OF KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

A two-pronged program

No Kappa should have been surprised when the centennial committee approved the plan to commemorate the Fraternity's 100th anniversary by awarding significant scholarships in some field of rehabilitation on each campus where we have a Kappa chapter. The plan incorporates opportunities for higher education and strong support of the Fraternity philanthropy.

Rehabilitation Services, since its inception in 1952, has been an ideal philanthropic program for Kappa Kappa Gamma. A program that can be defined as adaptable, creative, diversified, and concerned with human needs. Rehabilitation means to help those with some disability live up to the fullest extent of their capabilities. Kappa has accepted a broad interpretation of the term "disability", believing that it covers those who are physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, or socially deprived. A two-pronged program has been developed: community service and scholarship aid.

In community service both alumnæ and actives have been able to participate by investigating local needs and services, then adopting a project to suit their time and talents. Projects range from the very simple to those requiring many volunteer hours at an agency. The wide scope has provided all Kappas with the chance for concern and action.

The second prong is the provision for scholarship aid to young women majoring in one of the many rehabilitation fields of study. The Fraternity offers grants to those who intend to be therapists, social workers, teachers in the special education fields, psychologists, and doctors. In 1955, one fellowship was presented to a speech therapist. This year 16 young women are using grants to prepare for careers in a wide range of fields.

Qualified manpower is one of the urgent problems of modern society. The shortage of trained personnel in the rehabilitation fields is doubly acute. As citizens, taxpayers, and especially as women, we can appreciate the value of training a large number of workers. Physical disabilities resulting from accidents, birth defects, and war injuries can be helped so that the handicapped will lead a useful life. It is important to teach the mentally retarded, to guide them toward gainful employment rather than to have them become dependants of the state. Preventive help for the disturbed can spare us all from the acts of violence that shock a nation. Urban society is confronted with compelling social needs which cry for the assistance of the skilled social worker.

Now we approach 1970 with plans to present 94 rehabilitation scholarships in a single year. Think, if you will, of the impact these centennial scholars can make on the lives of the handicapped and on the problems of our times. This unique and farreaching program is relevant to today's needs, a fitting celebration, and a forecast of continuing effectiveness.

We, of Kappa Kappa Gamma, have a proud heritage; we face the future with abiding confidence. Ours is a Fraternity keyed for tomorrow.

THE QUESTION IS:

What are we busy about?

by MARJORIE CROSS BIND
Scholarship chairman

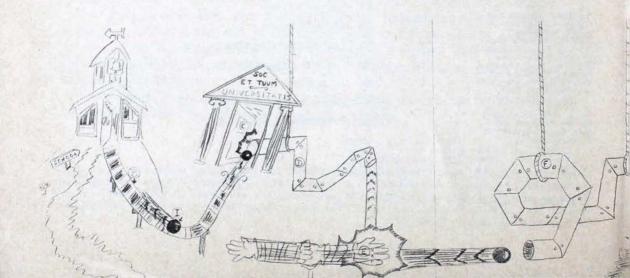

"It is not enough to be busy; so are the ants.

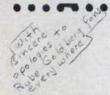

The question is: What are we busy about?"

Thoreau

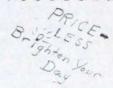

Busy, busy, busy—Americans are the "busiest" people on the face of the earth. Collegians are busy with many university pursuits, among them, we hope, the pursuit of knowledge. The rest are busy with a variety of activities, many of which can be characterized as "general wheel-spinning". But in this day of the "activist", "innovative", and "affluent" society, it is imperative that we pause from this frantic activity and ask the question: "What are we busy about?" Many collegians have posed this question in one way or another. As the above quotation implies, to live in the moment is not the mark of man. Ants are busy and we admire their industry. But man, unique among the creatures of this earth, has the power to make judgments, to pass knowledge from generation to generation, to evaluate the past and plan for the future. And so, what should we be doing with this unique gift—the mind?

Over 2400 years ago in Ancient Greece, Anaxagoras said, "All things were in chaos when Mind arose and made order." This statement is most painfully relevant to today and our most urgent need for ordered philosophical thought. And so we must turn to the Greeks, for it was they who first gave priority to the supremacy of the mind in the affairs of man and whose clarity of thought and love of order gives them, even today, pre-eminence in philosophy. The word, itself, comes from the Greek and originally meant "love of knowledge." They did not consider any knowledge as an entity in itself. In fact, they could not conceive of an unanalyzed whole, but insisted that all knowledge must be ordered. Hence "love of knowledge" naturally implied ordered knowledge-philosophy.

The Greeks were the world's first intellectuals. They were the first to insist on purposive action. Aristotle defined man's basic nature: "Now what is characteristic of any nature is that which is best for it and gives most joy. Such to man is the life according to reason, since it is this that makes him man." This new emphasis on the mind was a most disturbing force, for unleashing the powers of individualism was clearly a dangerous adventure. But the Greeks regarded it as a challenge to greater self-mastery, to rigid discipline of thought and expression. They insisted on an ordered unity with the less subordinate to the more essential. The Ancient Greeks. above all civilizations, recognized the power of knowledge and the responsibilities inherent in it.

Knowledge is power and power responsibility

That knowledge is power and power, responsibility, not privilege, is a fact that must be recognized today. The educated man or woman is the "capital" of a country. It is the source of productive, creative thought as well as leadership to direct the course of events. Today when human knowledge has brought the potential, not only of physical self-annihilation, but also psychological and moral destruction by means of thought control and systematic dehumanizing, this is an awesome power indeed. Mankind cannot afford mental vacuums or philosophical bankruptcy.

So we must take a critical look at the "learning process" and consider the relationship between facts and thought. Confucius says (really!), "Study without reflection is a waste of time, reflection without study is dangerous." Are we, like the ants, so busy gathering facts and particulars, that we mindlessly neglect reflection on the general? Certainly, as education becomes more specialized, we tend to lose sight of the "analyzed whole" which was the very essence of the Greek's unsurpassed greatness. The teaching of general knowledge-i.e., knowledge of man, his greatness, his weaknesses, his needs, his history, knowledge of systematic inquiry, and knowledge of language skills-has become subordinate to the ever growing body of specific knowledge. The individual, then, must seek to develop a broader scope on his own. In philosophy, as in most areas of thought, the minute a problem can be defined, there can be a beginning toward a solution, for then we know what fits, what we must find out, and what is relevant. The relationship between facts and thought, then, can be compared to working a jig-saw puzzle: using facts, as pieces of the puzzle, and by reasoned searching, fitting each piece to make a meaningful picture of reality.

Certainly, the importance of definition and ordered thought is underlined by our "affluence" (economic progress) and the accompanying confusion, even turmoil, that we are experiencing. Mr. Peter Drucker, in Landmarks of Tomorrow, points out that "Economists have long emphasized that the true measure of economic advance is not material-i.e. higher standard of living-but human: increasing freedom to choose and to act." As the individual becomes less preoccupied with bare subsistence, he has more time for other pursuits. The problem of responsible use of this new "freedom to choose and to act" is brought sharply into focus by the advent of the "activist" upon the scene. (Activist is defined in the dictionary: . . . "an individual who favors, incites, or demands intensified activities, especially in time of war.") The very multiplicity of their demands and causes has led to confusion. But more than the number, it is their lack of definition that confuses. Indeed, our language increasingly reflects this intellectual confusion in the growing use of general terms that defy precise definition. So we must ask of the activists: active, to what purpose? Many espouse "change"-change to what? Many are against "the establishment" -what establishment? Why? What is advocated? How would it be implemented? What is the basic philosophy? Or-is the purpose to confuse? The shining example of a cause well-defined is our Declaration of Independence where the basic philosophy as to the nature of man and the conditions necessary for his best functioning are clearly set forth. Today our new ability to choose and to act demands just such mental disciplines. There must be an absolute insistence on definition of terms and consistency of thought-else we abandon all regard for the truth. This is man's only defense against control by irresponsible or irrational authority.

An innovative society

In fact, the simple promotion of "change" is an exercise in futility for it indicates in itself, intellectual default. For we are now an "innovative" society—that is we have the power to make purposeful, directed, organized change. There is truth in Mr. Drucker's statement that "We can no longer ask whether there should be change or even how fast, but only argue over what it should be, aim for and do. We now see change as being order itself." Therefore, if we do not fall victim to mental confusion and chaos, the other side of the coin is a shining challenge to greatness and opportunity.

Mr. Drucker describes this power to innovate as "change, not based on organizing our knowledge, but on organizing our ignorance." To illustrate, he cites Mendeleev's formulation of the Periodic Table of Chemical Elements-"The great creative act on which rest both modern physics and modern chemistry." Mendeleev, Mr. Drucker says, did not discover a single new element nor property. He did not organize the then existing knowledge and build on it. All earlier efforts had tried to do just that, but rather than bringing order, only greater confusion resulted. Mendeleev asked: "What unknown and as yet undiscovered elements must we assume to make order out of those we know?" It was the blank spaces that ordered the known 63 elements -it was organization of ignorance on which the accomplishment rested. Yet, we systematically do, on a smaller scale, what, 96 years ago, was an isolated feat of individual genius.

This wonderful ability to innovate is particularly evident technologically. Now, more and more, we can decide what end products we want, then find the raw materials for them. Think of the implications this ability has, not only for our own country, but for less developed countries with more limited natural resources. For example, in a country that has no trees, but wants to make paper, we learn that paper is basically cellulose, search for other sources of cellulose,—i.e. sugar cane—then find ways to make paper from it.

Socially, too, innovations are being made. Hospitals, for example, are using a new team concept in which specialists work as a team, including not only medical specialists, but non-medical professionals as well—dieticians, biologists, psychologists, physical therapists—with the patient as the unit and the nurse serving as the co-ordinator who reports if the results deviate from the expected course.

Team concept taps all areas

This team concept is typical of myriads of today's organizations which tap almost all areas of knowledge from the humanities through the sciences. This new organization does not swallow up the individual, Mr. Drucker explains, but makes him effective in teamwork, for it is axiomatic that work of skill and knowledge, especially work requiring judgment, has to be done by the individual. This makes for a dynamic relationship in responsibility: each specialist has to take responsibility for his own performance and his own contribution; the organization has responsibility in the use of power with no claim to the loyalty or allegiance of the individual other than what it can earn by enabling him to be productive. The more the individual grows as a person, the more the organization can accomplish. The more the organization grows in integrity, objectives, and competence, the wider scope there is for the individual.

Mr. Drucker points out that innovation promises both risk and opportunity. The primary implications are two: 1) Although innovation involves rational choice among risks based on informed judgment, the risks of fail-

Secrets are shared

Some of the scholarship award chapters, and runners-up, at the last Convention briefly tell about how their success was achieved, their attitudes toward high scholastic achievement and their suggestions to other chapters seeking top scholastic attainment.

Achievement for both individual and chapter

he goal of our scholarship program is to promote high scholastic achievement for the individual member and the chapter as a whole. Each Kappa will be encouraged to develop herself intellectually so she may actively contribute and participate according to her own capabilities. Although the ultimate responsibility rests with the individual, the scholarship committee, recognizing its leadership role, sets forth its goals and means of achievement in its program.

NANCY MENZ Assistant scholarship chairman Γ A-Kansas State

Not for grades alone

To develop and maintain an enthusiasm for learning in both pledges and members. In doing so, try to make them realize that they are not learning for the grade alone, but that they are learning so that they may become more intelligent, active members of society.

B K-Idaho

Scholarship main objective

ood scholarship is the main objective of the members of Epsilon Theta. As pledges we had required study hours that trained us to budget our time and to be thoroughly prepared for our classes. Of course, we complained about the hours spent in the library, but the habits we learned during pledging stayed with us and made our grades the highest on Little Rock University's campus among all sororities.

KATHY FINCH Scholarship chairman Ε Θ-Little Rock

Scholarship means individual responsibility

hen the last squeal is heard and the last key is hung around an excited pledge's neck, we at Gamma Pi realize that it is time for football games, parties, and most important, studying. Our success on the Alabama campus is attributed mainly to one general idea-individual responsibility. The healthy scholastic atmosphere maintained around the house provides a firm basis for a strong scholarship program. Naturally, the pledges have certain required study halls enforced by responsible actives, but the bulk of their studying is done on their own in the comfort of their own room. The actives who drop below a 1.50 (on a 3.00 basis) average are also "invited" to attend the pledge study halls. We believe that this mixture of required and individual study halls offers each pledge and each active an ample opportunity to make the grades required of her. The fact that for the past several years our chapter has won the scholarship trophy awarded annually by Panhellenic points out the effectiveness of our program.

Susan Childs Scholarship chairman F II-Alabama

Aim to develop quality

The immediate aim of the scholarship committee is to improve and develop the scholarship qualities in the fraternity. The scholarship committee realizes that scholarship is one of the most individual of achievements that any girl can do, but we hope to provide the guidance and atmosphere in which each girl can realize her fullest scholarship achievement.

A scholarship program used at Drake

ur quiet hours run from 6:30-11:30 Sunday through Thursday nights. No one is to enter anyone elses' room between 6:30 and 10:30 and later if so requested. Required hours are determined by the gradepoint of the previous semester. Those with above a 3.0 have no hours, if this is an accumulative average, nor do those with above a 3.0 for two consecutive semesters have any hours. A 2.9 gradepoint means 11 hours per week, 2.8, 12 and so on up to 20 hours. Girls may study either in the House or in the Library. Those studying on the program will not be buzzed for phone calls until breaks between 8:00 and 8:15 and 9:30 and 9:45, or until whatever time they may have signed up on the bulletin board. A card file is placed in the library for those signing up there. Those not getting in their hours receive a Sunday afternoon campus from 1:00-4:00.

Pledges are required 21 hours of study hours signed by active proctors. Study tables are offered four nights a week and pledges are required three. Pledges not getting in their hours are required a Friday or Saturday night campus. These run from 6:30-9:30.

Mary Lee Morrison Scholarship chairman Γ Θ-Drake

Three point guide to better scholarship

ur chapter has found three points to be our guide in good scholarship. These points are: enforcement, uniformity and regard for the individual. We have set up a system of study hours for any girl who does not maintain a gradepoint which we have set-up as a good house average. To make sure that these study hours are useful for the girls, our scholarship committee is large enough so that total enforcement of our study hours rules is possible. For fairness and so the new pledges do not feel pent up by our study rules the program is uniform for both actives and pledges. This way the girls can study together and get to know each other at breaks. It is a good way for everyone both in and out of the house to become closer. Finally, we try not to forget the individual. Not everyone likes to study and it is especially difficult to make someone study when she "just doesn't feel like it." Consequently we have made a sign-out system for study hours. When a girl has a night that she just "can't" study or wants to watch television or go out she can write out a sign-out card for the proctor to pick up and record in the attendance booklet for study hours. The girls are allowed two sign-outs per month. We have found these rules to be very successful in our scholarship program. The girls do not dread stipulations as long as they are granted some freedom. Studying may not be a great deal of fun, but the attitude towards it has improved greatly in our chapter, and we hope some of our ideas may help other chapters, too.

JILL E. KORENEVICH Scholarship chairman B Z-Iowa

Scholarship—program or philosophy?

ertificates, pins, dinners, plaques . . . and all the other great little "boosters" that are a part of our scholarship programs-they're fine for promoting quick encouragement; but how do we plant in our ambitions that small but oh so important little seed-the desire to be a life-long scholar? This does not necessarily mean the person who re-enters college periodically to "take an extra course or two"; although this does show outwardly that the desire is there. At William and Mary we try to create a drive to obtain knowledge for the enrichment, it will add to our lives. Professors are invited from various departments on special evenings to give us an insight into their fields. Our understanding of diverse subject areas is heightened by short talks from seniors on their majors. . . . (And, oh, too, what a help this is to freshmen who have not yet declared their specific fields of concentration!) Our chapter belongs to book clubs; we also strongly encourage attendance at the many outstanding lectures given on campus and around the community. These two specific activities can be easily fit into the busiest schedules, before and after graduation. Grades, point averages, dean's lists, and all the other "problems" of the scholarship committee and every single Kappa are easily solved. All we need is that little seed of sincerely wanting to learn for the added fulfillment it gives our lives. Stop and study the world! It has something to offer you, and you in turn to it.

> KATHY NETZLEY Scholarship chairman Γ K-William and Mary

Every Kappa capable of excellence

et's face it! Each and every Kappa is capable of excelling in college work, if only in one area. Our high school scholastic achievements have proven so or we would not have been selected for pledgeship. But we must also keep in mind that scholarship is a personal matter. For in the final analysis, it is the individual's own hard work and time that enables her to reach her goals. Therefore, we of the Delta Lambda scholarship committee strive to instigate and maintain a desire for achievement throughout the chapter. Of course, we also aim to serve the sisters by aiding or finding aid whenever those inevitable troubles occur. But, moreover, we want to fire the girls to make themselves work, whether the incentive be for the sorority, for their parents, or for themselves. Our purpose is to help each Kappa match her academic capabilities. Our method is encouragement and inspiration. We hope the result is a chapter of achievers.

Pam Frick Scholarship chairman Δ Λ-Miami U.

Scholarship stressed before pledging

Cholarship to the Beta Nu Kappas is held in a very high position in the chapter's overall goals. This is stressed before we pledge a girl, while we are training her, and throughout her college years as an active. Because it is existent within each girl as a strong personal goal as well as a chapter goal, our scholarship program as such is not as extensive as perhaps some need to be. We have study buddies for pledges, files of old tests and notebooks, another file in which we keep a running list of courses and instructors which our students have had-for tutoring purposes for new students, a system for relatively quiet hours. The chapter room is made available for absolutely quiet studying. However, an attitude of encouragement and of lending a helping hand is perhaps the most beneficial approach-small reminders and acknowledgements for little successes can often lead to bigger successes for an individual. And we feel that individual satisfaction and achievement up to one's own potential is the most anyone or any one chapter should rightfully expect.

> LYNN MAJOR Scholarship chairman B N-Ohio State

Design program for specific needs

The Epsilon Gamma chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of North Carolina believes that a scholarship program must be designed to help each girl with her specific scholarship needs. Therefore, our program here enables the girls to work out their own program with the direction of the scholarship committee. Any pledge or active member who is in academic trouble is assigned a "study buddy" who tutors her. Posters also help to remind the girls of the importance of good scholarship to themselves and the chapter.

LAURA BOLAND Scholarship chairman E I-North Carolina

Scholarship not merely grade point average

Cholarship is not merely a grade-point average. It is also a broad cultural awareness. College affords many opportunities to penetrate unknown realms but the degree of stimulation toward the unknown depends upon the attitude of the student. Delta Alpha strives to encourage each member to maintain an attitude of intellectual curiosity in the areas of her unknown. By stressing outstanding scholastic performance as an important membership requirement our chapter has a natural tendency toward intellectual interest and our unstructured program gives each girl responsibility for her own scholarship. This individual responsibility is perhaps the most unique and important aspect of Delta Alpha's scholarship program. Each member sets her own standard which, consequently, she is more likely to keep than a level of achievement dictated to her by the whole chapter. Accepting responsibility for her own scholarship is one aspect of development as a mature women-a basic goal of our Fraternity.

> Susan Lupton Scholarship chairman Δ A-Penn State

Essential point is individuality

he essential point of the Delta Psi scholarship program is individuality. We encourage each girl to strive for her highest potential whether it is a 2.00 or a 4.00. Our standards are high, and we stand by them but not at the expense of each girl's personal situation. The scholarship committee works closely with the pledges providing nightly study halls, special "study buddy" actives and frequent morale boosters. These establish sound and happy study habits. We feel a sense of competition on the Tech campus as we work to maintain our record of high standing. Through the efforts of all the individuals of Delta Psi, aided by the scholarship program, we have continued to maintain the highest sorority average for eight semesters.

Carla Dunn Scholarship chairman Δ Ψ-Texas Tech

Scholarship primary concern for pledges and actives

e, of Eta chapter, are very proud of our award. To us, it represents a goal for which we are constantly striving. Today, on a liberal campus such as the University of Wisconsin, sorority women are being challenged. Eta Chapter has met this challenge because we realize that a sorority can no longer serve only a social function for its members. Our primary concern for both pledges and actives is a scholastic one. Eta chapter is a strong chapter because it urges each of its members to do her very best in campus activities, in sorority activities and above all, in her academic work. It is a matter of pride—in the University of Wisconsin, in Kappa Kappa Gamma, and in each girl, herself. It is for these goals that we strive. We feel that by becoming better scholars, we become better women.

> DIANE S. HAUKOM Scholarship chairman H-Wisconsin

Chapter enthusiasm is key to success

elta Pi's key to scholarship success this year was chapter enthusiasm. We pledged an outstanding group during fall rush with lots of scholarship potential. The chapter moved through six weeks of tests and finals, with the motto, "the only way is up," and determination to improve our average. Every weekend was highlighted by Friday Study Spectacular-a voluntary study hall. Pledges were aided and encouraged by study buddies, a system in which one member keeps track of study hours and grades for two pledges. Since the "buddies" were not necessarily scholarship stars, members as well as pledges benefitted. Restrictions in an unhoused chapter are difficult to enforce, therefore, the scholarship program was designed to eliminate the need for restrictions. During finals, study halls in the library of three hours per session were required. The scholarship program was effective this year at Delta Pi because each Kappa was behind it all the way.

A Rehabilitation Service project:

What is it? Who needs it?

by AGNES PARK FAUSNAUGH
P^-Ohio Wesleyan
Rehabilitation Services chairman

"The great law of culture is: Let each become all that he was created capable of being." . . . Thomas Carlyle appas are often asked the question, "What is your Fraternity's philanthropy?" The answer is, of course, Rehabilitation. The word rehabilitation means "to restore." Our interpretation as related to philanthropy applies the word in its broadest meaning. Rehabilitation Service projects, by Kappas, are those projects which in some measure "restore" the handicapped and disabled to useful and richer lives.

The Fraternity recognizes these catagories of handicapped for service: aid to those phys- ically handicapped by birth, injury, disease; aid to the mentally retarded; aid to the socially deprived (the underprivileged, social problems, delinquents, etc); aid to the emotionally disturbed or mentally ill and the aged.

Since its adoption at the General Convention in 1952, Kappa Kappa Gamma's philanthropy of Rehabilitation Service has grown rapidly. The number of alumnæ clubs and associations participating in one or more projects increases, but there are some groups who are hestitant about starting such a project. The prospect may look overwhelming. Someone is sure to say, "A Project? Who needs it!"

There is a Need. First of all, Kappa

This article was prepared by the Fraternity Rehabilitation Services chairman, Agnes Fausnaugh, from a program which she, with the help of Mu Province Director of Alumnæ, Jan Charbonnet Crocker, I' K-William and Mary, presented at the Conventon last summer. Here Jan (left) and "Aggie" (right) with Director of Philanthropies, Martha Galleher Cox, display some of the items made by various alumnæ groups for their Rehabilitation projects. These "handmades" were brought to Convention as ideas for other groups in their Rehabilitation work.

alumnæ need a project both as individuals and as alumnæ groups. Kappa alumnæ are a very select group. They were chosen for membership in Kappa Kappa Gamma because they were recognized as being the types of persons who would always want to keep mind and hands creatively busy. There aren't too many Kappas who are content to fill their summers with golf and their winters with bridge, and nothing else! Many alumnæ groups are asking, "How can we attract the younger alumna?" Today's young Kappas come out of college, more personally involved, more actively stimulated, more highly idealistic than ever before in our history. They are dedicated to doing something tangible with their lives and the world around them. All these members need is an opportunity to see where their efforts can be of service.

"Genius and strength are worth nothing if we do not put them to the service of our fellow beings. The most sacred duty of youth lies in the relation to the community in which it lives." . . . Carlos Contreras, Partners

Individual Kappas need a service project and the Kappa alumnæ groups do too. It is an undisputed fact that the most alive and successful alumnæ groups, large or small are usually those which have some type of local project which their members support with their time, talents or funds. What makes a successful alumnæ group?

Most people think that success is acquired; it is more correctly contributed. The entrance to success is by the gate of contribution. Everything that is taken out, someone has put in. What are your members putting in your alumnæ organization?

A project? Who needs it? Your alumnæ group needs it and your local community needs it. There is something very special about volunteering your time or talents, to something worthwhile. Sargent Shriver said in addressing a group of volunteers, "I do not believe that the government could hire people like you volunteers. You go out and DO the things that need to be done. This individual initiative and imagination have been a magnificent aspect of your work." Our Kappa volunteers are a fantastically varied group of women. They are working in nearly every aspect of the rehabilitation field. They may not necessarily have experience in the type of service project they choose, but they volunteer. They have on great attribute in common (in addition to being Kappas.) They are overwhelmingly successful!

The important thing about volunteering time in a Kappa Rehabilitation Service Project is that it is not something done out of necessity to earn a livlihood, but rather something we choose to do of our own free will. And by helping some necessary work move forward, by helping to "restore" someone else, the Kappa volunteer is promoting and protecting the welfare of the local community of which she is a part. She is making her contribution to a democratic society. She need have no great expertize. She need only to offer herself and what qualities and talent she possesses.

"Give what you have. To someone it may be better than you dare think."
... Longfellow

Who needs a Rehabilitation Service Project? You need it as a person, as an alumnæ group. Your local community needs it. And Kappa Kappa Gamma needs it. It is almost impossible to measure the importance of public relations today. The local philanthropic projects in which Kappa alumnæ groups are involved all over the country offer a concrete answer to what sorority girls do after they leave college.

The list of Rehabilitation Projects is endless, here are just a few examples which show the breadth and depth of our Fraternity philanthropy.

The Minneapolis Junior group makes hand and finger puppets for a children's ward. Hartford, Connecticut Kappas collect old nylons to stuff toys for their children's hospital. Many alumnæ groups collect or make toys which they donate to a hospital toy cart, or entertain children in the wards. The Pullman, Washington Club buys "Get Well Coloring Books" to give to each child entering the hospital. The Delaware alumnæ meet and roll bandages and make hospital gowns from old shirts. Midland, Texas Club has just started work with brain-damaged children. Erie, Pennsylvania Association members arranged a

A mother daughter team work on the Gainesville project. Martha Jean Sloo, T A-Kansas State, now attending the University of Florida, and her mother Betty Adams Sloo,  $\Gamma$  A-Kansas State, hold three of the completed cards.

Gainesville, Florida has a project of making reading kits to help patients recognize objects and relate words. Jane Russell Johnson, Γ K-William and Mary, of the group writes: "Twenty-four of these cards, all made to a specified shape, size, and color, go into a kit (there is a word on each side) which are used by the brain damaged children who are undergoing treatment under the auspices of the Institute for the Development of Human Potential. Each of these cards takes about one hour to complete. We are reimbursed for the cost of materials, and feel that our donation of time will save time for the mother who has embarked on a very time-consuming effort with her child. We completed 22 of these kits during the past year, actually about eight months, and are continuing it as our project for the coming year."

musical program for Rehabilitation patients and served refreshments. The Lehigh Valley Pennsylvania Club makes picture booklets for hard of hearing children. Fort Wayne alumnæ provide transportation for the League of the Blind. Many, many other groups are helping the physically handicapped.

Kappa alumnæ aid the Mentally Retarded in numerous areas. Each of the 22 members of the Mariemont, Ohio Club "adopts" a foster child to whom she sends a birthday and Christmas gift each year. The Northern New Iersev Association is one of several groups to send children to camp each summer.

Perhaps it is a sign of our times that more and more groups are assisting those handicapped by social problems. The Richmond Association gives a Christmas party for the underprivileged with gifts of felt stockings filled with candy, toothbrushes and washcloths. The Pueblo, Colorado Association donates funds to operate a Santa Claus Shop which gives repaired clothing and toys to the needy. In La Jolla, California each member donates $1.00 to send to the Archie Moore A.B.C. (Any Boy Can) Fund. The 32 members of the Santa Fe, New Mexico Club cosponsor a Girls Club Banquet. They provide transportation, purchase and serve the dinners. They spend many hours on decorations and favors which were small burlap angels following the theme, "Thank Heaven for Little Girls." The Johnstown, Pennsylvania Club with 13 members supplied a dinner for a needy family and collected and boxed used clothing for another. Many alumnæ groups are working with Inner City groups like Headstart. One of these are the alumnæ of La Canada Valley, California who devoted one meeting to making aprons for these chil-

Some Kappa alumnæ select the emotionally disturbed or the aged for their service. Topeka, Kansas Kappas have for 18 years baked nine dozen cookies every week for the emotionally disturbed patients at their State Hospital. The Piedmont Carolina, North Carolina Club is one of several which give magazine subscriptions to be used by mental patients. Charlotte, North Carolina alumnæ make Bingo prizes and teach sewing to the mentally ill at Hearthstone House.

Rehabilitating the aged is part of the program for some alumnæ groups, too. Alumnæ in the State of Delaware had a workshop at a Senior Center to show the residents how to make small, clever and inexpensive Christmas gifts for their grandchildren. St. Paul, Minnesota members visit aged Kappas in nursing homes, delivering gifts and writing "Thinking of You" notes regularly. San Mateo, California conduct Bingo games for a Home for the Aged while Schenectady, New York Kappa's devote a meeting to sew and fill stockings for their local County Home.

These few examples are only a part of Kappa Kappa Gamma's philanthropic program of Rehabilitation Services, which is the sum total of all the projects in which the alumnæ groups are engaged in their own local communities. Each group is asked to report its Rehabilitation Project annually to the chairman. Services indicate the hours of volunteer service given as a Kappa group, not as individuals and the gifts of money and/or equipment donated to various rehabilitation agencies.

This past year alone, 1967-68 Kappa alumnæ donated more than 34,000 volunteer hours! In addition, our alumnæ groups contributed over $47,000 in their local areas. No one can possibly measure the worth of these activities not only to those "handicapped" who were aided, but to Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. It is with the Fraternity philanthropy, Rehabilitation, that the worth of service to others make a full circle. As these alumnæ help others, they help themselves, the cause of the entire fraternity system and the name of Kappa as well.

"When you are good to others, you are best to yourself" . . . Benjamin Franklin

Our Fraternity recognized that "There IS A Need" and so Kappas share their life, their leisure and their thinking with their local community, in the name of Kappa Kappa Gamma. They take their less fortunate neighbor by the hand and say, in the words of Eccleisiastics,

"Two are better than one . . . for if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow. But woe unto him that is alone when he falleth and hath not another to lift him up."

Anna "Mitch" Hiett Pflugh, B M-Colorado, Association president, and Betsy Hospes Celis,  $\Gamma$  I-Washington U., philanthropy chairman and a busy teacher professionally, pack some of the association's handwork for delivery to the Starlight Center.

In San Diego, California, alumnæ members have been making items for the Starlight Center for Retarded Children in Chula Vista, for a number of years. Some of the articles made by the Kappas include such things as a pillow case embroidered with a "Happy Birthday" illustration to put on the back of the chair of a birthday child which can later be taken to bed with him. Hand puppets, and a humpty-dumpty bean bag that is a lacing toy, are two other popular items.

Centennial Scholarship plans announced

Dr. Seward to head Centennial Scholar selection program

Dr. Doris M. Seward,  $\Delta$ -Indiana, former Dean of Women and now Dean of Student Affairs Planning at the University of Kentucky, has agreed to head the Centennial Scholar selection program. Dr. Seward is also a professor of education at Kentucky. She has taken part in programs at several of the Kappa biennial conventions and is a holder of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnæ Achievement award.

She holds an A.B. from Indiana University, an M.A. from Syracuse University, and a Ph.D. in student personnel administration in higher education from Syracuse.

Previously she has been associated with Syracuse University, the Student Christian Movement of New York State, the University of Minnesota and Purdue University.

Miss Seward is a member of numerous professional, social and civic organizations and has contributed articles to several national publications. She has been a member of the American delegation to the World Confederation of Organization Teaching Profession to Stockholm, Sweden; Rio de Janiero, Brazil; Paris, France; Addis Ababa, Ethiopia; and Seoul, Korea. She has been a member of the advisory committee on program and policies commission of the National Education Association; a former officer of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors, a former president of the American Society of College Personnel Associations. She is a member of the American Association of University Women, and serves as the University of Kentucky corporate delegate. She belongs to Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Lambda Theta, Psi Chi and Alpha Lambda Delta.

Kappa is indeed fortunate to have such a distinguished and able administrator for her Centennial Scholarship program.

uring Kappa's Centennial Year one special project merits special attention-the Centennial Scholarships. It is hoped that on every campus where we have a Kappa chapter we will also have a centennial scholar. These scholars are to be selected during the school year 1969-1970 and the names of these 94 carefully selected persons will be announced at our Centennial Convention in June of 1970. Each campus will have appointed, this year, a CCC-a Centennial Campus Contact. This person will function mainly in the 1969-1970 school year to see that applications for the Kappa scholarship are distributed and judged so that by the spring of 1970 each campus will have selected a scholarship winner. Ninety-four Centennial scholars will be announced at the June, 1970, convention and in 1970-1971 will be on the campuses where there are Kappa chapters.

Who will be the Centennial Scholars? Not limited to members of Kappa Kappa Gamma, these women will be preparing themselves to make a professional contribution in the broad field of rehabilitation of their fellowman. The rehabilitation may be in the area of the physically handicapped, the mentally retarded, the socially deprived or the aged. Some may be planning to work in this country, others in the underdeveloped countries.

It is particularly appropriate that Kappa Kappa Camma in its Centennial celebration select this particular endeavor for support in women's higher education. The great majority of our own members have great privilege and advantage and opportunity, in many cases simply a fortuitous circumstance. However, responsible members join in the feeling that with privilege goes an obligation to those who by similar chance are less fortunate. Those endowed with health should aid those who have physical handicaps. Those with keen minds should assist those who have been created retarded. Those in the vigor of youth should be mindful of the frail and aged. These are not new roles for women in our culture. Women have characteristically been concerned with the weaker fellowman, with injustice, with deprivation. The Centennial Scholars on campuses across the land will be enabled to increase their effectiveness in service for the welfare of society, and Kappa Kappa Gamma in its hundredth year will have made a significant contribution to our world in our time.

Sick people in a troubled world

had my baptism in national Kappa affairs in Hot Springs in 1952. That was the day that I did a wonderful job. I infected Kappas with the bug of rehabilitation and fortunately for us and for the disabled people of the world, you have been unable to recover, because you have provided fellowships and scholarships for young people, young women who wanted to make careers in the field of rehabilitation.

If you never had done anything else there was one scholarship that you provided that would have been worth everything that it has cost you in time and in substance. You brought a little Korean doctor to this country,

Editor's Note:

Dr. Howard A. Rusk, Director of the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, was a guest speaker at the Alumnæ Day session of Convention. The report of his address concerning Rehabilitation is included in this philanthropic issue of THE KEY.

Dr. Rusk holds degrees from the Universities of Missouri, Pennsylvania, Boston, Lehigh, Middlebury Women's Medical College, Westminster, Jung Chon in Korea, Trinity College, and Ithaca College. He has been engaged in the practice of internal medicine and instructor and consultant in rehabilitation; chairman of the American-Korean Foundation, president of the World Rehabilitation Fund; International Society for the Welfare of Cripples and many, many other positions. Dr. Rusk has been honored with the National Medal of Korea, the French Legion of Honor, the Doctor Cris award, the Lasker award, the Research award of the American Pharmacy Manufacturers association, the Gold Key award, the American Congress of Physicians in Rehabilitation.

He is a member of  $\Phi$  B K, A  $\Omega$  A,  $\Phi$  A  $\theta$ ; a Fellow of the College of Physicians, the Royal College of Physicians, a member of the New York Academy of Medicine, The International Society for the Welfare of Cripples, and he, too, is a Kappa man, the husband of Gladys Houx Rusk,  $\theta$ -Missouri.

all 78 pounds of her. Her name was Chung Hi Oh. She trained with us for three and a half years. She left two young boys back in Korea to sort of fend for themselves while she was here. When she went back she was assigned as Director of the National Veterans Rehabilitation Center in Tong Nang. It was a very difficult assignment. The three previous Directors of this program had been beaten almost to insensitivity when they tried to discharge these disabled patients who had no place to go. I don't blame the patients, I blame the problem. They were amputees and paraplegics and they said you must leave now and they had no place to leave to go, so they promptly worked over the administrator. No one could handle this except Dr. Oh. When she came and shook her finger, the men all jumped, disabled or not. Today she is Miss Rehabilitation of Korea and Mrs. Rusk and I will see her at the International meeting in Hong Kong in August, but she is your creation and she epitomizes what you have done for this program.

A word or two about the program that you have worked for.

We talk about rehabilitation as the third face of medical responsibility. The first obviously being prevention; the second definitive care and the third face is that hiatus between the bed and the job. It's what happens to disabled people after the fever is gone and the stitches are out. A training program is designed to take these people back to the best life they can live with what they have left, taking into consideration two factors. First, the disability, but much more important than that, the ability. It is not just meeting the physical problems, but you have to meet the emotional and social and vocational needs of these severely disabled people. No one person can do it. It's a teamwork job. The doctor, the nurse, specialists trained in rehabilitation, physical therapy, occupational therapists, teachers, social workers, vocational counselors, those skilled in therapeutic recreation, prosthetists and orthotists, all joining as a total team to meet those with the most difficult disabilities.

When I talked to you in 1952 if you had asked me about these youngsters we read about with broken necks I would have said "very little." We have from 35 to 40 in the institute all the time, young people in their teens or early 20's (athletic accidents, diving, automobile, trampolines), paralyzed from the upper chest down whose lives changed in a fraction of a second.

We have just done a follow-up study of 365 kids with broken necks that we have seen at the institute in the past five years as to what they are they now doing. Fifty-two percent are back in college or at work in competitive industry, and although they have remained completely paralyzed, many are in your schools. In 1952 there weren't three places in the United States where these youngsters could go to college. Today, there are well over 150 colleges where they can go.

If you would have said to me in '52, "My mother has had a stroke and she can't speak and she is paralyzed, what are her chances?" I would have said, "This is very rough. She is only one of two million in this country who have had this problem." Today, I can tell you that with adequate training, one-third of these people go back to gainful work at an average age of 63 and 85 percent are able to meet all the needs of daily living so they are capable of living non-institutional lives.

The reason this works is a simple one. If you take nothing more back to your communities and to your chapters of what I have said, I would like you to remember this: That the reason this is possible is because physical wholeness and ability in our society are not necessary. We only pay for two things, the skill in your hands and what you have in your head. In our society you can be the fastest runner and the highest jumper in town and too stupid to make a good living, but nature has given us tremendous powers of over-compensation. The blind man sees with his ears and exquisite sense of touch. The deaf man hears with his eyes by reading lips, and our paraplegics have bench jobs that require upper arm strength and hand skill and they will kill the ordinary worker because they can or are working with a great hypertrophied shoulder muscles with which they walk. Every survey that has ever been made in this field, and there are more than 30 in this country, has shown that properly trained and placed, the disabled have a better production rate, lower accident rate, lower absentee rate and nine times less labor turnover than the normal worker sitting side by side with them.

There can be advantage to disadvantage and that is what you have made possible through the years by your fellowships in the training programs in the various fields that you have supported. But there is another dividend that probably is the most important of all and that is there is something in the conquering experience through courage and hard work and opportunity that you can conquer disability and go back into life again. You not only hypertrophy your muscles, you hypertrophy your soul. These people have a depth of spirit that you and I know little about. You don't get fine china by putting the clay in the sun. You only get it if it goes through the white heat of the kiln. White heat breaks some pottery and life breaks some disabilities and disabilities break some people, but once you go through and come out the other side, then you are no longer clay, you are a ceramic.

Another dividend in this program that I believe is fundamental in this world of ours that is so scientific, precocious and yet spiritually adolescent and that is in this program we can always speak a common language. Mrs. Rusk and I have been to every country in the world, except Red China, and in some of the new emerging nations in Africa and wherever you go, regardless of race or creed or color or politics, we can speak a common language when we speak about the problems of the disabled.

Another thing that might interest you in these days of turmoil, since the institute was established in 1947, we have now seen in excess of 30,000 severely disabled people as in-patients. We have only four private rooms and all the rest of the rooms have four beds. It makes no difference whether you are black or white or Christian or Jew or Mohammedan or Hindu, whether you are a Ph.D. or never had the opportunity of education. Everything is the same program-wise. It might interest you to know that in all of these years and with all of these mix-ups of peoples and privileges and colors and religions, we have never had one single incident of prejudice, not one single instance. It's a hard way to learn tolerance, to have to break your back. It's a sure cure, I promise you, this language that we speak. This universal language has given us tremendous opportunity and yet great responsibility.

In Korea, for example, Mrs. Rusk and I went on our first mission in 1953. A million people had been killed in this country, twice as many as we have lost in all of our wars and Korea put together. Two and a half million cases out of a 15 million population were active TB, on their knees, with a life expectancy of 31 years. I just give you one figure as to what has happened. When we were there last spring on our eighth re-visit, the life expectancy was 63.8.

Now, I believe the lesson learned in Korea can be translated to problems in Vietnam. We went on our first mission there in September of '65 to see about the problems. This is a moving refugee population that is not as difficult as the Korean was. I observed one thing in the refugee camps that give you a little insight into the character of Vietnam. If a man is hungry, he will steal. It is true in all the concentration camps in any war and yet in Vietnam, I saw for the first time in life people pool their rice. If you came in with a bucket of rice, you put it in the common bin. When I got my five cents a day to buy rice, I bought rice and put it in. There was no problem. To me this was indicative of character.

I was particularly interested in the problem of amputees. You saw them every place. They estimated that there were some place in the neighborhood of 35 thousand. No program at all; only one little unit that was producing six old-fashioned limbs a month. These amputees weren't all caused by the war. They have been cumulative over 20-odd years because nothing has ever been done for these people. We started a training program of Vietnamese in January of '66 and we trained 50 technicians. We went from six limbs a month to 500 limbs a month in five months. This is the largest amputee program in the world today. We have just finished a branch at DaNang and one on the Delta. We have been a little disrupted by various things. One of our guards has been killed and one-third of all the workers have lost their homes. It's been a serious set-back, but I am happy to tell you that we are building a third center for the Canadian Government which they are going to take over and operate and run.

The West Germans have just sent a contingent and they want to build a unit also, so you couple this with the 13 or 14 free world teams that are working for people in Vietnam in spite of the war. We will never win the peace with bullets; we can only win with health and education and agriculture and rehabilitation of the disabled. This is the Army of Peace. The good that we are getting comes from all over the world.

I'd like to close by leaving with you two thoughts. One is the philosophy of one of the scientific greats of all time. I read this for two reasons: First, because I think the philosophy is your philosophy and second because this man had a stroke when he was 40 and lived to be 77. During the last 37 years of his life he did his greatest work. He left many fundamental scientific contributions, but I think that this philosophy was the greatest and I read it to you: "Not to destroy but to construct. I hold the unconquerable belief that science and peace will triumph over ignorance and war; that nations will come together not to destroy, but to construct and that the future belongs to those who accomplish the most for humanity." The author was Louis Pasteur.

Director of Philanthropies

Our Kappa alumnæ have made record contributions of both service and money to philanthropic projects again this year. Read these figures and rejoice!

Volunteer hours of service in the name of Kappa Kappa Gamma Gifts to local philanthropic projects 35,257 $49,459.11

182 alumnæ groups reported taking part in 252 different local Rehabilitation Service projects. The great variety of projects is interesting:

182 alumnæ groups have contributed to Fraternity philanthropies of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Individual gifts have been received from 29 persons. The grant total of this out-pouring of generosity from June 30, 1967 to June 30, 1968 is $32,003.

Using these Funds, the Fraternity was able to promote the cause of higher education by giving the following scholarships

|---------------------------------|-----|
| Foreign Student Fellowships     | 3   |

Last year THE KEY told of the stories behind some of the former scholarship holders. This year the alumnæ who make possible the scholarships are honored and a few examples of alumnæ industry shown.

Recipients of the current award winners are pictured on the following pages.

How do Kappa alumnæ raise all the money that is donated to our philanthropies? How is it possible to retain enthusiasm for the philanthropy program year after year? Are the scholarships really needed and really appreciated? What happens to the girls who receive these grants? The stories which follow are designed to answer those questions.

Fellowships

he present year has proved to be the annus mirabilis for Kappa's Fellowships program. A greater number of applications have been received, with the quality of the applicants retaining the same high level of previous years. Increased funds have made it possible to give a record 18 grants to outstanding young women as they prepare themselves further to pursue their various careers. The consistent high calibre of these students year after year has brought throughout the country an increasing awareness and recognition of Kappa's generous encouragement of advanced training for young women. That these fine students develop to the point where they make valuable contributions to our society is reward enough for the loyal alumnæ who make their studies possible. While jewelry rebates provide a large part of the funds for these awards, the following Kappas are to be commended for their gifts of a full Fellowship in the amount of $500:

Alabama Kappas in honor of Miriam Locke, Γ II-Alabama, Chairman of Fellowships Houston, Texas.

Denver, Colorado, in honor of Eleanore Goodridge Campbell, B M-Colorado, former Fraternity President

Robert and Ann Scott Morningstar, B N-Ohio State, in memory of Rose Beresford, sister of Clara O. Pierce, B N-Ohio State

Denver has two projects

One of the most consistent donors of $500 annually for a Fellowship award is the Denver Alumnæ Association. The Kappa Carousel, held each fall for the past 12 years, is one of their successful money-raising, and spirit-building projects. This fall the theme is Calico Christmas, and merchants will display their wares in booths decorated and prepared by the Kappas. Entrance to the Carousel, is $1.00 and merchants pay for displays. Decorations are made by and sold to Kappas. Invitations with a list of participating merchants are mailed to about 1200. No money exchanges hands but Kappas are on hand to take orders on the gift items which are filled by the merchants at a later date.

There'll be a Calico Christmas in Denver. Working on the Association project are Suzanne Hunter Presley, B  $\Theta$ -Oklahoma, Joy Staunton Pulcipher,  $\Upsilon$ -Northwestern, co-chairmen of the Carousel; and Judith Clark Carlson,  $\Omega$ -Kansas, (seated at the machine), Carousel art and display chairman.

Jean Ann Fleming Kramlech, A H-Utah, chairman of Denver's Decorama II presents a check for $4200 to Colorado Governor Love (and husband of Anna Daniels Love, △ Z-Colorado College). The project of the Denver Alumnœ is held biennially in connection with the American Institute of Design Colorado chapter. Decorators furnish the homes of clients and are on hand when the homes are open. Kappas publish a brochure describing each house and designer, plus pictures. They distribute 5000 brochures which are distributed to friends and clubs, cost of which is covered by advertising. Tour lasts three days and Kappas hostess at homes. First year profit of $2100 was given to the University of Colorado Medical Center while the second year profit of $4200 was given to make a film on drug usage based on the report written by Governor Love's committee on Respect for the Law.

North Woodward works with several projects

Another generous donor of Fellowships over the years and other types of scholarship awards is the North Woodward, Michigan Alumnæ Association. Their \$500 is matched by a generous alumnæ, Dorothy Piersol Barton, B  $\Delta$ -Michigan, to bring their total to \$1,000. A bridge tournament has been their "bread and butter" project for many years. This year a "Salad Social" was added which not only added more money to the coffers, but provided opportunity for their three different groups to know each other by working together. In addition the group sells Social Caper calendars, magazines, and other Kappa items to aid their philanthropy to Kappa and city.

At the North Woodward Salad Luncheon are Norma Graham Smith,  $\Theta$ -Missouri, Dorothy Pierson Barton, B  $\Delta$ -Michigan, Gretchen Davis Lyon,  $P^{\Delta}$ -Ohio Wesleyan, Margaret Brogan Shaw,  $\Delta$   $\Gamma$ -Michigan State, and Association president Elaine Richert Anderson, B  $\Delta$ -Michigan.

Income for Fellowships is provided by gifts, bequests and two thirds of the rebates on sales of Fraternity jewelry. Miss Miriam Locke,  $\Gamma$  II-Alabama, is the able chairman. A student wishing to make application for a \$500 grant to do graduate work is urged to get in touch with her, c/o Box 1484, University, Alabama 35486. The deadline date for applications is March 1.

Foreign Fellowships

This year provides a perfect example of how small gifts may accumulate to form the basis for something really worthwhile! Although there were no full scholarships given by alumnæ in the Foreign Fellowship field, there were many small gifts—from $10 to $150—given to the Students' Aid Fund. Many of these, added together, helped to provide funds from which these Fellowships could be given. Two of the many Associations and Clubs who have provided such gifts share their success stories with us on pages 26 and 27.

Foreign study awards

Morag D. K. Campbell, Γ Σ-Manitoba, has been awarded a second Foreign Study Fellowship to enable her to complete work for a Ph.D. in English Literature at Birkbeck College, University of London. Morag's outstanding scholastics record, chapter and many other activities while earning her B.A. and M.A. degrees at the University of Manitoba were recorded in the 1967 Winter issue of The Key.

In thanking Kappa for her fellowship, Morag wrote, "I suppose there is no need to tell you just how welcome a little extra money is to a self-supporting student away from home. It makes all the difference in the world to be able to order what one wants to eat in the refectory and not what one's budget demands. I'd like you to know just how good it feels to be a little ahead of the cost of living and not bogging down underneath it". Morag has joined the London Alumnæ Association and attended their Christmas party last year.

Sarah Lynne Minden, B Ψ-Toronto, is studying for an M.A. in Intellectual History at the University of Sussex, London, England. An honors student in History, Sarah's interest in the field of Intellectual History (the history of ideas) is a continuation of her undergraduate studies. She plans to teach at the University

She served her chapter as pledge trainer and then as president. Her campus activities included work on the Varsity Newspaper and with the University of Toronto International Teach-In. She received the Key Dignan, Beta Psi scholarship award. Employment during summer vacations enabled Sarah to earn the cost of her tuition for all four undergraduate years.

Sarah wrote, "All I can say is thank-you to Kappa for helping to make possible a year which I am sure shall be a challenging, enlightening, and hopefully successful experience."

Kathryn Wolf Luce (Mrs. Dudley G.),  $\Gamma$   $\Omega$ -Denison, is the chairman of Foreign Fellowships. Application forms may be secured from her. The forms for Foreign Study Scholarships should be completed and returned to her by March 1. Foreign Student applications should be returned by February 1. Mrs. Luce's address is Stoneleigh, Bronxville, New York 10708. Income for these Fellowships is provided by gifts, bequests and by one-third of the rebates from jewelry sales.

Are you contemplating a profession or career requiring knowledge of a foreign language? Would you like to study for a year in the country of the language being studied? Write to Mrs. Dudley G. Luce, Stoneleigh, Bronxville, New York 10708 for an application blank and information about the Susanna Stover Root Foreign Language Scholarship available to graduate student members of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Deadline for applications to be received is March 1, 1969.

Foreign student awards

Hemalata Chintaman Dandekar, from India is studying for an M.A. in Architecture at the University of Michigan. She graduated first in her class in the Bachelor of Architecture Examination at the University of Bombay in 1967. She spent the following year with her family in Tokyo, Japan where her father is in the Indian Embassy. Embassy rules prevented her from earning any money while in Japan but, for experience, she worked full-time for Mr. Yoshinobo Ashiara, one of Japan's leading architects. During vacations in India she worked with some of India's leading architects. She has attended school in London, Leeds, Delhi, Calcutta and Bombay and spent a year in Galesburg, Michigan on an American Field Service Scholarship.

During her school and college years Miss Dandekar won many prizes for outstanding scholarship and in public speaking. While in Michigan she won the District Forensic Competition in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Her field of interest is Urban Design. She plans to teach parttime while carrying on her professional work.

Kunie Fujiki from Kyoto, Japan in her third year of study at Yale University School of Music, expects to receive her M.A. in June 1969. She graduated from Kobe College, Nishinomiya, Japan with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in March 1966. Her instrument is the violin which she has studied for more than 19 years. In addition she is interested in music history and theory, two subjects which she says are neglected in Japanese musical training.

She plans to return to Japan to teach the violin and music theory. In addition to achieving honors in her courses, Miss Fujiki plays in the New Haven Symphony Orchestra and works ten hours a week in the University Library to help defray the cost of her graduate work. Yale awarded her an $800 scholarship.

Martha Ozawa (formerly Martha Takita) from Japan is in her final year of study for a Ph.D. in Social Work Administration at the University of Wisconsin. Her fellowship was renewed for this, her fifth year, because of financial need, her remarkable scholastic record and the importance of her field. She has had straight "A's" throughout her masters and Ph.D. programs. She was especially pleased that she was one of the 16% of 60 Ph.D. students to receive "A" in a statistics course, the most advanced one offered for social science students at the University. It involves multivariate analysis and factor analysis and also taught use of a computer for analysis of data. Although this is not a required course for Ph.D. students in social welfare Miss Ozawa felt that it would be of great value in her career.

She hopes to work for a national or international agency as a researcher or administrator of international programs primarily for Asian Countries. Her goal is "to be a bridge between the Asian aspiration and the Western know-how"."

Tucson scores a hit

When it's time for a change Tucson isn't bashful. Deciding that their past benefits needed new life, the alumnæ researched several ideas and picked a winner . . . sponsoring a Cleveland Indians Spring Training ball game. Kappas met with the Tucson Baseball Commission and the Cleveland representatives to decide policy for this first-time event. The alumnæ were allowed to sell general admission tickets prior to the game, publicize the event and received 20% of any ticket that was used. (They received 100% of the tickets purchased but not used). All members were sent 10 tickets and members of the local philanthropy, The Pima County for Retarded Children, helped in the additional sale of tickets. Everyone pitched in the day of the game, actives, husbands, as well as alumnæ, sold concessions at the ball park. A grand total of $1700 was earned for philanthropy, an outstanding success.

Tucson, Arizona alumnæ members, husbands and children and active members of the chapter at the University of Arizona, joined to make a money maker a success. (Top) Last minute pointers are given to Ann Johnson and Marsha Fishburn by Diana Baum, all  $\Gamma$  Z-Arizona actives. (Center) Pete Williams, a former Cleveland resident, bats some ball for Indian pitchers Sonny Seiber and Bob Allen. (Bottom) Bobbie Jo Vest Falk,  $\Gamma$  Z-Arizona, and husband James, visit with Betty Proctor Leiber,  $\Gamma$  Z-Arizona, and husband Henry, prior to the start of the game.

This is the way Phoenix did it

"Buffy," 9 year old Anissa Jones, of CBS Television series Family Affair was flown to Phoenix for a special appearance at the annual Kappa benefit Fashion Show Luncheon last spring. The models for the show, children of Scottsdale and Phoenix alumnæ members paraded fashions for Easter.

A check for over $1,000 from this fourth annual event was presented to the Arizona Pre-School for Retarded Children.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Phoenix and Scottsdale alumnæ groups aid the Pre-School annually, sewing, donating toys, stamps, clothing, providing refreshments and favors on "special occasion" days and holidays and spending time weekly, working with the children in the school as aids to the teachers and the director. These groups also help Kappa scholarship funds.

"Buffy," Anissa Jones of CBS Television Series Family Affair, models one of her Spring fashions at the annual Kappa Kappa Gamma Fashion Show in Phoenix. This whimsical a-line of cotton poplin has panels of aqua, yellow and pink plus a pineapple hat.

The Phoenix Gazette

Kappa Kitchens were busy during Fashion Show time, while Kappa children posed proudly in Easter fashions. Mac Horner, son of Darlys Barry Horner,  $\Gamma$  Z-Arizona, models a white linen Eton suit. The Easter Bunny cake was baked by Darlys Horner. Amy Black, daughter of Suzanne Scholl Black,  $\Delta$  A-Penn State, models a lace trimmed embroidered organdy dress and bonnet. Suzanne Black made the Chocolate Easter Egg pictured with "KKG Benefit." Janet Jones Hill,  $\Gamma$  Z-Arizona, baked and decorated the Easter Hat Cake.

Graduate Counselors

The oldest and most vital of Kappa's scholarship aid programs is that of the Charlotte Goddard Graduate Counselor Scholarships. Not only does it provide the opportunity for fine students to pursue their studies, but it also strengthens every chapter which is fortunate enough to have a counselor with them for a year. It is a beneficial experience for everyone concerned and is an essential factor in maintaining the high level of performance in all of our chapters. Experience has proved that Kappas who have been graduate counselors become strong and loyal alumnæ, providing Kappa leadership wherever they may live. There is an increasing awareness on the part of our alumnæ groups of the value of this program. It is hoped more alumnæ groups will direct their gifts to Graduate Counselor Scholarships. Those who gave this year are:

Indianapolis, Indiana, $300
Miami, Florida, $250 in memory of Elizabeth Ballard Dupuis, P⁴-Ohio Wesleyan Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, $350
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, $100
Pittsburgh South Hills, Pennsylvania, $200
Westchester County, New York, $300

In Philadelphia they had a "Kappa Karousel"

The Philadelphia Alumnæ Association's "Kappa Karousel" proved to be the highlight of the year. Jane Averill MacDonald, Γ Δ-Purdue, was chairman of the luncheon and fashion show which featured yellow and green carousels as decorations. The First Lady of Pennsylvania, Jane Davis Shafer, Γ P-Allegheny, was honorary chairman, and the wife of the Lieutenant-Governor also attended the party. Proceeds were used for a Graduate Counselor Scholarship.

Philadelphia's "Kappa Karousel" committee members are left to rt.; Gay Chuba Barry,  $\Delta$  A-Penn State; Jane Averill MacDonald,  $\Gamma$   $\Delta$ -Purdue. Seated Jane Davis Shafer,  $\Gamma$  P-Allegheny, honorary chairman and Ann Lutz Shirtz,  $\Gamma$  II-Alabama, Association president.

Graduating Kappas interested in applying for a Graduate Counselor Scholarship should contact Mrs. Wiles E. Converse, 83 Stoneleigh Court, Rochester, New York 14618 as soon as possible and no later than February 1. Maximum scholarship covers tuition, board and room.

Chapters interested in having a Graduate Counselor live with them, should, likewise, apply by February 1. The chapter is responsible for the room and board for the graduate counselor.

1968-69 Graduate Counselors

This year four chapters will have Graduate counselors living with them. The counselors are: Mary Lou Lehman, Γ P-Allegheny to B Υ-West Virginia; Jane Morrow, E E-Emory to E K-South Carolina; Fern Murray, Δ Φ-Bucknell to Δ Ξ-Carnegie-Mellon and Lois Nagorski, K-Hillsdale to Δ K-U, of Miami.

Mary Lou Lehman served her chapter as public relations chairman, treasurer and second vice-president. On campus she was active in many organizations which made it possible for her to be tapped for Cwens and  $\Pi$   $\Gamma$  M. She was secretary of K  $\Delta$  E, on the staff for the college newspaper, The Campus, faculty assistant in the English department and an aide for the Admissions office. She is working toward her Master of Arts degree in the field of English.

Jane Morrow is working toward a Master's Degree in the field of Education. She served as treasurer and first vice-president of her chapter. The Atlanta Alumnæ Association awarded her the "Key" for the girl who contributed the most to her chapter and campus. On campus she was vice-president of Women's Government, publicity chairman for the Student Senate and a member of the Emory Women's Chorale. She has attended two Fraternity and one province convention.

Fern Murray was membership chairman and first vice-president of her chapter. On campus she was on the Dean of Women's staff and served as a head resident. She was vice-president of her dormitory both freshman and junior years and served on the Women's judicial board. She was on the Dean's list all four years. Fern is working toward her Master's in Literature.

Lois Nagorski is pursuing graduate work in the field of child psychology with special emphasis on treatment of emotionally disturbed children which is in the Special Education Department. She served her chapter as cultural chairman, membership chairman and Panhellenic representative. She received the Province Director of Chapters award for the outstanding active in her chapter and the Active Attitude Key. On campus she was a student guide, Mentor, treasurer Panhellenic Council. She tutored at the local Youth Home for dependent children. Lois has received a Hillsdale Academic Scholarship and Hillsdale College Leadership Scholarship.

Graduate Counselors Fern Murray, Jane Morrow, Mary Louise Lehman and Lois Nagorski visit while attending the Training School for Field Secretaries and Counselors at Fraternity Headquarters in August.

Rehabilitation scholarships

Thomas Carlyle wrote, "The great law of culture is: Let each become all that he was created capable of being." Kappa Kappa Gamma supports this law by its two-pronged program of Rehabilitation Services. Local alumnæ groups and undergraduate members offer their services to hospitals, schools, agencies or rehabilitation centers in their own communities.

The second part of the Rehabilitation Services program is the providing of scholarships to young women who are training as professional workers in the various rehabilitation fields. These scholarships, made possible by gifts from alumnæ groups to the Educational Endowment Fund are awarded to Kappas and non-members on both the graduate and undergraduate level.

It would be impossible to estimate the scope of the influence that has been exerted over the past 16 years during which Kappa has awarded 121 scholarships in the field of Rehabilitation. Our scholarship recipients and those whose lives they have influenced are now teaching literally thousands of students, serving in hundreds of hospitals, doing research in laboratories all over the world, answering the needs of society in countless ways and places.

Such projects have resulted in full scholarship Name Award gifts for the coming year from the following:

Cleveland, Ohio, $500
Cleveland West Shore, Ohio, $600
Dallas, Texas, $500 in honor of Louise Little Barbeck, Γ Φ-Southern Methodist, Fraternity President
Detroit, Michigan, $500 in memory of Marian Ackley Chenoweth, B Δ-Michigan Kansas City, Missouri, $1,000
North Woodward, Michigan, $500
Richardson, Texas, $500
San Francisco, California, $350
Toledo, Ohio, $1,000
Westchester County, New York, $500
Indianapolis, Indiana, $660

Equally important and appreciated were thirty-five additional gifts, from the smallest of $5 to the largest of $200 from Essex County, New Jersey. These were combined and made possible the granting of four scholarships by the Fraternity. Added to the Name Awards, this allowed a total of 16 awards this year which we are proud to present.

Both graduate and undergraduate Rehabilitation Scholarships are handled by the able chairman, Agnes Park Fausnaugh (Mrs. Hal A.) P<sup>Δ</sup>-Ohio Wesleyan. Applications for either type of award should be in her hands before March 1. Her address is 20126 Westhaven Lane, Rocky River, Ohio 44116. Income for these awards comes from gifts and bequests.

It's style showtime in Toledo

Another such success story comes from Toledo Alumnæ Association who began producing their Style Show in 1953 in collaboration with Saks Fifth Avenue of Detroit. During the last 16 years they have donated nearly $20,000 in funds to local and national rehabilitation.

One of the magnificent settings planned and executed by Toledo Kappas and their husbands for the annual Saks Fifth Avenue Style Show. This was the first of the big money raising projects which were earmarked for Rehabilitation scholarships.

Kansas City helps rehabilitation

At one of the Kappa alumnæ meetings in Kansas City, Mrs. James Matthews, a teacher at the Kansas University Medical Center Pre-School for the Deaf, and a pupil, visit with Martha Galleher Cox, Director of Philanthropies; Jannie Thomas Barron, Θ-Missouri 1967 Holiday House tour chairman, and Jane MacGee, Γ Φ-Southern Methodist, "Night Cappers" chairman.

Kappas of Kansas City, Missouri have supported Pre-School for the Deaf at the Kansas University Medical Center for 16 years with money and volunteer help. The sixteenth annual Holiday House Tour provided $4,600 this year for the Pre-School, a Rehabilitation Scholarship, and a Centennial gift. Members of the committee display the handmade gift articles which were sold at the Tour homes to help swell the profits. This is just one of many success stories which Kappa alumnæ are making possible.

Some of the Kansas City alumnæ responsible for the success of the Holiday House tours: Carol Klecan Clark,  $\Gamma$  A-Kansas State, Ann Pate Stevens,  $\Theta$ -Missouri, chairman Jannie Thomas Barron,  $\Theta$ -Missouri, Audrey Hansen Langworthy,  $\Delta$  Z-Colorado College, and Betty Smith Beachy,  $\Theta$ -Missouri, president.

1968-69 Rehabilitation Scholars

Alice Anne Burke

Kansas City, Missouri Alumnæ Association award for $1000

This grant was awarded for summer study at the New York Institute for Rehabilitation Medicine to Alice Anne Burke,  $\Gamma$   $\Delta$ -Purdue. # Undergraduate scholarships

wenty-seven girls have been granted Undergraduate Scholarships of $250 for the 1968-69 school year. These are girls who have maintained a "B" scholastic average, have been contributing members of their respective chapters, and demonstrated leadership on the campus. They have earned at least part of their college expenses. For each girl, a scholarship helps lighten her financial burden, thus enabling her to devote more time to study, to Kappa, and to her campus. By providing these scholarships, our alumnæ are making a vital contribution to our active chapters through these fine young Kappas. We salute the donors of this year's Undergraduate Name Award Scholarships

Akron, Ohio Ann Arbor, Michigan Arcada, California Austin, Texas Agnes Guthrie Favrot, B O-Newcomb Fort Wayne, Indiana Fort Worth, Texas, 2 scholarships in honor of Beta Xi actives and Epsilon Alpha actives Hinsdale, Illinois Indianapolis, Indiana, in memory of Elizabeth Bogert Schofield, M-Butler, former Fraternity President La Grange, Illinois Lexington, Kentucky, in honor of Curtis Buehler, B X-Kentucky Long Beach, California (1966-67 gift awarded this year) Madison, Wisconsin New Orleans, Louisiana North Shore Long Island, New York North Woodward, Michigan, 2 scholarships Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Salem, Oregon San Mateo, California Ruth Kadel Seacrest, 2-Nebraska South Bay, California Southern New Jersey Washington, D.C.-Suburban Washington (Maryland), 2 scholarships

For information about undergraduate Scholarships, write Dr. Susan Rockwood, 614 Garrod Lane, Oxford, Ohio 45056. Dr. Rockwood is a member of B P<sup>3</sup>-Cincinnati. All applications for Scholarships should be in her hands by March 1. Funds for these scholarships come from gifts and bequests which are supplemented with the interest from the Endowment Fund.

Kappas have devised unique ways of raising funds for these awards. The New York City Alumnæ Associations and the Oklahoma City Alumnæ Association are two of many groups who have provided an Undergraduate Scholarship for several years. This is how they did it this year.

New York's "Beer and Skittles"

Carol Feld, B  $\Sigma$ -Adelphi, president of the New York Alumnæ Association, presents skittles game to representatives of Bellevue Hospital, one of four city hospitals to which the games were given.

New York City Kappas donned their mini-skirts for "Beer and Skittles" in an English pub in merrie midtown Manhattan.

"If you've never heard of skittles, then you've never been to England, and if you've never been to England, you'd better pawn your key and hustle right down to your neighborhood BOAC man," New York Kappas were admonished early this year.

Fortunately, pawning their keys struck Gotham sisters as a bit disloyal, not to say inadequate. Those who weren't planning a trip to the Motherland (and a few who were) cashed in, instead, on "Beer and Skittles for a Sunday Afternoon."

Skittles, in case you don't know, is the grooviest game imported colony-side since tea parties. Serve it up with beer on a Sunday afternoon, and you've got a philanthropic happening that will add to your charity coffers like nothing short of a royal donation.

Of course, it helps when your president's husband owns an English pub in the heart of merrie

Manhattan, and F.A.O. Schwarz, the world's largest toy store, is donating the games.

Nonetheless, for their spring fund-raiser, New York Kappas donned their mini-skirts and beads, collected their mates and chums and made for The Tom Jones and an afternoon of skittles. Entrance fee: $5 a head.

In the end, 20 skittles sets (they retail for more than $10) were donated to the children's wards of four New York City hospitals. The rest, along with a "basket of cheer," went to the top skittles-scorers of the day.

To quote Charles Dickens (Pickwick Papers): "Life isn't all beer and skittles, but beer and skittles . . . form a good part of every . . . education."

And this year, a good part of the New York Kappas' scholarship fund. What could be more educational than that?

Oklahoma City's play house

In Oklahoma City, an A-line Play house, built by a local homebuilder with a "Better Homes and Garden" design, provided a net profit of $750. The lucky winner was a Kappa new in the community, mother of three little boys. The Association was divided into teams for selling tickets, the competition was keen, and the results sparked enthusiasm in the group all year.

Emergency scholarships

mergency situations which must be dealt with enter every life. Through the generosity of alumnæ, Kappa has been able to help many fine students face such situations. This year, 31 undergraduates received Emergency Scholarships, and others will be granted through the year as the need arises. We are proud to list the alumnæ groups and individuals who have given full Emergency Scholarships:

Baltimore, Maryland Buffalo, New York Cleveland, Ohio Columbus, Ohio, $300 Dallas, Texas, 2 scholarships Dayton, Ohio Detroit, Michigan East Bay, California, $100 in memory of Ruth Stevens Huckse, Γ Δ-Purdue Lafayette, Indiana La Jolla, California Los Angeles, California Jean Dickey Marantz, X-Minnesota, in honor of her mother, June Clarke Dickey Reed, X-Minnesota Memphis, Tennessee in honor of their Tricentennial celebration Northern Virginia Palo Alto, California, in memory of Susan Louise Dyer, B H-Stanford Piedmont-Carolina, North Carolina Portland, Oregon Richardson, Texas, in memory of Jean Grumme Budd, I-DePauw Spokane, Washington, in honor of Margaret Paddock Davenport, F F-Whitman Seattle, Washington St. Lawrence, New York Toronto, Canada Tulsa, Oklahoma

In Indianapolis it was the Ann Zinn Nicely Fund

Kappa sisterhood at its best was displayed by a group of Indianapolis alumnæ who have established a memorial scholarship fund out of which one Emergency Scholarship has already been given, and many more will follow. It was in August of 1966 that these enterprising young alumnæ embarked upon this venture in memory of Ann Zinn Nicely, PΔ-Ohio Wesleyan, their dear friend and loyal Kappa. They formed a corporation, secured tax exemption, and went to work. Within a year and a half $4,717.83 had been raised and turned over to the Fraternity for investment, earnings upon which will furnish scholarships of the future.

It wasn't easy, but it was fun and very rewarding. Profits from the Indianapolis Alumnæ Association dinner dance brought in $1,250.27.

A garage sale netted $478. Profit from a theatre party was $287.50. A cheese and wine tasting party added $86. The balance came as a result of letters sent to the friends of Ann Zinn Nicely.

Sending out letters for the Ann Zinn Nicely lund are three members of the board of directors, Nancy Gloin Arbuckle,  $\Gamma$   $\Delta$ -Purdue, Ellis Kurtz Gery,  $\Upsilon$ -Northwestern, and DeAnn Moore (non-member).

Indianapolis out-of-state and Indianapolis lota alumnæ groups join in help to the Ann Zinn Nicely fund with proceeds from a garage sale. Working on the project are Polly Shipley Crafton,  $\Gamma$   $\Omega\text{-Denison}$ , Joan Dillon Croner (president), both  $P^\Delta\text{-}\text{-}\text{Ohio}$  Wesleyan.

For information about Emergency Scholarships, write Mrs. L. E. Cox, 6210 Morningside Drive, Kansas City, Missouri 64113, Director of Philanthropies. These are awarded throughout the school year as real need arises for a member, who, if she had to leave school, would be a loss to the chapter.

The circle of giving

Should there be any doubt as to the appreciation felt by our scholarship recipients, here are excerpts from some of their letters.

"I cannot possibly express my appreciation for this scholarship. It came as such a complete relief and my parents are truly thrilled. Tuition has increased, my younger sister starts college this year, but even with my job, we weren't sure we could make it."

"Kappa has given much to me in the way of sisterhood and standards, and now this! I hope I can return the favor this year by working extra hard for the sorority and for my grades. Thank you, thank you."

"How can I thank you for this scholarship? The only way I know is to be a good Kappa and to try to make our chapter better."

"Kappa has give me so much, and now this scholarship too! She has given me maturity through chapter responsibilities, wisdom from the wonderful relationships I have had with many Kappas, and a deep, lasting knowledge of what love really is. I only hope that I may be able to guide many other girls to what I have found in Kappa."

"In 1940 I was privileged to have a Kappa Undergraduate Scholarship for one semester. This enabled me to remain in school and complete my degree without interruption.

"Ever since, I have wanted to help other Kappas this way, but felt I should do it with money I earned myself rather than from my husband's salary.

"Now at last I am beginning to be able to do this. For the second year I have donated small paintings I have done for sale at the Fort Worth Association Tour of Homes. Last year the money they brought was used for local charity. From now on it will go to National.

"Please tell Miss Clara O. Pierce I remember her personal help in the matter of my own scholarship with warm gratitude."

Rose McGill Fund

This question is asked of every Kappa. Can you spare the cost of a 6-cent postage stamp to help a sister Kappa who is in need of our consideration and help? Because every subscription sent through your Magazine Chairman or sent direct to the Kappa Kappa Gamma Magazine Agency, c/o Mrs. Orieon M. Spaid, 4440 Lindell Blvd., #1702, St. Louis, Missouri 63108, earns the money given to the Rose McGill Fund that for the last 35 years has met the needs of worthy Kappas who have had misfortunes too great for them to cope with financially. This Magazine Agency has been the consistent and largest support of the Rose McGill Fund.

Many gifts, both large and small, from individuals and alumnæ groups, are added to the funds earned by the Magazine Agency. All these generous gifts have made it possible to provide assistance to 19 members during the past biennium at an expenditure of $19,560. Let excerpts from letters of the recipients reflect what this has meant to them:

"The Rose McGill Fund has been a godsend to me during this difficult time in my life."

"... it is a heart warming example of my Kappa sisters' loyalty."

". . . a loving, helping hand during my present trouble."

"Bless you all and may I be continuingly worthy of my blessings from Kappa."

166 gifts were sent this year to the Rose McGill Fund or the Della Lawrence Burt Memorial Fund, ranging from $2 to $230. Every gift sheds a ray of light in the lives of our Rose McGill "family." For those who found it possible to give $100 or more we gratefully list this honor roll:

Columbus, Ohio $100
Dallas, Texas $111
Detroit, Michigan $160
Agnes Guthrie Favrot, B O-Newcomb $100
Ft. Worth, Texas, $205
Katharine Bailey Hoyt, B N-Ohio State $200
Indianapolis, Indiana $150
Kansas City, Missouri $100
La Jolla, California $100
Mabel McKinney Smith Luncheon Club of New York City $230
San Francisco, California $150
Westchester, New York $224
Wichita, Kansas $100

How to apply for Rose McGill fund aid

- 1. Write directly to the Chairman of the Rose McGill Fund, Mrs. Thomas Harris, 17 Mallard Road, Belvedere, California 94920.
- Any member knowing a Kappa who needs aid may write to the Chairman.
- 3. A member requesting aid who is unable, due to illness, to write directly to the Chairman, may ask an alumna in the area to contact the Chairman in her behalf.
- 4. Requests for aid must include information concerning the member's; (a) circumstances; (b) the nature of her problem; (c) her chapter and (d) date of initiation.

DEAR KAPPAS,

When you receive this issue of The Key we will be well into 1969. What does this mean to Kappa Kappa Gamma? What should this mean to Kappas everywhere? First, that we have less than a year before our 100th anniversary in 1970. Secondly, that we have less than a year to reach our Centennial Fund Goal of $500,000.00.

As we go to press, the gross income to the Fund stands at $242,700. This amount has been realized since the Fund Drive was launched in early 1967.

$178,838 has been contributed and pledged by individuals.

- $ 41,778 has come from alumnæ groups and active chapters.
- $ 13,719 has been earned from the sale of monogrammed blouses, sweaters and shells.
- $ 8,365 has been earned from interest, miscellaneous gifts and other income.

Of our more than 75,000 living members, only 5,125 have contributed with their personal gifts. This is only about 7% of our membership.

Many of the personal gifts obviously have been generous, BUT let it be re-stressed right now that gifts in any amount are welcome.

THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL KAPPAS IS DESIRED IN THIS ALL-FRATERNITY FUND DRIVE. MORE THAN THAT, IT IS NEEDED IF WE ARE TO REACH OUR GOAL IN THE FEW MONTHS REMAINING.

If you have not made a gift to the Fund, please consider doing so as soon as possible. Merely clip the pledge card on the opposite page and mail to the Chairman.

If you have made a gift, perhaps you will consider a second contribution. Quite a few members have sent additional gifts which are most welcome.

Supporting the activities of alumnæ groups which will benefit the Centennial Fund, ordering monogrammed blouses, sweaters and shells and the lovely new Centennial charms are all other means of assisting the Fund in its growth.

Kappa's goals are worthy of the support of all who claim membership. Kappa does need your help and asks for it now.

Loyally,

and Haster

Centennial Chairman

Corporate matching gifts program

Many companies participate in matching the gifts made by their employees and/or wives to educational institutions and funds which qualify as being tax exempt.

Each company has its own particular program, its own qualifications to be met and its own particular time of the year for making such contributions.

It is entirely up to the employee to make the first inquiry from the employing company if its program of matched gifts will include matching a contribution already made (or to be made in the near future) to the Educational Endowment Fund of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

This is an opportunity open to our members and their families to increase the effectiveness of their own personal gift to the Educational Endowment Fund.

Many companies believe that their own programs of matched gifts stimulate greater employee giving to educational funds, reward the institutions which have helped train present employees or will train future employees, and has a healthy effect on employee relations.

How one chapter helped

We of Delta Omega realized the importance of making an all-out effort in contributing to the Centennial Fund. With 100% approval of the chapter, we chose to forego certain social events and to be as conservative as possible in our spending. We were all pleased to find that when our books were balanced in May that there was $200 left in the treasury. With this gift, we also send our feeling that "It's not so bad pinching pennies—when it's for something worthwhile like the Kappa Centennial Fund!"

Gamma Gamma chapter had no special project to raise its recent gift to the Centennial Fund, but since Iota Province Convention was held at Gamma Gamma in 1967 and the money saved through work done by the actives was presented to us by our alumnæ in Walla Walla, we voted to use this unexpected gift as our contribution to the Centennial Scholarship Fund.

Centennial film is a must for every Kappa ow can our thousands of Kappas begin to tune in now on Kappa's Centennial?

"Keys to a Second Century"—the Centennial Film—is one answer. In sound and color, Kappas begin to get ready for 1970 and the year 2000.

"I hope every Kappa can see "Keys to a Second Century," says President Louise Barbeck, who flew to New York to put the official seal of approval on the Centennial Film before its October release.

Mr. Robert Young, whose famous TV series "Father Knows Best" continues to be shown around the world, starts off the Kappa film with a thrilling guest star introduction. You'll see the drama of Kappa's 1968 Convention. The warm brick of Kappa's imposing Headquarters glows before your eyes. Inside, you re-capture the past and live the present. Howard A. Rusk, M.D., who 16 years ago started Kappa alumnæ groups on the road to rehabilitation glory, discusses rehabilitation worldwide. You'll meet Kappa VIPS. You'll see Kappas singing Kappa music. As you watch, you'll feel pride in your own participation, today and tomorrow, in Kappa's Centennial.

For more details ask any Kappa who attended one of the 13 "sneak" prevues during Founders' Day-arranged only where Council and Centennial celebrities were speaking. Now, however, the film is off and running. You can rent one of the 12 prints by writing to UNIT NUMBER ONE FILM PRODUCTIONS, INC., 723 Seventh Avenue, New York City, New York 10019. Please send check or money order for $10.00 to cover rental costs made out to: UNIT #ONE, with your request. Allow two weeks to receive your print, with complete instructions for showing.

A chairman speaks out

The Oklahoma State Centennial Chairman, Lorna Troup Stenger, Γ A-Kansas State, states her feeling about the Centennial plans and the Fund in a recent letter to the Local Chairman in Oklahoma.

> As the drive progresses the whole Fraternity world is realizing that Kappa's success will be a tremendous assist to the entire fraternity system which is being constantly threatened. The success of the Kappa Centennial effort will do wonders to strengthen the system because we intend to use the money for wise and timely purposes . . . assisting fine girls in receiving a vitally important college education in the broad fields of rehabiltaton.

> Kappa is probably the most inexpensive and undemanding organization to which women belong. Except for the hard working officers and committee members, who are relieved periodically by new officers, most of us just attend meetings and enjoy them. Only once before, in the early 1920's, has Kappa urged an all member participation in a financial project.

Think back over the years to the many moments of satisfaction which you have had in being a Kappa. Here is your chance to express that satisfaction in a material way. Your key will shine brighter after you have made a gift to the Centennial Fund.

What a scholarship means

Please find enclosed my check for the Centennial Scholarship Fund. I would appreciate it if you would accept this as a small token of my thanks to Kappas from all over the country who helped make it possible for me to obtain my B.A. and M.A. degrees recently. I only hope that in the near future I may be able to give to Kappa 1/100 as much as she has given me in scholarship, loyalty, friendship and respect.

from a recent holder of two Kappa Undergraduate Scholarships and a Graduate Counselor Scholarship

What a scholarship means

In 1940 I was privileged to have a Kappa Undergraduate Scholarship for one semester which enabled me to remain in school and complete my degree without interruption. Ever since I have wanted to help other Kappas this way, but felt I should do it with my money which I had earned rather than from my husband's salary. Now at last I am beginning to be able to do this. For the second year I have donated paintings which I have done for sale at our alumnæ association's tour of homes. The check enclosed represents this year's sale of paintings and drawings. I hope eventually to exceed the amount on my pledge card. If I keep trying maybe someday I can paint something good enough to earn a Keystone gift! I'll keep trying.

What a scholarship means

I am paying my last two payments on my pledged Centennial gift together. This has not been easy for us struggling students, but it has been a great satisfaction to me. I certainly am proud to be a Kappa and am happy to help this way. Just last night I was appointed pledge adviser to the chapter here and am so excited about it. It's great to feel a full-fledged alum now. I only hope the pledges love being a Kappa as much as I!

Raka Ghoshal, I' X-George Washington, will be studying English Literature at the University of Edinburgh until 1971. Her address is Turner House, Pollock Halls, 69 Dalkeith Road, Edinburgh 9, Scotland.

Susan Showers Mulligan, B Z-Iowa, hopes that any of her friends visiting Heidelburg, Germany will look her up. She and her Army husband, Terry, are stationed there for two years. She may be addressed: c/o Lt. Terry Mulligan, HQ, USAREUR and 7th Army Troops, APO, New York 09102.

Bonne Emilie Butt,  $\Delta$  K-U. of Miami, is teaching second grade at Schweinfurt American School in Germany this year. Her address is c/o Department of Defense Overseas Dependent Schools, Schweinfurt American School, APO, New York 09033. Last year she was teaching at the Kadena Air Base School in Okinawa.

Penne Lee McClenahan O'Gara,  $\Delta$  X-San Jose, writes: "My husband and I came to Colombia in 1962 to teach at the Colegio Bolivar in Cali, Colombia, a bi-national school supported by both the Colombian and United States governments. After two years and one son we were employed by The Texas Petroleum Company to run a two teacher school in the Camp Velasquez. Now with our three Colombian born children we find ourselves beginning our sixth year in Velasquez.

"My husband directs the school which has about 20 to 25 students and teaches grades 3 through 8. If we have a high school student, they do their work through the University of Nebraska Correspondence course for high school.

"Until the 1967-8 term I taught kindergarten, first and second grades. This became more of a challenge as our student body began to change from United States students or of bi-national parentage to Colombian children with no English background. At this time we began to provide an extensive English learning program in kindergarten so a course typical to a California school could be followed from first through eighth grades."

It isn't often that a chapter can say that one-third of their pledge class became members of a Freshman scholastic honorary. The exception to the rule was the 1968 pledge class of  $\Gamma$   $\Delta$ -Purdue. Out of 24 pledges, eight were invited into membership in Alpha Lambda Delta. The Key salutes them and all other Kappas whose scholastic prowess has been rewarded during the past school year. The happy group includes: (seated) Ellen Ristow, Nancy Busch, Diane Crouse, Linda Newman, Christine Havens, and (standing) Claudia Sampson, Carolyn Pendleton and Audrey McElheney.

MEET THE NEW PLEDGE TRAINING CHAIRMA

Bee and Skip at a party in their honor before going East.

(Skip) who is now working on his doctorate in biochemistry at State University of New York in Buffalo. Bee is teaching third grade in Williamsville, and hopes to return to the west eventually.

She and her husband are avid ski enthusiasts and like all outdoor activities including golf and water skiing.

BERNIECE B. WHITTLESEY PIERCE, I I-Whitman, who prefers to be called "Bee," has been named Pledge Training chairman. Bee was initiated into Gamma Camma chapter where she was song leader and scholarship chairman, and later transferred to Oregon State where she affiliated with Gamma Mu chapter. There she was song leader, vice-president, and active chairman of province convention. She was graduated with a degree in elementary education.

After graduation Bee was a travelling counselor for two years, then taught in Moscow, Idaho, for one year and in Twin Falls, Idaho, until 1967. In Twin Falls, Bee was recommendations chairman for five years and was active in the alumnæ group there. She belonged to P.E.O., Chapter A I, in Twin Falls, and was chairman of the scholarship fund and recording secretary for A Δ K, teacher's sorority.

Bee was married in 1967 to Conrad Pierce

Mary Ann Malgunas, T T-British Columbia, has accepted a two-year teaching assignment in Lahr, Germany with the Department of National Defense. She will be stationed in Lahr for two years and would love to see some Kappa visitors. Her address is c/o D.N.D. School teacher, Intermediate School, 1 Wing Air Division HQ., C.F.P.O. 5000, Lahr. Germany.

Debbie Weishar, A-Indiana, (left) a junior at Indiana is studying at the University of Strasbourg in France this year under the Indiana-Purdue Overseas Study Program.

Linda Buck and Julie Wolf, both A E-Rollins, spent the past summer in Europe on a student study program.

Molly Heiner, A E-Rollins, is studying at the University of the Andes in Bogota, Colombia under the Rollins semester in Colombia program until June. She is a Spanish major and is living with a family in Bogota.

Carol and Margot Brown, T Z-Arizona, whose father taught at the U. of A.-Stanford Summer session in Guadalajara, Mexico, accompanied him and spent the summer learning Spanish, art, and folk dances. In February they will go with their father to Portugal where they will live for seven months.

Charlene Chatterton, E Δ-Arizona State, teaching is school in El Salvador, Chile. She is with the Andes Copper Mining Company.

Cathy McMillan, A Z-Arizona, after a year in Spain writes: "The importance of the year was in being, not doing. The list of places I went is long, but empty without the people that went with it." After a year of school, she spent three months traveling through Italy and Portugal and teaching the children of the Governor of Toledo.

Attending the 1968 Winter Olympics, being caught in French riots, hitch-hiking to Geneva (Continued on page 101)

Kap Pugh (right) and head cook, Mrs. Gwen Endrizzi, prepare escalloped potatoes for an evening meal while on tour.

Edited by DIANE PRETTYMAN DEWALL

@-Missouri Alumnæ editor

To Kay Koenig Pugh, Γ Γ-Whitman, and her husband Paul, their 700 children in 6 years are wonderful people. Paul, a junior high school advisor and Kay, who holds a degree in psychology are directors of the Wenatchee (Washington) Youth Circus. From a tiny beginning as after school tumbling classes, the circus is now classed as one of the four top non-professional troupes in the nation. After winter practice, the 90 young people, ranging in ages from three to seventeen years, take to the road, touring some thirty cities along the West Coast and Canada, and playing to close to 500,000 spectators. Kay, who is often called "Mama Guppo" (husband Paul is Guppo) writes that her day may "find me cooking, buying groceries (we serve as many as 200,000 separate meals a season) bandaging a hurt finger, wiping a tear, sharing a smile . . . enjoying the wonderful fellowship with these great youngsters . . . the time involved has made these 16 years so rewarding." The Pughs have three children of their own, all performers in the show. Kappa's have reason to be proud of the Pughs of Wenatchee.

Memphis alumnæ celebrate 30th birthday

ALUMNAE ENTERTAIN . . .

North Shore daughters

Kansas City actives

Actives and pledges are entertained by Kansas City alumnoe at the annual coffee: Mary Shelton, B M-Colorado, with her mother, Patricia Piller Shelton,  $\Omega$ -Kansas, and Christine Griffin,  $\Gamma$   $\Phi$ -Southern Methodist.

Dallas does it again

The Dallas Alumnæ netted $5,858 from their Holiday Homes Tour held in five outstanding Kappa homes. Members decorated the houses, baked special foods and assembled decorations and gifts which were sold during the tour. The proceeds will be used over a two year period for local and Fraternity philanthropies. During the past year alumnæ have given over 300 volunteer hours binding 5000 braille volumes for blind children. In addition $1200 in scholarships have been given to two blind young women to study their freshman year in college, and over $1500 to Fraternity scholarships and philanthropy.

Kappas are gourmets

Timbale d'Espinards, Kottbullar, and Island Avocado Aspic all attest to the culinary art of the alumnæ. The increasingly popular tasting luncheons where Kappas combine cooking skills with imaginative programs are bringing rewards to association treasuries, benefiting both Kappa and local philanthropies.

An example of this type of exciting benefit was Oklahoma City's "Ports of Call" featuring luncheon from four exotic tables, while guests viewed fashions from Van Cleef's department store. French, Italian, Scandinavian or Polynesian specialties were served to 800 women. Over 80 recipes from these countries were compiled in a blue and blue "Ports of Call" cookbook. Net result nearly $1200 for Kappa philanthropies and to the Orthoptic Clinic a part of the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation for equipment and magazine subscriptions.

"Drop-In" Los Angeles

Los Angeles also hosts a popular luncheon which in the last three years has brought over $4,000 for philanthropies. The Drop-in Fashion Luncheon Potpourri includes pre-school children in the fashion show which is put on by Kappa alumnæ. All gifts, food and equipment are donated by alumnæ. Beneficiaries of the $1500 raised this year are Fraternity philanthropies and the Child Guidance Clinic.

Anyone growing fleur-de-lis?

Elizabeth "B. L." Bemis Wylie,  $\Delta$  A-Penn State, and Linda Miller Bill, B  $\Xi$ -Texas, show plantings for sale for Richardson, Texas project.

Richardson (Texas) alumnæ have a "beautiful" project. Working with a local flower wholesaler, Kappas take orders for and deliver, any type of flower plants, whether hanging baskets or petunias. The project started three years ago in a small way, now has earned $1400. It enables the association to give two scholarsips to local high-school girls.

Program notes of note

Cleveland alumnæ were fortunate to hear James L. Startzell, Assistant Special Agent in charge of the F.B.I. at dinner meeting. . . . San Diego gathers for lunch, brings favorite dish and recipe which sells for ten cents per copy. . . . Richmond, Virginia presented "survival kits" of food to the actives at the Gamma Kappa chapter house for rush week. . . . Southern New Jersey alumnæ turned over profits of $295 from their Candle and Coffee Tea to Emergency Aid Scholarships. Group also sponsors swim party and barbecue for the Children's home. . . .

Better dental care

Corvallis, Oregon alumnæ donated $250 to the Community Dental Clinic which provides care for selected persons not able to afford dental care. The money was raised at a demonstration of Christmas ideas by Dorothy Sebree Cassill, B II-Washington, of Seattle, and sponsored by the Corvallis alumnæ. Shown with Dr. Donald Gwinner, president of the Clinic are Robena Taylor Ligon, Association president, and Frances Welch Ramsey, both F M-Oregon State.

Tossing greens in Detroit

And in Detroit, the popular salad luncheon brings alumnæ and guest together. This year a gift of an electric typewriter to the Rehabilitation Institute and gifts to Kappa Scholarships resulted from the popular event.

Gamma Gamma reaches 50

Culminating a day of activities on the Whitman campus, including a coffee hour in the morning and a tea in the afternoon, Gamma Gamma members held a banquet April 27 in honor of their 50 years on the campus.

Guests at the banquet included Miss Joan Hodgson, dean of women at Whitman, Mr. L. Earl Kennedy and Mrs. Jack McFarland, husband and daughter of toastmistress, Henrietta Baker Kennedy. Dr. Chester C. Maxey, a student at the time Gamma Gamma was petitioning Kappa Kappa Gamma and now acting president of Whitman was the principal speaker of the evening. Dr. Maxey stated that the national fraternities and sororities had made many meaningful contributions to the College but especially as a permanent growing constituency of support. He mentioned that in times of stress, particularly during the depression, members of the national groups have taken the lead in coming to the aid of the college.

The Fraternity Scholarship chairman, Marjorie Cross Bird, brought greetings from the Council and mentioned that Gamma Gamma was one of only three chapters in the country whose pledges had all made their grades for initiation at the end of the first semester. Gifts were awarded to actives with a 3. average, the outstanding freshman scholar, Tracy Peake, and the Nettie Galbraith diamond pin was presented to Nancy Priest, top scholar.

Fifty year pins were awarded by Elizabeth Peters Kirkman, alumna president to Charlotte, Margaret and Carrie Reynolds, Florence Long, Fay Hamm, and Henrietta Baker Kennedy. Mrs. Bird presented her pin to Lulu Holmes, former dean of women at Washington State University and the first chapter delegate to a Fraternity Convention. She also holds a Fraternity Alumnæ Achievement award for her many contributions to the education of women. It was announced that Miss Holmes had presented the alumnæ group a set of linen tea napkins, embroidered by her mother with blue flowers, which were used to entertain the Kappa girls in the early days of the group.

Also attending were 50 year members Margaret Helen Paddock Davenport and Nita Lohnes Frazier, of Spokane, Miriam Smith Gaiser of Vancouver, Washington, Ethel Cornwell Blankenship, of Seattle, Ruth Johnson Vann, of Yakima and Joan Acorn Vancil, of Tigard, Oregon. Dana Coleman Matthews, Γ Γ-Whitman, was the general chairman.

I really can't adequately express to you what this sympathetic program of yours has done. You have had in your Fraternity the imagination to furnish the yeast for the bread, the bread of the future. I'm sure that your example and this great program that your Centennial is going to provide will stimulate other groups to do the same. I'm sure that you're going to be little islands of infection in your campuses which will let your colleagues know what opportunities are available in this program. I'm sure the film that is being made will be helpful to you in being ambassadors for this fourth dimension that hopefully will lead to move international understanding and eventually peace.

I'd like to conclude by reading to you the creed on our own institute. I first saw this on Adlai Stevenson's Christmas card some 12 years ago. It was written by an unknown Confederate soldier and found in a little country church in South Carolina. One of our patients read it and handed it to the boy in the next bed and said, "Read this, this man is talking about us." He agreed and that night the boy showed it to his Father and he said, "Father, this man is talking about us," and the Father read it and he said, "He's talking about me, too." Maybe he's talking about you, too. The Father had this cast in bronze and it stands in the lobby of our institute where it has given great strength to troubled people, both patients and their families, through the years. Maybe sometime, when hopefully it will never be, but if you are troubled, you might read a line or two of it.

"I asked God for strength that I might achieve. I was made weak; that I might learn humbly to obey. I asked for help that I might do great things. I asked for riches that I might be happy. I was given poverty that I might be wise. I asked for power that I might have the praise of men. I was given weakness that I might have felt the need of God. I asked for all things that I might enjoy life. I was given life that I might enjoy all things. I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I hoped for. Almost despite myself my unspoken prayers were answered. I am among all men most richly blessed."

Again, in behalf of my colleagues and most especially the patients that you have provided health and better lives for during the years, our heartfelt thanks and let me say that I am awfully glad that Kappa plays on our team.

Tugenie McMahon Torgeson, T-Northwestern, is art director, illustrator and occasional writer for This Week in Okinawa magazine, "a small earnest magazine which publishes cultural and historical articles, original writing, social news and entertainment reviews." She is also designer for the Ryad Printing and Publishing Company in which capacity she devises "birth announcements, letterheads, small books, posters, and Christmas cards." She says "What leisure time remains I use for studying Japanese, taking instruction in the making of woodblock prints and getting a South Pacific tan." Eugenie's husband, Kenneth, is Chief of Military Affairs, Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, United States Army, Ryukyu Islands. Her address is HQ. USARVIS (SJA), APO San Francisco 96331.

Suzita Cecil Myers, F K-William and Mary, has just returned to the States after two fascinating years in Moscow where her husband was a Foreign Service officer. She writes: "I enjoyed teaching pottery classes (or 'how-to-throw-on-a-wheel) to the 6th, 7th, and 8th graders of our Anglo-American school-which included a large segment of African, Japanese, Thai, Indian and other foreign students, who never had encountered a potter's wheel before. In spite of a number of logistic problems (having to order weekly supplies of clay from Helsinki, Finland-since none was available locally; and not having our own kiln, we had to fire the articles at a Russian Art Institute), it was a rich and rewarding experience. The children produced some marvelous pieces, which were displayed at the American Embassy in a rotating exhibit.

Board,  $\Phi \Delta \Phi$  (French), Panhellenic president, activities chairman later president of Epsilon Zeta chapter. She served on the F.S.U. Homecoming committee, on the President's Advisory Council, on the Tally Ho staff, and was chosen for the F.S.U. Hall of Fame. She also worked as a circulation assistant in the Engineering Library. Marylee holds the NORTH WOODWARD, MICHI-GAN, ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION award.

SANDRA SUBJECT, B A-Illinois, holds the ANN AND ROBERT MORNINGSTAR award in memory of ROSE BERESFORD, sister of CLARA O. PIERCE. She is in the field of Guidance Counseling at Northwestern University. At Illinois Sandra was a member of A A A, Atius (sophomore activities) Torch (Junior women's activities honorary), Mortar Board. She held a James scholarship and was included in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She was a member of the University Concert and Entertainment Board and during her senior year was one of two students managing Star Course, an organization bringing professional concert entertainers to the campus. In addition, she was a Panhellenic representative, publicity chairman and counselor for the YWCA-YMCA Freshman Conference, and chairman of the Panhellenic scholarship committee. In her chapter she was pledge scholarship chairman, assistant treasurer, treasurer and scholarship chairman. Sandra plans to be a university guidance counselor.

SUSAN CAROL WOOLFSON, an Independent from Smith College, is completing work for her doctorate in medieval and early modern history at the University of California at Berkeley, in preparation for a career of college teaching. She graduated magna cum laude from Smith, where she was active in the philosophy and classics clubs, the chorus, and the college ushers. She held a Tilman fellowship and a Smith Club of New York scholarship, and won the history honors award. She was a Woodrow Wilson semi-finalist and was offered an NDEA award which she was unable to accept. At Berkeley she has been working as a research assistant and reader in the History Department.

ure are too great to allow centralized planning, but must instead rely on many competing efforts and plans. Just as Nature guards against the risks of life by providing millions of eggs for many species, and millions of sperm for others, it is "this purposeful duplication, this result-focused logic, this co-operative competition that is true order." 2) Since innovation is deliberate choice and we can select the desired result, it involves choosing between values—the right purposes, the right means to create the situation best suited to man's nature.

And so, in truly facing today's realities, these conclusions are inescapable: 1) that the destructive potential of our knowledge, together with our affluence and our ability to innovate, that is, plan change-all pose ethical problems. 2) that anyone equipped with knowledge and the ability to think, as is the educated man or woman, possesses so much power as to be a menace unless actions and judgments are based on moral-that is, supported by reason, consistent with Naturephilosophical values. 3) If reason, consistent with "the self-evident" truths of man's nature, is implemented in directing social, political and technological innovations, we will enter one of man's greatest eras.

This is not meant to be pictured as "heroic," or exceptional, but simply a practical day by day conduct of our individual affairs: in our work, in our citizenship, in our relationships with others, in the courage and integrity with which we make decisions. It involves using the particulars of education and experience to understand, define, and order the general, to recognize what is permanently important in man, and to use individuality in an ordered whole as a springboard for new achievements and greatness. It is this use to which we must put our knowledge and our thought. This is the moral imperative of the mind. And this is what we must be busy about!
