone. Photography and needlework are among the parents' hobbies and family camping and canoeing are enjoyed by all.

Now in her late thirties, Carol is specializing in infectious diseases and yet finds time to enjoy serving on the advisory board of Theta Chapter and is planning to write a few articles on basic medical problems for future issues of The Key. Bright, organized, busy and caring . . . Carol handles her multiple roles with enthusiasm for each and draws satisfaction from all.

Jane Sherwin, ΓΞ - UCLA has been named account executive with The Goddard Company, a Los Angeles based public relations firm. A graduate of the School of Journalism, Jane has worked for several years as an assistant medical science writer with Dr. Russell P. Sherwin, a Hastings Professor of Pathology at USC's School of Medicine.

Dixie Burkhardt Blair, M - Butler, was elected as the first woman mayor of Monticello, Indiana. Her only previous political experience was to help husband Don run (successfully) for city judge nine years previously. However, she had been acquainted with city government through her three years of service as clerk of the city court. Dixie has taught school in several communities and has been involved with P.T.O., Girl Scouts, and other civic groups.

Janet Shock Beardsley, ΓΩ - Denison, was destined to be a golfer. Her father was a club manager and USGA representative in the Dayton (OH) area so she grew up on the golf course and took advantage of it. At the ages of 12 and 13, she won the State Amateur Junior Championship and was also Dayton City Champion for three years. To give someone else a chance, she didn't enter for 2 years and then came back to win for another two years. At the age of 15, she qualified for the State Women's Amateur but was not allowed to play because officials claimed she was too young. The following year she was medalist and succeeding years saw similar victories.

In high school she played on the boys' golf team, unheard of at that time, and at Denison again broke precedent by playing on the mens' team, winning 3 letters and playing the #3 position on the 1938 Ohio Conference Championship team.

Janet was State Senior Women's Champion in 1976 and 1977, played in the North South Seniors Invitational 3 times and finished in the top 10 each time, became the first woman member of the Dayton Amateur Golf Hall of Fame in 1979 and last year was elected to the Denison Alumnae Association Athletic Hall of Fame. She is shown receiving an ivory owl from Carolyn Kearns Young, also ΓΩ, presented by the Dayton Alumnae Association.

Robin Wright, ΒΔ - Michigan, was presented with the Alumnae Achievement Award at the chapter house last December since she was unable to attend the Fraternity convention in June 1980. A correspondent for CBS television news, Robin has covered events in Africa and is currently reporting from Rome on Pope John Paul II. She has previously worked for the Ann Arbor News, The Christian Science Monitor and the Washington Post.

Constance Cornell Stuart, ΓΨ - Maryland, was appointed to the Board of Regents of the University of Maryland and is a member of the finance committee and the hospital and health services committee. Formerly a public relations account executive, teacher of public speaking at Maryland, and film and television producer for telephone systems in New York and Washington, Connie served from 1969 to 1973 as White House Chief of Staff for Mrs. Richard Nixon and the First Family and as their official spokesman. Since then she has worked in communications in the Capitol area and is currently manager of public relations and government affairs for Racal Airstream, a manufacturer of industrial health and safety products.

Ann Drummond Wooley, ΔΣ - Oklahoma State, was elected President of the American National CowBelles at the 30th annual convention in Phoenix, AZ this winter. She is past president of the Oklahoma CowBelles and nationally has served on the executive committee for six years, is a charter member and serves on the board. Ann was the first chairman of the American Ag-Day and continued in that position for three years.

Ann and her husband Walter run a commercial cow/calf ranch out of Ada, OK and is the third generation to be involved in ranching. Her community activities include church work, PTA, D.A.R. and the Ada Arts and Humanities Council. In 1980 she was chosen as one of the seventeen "Ladies in the News in Oklahoma," a prestigious selection made by the Oklahoma Hospitality Club of Oklahoma City. The Wooley's have four daughters; three who are university graduates and working and another who attends Oklahoma State.

member when the Board of Directors was formed in 1977.

Designed to furnish housing, transportation and a sheltered work program for the severely handicapped, this pilot program has received state and nationwide interest. Despite meager beginnings, LAERS now sponsors three sheltered living homes, two work contracts for sheltered workshops and a van equipped with a lift, thus enabling the handicapped to live with dignity and meaning.

Rose Jean has served as secretary to the board, on the nominating committee and on the public relations committee which planned and executed a "Day With the Handicapped" for the Texas State Legislature. Through her influence, the Kappa Alumnae Association in Lubbock has chosen LAERS as their local philanthropy for the past two years.

Mary Frances White, ΓA - Kansas State, has been a dedicated and loyal Kappa for 55 years. Her bachelor's and master's degrees from Kansas State were followed by a Doctor of Philosophy from Denver University, received after she began her teaching career. As an Assistant Professor of English and then as Assistant Department Head at Kansas State, Mary also contributed to campus life by serving as Panhellenic advisor for nine years.

She has been active in Delta Kappa Gamma, an honorary for women educators, and has served as local, state and international president of the group (covering the U.S.A., Canada, Norway, and Sweden), and as president of the Kansas Association of Teachers of English, Kansas Council of Women, and other groups. She feels that by contributing to these organizations through leadership, she has gained a feeling of accomplishment and service.

As Mary has achieved during her 73 years of life, she has been an inspiration to all around her and is especially dear to the many Gamma Alphas who have felt that they have become part of her adopted family of Kappas.

Rose Jean Rodgers Griffith, ΔΨ - Texas Tech, has been involved with LAERS, Lubbock Area Extended Rehabilitation Services, since its inception and was chosen as a charter

Dorothy Egner Chestnutt, ΓΔ - Purdue, followed the motto DO IT! and, as a grandmother, earned her pilot's license. She wrote of her interest and eventual accomplishment in the Pasadena Alumnae Association Newsletter . . .

"As we go through life taking care of necessities and giving time to worthy causes, our dreams quite often get buried. It happened to me but I was fortunate to have at least one of my dreams unearthed and fulfilled.

When I was five years old, an uncle took me flying in a two-seater open-cockpit plane. After strapping me in and gaining altitude, he did loops and rolls and I fell in love with flying. Of course, I was too young to learn then. When I grew older, well . . . my father didn't believe women should drive cars, let alone fly planes. I was in college when World War II erupted and I married before graduation.

Later, three children arrived to fill my time and Bob's promotions moved us around. There were the usual child-centered activities as well as Kappa alumnae and women's clubs and the usual social functions related to Bob's work. The days were busy and the years flew by.

One day while watching TV, a commercial came on spotlighting a 70 year old man who had just learned to fly. I said to Bob, 'That's something I've always wanted to do.' His response was, 'Really? I didn't know that. Well, go on and do it!' At that time our children were grown and we had two grandchildren and another on the way.

Dotty: 'I'm too old!' Bob: 'You are not! A couple of years ago when you took those college classes you made all A's, proving you can compete with kids, and physically you always ran circles around everybody.'

Dotty: 'It's so expensive.' Bob: 'It's time you did something for yourself. You've been a good mother, taken care of the children; now it's your turn. Money's for spending on things you want. If you want to fly, that's what the money's for. Tomorrow we'll start looking for a good school.'

And we did. During my training, friends asked for all kinds of details; when, what, how and why, etc. Some won't go near a plane; some like big planes but not little ones. All were genuinely interested. After many hours in the air and in ground school, and 50 years since my first plane ride, I finally have my first pilot's license.

A 70 year old man nudged me into fulfilling my dream, which has inspired some of my friends to step out and reach for theirs. So if you have some special dreams, go ahead . . . DO IT! You may be the catalyst for someone else's happiness."

Editor's note: This article was typed for The Key within moments of the perfect landing of the space shuttle Columbia. It would seem to be an unusual assurance that each of us can do anything we set our minds to.

Elizabeth Martin Cox, BM - Colorado, and Peggy Thompson Bunting, Φ - Boston, discovered a very special sisterhood that was reported in the Kappa Kiosk of BH^Δ - Stanford.

"The bond of Kappa sisterhood has long been the foundation of meaningful and long-lived friendships for college and alumnae women alike. In Walnut Creek, CA a very special bond has been formed between two Kappa sisters, Peggy Bunting and Betty Cox. Their friendship has an interesting history.

Peggy is a former social worker for the Santa Clara County Health Department. Last year she and her husband John moved to Rothmore, a pleasant retirement community of between eight and nine thousand residents. Peggy found the energy to work part-time as a home companion to several members of the community. Among them is Betty . . . (who) recently had a stroke and has been undergoing physical and speech therapy. According to Peggy, Betty has an exquisite soprano voice and likes to sing as part of her speech therapy.

One day Peggy found Betty reading an issue of The Key and the two discovered in a happy moment their bond of Kappa sisterhood. Peggy promised to find some Kappa songbooks so that Betty could practice singing some of her old favorites as therapy. She obtained a book from the Stanford chapter and since then the two have been perfecting several renditions, including 'I Love You Truly, KKG'.

Both women have cherished the times they have sung together especially because of the many memories they hold of their Kappa friends. Peggy has learned that there are more than fifty Kappas living in the Rothmore community and she and Betty plan to sing for them at their next meeting. The occasion should be a meaningful one; perhaps the beginning of many new friendships within the realm of Kappa Kappa Gamma."

Thank you, Claire LaBrunerie, editor of Beta Eta's newsletter, for a heart-warming story of Kappa alumnae. And thank you, Peggy and Betty, for reminding us of how our Kappa bonds continue to grow and strengthen.

What Is Youth?

"To be young is not a matter of years. Youth lives forever in a love for the beauty that is in the world; in the mountains, the sea and the sky; and in lovely faces through which shines the kindness of the inner mind."

"What is it to stay young? It is the ability to hold fast to old friends, to make new ones, and to keep them forever."

"Youth is to remain faithful to our beliefs, to preserve our enthusiasms, to trust in ourselves, to believe in our own courage, and to follow where courage bids us go. And, at the last, youth means that, like an unquestioning child, we place our hand without fear in the hand of the Gentle Guide, who will lead us through the little gate at the end of the Wind-ing Road."

Gertrude Lieber, I - DePauw, a 75 year Kappa, wrote "What Is Youth?" on her 90th birthday, about seven years before her death. The first of five sisters to be initiated into Iota Chapter, Gertrude was a teacher and head of the commercial arts department in high school before her retirement in 1948. Interest in young people was a prime force in her active life and three generations of nieces and nephews felt close to their special aunt. Gertrude proudly wore her Kappa badge and her 75 year pin and remained actively interested in alumnae doings . . . a woman who was ever young.

Our Young Kappas . . .

Maggie Wilder, I - DePauw, Panama

In January of 1981, DePauw University sponsored five Winter Term learning and service projects in Central America and Haiti. Forty health care, engineering and religious professionals worked with 110 DePauw University students to erect needed buildings and provide health care in isolated villages and urban slums. The construction teams built an agricultural school and bakery in Guatemala, an orphan's home kitchen, and dining room and elementary school in Honduras, and a new church in Panama.

Forty DePauw health care majors (nursing, pre-dentistry, pre-med) worked with medical doctors, dentists, and nurses to provide basic health care and nutrition and public health education to more than 10,000 persons in Central America and in Haiti.

Kappas from DePauw's Iota chapter who participated were Pam Stilson, Laura Winans, Maggie Wilder, Cherie Peake, Sue Wochos, and Elizabeth Jones.

Fred Lamar, DePauw University Chaplain, wrote, "DePauw University deeply appreciates the support and leadership which its Greek-letter students have given to its Winter Term in Mission Projects."

Time Out for Team Work

When one goes to watch the Miami University Precision Skating Team, it is quite a treat to see that three of the smiling faces presenting "dancing on ice" are Delta Lambda Kappas. Cathy Maiuri, Kathy Pinkerton and Tracy Lewis, $\Delta\Lambda$ - Miami U., work weekly with the team, performing at collegiate hockey games and participating in competitions. They placed third in their flight in the Tri-State International Precision Team competition recently. Kathy Pinkerton is also president of the student division of the Skating Club and a member of Spurs (junior honorary). Tracy also participates in the Communication Council, General Honors Curriculum and Professor Survey. She was recently named first runner-up in the Miss Miami University Pageant.

At Lafayette, six members of the women's lacrosse team are Zeta Beta Kappas. Semi-finalist Denise Miller was awarded a trophy for her performance in the perceptics debates. This year's Beta Mu Kappas had a great act to follow since in the 1980 pageant Kim Korb, BM - Colorado, was third runner-up and won the "Miss Love and Friendship" award; Amy Kindel, BM - Colorado, was first runner-up; and Shelley Marks, BM - Colorado, was crowned Miss Colorado.

Kay Fair, EP - Texas A&M, was named Queen of the 1981 Texas Rose Festival. This annual event, which began in 1933, is held in Tyler, Texas, the "Rose Capital of the World." The five-day festival includes such highlights as the rose parade, the festival rose show and the queen's coronation. Kay is the first Texas A & M student to be represented as the Rose Queen.

Actives Adopt Creative Philanthropy Programs

(From left) Lori Nelson and Judi Poeltgen, $\Delta\Delta$ - Monmouth, presented a check to Mrs. Jean Hogue and Mrs. Ruth Rowley for the \$300 Alpha Chapter raised through the sales of M&M's during finals week of winter term. The project was organized to combat Lou Gehrig's Disease. Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) is a disease of the nervous system which results in muscle weakness. Judi and Lori headed the drive; Ruth Rowley is area vice president of the ALS Society of America; and Mrs. Hogue was adviser to the project.

Joan Bartenfeld (left) and Libby Saye, ΔY - Georgia, joined their Delta Upsilon Kappa sisters last spring to produce the Lung Run, in which over 1,000 Athens (Georgia) citizens of all ages, shapes and sizes laced up their running shoes and hit the track to run, walk and crawl over 1,500 miles. The Lung Run is a community awareness program to make people aware of the importance of exercise and its relationship to good health by running miles, playing games and having a great time. The Georgia Lung Association, WRFC am 96 and the Kappas, as this year's sponsors, worked together to provide publicity, food, prizes and souvenirs for the participants from elderly groups, scout troops, a high school track team, local businesses, Greek groups and even Georgia football players.

Originated three years ago by Brinkley Burks, ΔY - Georgia, the Lung Run has grown so successful that the Lung Association has made it a national program for all Lung Association branches using the Kappa format.

Alpha Adopts Grandparents — Alpha Chapter at Monmouth has initiated a "Grandparents Program" at Applegate Nursing Home by adopting Emma Gridley, 85 years of age, and Acie Wickline, 88, as their grandparents. Several Kappas visit Emma and Acie every week, the chapter sends them birthday and holiday cards and will correspond with them during the summer. The chapter is also corresponding with an Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis patient at the Burlington Hospital in Burlington, Iowa. Since they raised money for ALS, they decided to visit patients and watch the progress being made to stop the disease.

Poison Prevention in Connecticut — During national Poison Prevention Week last spring, Margaret Noyes, ΔM - Connecticut, and several members of the Pharmacy Department at Mount Sinai Hospital in Hartford, Connecticut, participated by speaking to preschool and kindergarten classes. The program, which included a slide show and examples of poisonous substances commonly found in the home, involved over 1,000 children during the course of the week.

Parties as Philanthropic Projects — Epsilon Upsilon Kappas held a Christmas party for Baylor University's international students. Missionary children and students from other countries enjoyed singing and party food. The Kappas enjoyed meeting new friends and helping those who could not go home for the holidays. Zeta Beta Kappas at Lafayette provided a Christmas party with Chi Phi Fraternity for Head Start children, and Santa came!

Fund-raising Game at Illinois — Beta Lambda Kappas and Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity hosted an All-Star-Donkey Basketball game last fall to raise money for United Way. Game players included professors, athletes, cheerleaders and Greeks.

Ann Dayvault, ΓA - Kansas State, and her dance partner in K-State's 1980 dance-a-thon raised the most money and thus qualified to be sent with college representatives from all over the country to Las Vegas to present K-State's check for $21,006 to Jerry Lewis on national television during the Labor Day Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon. The money-collecting, blisters and lack of sleep after 64 hours of dancing did not matter to Ann, who said, "It made me feel like I had really contributed of myself to someone less fortunate."

Alpha Chapter's balloon derby was held during Monmouth College's Homecoming weekend. A total of 529 tickets were sold, raising $370 for the local United Way fund.

Reese Relfe, ΔT - Southern California, was first runner-up in the "Preppy Contest," which was part of USC's Greek Week and helped Kappas take first place overall for the Week. The Kappas were teamed with Sigma Nu and Tau Epsilon Rho fraternities for the events which also included a run, pie-eating contest, 24-hour dance marathon and tug-of-war, and the proceeds of which went to the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation.

Delta Sigma Kappas and Sigma Chi Fraternity at Oklahoma State teamed up to win Varsity Revue 1981 trophies for best directors, first place overall, outstanding music and choreography, and outstanding costumes and backdrop. Each group's revue was to depict what they felt were important in "Times Like These." The production which led to their "sweep" of the revue was "Stitch in Time" which added a touch of patriotism and brought the birth of our American flag out of history and into times like these. Kappas in the cast were Maribeth Burns, Christy Compton, Lynn Garrison, Debbie Hinckley, Roejean Holderman, Sherri Hoover, Betsy Palmer, Sharon Redman, Cheryl Steele, Stacey Treadway and Brenda Wittrock. Cindy Elton was a director.

Gamma Alpha Kappas, part of a team of five Greek living groups on the Kansas State campus, were awarded two of three trophies at the annual Greek Follies, a variety show that topped off Greek Week. The trophies won were for best choreography and best overall performance. Pictured here (from left) are Lisa Yancey, Linda Urick, Connie Ramos (choreographers) and Jennifer Sisney (director).

Ann Furbus, II^A - California, plays the guitar and sings for several organizations in Berkeley such as Newman Center, the Catholic Church and community weddings.

Molly Polk (left) and Kirby Brooks, E.A. - Texas Christian, are members of the T.C.U. Spirit Wranglers, an organization which boosts the morale of the Horned Toad fans.

Lynne Delathower (left) and Valerie Gay, E.H. - Auburn, are both from European countries — Lynne from Belgium and Valerie from France.

Times Like These...

A Time for Celebration —

Gamma Theta Chapter is celebrating its 60th year at the same time Drake University is celebrating its 100 year of existence. The centennial celebration has been a year-long one with many special events and programs and a project which included landscaping in front of the library. Also, the University awarded ten centennial free-ride scholarships instead of the traditional four. Gamma Theta is proud to be celebrating Drake's centennial and to have been part of Drake's history for 60 years.

A Time for Dreams Come True —

Delta Mu Chapter at Connecticut worked a long time on their dream to have a house on campus. Last August, the University administration handed over the keys and the next day a crew of Judith Farnham Preston, Φ - Boston, Rho Province Director of Chapters, and alumnae, families of actives and the actives began the major clean-up operation. After scraping woodwork, removing old wallpaper, and generally giving the house a good scrubdown, it was liveable by the time classes started. Their work continued in time outside studies and Kappa activities, and the culmination of their efforts came when they decorated their Christmas tree in their very own home! They feel they are a stronger chapter for this experience — for going through the good times and the bad with a special bond they all shared together.

THE KAPPA WAY

THE PLEDGE PROGRAM

*The key
To a successful pledge program is
Time Management,
Or Total Programming as Kappas know it,*

According to Stepheny Forgue Houghlin, BX - Kentucky, Chairman of Chapter Pledge Programs.

She writes that it is THE answer to any of the areas of concern identified in chapters' evaluations. Therefore, as the series on chapter total programming continues and this issue's article is devoted to the pledge program, it is appropriate to refer to the introduction to the series in the Winter 1980 issue. Total Programming is a "process whereby chapter members identify common goals, define each individual member's major areas of responsibility in terms of the results expected of her and use these measures as guides for operating the chapter and assessing the contributions of each of its members."

What it all means is quality planning time — a critical factor in total programming and particularly important to a pledge program. It is too easy to overschedule in trying to give so much in education, inspiration and friendship to that new member. Her time is important. Through planning Kappa can give her the best gift of all — Time — and through her experience in the pledge program can teach her the value of and practice of time management.

What is it that requires planning in a pledge program? What is the purpose of pledge training? It is a "period of preparation before initiation which enables the pledged members to gain an appreciation of the Fraternity, to understand the responsibilities and privileges inherent in membership and to acquire a deepening desire to fulfill those responsibilities throughout college and beyond."

A look at the four goals of a pledge program and the types of activities to be used to help achieve those goals provides an explanation of the need for careful planning.

1. TO BUILD POSITIVE GROUP RELATIONSHIPS — BUILD NEW FRIENDSHIPS

- b. big/little sister program with activities
- c. pledge/active interaction
- d. philanthropy project with another sorority
- e. pledges come to house for overnights
- f. pledge class project
- g. pledge trip to another chapter
- h. rookie rush workshop

- a. pledge project
- b. election of pledge class officers
- c. use of pledge council made up of pledge class officers
- d. set up and use of pledge committees for projects and events
- e. pledge officers meet with active counterparts to keep class informed of chapter business
- f. pledge bulletin board
- g. social exchanges with fraternities and sororities
- h. programs on how to effectively organize and run a meeting, use of parliamentary procedure
- i. programs on communication, brainstorming, problem-solving skills

3. TO GAIN KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE FRATERNITY AND WHAT IT STANDS FOR — PROMOTE FRATER- NITY AWARENESS

- a. discuss the pledge service
- b. use the opening and closing pledge ritual at meetings and discuss its meaning
- c. go over chapter officers duties and responsibilities

- g. invite an alumna to speak on the history of the chapter
- h. hold a standards workshop
- i. learn about Panhellenic and the importance of good public relations with our Greek friends

4. TO HELP EACH PLEDGE ACHIEVE HER POTENTIAL AS AN INDIVIDUAL — INSPIRE INDIVIDUAL GROWTH

- a. clear and specific explanation of initiation requirements
- b. establishment of a pledge scholarship program which meets the needs of the individual pledge
- c. provide a program on time management and study skills
- d. program on the identification of campus resources which can help in academic counselling
- e. study buddies
- f. required study hours and/or study hall
- g. organize library tour and how to use the library effectively

A STUDY IN TIME MANAGEMENT

Kathi Day (left) and Alecia Walker, EY - Baylor, as pledge chairmen, present a short course on Fraternity education.

In planning the pledge program, the pledge chairman will make sure that each pledge meeting meets at least one of these four goals. It is important to remember that the responsibilities for successful pledge meetings and the entire program extend beyond the pledge chairman. The active chapter as a whole and its individuals has its role. An active's responsibility to a pledge is to:

- act as a role model and set the example. She must practice what she preaches and avoid confusing the pledges by setting a double standard.
- act as an escort for pledges to unfamiliar activities, such as fraternity parties, alumnae activities, meetings and formal dinners.
- support the pledge program and chairman in adhering to the rules and policies about attendance, scholarship, quiet hours, participation, etc.
- teach and maintain the responsibilities of membership, encourage loyalty by showing pride in her chapter and the Fraternity.
- take the initiative in establishing friendships with the pledges by including them in activities and treating them as an equal.

The purpose of pledge training has been stated, goals and activities have been listed, and the active member's responsibilities have been reviewed. A picture of the chapter pledge program, as part of a chapter's total program, is not complete, however, without discussion of the ten important points that must be remembered in planning a pledge program

- 1. PLANNING — The importance of planning has already been pointed out. Goals must be written and communicated, and specific methods for their achievement must be determined. Planning ahead allows all aspects to be included and provides for special considerations of the chapter (Are the pledges upperclass or freshmen or both? Is it a large or small class? Is the pledge period long or short?). Planning ahead also allows creativity rather than last-minute grasping at an old idea over-used. It is also necessary to keep the plan flexible, so that it can respond to evaluations throughout the program and stay on target, thus achieving the goals.
- 2. COORDINATION — Many pledge and chapter activities can be combined and serve double or even triple purposes. Coordination involves all chapter officers both in the pledge program planning and as the program progresses. A closer pledge-active relationship and a more harmonious chapter in general can result.
- 3. STRONG CHAPTER LEADERSHIP — The pledge chairman should be one of the outstanding upperclassmen in the chapter, an inspirational individual who exemplifies chapter ideals and who has had leadership experience. She will be a trainer in leadership techniques and group responsibility. She should be able to give guidance, encouragement and support to the pledges without dominating them. (Remember, however, that pledge training responsibilities belong to the entire chapter and each member is, in a sense, an assistant pledge chairman.)
- 4. REGULARLY SCHEDULED PLEDGE MEETINGS — Pledges should get together at a meeting or some activity once a week. The pledge meeting is an important avenue for leadership training, Fraternity education and the development of pledge friendships. With the encouragement of more pledge-active meetings it is important that the pledge class identifies as a unit.
- 5. CHAPTER OR PLEDGE SUPPLEMENT — The supplement should be completed and ready to give new pledges at their first pledge meeting. It serves as a warm written "Welcome," as an introduction to the Fraternity and chapter ways and as a permanent guide and reference to Fraternity, chapter and campus facts.

6. FRATERNITY EDUCATION — Fraternity education is essential to membership development throughout the chapter and Fraternity life. In order for pledges to develop loyalty and love for the Fraternity and a strong belief in the fraternity system, in order for pledges to grow personally in the Fraternity and to make meaningful contributions, they must have knowledge of Fraternity purposes, traditions and policies . . . heritage, past accomplishments, historical highlights . . . chapter organization and committee structure . . . Fraternity programs and projects . . . Panhellenic and the development of the Greek system . . . current events in the Fraternity and in the fraternity world. An informed membership is a better membership and will lead to a more efficient, happier chapter.

7. PLEDGE CONFERENCES — Conferences should be held three times during the pledge period — right after pledging, at the midpoint of the period and just prior to initiation. In a conference the pledge learns of specific expectations of her, how she is meeting these expectations and can express her expectations of the chapter. Support, encouragement, guidance, counseling and the opportunity to give honest vent to one's feelings are the key words for pledge conferences.

8. SCHOLARSHIP — The pursuit of a college education is the basis for the pledge's presence at college. Often, the study habits established during the first few months at college set the pattern followed throughout the college career. The pledge program can play a major role in effective study habits. It is critical that the active members support the program, set good examples and maintain an atmosphere conducive to study.

9. BIG-LITTLE SISTER/MOTHER-DAUGHTER PROGRAM — Like other programs, this one must be structured with activities planned well in advance and balanced among fun, educational, social and personal development projects — some group events and some spontaneous activities with just the pair. Through this, pledges not only get a helping hand into college and Fraternity life, but they also learn a great deal about giving, sharing and the meaning of true friendship — the basis of the Fraternity experience.

10. SISTERHOOD — Throughout the pledge period pledges should experience a growing desire to wear the Fraternity badge and to share its privileges and responsibilities. In order for the pledges to grasp its full meaning, sisterhood must radiate throughout the entire chapter and they must be able to witness it daily. It is the responsibility of the entire chapter to nurture sisterhood and to impress its value and meaning upon the pledges. Sisterhood is the all-important ingredient of meaningful Fraternity life.

How are all these goals achieved and all the essential points covered? Everything can be included in a pledge program with careful planning to combine activities and avoid the overscheduling which often leads to disenchantment of members. The answer is quality planning time — time management

Province meetings this spring saw record-breaking attendance with over 2000 Kappas of all ages participating. Each of the 17 provinces added local flavor as members enjoyed barbecues, riverboat cruises, picnics, pot lucks, and banquets. Overall clad Kappa Pickers emerged to entertain with musical programs and the sounds of Kappa were repeated with singalongs, membership workshops, and ritual sessions. Awards were presented, members honored, and officers trained. Each province observed the International Year of the Disabled Person, and all left with many program ideas.

As though responding for all, Zeta Province reported, "The housed chapters developed some feeling for the problems of their sisters who are un-housed, alumnae from large groups learned about the concerns of small groups, active chapters gained insight into the workings of alumane reference machinery, and vice versa. We learned that our interests, problems, concerns, achievements are both varied and similar. We gained ideas, shared memories, formed new friendships and renewed old ones. We became inspired, tired, enthused and resolved. It was a full, but fun weekend."

Active delegates and their advisers at Kappa PM front row: Carol Hodgson, Joan Muhr, Diane Poladian, Debe McManis, Jana Cross, Mary Anne Borovicka, Cindy Wenke, Molly Tiberg. Back row: Kathy O'Connor, Karen Dunbar, Roberta Hall, Terri Tovrea, Kim Dwan, Corrine Crothers, Cindi Ott. (Can you tell which ones are the advisers and which the actives?)

Chapter Awards are a big thrill for each province. Sharing their "silver" are Kim Curbow, ET, Fraternity Education Award; Kim Crocker, EA, Scholastic Programming, and Standards; Karen Chunn, ΓΠ, Pledge Programming, Membership, and Chapter/Advisory Board Relations; and Ellen Sanders, EH, Scholastic Improvement, and Program and Efficiency. These awards were presented at Nu Province Meeting.

"Stretch Exercises"

By Doris Seward

Beta Province Candlelight Banquet Speech

The conference theme is "Room To Grow" and I presume you have grown in these hours and days together. When we grow, we grow in space. We get taller and wider and extend our walls. We grow in space and we grow in time by experience and in learning. You know, sometimes I look at the young ones and I think, oh, if they only knew what I knew. We grow in perception, in self-knowledge, our self-examination. We grow in commitment in our spirit and in, if you will, our soul. "When I was a child I spake as a child; and when I am grown I put aside childish things."

Tonight I am going to say a few words about Stretch Exercises. If we are to grow, let us not be aimless. Let's take charge. Let's pay attention to what's going on as we avail ourselves of "room to grow." My comments aren't any warmed over speech because I'm really, in my self-perception, not a speaker! I'm a thinker, and I'm a puzzled thinker. First this week, I wrote a draft of a report for the President, then I worked on a search committee for a University Vice President. Then I thought about what I'd take to California tomorrow for the rain, the mud, and the earthquakes — I don't know what you wear to earthquakes! Then I said, I've really to put down the thoughts I've been having for months about that Kappa Province Convention. So here they are.

In regard to Stretch Exercises, first we need some ground rules. In this room there is a great range in age. That's really lovely. Some of you older ones know the name Beth Schofield, a great Kappa no longer with us. Someone said to Beth one time, "Oh! Were you a Kappa?" And Beth said, "I am a Kappa!" I think that's a beautiful, subtle thought. Yes, we are all Kappas and long before it was mentioned tonight, I noticed on our program that it said, "All active Kappas are to go to the Delta Chi Fraternity." All active Kappas!? Well, lest that scare you, I don't propose we all go, but you get the message.

Someone said that they longed for an age-irrelevant society where people interacted without reference to age, made the contribution they could, were perceived as individuals. Well Kappa, it seems to me, is an age-irrelevant society. So I hope our Stretch Exercises will be useful to us all.

Let me start first with a full-blown exercise. I plan to work backwards. I'm first going to give the full-blown exercise and then I'm going to talk about the warm-ups. Then I'm going to talk about the conditioner. Thus, if you fall off along the way, you will have at least considered the goal.

The goal in the Stretch Exercise is to set your eyes on a star — that's the way you talk in Kappa. To reach out and up, and don't think small — or small — whichever. We had a professor at Syracuse, a Dr. Robinson, who was real bright. Oh, he was so bright, and old, and scary, and big eyebrows and all. He gave these rather obscure lectures and he'd written books and knew everything. One time, a group of students had sat through his important course. They kind of got their courage up and a little committee of three of them said, "Well, we'll do it. Let's go to his office and talk to him." So they went to Dr. Robinson's office and the spokesman said, "Dr. Robinson, we do want to master the material but we just have to tell you that the lectures really are above our head." Dr. Robinson looked up and said, "Then stretch your necks!" I've always remembered that. When things are tough, stretch your necks.

On March 25, 1981, Doris Seward was honored at the Citation Luncheon of the National Association of Women Deans, Advisers, and Counselors. The following is from their tribute to her: Doris Seward meets obstacles head on, or detours and takes a better route, or acquires a more up-to-date map, or smiles persuasively and gets the barrier to move aside.

"Along the way, she has found satisfaction as a teacher, counselor, administrator, mediator, speaker, student, writer, traveler and skilled manager of ideas and projects. She has been an innovator and adviser to Mortar Board, Alpha Lambda Delta, Student Government, campus Y.W.C.A., and many others. She has presided over corporate boards, administered complex budgets, and steered university planning groups toward achievement.

"Doris earned her B.A. at Indiana University where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa; her M.A. and Ph.D. at Syracuse University. She also studied at Union Theological Seminary and the University of Minnesota. She has held teaching and administrative positions at Purdue University, the University of Kentucky, the University of Minnesota, Syracuse, and Pennsylvania State University.

"Appointed by the National Education Association, she has been a delegate to the Assembly of the World Confederation of Organizations of the Teaching Profession. Her contributions to their study groups took her to Stockholm, Rio, Paris, Addis Ababa and Seoul.

"Dr. Seward has been a member of NAWDAC for 43 years and has served as Program Chair, speaker, discussant, resource analyst, and commentator. Her professional life has been rich and varied as a member of the Southern College Personnel Association APGA, AAUW, Kappa, and her church. No wonder she was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award for Service from Indiana University in 1976.

"Doris is actively concerned about the people around her and humanity in general — even the scratchy one! She is a talented leader and a warm and generous friend."

Another thing along this line, I found in the January newspaper here State College, a picture of a man with a huge fish — it was a great big sh! The headline, though, was what took my eye. It said "Always Cut the Hole In The Ice Big Enough When You Go Ice Fishing." What had happened was, the man had cut the usual rather small hole in the ice, put down his line, and this enormous fish got hold of it and he had to call a friend to come over with an ax and cut a bigger hole. He pulled out — are you ready? — a 25 pound muskie that was over 45 inches long! Always cut the hole in the ice big enough when you go ice fishing. Set your goals high and don't, in these days, misjudge your opportunities.

On a 15¢ stamp, which we could use today and, I guess, not tomorrow, it said "Learning is Forever." I read the other day of an old lady who said, "If I sit real still, I don't feel a day over 20." Well, you're familiar I'm sure, of the current options for women. You know, you can read these statistics any place but they do interest me sometimes. By 1990, three-fourths of all women, age 16 to 54, which is going to include a lot of y'all, will be paid for their work. Now that's not to put down those not in careers. Even now, labor analysts figure that the homemaker, with her long hours and varied tasks, is performing work worth $41,000 a year. I don't know if you are making that — pulling that down, but — I really mean, as I speak of how many people are going to be working in a paying career, your goal doesn't have to be outside your home. I happen to have a high opinion of volunteers. I recently heard of a Pink Lady at a hospital who arrived one day in a downpour. She'd walked a long distance from the parking lot, entered the hospital just dripping, and someone looked at her and said, "Now there's a dedicated volunteer." She said, "You bet! If I were being paid for this, I could've called in sick."

In terms of goals and stretching exercises, even now more women are getting professional degrees. For example, in Law, Medicine and Dentistry there are ten times the number of women getting those professional degrees than ten years ago. Now that's going simply from 1,600 to 16,000, but that's pretty good. There were more in 1981 than there were in 1979. I think our Treasurer, Jean Schmidt, probably rejoices in that, as I do. That is, we are tending to get professional degrees, just as one aspect of these opportunities, in proportion to our population ratio. Your sisters are not thinking small. They're getting their education. For the first time, in 1979 more women were enrolled in college than men. And it's comparable to their presence in the population. Of persons in college in 1979, 50.7% were women. That's the first time that's ever happened in America! Not yet are more women than men graduating — they're just not there yet — but 48% of the degrees were awarded to women. The figures of women are increasing for the Masters degrees. Again, in 1979, women got 49% of the Masters degrees. They got 28% of the Doctorates but that is doubled in ten years. So the goal is up and is out.

Let me make a side comment about this setting. For those born in 1960 and afterwards — can you imagine being born in 1960?!? Well, that was the year more babies were born in the United States of America than ever before or since. Four point two million babies in 1960 are now just starting in the job market and are having children. Well, there have been some predictions made about that group. Now listen to these! In the year 2050, those people — you born in 1960 — will be 90 years old and you will be alive — most of you. All of you who were born then will be 50-year Kappas! The great killers of heart disease, stroke and cancer will be, it is predicted, under great control. And the renowned futurist, Theodore Gordon, says that your children will live to be 130 and 150 years old. That means your daughters are going to be 100-year Kappas! In fact (it gets worse!), Gordon cites some experiments in rats in which a 28 month old rat reproduced and that is the equivalent of a 70 year old woman having a baby! Isn't that something to contemplate? There's really "room to grow" in these stretch exercises.

Let me mention something else about setting. I read an article called "It's Good To Be A Woman In Pennsylvania." Well, I'm not surprised about that article, but let me mention a few items the article cited. The legal status of women in Pennsylvania is unsurpassed in any other state. We have E.R.A. The value of unpaid housework is recognized by law. The homemaker's share in household goods is recognized. We have better rules for maternity leave — now think of that 70 year old pregnant woman. We have better rules for sexual harassment on the job and for students. We have educational access equality. We have two women on the State bench in the Commonwealth Court — we don't yet have somebody on the Supreme Court or the Superior Court. We have ten elected to the State Assembly; not quite 4% of the legislators, but in a representative government, it is a beginning. So Pennsylvania's good to women. We know in regard to women in government, again expanding the setting a bit, that the Prime Minister of Great Britain is a woman. And there's Indira Ghandi, of course, in India. But did you know that the new Prime Minister of Norway is a 41 year old woman, is a doctor, has a health degree from Harvard, is the mother of four children, and is following in her family's footsteps of public service?

So the first exercise is to look around and up and to stretch yourself up and out. There are problems. There are big, big problems. Nuclear holocaust, pollution, terrorism. A part of the world is doubling its population without having present food and water resources that are adequate. By the year 2000, according to U.N. figures, 80% of the world's population will be in undeveloped countries. So it's not all . . . beer and skittles. But set your goal and cut the hole big enough for the fish you want to pull out.

Now, having your eye set on where we want to go, let's talk briefly about some warm-up exercises in our stretching. I once talked with a woman who said, "You know? I think I'd like to be a doctor." I said, "Good! Here's how you do it. You get a stamp and you sit down at your desk and you write a letter asking for an application to medical school." Now that's how you start out to be a doctor — and she is now a practicing physician. What I mean is, break your goal down into the first step. If you want to marry a bishop, go to a seminary. If you want to be a President of the United States, join and work for a political party. Now all of this is not just for beginners. It's not too late for any of us. More and more adult Americans, for example, are returning to the classroom. One figure I saw said that last year (1979-80) 50% of all Americans over 25 took a course and returned to a classroom. I thought, gee that's high. Then I thought, let's be specific. My secretary, with two children, took a course in photography, then she took another course in macrame. The President's secretary, right now, every Monday night rushes off to a class in microwave cooking. We really do this! Learning is forever!

Here's some other warm-up exercises that will stretch you. Do some things you don't want to do — just for practice. There's a lot of drudgery in life; you have drudgery, I have drudgery; there's a lot of it in life on the path to our highest goal. And you better get used to it, particularly you who are very young. If you don't like to get up, say okay, next Tuesday, I'm going to get up at 5 a.m. — just to prove I can and to show who's boss. If you say I always have salt on my baked potato, say okay, next baked potato I'll eat without salt — just in warm-up practice for a day the doctor may say, no more salt: Do something you don't want to do — just for practice.

Alright, here's another. Do something a new way. I always brush my teeth after I wash my face. So I say, today, I do the teeth first. That's unimportant, yes. But the principle is, "Who's in charge?" The principle is being willing to change. The principle is having fun, and flexing your muscles and becoming modifiable. Because those muscles of adaptability need to be stretched. If you always walk to class down "that path," next Monday try a new one. It may be longer, but just for that day. Or drive a different street to the grocery.

I brought a letter from that great American learned counselor named Dear Abby. Here is this letter to Dear Abby. "I am a 36 year old college dropout who's lifelong ambition was to be a physician. I do volunteer work at the local hospital and people tell me I would have made a wonderful doctor. If I go back to college and get my degree, then go to medical school, do my internship and finally get into the actual practice of medicine, it'll take me seven years. But Abby, in seven years I'll be 43 years old. What do you think?" And Abby said, bless her, "And how old will you be in seven years if you don't do it?"

Well, here's another warm-up — and I carry this one in my calendar book. That is, think only good thoughts and never ever feel sorry for yourself. If you train your mind with good thoughts then your serenity is reflected and you radiate peace to others. Now I don't always do that, but it is a warm-up exercise.

Finally, what about the condition of the performers — the one doing the stretch exercises? The person with "room to grow?" What about you? What do you really want? I don't mean just your career and your contribution to the life around you. Not just your husband and your children. Not just what I "really want" — a Cuisinart, a home calculator, and a suede dress, and a facelift. What do you really want? The quality of life. Why are you stretching? And this no speaker can tell you. You have to peg yourself at the level of aspiration you stretch toward. There is a very, very real concept that is expressed in that phrase you all know so well of "self-fulfilling prophesy." You will become the person you long to become. If you have 70 years ahead of you it's just like a blink of an eye. If you have 10 years or 20 years, there's still time. Maybe not in just the way you anticipated. Some of you may know this poem which is true for all of us.

I asked God for strength that I might achieve,
I was made weak that I might learn to obey.
I asked for help that I might do greater things,
I was given infirmity that I might do better things.
I asked for power that I might have the praise of men,
I was given weakness that I might feel the need of God.
I asked for all things that I might enjoy life,
I was given life that I might enjoy all things.
I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I had hoped for.
Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

Well, stretch yourself! Reach out! Be ready! Warmed up! In ready condition! And when shall you do this? There's a lovely phrase — "the exquisite present." That's what each one of us has — the exquisite present. Someone has written "Now is enough and there's always more." I wish each one of you Kappa Sisters high success, high aspirations, boundless fulfillment as you stretch and grow throughout all the years of your life from this moment on.

Wende Gates (right, mother of Christopher and Bryan, was formerly arts editor of Glamour magazine. She is a coauthor of two juvenile books and has contributed to Harper's Bazaar and Bride's magazines. (From the book jacket designed by Beth Tondreau)

Newborn Beauty, by Wende Devlin Gates, BT - Syracuse, and Gail McFarland Meckel, The Viking Press, New York, 1980.

This work is a very complete and attractive beauty book — one that can be a reference for the expectant mother, and kept as a life-time guide. Written with the collaboration of physicians, it provides very frank and practical ideas for complete health, beauty, and energy for the modern woman. Skin care, hair care, diet tips, exercises, fashions, and intimacy are illustrated and described with a depth of understanding by two authors who anticipate and have experienced the multitude of changes that occur during pregnancy. "Medical Alert" paragraphs, boldly highlighted, add a sense of the importance of health for the current mother.

The research and completeness of this work are very evident and the reader can only feel that owning this book is a worthy investment.

Crème of the Crop, by Jane Neely Winchell, BE - Texas, Waco, Texas, 1980.

This Kappa-authored cookbook is now in its 2nd printing and is being enjoyed in more than 200 cities in 43 states and several foreign countries. Crème of the Crop, by Jane Neely Winchell, BE - Texas, was written at the insistence of her sons, who said, "You are going to teach our wives how to cook!"

Jane replied, "Heavens, no, I'm not going to tell them how they ought to do anything!" Then her sons suggested that she start writing things down in an easy-to-follow way so they could pass them on.

Kappas In Print

By Judy Reamer Colven Ψ^{Δ} - Cornell
Book Review Editor

After Jane realized the magnitude of the project, she started making it into a book. 428 recipes have been included, each with a short, introductory note and cooking hint or mention of the recipe's heritage. Jane's personality is recognizable throughout the book.

Five years of family recipe testing went into Crème of the Crop. Recipes or ideas progressed from the "Try File" to the "Tried and True File." Husband Jerry is the chief tester, business manager and encourager. He is listed as co-author of the book.

In addition to the learning process in the kitchen, Jane said she has learned a great deal about advertising, contracts and printing that she didn't know before undertaking the cookbook project. The Winchells self-published the book because they wanted total control over the artwork, cover and content. Jane said, "I put a lot of thought into it. The colors and artwork were my personal choices because I wanted the cover to have a fun approach."

Jane said she drove the printers crazy with her extensive index, because she likes to be able to look up something in a book and find everything which can be done with it.

Bexley Images, by Edith Mae Hamilton Herrel, BN - Ohio State, and Lavana Kuhn Hogg, Bexley Historical Society, Bexley, Ohio, 1978.

Her interest in recording a village's history coupled with her extraordinary talent as a graphic artist have resulted in an important historical work by Edie Mae Herrel. The accompanying text by Lavana Kuhn Hogg brings a most unique presentation of the history of Bexley, a small village within metropolitan Columbus, Ohio.

Designed as a tool for use in the schools and for community leaders involved in preservation, the book also serves to inspire others to research and document their own experiences of family in their neighborhood.

Crème of the Crop is divided into sections including: Tantalizing Tidbits; The Lunch Bunch; Sunny Side Up; Center Stage; The Sweet Life; and many others.

Jane was recently one of the judges of a cooking contest in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. She is a native of Amarillo, and now lives in Waco with her family of tasters.

Featuring a most creative design — forty-two charming pen and ink drawings of buildings, old English block letters at beginnings of paragraphs, and two fold out maps showing Bexley now and then — the book chronicles the development of the community from its founding by the Indians, featuring items on religion, education, city services, recreation and civic organizations.

The most important Bexley homes are featured in sketches as they could have looked in early Bexley. Early schools are described as a unique contribution of the early community.

In addition to her accomplishments as an artist, Edie Mae Herrel is a founder of the Bexley Historical Society, and the Liturgical Art Guild of Ohio. She and her husband, Michael, who is the president of the Diamond Milk Company, have three children, all who have inherited artistic talents from their parents.

Thundering Sneakers, by Prudence Mahaffey MacIntosh, BE - Texas, Doubleday & Company, Garden City, New York, 1981.

It's 6:30 AM, and the clothes dryer is "thundering" with a nine year old boy's sneakers — having been washed because his new ones "Look like girls" and the almost new ones are "squishy" inside.

This incident is just one in a delightful compilation of the experiences of raising three boys in the 1970s. Prudence MacIntosh has a rare humor — unabashed and fresh — and one finds herself chuckling hysterically throughout this book. Do games like "Tarzan of the rapids" and "Bunk Bed Trampoline" conjure a picture of mayhem? When her son asks the priest if the communion wafer has nuts, is it so believable?

Finding herself in an all male household, the author developed a sense of humor. She also discusses the serious side of the arrival of a third child, and the real and obvious differences between raising boys and girls.

Prudence MacIntosh lives in Dallas, with her lawyer husband and their three sons. A regular contributor to Texas Monthly, she has also appeared in the pages of Redbook and McCalls. In 1976, her work won the Penney-Missouri award for excellence in life-style journalism.

Prudence MacIntosh with her three sons. "She brings her special brand of sanity, good humor, and vulnerability to the first day of school, the car pool, the move from the old neighborhood, and an ice storm power failure. Prudence observes, listens, and records with unerring accuracy the chaos, the loveliness and violence, the music, that inevitably accompany life with children." (From the book jacket by Janet Halverson.)

Pauline and the Peacock, by Doris Temple Daniel, BE - Texas, Ellen C. Temple publisher, Diboll, Texas, 1980.

The story of an unusual peahen, growing up on a small East Texan farm, is complete with illustrations on the care and feeding of peacocks, with an emphasis on the values of love for animals, land and the family.

Victorian Women, edited by Erna Olafson Hellerstein, Leslie Parker Hume and Karen M. Offen, BK - Idaho, Stanford University Press, Stanford, California, 1980.

A collection of documents, detailing the Victorian Woman — the working woman, ex-slaves and peasants — this book reflects the lives of a child, adult and the older woman. Many documents have never before been published and in fact have been translated into English for the first time.

Gorgas Home, The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, a photo plate from the book Amelia Gayle Gorgas.

Amelia Gayle Gorgas, A Biography, by Mary Todd Johnson, III - Alabama, and Elizabeth Johnston Lipscomb, The University of Alabama Press, University, Alabama, 1978.

The womanly strength of this nineteenth century American can serve to remind us once again of the great heritage of the South. Since her father was a governor of Alabama, Amelia Gayle was introduced at an early life to the society of that state and to pre-Civil War political figures. Her encounters with Senator John C. Calhoun, and Dolley Madison, while a child in Washington, are warmly recorded.

Her marriage to Josiah Gorgas, an officer in the U. S. Army, began a life of constant change and travel for Amelia. The outbreak of the Civil War saw her husband resign his commission in the U. S. Army and become the chief ordinance officer for the Confederacy. Their home in Richmond was the Armory, where several of their six children were raised. With the fall of Richmond, and the fall of the South, the Gorgas' found themselves in quite serious financial troubles. A series of endeavors finally resulted in reuniting the family at the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa, where Josiah Gorgas was made president of the University. Failing health forced his resignation, and re-appointment as head librarian for the University.

Amelia was of great assistance to her husband, and in fact, upon his death, became the librarian of the University of Alabama herself. Her great work there was perhaps the climax of her life, and served to draw her mark upon history.

This account of a woman's great love for her husband and family is further enhanced by a collection of photographs, that illuminate the personalities for the reader. Her correspondence is the heart of the text, and one cannot help but deeply respect this woman and her achievements.

Founding Subscribers contribute funds and memorabilia to Heritage Museum

By Catherine Schroeder Graf
BN - Ohio State
Museum Director

A lovely photograph of Kappa Headquarters, which houses the Heritage Museum, highlights the cover of the Spring 1981 issue of The Key. The background of the page is a reproduction of the Museum brochure. A Museum report, illustrated with pictures of our most recent acquisitions, is featured in the magazine.

A Museum slide show, presented by members of the Fraternity Council, was a part of each province meeting during the months of February, March, and April, 1981. Brochures and pledge of support cards have been distributed throughout the provinces. The story of Kappa's Heritage Museum is being told.

Although the Museum is far from self-sustaining, initial steps, such as the removal of office equipment from the small parlour and dining room of the original portion of the house and the creation of adequate display and storage facilities for our memorabilia, are being made possible by contributions and pledges of the Founding Subscribers. The Heritage Museum Fund was started by Jean Hess Wells, ΔY - Georgia, immediate past Fraternity president and chairman of the Museum Board who contacted many interested members. Others have responded by returning pledge cards that are a part of the Museum brochure. Alumnae clubs and associations are beginning to send donations to this exciting project. Some of these are memorial gifts. Surpluses from province meetings have been assigned to the Museum. All those who make contributions and/or pledges to the Heritage Museum during 1981 will be known as Founding Subscribers.

The Museum Board of Trustees and staff are extremely grateful to the Founding Subscribers for the progress that has been made. Their names will be recorded in a beautiful bound volume that will be prominently displayed in the Museum. Those wishing to be included in this list can send their gifts to the Heritage Museum, 530 East Town Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215.

First to become Founding Subscribers during 1980 and 1981 are the individuals and groups listed below:

Many interesting and valuable items, in addition to gifts of money, have been sent to the Museum since its inception. Please write to Kay Graf or Nancy Pennell concerning memorabilia, clothing, or furnishings you would like to contribute. If you wish to take a tax deduction, please have the items appraised at your expense by a qualified appraiser. Acknowledgement forms will be sent to donors by Museum personnel.

Consultants also are needed in every phase of the Museum operation. If you have expertise in any area of research, restoration, or preservation of documents, dresses and accessories, household furnishings, art, needlework, whatever — please let us know! Many Columbus alumnae are helping bring the Museum to actuality, but our first out-of-town expert is Caren Baker George, ΔΔ - Miami University, who volunteered her mother's and her dressmaking abilities in the repair of some of our historic gowns. They own a shop in Delaware, Ohio.

The Heritage Museum slide program which was shown at Lambda and Gamma province meetings is available to chapters and alumnae groups. Reservations should be made by writing to Nancy Pennell well in advance of the date you wish to show it.

Reproduction Victorian Footrest. Needlepoint by Mary Elizabeth Kunz Ebertig, BP^A - Cincinnati, who presented the footrest to the Museum.

1910 dress from Elma Hamilton Ebright, BN - Ohio State. It is hoped that many other period white dresses can be added to the Museum collection. These will be representative of the white dresses worn at conventions throughout our history.

In foreground: New portable display cases and memorabilia taken to Lambda and Gamma province meetings by Betty Cameron and Kay Graf. In background: Framed hand-painted Godey's prints from the estate of Helen Milligan Zimmerman, BA - Illinois, presented by her daughter, Elizabeth Zimmerman Howard, I - DePauw.

1940s, '50s, and '60s clothing sent by Eddie Lord Kinzer, worn by her and her daughter, Irene Kinzer Milliken, I - DePauw.

KAPPA IS A GARDEN

Kappa is a garden of perennials . . . appearing more beautiful every year. Each season the blossoms become more abundant as the garden multiplies rapidly.

The actives are the flowers . . . fresh, beautiful, anxious to grow individually, yet to become a part of the whole. Every day they become stronger and more graceful as they develop into mature blossoms, drawing upon their roots for strength and help.

The alumnae are the roots . . . sending forth their strength and unity of purpose in an unending and constant cycle. They are not seen, but are faithful and natural in their steady guidance toward the maturity and growth of their flowers.

Without one, the other would not be . . . for only by working together are they able to produce again and again, each needing the other to continue the growing process to reach their full potential.

Letters to Editor

I am writing to answer Elise Chaplin Countryman's challenge in the summer issue of The Key, 1980, Vol 97, #2. In her letter she introduced four sisters from St. Louis all of the same chapter at the University of Washington and challenged anyone with a better record than that. We answer the challenge and think a mother, an aunt, and six sisters — all from ΓB-New Mexico, beats their record hands down!

Jean Ann Jourdan DeLayo

Enclosed is a letter we received from the Kansas Special Olympics office which resulted from your article in The Key. We thought you would like to know how well it was received. Thanks for your

She has held numerous one man shows and is a member of many professional organizations. Her designs have been featured on greeting cards, sold at Lord & Taylor, and she spent the fall of 1980 on a painting trip to Yugoslavia and Italy for water color series. Judy Reamer Colven, Ψ^Δ - Cornell, is introduced for the first time as book review editor. She served on campus as Panhellenic president and 1st vice president of her chapter. She has been vice president of her alumnae association and on the 1976 general convention committee. Judy was chairman of chapter public relations programs and is a member of the Jr. League of San Diego. Five For The Road!

By Nancy Olcott
M - Butler
1980-81 Field Secretary

Laura Jackson

Debbie Kelley

Jenny Young

Exciting? Definitely.
Glamorous? Maybe . . .
Exhausting? You bet!

But the life of a Field Secretary IS a fascinating one. This fall five new travelers will be reaching out to all parts of the country spending at least one week with every chapter.

A Field Secretary is the best resource your chapter has. She has been thoroughly trained in all areas — ranging from chapter finance to planning Friday night's Kappa Krush party — and is ready and willing to share her talents and knowledge with you.

A Field Secretary is the best motivator your chapter has. With her energy and pizzazz she can walk into any chapter and pass the Spirit of Kappa to each and every member.

And a Field Secretary is the best friend your chapter has. She will be as thrilled with your chapter's successes as you are, and she looks forward to sharing lots of special times with all of you.

LEANNE BURK, ΔT - U.S.C.

Most of Leanne's energies were geared toward Panhellenic. She served the University of Southern California Panhellenic as a rush counselor, rush chairman and as a member of the Inter-Greek Board. Mexican food is Leanne's favorite, ranking right up there with late night ice-cream runs! She is an excellent shopper and is very good at keeping in touch with people.

LAURA JACKSON, ΔΣ - Oklahoma State

As President, Second Vice President and Fraternity Education chairman of her chapter at Oklahoma State, Laura was involved in every aspect of Kappa. Always thinking three steps ahead, she has a job lined up with an accounting firm upon completion of her year as a Field Secretary. La "Roo", as her friends call her, loves to jog and swim, and can always be found with a Diet Pepsi or Dr. Pepper near by.

DEBBIE KELLEY, Θ - Missouri

A journalism major from Kansas City, Missouri, Debbie served her chapter first as the Scholarship chairman and then as President. She has been super involved on her campus at the University of Missouri, especially in her work with the Student Foundation. She loves counseling, and has worked at the Career Planning and Counseling Center and acted as a Peer Counselor every free moment during her busy weeks.

WENDY PAXTON, ΕΩ - Dickinson

Wendy is a charter member of her chapter at Dickinson College in Pennsylvania. As the First Vice President of a new chapter, she had the opportunity to develop many new and innovative programs. In addition to her Kappa responsibilities, Wendy was also a Resident Adviser. She enjoys racquet ball and snow skiing, but is best known for her love of shopping.

JENNY YOUNG, Δ - Indiana

Jenny had an active senior year as president of her chapter and finishing up her double major in Psychology and Economics. Her life long love is music. She plays both the piano and guitar, and accompanied most of the rush skits for her chapter at the University of Indiana. Recently Jenny has acquired a few new interests, including photography and jogging.
